Awards Are Made At Final Student Meeting at 11:25

Goldwater, Shovlin, Class Managers Take Oaths Of Office

The installation of new student body officers and the presentation of athletic trophies and other awards were the main order of business set before the associated Nevada student body at the last meeting of the season today at 11:45.

Dave Goldwater, junior arts and science student, who was elected to the head office of the student body several weeks ago, was sworn in by President Richard Taw. Helen Shovlin, woman senator from Manzanita Hall, who will head the associated women students for the coming year, due to the recent ruling made by the A. W. S. abolishing the organization's presidency, also received the oath of office at the meeting.

The class officers for the coming year, Fran Breen, senior; Clifford Quilici, junior, and Jim DuPratt, sophomore, also were administered their oaths of office by Taw.

Basketball Awards Before the oaths of office were administered, Professor J. E. Martie presented members of the 1938 champion basketball team with sweaters, blankets and gold basketballs honoring their Far Western Conference championship.

Members receiving sweaters were Ray Waldren, Bob Cameron, Gordon Thompson, John Etchemendy, Ray Harris, John Radovich and Leland Fallon, who received a sweater for managerial duties.

John Robb, Dick Kolbus, Joe Radetich and Elmer Bawden received blankets for service performed while playing on the varsity team for at least two years. All the above mentioned members of the team received gold basketballs. Dean Croft, member of the 1937 and 1938 varsity teams, was also awarded a gold basketball.

Martie also presented Circle N awards to five University of Nevada wrestlers for their work during the past year. The men receiving the awards were Jed Oxborough, Frank Rosaschi, Eddie Kulhan, Joe Moore and Hugh Huebner.

Ski Cups Given Wayne Poulsen, coach of the university ski team, presented the university with the Vanderbilt trophy and the Pacific Coast Interscholastic Union trophy for the southern division, which was won for the second time in as many years at a recent meet.

Football Coach Doug Dashiell presented five members of the championship ski team with sweaters. Those men receiving the awards were Don Fanning, Ed Rose, Jack Starrett, James Worden and Earl Edmunds.

Basil Kehoe, former captain of Scabbard and Blade, military fraternity, presented a miniature scabbard and blade to Elizabeth Osborne, who was elected to serve as honorary major for the group during this year.

Kenneth Tedford, chairman in charge of the Senior Week activities, announced at the meeting that the proposed senior dinner which was scheduled to have been held Monday night at the Golden Hotel, had been cancelled indefinitely.

Ray Garamandi, sophomore student affiliated with Lambda Chi Alpha, acting in his capacity as roommate of the noted "Skelly," made an eloquent plea at the meeting for the return of the famous mascot which was kidnaped by persons unknown at the beginning of the year.

Keys to Be Awarded At Debate Banquet Members of the debate squad will receive their keys and awards at a banquet next week in Sparks, Professor Robert S. Griffin, debate coach, announced this afternoon.

Homer Herz, junior arts and science student, will receive the only gold debate key awarded for three years of intercollegiate debate work. Others on the squad receiving awards will be Robert Joy, Leo McCuddin, Francis Breen, David Goldwater, Kathryn Devlin, Eunice Beckley, who will be presented silver keys for intercollegiate debate.

Robert Parker and Andrew Rosaschi will be presented with the Ginsburg revolving debate trophy for winning the intra-mural debates this spring.

The banquet will be held at the Lincoln Hotel, it was stated.

SAGENS WILL MEET Final meeting of Sagens, women's pep group, will be held next Tuesday, Jeanette Hutchins, newly elected president of the group, said today.

Phi Kappa Phi Will Hold Final Election Thursday

Members Will Be Selected From Upper Ten Per Cent of Class

New members and officers for next year will be elected at the third annual meeting of Phi Kappa Phi, national scholastic honor society, which will be held next Thursday, it was announced this week by Professor Harold N. Brown, secretary of the organization.

In order to be eligible for membership in the honor group, one must be a senior and be listed in the upper ten per cent of his class scholastically.

Initiation for those elected will be held at 5 o'clock on the evening of May 7 in the home economics rooms, and the ceremonies will be followed by the annual banquet which will be held at the Methodist Church.

H. C. Jones Speaker The main speaker will be Herbert C. Jones, son of the second president of the University of Nevada, and his topic will be "The Responsibilities of the Scholar," Emily Ross, chairman of the banquet committee, said.

Mr. Jones graduated from Stanford University and later received his degree of bachelor of laws from the same institution.

He served as a member of the senate of the California legislature for twenty-two years, and during his term of office he served as chairman of the judiciary committee and as head of the senate committee on education, Miss Ross stated.

He also acted as chairman of the special legislative committee on the educational system in California.

Officers of Phi Kappa Phi at the present time are: President, Meryl Deming; vice-president, Cruz Ventstrom; secretary, Harold N. Brown; treasurer, Irving Sandorf; journal reporter, Eva Adams.

Shows Appreciation It was felt by the staff that the university could show its appreciation of the things that the taxpayers of the state have done for the college by dedicating the book to them.

"We have been asking for money for various projects, while we really owe the existence of this college to the taxpayers," stated Wilson.

There are snapshots of campus life throughout the book, with every organization clearly defined as to what they are, what they do, and what they have done.

No Particular Theme "The layout of the yearbook is very simple. No particular theme is carried throughout the book," stated Wilson.

A full page is dedicated to the Hunt Foundation, which makes it possible for a number of engineering students to take a field trip throughout the state with all expenses paid.

There are approximately 240 pages in the book. This includes about 45 pages of advertising. The book is smaller than that of last year, but there are no waste pages.

"We hope that the book meets with the approval of the student body," Sam Wilson and Ted Olds stated.

Honor Groups Plan Senior Class Tea A discussion on the Cap and Scroll-Blue Key tea in honor of the graduating seniors scheduled for Tuesday afternoon from 3 to 5 at the Alpha Tau Omega chapter house was the main business of a Blue Key, national service fraternity, meeting Thursday.

The tea is held annually in honor of the graduates, with senior members of Cap and Scroll serving and Blue Key members furnishing the entertainment. Arrangements for the affair are under the direction of Winifred Hiltonen and Maurice Sheppard, heads of the two organizations.

Other business of the meeting included a report of the gray lade wedding present to Professor and Mrs. Harry Wheeler and the appointment of six ushers for the student body meeting today. Appointed were Al Caton, Leo McCuddin, Ted Ashworth, Gordon Thompson, Ross Ashley and Maurice Sheppard.

Albright Is Named A. T. O. President Archie Albright was elected president of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity at a regular meeting of the group held Monday night.

Other officers elected were: Earl Smith, chaplain; Ralston Hawkins, sentinel; Jim DuPratt, scribe; Geno Questa, usher; Harry Morston, palm reporter; Peter Fidler, exchequer; C. Pribbernow, keeper of annals; Jim DuPratt, senator.

Parking Plans Approved By Upperclass Committee; Go To Board Of Regents

Blue Keyers Meet Board of Regents Tomorrow Morning Committee to Work Towards Common Understanding With Regents

A plan to regulate the parking of cars on the campus of the University of Nevada was approved by the men's upperclass committee today. The plan, proposed by Chairman Edward Pine, will probably be discussed at the meeting of the Board of Regents, Acting President Maxwell Adams said today.

Major R. Hilsman Conducts Yearly Inspection

Official spring inspection, held annually this time each year, was conducted this morning, when the 213 men enlisted in the university R. O. T. C. were inspected by Major Roger Hilsman, instructor of organized reserves, U. S. army, of Sacramento, California.

Representing the commanding general of the Ninth Corps Area, Major Hilsman made a previous inspection of classrooms yesterday upon his arrival. He was accompanied by Colonel William L. Reed, head of the department of military science and tactics; Captain Henry W. Isbell and Cadet Officers Robert Leaver, Thomas Shone and Howard Evans on the morning's inspection.

A military band of forty pieces was also inspected by the officers. Rating of the military corps will not be announced immediately, it was stated, although the usual rating of excellence is expected for the Nevada contingent, as University of Nevada cadets have consistently received high ratings in the past few years, Captain Henry Isbell, assistant professor of the military department, said.

Hope For Conclusion "If possible, the committee and the Board of Regents hope to come to a conclusion as to the course of action that the students and the administration can parallel in to work for the improvement of the campus," Fran Breen, head of the Blue Key committee, stated.

According to Breen, the committee is planning to embark upon a "slow and silent" course of action, beginning when the Artemisia is issued next week.

If time permits, the committee plans to have posters printed and inserted in each Artemisia. East poster will explain the course of action that is planned, so that every student attending the university will have a clear idea concerning the situation and what is needed on the campus.

Drive From Home The committee hopes that once the students have the clear course of action before them, they will take it home to their parents with the idea of installing the drive in the home. By this action, it is hoped that a campaign issue will develop out of the situation at the next election.

All community service groups and alumni throughout the state will be notified of the course of action decided upon by the group so that no conflicting motions will be taking place, and so that all groups can work together for a common cause.

According to Breen, the committee will remain in touch and active with all groups during the summer and expects to get a substantial ground work laid before school begins next fall.

Six Parking Areas

According to the plan as now outlined by Pine, the campus would be divided into six parking areas.

Area one would embrace the space between the gymnasium and the old chemistry building, with the front line facing the Education building, reserved for faculty members, while the rest of the area will be used by students.

Area two includes the driveway in front of Lincoln Hall. A proposal for widening the drive to make enough space for a full line of cars from Virginia street to the road in front of the Education building will be made.

Two-Way Drive Area three will be in back of the Agriculture building, and will be reserved for faculty members. In connection with this proposal, the plan incorporates the widening of the present walk to Artemisia Hall to make it a roadway around the edge of Manzanita Lake. This would make a two-way drive to the area in back of the Aggie building possible.

Area four would take in the space north of the Electrical Engineering building near the roadway. The area next to the Electrical Engineering building will be reserved for faculty, with a smaller area directly in back reserved for students.

Space number five, directly in back of the Mackay Hall of Science, will also be reserved for faculty.

Area six, taking in all the ground in back of the gymnasium near Mackay Field, will be reserved for students.

No Parking Spaces There will be no parking between the English building and the old chemistry building, or between the English building and Morrill Hall, because of the noise created by cars parking and starting, according to the Pine plan.

Under the proposed plan, there will be no parking along the drive from the library to the Education building, but the drive will be left open for cars as a thoroughfare.

Visitors would be allowed to park in the areas in front of Morrill Hall and Stewart Hall, as well as along the road leading to the library.

Acting President Maxwell Adams expects the Board of Regents to discuss the plan at its meeting tomorrow. However, he does not expect any definite action on it at this time.

Frosh Barbecue Plans Completed

Baker's Riding Stables Is Site For Picnic

Arrangements were completed this week for the "freshman barbecue" and "barn dance," Jack Pieri, chairman in charge of the event, said today.

The affair will be held at Baker's Riding Stables from 1 to 5 p. m. tomorrow and will be sponsored by the freshman class.

The barbecue is the first event of its kind ever attempted by any first year students and may grow into a tradition, according to Fred McIntyre, class manager.

Frosh Finance The frosh are financing the picnic from the sale of tickets at sixty cents per person, and no tickets will be sold at the gate. In the event of a deficit, members of the class will be forced to clear the loss, as no money will be drawn from the class fund.

In case of a surplus, the fund will be used to repair the football scoreboard on Mackay Field.

Main event on the program will be an entire barbecue beef, which will be served by the frosh coeds, along with other refreshments. At 2:30, the picnickers will adjourn to Baker's Barn, where dancing will feature the remainder of the afternoon.

Kappa Tau Alpha Initiates Two Men Robert Miller and Murray Moler, journalism graduates with this year's class, were initiated into Kappa Tau Alpha, national society honoring journalism, at rites yesterday morning.

Frank Sullivan, '36, of the Nevada State Journal, and Professor A. L. Higginbotham of the department of journalism, put the neophytes through their paces.

At the meeting, Sullivan was elected as president of the group for 1938-39, and Professor A. L. Higginbotham was elected to serve as treasurer for the coming year.

Publications Banquet Set For Tonight Publications heads-elect of the Sagebrush and Artemisia will be the honored guests tonight, when the publications board holds its annual banquet at the Tavern.

Twenty-two persons, including heads-elect, present members of the publications board and guests, will be present at the affair, Willis Daltzell, chairman in charge, reported.

Nominations Made For Band Prexy Walter Elkins, John Naughton and Pio Mastrolanni were nominated for president of Delta Delta Epsilon, honorary band fraternity, to succeed Hal Lang, graduating senior, at initiation ceremonies held in Sparks Wednesday.

The men were nominated following an initiation banquet in honor of eight new men who became members in the organization. Nominated for vice-presidency of the group were William Pasutti and William Richter. William Orr and Alfred Woodgate were nominated for the post of secretary to succeed George Sears. Professor T. H. Post, music department, is treasurer of the organization which now numbers approximately twenty-five members.

Initiates William Orr, John Naughton, LeRoy Schmith, Matthew Laking, William Richter, William Potter, Richard Williams, and Harvey Johnson were the new men initiated into the band group.

Election will be held next week, Lang said.

Camera Club Plans Final Meet of Year Tonight at 7:30, the Camera Club will elect officers at the last meeting of the school year.

The meeting was scheduled for last night, but was postponed because it conflicted with the meeting of the civil engineers.

Robert Grenig, winner of the Camera Club contest, will give an illustrated lecture on "Photographic Pictorialism."

"This meeting tonight will be a very important one," Wait Lobenzel, secretary, said today.

Company "A" Wins Drill Competition

Company "A" of the university R. O. T. C. was named winner of the annual company drill competition held last Friday, Captain H. W. Isbell, assistant professor of military science and tactics, announced this afternoon. Basil Kehoe was cadet officer in charge of the company. S. Vernon Wines, sophomore mining student was corporal in charge of the squad winning first place in the drilling competition for the year. Hen in the squad from "C" Company include Edmond Barrett, Lustav Hebgren, Victor Donovan, Raymond Garamendi, Jack McKenzie, William Casey and William Roberts.

Individual competition for first place in drill will probably not be held until the last day of school, Captain Isbell stated.

Two Hour Exams Begin Next Term

Definite Week Designated
As Test Week For Everyone

At the conclusion of the forthcoming fall semester, University of Nevada students registered in courses in which final examinations are given will be required to take two and one-quarter hour examinations in a week set aside as examination week.

This is the import of an eight-point recommendation approved by the faculty last week. The recommendation was the work of a faculty committee consisting of Professor H. P. Boardman, Professor Paul A. Harwood and Doctor L. W. Hartman.

The recommendation further provides that examinations may be dispensed with in courses in which an examination is not an appropriate test of the work covered. Whether or not examinations are held in a course, instructors will be required to meet and hold their classes for at least one hour during the scheduled examination period.

Provision is made for three examinations per day, beginning at 7:45 a. m., 10:15 a. m. and 2 p. m. during the examination week.

Instructors will arrange for the examinations of graduating seniors in the second semester to be held a week before the scheduled final examination.

CANE AND NOTE FOUND; STILL NO SKELLY

Silent Skelly, the Lambda Chi mascot, is still at large. Recent developments in the case are in the form of a note promising dire threats if the abductor's wishes are not carried out.

The other night, the Lambda Chi found this note on their front lawn, attached to a cane which Skelly was accustomed to holding in his hand:

"No harm has befallen Skelly as yet stop Following is a list of instructions. If you ever want to see his shining face again, you must follow them to the last detail.

"Every member and pledge of your fraternity must on Friday at the student body meeting wear a bone on his suit. The bereaved roommates of Skelly each must give a two-minute speech at the said student body meeting, in which each must give a plea for Skelly's return.

"This is no bluff. This cane is ample evidence that you are dealing with the right party. It's up to you. "THE GOZAR." (Signed)

Ray Garamendi, cory and closest friend of Skelly, when questioned about the note, said: "If the situation becomes too tense, I will get up in the meeting and plead for poor Skelly's cause." He further promised dire consequences for the hapless skeleton's abductors, when and if they are found. John Sala, the other grief-stricken roommate, agrees whole-heartedly with Garamendi.

Champion at Billiards

From 1885 to 1899, John Roberts of Manchester, England, occupied a position in billiards which few men have occupied in any game in history. During this time, he beat all comers in his favorite game of 24,000 points, even when giving handicaps of 10,000 to his opponents.

Aurora Borealis Is Discussed

The aurora borealis, seen here recently, was the main topic of discussion at the meeting of the Astronomical Society of Nevada this week.

Dr. J. E. Church spoke on "The Aurora in Its Home," and exhibited paintings of the phenomenon done by a Scandinavian painter.

Fred Herz, downtown jeweler, talked about "My Impressions of the Aurora in Greenland."

Dr. Church, as a snow surveyor, and Herz, as photographer, accompanied the snow survey of the University of Michigan on an expedition to Greenland several years ago, where they observed the "northern lights."

Richard Taylor, '39, junior student, who saw the tints of the aurora at Lake Tahoe last Friday, also spoke.

Modern engineering offers a career to women as well as men, according to Dean Holbrook of the University of Pittsburgh School of Engineering.

Rules For Rhodes Tryees Announced

Candidates to Compete Under Former Conditions

Professor Paul A. Harwood, state secretary for the Rhodes scholarships, this week announced that competition for Rhodes scholarships this year will be open to qualified candidates under the usual conditions of eligibility.

To be eligible for consideration, the applicants shall have at least junior standing at the time of application and may apply either from the state in which they have ordinary residence or from any state in which they have received at least two years of their college education before applying.

Eligible Candidates
Candidates will be eligible this year who were born on or after October 1, 1914, and before October 1, 1920.

"Because there is a real danger that promising students may fail to compete because they do not understand the nature of the scholarships and the possibilities of study at Oxford," Professor Harwood said, "I am particularly anxious that any men who are thinking about the possibility of applying would see me before the end of the semester.

"Candidates who decide to make application at the last moment invariably handicap themselves for appointment."

According to Professor Harwood, applications must be in not later than November 1, 1938.

Scholars selected in competition this year will enter the University of Oxford in October, 1939.

Press Club Dinner Slated For Tuesday

Six Enter Senior Library Contest

With six entrants competing for the Armanko senior library prize, a decision will be made in the near future by the judging committee, and the winner will be named on Commencement Day, Professor A. E. Hill said last night.

Professor Hill stated the number of entrants in the contest and the collections entered were very satisfactory to the committee.

Awarded annually by the Armanko Office Supply Company, the prize has a value of $100 worth of books at list price, and is given to the senior student judged to possess the best private library.

Seventeen Coeds Sign Service Roll At Last AWS Meet

Big Sister Committee Named To Function Next Fall; D'Alessandro Head

Announcement of the appointments of members to the "big sister" committee next fall, and of those who were eligible to sign the service scroll was the main business of the Associated Women Students' meeting yesterday afternoon.

The women who were selected by the executive committee to sign the service scroll in recognition of their outstanding work in A. W. S. activities were: Dean Margaret E. Mack, Winifred Hiltonen, Eunice Beckley, Nina Bockiewicz, Betty Kormmayer, Katherine McCleary, Jean Smith, Kennedy Walker, Georgia Cooper, Frances Smith, Edith Delmore, Peggy Gill, Earlmound Baker, Patricia Meaker, Kathleen Meeks, Ruth Rowe and Elizabeth Naismith.

New "Big Sister" Plan

Under the new plan for the "big sister" committee, twenty-one women will assist the incoming freshmen women in registering for the semester beginning in August.

The newcomers will be sent to different rooms in the Education building, where they will be aided in making out their schedules by upperclass women who are students in the departments which the freshmen wish to enter.

Chairman of the committee which will aid students registering in a regular freshman course is Elizabeth D'Alessandro, and she will be assisted by Rose Boggio, Virginia Tibbs, Edith Salvi, Betty Johnson, Nancy Hall, Mary Pray, Eunice Beckley, Margaret Records and Mary Bockiewicz.

Members of the committee for journalism students are Helen Shovlin, chairman; Sybil Furchner, Mary Handley and Shirley Fuetsch.

The home economics group will be headed by Gertrude Freeman, and she will be aided by Gertrude Polander, Wilma Foote, Mary Stott and Georgia Cooper.

Eleanor Knobbs will aid the incoming normal school students.

Card Party Success

A report on the A. W. S. card party was given by Miss Naismith, president of the group, and a profit of $41.72 was made. Out of this amount, $25 was set aside for the association scholarship, and $15 was paid for dues and registration at the western intercollegiate convention for Associated Women.

Helen Shovlin, incoming chairman of the new A. W. S. executive committee, gave a report of the convocation at Pullman, Washington, which was held last week.

Toletha Kirn, chairman of the intra-mural board, presented the women's athletic awards to the winners in the various contests held during the year.

Delta Delta Delta received the basketball trophy, and will keep it permanently, having won it three times. The Independents were the winners of the trophies for archery, badminton singles and badminton doubles. Pi Beta Phi was awarded the rifle cup.

Fuetsch Elected Prexy of Gothic N

Shirley Fuetsch, sophomore member of Kappa Alpha Theta, was elected president of Gothic N, women's honor society, at a meeting held by the group this week. Other officers chosen were Betty Parish as vice-president and Gertrude Freeman as secretary-treasurer.

Miss Fuetsch, who succeeds Frances Smith as head of the athletic group, is prominent in campus activities, being a member of the Sagebrush staff, News Bureau, Press Club, Sagens and the Women's Athletic Association.

A meeting of the group will be held early next week to make plans for the annual senior breakfast and to discuss the activities of the society next year.

Members of the organization held initiation at Pyramid Lake last Sunday, and breakfast was served after the ceremonies. The initiates were Betty Parish, Gertrude Freeman, Janet Parish, Mary Mathews and Miss Fuetsch.

Nevada Victor Over C. O. P. Debate Squad

Concluding one of its most active seasons, Nevada defeated the debate squad from the College of Pacific by a two to one decision in a match held in the Education auditorium Monday night.

Nevada, represented by David Goldwater and Leo McCuddin, upheld the affirmative of the question: "Resolved, That the National Labor Relations Board Should Be Empowered to Enforce Arbitration in All Industrial Disputes."

College of Pacific was represented in the match by Martin Pulich and Gregg Phifer.

Judges in the debate Monday were Ernest E. Brown, district attorney of Washoe county; David Finch, debate coach at Reno high school, and Myron Adams, local attorney.

Mary Mathews copped the singles badminton trophy for the Independents this week for the third consecutive year. The win gives the cup to the Barbs permanently. Runner-up in the tourney was Shirley Fuetsch, who represented Kappa Alpha Theta.

The Independents' team, composed of Kennedy Walker and Pat Tanner, took the doubles championship for the second time in as many years.

Varsityes were presented to the winners and proficiencyes were won by Earlmound Baker and Frances Smith, members of the Gamma Phi Beta doubles team, who were runners-up to the champions, and to Shirley Fuetsch.

Approximately sixty women participated in the annual spring festival, sponsored by the women's physical education department Tuesday afternoon. The dances were under the direction of Elsa W. Sameth, head of the department. Among the highlights of the affair were several social dances of Scotland, Denmark and Spain and an exhibition by the advanced class under the direction of Katherine Schnell.

Senior members of Gothic N Society who have been prominent in the W. A. A. for the past four years were entertained by the Athletic Association Tuesday afternoon. The upperclass women who received candy were Janet Parish, Elizabeth Best, Frances Smith, Emily Tholl, Mary Mathews, Kennedy Walker, Patricia Turner and Frances Nichols. Gene Wines was in charge of the arrangements.

Verna Bullis left Wednesday for Pullman, Washington, to attend the three-day convocation of the Athletic Federation for American College Women at Washington State College.

Members of the Red Cross Life Saving Corps will hold a picnic at Bowers' Mansion Sunday afternoon.

Appointments for managerships of the various sports were announced this week by Betty Kormmayer, president of the W. A. A. They are: Hockey, Ruby Nay; dancing, Caroline Best; archery, Lola Frazer and Felicia Moos; tumbling, Eleanor DuPratt; tennis, Earlmound Baker; swimming, Gene Wines; volleyball, Marcelle Bawden and Sarah Bawden; rifle, Gertrude Polander; riding, Margaret Harrison and Beatrice Lansdon; winter sports, Kathleen Starrett; hikes and outings, Marie Varnon; basketball, Shirley Fuetsch; mixed recreation, Verna Bullis; badminton, Ann Wedertz; scrapbook, Louise Leonard; junior college play day, Eunice Beckley.

Four Frosh Women Punished By Coed Upperclass Group

Committee Decrees Offenders Wear Ribbons, Signs; Pick Flowers

Four freshman women were busily picking dandelions for an hour today by decree of the women's upperclass committee.

A crowd assembled at 9:35 to witness Kay Devlin and Marjory Gusewele beholding the flowers in front of the Aggie building. Kennedy Walker, upperclass committee woman, was supervising their work.

The two coeds were caught cutting campus behind the library near the shore of the lake.

Eileen Angus and Annie Wedertz were picking under the supervision of Nina Bockiewicz at 1 o'clock this morning, as penalty for failing to serve on the Mackay Day committees.

Wear Signs

In addition to their "gardening" activities, the offenders were forced to wear signs on the campus this morning advertising the A. S. U. N. meeting held at 11:25, at which their attendance was required.

The upperclass committee required the four coeds to wear ribbons in their hair to "make them more conspicuous."

"Several girls who have disregarded the notice for meeting and the announcement at A. W. S. meeting to appear before the upperclass committee will be punished by the individual members of the committee any time or any place they happen to find such girls," Miss Bockiewicz warned.

English Honorary Holds Initiation

Eight new Chi Delta Phi members were formally initiated in Artemisia Hall last Wednesday night.

After the initiation, a banquet was held at the El Cortez Hotel in honor of the new members, with Professor and Mrs. A. E. Hill, Miss Eva Adams and Miss Katherine Riegelhuth as guests.

Three new officers were elected for the coming year. They were: Vice-president, Josephine Seddon; corresponding secretary, Marjorie Davin, and treasurer, Sybil Furchner.

Chi Delta Phi, national honorary English society, sponsors an annual poetry contest in the spring semester.

Those initiated are Betty Burleigh, Marjorie Davin, Josephine Seddon, Cleone Stewart, Pauline Tobener, Marie Varnon, Charlotte Caton and Sybil Furchner.

Plans Are Made For Campus Sing

Manzanita Lake will again be the meeting place for students when the band, under the direction of Professor T. H. Post, music department head, leads the annual campus sing May 3 on the tram.

Starting at 6:45, the uniformed bandmen will accompany students in singing college and patriotic songs.

Students are being urged to bring song books in preparation for the half hour of entertainment.

Miller and Wheeler Married Last Week

Loretta Miller, biology professor, and Harry E. Wheeler, professor of geology, were married last Thursday at the home of Mrs. S. H. Wheeler, close friend of the bride.

Mrs. Daniel M. Harvey, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and the bridegroom was attended by Daniel M. Harvey, brother-in-law of Mrs. Wheeler.

A reception was held following the ceremony. Those who assisted in the serving were Mrs. Arthur M. Hodge, Mrs. John T. Ryan, Mrs. John Hutchinson, Emily Ross, Mazie Ryan and Anne Gregory.

Mrs. Wheeler is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Miller of Fernley. She graduated from the University of Nevada, where she was a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority. At the present time, she is an assistant professor of biology on the campus.

Professor Wheeler is the son of Mrs. Mary B. Wheeler of Eugene, Oregon, and is a graduate of the University of Oregon. He received his master's degree from Stanford University, and is at present an assistant professor of geology. He is a member of Delta Tau Delta social fraternity and of Sigma Xi honorary fraternity.

Joe Moore is leaving for Los Angeles Friday to spend the week-end.

FASHION TIPS

By JANE FRISBIE

For men only! This week we're going to devote all our attention to those individuals who slouch about the campus in slacks and cords!

This spring, men's thoughts cannot dwell solely on thoughts of love. You, too, have a real clothes problem.

Senior week will call for trim afternoon suits, summer suits and slack-sport coat combinations. All will be equally suitable for the informal events. You can leave your cords standing (yes, all by themselves) in the corner of your room.

In brown, gray and blue flannel, the Town and Country suit boasts of a sport back and two pairs of trousers, one to match and one to contrast. The suit will have a three-button front, a narrow waist and broader shoulders than previously used.

An especially smooth style in men's spring wear will be the worsted herringbone single-breasted suit. You can get them in grays and tans, and they're modeled along the British blade fashion.

The sport shoes can be chosen from quantities of models, but there are two we suggest as something special.

The seamless brogue oxford in white buck with a calf toe and perforations on the toe and around the foot of the shoe, or, if you prefer, choose a natural pigskin oxford with thick crepe soles that are guaranteed for comfort and wear—and they are very new!

Men's sox will be brighter than ever (though we personally doubt such a thing is possible). Bright checks and stripes will be used in matching colors with ties. The lighter color of your sox and tie should match your shirt—and, of course, should blend with your sport suit!

For warmer weather, use sleeveless sweaters knit loosely of heavy wool yarn. Wear them under your coat or as a substitute.

As a sort of final splurge for senior week, we suggest: You shave every day (if you have to shave at all)! You get the girl friend to give you a manicure (if you can't do it yourself)! And, for heaven's sake, either pull your sox up or take 'em off!

SPEAKING OF CONSTITUTION changes, amendments, or what have you, the Sagebrush suggests that regulations governing the eligibility and election of class managers be drawn up for adoption into the new A. S. U. N. document.

THE FRESHMAN CLASS is starting something new in class procedure when they inaugurate their freshman barbecue Saturday at Baker's Riding Stables.

Because of this, the Sagebrush advocates that the allotment for class funds be cut in half. The Sagebrush feels that the classes as whole groups will enter into their own function more completely by this arrangement.

LETTERS To The Editor

(Note: The following letter came in with a signature. Being of a suspicious nature, a member of the 'Brush' editorial staff checked with the person supposed to have written the letter and uncovered a little hoax.

To the Editor: My purpose in writing this letter must be made clear to you in the beginning. It is in the hope that you will publish it, and in the profound hope that some of the members of the Sagors, the Blue Key, Coffin and Keys or Sundowners will read it.

When I first became aware of the presence of these organizations on the campus, I just thought to myself: "Gosh, if only they would elect me—boy, I'd be somebody then."

I said: "A fig for Blue Key; there's still the Coffin and Keys and the Sundowners." So I then set out to influence them. I had heard it said that everybody says "Hello" at Nevada.

If this letter produces no results, I shall return to my garden of memories, my books, and my butterfly collection, a broken, defeated old man.

Sigma Nu took a bad beating by Lambda Chi Alpha in the intramural baseball tourney Monday afternoon, but it was nothing compared to the verbal thrashing Yous Tru has been receiving as a result of a wrong prediction of the contest.

Perhaps I was unable to foresee the ability of Aznarez as both catcher and batter, of Cain at the pitching post, of Sala and those powerful line drives and the general good beating of the Lambda Chi nine.

My most humble apologies to Mr. Doherty and Mr. Harmon. I'm just another would-be sports writer who was wrong. But I'm still looking for the fellow that disguised himself as me and said he would cover $15 on the Lambda Chis.

Phi Sigma Kappa pulled an upset Wednesday afternoon and proved it would be a "setup" for no team when it dropped Sigma Phi Sigma 16 to 3.

Sigma Phi Sigma was rated as one of the leaders of the league by virtue of its 12 to 12 tie with the unbeaten Lambda Chis and its 15 to 15 tie with Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

In Wednesday's contest, it was the hitting of Mayer and McKinnon that was instrumental in determining the final score.

"We're the spoils from our field day victory over the sophomores" is the cry of members of the freshman class.

Too bad; but if Clifford Quilici and Leon Etchemendy had had their way the freshman class would now be the possessor of a large trophy.

The 100-yard dash should steal the show in tomorrow's tri-cornered track meet.

Three of the fastest men in the conference will be battling to break the tape and possibly a new meet record. Reams, Chico dash man, won the event two weeks ago against Nevada's Powers in 9.8. This time was shattered last week when Rhoades of Cal Aggies again led the Nevada tracksters in a 9.5 century.

On the other hand, Powers is the present co-holder of the Far Western conference record of that event (time 9.8), and will be running on his own home track.

Talking of beatings, Nevada's tennis squad took a very bad lacing at the hands of Fresno State College over the week-end.

The Wolves left the Raisin City without a single win out of the six events.

Yet we must realize that the local team was unable to practice a few weeks ago due to bad weather, and Coach Chef Scranton had only two lettermen and a group of rough but prospective rookies to work with.

Regardless of the result of the Fresno meet, Nevada's team of Peterson, Leaver, Goodner and Ashley should be able to give any Far Western conference player a good tussle if the locals keep improving as they have this week.

Polish came through again Saturday with four firsts, a tie for first and several other places when the frosh met Yerington, Sparks and Reno in a four-cornered meet.

Next year Polish will be able to compete under the varsity colors, as will Fulton and Triger. These three stars, plus, Powers, Rodriguez, Rhoades, Day and Mastroianni, should give Head Coach Jim Coleman a well-rounded team next year.

Fresno Swamps U. N. Tennis Team

The University of Nevada varsity tennis team drew a blank last week-end when it journeyed to Fresno in the team's initial competition of the season.

The Nevada netters were beaten throughout in straight sets. The players had scarcely a week and a half of practice before the meet, due to adverse weather conditions which greatly hampered their game, according to Chet Scranton, tennis mentor.

The team will meet the comparatively weak California Aggies tomorrow, and Scranton concedes them an even chance to win.

Summary of Saturday's results:
In the singles, Dunkin defeated Ashley, 6-0, 6-0; Anderson defeated Goodner, 6-1, 6-4; Dean St. omp defeated Peterson, 6-0, 6-4; Ired by St. John defeated Leaver, 6-2, 6-2. In the doubles, Dudley St. Dunkin defeated Leaver — 6-4, 6-1; Dean St. Johnew der, 6-2, 6-4.

Wolves Meet Chico, Aggies Tomorrow

Victory Prospects For Wolves Slim

Prospects for a Nevada victory this Saturday, when the Wolves meet the Chico Wildcats and the Cal Aggies on Mackay Field, are none too bright, according to Head Coach Jim Coleman.

Returning from his trip to Georgia to take over the reins of the varsity tracksters, Coleman commented: "We'll probably take it in the neck again, but if the boys improve as much this Saturday as they have in previous games, there may be some surprises."

The only events in which Nevada has a chance to score, Coleman said, are in the pole vault, 880, mile, two mile, broad jump, javelin, 100, 220 and possibly a third or fourth in the high hurdles, all of which points to a low Nevada score.

Nevada Point Getter

The biggest Nevada hope tomorrow will be Walt Powers. Running on the local track should be a help to him in turning in a double victory in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. He will have to be in top form, though, to beat Chico's Reams and Cal Aggie's Rhoades. Both these men have beaten Powers in the 100, and he in turn has beaten both of them in the 220. Powers will not run in the hurdles, as Coleman intends to save him for the Far Western Conference meet, which is just a week off.

The Wolf milers and two milers should give a good account of themselves, Coleman said, as will little Ernie Rodriguez in the 880.

Possible Points

Ferron Bunker, because of his tosses of 189 feet at Davis, should be right on top in the javelin throw. Through Bob Cameron, showed bad form in dropping out at less than eleven feet Saturday, but should be back to normal again, and at his usual height should be good for an easy first.

In the broad jump, both Kenny Day and Jack Rhoades should be among the first after their bad showing at the Cal Aggie meet. The broad jump was won there at 21.6 and both Day and Rhoades have been consistent 22.6 jumpers.

Coleman said he doesn't plan to enter a relay team, as he hasn't a team good enough to compete against either of the opposing teams.

Math Club Picnic To Be Held Sunday

The Math Club will hold its annual picnic Sunday at Zephyr Cove, Lake Tahoe, at the home of Miss Emily Ross.

The group will leave Sunday morning and will lunch at the lake. "Diversion of the day will depend somewhat upon the weather, but baseball, volleyball, horseshoes, cards, jacks and swimming, for those who are adventuresome, will be on the program," Miss Ross said. Last year, canoeing was enjoyed.

Bill Ogle is in charge of the transportation and Martha Ann Holcomb is directing preparation of the food.

Cal Aggies Next For U. N. Netmen

Determined to erase their defeat at the hands of the Fresno Bulldogs, Nevada's tennis team will engage the California Aggie racquetters on the local courts tomorrow.

Although they failed to win a match in the Fresno series, the Wolves are confident of making a better showing against the Aggies. The scores of the Fresno contests fail to demonstrate the potential ability of the Nevadans. Most of the games with the Bulldogs were carried to deuce before the more experienced Fresnoans won out, according to Coach Scranton.

The Aggies are an unknown quantity to the Wolves. No record of their matches are known, but they are expected to have a strong squad. Experience and practice weigh heavily in the Davis boys' favor and sends them into the matches as odds-on favorites.

All of the Nevada racquetters showed fair ability in the Fresno meet and a possibility of further development. Coach Scranton expects to use the same quartette that battled the Bulldogs. Gene Peterson, Frank Goodner, Robert Leaver and Ross Ashley comprise this group.

Scranton has another possible star in the form of John Etchemendy, varsity basketball star. "Etch" has had little time to practice because of his activities as track manager, but expects to practice regularly from now on. He may develop into a threat to any of the present team members.

Scranton is looking ahead to the conference meet at Fresno on May 6. At present he expects to enter Peterson in the singles and Leaver and Goodner in the doubles competition.

BASEBALL RATINGS

Lefty Mayer, Phi Sigma Kappa's pitching southpaw, headed the batting average with a percentage of .777 as the third week of intramural baseball ended last night.

Pat Eaton, S. A. E. catcher, is in second spot with .750 and Peccole third with .680.

Three scheduled contests remain unplayed and two ties are to be played off before the final ranking will be determined. Postponed contests are: Alpha Tau Omega vs. Phi Sigma Kappa, Sigma Nu vs. Phi Sigma Kappa and Sigma Nu vs. Sigma Alpha Epsilon. The Sigma Phi Sigma ties with Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Lambda Chi must also be played before the final ratings.

Block N Society Makes Attendance Ruling

Members of Block N who miss three consecutive meetings in the future will be dropped from the organization, it was decided at a meeting of that group this week.

Fred Galloway, president, stated that many members never attended meetings, and that the new ruling would go into effect next semester. Persons dropped from the society's rolls will have their Block N stripped from their sweaters, he said.

Boxing Card Slated For Tonight in Gymnasium

With a gala program promised to attendants, members of the Buck a Month Club will present a series of amateur boxing matches tonight in the university gym.

Proceeds of the affair will go towards aiding needy athletes at the university, members of the committee in charge of the affair said today.

Arranging for the fights are John Gammick and Nevio Rosa, who have almost forty-five prospective fighters signed up. Talent will be drawn mainly from Reno, the CCC camp in Reno and from throughout the state, they said. Few university students will participate in the affair. Assisting in preparations for the affair are members of Block N, who will construct the ring in the gymnasium and act as ushers.

The University of Nevada will be represented by Dick Baker and Del Stewart. Frank Roynance, former student, and runner-up in the Golden Gloves contest two years ago, will also fight. Stewart captured the state heavyweight title in the last Golden Gloves contest.

Sigma Phis Play To Tie Game With Top-Notch Lambda Chi

A mighty team of Sigma Phi Sigmans stayed on even terms with the powerful Lambda Chi Alpha baseball squad last Friday through seven hectic innings, with the final score 12 to 12, to give the undefeated Lambda Chi the closest "shave" of this year's league.

The Sigma Phi Sigma playoff is the only contest left in the path of a clean sweep championship for the Lambda Chi. Sigma Alpha Epsilon is in second spot, with one loss at the hands of the Lambda Chi and a 15 to 15 tie with Sigma Phi Sigma.

Lambda Chi Tie

Lambda Chi led in the contest until the final inning, when the Sigma Phis made a final rally to tie the score. Aznarez held the Sigma Phis to seven hits until that final inning, when, with two men on bases and two out, Ted Olsen, S. P. S., hit a two-bagger that brought two men home and boosted the score to 13 to 14. Pete Linson was the next batter on the Sigma Phi list and sent a hit into the outfield that brought in another run and tied the score. Linson was caught on second, and thus climaxed the most exciting contest of the tourney.

Darkness prevented the playoff at that time, and the two teams agreed to have the contest at a later date.

Lincoln Hall capped its initial win of the tourney Friday afternoon by defeating Beta Kappa, 17 to 11. Errors were plentiful on both sides, and members of both teams scored numerous hits.

No-Hit Game

Precocious Frank McCullough, Sigma Nu chucker, pitched the only no-hit contest of this year's league yesterday afternoon, when the Snakes took a 10 to 4 victory over Lincoln Hall. Frank Beloso turned in an exceptional performance catching for Sigma Nu for his first time this season.

Lambda Chi continued on its triumphant march Thursday afternoon by dropping the Independents, 11 to 5. Kinneberg held the potent Lambda Chi batting row to nine hits and struck out eight. On the other hand, Aznarez of the L. C. A. limited the "Barbs" to three hits and thirteen players were listed on his strikeout list.

Lambda Chi Win

Sigma Nu took its second beating of the season, 20 to 9, when it met Lambda Chi Alpha Monday. McCullough, S. N. pitcher, chucked the first inning without a single hit. Sigma Nu then scored four runs as the first inning ended, with the Snakes in the lead, 4 to 0. Lambda Chi came up to bat for the second inning and placed three men on base as Aznarez, Lambda Chi's most consistent hitter, copped a homer that tied the score.

Lambda Chi had little trouble hitting McCullough in the fifth inning and scored ten runs. From then on Sigma Nu made punitive rallies, but never came near the Lambda Chi count.

The other contest scheduled for Monday ended in a victory for Phi Sigma Kappa over Lincoln Hall via a forfeit.

Thrilling Contest

Another thriller was played Tuesday between Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Sigma Phi Sigma that ended in a 15 to 15 tie. Here again the Sigma Phis came up from behind during the final innings to tie the score. The count was 13 to 15 in favor of the Sigma Phis, when the S. A. E.'s took their last batting round. Two runs were scored and Eaton was put out at home in what would have been the winning run.

Alpha Tau Omega gave Beta Kappa a terrific beating Wednesday with the final count 29 to 0. Pine was used in the Tau pitching post and ended the game with ten strikeouts and two hits allowed. The Cleary brothers alternated at chucking for Beta Kappa.

Phi Sigs Win

Phi Sigma Kappa gave Sigma Phi Sigma a setback in the running Wednesday by taking a win, 16 to 8. Mayer's pitching limited the Sigma Phis to only two hits during the first five innings, which gave P. S. K. a 9 to 0 lead.

The final three innings of the contest found the Phi Sigs making numerous errors and Mayer weakening, which enabled the Sigma Phis to run up eight runs.

Cal Aggies Trounce Nevada Tracksters

Wolves Cop Firsts in Three Events At Dance

Advance predictions were way off Saturday when the University of Nevada met the Cal Aggies in a two-team track meet, and the Mustangs trounced the Wolves 104 1/2 to 26 1/2 at Davis.

Nevada took first in three events and placed in every event except the shotput and discus throw.

Fast Hundred

Most surprising event of the meet was a 9.5 100-yard dash won by Rhoades of Cal Aggies, which is the fastest time for the century in the United States for this year and only one-tenth of a second lower than the world's record for that event.

Walt Powers placed first in the 220, Pio Mastroianni first in the two mile and John Barrett first in the mile.
