

Revised Constitution Offered For Student Body Approval Through Revision Committee

A.S.U.N. Meeting Holds Interest Of Entire Campus

Constitution Committee Offers New Form of Student Government

Fontana Asks More Support From Nevada Cheering Sections

By KATHRYN WARDLEIGH

Presenting an entirely new form of student government, Elbert Walker '33, chairman of the constitutional revision committee, this morning read to the A. S. U. N. assembly the completely revised portion of the present constitution. The revisions as suggested by this committee, appointed last semester by Keith Lee, student body president, are printed in the news columns of this issue of the Sagebrush.

Kathryn Ligon, A. W. S. president, presided over the meeting in the absence of Lee.

Paul Fontana, varsity yell leader, asked for more support from students in yelling at basketball games. The final home games of the conference will be played tonight and tomorrow night, and support will be needed for a victory.

Katherine McCormack read the minutes of the previous meeting, as there has been no election for secretary to fill the place of Florence Lehmkuhl, who did not return to school. Sam Arentz gave the treasurer's report.

Announcement of an exhibit to be held in the library this weekend, sponsored by the Fine Arts Club and the Women's Faculty Science Club, was read by Kathryn Ligon, who also introduced seven erring women who apologized for breaking campus rules and traditions.

After apologies, the lawbreakers endeavored to entertain the student body with a weak version of "Hail, Proud Nevada."

Ticket sale for the Military Ball, first formal this semester, to be held February 25, was announced by Gene Salet, who urged students to purchase their bids early.

Kathryn Ligon announced that nominations for the position of A. S. U. N. secretary were open, and Gene Salet nominated Helen Peterson for the office. Other nominations must be written and handed to the A. S. U. N. president before next Tuesday, and the election will be held Friday, February 10th.

After the report of the constitutional revision committee, Kathryn Ligon said there would be no discussion of the proposed changes but that, after the students had had time to give the new constitution serious thought, a "yes-no" vote would be taken March 3, for the acceptance or rejection of the new form of government.

Announcement of the revoking of a varsity letter granted to Floyd Holt by the executive committee was made by Vice-President Ligon, who declared Holt ineligible for the award because of too many years of varsity competition.

The meeting ended after the singing of the college hymn, "U. of N. So Gay," led by Phil Mann, song leader.

Pan-Hell Dance Not Hindered by Lack of Lights

Reno's sudden plunge into darkness last week did not hinder the women of the University of Nevada campus from sponsoring the traditional Pan-Hellenic dance.

In spite of the lack of heat and light, more than 100 couples attended the affair and danced by candle light. This is the first time in many years that a university dance has been held under such conditions and all who attended apparently enjoyed the novelty of the occasion.

Blythe Bulmer, chairman, assisted by Vera Zadow and Nora Gardella, arranged the details of the dance which is sponsored yearly by the women of the campus at which the men are the feted guests.

Miss Margaret E. Mack, Miss Louise M. Sissa and Mrs. Mildred Wells were patronesses during the evening. The music was by Dudley Nix's orchestra.

FROSH PADDLED

Paddlings were administered to the following wayward freshmen at 1 o'clock this afternoon: Irvin Wanke, Howard Christiansen, Robert Best, Allen Lansdon, Ellis Ceander, Carl Dodge, James McNeely, Thomas Prunty, Pierino Barenzo, Montford Word and Ross Tanahill.

Boxing has not been an official Big Ten sport since 1911.

Lehmkuhl-Hansen Nuptials Surprise College Friends

Much to the surprise of their many friends on the campus, Florence Lehmkuhl and Reynold Hansen, two former students of the University of Nevada, were quietly married at the home of Prof. R. C. Thompson January 25, Professor Thompson officiated.

Both were prominent in campus activities. Miss Lehmkuhl was secretary of the student body last semester and a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. Her home is in Pinlo, Calif.

Hansen, who captained the 1927 football team for Nevada, is from Salinas, Calif. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

The couple were attended by Clair Lehmkuhl, brother of the bride, and Alice Le Maire. They will make their home in Salinas.

Faculty Accepts Proposed Changes In Math Courses

Proposal of Dr. Wood Will Separate Liberal Arts and Engineering Courses

A plan sponsored by Doctor Frederick Wood, head of the department of mathematics, which recommends a change in the university courses in mathematics, was accepted by the engineering faculty at its last meeting and will be recommended to the university faculty some time early in February.

If the plan is fully accepted it will be incorporated in the 1933 catalog, and students registering in the fall semester will be required to work under the new system.

The plan presented by Dr. Wood proposes to do away with three courses in mathematics which are in reality reviews of high school work, and supplement them by courses of a more technical nature which will be a direct and practical aid to the engineering students. Mathematical courses for engineers and for liberal arts students will be conducted separately in order that emphasis may be placed on the particular needs of each group.

Requirements Given
The proposed plan will affect the mathematical requirements of freshman and sophomore engineers, since they will be required to take ten hours in their freshman year and six during their sophomore, instead of the eight hours each year required under the present system.

Dr. Wood feels that under the new plan the students will be able to obtain a wider understanding of the principles of mathematics as well as an aid in the practical use of these principles.

The proposed plan has been in operation in the University of Wisconsin, where Mr. Wood was an instructor for six years.

Frosh Hoop Team Meets Sparks Hi at U.N. Gym Tonight

The Frosh basketball team will meet some pretty tough competition when it plays the Sparks High School team tonight and the Susanville Junior College Saturday night. The games will be played as preliminaries to the varsity games.

The Frosh-Sparks game is due to be one of the hardest fought games of the season, and both teams are about evenly matched. Last weekend Sparks beat Lovelock by a one point margin. In previous encounters the Frosh lost one game to Lovelock and then retaliated by winning the return game. Scranton will probably start his second team and then push his regulars in if the going becomes tough.

On the next night the Frosh will play a double header when the second team plays the Susanville High School and the Frosh first stringers meet the Susanville Junior Varsity. As usual, Susanville has a strong team, and the Frosh will have to click right from the opening whistle to win. Scranton is optimistic about the results of these games and is expecting the Frosh to show up pretty well.

Last weekend the Frosh won from the Wilson Cubs 27 to 24. Previously scheduled games with Tonopah and Carson were postponed because of the snowstorm.

Book Store Closes For Semester After Rushing Business

Women to Maintain Store as Campus Fixture in the Postoffice

Closing the campus Y. W. C. A. second-hand book store for the remainder of the semester, Dortha Robertson, chairman of this activity, announced Friday that the store showed a gross business of $150 during the first three weeks of this school year, selling 96 text books, as compared to 150 books sold last semester for $200.

This activity, sponsored by the Y. W. group, has become a permanent work of Nevada's women students, and each semester students will be given the opportunity to sell or buy used text books at a considerable reduction in price.

To Be in Postoffice

New shelves were built at the beginning of this semester in the Y. W. C. A. candy booth in the postoffice room of Morrill Hall and, as a result, this space will be used every semester for the purpose of carrying on the work.

The chairman of this activity announced that there are still several students whose text books have been sold but who have failed to call for their money. These students will be paid by Miss Robertson upon demand and those books which are left in care of the Y. W. C. A. will be kept at the bookshop until next semester.

Four Undeclared In Second Week of Handball Tournery

Alpha Tau Omega, Lambda Chi, Sigma Phi, Independents Victorious

The beginning of the second week of play in the intramural handball tournament finds four teams as yet unbeaten.

The Alpha Tau Omegas succeeded in winning their game with the S. A. E. team by a close score, the full three games having to be played to decide the contest. The Lambda Chi won over the Beta Kappa and Delta Sigma Lambda aggregations by decisive scores as did the Sigma Phi over Sigma Nu. The Independents defeated Lincoln Hall and won over the Phi Sigs by default.

The teams are composed of two men from each organization although some houses have alternates. A list of the men of each team is as follows: A. T. O., Joe Kelly, Paul Fontana, Darrell Berry; Beta Kappa, Mason Myers and Dan Harvey; Delta Sigma Lambda, Reed St. Clair and Lovell Russell; Lambda Chi, Leonard Voorhis and Roland Boyden; S. A. E., Gail Parsons and Vic Carroll; Sigma Phi Sigma, Otto Cashill and Bud Beasley; Sigma Nu, Edgar Olsen, Bill Beemer and Jack Hill.

Double Elimination

The double elimination bracket system is being used by which the losers of the first games go into a different group from the winners. The winners of the two groups finally play off for the championship.

The scores for the games for the first week are:

- A. T. O. vs. S. A. E.—6 o 21, 23 to 21, 21 to 16.
- Lambda Chi vs. Delta Sig—21 to 2, 21 to 6.
- Lambda Chi vs. Beta Kappa—21 to 5, 21 to 11.
- Lincoln Hall vs. Independents—21 to 1, 21 to 11.
- Sigma Phi Sigma vs. Sigma Nu—21 to 2, 21 to 12.
- Phi Sigs defaulted to Independents.

Y. W. Officers Are Chosen at Meeting

Members of the new cabinet of the campus Y. W. C. A. were announced recently by Mary Trudelle, vice president. These include thirteen women who will have charge of eight committees, and are as follows: Betty Howell, Winifred Walsh and Mary Corecco as chairmen of the hostess committee; Dortha Robertson and Louise Tidball, finance; Myra Sauer and Juana Barber, candy booth; Wilma Chanslor, worship; Mary Louise Durke, music; Adeline Belmont, floating university; Alene Daniels, art publicity, and Florine Frank, newspaper publicity.

Wolf Pack Face Strong Fresno Aggregation In Two-game Series

Revision Committee Presents Five Major Changes for A.S.U.N.

Suggesting five major reforms, the Constitutional Revision Committee presented a revised form of the A. S. U. N. constitution to the student body at the regular A. S. U. N. meeting held at 11:25 today. The changes sought are:

1. A. S. U. N. government made more democratic through equal representation of all organizations and the independents on the proposed executive governing board, the senate.
2. Election of better qualified A. S. U. N. officers provided for through the creation of a nominating committee, so organized as to prevent "steam-roller" politics.
3. Abolition of the Desert Wolf, so as to provide adequate funds for the support of forensics and dramatics. Admission to forensic and dramatic entertainments to be by student body cards.
4. Reduction of Artemisia costs by 50 cents each semester to insure reduction in the increasingly excessive cost of the book and to provide funds for the support of extra-curriculum student activities.
5. Substitution of the class manager system, modeled on that suggested several years ago, to secure greater efficiency and reduce "petty politics."

Nevada Holds House of David To Low Score

Bearded Men Win Tilt 25-21 in Spectacular Fray Wednesday

A capacity crowd of amused spectators saw the University of Nevada Wolf Pack suffer a 25 to 21 defeat at the hands of the strong House of David quintet of Benton Harbor, Mich., Wednesday night at the university gymnasium.

Using a moving zone defense, the Benton Harbor boys had the Wolf Pack baffled. Johnston, husky guard for the bearded giants, opened the scoring with a shot from the far side of the court.

Throughout the first half, the David team used a series of intricate passes which were usually followed by accurate shots. Johnston rolled up eight points for his team before the half was over.

Bledsoe Scores
Nevada was led by Dan Bledsoe in frequent spurts through the David defense. Carroll, Nevada guard, used some of his fancy passes to good advantage and accounted for a few of Nevada's tallies.

Buchanan, stellar guard for the bearded men, gave a fine exhibition of handling and "palming" the ball. Handling the ball skillfully, he threw passes with uncanny skill. Buchanan appeared to be the star of the game. The score at half time was 13 to 7, with Nevada trailing the barber-shunners.

The final period saw the House of David leading the Pack a merry chase with only occasional outbursts of real competition. Nevada was unable to hit the basket consistently.

Harold Curran, Wolf guard, received a leg injury early in the final period and was replaced by Hackett. While in the game Curran played cool ball and displayed some fine floor work.

Adams, guard on the visiting team, led the scoring in the last half with seven points. His shots, which had little arch on them, were surprisingly accurate. White, center and only beardless man on the invading quintet, offered Mike Gould, Wolf center, plenty of competition on the tipoff.

Nevada came close to tying the score when it was 23 to 21 in favor of the David men, but lack of precision in their shots and the strong defense of the opponents squelched this. Johnston, David guard, made the last goal of the game seconds before the gun barked.

Giant Paddle Given To Men's Committee

A giant paddle six feet in length was presented and dedicated to the men's upperclass committee of 1932-33 and all succeeding committees by Keith Lee, president of the A. S. U. N., at the first meeting of the Associated Students' this semester.

The paddle, received by Gail Parsons in behalf of the committee, is to become a symbol of authority and a constant reminder to underclass men to beware of upperclass discipline, and to uphold the many traditions of the Nevada campus.

Names To Be Carved
The names of the committee, which is composed of Pat Sanford, chairman; Gail Parsons, vice chairman; Wayne Van Voorhis, Jack Reed, John Bryan, Lovell Russell, Bill Beemer, Hank Rampoldi and Mason Myers, will be carved on the paddle, along with the year of their reign.

Hereafter all upperclass committee meetings will be announced by the appearance of the paddle near the bulletin board with a notice of meeting posted on it.

Service Fraternity Initiates Men

The Blue Key fraternity honored its initiation at a banquet held last night at the Lincoln hotel in Sparks.

Those men initiated into the fraternity were Leo Nannini, Fransden Loomis, Gene Salet, Roland Boyden, Phil Mann, Oscar Robinson, Charles Nichols, Ed Martinez and Lowell Horchman, Charles Koerner, Paul Fontana, Dan Harvey and Jim Wallace.

Brawn of Literary Men to Meet Test When Staffs Clash

Artemisia Challenged to Show Its Athletic Abilities by Sagebrush

The Desert Wolf may well howl with laughter when it sees male members of the editorial staffs of the Sagebrush and Artemisia meet on the basketball floor next week to decide their superiority in athletics.

The challenge, offered by Ken Johnson, editor of the Brush, has been accepted by "Goon" Gilmartin, Artemisia chief, in behalf of his staff. No practice games are to be held before the contest, so onlookers will be assured of their full share of laughs when the "litteraries" go in for the hardwood sport.

"Shifty" McMenamin, along with "Hefty" Johnson, at forward; "Big Boy" Leonard at center, and "Tank" Bibb and "Slippery" Montgomery, giant guards, in the starting lineup, the Sagebrushers are confident of the outcome. The lineup for the Artemisians has not yet been announced.

Japanese Team to Invade Nevada Gym

Japan's outstanding basketball team from Meiji university will invade Reno February 7 to engage the Nevada Wolves in a one-game contest.

A squad of ten men, two coaches and two trainers are the full fighting force of these hardwood artists, who have been playing a barnstorming schedule throughout the United States since December 29. The game with the Wolf Pack will bring them to the half-way mark of their scheduled 13 games with American universities and club teams.

Led by their diminutive captain and forward, Yuhel Suzuki, they feature a fast and exciting type of play. Not one man on the team is six feet in height, but all of them are exceedingly fast in covering the floor, as well as being expert passers.

The Japanese team left its home December 10 and since that time has played seven games with outstanding teams, such as University of Washington, Washington State college, Montana State college and University of Michigan, as well as a number of city club teams in various parts of the country.

At the present time the basketball team is in New York after having completed its schedule in the middle west and east. The players will arrive here from the east on February 5 and will rest until the game with the Wolves. From Reno they will continue to the Pacific coast, playing Stanford and Southern California, and then to Hawaii, where three contests have been scheduled for them. The game with the University of Hawaii will complete their four months' barnstorming tour.

The squad from Meiji university is one of the best teams in Japan, since it has been the outstanding team there for a number of years. Meiji university itself has a student body of more than 10,000.

Wolves to Meet Fresno Bulldogs In 2 Fast Games

Nevada and Fresno Well Able to Provide Stiff Work for Each Other

Nevada Holds Second Place in Conference; Fresno Just Starting

By DENVER DICKERSON
Playing their first Far Western Conference game of the season, the Fresno State Bulldogs will go into action against the University of Nevada Wolf Pack in a two-game series tonight and tomorrow night at the university gymnasium.

The Fresno game has a fair record this season, winning four games and losing one in the five practice games. The Bulldogs lost to the strong Olson's Terrible Swedes, while they defeated Occidental college, California Christian and two teams in the Fresno city league.

Nevada has shown up exceptionally well by winning four games and losing none and placing herself at the top of the conference. The College of the Pacific and the California Aggies are tied for second place.

Have New Men
There are many new men on the Fresno team this year and the team is looked upon as the dark horse of the conference. The Bulldogs are led by their sixfoot-five center, "Chuck" Secrist, who was an all-state center when he was attending high school in Indiana. Secrist is regarded as one of the best basketball men that Fresno has had in several years.

Another man who will bear watching is Seymour Mathieson, captain and running guard. Besides being a good basketball player, Mathieson is one of the best punters on the Pacific coast. The Bulldogs place their scoring hopes on Nate Herman, member of last year's frosh, who has proved himself to be a wizard at lifting the basket. Chuck Barsom is another Fresno man who is handy with the ball and has a good eye for the bucket.

Gould Stars
The Wolf Pack has been led by the phenomenal scoring of Mike Gould, long and lanky center, who has been the consistent high point man in the majority of Nevada's encounters. Gould should offer stiff competition for Secrist, center of the Bulldogs.

The Wolf Pack forward, Dan Bledsoe, is not far behind Gould in scoring honors. Bledsoe is well known for his ability as a ball-hawk and his intricate methods of wresting the ball from the opposing team.

Guards Husky
Vic Carroll, veteran guard, should make it rough for the Fresno boys with his fast passes and running ability. Harold Curran, playing his second year at guard for the Pack, is an accurate passer and a good all around floor man. "Toby" Guffrey and Jack Hill, both veterans, have seen plenty of action this year, and will probably be in the lineup to face the invaders.

In looking at the records of the two teams it appears that Nevada has a slight edge, but many observers are skeptical when the names of Secrist, Mathieson and Herman are mentioned.

Rivalry Present
These games should prove to be very exciting due to the rivalry that exists between the two institutions. At one time last fall Fresno was at the point of breaking athletic relations with Nevada, but the matter was quickly healed. The preliminary game on Friday will be between the University Frosh and Sparks, and Saturday night the Frosh will face the strong team from Susanville Junior college.

The conference standing is as follows:

	W	L	Pct
Nevada	4	0	1.000
Pacific	2	0	1.000
Cal Aggies	2	0	1.000
San Jose	0	4	.000
Chico State	0	4	.000
Fresno State	0	0	.000

Pre-Meds Will Not Join National Club

Omega Mu Iota, University of Nevada pre-medical club, will not join the national medical fraternity, Alpha Delta Epsilon, at the present time, it was decided at a meeting held recently in the Agriculture building.

David Clark, president of the local club, stated that the matter of joining the national fraternity had been before the pre-medical students for some time, and that they had finally decided to table the matter indefinitely.

Plans for the next regular initiation were also discussed, and the committee to be in charge was appointed as follows: Led Nannini, Darrell Berry, Pearl Lunsford, Jack Quaid.

THE REVISED CONSTITUTION

The changes proposed this morning by the A. S. U. N. constitution revision committee are deserving of the whole-hearted support of the thinking people who make up Nevada's student body. Unbiased, uninfluenced and sober-minded, this constitution revision committee has recommended the adoption of a new set of governing rules for the University of Nevada student body that are meritorious of careful consideration. Their adoption would constitute a long step forward in democratic government.

The first change, and most important step toward eliminating any shadow cast upon an office because of ruthless "steamroller" politics, would have a government controlled by a representative senate, together with a president and vice-president, who are not chosen by the trading of votes as in the past but on their respective merits.

Thinking students know that a limited aristocracy rules and governs the affairs of the campus. This aristocracy is limited to those people who affiliate themselves with fraternities and sororities, and number about 450 students. On the other side of the invisible line are another 450 students, approximately, who are on the complete outside because they do not choose to belong to these groups. There is about $18,000 in student fees disbursed during each university year, and includes $20 from each matriculate. However, half of the student body has neither representation nor anything to say about where and how this money shall be spent. The representation as provided in the new constitution, though, is not yet equally proportioned. However, the initial start has been made toward organization among the independent students, and it is to their further advantage if they complete the organization.

The second change embodies a nomination committee. By making use of such a committee an accurate record is kept of each outstanding student on the campus, in the way of activities. By this means it is possible, through the use of these records, to eliminate and weed out all of the undesirable material for important student offices. It also provides competition, which in turn causes incentive, for individuals to seek the higher positions. By the time such machinery is in operation two years, a higher caliber and more efficient man will be sitting in the executive office. Through the operation of such a committee there will never be the situation on the campus which was manifest last year, when there was no opposition for major student body offices due to the feeling that no one could win because of politics. This in itself should be argument enough to adopt this portion of the new constitution.

For the last three years business conditions all over the nation have been such that there have had to be places where cuts were able to be made. The campus is no exception. The time has finally come that there no longer is room for the Desert Wolf. It is true that this publication is the only one at the present time that is above board financially. However, this can be explained by the attitude of downtown merchants when they are approached for advertising. They would much rather support a quarterly university publication, which comes out every three months, and do this dutifully, than help one that is more demanding. If the present standard is to be maintained by the Sagebrush and the Artemisia, the Wolf must be set aside, for the present at least. Both editorial and business staffs of this publication will be welcome additions to either the Sagebrush or Artemisia.

In the past each student has given four dollars of his student fee to the publishing of the Artemisia. This entitled the student to one copy of the book. However, this did not complete the purchase of the book. According to the number of organizations he or she belonged to, an additional 50 cents was added for each picture. In addition to this, there was an extra assessment added to the house bill to pay the cost of having its panel in the book. By the time the expenditures were totaled the book cost each student between five and six dollars. It is true that this money was expended for a book that would do credit to an institution five times the size of Nevada. However, the facts must be kept in mind, and a sensible attitude must be taken by the readers of the book or the oncoming years are going to find it more out of hand than it is at the present time, simply because each succeeding manager and editor must outdo the preceding editor and manager in putting out the book. By reducing the cost by one dollar, it does not mean that the quality of the book must be reduced one-fourth. The best quality is obtained for three as well as four dollars, only there'll not be so much of it.

Class elections and class officers have long been a sore spot in the present electoral system. There is absolutely no use for three of the four officers elected at the present time to govern each class in the school. Minutes were never kept by the secretary, there was never any money to be guarded by the treasurer, and the vice-president never had to take the office of president. As a result there are no justified reasons for these offices. The only times when the class as a whole are ever called together, with the exception of the seniors, is when there was to be a new election, and at such times it was usually rearranged just who was to fill the office. By adopting the class manager system the business of the classes will be run on a more efficient basis, and as a result there will be less incentive for the petty politics that have ruined any honor that might have been connected to the office.

The situation which the A. S. U. N. now faces is that either the students will take control of their government as a unified group or a majority of students, through their petty ambitions and enmities, will decide that this set of rules should not be adopted. If the latter course is taken and the proposed constitution in its entirety is turned down, then the only salvation left is for the administrative heads of the university to step in and take control of affairs that rightfully belong in the jurisdiction of the associated student body.

Wolf Howls

By WALT HERZ It is hard to believe what a little word can cause in the lives of the wise men. Take Ed Montgomery's scathing editorial of last week for instance. The professors have all brought their Big Bens from home to warn them in time to break off lectures before bells ring to close the class hours. Not one word is spoken after the jingle, unless the attitude of students appears favorable, and only then with much apologizing. Student rights! That's the thing we should stand up for. The new constitution should include provisions to protect us from the oppressors. Imagine being held in surveillance for a minute and a half over time. The old maestros don't realize they are retarding the advance of youth. Ever onward and upward, that's us!

If anyone tells you any scandal they saw at the Pan-Hell, they lie. Nobody saw anything, which was lucky for the butter fingers who dropped and broke his lamp oil bottle in the northeast corner. The darkness brought relief even from the time-worn trade lads on how-lovely-your-hair-is - fixed - tonight, or other mechanical compliments. The candlelight jig brought an idea for a cartoon: Miss Mack and Miss Sissa seated on the sidelines of a dimly lighted cavern, wrapped securely in their robes, and staring at hideous red devils who bob to and fro in the Dance of the Mariners. Out with the brush, Mariani!

Dud Nix, who can think of the best ways to advertise his dance enterprise, took no chances of being unprotected if a brawl ensues at the Country Club. He has deputized 200-pound Ole Theis as a bouncer. Go ahead, throw the furniture around if you like.

What this campus needs is more yokels like Fred La Marsa, although a bit more gentle. He can always be counted on for the bright light in any dull gathering of collegians who take themselves too seriously. And can he do a Phil Harris, in all the best places, too.

Comes the official word that Louise Sourvine has broken her engagement with Perry Wagner, or didn't you know they had been engaged? You'll have to watch the papers more closely.

According to the way the A.S.U.N. meeting of today was ballyhooed, it seemed for a while that we were going to have to wear steel vests and tote the old forty-four. Boil the whole situation down and it is the battle of the ins versus the outs, as usual. It is a wonder they didn't take an advance straw vote on the disposal of the Desert Wolf.

W. A. A. Renews Membership With National Group

Threefold Purpose Set Forth by Organization for Associations

W. A. A. of the University of Nevada has again renewed its membership with the Athletic Conference of American College Women. This organization sponsors a convention each year with representative delegates from all colleges belonging to the conference. Mary Trudelle, president of W. A. A., attended the last conference.

The national A. C. A. C. W. fosters and contributes to the state organizations through this conference and smaller state conferences, and also through a news letter published three times a year.

The December newsletter sent to W. A. A. contains items of novel and interesting sports conducted at other universities. The hare and hound chase, a tradition of Santa Barbara State college; a "splash party" of swimming competition at Minnesota, and a high school play day in the form of a rodeo and roundup are among the features of the December newsletter.

A threefold purpose is set forth by the organization for forming of women's athletic associations in all colleges that are coeducational or for women only, the unifying of the separate organizations into the national and the betterment of women's sports.

BURNING OVEN
STEAKS COOK BUT THE MAN LIVES!

ILLUSION:

One of Napoleon's soldiers rose to fame on the "Burning Oven" trick. A roaring fire was built in an oven... the temperature rose to 600° F. Into the oven walked the "fire king," M. Chabert, carrying several raw steaks. A few minutes later the doors were flung wide and out he stepped... safe and sound... with the steaks thoroughly cooked.

EXPLANATION:

Heat rises. When Chabert entered the oven he hung the steaks above the fire, in the center of the oven, then dropped to the floor at the side, covering his head with a hood made from his shirt. He breathed through small air holes in the floor. When the steaks were cooked he threw back the hood, grabbed the steaks, and stepped out in triumph.

It's fun to be fooled... it's more fun to KNOW

"The Burning Oven" is an old illusion which has played a leading rôle in cigarette advertising. Its modern name is "Heat Treatment."

EXPLANATION: All cigarette manufacturers use the heat-treating process. Cheap, harsh, raw tobaccos require intensive processing under high temperatures. The more expensive tobaccos, which are naturally mild, call for only a moderate application of heat.

The first Camel cigarette was manufactured under the heat-treating process. Every one of the billions of Camels produced since has received the necessary heat treatment. But remember that heat treatment never makes cheap, inferior tobacco good. It is not in heat treatments, but in more costly tobacco and fine blending, that Camels find their appealing mildness and flavor.

It is a fact, well known by leaf tobacco experts, that Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand.

You sense this quality in the mildness... the distinctive flavor... of Camels. More costly tobaccos and a matchless blend tell the story of Camel leadership in public confidence.

Try Camels. Judge them critically. Compare them with others for mildness, for throat-ease, for good taste. Key your taste to quality! Camels come to you fresh and cool... in the air-tight, welded Humidor Pack that keeps dryness outside and freshness inside.

Former Librarian Returns to Take Up Work at Nevada

Joseph Layman Says It Feels Good To Be "Back in the Old Traces"

Once again at work in the library which for 22 years was under his direction, Joseph D "Daddy" Layman, emeritus librarian of the University of Nevada, says it seems good to be "back in the traces."

"Even though I am about as low as I can get, I am perfectly contented," Layman stated. The aged librarian, hair whitened during 41 years of constant service in his profession, is now in the basement stock room, operating the book-lift.

Comes Voluntarily
Layman, who voluntarily came here from the coast, where he was in retirement, to offer his services, free, to the university during its period of financial difficulties, is residing at Lincoln Hall.

When asked if he were comfortably located among his younger companions, he replied, "Perfectly. I have a room by myself and am perfectly satisfied. And I like the bunch."

Layman intends to remain at his present duties probably two and possibly four years, depending on conditions of the state and university. He will receive no salary, other than his pension.

In 1882 Layman's parents came west from Iowa, traveling in a wagon train. The family passed through Carson City when the future librarian was less than a year old, and settled in San Francisco.

At Nevada in 1907
Graduating from the University of California in 1888, Layman took a teaching job for a few months. This he resigned to take up the duties of first assistant librarian at his alma mater, a position he held until 1907, when he came to Reno as librarian of the University of Nevada.

Layman since that time has seen Nevada's university grow from an institution consisting of two or three buildings to its present size. His library was first located in the basement of Morrill Hall, but was in 1913 removed to the present Hall of English. In 1927 the new library building was erected for the now "grown-up school."

Upon being pensioned in 1929 Layman moved to San Francisco. He has five sons, all of whom have attended the University of Nevada.

Sororities Offered Chance to Exhibit Stage Talents

The six national sororities on the campus have been afforded the opportunity to compete for a $20 cash prize for the best skits presented each Tuesday night beginning March 7 at the Roxie theater.

Campus Art Club Plans Free Exhibits

The Fine Arts Club of the University of Nevada will start this semester with three free exhibits, all to be held during the month of February, according to Oscar Robinson, organizer.

The first exhibit will be held at the Reno Twentieth Century Club some time during the first week of February, and will compose a showing of about seventy-five pieces of modern pottery, representative of each state in the Union. This is one of the finest collections of pottery in the United States, and is coming to the Fine Arts Club from Washington, D. C.

The next exhibit will probably be in one of the rooms of the University of Nevada library and, at this time, a number of the more important and famous French paintings will be shown.

A tour of the world in twenty water colors will be the third exhibit sponsored by this club. The exhibits have been painted by Willis Church, son of Dr. J. E. Church Jr. of the University of Nevada.

So far the date for the last two meetings has not been decided upon, but when it has a notice will be put up on the bulletin board.

There will be no intercollegiate rowing of the state, as announced by the Uniting events which will take teams out of the University of California, with the exception of the annual competition with the University of Washington.

There are other good cigarettes, of course.

TO TELL you that Chesterfield is the only good cigarette... that the makers of Chesterfield Cigarettes are the only ones who can buy good tobaccos and manufacture cigarettes scientifically... would be nothing short of foolish.

For all tobacco is sold in open auctions—where anyone can buy if he will pay the price. Even the machines on which different cigarettes are made are alike.

This much, however, is true: By using the right kinds of Turkish and Domestic tobaccos in just the right proportions... by blending and cross-blending them together in the most careful way... we make Chesterfield what smokers say it is... a cigarette that's milder, that tastes better. Just try them.
