

Y.W.C.A. Pageant To Be Presented Sunday Afternoon

"Spring's Awakening" Is Title Of Play; Band Will Assist In Festivities

The Y. W. C. A. of the University of Nevada will present their annual pageant Sunday at 2 o'clock on the lawn below the tram.

The pageant is entitled "Spring's Awakening," and will take the place of the annual Easter pageant which is given by the organization.

The part of "King Winter" will be taken by Janet Parish and that of "Spring" by Charlotte Michaels. Minor parts will be played by the members of the organization, assisted by members of Miss Elsa Sameth's dancing class.

Music will be furnished by Professor Post and his band.

Practices have been held during the week and according to Jean Smith, president of the group, all indications point to success. The pageant is being given at this time instead of at Easter as is the custom because of bad weather.

SOCIETY

Members at Tea

Kappa Alpha Theta sorority gave an informal tea Thursday afternoon in honor of Norma Jean Mills and Margery Hiskey, whose marriages to Robert Best and Earl Seabourne, respectively, will take place in the near future.

Eighty To Dance During Festival Tomorrow Night

Eighty coeds will display their grace and ability in various types of dances at the annual spring festival which will be held in the university gymnasium tomorrow afternoon.

Of the dances to be presented, four were originated by the girls in the advanced dancing class and were presented at the recent Stanford symposium. They are "Oh, How Lovely is the Evening," "Pufferbills," "Little Tom Tinker," "Canon."

Margaret Tolton, fellow in physical education, is directing three of the dances: "Frieze," "Light and Shadows," and a waltz clog. The remainder are under the direction of Miss Elsa Sameth. Following is the program to be presented:

Folk dances—Gustaf's Skool, Swedish; Ribbon dance, English; Csehobog, Hungarian; Today's the first of May, Swedish; Einzug Tanz, German; Danza de Arcos, Portuguese.

Roundelay—To Shorten Winter's Sadness, Dykema; Frieze, Schumann.

Rounds—Tradition group. Three Blind Mice; Are You Sleeping? Oh, How Lovely is the Evening; Pufferbills, Little Tom Tinker, Round, using only percussion instruments.

Light and Shadows, Dettgroup; Canon, Grieg group; Dance of the Cymbals, Crandall - Sameth; Waltz clog, Brown; Waltz, Strauss group.

Accompanists: Anita Haydon, Ellen Creek, Margaret Piercy and Marjorie Davin.

Admission is by invitation only. Invitations are being issued by members of the dancing group and anyone desiring one may secure it from one of the girls or Miss Smith, she said yesterday.

Letters Written To Nevada Schools By Sister Group

A committee was appointed by the Big Sister committee Monday to write letters to the various high schools in the state to obtain the names of the girl students who expect to attend the University of Nevada.

Other aims of the letters are to list the activities at the university, the advantages of the university and to interest the students in attending Nevada. In obtaining a list of the women students who plan to come here, the Big Sister committee can help the freshmen to register, members of the group believe.

Those on the committee are Alice Sauer, chairman; Elizabeth Best, Winifred Hiltonen, Gertrude Polander and Bette Naismith.

The constitutional committee will meet some time next week before the AWS meeting will be held.

evening in substitution for the annual Ruckus was declared a social success.

Pan-Hell Holds Tea For New Members

Old and new members of the Pan-Hellenic council, a group composed of two representatives from each sorority, held a "get-together" tea Monday afternoon at the Gamma Phi Beta house.

Plans for the forthcoming year were discussed informally and the rest of the time was given over to a social hour.

Dean Margaret E. Mack, advisor of the group, poured. Others present were Eleanor Barry, Joyce Dodge, Norma Jean Mills, Jessie McClure, Lola Yvonne Stoddard, Alice Sauer, Georgianna Harriman, Katherine McCleary, Norma Anderson, Lillian Guisti, Betty Kornmayer, Charlotte Caton, Agnes De Armond, Georgia Cooper, Elizabeth Juniper, Elizabeth Best, Emily Tholl, Elizabeth Osborne, Avanel Manzonie and Isabelle Scossa.

Virginia Johnson, junior student, was in charge of the tea and was assisted by Eleanor Barry, senior, and Betty Kornmayer, sophomore.

U. N. Horsewomen Get Compliments On Riding Ability

Complimented by the riding master of Sacramento Junior college on their ability to handle horses, six Nevada women returned home late Sunday after a successful ride with the Sacramento J. C. women.

There were no accidents or mishaps, despite the triple handicaps of riding English saddle, double rein and a rough course.

The girls left by auto Sunday morning at 8 o'clock and met the Sacramento coeds at the Sacramento riding club. Breakfast was served at the clubhouse, the "Manger."

In a company of about 15, they then rode for several hours on the trail and the hunters' trial course, later witnessing an exhibition of jumping by Mr. Schapps, the riding master. Riding activities were concluded by a drill in the ring.

The latter part of the day was spent visiting the new buildings of the junior college, the men's gymnasium, the library and an auditorium not yet completed.

An invitation has been extended to the Sacramento women for a return trip to take place here on May 2.

Making the trip were Mrs. Mae Simas and six girls; Margaret Heitman, Doris Chestnutt, Barbara Bryant, Bea Lansdon, Ethel Hardy and Covey Wills.

SPRING FORMALS MONOPOLIZE SHOPPE WINDOWS

By MARGARET TURANO

Local shop windows are gala with spring formal.

Fabulous drifts of chiffon and marganza—kaleidoscopic prints—webs of dark lace and net, spun in waltz and tango time.

A full-gathered skirt of black chiffon with basque of black lace and flowing Spanish mantilla.

Exotic flowers in a sprawly print, gay and colorful in rather sleek lines, topped by a bolero.

Yards of black cable net in a skirt, with pink net puff sleeves and draped yoke.

Empire influence in white taffeta over cloth of silver.

White lace in tiers of Spanish ruffles, getting deeper toward the floor, with an extravagance of bright flowers at the waistline.

Painted white net over a colored slip, the print changing its personality with each different colored slip.

Orange taffeta in a basque style with a brown silk net hood.

Sophistication in a "femme fatale" gown of sheath lines.

New short skirt in white marganza with cherry blossom pattern over an organdy petticoat with ruffle at the hem to make the skirt stand out.

Peasant gown of short formal length in printed and starched linen—full skirt with black jacket.

Black lace over pink marganza in 8-inch dinner style, with black satin girde. Gypsy stripes more gaudy than ever before in bouffant and sheath styles.

Full skirt of blue sheer with violet ribbons and gold embroidery near the hem and low neck, bare shoulders, with cross strap neck.

Spanish veils—mantillas—butterflies of silk and feathers—flowers—coronets, for the hair.

A jacket of ruffled ribbon in every color of the rainbow.

Nevada students still say "Hello."

Prizes Are Given At Doll Showing

At the Tri-Delt doll show held last Saturday at the Twentieth Century club, prizes were awarded as follows:

Oldest and most complete doll, Mrs. L. S. Reese; smallest doll, Peggy Jenkins; largest doll, Jean Kirman; most beautifully dressed doll, Yoshiko Toyota; most representative of a people or period, Mrs. George S. Brown.

Honorable mention was received by Mrs. F. C. Murgotten, Miss Ruth Palmer, Miss Florence Kirkley, Miss Phyllis Katers, Mrs. Walter E. Clark, Miss Emily Ross.

In addition to the doll display was an essay contest, "The History of Dolls." Miss Dorothy Locke and Miss Nancy Herz, both of Billingshurst high school, received the essay awards.

TO ATTEND GRADUATION

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Haman and their infant son will attend graduation exercises at the university this year. Haman, who played varsity football in 1933, was a member of Beta Kappa fraternity. Mrs. Haman, the former Mary Connolly, is a member of Delta Delta Delta.

ALL HONOR TO A GREAT ATHLETE LARRUPING LOU GEHRIG
OF THE WORLD'S CHAMPION NEW YORK YANKEES

FOUR HOME RUNS IN ONE GAME! YEOW!

LOU GEHRIG HOLDS MORE RECORDS than any other player in the game today. Here are a few for any four-game World Series: most runs batted in (9); most home-runs (4); most bases on balls (6). He has knocked 4 home-runs in one game—scored 100 or more runs and batted in 100 or more runs for 11 consecutive seasons.

HOME-RUN KING! Gehrig (a regular Camel smoker) has an average of 38 home-runs per season. In 1934, and again in 1936, Gehrig topped the American League for home-runs. Gehrig's follow-through is shown above. It takes healthy nerves to connect, and, as Lou says: "Camels don't get on my nerves."

PACK OF CAMELS? YES, SIR!

SOCK IT, 'IRON MAN'!

YES, MABEL, IT'S HIS 1809TH GAME WITHOUT A BREAK

BASEBALL'S "IRON-MAN"! When Lou steps on the field, for his first game of the 1937 season—he'll be playing his 1,809th consecutive game. Injuries never stopped Gehrig. Once he chipped a bone in his foot—yet knocked out a homer, two doubles, and a single next day. Another time, he was knocked out by a "bean ball," yet next day walloped 3 triples in 5 innings. Gehrig's record is proof of his splendid physical condition. As Lou says: "I've been careful about my physical condition. Smoke? I enjoy it. My cigarette is Camel."

HERE'S LOU'S FAVORITE BAT and his favorite first baseman's mitt. His bat is especially made. He wears out two mits a season. Last year, with 1,377 put-outs, his brilliant play at first base was only 6/1000ths short of PERFECT.

FOR A SENSE OF DEEP-DOWN CONTENTMENT—JUST GIVE ME CAMELS. AFTER A GOOD MAN-SIZED MEAL, THAT LITTLE PHRASE 'CAMELS SET YOU RIGHT' COVERS THE WAY I FEEL. CAMELS SET ME RIGHT, WHETHER I'M EATING, WORKING—OR JUST ENJOYING LIFE

"ANOTHER BIG REASON why I prefer Camels"—continues Lou, (above)—"is that I get a 'lift' with a Camel!" Enjoy Camels freely—they're friendly to the throat.

JOIN THE ALUMNI

Within the next two weeks, more than a hundred students will leave the university for good and become alumni. The Sagebrush wonders if they have given much serious thought to the prospect of becoming members of the Alumni Association of the University of Nevada, and thus throw in their lot with the backers of the school who hopefully look forward to the future of the institution.

All of the students who are graduating leave the university with a feeling of friendliness toward it and a desire to add to its welfare. Few of them will ever be in a position to make elaborate endowments for pet improvement schemes, but all of them are in a position where they may join others who remember the university, and who strive to aid the administration and faculty in looking forward to its future.

Great in the organization are small and advantages comparatively great—not for the individual, but for the school. So much so, in fact, that joining the alumni association could be classed as a patriotic act.

LOITERERS

Pleasant spring sunshine, warm days and the urge to inhale a bit of the ozone entices students out of doors in such numbers as to cause traffic jams among pedestrians hurrying to classes in neighboring buildings. For this reason, an editorial in the Sagebrush of four years ago carries enough weight today to be worth reprinting almost verbatim:

"Life flies on the sunny side of a house these mornings, students gather on the walks, on the lawn and on the front library steps every day from about 9 a. m. until the sun goes down.

"It would seem that there is not another place on the campus where scholars can gather to discuss the matters of the moment except in the exact places where traffic is heaviest.

"In order to get to or from the library, one must shove his way through a large, idle group which almost always blocks the steps and sidewalk. Frequently "passengers" in the revolving doors have to do some rapid elbowing in order to get out of the way before their heels are caught as the partition swings past.

"It may be that the balmy days which the campus is now enjoying have reduced the loiterer's energy content until he hasn't enough ambition to climb the library steps to do his studying, but does manage to walk as far as the entrance to the building, where his legs just stop; and there he stays.

"Then, again, perhaps it is that the study-worn scholar manages to get up out of his chair and stumble down the stairs and out of doors, but must spend some time recuperating from his exhausting labors before he can move on.

"No matter what the reason, however, there is no excuse for the line which stands on the sidewalk and steps during the morning hours, or for those who loiter in front of the doors and block all entrance or exit from the building.

"Something must be done to relieve the situation.
"Not only must the lawn have a chance to grow, but those who are eager to study in the library should not be forced to use all their energy to fight their way into the building. Studious ambition deserves to be nurtured, instead of fettered, by the moral as well as physical suggestion to remain in the warm sunlight which the daily group of loiterers always present."

Along these lines, it might be well to state that the campus has cooperated very well indeed with the ground staff in observing the "keep off the grass" signs along the side of the library building. The only proper request remaining to be made is that those wishing to loiter or hold out-door bull sessions between classes observe the need for others to hurry, and move into the street to facilitate between-class traffic.

The Pedagogue

By JOHN BRACKETT
Plenty of frosh were going around with a gripe this week after the election for sophomore manager. It seems that they didn't like the way the election was conducted and suspected the ballot box of being "stuffed." The way these elections are held, not only the frosh, but the election for senior manager was the same way and there is a lot of opportunity for "stuffing" and cheating.
But postmortems don't do any good. If the students felt the election was unfair, the time to say so was at the election, not after.

One good way to settle the problem of these elections would be to hold them in conjunction with the regular elections for student body president and A. W. S. president. Of course, several different colored ballots would be necessary, one color for each class, and a special ballot for the women, but all the "gripping" that always comes up at this time of the year could be avoided.

Prexy Bill predicts that the number of marriages will increase, now that the price of laundry has gone up.

Somewhere in this issue, the Sagebrush is announcing a best pitcher, best batter contest, with cups to be awarded by the publication to the two winning players in the fraternity leagues.

Looking over the rules, it is noted that the pitcher will be judged on the basis of games won, games lost, hits, strike outs and walks.

The last three stipulations are all right, but the inclusion of the other two—games lost and games won—will probably narrow the race down to the two or three pitchers in the highest standing teams in the league. And it will also mean that the best pitcher will not necessarily get the cup.

It must be remembered that the inter-fraternity league is not comparable to a major league, where the pitchers are insured full support. Thus, if a pitcher doesn't happen to have good support and consequently loses a lot of games, but has a better strike-out, hit and walk record, he will stand a very poor chance of annexing the cup.

This corner believes the contests would be fairer all the way around if the two first stipulations were dropped.

Another gripe on the cup contest. If the best batter also happens to be the best pitcher, the batting award will be given to the next best batter.

The possibilities that the same man will win both awards is remote, but if someone is good enough to win them both, why not give them to him?

Hansen states that the Artemisia, like the truth will sooner or later be out.

The Coffin and Keys running did some good. The boys constructed a seaworthy raft, and the grounds crew was so impressed—maybe fascinated—with it that they borrowed it for a couple of days.

Results: A lot of seaweed (or whatever it is) and various other floating objects, such as tumble weeds, lumber, etc., were taken out and the lake looks 100 per cent better. Almost looks as it should, now.

MAN O' THE WEEK

EMILE GEZELIN
And another of the "Hi ut" boys hits the man of the week column.
Gezelin started his ballrolling on the field of activity at Nevada when fresh from Reno high. He worked toward and finally was made assistant yell leader, a capacity in which he continued until his junior year, when he was made varsity yell leader.

Choosing French as his major, he was a diligent student in that, and all other courses. So diligent, in fact, that during his frosh year he was named alternate for the Washoe County Bar association scholarship. Combining social and scholastic activities, he became an energetic and enthusiastic member of Le Cercle Francais, honorary French club, and during his senior year he has been the chief potentate of the club.

Leaving his translations occasionally, he found time to become one of the very active Joe colleges of the campus. Sagers and Blue Key are among his honorary organizations.

A look as his questionnaire well lead one to think that when not yelling, he was talking. To make things a little more understandable, when not leading the "lung exercisers in a "Go Now," he is going hot and heavy on some debatable question. In fact, he went on such questions of inter-collegiate debating during his sophomore, junior and senior years.

In 1935, our debater, yell leader and student became a big committee man, serving on the all-important Homecoming committee so ably that the next year he was chosen to serve as chairman, thus making himself responsible for one of the biggest blow-outs of the year that Nevada students chance to experience during their hectic (?) life.

Enter Villain: (Invisible, unheard, wholly undetected). Merry makers are unaware that he is in their midst. Villain twirls mustachio (if any) and creeps toward the headwaiters table. On it he finds the hashers' time slips on which the waiters record the hours worked daily. Villain grabs the slips, spindle and all, and stalks off into the night.

All we know is that the slips were there and then they were gone. Maybe the villain is a hungry sword swallower, or a practical joker, or what not.

WHAT we want to know is:

WHO could have done it?

WHY would anyone want to?

WHEN was the crime committed?

HOW much does the university owe the hashers?

AND, to sum it all up, just WHAT happened.

Will somebody please come to the rescue of the distracted Maizies?

Gene Rollins Wins Prize At Conclave

Eugene Rollins, junior mechanical engineer, won fourth prize for the technical convention of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers at Stanford university recently.

Twelve papers were presented by the students from different schools with four prizes awarded.

Other prizes were won by Ralph W. Jones of the California Institute of Technology, who was awarded first place; John E. Lindberg of the University of California, second place, and William J. Adams, Jr., Santa Clara third place.

Students from the university who attended the convention are Gene Wines, Vernon Scott, Robert Cash and Henry Wells. They were accompanied by F. H. Sibley, dean of the college of engineering.

Approximately one hundred students and instructors were in attendance, representing the University of California, the University of Southern California, California Polytechnic Institute, University of Santa Clara, Stanford and the University of Nevada.

Next year, this convention will be held at the University of Southern California and it will probably be held at Nevada the following year, Dean Sibley predicted.

Faculty Discusses College Standards

Raising the standard of engineering colleges, including Nevada, as a result of the current movement in America to license graduate engineers was discussed by two members of the engineering faculty before the Nevada chapter of the American Association of University Professors last week.

Dean Frederick H. Sibley and Professor Horace P. Boardman pointed out that 34 states had adopted measures to establish boards similar to the Nevada state board of registering professional engineers, and the boards for examining engineers. There is another result of this movement that is evident, they said, in that it will protect the public from dishonest practitioners.

Although Prof. J. A. Carpenter was scheduled to speak in connection with the same subject, he will not return from Washington, D. C., until next week. The meeting was held at the home of Prof. A. E. Hill on Maple street.

WOMAN O' THE WEEK

CHRISSIE FINN
It's the opinion of many that our lady of the week will be the lady of every minute for some luck man—and darn lucky he'll be—cause Chrissie can boil water, sew on buttons and all that stuff—or at least so her record in the Home Ec department leads us to believe.

Chrissie, another Renolite, came to college to get all the larmir' that she could and she has more than filled her intentions, for she has been one of the most energetic, studious and ambitious "Home Ecers" to emerge from that department for many a moon.

From her freshman year on through to the senior she has been a member of the Home Ec club and acted as historian for the group during the last year. Chem club has been another of her social activities.

Chrissie really has shown in the dear old YWCA, first becoming a member in her frosh year, working diligently, and the next year becoming a member of the cabinet, continued in this capacity for another year and again, because of hard work, she was advanced this time to the highest office of all—that of president of the organization. In that capacity she did a great deal to fill the ideal of the organization, the campus, was greatly benefited by many of its activities, such as the book shop, candy counter and others.

She's done her share of kicking the gong around hither and yon—perhaps this practice was gained during her four years of membership in the WAA. In that organization, she played and she worked, served terms of sport manager-ships, became secretary, then vice-president, and then chairman of the important inter-mural club that does a lot of deciding about who shall and who shall not have their fingers in certain pies.

This last semester has found her as one of the big powers behind the wheels of Artemisia, night after night and day after day, for that matter, she has been doing many of the numerous necessary jobs that all go to make the big job of getting the year book on the hill at a designated date.

A hard worker, a good sport—well, just an all around swell gal—Chrissie has our vote toward the hall of fame.

TO ORDER STICKERS
Finance control decided Tuesday night in meeting to authorize the graduate manager to design and purchase 3000 new University of Nevada stickers which will be distributed among the students for summer advertising of the university.
Stickers will be gummed on either side for use on windshields or luggage and probably will be available to students some time next week.

Keeler Appointed Student Teacher

Charles Keeler, senior civil engineering student, was appointed recently as student instructor for the summer surveying course which will begin May 11.

Keeler, the first student ever to hold this job, was named by Professor F. L. Bixby, of the civil engineering department. The extra large enrollment necessitated Keeler's appointment.

Known as civil engineering 58, the course is a requirement for all mining and civil engineers, and continues for four weeks. Work in mapping and mine surveying will be done.

Keeler will supplement the regular staff of Prof. Bixby and Prof. Horace Boardman, also of the civil engineering department. He is a member of Nu Eta Epsilon, honorary engineering society, and will be graduated in May.

Life Saving Tests Taken By Students

Aiming toward possible summer employment as life guards or playground attendants, fifteen University of Nevada students took the life saving examinations given last Thursday and Friday under the auspices of the Red Cross life saving corps.

Harold Twilliger, Pacific coast representative of the life saving corps, was the official examiner, and appointments will be made by him, but will not be announced until the latter part of next month.

All-Frat Team
Let's look at interfraternity baseball. The season isn't over yet, but we like certain people for certain positions on the all-fraternity baseball team.

Aznarez: Catcher, sure arm, fast throw and good head. Batted .650 against the toughest pitchers in the league except Pine.

Calderwood and Kinnerberg: Pitchers, two sure shots against normal support. Work steady all game. Can throw seven good innings of ball without fading. Are desperately in need of a catcher who can hold them and even with a little support in the field, they could beat the best team in the league.

First base: Is a toss-up but looks like Summerbell of the Taus.

Second base: Jerry Havens of Lambda Chi has the inside track. He plays a cool, heady game and is near the four hundred mark with the stick. Plays nigh errorless ball.

Shortstop: Peccole of the S.A.E.'s spends part of his time on the mound, but even then we think that Jameson of the Phi Sigs is the class of the league.

Third base: Pick your man and he will fit. No outstanding hot corner man on the diamond this year.
Outfield: Bill Cashill, Harry Gravelle, Kevin Callahan, Joe Lommori, Bud Showalter, Wilson, Rebelati each could make a good fight for any garden spot. You pick the ones you like.

McGraw Anker during a ball game looks like he is suffering from something like a cross between a St. Vitus dance sufferer and a fan dancer with an electric fan without a protector.

Cal Aggies Have

4.333 Miller
Cal Aggies has a real miler. He did a 4.33 mile at the Cal Aggie meet two weeks ago and was saving himself for the two mile. Also, they have some fair pole-vaulters and weightmen.

It was tough on the spectators during the meet trying to keep their eyes on the frosh and varsity stars.

Polish of Yerington

Still is Going Strong
Yerington's Polish still is going strong. He won two top scoring honors with around 26. Jim Bailey, mentor of the Polish, is developing young Polish to take his versatile brother's place when he moves to fairer fields. The Chicos were really giving the Nevada an eye as he breezed around. Also did they like young Giomi's running, who beat out big brother Giomi, now of the frosh.

Frosh Deverell and Cameron beat out the two varsity Chico pole vaulters and Azneraz won his letter at eleven feet, while Cameron went on to make 11-6 and just missed the dozen mark.

Nevada could have won the meet if the three broadjumpers, Richards, Day and Havens, had been there, but Richards and Day were suffering from injuries and Havens was away.

Baseball Tie

Anticipated
Baseball should end in a two way tie. Taus to beat the S.A.E.'s and Lambda Chi's to beat the Taus. Main reason, Taus will play three while the S. A. E.'s and Lambda Chi's play one.

We hope that the physical education department will appoint some regular scorers out of their host of relier workers during the season next year so that official records may be kept.

That's all for today, and don't say we didn't tell you so and that we said so.

Sagebrush Pitcher, Batter Tournery Rules Announced

To all Fraternities:
With reference to the cups which the U. of N. Sagebrush recently announced it would award to the outstanding batter and pitcher in the campus league, it wishes herewith to advise you of the following rules which it will use in judging these awards:

- 1—A complete record of each game must be kept by each team competing.
 - 2—Individual records must be kept for each batter which will include times at bat and hits and must have played in at least six games.
 - 3—Individual records must be kept for each pitcher which will include games won, games lost, hits, strikeouts and walks.
- The winners of the awards will be chosen in accordance with the records turned in for each man. In case a pitcher should have the best batting record and best pitching record, the batting record will be given to the next best batter.

Very truly yours,
U. N. SAGEBRUSH.

Taus Undefeated; Lead Fraternities In Campus League

Lambda Chis Tied With S. A. E. For Second Place Position; Will Meet Taus

With only two more scheduled games to play, the undefeated Alpha Tau Omega fraternity is leading in intramural baseball tournament with a percentage of 1.000. The Lambda Chi's victory over the Sigma Nus last Wednesday puts the Lambda Chis in second place with .857 per cent.

Since both Lambda Chi and S.A.E. have yet to meet the Taus, there is a great possibility for all three teams to be tied for first spot honors. Should either of the two teams defeat the triumphant Tau nine it would automatically place them on even terms for the top ranking if the Taus drop both contests it will make a three-team tie, providing the Lambda Chis and S.A.E.'s win all their other matches.

Trounce Beta Kappa
In last night's contest, the Taus trounced the Beta Kappa nine by a score of 16-2. The Tau team led through the contest and seemed to have no trouble in hitting Tucker's fast balls.

The other game, last night, ended in a victory for the Sigma Phi Sigma when they edged out the Independents by a score of 9-6. For a while it looked as if the Barbs were well on their way to a victory, but Sigma Phi Sigma rallied in the last few innings to edge out the Independents by three runs.

The Barbs made their bid in the second inning when they sent four men over the plate to lead the Sigma Phi Sigmas by a 4-1 score. This lead was lessened to one run at the start of the seventh inning. The Barb loss can be accounted for by the 12 errors made by their team members, most of which were in the final two runs of play.

Continuing their march to second spot ranking, the Lambda Chi Alpha defeated the Sigma Nu Wednesday evening. The contest was slow and uninteresting, both teams making many unnecessary errors. A bad wind and chilling weather made playing difficult and almost impossible.

Playing championship ball, the Independents swamped the Beta Kappas by a 9-1 count Tuesday. John Kinnerberg, Barb chucker, proved himself as one of the league's leading pitchers by holding the Beta Kappas to one hit.

Sigma Nu Upset
The biggest upset of the season came Monday evening when Sigma Nu won their initial contest of the season by defeating the powerful Phi Sigma Kappa team by a 6-5 score. The Sigma Nus fought all the way against the "jinx" which has accompanied them in all their games and despite the bad breaks came out on top.

The big surprise of the season came last Sunday when the Independents lost a close contest to the highly favored A.T.O. contingent by a 1-2 tally. The Barbs held the Taus to a 1-1 tie at the end of the game but an extra inning gave the Taus another run and the game ended with the Taus out in front with the 2-1 score.

In the other two games Sunday, the S.A.E. fraternity beat the Sigma Phi Sigma house by 17 to 7 and the Lambda Chi Alpha defeated Lincoln Hall 12-5. Last Friday, found the S.A.E.'s at the top of playing form and after four innings of play the game was called off with the Evans avenue boys leading the Beta Kappas 20-1.

Brush To Present Baseball Trophies

Cups Will Be Presented to Best Moundsman and Stickman in Inter-mural League

With but one week left in the interfraternity baseball competition, hitters and pitchers are working with one eye glued to their respective averages, each hoping to win one of the cups offered by the Sagebrush for outstanding performances in both hitting and hurling.

The cups will be presented to the two outstanding long or independent players as soon after the regular playing season as it is possible to gather a complete record of the averages of the participants. Any scores made in a possible play-off after the regular season will not be included in the final averages.

For the stickmen, individual records must be kept and will include the times which he has appeared at the home platter and the number of hits the player has gathered. A player will not be considered eligible to receive one of the awards unless he has participated in at least six of the season's games.

Hurlers must also turn in an individual record which will include the number of games won and lost, the number of men struck out and walked and the number of hits garnered off batters of the opposing nines. No stipulation is made as to the number of games the moundsman must pitch.

The winners of the awards will be chosen in accordance with the records turned in for each man. One man is not eligible to receive both awards, and in case a pitcher should have the best batting record and best pitching record, the batting record will be given to the next best batter.

Tumblers Perform At Prep School

The university tumbling team put on an exhibition at the Northside junior high school in Reno this morning, opening a busy week-end. The team will leave tonight for Yerington where it will give another exhibition tomorrow.

These performances probably will conclude the activities of the team for the year, according to Doc Martie, who has been in charge of the squad since March 1 when he took over its direction from Chet Scranton, acting mentor during the early part of the season.

Chico Trackmen Win From Pack In Close Contest

University of Nevada trackmen were defeated by Chico State college in a dual meet held on Mackay field last Saturday by a score of 71 to 59.

Nevada was completely shut out of the broadjump, an event in which the Wolves should have taken all three places, when Richards, Day and Havens were unable to compete. If these men had been able to participate, the results of the meet might have been reversed.

Richards Out
Richards was out of the meet with an injured leg muscle and will probably not compete until the conference meet at Davis. Kenneth Day, who usually places second to Richards, was stricken with an attack of appendicitis, while Jerry Havens was called out of town.

Several men earned Block N sweaters as a result of their efforts last Saturday. Lockley Maule placed first in the high hurdle event to finally regain his form and earn his letter for the second year.

Ernest Rodriguez, sophomore 880 star, surprised many by winning his event over Manley of Chico, as was the case of Aznarez in the pole vault, who defeated Weiden and Welch of Chico to qualify for his letter for the first time.

Bob Zadow was another Block N winner, when he won the low hurdles over Powers, a teammate, and Johnson of Chico.

Ivan Campbell of the Wildcats took high point honors of the meet with 15 points, winning first in the shot, discus and javelin. He was closely followed by Powers, who took seconds in the 100, high and low hurdles and a first in the 230, to run up fourteen points.

The relay was won by the Chico team, which sewed up the meet for the Wildcats. However, if the Nevada men recover for their injuries, it will make this race much more interesting in the conference meet, Coach Coleman said.

U.S.F. Net Team Tied By Nevada

Continuing its march as a top contender for the tennis conference title on May 1 at Chico, the University of Nevada net men held the strong University of San Francisco tennis squad to a 5-5 tie in matches on the local court Saturday.

Saturday's tie came as a surprise to the Nevada squad, which had been rated as easy prey for the experienced Californians. Coach "Chet" Scranton was well pleased with the performance of the Wolves, since he had figured that the Bay City boys would probably trounce the Nevadans by an 8-2 score.

Playing as number four man, Elmer Bawden won his single match, assisted in adding a doubles victory and proved himself capable of holding down the second position on the Nevada squad.

Results of the matches are as follows:
Herz (N) defeated Lang (USF) 4-6, 6-4 and 6-2; Bawden (N) defeated Kane (USF) 10-8, 2-6 and 6-3; Leone (N) defeated Clecock (USF) 6-2 and 6-2; Bawden and Leone (N) defeated Dapello and Clecock (USF) 8-6 and 7-5; Herz and Moore (N) defeated Lang and Woehl (USF) 4-6, 6-4 and 6-2.

Herbert (USF) defeated Neville (N) 8-6 and 6-2; Woehl (USF) defeated Margrave (N) 6-3 and 6-3; Dapello (USF) defeated Moore (N) 8-6 and 7-5; Rover (USF) defeated Goodner (N) 6-5 and 7-5; Kane and Herbert (USF) defeated Elliott and Leaver (N) 7-5 and 6-1.

Final Outing Held By U.N. Ski Club

Holding its final outing of the year last Sunday, the U. N. Ski club concluded its activities until next semester, according to Don McMeekin, newly elected president of the group.

The club has enjoyed a highly successful year, placing high among collegiate ski organizations of the west, and has laid tentative plans for an even more successful season next year, McMeekin, said.

Frosh May Enter Four-Corner Meet

Yerington Trackmen Win Over Yearlings In Initial Contest Of Year Saturday

University of Nevada's freshman track team is now preparing for a four-cornered meet with Sparks, Reno and Yerington.

"Although the meet has not taken definite form as yet, I am certain that the freshmen will be allowed to compete," Coach "Jim" Coleman announced today.

The meet, if held, will take place on Mackay field next Thursday afternoon.

The first year men were handed a 69 to 52 beating in a dual meet last Saturday off in conjunction with the varsity-Chico meet. The Yerington team, although already considered one of the strongest teams in the state, showed surprising strength in every performance and established themselves as the heavy favorites to walk off with the Western conference meet to be held in the Lyon city this Saturday.

Many of the times and distances compared favorably with the varsity meet and in one, the pole vault, Cameron of the freshmen outdid any of the varsity performers by just missing with the bar set at 12 feet.

Clean Sweep
Yerington scored a clean sweep in the juvenile throw and placed one-two in the mile, shot put, quarter mile and half-mile. John Polish of Yerington took high point honors of the meet, scoring 26 points. He placed first in the broadjump, shotput and javelin, and second in the discus throw and 220-yard dash.

Cameron was high for the yearling contingent with 12½ points, taking seconds in the high jump, high hurdles, first in the pole vault and running a leg on the winning frosh relay team. Other outstanding performers on the frosh team were Carpenter, Rhodes, Linson, Deverell and Sala.

Nevada-Bulldogs Play Final Match Before Tournery

Meeting the most strongly rated squad of racket men on this season's schedule, the Nevada tennis squad will face the Fresno Bulldogs, last year's Far Western conference champions, in the last match before the conference meet, tomorrow morning at 9:30 on the local court.

"Chet" Scranton, Nevada tennis coach, will select the team to represent Nevada in the Far Western conference meet, the following week at Chico, by playing of the men in tomorrow's contest.

Jim Bradshaw, former Wolf grid star and present Fresno coach, will bring approximately five players including the doubles team that defeated Nevada in the conference last year and went on to win the conference doubles title.

Scranton will pick four men out of the five following men to represent Nevada in tomorrow's matches: James Herz, Anthony Leone, Elmer Bawden, Stuart Neville and Craig Moore.

Orchestra, Choral Concert Presented

The tenth annual spring concert, starting the University-Community Little Symphony orchestra and the Campus Choral club, came to a successful close last night at the Twentieth Century club. Professor Theodore H. Post conducted the concert.

The concert was made possible by the Century club and Mrs. E. R. Sims, chairman of the program committee.

The program started at 8:15 o'clock with the opening selection by the orchestra. The order of the program was as follows:

- 1—Orchestra. Symphony No. 2 in D Major, Haydn.
- 2—Choral Club. "Now Let Every Tongue Adore Thee," Bach; "Glory to God," Palestrina; "How Lovely is Thy Dwelling Place," Mendelssohn.
- 3—String Choir. Air for the G String, Bach.
- 4—Women's Chorus. "The Last Lullaby," Post.
- 5—Vocal Solo. "The Wind's the South," Scott.
- 6—Choral Club. "Am Meer" (By the sea), Schubert; "The Peasant and His Oxen," Brahms; "In the Gloaming," Harrison-DeBrant.
- 7—Orchestra. Incidental music from "Midsummer Night's Dream," Mendelssohn; "Valse Triste," Sibelius.
- 8—Chorus and Orchestra. Three Pictures from The Tower of Babel, Rubenstein.

The next appearance of the choral club will be when they present the opening number Sunday for the spring festival sponsored by the campus Y.W.C.A. The final appearance will be Baccalaureate Sunday and on Commencement.

Nominees Named For Band Posts

Marvin Moler, Ted Ashworth and Jerry Salter were nominated for president of the band, and Elmer Ford and Archie Albright were named for the vice-presidency, at a meeting of the group Tuesday night.

George Sears and Margaret Cline were selected for secretary and Bill Miller will fill the office of librarian. Professor Post retains the post of treasurer.

According to the members of the band, reasons for the election at the present time is to insure themselves of a leader for the fall semester. In doing this, organization of the band will be apid next semester, members said. The nominations will be held open for a week.

Students To Attend French Cinema 'Night

Several reels of French travel pictures will be presented in the Education building tonight at 8 o'clock through the courtesy of a French railway company having offices stationed in the United States.

Some of the reels include historic buildings of France, Brittany scenes, Normandie scenes, French cathedrals and the rural life of southwestern France.

A preview of these pictures was held Thursday for the students who are unable to attend the pictures this evening. Townspeople, students and those in outlying districts are invited to attend.

Plans Announced For Senior Ball By Junior Class

Farewell dance for the graduating class, the Senior ball, last social function of the school year, will be open to all students, alumni and friends. This ball will be held in the State building the last Friday of school, May 7.

Red carnations for the graduating senior men, novelty programs and a ten-piece band will be the featured attractions for this final social affair.

In connection with the ten-piece band, there will be two singers. Miss Eileen Colohan, runner-up in the Nevada queen contest, will be one of the singers, and the other hasn't been named yet. Ray Sanctus will conduct the orchestra.

Blue and Silver, the university's colors and the university crest will be featured on the programs.

This dance will be a spring formal, Ross Morris, chairman of the committee, said, and no men wearing street suits will be admitted.

Those serving on the committee with Morris are Lois Miller, Bill Winters, Virginia Posvar, Katherine McCleary, Jack McCrea, Russ McDonald, Harold Foremaster, Emily Tholl and Jeanette Greene.

COEDS TO CAPER AT DAWN ON MAY DAY MORN

May Day will begin before the well known crack of dawn for 26 normal students who will have to be up at four o'clock that morning.

In keeping with an old college tradition, the normal students must be gathered on the campus by 5 a. m. to start their annual pilgrimage to the homes of faculty members, where they will leave baskets of flowers at the doors and sing May Day songs.

The Education 41 class is making the baskets this week while the other normal students practice songs, under the supervision of Professor T. H. Post, head of the department of music.

Press Club Holds Concluding Social

Presenting something new in its yearly program, the Press club sponsored a social get-together dance in the local gymnasium Wednesday evening between seven and eight.

The dance was given instead of the Ruckus Variety show, a yearly affair of college scandals.

Being announced as a financial success by Press club members, the social was attended by a large crowd of university students.

The music was furnished by the university orchestra.

Future Farmers End Convention

As guests of the University of Nevada college of agriculture, the Nevada association of Future Farmers of America held its annual convention on the campus Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of last week.

The delegates and contestants were welcomed to the campus by Dean Maxwell Adams and Vernon Tapogna, president of the Aggie club.

President Walter E. Clark provided the gold, silver and bronze medals which were awarded in the public speaking contest Monday night to William Prudner, of Fallon, Nell Stewart, of Alamo, and Bert Hermansen, of Lund.

Other competitions were held in crop judging, crop pest and disease identification, in the agricultural building, and livestock judging, which was held in Carson valley.

The University of Nevada Aggie club donated the cup given the winning team in the identification contest.

The delegates and contestants to the convention, who come from nearly every county in the state, were lodged at Lincoln Hall and the fraternity houses and obtained their meals at the university dining hall.

Tri-Delts Install Officers Tuesday

Delta Delta Delta sorority held formal installation of officers Tuesday night, following the election held last week.

The women who took the oath of their respective offices to serve for the coming year are: Alice Sauer, president; Betty Kornmayer, vice-president; Beverly Jones, recording secretary; Evelyn Bulmer, corresponding secretary; Georgine Roberts, marshal; Beth Frederickson, librarian, and Virginia Snow, historian.

Mary Millard, Evamae Beemer, Mary Casey and Elizabeth Juniper acted as installing officers.

The chapter presented a gift to Blythe Bulmer, alumni advisor, and Mary Millard, outgoing president.

Normal Club Formal Dinner Is Planned

Members of the Normal club, their guests and instructors will attend a formal dinner at the Riverside hotel April 30. Plans for the dinner were completed at the last meeting of the club Tuesday afternoon.

Graduating normal students will be entertained by Dean and Mrs. Hall at a formal dinner on May 4, according to Thelma Gillies, president of the club.

Both first and second year students enjoyed a lawn party at the home of Dean and Mrs. J. W. Hall this afternoon. Refreshments of home made ice cream and cookies were served after an afternoon of games.

STEPS CLEANED BY WOMEN FOR VIOLATIONS

Rub a dub-dub, six women on a scrub—fulfilling the sentence passed upon them for their offenses when they were summoned before the women's upper-class committee Thursday afternoon.

Emma Daley, having three offenses chalked up against her, was referred to Miss Mack, as will all future triple offenders.

The call of the green sod has evidently been very strong these past two weeks, since five of the summoned women were called as a result of cutting campus.

Since these women seemed heedless of the warning about the misdemeanor of cutting campus, the committee, through their punishment, took steps to make a more memorable impression about campus traditions on these offenders and it is hoped other women will note their fate.

Sentence passed on the offending women was in the form of an order to appear on the campus Tuesday morning carrying buckets, brush and soap, and at 11:25 to scrub both side and front steps of the library.

It is hoped by committee members that this meeting will be the last one to be held this semester, but should any offenders be found they will be punished regardless of the nearness of the closing of school, Kathleen Meeks, the chairman of the committee, said.

Juniors Scarce On U.N. Campus During Cut Day

There was a scarcity of members in many classes today due to the fact that the juniors have gone on their annual "cut" day.

A larger number than usual attended the festivities, which were held at Bowers' Mansion starting at 10:30 this morning.

Willis Dalzell was chairman of the day of no work and all play. The group met this morning at the ASUN building. Dalzell was assisted by Sam Basta, Llewellyn Young, Duncan Dorsey, John Murphy, Hal Lang, Sam Wilson, Stan McNair and Max Jensen.

Katherine McCleary, who is in charge of the "food division," is being assisted by Virginia Posvar, Elizabeth Best, Janet Parish, Elizabeth Osborn, Jane Bell, Jessie McClure, Gladys Blair and Kathleen Meeks.

Preliminary Plans Made For Frolic By Finance Group

Preliminary arrangements were made for the 1937 Wolves Frolic, and William C. Millier, dramatic coach, was reappointed director of the show at a meeting of the finance control committee held in the ASUN building Tuesday evening.

The meeting was called, according to Robert Creps, graduate manager, in an attempt to round out the routine business of the group. Richard Taw, next year's A.S.U.N. president, was present. Creps was reappointed as graduate manager for another term.

Honored guests were Professor and Mrs. A. E. Hill and Miss Eva Adams of the English department.

Miss Adams gave an informal talk on her trip to Europe.

Mrs. McKay was assisted in serving by the officers of the organization: Winifred Hiltonen, president; Margaret Turano, vice-president, and Elona Van Sickle, secretary.

Members who attended were Jean Cameron, Elizabeth Osborn, Ruth Palmer, Norma Anderson, Miriam Clark and Anne Gibbs.

ALLOW BAND GRANT

Finance control Tuesday evening allowed an additional $102.35 to the university band budget, which it is estimated would be necessary to defray expenses for transporting a 63-piece band to the festival to be held at Winnemucca next week.

The group was granted $75 last semester by finance control, and an additional $40 was earned at the dance given recently in an attempt to help finance the trip.

The Nevada organization will act as guest band at the high and grammar schools' congress.
