Coach Roy Baker Leads Wolf Pack In Routine Work

New Uniforms Are Ordered
For 1935 Wolf
Squad

Junior College Men Bolster
Nevada's Backfield
Material

Drug stores did a rushing business in liniment, arnica, and rubbing alcohol this week as forty-five would-be gridlers nursed sore muscles and aching backs, a result of a week of limbering up on Mackay field under the critical eye of Train Roy "Bullet" Baker.

Baker in Charge

Baker took charge of the squad the first part of the week, and lost no time in preparations for putting his men in first class condition for the first game on September 29, with St. Mary's. His present training schedule for the candidates is a two-lap trip around the oval, followed by strenuous drills to limber up muscles stiffened by a summer's work.

The members of the 1935 Wolf Pack resembled chorus girls more closely than plodding football players as Baker put them through their paces. However the new assistant coach and trainer has had plenty of experience in the grid game in keeping athletes' muscles supple, and with the aid of the prevailing warm weather will probably have the men in excellent shape when C. L. "Brick" Mitchell, head football coach, takes over the squad Tuesday.

Squad Working

Baker has also been keeping his charges busy with punting, passing and receiving, stressing lateral passes. Most of the boys showed bad cases of "butter-fingers" the first two days, but are soon being accustomed again to handling the ball. When "Brick" takes over the team, the real work of learning formations and of plays, and drills in fundamentals will commence.

That the lateral pass will probably see considerable use in the Nevada attack this season is evidenced by the time now being spent by Baker on that phase of offense.

"Touch-tackle," a popular variation of football in which physical contact is placed at a minimum, and in which lateral passing is stressed, has occupied a great part of each daily training period.

Considerable speculation is now under way concerning who will be occupying the center position when the season opens. The vacancy left by the graduation of Tom Cashill, veteran drop-kicking center, will be hard to fill. Baker has been having several men working out so far at the pivot post.

Ward Is Elected Freshman Manager

Herbert Ward, freshman student from Las Vegas, yesterday was elected manager of the freshman class in one of the cleanest elections ever to be held on the Nevada campus. No political work by members of the various social organizations on the campus was in evidence.

Ward defeated Hudson Lee of Panaca on the second ballot, totaling 75 votes to Lee's 48.

The meeting opened with Carl Dodge, student body president, in charge, and four candidates were nominated for the office. On the first vote, Ward received 42, Lee 45, Leo McCuddin 24 and Claude Silverwood 3. Dodge pronounced Lee the new freshman manager, but a motion for a vote on the two highest candidates was made by a member of the class, Ward being elected on the final vote.

In a statement to the class, Ward thanked the students for the support given him, and pledged himself to work for a successful year for the university and for the class.

Student Leaders To Be in Office

Carl Dodge, student body president, and Robert Creps, graduate manager, today announced that they will hold regular office hours during the year. Creps will be in his office daily from 11 a. m. to 12 m. and from 2 to 5 p. m., while Dodge will be in his office daily from 2 to 4 p. m.

WOLVES' TRAINER

Roy F. (Bullet) Baker, who was recently appointed assistant athletic coach and trainer at the University of Nevada.

Enrollment Total Nears High Mark

Largest Class of Freshmen in History of College Registers

Augmented by the largest freshman class in the history of the university, prospects for an enrollment of approximately 950 students were envisioned yesterday by Dr. Walter E. Clark, president of the university.

By last night, 900 students had completed enrollment while 924 cards were out. With registration not scheduled to close until September 17, enrolling late enrollments are expected by Clark to raise the total enrollment close to the 950 mark.

Out of the 900 students registered so far this term, there are 382 freshmen, 223 sophomores, 153 juniors, 83 seniors, 20 graduate students, 25 unclassified and 14 specials. The number of men registered total 534, while women registered total 366.

At the same time last year, according to Clark, 866 registrations had been completed, while 911 cards were out. Complete enrollment figures for the last fall term were 938.

Chances that the enrollment during the next few years might pass the all-time record of 1105 set in 1930-31 were forecast by Clark last night. If the enrollment gains at its present rate during the next few years, Clark said, it is very possible that the enrollment will be well over the 1100 mark by 1938. Business conditions of the state will have much to do with this, he added.

42 Tryees Reply To Sagebrush Call

Editorial Department Proves To Be Most Popular For Tryees

The "Call of the Sagebrush" for new members in every department was met and answered by a veritable horde of aspirants.

Thirty men and women declared their intention of trying for positions on the editorial staff of the university's weekly publication at Tuesday's meeting. Six men signed up, as potential members of the business staff, and six women chose the secretarial staff as the field of their endeavor.

Tryouts will be held open for those who were unable to attend the last official tryout, and the tentative closing date has been set for the third week in September, when the names of the new staff members will be announced.

Tryees to date for the editorial staff include: William L. Leach, Margaret Rives, Mary Handley, Helen Shovlin, Leo McCuddin, Margaret Hickey, Harold White, Stanley Netherton, Jeanette Hayden, Alice Sauer, Lois Miller, Mildred Hayden, Pat Lannon, Robert C. Miller, Geraldine Westfall, Dolores Saval, Barbara Smith, Kathleen Hansen, John Kenens, Rosalys Martinez, Beverly Joyce, Frank Stout, Dick Taylor, Perry Carlson, Don Kinkel, Ben Rotholtz, Wilson Rebaletti, R. J. Scott, Nina Boezkiewicz, Harry Mornston and Frank Zadov.

Those trying for positions on the business staff are: Ben Rotholtz, Martin Smythe, Hudson Lee, Kelly Eccles, Robert Joy, and Jim Sullivan. Secretarial staff tryees are: Betty McCuiston, Joyce Dodge, Catherine Armstrong, Barbara Bryant, Billie Geyer, and Betty Blum.

Senate Appoints Activity Leaders At First Meeting

Doan, Leavitt Given Place On
U. N. Publication
Committee

Action on Homecoming Board
Deferred to Next Meeting

Convening for nearly three hours in its first meeting of the semester, the A.S.U.N. senate last night appointed several important committees, but failed to reach an agreement on selection of the important Homecoming Day men's and women's upperclass committees. Appointment of the latter groups will be made at a special senate meeting next Thursday night.

Charles Leavitt, senior student who has been active in journalistic work, and Eleanor Doan, women's editor of the Sagebrush, were appointed to the powerful publications board which elects the editors and business managers of the campus newspaper and the yearbook.

Ray Armstrong, who was a member of last year's high school student body president's convention committee, was selected by the senators as chairman of the committee this year. The remainder of the committee will consist of Joe Kelly, Evamae Beemer, Kay Norrid, Margaret Piercy, Louis Nash and Willis Dalzell. The senate voted to hold the convention this fall in conjunction with the high school editor's convention instead of next spring.

Other committee appointments were as follows: Chairman, Walter Stees—Elwin Jeffers, nominating; Walter Stees, Robert Butler, Opal Harvey and Elizabeth Juniper.

Executive committee—Leland Fife, Opal Harvey and Robert Butler. Elizabeth Juniper, senior student, was named secretary to the A.S.U.N. and the senate, and Tom Morris, representative from Lincoln Hall Association, was chosen to represent the senate in the Rally committee.

The following students were sworn in as new senators: Robert Neilligan, Alpha Tau Omega; Leland Fife, Sigma Nu; Mary De Armond, Beta Sigma Omicron; Margaret Peirce, Gamma Phi Beta.

Board Proposes Building Program

Four Buildings May Be Built
If Legislature Grants
Approval

Construction on the campus of four new buildings, proposed this summer and approved by the state PWA planning board, will be held up pending action by the state legislature.

Action by the state law-making body is necessary since the university is not authorized to issue bonds required to secure the federal loans, according to officials.

Barring a special session of the legislature, action on the matter is not possible until the regular session, a year from next spring.

Government funds allotted the university under recent legislation include a $20,000,000 yearly fund for resident teaching, granted all land-grant colleges.

New buildings suggested for the campus and recommended by the state planning board are an Arts and Science hall, a Civil and Hydraulic Engineering building, a Student Union building, and a university hospital. No mention of a new gymnasium was made.

An estimate of the cost of the structures has not been made and none will be available until architects are requested to prepare plans for the buildings.

The proposed Arts and Science hall would be erected on the present site of Stewart hall. The civil and hydraulic building would be situated east of the present engineering block on the campus across the Orr ditch. Power for the proposed engineering structure would be obtained from the ditch.

A new student union building, if constructed, would be placed on the vacant lot south of the gymnasium and across from the Education building.

Magazine Plans Made by Harwood

Plans for the next issue of the Alumni magazine are well under way, according to Professor Paul Harwood, editor. Staff meetings have been held this summer, and copy is being accumulated gradually for this year's magazine.

This will be the second issue of the magazine, and will appear sometime during the spring semester of this school year.

Quail Returning To Winter Home On U. N. Campus

The prospects for a successful crop on the unofficial U. N. quail farm are quite promising. "Dad" McFadden reported yesterday. A number of birds have already taken up residence in the refuge near the tennis courts, McFadden said.

The majority of the quail, usually numbering 1500, will arrive just prior to the first snow storm. Their arrival is an unfailing forecast of snow weather, according to "Mac" and may be used as a reminder for Nevadans to investigate the condition of their sheepskins.

"The quail are unusually tame this year," "Dad" said. "They follow the line of feed that I put out to almost speaking distance."

Inter-Frat Council President Resigns In Note to Dean

Pressing Business Is Given by Rhodes as Reason for Action

New Head Will Be Elected at Meeting of Group
Next Monday

Bryce Rhodes, president of the Inter-Fraternity, today handed his formal resignation from that office to Dean R. C. Thompson, faculty advisor to the council.

His action confirmed rumors which were prevalent on the campus during the past week. A new president will be elected next Monday, it was announced today.

Pressing school work and other business were given as reasons for the resignation by Rhodes.

"The presidency of the Inter-Fraternity council is a very responsible position," Rhodes said, "and I regret that I will not be able to continue in the office."

"The council faces one of the best years in its history," he continued, "and the president must be able to spend much time on the job. Rather than do the work haphazardly, I have decided to hand in my resignation."

Dean Thompson said last night that he was "very sorry that Mr. Rhodes has felt it necessary to resign. He is very capable and the council will miss his leadership."

Rhodes, who is president of the Sigma Nu fraternity, will continue his school work, intending to graduate next spring. At present, he is also employed by the Crown-Zellerbach Paper corporation in Reno.

Kenyon Richard was elected representative to the council from the Sigma Nu fraternity at a meeting of the organization held early this week.

Nevada Graduate To Lecture Here On Electricity

Experiments with High Voltage Apparatus will be the topic of a lecture to be given on the campus Wednesday, September 11 by Dr. Lloyd Smith, assistant professor of physics at Cornell University.

Dr. Smith is a graduate of the University of Nevada and a member of Phi Kappa Phi. He received his Ph.D. degree at Cornell in 1930 and held the National Research fellowship for a year at the California Institute of Technology, as well as the International Research Fellowship at Munich, Germany, and Utrecht, Holland, in 1932.

Although Dr. Smith's lecture is intended primarily for students in electrical engineering, it is a subject of general interest to the public and a large crowd is expected.

Pep Organization Elects Officers

Election of officers was held by the Sagers, men's pep organization, when it met last Wednesday. Louis Weiner was elected vice-president and Emilie Gezelin, secretary.

The president was elected last spring, while the vice-president and secretary were not chosen until this week.

The Sagers plan to put up posters on the campus to remind students of the big game between St. Mary's and Nevada the 29th of this month. A big rally is scheduled before the game, at which the Sagers will act as police, wearing their new blue sweaters with the white insignia. The members will also usher at the football games.

BOOTH TO STAY OPEN

Arrangements to keep the Y.W.C.A. candy booth open daily from 9 a. m. to 12 m. and from 1 to 2 p. m. are underway by Manager Verla Champagne.

Adult Education Program to Open On September 12

Series of Lectures Scheduled
For Term by Faculty
Committee

University Heads to Discuss
Everyday Problems
In Talks

A new venture, in which a series of lectures dealing with social science subjects is to be given over a period of several months, will be launched by members of the faculty next week.

President Clark will open the course to the public with an introductory lecture next Thursday at 7:30 p. m., in the auditorium of the Education building. Each week thereafter, a subject pertinent to the problems of everyday life will be discussed by a member of the faculty.

Clark explained that this new step is an attempt to make the University of Nevada more useful to the public of Reno and vicinity. As this is purely an educational project, no admission will be charged.

Vice-President Maxwell Adams is chairman of the committee directing this series of important lectures, which will be given until the end of March, 1936.

Plans are being undertaken to broadcast a short, fifteen minute speech, embodying the highlights of each lecture, over radio station KOH before each lecture. Professor Stanley Palmer is now negotiating with the station for broadcasting time and hopes to complete arrangements for the first in this series by early October.

The schedule for the first semester, with the subject and speaker, is as follows:

- Sept. 12: Introductory Lecture—President Clark.
- Sept. 19: Biology and Religion—Dr. Frandsen.
- Sept. 26: Religion and Mental Hygiene—Dr. Young.
- Oct. 3: Religion in the English Poets—Mr. Hill.
- Oct. 10: Religion and Art—Dr. Church.
- Oct. 17: Philosophy and Religion—Dean Thompson.
- Oct. 24: Religion and the Problem of Evil—Dean Thompson.
- Oct. 31: Nevada History—Dr. Wier.
- Nov. 7: History: Conflict of National Policies Among the Great Powers—Dr. Hicks.
- Nov. 14: Political Science: Domination of the President—Prof. C. C. Smith.
- Nov. 21: Economics: Obstacles in the Way of Recovery—Prof. Sutherland.
- Dec. 5: School Finance—Dr. Tranter.

Frolic Tryout Call Issued by Miller

First Practices for Show
Scheduled to Be Held
Next Week

Scheduling chorus girls tryouts for September 10, 11, and 12, and feature act tryouts for September 17, 18, and 19, William C. Miller, dramatic coach announced that the annual Wolves' Frolic would definitely be produced this year.

The chorus girl's unit will be under the direction of Miss Ruth Ryan, who was in charge of the chorines in last year's show.

Anyone who can sing, dance, play musical instruments, or do other specialty numbers is urged by Miller to report to the tryouts. Fraternity, sorority, and other campus organizations are urged to enter skits.

"These skits," Miller added, "must be suitable for a mixed audience."

Lindsay Green, veteran play production manager has been put in charge of the Frolic, while Morgan Mills has been appointed to stage manager. Tryouts for stage crew will be announced at a later date.

Band Honorary Starts Activity

Delta Delta Epsilon, honorary band fraternity, last night held their first dinner-meeting of the year at the Toscano hotel.

After the dinner a short business meeting was conducted by Morgan Mills, president. Discussion centered around the recently revealed proposal to send the U. N. band to the St. Mary's game. Plans to make the venture successful were brought up and ideas to assist in securing student body support of the trip were discussed.

Those present at the meeting were Morgan Mills, Darrell Cain, Rev. F. D. Graves, Lindsay Green, Murray Moler, Professor Theodore H. Post, Ed Barrett, Hal Lang, Al Manhan, and Murray English.

Reno Businessmen Unite in Send-Off

TOASTMASTER

T. L. Withers, Reno attorney, will act as toastmaster at the football luncheon scheduled for Tuesday. Withers is active in civic affairs, and has shown considerable interest in the university.

Artemisia Head Holding Tryouts

Eighty-Five Students Seek
Positions on Staff
Of Yearbook

Demonstrating an almost unparalleled interest in student publications, and old students flocked to the Artemisia tryouts last Tuesday.

To date, about eighty-five students have signed up as potential members of the annual publication's extensive staff, with tryouts being held open for those who will undoubtedly register in the next week or two. This number represents only those trying for positions on the editorial staff.

The associate editor, two assistant editors, and twelve of the department editors have been named from among the old members of the Artemisia staff, who, by virtue of previous experience, have qualified for these positions. Thirty-two staff members have been chosen from the long list of new aspirants, and others are to be named within the next two weeks.

Three-Act Play Chosen by Miller

"Both Your Houses" Planned
As Major Production
Of Term

First of a series of three-act plays presented annually by the Associated Students of the University of Nevada will be "Both Your Houses," Maxwell Anderson's Pulitzer prize winning play of 1933. If approved by the finance control committee, the plays will go on the boards December 3, 4 and 5.

Tryouts for the various parts in the play will start immediately after the Wolves' Frolic. The play which is a comedy satire calls for three women and thirteen men and all but first semester freshmen women are eligible for tryouts.

William C. Miller, dramatics coach who will direct this play, said that the author of "Both Your Houses" is one of the best known playwrights in America today. Among Anderson's successes are "Elizabeth Queen" and "What Price Glory."

MANAGES RESTAURANT

Jack G. Davenport, ex-'34, is now assistant manager of the State's restaurant in San Francisco. Davenport attended Nevada from 1930 to 1932 and was a member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

Football Luncheon To Boost Wolves Set for Tuesday

Reno Service Clubs Join to Give Group Pack
Send-Off

Mitchell and Baker Scheduled
To Speak to Reno
Businessmen

Reno businessmen and members of seven service clubs will meet next Tuesday noon at a get-together luncheon to help generate enthusiasm for the coming football season.

Members of the alumni associations from the University of California and Stanford will also be represented at the gathering. While similar luncheons have been held before this is the first time that these two groups have joined in a University of Nevada pep rally.

The Washoe County Bar Association is expected to attend in full force, as Tuesday is the regular meeting day for the association. The Reno Chamber of Commerce, Nevada Retail Merchants Association, and the Rotary, Kiwanis, Lions, and 20-30 clubs will also send representatives.

Coaches to Speak

The Wolf Pack will start active practice on Tuesday, and Coach C. L. "Brick" Mitchell and Roy F. Baker, assistant coach and trainer, will both be present to speak on the prospects of the season to be faced by the Pack beginning with the game against St. Mary's on September 29. This luncheon will also mark Baker's first meeting with downtown Reno residents.

Special entertainment for the luncheon may be provided by "Brick" Morse and his California Collegians, if plans being made by the organization heads materialize. Morse and his orchestra and male chorus are fulfilling an engagement at a Reno theater beginning September 9.

Withers Toastmaster

It is expected that the session will arouse a great deal of enthusiasm, with speeches being presented by outstanding members of each service club and by members of the football team. T. L. Withers will act as toastmaster.

Arrangements for the luncheon were made by heads of the various Reno service organizations and by Robert Creps, graduate manager at the University.

Interest Aroused

Interest in the university eleven has been steadily growing both in Nevada and on the Coast as a result of St. Mary's defeat by Nevada last year. The Wolf Pack meets the strong St. Mary's team in the opening game of the season at Kezar Stadium in San Francisco on September 29, and predictions have been made that it will draw as large a crowd as any game during the entire Coast season.

U. N. Radio Talks To Be Continued

Because of the favorable comments made by the townspeople on the University of Nevada Faculty Radio Series given last semester, plans are being made for a continuation of the broadcasts this year, Professor Stanley G. Palmer, head of the Radio Series committee, announced yesterday.

"No definite time will be set for the beginning of the series," Palmer said, "until the Daylight Saving Time schedule at the local station is discontinued."

"It will probably be sometime during the last week in September before the final arrangements have been made," Palmer added.

The committee on the Radio Series consists of four members of the faculty: Professor Stanley G. Palmer, chairman; Dean Maxwell Adams, Professor A. L. Higginbotham, and Professor J. A. Carpenter.

Campus Players Outline Program

Meeting Wednesday for the purpose of outlining their program for the coming semester, the Campus Players decided upon and made arrangements for a skit in the Wolves' Frolic. This skit will be under the direction of Evelyn Semenza.

Lindsay Green, president of the Organization, announced that plans were made for a social meeting to be held in the near future. He also announced that new members would not be elected until after the first play.

Financial Reports Are Accepted by Finance Control

Publication Budgets Receive Temporary Approval From Board

Student Finances for Year Are Discussed at Meeting

Finishing old business carried over from last year and taking up problems of the current year, the finance control committee met in the first session of the year Wednesday afternoon.

Budgets for the 1935-36 Sagebrush and Artemisia were accepted for approval by the committee and will be acted on in executive meeting in the near future.

Robert Creps presented the audits for last year's Sagebrush and Artemisia and gave a report on the surplus carried over by the publications. The audits were accepted and a vote of thanks tendered the editors and business managers for a most successful year.

It was decided to reconsider the rule passed last year to give life passes to all games to student body presidents and yell leaders. This will be taken up in a future meeting.

Approval was expressed by the committee of money for the new furnace installed in the A.S.U.N. building during the summer. A new time clock will be purchased for starting the furnace in the morning and shutting it off at night.

Coaches and trainers will be asked to keep a close watch on athletic injuries this year and will be required to report all injuries to the finance control committee at once, it was announced. A registered physician will be present at all home games under the new rules.

A financial report on the Blue Key get-together dance revealed a profit of $172.50 of which the A.S.U.N. will receive eighty per cent or $137.80. The remainder of the money will go to the Blue Key society.

Funds to send two official and one unofficial representative to the Far Western conference meet in Sacramento were approved. Prof. Paul A. Harwood and Coach J. E. "Doc" Martie will be the voting members while Prof. F. W. Wilson will also attend.

Dean Thompson Explains Council Pledging System

"A step that will do away with many of the misunderstandings and difficulties of pledging and which will help fraternities to organize their members more quickly after the rushing season than in the past," was the way Dean Thompson described the new system of recording pledges both in the dean of men's office and in the fraternities.

Each student who signifies his intention to become a member of a fraternity, must sign a pledge card with the president of the fraternity, who files it with the dean of men. If he wishes to drop his pledge to a particular fraternity, he must consult Dean Thompson, who makes an investigation into the pledge's reason for his action, financial or otherwise.

"Some students in the past," Dean Thompson remarked, "have abused the pledging privilege by promising to join two or three different fraternities at the same time. Difficulties arose when different fraternities claimed the pledge. Feelings were hurt on all sides by this practice. We hope to correct this situation and make for better understanding among everyone."

College Romances End in Weddings

Many prominent University of Nevada students and graduates were married during the summer months this year.

The marriage of Sallie Fagan, Kappa Alpha Theta, and Bruce Gould, Alpha Tau Omega, was one of the first to take place. The ceremony was performed by Father J. J. Rowe on graduation day. Betty Howell and Elmer Hawkins were attendants. The young couple will reside in Adela, Cal.

Katherine Nichols, Kappa Alpha Theta, and Walter Bell, Lambda Chi Alpha, were married May 29 at a home wedding. Rev. F. C. Murgotten performed the ceremony and Frances Nichols and Roland Snyder were attendants. The couple will live in Reno.

June was the most popular month for weddings with the following taking place:

On June 1 Alice Lunsford, Pi Beta Phi, and Dr. Louis Lombardi, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, were married. Dean Bayard H. Jones officiated with Mrs. Ethel Lunsford Frost and John Martin Fulton as attendants. Lombardi is a graduate of St. Louis' School of Medicine as well as of the University of Nevada. They are living in Reno.

Katheryn Wright, Kappa Alpha Theta, and Walter Mattson, Lambda Chi Alpha, were married in Reno June 2, with Elizabeth Carpenter and Fred Morrison as attendants. The couple will reside in Redwood City, Cal.

Freda Humphrey, Kappa Alpha Theta, and Donald Schyler, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, were married June 2 also. Lucille Humphrey and James Hawkins

Hall Association Elects Officers

Four girls were chosen to represent their respective classes in the executive committee of the Manzanita Hall association at a meeting held Tuesday night.

The election resulted in Bernice Lam being chosen as senior class representative; Jean Cameron, junior class representative; Helen McCormick, sophomore class representative, and Geneva-Beth Ellis, freshman class representative.

Officers serving on the committee were elected at the final meeting of the organization last year and will continue to serve throughout the coming semester. They include Opal Harvey, president; Genevieve Hanson, vice president; Winifred Hillonen, secretary and Margaret Piercy, treasurer.

The committee is the governing body of the organization and controls all associatin activities.

Election Is Held At Lincoln Hall

Tom Morris and Antone Primeaux were named as mayor and secretary respectively at the Lincoln Hall election last Friday.

These offices became vacant automatically when William F. Kotike and Terrence McGovern, elected last spring, failed to register this semester.

Morris and Primeaux are both senior students, the former also being Lincoln Hall's representative to the student senate.

Other officers, elected last spring are: Guy Morris, treasurer; George Francis, Interfraternity council, and Howard Evans, custodian.

18 in Las Vegas. Raymond McCaughey and William Gravelle were the attendants.

On June 24, Marie Henderson of Shafter, Cal., and Walter G. Reid, Sigma Phi Sigma, were married by Dean R. C. Thompson. Charlotte Wilson and James Thompson were the attendants. The couple will live in Reno.

Silvia Cowlishaw of Sparks and Paul Walker, Alpha Tau Omega, were married June 28 in Gardnerville. They are living in Reno and Walker plans to return to school this year as a senior. He is an outstanding football player for Nevada.

Mildred DeWitt, Beta Sigma Omicron, and Charles A. MacDonald of Medford, Cal., were married June 26 with Rev. Baird of the First Christian church officiating. They are living in Round Mountain where MacDonald is employed at the Sunnyside mine.

June McGuire, Pi Beta Phi, and Albert Agee, Sigma Phi Sigma, were married June 29 in Wells, Nevada. Harriet Casler and John Franklin were attendants. Both were junior students at the university last year. They are living in Cedarville, Cal., where Agee is employed.

Frederica Lippman, Delta Delta Delta, and Henry C. Lindgren of Hilo, Hawaii, were married June 12 at the Lippman home in Sparks. Rev. E. C. Sloan officiated with Betty Belle Saxton and Eugene Vinson as attendants. They are making their home in Hawaii.

Althea Shaber, graduate of the College of the Pacific, and Steven Carney, former University of Nevada student, were married in Sparks June 5 with Rev. Hugo Meisekothan officiating. The couple will live in Yerington.

Renee Duque, Pi Beta Phi, and Milton Zimmerman, graduate of the University of California at Berkeley, were married July 2 at St. Thomas Aquinas cathedral in Reno with Father J. Feixa officiating. Gladys Wittenberg and Nolan Hollowell were attendants. The couple plan to live in Elko.

Eugenie Jackson, graduate of St. Mary's-of-the Wasatch of Salt Lake City, and student at the University of Nevada, and Stephen Dubravac, graduate of the University of Nevada in 1931, were married in Philadelphia, Pa.

Nevada Sororities Entertain Frosh At Rush Parties

Preferential Dinners Are Set For September 14 By Groups
Rushing Season Will Close September 12 When Silence Begins

With the first week of sorority rushing drawing to a close, more than 60 new women students have been guests at parties varying from night club entertainments to wild west shows.

The season opened Tuesday afternoon with Gamma Phi Beta entertaining at a Chinese tea room in its chapter house on Sierra street.

Yesterday's parties were sponsored by Delta Delta Delta and Beta Sigma Omicron while Pi Beta Phi and Kappa Alpha Theta entertained the "rushes" today.

According to surveys made by the sororities and the list of eligible "rushes," this year's rushing season is the largest in many years.

All of the houses are predicted to pledge a large group of women.

Rushing will continue until Thursday with Pi Beta Phi closing the rushing season Thursday night with a party from 6 to 8 p. m.

Silence will start at 8 p. m. and continue until 2 p. m. Saturday, during which time sorority women will not be permitted to associate with "rushes."

Women who intended to pledge a sorority, will be informed by the Pan-Hellenic lawyer Saturday morning and "rushes" will make their preference before the lawyer from 10 a. m. until 2 p. m. Saturday.

Each sorority will receive a list of pledges at 3 p. m. Saturday.

Preferential dinners will be held Saturday, September 14, and pledging will be held the following Monday night.

Parties next will be held according to the following schedule:

September 7: Beta Sigma Omicron, 4 to 6; Gamma Phi Beta, 6 to 8.

September 9: Gamma Phi Beta, 4 to 6; Alpha Delta Theta, 6 to 8.

September 10: Delta Delta Delta, 4 to 6; Pi Beta Phi, 6 to 8.

September 11: Kappa Alpha Theta, 4 to 6; Alpha Delta Theta, 6 to 8.

September 12: Beta Sigma Omicron, 4 to 6; Pi Beta Phi, 6 to 8.

Math Instructor Travels in Orient

Emily Ross spent two months this summer touring the Orient, and arrived back in Reno in time to take up her duties as instructor of mathematics at the University of Nevada.

Accompanied by her mother, they visited numerous points of interest in Japan, China and the Philippines.

While in Japan, the travelers experienced real flood days during which there was no communication with the outside world.

From Yokohama, Miss Ross made the inland trip to Kamakura, where she visited the great bronze Buddha Diabutsu.

On the return trip they stopped in Honolulu and visited the volcano on the island of Hawaii.

Leaving Honolulu on the President Wilson, they landed in San Francisco August 20.

Fine Art Group Meets Next Week

The Fine Arts club will hold a meeting next week when officers will be elected and plans made for the coming year.

The club was organized primarily for women students taking an active interest in the promotion of fine arts on the campus.

Exhibits are held in the library building under the sponsorship of the group for the benefit of the townspeople and students.

Women's Society Will Issue Bids

Chi Delta Phi, women's honorary English society, will hold its first meeting sometime during the last week of September, according to Florence Gulling, president of the organization.

Bids for new members will be issued at this meeting.

Beta Sigs Move Into New House At 845 Ralston

Beta Sigma Omicron sorority has moved to the new home on 845 Ralston street, and have already set up house-keeping for the coming year.

The house, according to the girls, has five rooms and an oak paneled living room with a fireplace downstairs and six rooms upstairs.

Mrs. Lena Norton, former house mother for the S.A.E. fraternity, is acting housemother in the girls' new home.

Thirty-Eight Live In Sorority Homes

A total of 38 girls live in sorority houses this semester, a check made today indicated. This is an increase of eleven over the enrollment of last year.

The addition of the wing to the Kappa Alpha Theta house has made possible an increase of four residents.

Living at the Theta house this year are: Cornelia Arentz, Louise Emminger, Mary Eleanor Underwood, Frances Slaviv, Ruth Atcheson, Betty Jane McCulloch, Elizabeth Osborne, Suzanne Traub, Anne Gibbs, Katherine Dondero, Norma Jean Mills, Laurada Jarvis.

In comparison to six members at the Delta Delta Delta house last year, there are only five living there this semester.

Orva Selkirk, Ellen McFarland, and Beth Fredrickson are staying at the chapter house.

At Gamma Phi Beta are Eleanor Bateman, Arlene Boerlin, Georgianana Harriman, Ethel Kent, Elizabeth Naismith, Dolly Griffin, Virginia Johnson, Emmiline Christensen, and Virginia Hearne.

This enrollment is an increase of one over that of last year.

Pi Beta Phi registration has also increased this semester with nine girls living at the chapter house.

Last year there were six out of town members. The nine this semester are Harriet Caizer, Ellen Ernst, Catherine Armstrong, Carolyn Bordewich, Barbara Bryant, Amelia Zorich, Dorothy Pearce, Margaret Snyder, and Dorothy Roseberry.

Mary De Armand and Agnes De Armand are staying at the new Beta Sigma Omicron residence.

The enrollment of Artemisia hall is now the largest of several years. There are twelve students and one teacher living there as compared to nine students and three teachers last year at the hall.

Home Ec. Group To Honor Frosh

Freshmen home economic students will be guests of the home economics club Wednesday night in the Agricultural building.

Officers of the organization will supervise the entertainment and act as hostesses of the evening.

Neca Jones, president, will greet the new women.

BUS SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

The Nevada Transit company will run the University of Nevada special to school this year for Sparks students.

Two trips will be made daily from Sparks to the university gates at 7:20 and 8:15 a. m. Student rate books may be purchased.

MRS. POST RECOVERS

Mrs. Dorothy Post, wife of Professor T. H. Post of the music department, spent three weeks of the summer in a San Francisco hospital recuperating from a general physical breakdown.

She is completely recovered and will assist Professor Post in glee club and orchestra work again this year.

Council to Select Lawyer at Meet Set for Tomorrow

Five Women Are Considered By Sorority Heads For Position

Eligibility Rule Is Explained By Council President In Statement

Selection of a new Pan-Hellenic council lawyer to succeed Mrs. Scott Harrington, resigned, will take place tomorrow at a special meeting of the group to be held in Artemisia hall.

Inez MacGillivray, president of the council, announced today.

Mrs. Harrington announced her resignation early this semester, and several informal discussions on the selection of a new lawyer have been held by the council.

To be eligible for the office, Miss MacGillivray explained, the woman must not be a member of any sorority represented with a chapter on the Nevada campus.

The Pan-Hellenic lawyer acts as an intermediary between sorority members and prospective members during the rushing season, issuing bids at the end of rushing season.

Among the women being considered by the council for the office are Mrs. Yale Jewers, Miss Echo L. Loder, Mrs. J. L. Robinson, Mrs. A. E. Hill, and Mrs. L. W. Hartman.

Miss MacGillivray also announced that if the woman chosen to act as lawyer does not live close to the campus, bids to prospective members this year will be distributed at Artemisia hall.

Members of the council this year are as follows: Kappa Alpha Theta: Genevieve Wakefield, Florence Kirkley; Delta Delta Delta: Orva Selkirk, Evamae Beemer; Alpha Delta Theta: May Farman, Lucile Berg; Beta Sigma Omicron: Elma May, Margaret Lyon; Pi Beta Phi: Eunice Caton, Rita Jepsen; Gamma Phi Beta: Inez MacGillivray, Frances Burke.

Former Students Married Sunday

Elva Neddennrip and Homer Raycraft were married in Gardnerville Sunday afternoon. She was attended by Orva Selkirk, sorority sister.

Roy Bankofier, fraternity brother of the bridegroom was best man. The ushers were all fraternity brothers of the bridegroom and included Duane Mack, Robert Bankofier, George Hickey and Louis Neddennrip.

Miss Dorothea Shidler, also of Delta Delta Delta, sang just before the ceremony.

Mrs. Raycraft attended the university and served as president of Delta Delta Delta sorority last year. She was prominent in student publications and social life on the campus.

Raycraft is a graduate of the university and was a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

Honor Societies Fete New Women At Tea Parties

Freshmen women have been the center of attraction at many social festivities since the opening of school with the annual Y.W.C.A. tea opening the social season.

Nearly 100 freshmen women were entertained at the gathering, which was held in front of Manzanita hall, last Thursday. A fashion show was the attraction of the gathering.

Mary Corocco, president of Y.W.C.A., and cabinet members, were hostesses.

The Women's Athletic Association substituted popsicles at its traditional tea, and served hundreds of them to 60 guests.

Alice Lundberg, president, welcomed the new women and the afternoon was spent playing baseball, aerial dart and badminton.

The traditional Pan-Hellenic lawn tea below the tram honored freshmen women Saturday. Inez MacGillivray, president of the council, and representatives from the six sororities entertained the guests.

First Aid Course To Be Offered

A course in first aid is being offered by the women's physical education department. Miss Sameth announced today.

The course, P. E. 23, has been scheduled for Tuesday and Thursday at 7:45 and it will meet for a little over half of the semester.

There is one unit credit given and a Red Cross First Aid certificate is also presented.

Anyone interested should see Miss Sameth about enrollment at once. Physical education heads announced.

Reed Schrapps Is Married Here

Reed Schrapps, former university student, and Cliff Squire of Willows, Cal., were married Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Roeder on Gordon Avenue.

Mrs. Squire attended the university last semester and was affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

After a honeymoon at Lake Tahoe and in the Pacific Northwest, Mr. and Mrs. Squire will reside in Willows, Cal., where Squire is the vice-principal and athletic coach of the high school.

Clark's Secretary Travels in Europe

Completing a three-months' tour of England and continental Europe, Miss Carolyn Beckwith, secretary to President Walter E. Clark of the University of Nevada, returned recently to her home in Reno.

According to Miss Beckwith, the most outstanding persons she encountered were Queen Mary of England and Rudy Vallee; and of the European cities, Miss Beckwith prefers Paris, Milan, and Naples.

Returning by way of Montreal, Miss Beckwith visited Chicago and other eastern cities of the United States on her way home.

Pi Phi's Initiate Four Into Group

Four women were initiated into Pi Beta Phi sorority last Saturday morning, with ceremonies being conducted by Eunice Caton, president, at the chapter house.

The initiated, Billie Geyer, Virginia Crosby, Jessie Sellman and Jessie McClure, were afterwards entertained at the annual Pi Phi "Cooky Shine."

CO-EDS ENROLL IN BAND

Those attending concerts of the U. of N. band in the future will be surprised to see the blue and white uniforms that have been heretofore sacred to male campus musicians being worn by women.

An attempt is being made this semester by Prof. T. H. Post, head of the music department, to interest university women in instrumental music or to continue activity started previous to their college enrollment.

George Friedhoff spent the week-end at his home in Yerington.

Sagens Postpone Date of Meeting

The Sagen meeting, scheduled for Wednesday night at the Gamma Phi house, has been postponed until after the sorority rushing season, according to Betty Simpson, president.

The date for their election of officers will be set at the meeting, and plans for football rallies and for candy and ice cream sales at the games will be made.

The women students interested in trying out for this pep organization can sell ice cream at the games and tickets for the Sagens dance. Election of new members will be later on in the semester.

A NEW SERVICE

A new plan which will do much to increase the value of the university to the taxpayers of Nevada will be inaugurated next Thursday when Dr. Walter E. Clark, president of the university, will deliver the first in a series of lectures designed as part of university's adult education plan.

This series of lectures by members of the faculty who have gained prominence in their special fields will culminate years of effort on the part of the administration to bring more Nevada citizens into direct contact with the university, and at the same time it will fill a long felt want of the state in extending the advantages of the university to those who were unable to attend college.

The lectures will be divided into two parts, the first, dealing with the social sciences to be presented during the fall semester and another series, dealing with physical sciences to be given during the spring term.

But these lectures are only a small part of the extensive program which is now being planned by the administration. The radio talks which proved so successful last year will be continued, with the lectures to further the study of the subjects dealt with over the air. Another part of the plan is the extension of afternoon and night classes in subjects which prove most interesting to adults will be treated even more fully.

In starting this program, the administration is taking the first step on a plan which is as yet comparatively new to many citizens of the state, but there can be no doubt but that it will be successful.

WHAT, AGAIN?

In spite of the fact that Nevada is facing one of the most successful years in its history, the lackadaisical attitude which has characterized the campus for the past few years is again coming to the front, and a definite lack of cooperation between students and the leaders of various organizations is apparent.

Several student organizations scheduled meetings during the past week, yet in most cases it was necessary to postpone the meetings because of poor attendance. Two attempts to hold meetings of the Inter-Fraternity council were made, but it was necessary to postpone them. Another meeting has been scheduled for next week, but whether it will be held on schedule is still a matter of doubt. The Press club, Omega Mu Iota and other organizations have also been forced to call off meetings when members of the organization failed to attend.

The cause of this can be expressed in a few words, "lack of cooperation," and these words express exactly what is wrong with spirit on the Nevada campus.

No president of an organization can carry out a successful program unless he has the backing of students under him, and this is true for the smallest group on the campus up to the associated student body.

In the past the old cry of "combine politics" has been given as the reason for the lack of cooperation, but this year this is not the case. The student body election last spring saw the end of "combine" practices at Nevada, and students should remember that the present administration is their own, not one of a select few. Taking this fact into consideration, there is no logical reason why the president of the student body should not receive the sincere cooperation of the entire campus. And as for lesser organizations, those groups elect their own officers, and it is their duty to support them.

As the 1935 football season nears, the question of "Backing the Pack," is again becoming a campus by-word, and student officers should begin immediately to start the season out right by planning for a successful season of rallies, bon-fires and attendance at games.

The graduate manager's office will start the ball rolling next week when a football dinner is held at the Century club, and, from the looks of things so far, the university will have the backing of the Reno people 100 per cent.

But from there on, the responsibility is entirely the students. The playing of a football game is only a part of the spectacle which has made college football the leading sport of the nation, with what might be called the "under-graduate show" doing much to arouse interest in games.

Organized yelling sections, snappy band music, stunts between the halves and a good show all go to make college football what it is, but during the last few seasons, these elements have been practically lacking at Nevada.

The Sagers, Sagens, Blue Key and other pep organizations on the campus are designed primarily for the purpose of creating enthusiasm for college activities, and this is without doubt the biggest "service" that any group can do for its university.

There is no earthly reason for the existence of these organizations other than for this one purpose, and unless this purpose is fulfilled, these groups have failed in their work. Then, they have no excuse for being. Presidents of these organizations have been told this before, and in a few cases these societies have been put on probation.

It is never too late to do this again, and the heads of the student government should issue a warning to the campus pep groups that unless they live up to their names, they will be dropped by the student body.

This would be strong medicine, but it has worked in the past and will work again.

Wolf Howls

Living up to our promise to gradually get all the dirt of the summer into the paper eventually, we herewith present a prize morsel on Lois (First Lady of the University) Midgley. Prexy Dodge Dodge goes traveling, but no home fires for Lois, not on your grand-mother's dead cat. Little Lois does herself up proud by going alone and doing things with a couple of the boys, including Harold Tabor and Red Ayres. Maybe it's a good thing school started so Carl can keep his eye on her.

But this is what gets us. How come Lois can keep three on the string, while J. D. can't even keep one?

"Gabby" Semenza is still looking for some eligible young freshman to take her places. Every year she looks over the new crop but they never seem to satisfy. Ah, tell her what's the reason they aren't please! her.

"Washoe County" Sibley is breaking into the dirt again. She goes out to the rodeo at Winnemucca and comes back with a couple of cow-boys—they go up to Lake Tahoe with a keg of refreshments to have a wienie roast—they hear funny noises in the trees and think it is their horses, but it was just some S.A.E.'s. We wonder if Klotzie Herz and Si Ross have ever been taken for horses before. We have our suspicions, tsk, tsk.

"Playboy" Roguin is up to his old tricks again—always trying out somebody new. This time it is Mazie—one of the misunderstood gals at the Dog House. It seems that she told him she didn't know what she was getting into when she came up here to work, and that she was just a sweet little girl from the country trying to make good in the big, bad city—and he believed it. Can you bear it, dear readers?

The competition between Walter Bowrin and John Dana for the attentions of "Prexie" Dondero is becoming too keen for us to make any predictions as to who will win it. All we can say is for gosh sake make up your mind Katie—don't keep your public in suspense any longer—and besides don't you know that you can fool some of the people, but you can't fool us.

'Tis said that Clayton Phillips spent an enjoyable week-end in Fallon taking in the rodeo and taking around Marjorie Guild, pride and joy of Mills College. 'Tis also said that a battle of words ensued when Frankie Burke, the little woman who stayed at home, found out about it. Now we know why Clayton goes away on so many week-end hunting trips. Anyhoo, the hunting in Fallon must be good—are we right Clayton?

Before you make any more remarks about being stiff, Frances Slavin, you'd better tell the campus you've been riding horseback, because who ever heard of anyone going out to the Arentz ranch, where they never drink anything but ice-tea, and coming back stiff. After all what will people think?

The Taus have finally pledged a professional "drink-or-downer" of high school fame—none other than our "Prexie" Carl's little cousin Dana from Fallon. What he can't tell some of the boys about how to spend a week-end isn't worth knowing, and what he doesn't know about women isn't worth telling. P. S. Girls he doesn't go steady!

They say true love never runs smooth—maybe that's why Virginia Johnson and Jack Becker haven't been getting along so well this semester. But then

Inter-Frat Group To Meet Monday

All members of the Inter-Fraternity council are urged to attend the first meeting of the council, which is to be held next Monday, September 9, at 4 p. m., according to an announcement made by Dean Thompson this week. "The first two meetings have had to be postponed because of a lack of members," Thompson said. "Important business is being held up, so we urge all members to be present next Monday."

again it might be because Virginia heard about Jack's engagement to a lovely miss from California. It's funny what a difference a summer vacation can make isn't it fellas?

We wonder if Prof. Murgotten grew a mustache to lend atmosphere to his French classes or if he saw Dick Powell in "Broadway Gondolier" and thought it might help his singing of foreign ditties. Whatever his reason, it beats Feemster's Russian disguise, but not by much.

"Pretty Boy" Lansdon and "King" Nelligan, the would-be adonises of the Tau house have been cutting a few fancy capers in our fair city during the recent summer vacation. If any of the newcomers to the campus find their evenings rather dull, bring a few extra dollars around to their hangout and they will more than be happy to show you a certain Center Street amusement palace that seems to be all right, at least in their estimation. And, don't forget to ask Nelligan about his claim to nobility!

They're off! The annual sweepstakes sorority derby has just commenced. All is peaceful so far—but just wait—with a majority of the houses boasting extensive interior decorating during the past several weeks, it is hard to determine at this time just which hut will do the "real interior decorating." Yes, they say the pickin's are fine this season, too.

Students rejected the Desert Wolf plan by a close margin.

S.A.E. topped the list of pledges at the end of this week with 26 new men. Phi Sigma Kappa ran a close second with 21.

Members of the Sagens, pep organization, made definite plans to handle rallies this year.

House at Swampscott, Mass., near Boston, convened September 3, and adjourned September 5, entertaining 87 delegates from the different chapters throughout the United States.

Ward left for the convention by train August 23, stopping off at Detroit to visit relatives. After the meeting he went to New York City and Long Island to visit the parents of Edmund Dumont, recently killed in an accident, and the parents of John Dana, Jerry Havens and George Steffens.

Ward is prominent in campus affairs, being president of Blue Key service fraternity and vice-president of the Inter-Fraternity council.

Dean Margaret Mack spent the summer in Los Angeles with relatives and friends.

Martie Is Chosen Coaches' Delegate To League Meet

Harwood, Wilson and Martie To Represent U. N. At Gathering

Nevada Stand Still In Dark as Calendar Date Approaches

Professor J. E. Martie, head of the physical education department of the university, will accompany Professor Paul A. Harwood to the special Far Western conference meeting which will be held in Sacramento, September 14, finance control committee decided Wednesday.

Martie was selected to represent the coaching and managerial staffs of the university. Harwood, chairman of the faculty athletic committee, will be Nevada's faculty representative at the conference.

Prof. F. W. Wilson, Jr., chairman of finance control committee, will accompany the two men in an unofficial capacity.

Special Meeting
The special session of the conference was called by Dr. George W. Graves, president of the conference and was the direct outgrowth of the withdrawal of San Jose State from the Far Western conference.

The conference delegates will attempt to determine a course of action for the various members of the league, following San Jose's action. Fresno cancelled its scheduled game with San Jose, and it is indicated that others may follow suit unless relations are straightened out.

Nevada Standing By
The stand that the University of Nevada will take at the meet has not yet been determined, but a definite decision will probably be reached next week.

There has been considerable agitation to cancel the scheduled Nevada-San Jose football game, and it is believed that this question will be discussed thoroughly at the next meeting of finance control committee which is in charge of the signing of all football contracts.

Sibley Reports Large Enrollment

Figures of registration in the College of Engineering indicate a better enrollment this year than since 1924 or 1925 when the Veterans Bureau was on the campus, according to Frederick H. Sibley, dean of the College of Engineering. At the time the Veterans Bureau was here, the enrollment was 250, which is the maximum for that side of the campus, he said. Within the next few years following the enrollment fell to about 125, not picking up until 1930, he added.

"In 1934 we had about 190 students registered," stated Sibley, "and the same amount have registered this year, but cards out indicate that about ten or fifteen more are likely to finish registration."

Definite reports will probably be compiled within the next few weeks, Sibley added.

Slight Increase In Band Reported

According to Director T. H. Post, enrollment in the university band this semester is slightly better than that of the past several years.

Several new instruments, including a baritone and several alto horns, have been purchased with student body funds and are at present available to those interested in playing them. A new uniform for Drum Major Hal Lang has also been secured and will add much to the color of the band at football games and in parades this fall.

Considerable interest has been shown in sending the band to the St. Mary's game September 27. Definite action will depend upon support given the venture by the student body.

Ross Announces Managers' Staff For 1935 Season

St. Ross, football manager, today announced his staff of assistants for the coming football season.

The following men have been appointed sophomore managers: James Hart, Charles Wheeler, and Adam Fatterson. Bill Willison, Lewis Denton, George Ardans, and Don Kinkel have been appointed freshman managers.

Ross also announced that the tryouts would be kept open indefinitely, and anyone wishing to sign up could get in touch with him on the football field any afternoon.

Reno Police Chief Issues Ultimatum To U. N. Drivers

Police Chief Lou Gammel of Reno today warned the students of the University of Nevada through Dean Thompson that reckless driving, speeding and dangerous riding habits must stop, else the law will be enforced to the limit in punishing offenders.

Chief Gammel asked the cooperation of the students in this matter, Dean Thompson said, because such practices endanger the lives of students and townspeople, and with grammar schools reopening this week, the children going to school are not safe on the streets when students disregard speed limits and all common sense in driving their cars.

Another practice that will merit a fine or a jail sentence, Thompson quoted Gammel as saying, is that of hanging on the sides, riding on the fenders and the hoods, and overcrowding of cars.

"Students should have respect for the rights of others when driving through the streets and on highways," Thompson declared. "The university officials urgently request the students to be careful and to obey the laws."

"If the students do not heed this warning," Thompson quoted Gammel further, "student violators will feel the full force of the law. There will be absolutely no favoritism shown to any violators under any circumstances."

During the past week, the police department has clamped down on student traffic violators, with several being fined for speeding.

Sports Schedule To Be Arranged

Athletic managers of the eight fraternities, Lincoln hall, and the Independents will meet in Coach J. E. Martie's office next Monday afternoon at 3:30 p. m. for the purpose of drawing up the intra-mural program for the coming semester.

The schedule will contain the dates of the various sports to be held this semester, and various rules governing the playing of these sports will be discussed at this time.

The intra-mural sports program for this semester will include volleyball, basketball, cross-country run, and horse shoe doubles and singles.

Creps to Handle Publicity Bureau

An extensive program of publicity for the University of Nevada will be handled this year by Robert Creps, graduate manager, through the university News Bureau, which distributes advance publicity for all of Nevada's football games.

This year the News Bureau is incorporated with the graduate manager's duties and will be handled by Creps.

Publicity for Nevada's game with St. Mary's will be handled in advance by Creps, who will leave for San Francisco about September 26. This year, arrangements are being made through local service clubs to have a special train, with reduced rates for students, for the St. Mary's game, Creps stated.

Pictures of Nevada's football team are being taken this week and will be distributed before each game to local, state and coast newspapers.

While in San Francisco, Creps will check gate receipts with officials at Kezar stadium, as this year Nevada is receiving a percentage basis of the gate receipts and not a guarantee, as in years past.

Another feature of the publicity program will be the broadcasting of all Nevada football games over KOH, local radio station. Telegrams to the Associated Oil Company were sent out this week to make arrangements for the broadcasts.

Articles of interest to state papers will be introduced this year and Creps believes that this plan will instigate a higher interest throughout the state in what students are doing at the university.

Tryouts for positions on the News Bureau's staff will be held this week.

Nevadan Attends Sigma Nu Meet

Leland Fife, representative of the local chapter of the Sigma Nu Fraternity to the national convention of the group held at White Sulphur Springs, Va., from August 23 to 26, returned last Saturday to Reno after the conclusion of the four-day conference.

During the convention, a pilgrimage was made to Lexington, where a tablet was dedicated to the Sigma Nu Fraternity at the Virginia Military Institute, where the fraternity was founded in 1869.

English Major Teaches Fencing

Private lessons in the art of fencing and sabre drill will be offered to University of Nevada students beginning next week, according to William Granger, major in the English army who, in company with a lady assistant, will direct the classes.

Granger, who arrived in Reno last spring, has spent most of his life in the English army, serving with the 17th Lancers in Africa, Egypt and in Europe.

Cups Are Placed In Trophy Case In Library Hall

Nine cups, symbols of Nevada victories, now grace the new trophy case dedicated to the university last year by the class of '35.

The case stands at the foot of the main stairway of the library and is six feet wide and the same distance in length, and is finished in dark mahogany to match the woodwork of the room.

Among the cups housed by the new case that have been won by Nevada in the preceding years, the oldest is the trophy won by the Class of '06, for having been the winners in the inter-class debating contest.

The largest cup in the entire collection, the Far Western conference track championship trophy, was won by the University of Nevada track team for three consecutive years, and became a permanent possession of the university at the end of the third victory in 1928.

Two small cups are also on display that have been won in recent years, the 1932 Far Western football championship, and a cup won by the junior varsity whites by conquering all opposition in the Reno city basketball tournament in 1934.

Fall Track Call Issued by Martie

University of Nevada fall track men will be given a chance in the near future to work off surplus weight accumulated during the summer, since J. E. Martie, director of physical education has announced that all students who have signed up for credit in this work are to report on the Mackay field oval next Monday, and every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday thereafter.

The course will terminate late in November, and all students will report for each session, if they wish to receive credit in this course, Martie said.

HAS BANK POSITION

Donald Brown, a member of the Class of 1934, received employment recently with the First National bank of Reno. While at the university he was prominent in campus activities, and was affiliated with Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity. After graduating from the University of Nevada, Brown attended Stanford for a year.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

Roy Scott, '39, of Eureka, Nevada, is recovering from an appendectomy which he underwent at a local hospital Friday morning.

He was admitted at the University hospital Thursday evening, and was later moved down town where the operation took place.

Scott is enrolled in mining engineering and is affiliated with Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity.

According to coast sport sheets, the Nevada-St. Mary's clash on September 29 will hold the top spot in the nation's opening grid games. On the basis of the interest now centered on the game, Kezar stadium will be jammed to the aisles.

A strenuous workout marked assistant coach and trainer Roy Baker's initial appearance on Mackay field last Tuesday. Kicking practice, touch tackle and callisthenics filled the first day's practice.

The Pack will be strengthened by the transfer of three junior college men and the return of Vernon Tapogna, veteran wing-man of last year.

The Gaels will be out for blood to avenge the last-year licking handed them by the Wolf Pack. Numerically speaking, Nevada will be on even terms with the Gaels who have a squad consisting of only 47 men, their smallest squad in many seasons. However, Madigan will have plenty of experienced material on hand with 14 returning lettermen, including the veterans, Erdelatz,

Edward "Slip" Madigan has been with St. Mary's for ten years and has managed to chalk up a record of 81 victories out of 103 games played. The Moragans have never been defeated by more than two touchdowns during the last 10 years of Madigan's reign and have piled up a grand total of 1,930 points to their opponents' 510.

In the Far Western conference, the spotlight is turned on Fresno State. Last year the Bulldogs swept everything—football, basketball, track and tennis. If advance dope means anything the Staters will be stronger than ever and expect to again annex the conference football championship. Coast writers pick Fresno to give the big guns of the Pacific Coast conference many a headache.

Down at Davis was witnessed one of the largest turnouts on the coast, with more than 100 grid aspirants answering Coach "Crip" Toomey's initial call. At that rate the Aggies will prove a tough hurdle for any team.

Bay region grid enthusiasts are writing an All-American ticket this season for "Madcap Mike" Bacciarini, backfield ace of the U. S. F. Dons. Local fans will have a chance to see this triple-threat star in action when the Dons invade Mackay Field on October 12. Nevadans will probably be reminded of the football performance provided by "Twinkle-toes" Donadio and big Bob Kleckner when the Dons appeared here several seasons ago.

Cleaner Politics Urged by Jeffers In Yearling Bible

New Features Are Introduced In Handbook to Aid Freshmen

New Students Are Required To Purchase Books For Reference

Encouraging the freshman class to take an active part in the new campus movement for cleaner student government, the 1935-36 frosh bible went on sale last week and by the end of the week more than 200 copies had been sold, it was announced by Elwin Jeffers, editor of the book.

The crusade for cleaner government is discussed by Carl Dodge in his speech of welcome, while Catherine Dondero, A.W.S. president, appeals to the freshmen women students to participate in student affairs and take an active interest in their student government.

"Wolf Wisdom," one of the most popular sections of the Bible, has been re-vamped and reminds the yearlings that they are welcome to all senate meetings and also suggests that they start to work now for scholarships.

The section dealing with campus traditions also necessitated revision because of the many changes and abolitions brought about by last year's student body. Compelling of "Frosh" men to wear "dinks" during their first semester, restricting mustaches to seniors, and allowing only upperclassmen to use the front steps of Morrill Hall, are among traditions dropped from the book.

Editor Jeffers has conveniently placed the current football schedule at the front of the book, believing that it is one of the things uppermost in the minds of the new students.

Under the section on general information the committee has added a full page of new Nevada yells, in order that freshmen may familiarize themselves with them in the near future.

The revised constitution of the A.S.U.N. supplants the old one which appeared in the 1934-35 edition of the book, and the constitution of the Inter-Fraternal council, a completely new feature, has also been added.

The handbook committee includes Elwin Jeffers, editor; John Franklin, business manager, and Eleanor Bate-man, Ruthe Goldworthy and Eunice Caton, assistants.

Bible Appointed District Attorney Of Storey County

Alan Bible, graduate of the University of Nevada in 1930, was recently appointed district attorney for Storey county by the county commissioners.

Bible is affiliated with Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity. While at the university he was an honor student and prominent in college activities.

Bible secured his law degree from Georgetown University, and since his return to Reno, he has been connected with the law offices of Senator P. A. McCarran and Attorney General Mashburn.

He will succeed Howard Gray, who resigned to become assistant to the attorney general for Nevada.

Awards Made at First U. N. Meet

Presentation of organization scholarship awards for last semester and announcements of senate appointments were made this morning at the first fall term meeting of the University of Nevada student body in the Education auditorium.

Dean Margaret E. Mack announced that Manzanita hall association won the scholastic improvement plaque for last semester.

Beta Kappa fraternity was awarded the men's trophy by Dean R. C. Thompson for the highest scholastic average among the fraternities last year. The average was 2.34.

Carl Dodge, A.S.U.N. president, presided at his first meeting. Elizabeth Juniper, newly appointed secretary, was also present.

Elwin Jeffers announced that the following students had been appointed on the nominating committee by the student senate last night: Elwin Jeffers, Walter States, Opal Harvey, Elizabeth Juniper.

Herbert Ward, newly elected freshman class manager, was sworn into office by Carl Dodge.

Coach Brick Mitchell spoke briefly on the prospects of the Wolf Pack for the football season and introduced Roy F. Baker, new assistant coach and trainer.

Robert Creps, graduate manager, announced plans for the Nevada-St. Mary's football game and explained several advertisements announcing free trips.

Louis Wiener led the assembly in several yells and the meeting adjourned with students singing "U. of N. so Gay."

Dean Mack Lists Fall Social Events

Members of the date committee met this week with Margaret E. Mack, dean of women, on the campus to draw up a tentative schedule for campus social events this semester.

With the schedule, Miss Mack issued a statement of rules that the organizations must follow during the semester. According to Dean Mack, all organizations must send to her office at least three days before the picnic, dance or open house, a list of chaperons for the affair, and where the group is to meet. Any list which is not in the office on the required day will automatically open the date for some of her group.

Dates already drawn up are as follows:

- September
- Friday 6—Phi Sigma Kappa, Normal Club picnic.
- Saturday 7—Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Alpha Tau Omega.
- Tuesday 10—For three days—Wolves Frolic practice, 8:30 p. m.

S.A.E. Holds Lead In Pledging Race

New pledge lists released by the various fraternities last night revealed that Sigma Alpha Epsilon still held its lead with a total of twenty-two men.

Sigma Phi Sigma had forged slightly ahead of Alpha Tau Omega showing a total of nineteen pledges as against eighteen for the Taus.

Lambda Chi Alpha jumped into fourth position with six new men making a total of sixteen.

Sigma Nu and Beta Kappa kept last week's tie unbroken, each house adding two names each to their pledge lists. Phi Sigma Kappa annexed one more man during the week for a total to date of six potential members.

Additions to the seven houses releasing lists are:

Sigma Alpha Epsilon—Richard Meade, Arcata, Cal., Perry Carlson, Winnemucca, and Ed Forson, Reno.

Sigma Phi Sigma—Forrest Whiting, and Robert Johnson.

Alpha Tau Omega—Dick Summerbell.

Lambda Chi Alpha—Leo Foster, Harvey Kolhoss, Fallon; Joe Keller, Fallon; Don Purdy, Sparks; Roy Scott, Kenneth Dimock, Las Vegas.

Sigma Nu—Bill Newman and Bill Wilson.

Beta Kappa—Eugene Grutt and George Korcher.

Phi Sigma Kappa—Bill Cassinelli.

Song Book Sale Proves Promising

Sale of official U. of N. song books has been more promising this semester than any other previous term, and the plan advocated by Professor Post, director of music, of making the campus musically minded, is making very good progress.

According to Post the idea has been taken up by many of the activity leaders, and possession of song books has been made compulsory to all freshmen. The present supply of books will probably be exhausted soon and a new revised printing is planned in the future.

Former Student To Attend U. C.

William Gilmartin, '34, left last week for Berkeley where he enrolled in the University of California. He will do post graduate work in political science, history and economics and expects to study for two years, preparatory to taking the examination for entrance into the diplomatic service of the United States.

School of Mines Given Minerals

The Mackay School of Mines has just received several tungsten and scheelite ore samples from the Molybdenum Corporation of America located at York, Pennsylvania.

Among the samples was a vial of tungsten concentrate from the mill at Tungsten, Nev., and certain by-products from Mill City, including samples of tungstic oxide, tungstic acid, sodium tungstate, and ammonium para tungstate. A piece of tungsten steel was also received.

These samples are being arranged for display in the Mackay Museum by Prof. H. E. Wheeler, and will be ready for exhibition in the near future.

Baker Directs

including Al Lansdon, Harry Bradley, Bob Smith, and Harold Foremaster.

Transfers Prominent Junior college transfers will probably occupy a prominent position in this season's line-up at Nevada. Among those athletes who are going to finish their education and competition at Nevada are Tom O'Neil of Los Angeles Junior College, Bill Grubbs of San Bernardino Junior College, and John Ohrt of Sacramento Junior College.

Other promising athletes who may turn out for the Wolf Pack are Fred Bloom and Dick Salsman of Sacramento, and Neal Campbell of McCook Junior College, Nebraska.

Gordon Miles, dynamic little half-back who performed on the 1933 football squad, and who attended Oregon Normal last year, is back to wear a Nevada jersey this season. While attending the northern college, Miles scored 52 points during the season.

The 1935 Wolf Pack will present an imposing spectacle when it trots out on the turf at Kezar Stadium on September 29 against St. Mary's. Coach Mitchell has announced that the team will be equipped completely in new football uniforms, which are the most expensive and durable that can be purchased. The gridgers will be togged out in royal blue woolen jerseys, a change from the navy blue cotton sweatshirts of last season. They will be equipped with white satin numbers, six inches high in front and eight inches in back.

When Mitchell takes over the team Tuesday afternoon he will find forty-nine candidates fighting for first-

Nevadans Work To See Big Game

The traditional sale stalk, "I'm working my way through college, lady," has been heard in Reno and vicinity quite frequently for the last two weeks as ambitious students gathered the necessary subscriptions for the free trip, expenses paid, to the Nevada-St. Mary's game Sept. 29, in San Francisco, which is being offered by a San Francisco paper.

Arrangements are being completed for the trip on the Southern Pacific's "Nevada Special."

According to present indications, a large delegation of Nevada students will be present at the game.

A.I.E.E. Delegate Reports to Club

Richard Greulich, chairman of the Nevada branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, returned August 31 from the Pacific Coast Convention where he was sent to represent Nevada this year.

Greulich, senior engineering student, reported the activities of the convention which included some interesting student activities on other campuses.
