GROUP TO AID SALA MAINTAINS CAMPUS TRADITIONS

A challenge to campus tradition violators was made today, when Paul Seaborn, sophomore class manager, pledged his support to the men's upperclass committee and appointed a vigilante group to aid in reprimanding culprits.

The senate's appointment of a men's upperclass committee, which was okayed by the student body this morning, and Seaborn's appointment was the first action taken this semester to retain campus traditions.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS

The sophomore vigilante committee—two representatives for each fraternity and social organization—is Ralph Sullivan and Marvin Luhrs, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Wesley Schlager and Larry Callahan, Lambda Chi Alpha; Bob Hawley and Bill Harrigan, Sigma Nu; Roy Anderson and Tommy Gaines, Sigma Phi Sigma; Bill Shewan and Sammy Osgood, Beta Kappa; Bill Lattin and John Knemeyer, Lincoln Hall Association; Ray Swingle and Charles Jones, Independents, and Adrian Quist and Joe Kosakowski, Phi Sigma Kappa.

Seaborn said he expected to organize the committee, fundamentally, the same as it has been since its establishment in the fall of 1937.

MANY DUTIES

"Its duties, too," Seaborn said, "will be practically the same as the last two years. That is, we will work under John Sala and members of the men's upperclass committee in an effort to enforce campus customs and rules."

Traditions that have been established for several years and will be enforced by the men's upperclass committee and the vigilante group are:

MANY FROSH RULES

Freshmen are charged with the duty of painting the Block N Non the hill twice a year. These dates are set by the Block N society and the work is supervised by such members as are designated by the society.

All freshmen (men and women) will be required to carry from sun-up till sun-down on the campus for the entire fall semester of each year, one frosh handbook.

All freshmen (men) are required to wear on the university campus from sun-up till sun-down, during the entire fall semester of each year, the regulation frosh "Dink."

FORMAL DANCE

The freshman class must give a formal dance, known as the "Frosh Glee," the first part of the second semester.

Freshmen are allowed the privilege of wearing jeans, flannels, or other types of trousers, excepting cords and moleskins.

The men's upperclass committee has the power to paddle, lake, or recommend the suspension of student body privileges of any student who breaks campus traditions.

The senior bench, situated in front of the English building, can be used only by seniors.

'Streamlined' Units Of ROTC Students Maneuver Today

University of Nevada R. O. T. C. infantry-manuevering in the newly-adopted "streamlined" squad commenced today, with the battalion going through preliminary organization movements, under the instruction of the university military instructors and the cadet officers.

Although the quota of cadet officers has been raised to 40 this year, the first-year advanced course is five men under the limit and Sergeant McCormick has issued a call for all interested men with two or more years of college to complete, and who have finished their basic course instruction, to make application for the advanced military course before next Friday.

The R. O. T. C. battalion will march in a regularly scheduled parade at the university on Nov. 10 and will pass in review Dec. 1. Special parades will also be held on such holidays as Armistice Day, Admission Day and Homecoming if the cadets wish, university military authorities said this week.

The battalion of cadets is approximately the same size as last year, numbering 275 men and officers. The new officers will not include the customary field boots in their uniforms this year, but will wear grey military slacks and low-cut shoes.

Fulton Recovering From Recent Illness

Professor John A. Fulton, director of the Mackay School of Mines, is reported to be recovering from an attack of two weeks ago, where he is now lined in a San Francisco hospital.

Robert Fulton, son of Prof. Fulton and a U. of N. student, is also ill with a serious case of poison oak. He has been confined to his home for several days.

SIX MALES SIGNED IN HOME EC CLASS

For the first time in the history of the university, a course hitherto regarded as exclusively for women is being offered only for men.

Six members of the sterner sex have invaded the field of home economics, and course number 31 is the result. Designed especially for men, at their request, this course consists in applied cookery from the male point of view. Camp cookery, Dutch oven technique, and conditions affecting cooking in high altitudes will be emphasized.

Mrs. Marsh, instructor, planned to devote the first week's classes to the art of measurement, but it developed that all the students had taken chemistry and were experts at measuring.

John Marean, Ed Kuhlman, Ralph Isaac and Harold Johnson, engineers; Tom Rice, forestry, and Ed Beaupre, arts and science, are the aspiring cooks.

Small Wolf Pack Is Rounding Into Shape for Season

Varsity Is Impressive In Frosh Scrimmage This Week

With his small but hard-hitting squad rounding rapidly into shape this week, Head Football Coach Jim Aiken expressed confidence that the team will be in better than average condition when he takes over the coaching reins for organized drill on September 10.

In scrimmage against the big, tough frosh team during the week, the Wolves plainly showed the results of the rigorous conditioning schedule they have undergone the past few weeks by going over, around and through the green, but willing Cubs.

MEN SHIFTED

Though Aiken was still shifting the men from position to position in an attempt to find the best possible combination, a number of the candidates continued to show well in this week's work.

In the backfield, John Polish, Bill Kirkendall, Clyde Vinson and Frank Beloso were practically unstopable on short power drives over the center or on sudden slants off tackle.

BACKS GOOD

Polish and Beloso in particular were impressive in ripping off two long runs apiece, and the veteran Taylor turned in some beautiful blocking from his backfield spot. Neither Cobeara nor Polish displayed much of their passing talent, but both showed that the Wolves will have little to worry about in the way of punting this fall. Both boys were getting off booming spirals that gave their ends more than enough time to get down the field.

The whole line functioned well after a few ragged plays at the beginning of the scrimmage. Pat Eaton, shifted to guard from his regular backfield spot, looked like he's set for a lot of football this season as did little Lint Barsanti at the other guard. Joe McDonald and Del Stewart, who alternated with Barsanti and Eaton, both turned in wonderful performances as well.

VETERANS IMPRESSIVE

The two veterans at ends, John Sala and Hank Clayton, showed that Aiken will have little to worry about there; and Joe Ghioni, Wes Schlager and Hugh Chesser plugged any holes that the frosh opened at the tackles.

Bob Robinette and Riley Lee, moved over from his guard spot, were at the center post and took care of their part of the line's work easily.

S. F. STRONG

The good condition of the entire squad, however, will be needed, if advance dope from the coast on San Francisco State means anything. The Staters, under the tutelage of Dick Boyle, former St. Mary's star, will already have one game under their belts when they reach Mackay stadium, and should be well primed for the Wolf Pack.

Led by such men as Reade, Schiller and Chandler, all two-year veterans, in the backfield, and Bloom, Hanrahan and Werner in the line, Boyle's squad is reputedly one of the cleverest in the bay region. Boyle took over the team when only two games were left on last year's schedule and though the squad has lost five straight previously, pulled the season out of the red with two re-sounding victories.

COEDS SERENADED

Arkansas promotes fine voices in its students—or so say members of Nevada sorority houses serenaded Sunday night by four visitors from Lambda Chi's chapter of that university.

Army, Navy School Examinations Set For Next Month

Examinations for candidates to West Point and Annapolis will be held Oct. 7 at 9 a. m. in the postoffice buildings of Reno, Carson City, Elko, Ely, Fallon and Las Vegas, an announcement received here this week from Senator Key Pittman of Nevada stated.

In order to be eligible for his nomination to either West Point or Annapolis, the candidate must have had at least two years at the University of Nevada, or must have graduated from a high school in the state of Nevada, followed by at least a one-year course in some school that prepares students for entering one of both of these academies.

Candidates for West Point must be at least 17 years of age but not over 21 by July 1, 1940; candidates for Annapolis must be 16 but not over 19 by March 31, 1940.

Pittman will nominate a principal and two alternates for West Point and a principal and three alternates for Annapolis.

Candidates wishing to compete for the nomination are being advised to write Senator Pittman in Washington, D. C.

Frosh Bibles Sold To 275 Students

Sale of the Frosh Bible, handbook required of every freshman on the campus, was nearing completion Friday night with 275 copies already sold and more expected by Monday, according to Frank McCulloch and Dyer Jensen, heads of the publication.

A list of freshmen who have not yet purchased the book will be posted on the bulletin board early next week, they said, to enable the upper class committee to act upon erring frosh who attempt to get by without carrying the "bible."

Third Coed Pledged By Greek Houses

Margaret King, sophomore student from Wells, was pledged to Delta Delta Delta sorority Monday. Formal pledging ceremonies were held at the chapter house, after which a buffet supper was served in honor of Miss King.

Miss King is the third student to be pledged to a sorority this semester. The other two were Jane Goodyear and Annette Sargent, who last week pledged Gamma Phi Beta and Kappa Alpha Theta respectively.

All three coeds were on the Nevada campus last January, but were unable to join houses because of the ban on four groups issued by the Pan-Hellenic council, governing group on the campus, for infraction of rushing rules. The sororities are eligible to pledge any of the spring rushees now upon the student's completion of registration.

Carpenter Given Cornell Fellowship

Clayton Carpenter, '39, will leave soon for Cornell University to accept a student fellowship in the department of physics. The fellowship is a combination of teaching and study for a doctor's degree.

While he graduated in electrical engineering, Carpenter took the equivalent of a major in physics and a minor in mathematics.

At Nevada, Carpenter was a member of Blue Key, Lambda Chi Alpha social fraternity, and Phi Kappa Phi, and was president of the Campus Club and Nu Eta Epsilon.

He was given the endorsement of the Nevada chapter of Phi Kappa Phi, national honor fraternity, to the national chapter for one of the society's national scholarships. Although Carpenter did not receive one of these, he was given the fellowship from Cornell.

Acting President Dr. Hartman is a graduate of Cornell. Other Nevadans receiving Cornell honors are: Lloyd P. Smith, '25, professor of physics; Paul Hartman, '34, doctor's degree in physics; Paul Bohlke, '36, is there at the present time studying for his doctor's degree in physics.

Guild's Condition Reported Improved

There was a vacant place at the head of the line when Coach Jim Aiken called his players for practice last week. Clark Guild, sophomore student and star grid player, is in the Washoe General hospital as a result of a severe leg injury sustained in an auto accident Aug. 8.

Guild's condition last night was reported greatly improved, according to friends who have visited him recently. His condition has been termed "critical" during the past two weeks.

While attending the university, Clark was affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega fraternity and was looked upon for varsity football timber after the creditable showing he made on the frosh squad. He was also manager of the freshman class last year.

Although the condition of Guild's leg cannot yet allow for a cast to be set, cannot yet allow a cast to be set, his general condition has so improved that he will be taken to his home Sept. 5.

Winter Carnival Committee Appointed

The 1940 Winter Carnival executive committee was announced Thursday by Carnival Chairman Richard Roche.

The new officers are Ray Garamendi, financial secretary; Kay Starrett, executive secretary; Barbara McKenzie, corresponding secretary; Patricia Meaker, social secretary; William Moser, publicity secretary; and Francis West, ski tournament secretary.

These new officers will immediately take over duties in preparation for the ski carnival in January, Roche said.

Students Approve Senate Panel At Meeting Today

CURTAINS PLACED IN 'BRUSH OFFICE

Color was added to the Student Union building this week when Juanita Elcano, prominent staff member of the Sagebrush, brought forth three pairs of curtains for the newspaper office.

The new draperies, the first of their kind ever to be hung in the building, are in dusty pink with white flowers. The sewing was done by Miss Elcano and her assistant, Shirley Fuetsch. The stitching was also the first of its kind done by the two prominent women students.

According to Clarence Heckethorn and Anthony Yriberry, editor and business manager, respectively, of the publication, the curtains were badly needed to make the office more comfortable during the late fall and early winter.

"The addition will definitely add a homey touch to our headquarters," Yriberry stated, "and will serve to keep the rooms much more private during our conferences in the late afternoons and on Thursday nights when we do most of our work."

U. N. Fraternities Cleaned, Improved For Fall Semester

A general campus-wide renovation of fraternity houses met student eyes Monday as nearly every fraternity house was reported as having cleaned, painted, added new furniture or fixtures.

Beta Kappa fraternity was reported by Henry Wells, house manager, as having painted the outside and thoroughly cleaned all rooms, a number of which have been redecorated. Gene Rowland, engineering student, is head of the group.

S. A. E. IMPROVED

Within the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity a plastering job was done in the dining and living rooms. The kitchen was redecorated and furniture overhauled during the vacation. Perry Carlson is president of the fraternity.

The A. T. O. house was thoroughly cleaned, according to George Friedhoff, fraternity president, and a number of last year's small house items repaired. John Etchemendy is house manager.

Jack Rhodes, Sigma Nu house manager, reported that the house had been cleaned, the living room revarnished and painted. The front of the house has also been painted as well as several of the other rooms. Clarence Heckethorn is president of the group.

NEW CURTAINS

The Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity re-kindled the living room and have hung new curtains and drapes. The work was in charge of Harley Harmon. Tony Yriberry is house president.

The Phi Sigma Kappa house has repainted several of its main rooms, including the study and living room, John Ghioni, house manager, reports. Ted Wise is president of the group this year.

T. Wise to Head Inter-Frat Group

Ted Wise, Phi Sigma Kappa head, was elected president of the Inter-Fraternity council Monday, replacing Ray Garamendi who resigned.

Other business discussed at the meeting was the annual ban feed which will be held either Sept. 11 or 18. The definite date will be selected at their next regular meeting Tuesday.

The committee in charge is Frazier West, chairman; Ointo Barsanti, seating of the fraternities, and Bill Mitchell, tickets and the guests.

Discussion was also held on fraternity pledging. It was decided that record cards for the pledges should be signed by the individuals rather than by the fraternity presidents as has been done in the past, before turning them into Dean R. E. Thompson.

Frosh Will Meet Thursday To Nominate Manager

Nominations for the office of freshman class manager will be made when the class will meet next Thursday afternoon at four o'clock in the Educational auditorium. Byron Hardie, president of the student body will preside at the assembly.

The final elections for the management will be held on the following Thursday. Voting will take place during the day in the Student Union building with the A. S. U. N. election board supervising the balloting.

FUETSCH AND SALA ARE PLACED ON COMMITTEES

Nominations for members of the standing committees of the A. S. U. N. student government were read and approved this morning at the first meeting of the group this semester in the education auditorium.

The names which were submitted for the approval of the members of the student body were given to the senate by the nominating committee headed by Bill Casey, junior student and senator from Sigma Nu. Other members of the body are June Adams, Kappa Alpha Theta; Peter Hanford, Independent men; Reveau Hansen, Manzanita Hall, and Jim DuPratt, Alpha Tau Omega.

INCOMPLETE COMMITTEE

The upperclass committees have not yet been completed but further names will probably be submitted to the senate at the next meeting, Byron Hardie, president of the student body, said yesterday.

The committees as approved are: Executive—Robert Smith, Pete Hanford, Mary Sala and Byron Hardie.

FINANCE BOARD

Finance control board—Merle Deming and Ernest A. Inwood, as representatives from the faculty, and June Adams and Don Kinkel, chosen from the student body at large.

Inwood, when notified last night of the appointment, announced that he would accept the nomination. Secretary—Reveau Hansen.

Yell leader—Dyer Jensen. Historian—Mary Kormmayer.

Publications board—Ross Ashley, Shirley Fuetsch and Cleora Campbell, chosen from the student body at large. The editor and business managers of the university publications are automatically members of the group.

Rally committee: Dyer Jensen, and a delegate chosen from each of the various women's and men's pep groups on the campus.

ASHLEY CHAIRMAN

Ross Ashley, prominent senior student and class manager, was nominated as chairman of the annual Homecoming committee for this year. He is a member of Blue Key, Coffin and Keys and the Mackay Day committee. Other students who will probably serve are: Bill Mitchell, Ralston Hawkins, Bill Casey, Cyril Ham, Walter Wilcox, Fred McIntyre, Ted Wise, Jim Gibbs, Lee Strauch and Betty Brannin.

John Sala and Shirley Fuetsch, both senior students, have been nominated to head the men and women's upperclass committees this term. Both have been prominent in campus activities for the past three years.

Sala, a member of Lambda Chi Alpha, is a member of Blue Key, Block N society, the football varsity and Sun-downers. Members of the group who will probably be named to serve under him are: George Friedhoff, Dick Roche, Louis Sanborn, Frank McCulloch, Art Atkins, Lowell Hillygus, Ted Olsen and Joe McDonald.

FUETSCH PROMINENT

Miss Fuetsch, a member of Kappa Alpha Theta, is a member of the Sagebrush staff, Sagens, Gothic N. W. A. A. Cap and Scroll and the Press Club. Her probable assistants will be: Mary Sala, Helen Collins, Earlmond Baker, Reveau Hansen, Wilma Foote and Eleanor Goldsworthy.

The senators are: Loyal Willis, Bill Casey, Anthony Yriberry, Jim DuPratt, Don Kinkel, Peter Hanford, Henry Wells, James Gibbs, Robert Smith, June Adams, Gertrude Freeman, Earlmond Baker, Mary Sala, Reveau Hansen, Edith Salvi and Mary Kormmayer.

Dr. J. E. Church To Attend Meet In Washington, D. C.

Dr. J. E. Church, professor of classics and Latin, who retired this year from active duty on the university faculty, will leave this week for Washington, D. C.

He will attend the meeting of the International Union of Geodesy and Geophysics which is convening jointly with the International Commission of Snow Development in the capital city.

Dr. Church will deliver several addresses at the convention and will give a general report to the assembly. He is at present the president of the International Commission of Snow Survey. He will probably be gone for about a month and is planning to tour the New England states during his visit in the east. There is a possibility that he may be accompanied on the trip by Carl Elges, who is also active in the snow survey work in the western part of the United States.

Freeman Elected To A.S.U.N. Senate

Gertrude Freeman, senior student at the university, was elected woman senator for the Independents at a meeting of that organization Monday.

Miss Freeman, who automatically becomes president of the associated women students of the University of Nevada, replaces Kathleen Meeks as senator for the Independents. Miss Meeks is unable to come back to school this fall.

Miss Freeman will work with Pete Hanford, men's senator from the Independents, in representing the Barbs in the student senate.

PICNIC PLANNED

Walter Wilcox, president of the Independents, announced that a picnic will be held at Galena Creek, Sept. 11, and all affiliated students are invited to attend.

In charge of the picnic committees are: Dorothy Elkins, refreshments, and Pete Hanford, transportation. The picnic is scheduled to start at 5 p. m. and a large turnout is expected.

SEPARATE MEETINGS

A change was made in the manner of conducting future meetings. Instead of the men and women meeting together twice a month, as in the past, they will meet separately, Wilcox said.

"The change," Wilcox said, "is hoped, will allow the students to spend more time in the meetings on the subjects which interest them, such as athletics for the men."

Under this new amendment, the men and women will each select a head for their separate meetings, and these heads in turn will be responsible to the president.

Anderson Appointed Head Drum Major

Harry Anderson, sophomore, was appointed head drum major of the U. of N. band by President Louis Peraldo on Tuesday. He replaces George Beatty, who did not return to the university this semester.

A large turnout was reported this week and, according to Peraldo, seven Nevada coeds have signed as majorettes. They are Marie Hursh, Virginia Pozzi, Ivaloe Johnson, Elsie Crabtree, Glenda Wilson, Mary Margaret Murphy and Helen Collins.

An additional attraction of the band this year will be a Scotch drummer.

This year the band, according to Peraldo, will take an active part in football rallies and games. New skits, formations and specialties will be displayed in full array for the first time, when the Wolves meet S. F. State here Sept. 23.

Schumacher Names Business Helpers

Jack Pieri and Richard Edwards, both prominent junior students, were named this week to act as junior managers on the Artemesia, the university yearbook. The appointments were announced by Frank Schumacher, business manager.

Schumacher stated that freshmen and sophomore managers are needed to work on the annual and tryouts will be held some time in the near future.

Reno Printing Company will again do the printing this year, the business manager also declared. Other contracts will be given out during September.

Nellie Roseberry, editor, said that the work in the editorial department will begin after the Labor Day vacation. Pictures were taken of the annual Blue Key get-together dance.

James Johnson Heads Fair Publicity

James Johnson, junior journalism student at the university, was appointed this summer to take full charge of publicity and advertising for the Nevada State Fair and Rodeo which is being held in Fallon this weekend.

This was announced in Fallon last summer by Clarence J. Thornton, state fair manager, who said that Johnson would prepare and send out stories and advertisements concerning the fair to various papers throughout the state.

Concentration of all publicity activities in the hands of one man who could devote all his time to the effort, said Thornton, should result in a better understanding of the general public in regard to the fair.

New Schedule Announced by Library

Because of the recent changes in the class hour schedule the University of Nevada library has announced a new schedule of hours which will remain in effect until further notice.

The revised schedule is as follows: 8:00 a. m. to 9:30 p. m., Monday through Thursday; 8:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m., Friday; 8:00 a. m. to 2:00 p. m., Saturday.

The library will be closed Sundays, holidays and evenings preceding days on which there is no regular class work. All registered students have library privileges as long as the library rules and regulations are observed. Infringement of the rules will subject one to dismissal from the library building for the period of time specified by the administration, according to Thea Thompson, librarian.

Bill Moore, Sigma Nu pledge, who attended the university last semester, is now employed in Manila. Moore plans to resume his studies at the university next year.

Hartman Extends Registration Date To September 9

Closing of the registration period for the fall semester has been extended until Sept. 9 instead of Sept. 2, it was announced yesterday by Dr. Leon W. Hartman, acting president of the university.

The reason for the change is that many students were unable to secure the new catalogs and were forced to gather information from the bulletin of last year which did not give the first day of registration as one week earlier than usual," Dr. Hartman stated.

INCREASE EXPECTED

It is expected that the enrollment will reach that of last year since the change has been announced, he continued.

Late last night, Mrs. Jeanette Rhodes, registrar of the institution, gave 999 as the number of "railroad tickets" which had been issued to date. The greater majority of these have been returned to her and the students are now engaged in active class work. On the ninth day last year 997 students had enrolled at Nevada.

FROSH LARGEST

The first year class again leads the class enrollments with 363 newcomers in its ranks. This number compares very favorably with that of previous years, Dr. Hartman declared.

The sophomores number 2662, juniors 192, seniors 127, specials 21, and graduates 34. According to the figures of last year the enrollments for each of these various groups are approximately the same.

Dr. Church Writes Journal Article

Dr. James E. Church, former head of the department of classics, has written an article called "Law and Society" for the Nevada State Bar Journal. His article will appear in the October 10 issue of the Journal.

Anthony M. Turano, editor of the magazine, asked Dr. Church to write the article after hearing him speak before the members of the Washoe County Bar Association at a recent luncheon.

The article shows, by a review of the maxims, the laborious journey of the law toward a system of jurisprudence that emphasizes the common welfare away from feudal and other privileges.

Sagers Will Hold Victory Game Dance

A no-date victory dance following the Nevada-San Francisco State football game will be held in the university gymnasium on Sept. 23.

This event will be sponsored by the Sagers, Jack Pieri, president of the underclass group, announced at a meeting Wednesday night.

This will be the first social dance to be held at the university this year. The gymnasium will be decorated with various pennants from the different colleges of the West.

Following a precedent set by the Blue Key, the price of admission will be 50 cents for the men and 25 cents for the women.

William Andrews was appointed chairman of the dance committee, and Samuel Osgood, publicity agent, Jack Elkins, James Bett, Chester Freemont, Rosmino Barenzo, Walter Wilcox, Darrell Birch, Robert Smith, Ralph Sullivan and Harley Harmon will assist Andrews with his duties.

Dr. Chappelle's Condition Better

Dr. B. F. Chappelle, head of the foreign language department, was "improving very satisfactorily" this week, according to his physician, Dr. C. W. West.

West, although he is not expected to be able to resume his duties at the university for at least a month.

Professor Chappelle was stricken with a serious heart attack at his home two weeks ago, where he is now under a nurse's care. In his absence his classes in German and French are being handled by Dr. F. C. Murgotten and Mr. K. V. Brenninger.

D. Stewart Asks For Suggestions On Registration

Dean Stewart, chairman of the university committee on registration, announced this week that he has asked the members of the university faculty to submit their criticisms and suggestions concerning the revised method of registration which was employed for the first time this year.

"We feel that, although certain minor difficulties were encountered, as a whole the new system worked admirably.

"When the suggestions of the faculty members are incorporated in the present system, we feel that we will be employing the fastest, most feasible method of registration," Dean Stewart said.

Prior to this year, students, both old and new, have been forced to go from one building to another in registering. The new system incorporates all departments in one building, thus eliminating the necessity of having different departments on different parts of the campus.

Lloyd Smith, charter member of Beta Kappa fraternity, '25, has returned to the university to complete graduate studies.

U. N. Aggie Dept. To Exhibit Panels

The agricultural extension service of the University of Nevada is offering an exhibit at the Nevada State Fair which is being held in Fallon this weekend. The exhibit is under the direction of T. E. Buckman, assistant director of the service, and L. E. Cline, extension service economist.

The exhibit consists of several panels depicting Nevada farm life. Behind the center panel is located an automatic electroslide machine, which projects colored slides on a large screen. The machine is wholly automatic, changing slides every thirty seconds. The slides are grouped in three sections, each section containing different subject matter. The first group deals with "Beautifying the Farmstead," the second with "Nevada Agriculture Passes in Review," and the third, dealing with the activity of the 4-H clubs of the state, is entitled "Building Nevada Farmers and Home-makers."

John Patti, University of Nevada student, will be in charge of the operation of the electroslide machine.

Betty Jane McCullough, '38, and Emmeline Christensen, '37, acted as good-will ambassadors for the Reno Rodeo Association this summer during a tour through the east. Both graduates are now teaching in Fernley, Nevada.

Guidance Pamphlet Issued to Students

"Regulations for the Guidance of Undergraduates," a new pamphlet of university regulations, made its debut on the campus this week.

The pamphlet condenses the important features found in the "catalogue" and will probably be incorporated with the frosh bible next year. President Leon W. Hartman said this week.

One of the most helpful features of the bulletin gives the incoming freshmen hints on how to register and rules limiting maximum hours and the number of hours required for graduation. The book explains withdrawal procedure and rules covering conditions, failures, probation and suspension. It also carries the question of fees and deposits and contains the complete university calendar.

Students will be held responsible for the information in this book, and students are urged to call at the registrar's office for their copies at once.

Beaupeurt Will Lead Student Songs

With the objective of familiarizing every University of Nevada student with the campus songs, Edward Beaupeurt, newly-elected song leader, will attempt several innovations in song-leading at the next assembly.

Although his exact ideas remain a secret, Beaupeurt has many new theories which, when put into practice, are expected to be highly successful in teaching the student songs.

Sororities Inaugurate Fall Rush Season; Houses Will Hold Pledging September 9

Rushes Not Allowed To Double-Date With Members

Sorority rushing was inaugurated at the university this week with a party at Pi Beta Phi Monday afternoon.

Next week the remaining parties will be held in the following order:

Tuesday, Sept. 5—4 to 6 p. m., Kappa Alpha Theta; 6 to 8, Delta Delta Delta.

Wednesday, Sept. 6—4 to 6, Beta Sigma Omicron; 6 to 8, Pi Beta Phi.

Thursday, Sept. 7—4 to 6, Delta Delta Delta; 6 to 8, Kappa Alpha Theta.

Friday, Sept. 8—4 to 6, Gamma Phi Beta.

Rushes must remain on silence and not accept dates during the period from 6 p. m. Friday until after bidding on Saturday, Sept. 9.

STATE PREFERENCE
Coads are required to state their preference Saturday morning at the Pan-Hellenic lawyers office, and that evening preferential dinners will be held by the various sorority houses in honor of their respective pledges.

Rules governing the rushing period are set down and enforced by the Pan-Hellenic council, coed governing committee. Last January the right of pledging was refused four sororities by the Pan-Hellenic council for infractions of rushing rules.

MANY RULES
Rules provide that no upperclassmen shall be seen off campus with sorority women at any place and also, that there shall be no contact by telephone, except in answering invitations to parties.

Sorority women residing in the dormitories shall not extend any other than the necessary courtesies to the rushees residing in the halls. Upperclassmen are not allowed to call upon the freshmen women in either Manzanita or Artemisia hall.

DATING STIPULATIONS
In the matter of dating, rushees are not allowed to double-date with sorority women, and they are not to accept any dates at all from the beginning to the close of silence, which is from 6 p. m., Sept. 8, until after bidding Saturday morning, Sept. 9.

Rushes will designate their preference at the Pan-Hellenic lawyers' office Saturday, Sept. 9, and preferential dinners will be held Saturday evening by the various houses.

Sororities are limited to an expense of $60 for the three parties, including one orchestra of three pieces, flowers and food. No decorations, except flowers for the table, are allowed.

U. N. STUDENTS, GRADUATES WED

Again this summer many of the university graduates and former students deserted the ranks of the single and married. Many of the weddings which took place were the results of romances which began on campus when the alumni were attending the university.

Graham Kislinsbury, who was a member of the student body in 1932-33, was married in July to Carol Lucas, the winner in the recent Jesse L. Lasky "Gateway to Hollywood" contest. He was at one time a manager of the old Roxie theater in Reno.

Fred J. Collins, assistant professor in the economics department, who was granted a year's leave of absence this fall by the board of regents took as his bride on July 25, Virginia Roberts of Lincoln, Nebraska. Collins is a graduate of the university with the class of 1932 and was a member of Delta Sigma Lambda fraternity. He will return to teach at Nevada next year after completing work towards his doctor's degree.

Culminating a college romance, Orva Selkirk and LaRue Stark were married in Gardnerville on August 5. Both are graduates of the institution and were prominent in student activities. Mrs. Stark was a member of Delta Delta Delta and since her graduation had been teaching in Gardnerville. Stark was a member of Sigma Nu and was business manager of the Artemesia during his senior year. The couple will make their home in Reno, where Stark is employed.

Cabinet Announces New Y.W.C.A. Plans

At the first Y. W. C. A. cabinet meeting, which was held today at Artemisia hall, plans were discussed for a tea to be held the first of next week for all freshmen women.

Arrangements for the Coifax trip were made. A meeting of "Y" groups from Nevada and California is held there each year. Plans for the annual party for the orphans at Carson City were also drawn.

Members of the cabinet will be guests of the down town Y. W. C. A. at a tea on September 7.

Officers of the cabinet are: President, Kathryn Devlin; vice president, Florence Butler; treasurer, Mary Pray; secretary, Janet Holcomb; art director, Mary Higgins; hostess, Wilma Foote; co-hostess, Mary Jane Taylor; publicity, Louise Leonard; religion, Gertrude Freema; song, Glenda Wilson; student advisor, Gene Wines; faculty advisor, to be appointed.

ried to Monty Boland, resident of Reno, who was graduated from Nevada in 1931. Boland was a member of Phi Sigma Kappa social fraternity. They will make their home in Elko where the bridegroom is employed as a member of the teaching staff of the high school.

On August 6 another alumnus of the university, Fred L. Fletcher, was united in wedlock with Dorothy Ann Edwards. The wedding took place in the Trinity Episcopal church before members of both families and a few friends. Fletcher graduated from the university with an engineering degree and is now an associate in the department of engineering of the Sierra Pacific Power Company.

Of interest to many friends of the couple was the marriage this month of Gratia Ferguson and Dorrence Jones, both former students. The bride and groom took an active part in campus activities last year, being members of the Organized Independents and the Campus Club of the Federated church.

Olga Glusovich became the bride of Tyrus Cobb, who graduated from Nevada in 1937. Miss Glusovich is a sister of Oly, who was a prominent member of the University basketball teams in 1935-36-37. Cobb was prominent in campus activities being a member of Coffin and Keys, publications Board, A. S. U. N. senate, the Sagebrush and Sigma Nu social fraternity. They are making their home in Reno where the groom is employed as sports editor of the Nevada State Journal.

Another college romance was culminated in marriage in July when Evamae Beemer, '37, and Charles Jensen, '35, were married in Sparks. Mrs. Jensen was a member of Delta Delta Delta and was selected as Honorary Major of Scabbard and Blade in 1936. She was also a member of Sagens, Cap and Scroll and the Artemesia staff. Jensen is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha and is now employed by the C. I. T. Corporation in San Francisco.

Jeanne Cameron, Kappa Alpha Theta, graduate of 1937, was married in Carson City to James Arkell, a former student of engineering. Mrs. Arkell was prominent on campus during her college career and after graduation was employed as a teacher in the Ely district. Arkell was employed in Kimberley and is now connected with the highway department in the state capitol.

Oly Glusovich, '37, and Marion Brodie also a graduate of Nevada, were married this summer in Reno and are now living in the southern part of the state where the groom is employed. Glusovich is a member of Sigma Nu and was prominent in athletic circles.

Clark and Nelson Are Married Wed.

Elizabeth Ann Clark and Dean Nelson, former university students, were married at the bride's home on University avenue Wednesday night. Rev. Henry B. Thomas performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Nelson attended school here last year, and previously studied at Butler University at Indianapolis, Ind. She is a member of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority.

The groom, a Beta Kappa man, graduated from the University of Nevada last May. He is a member of Alpha Epsilon Delta, and of the Chemistry club.

The Nelsons will make their home in Chicago, where the groom will attend medical school at Northwestern.

GET-TOGETHER LAUDED AS SUCCESS

Over 700 collegians attended the annual Blue Key get-together dance Friday night, and the dance is hailed as a huge social and financial success.

Mark Nesbitt and his college swingers furnished the music for the merrymakers.

Ed Beaupeurt, Gus Edwards and Bob Handley arranged the affair.

Dean and Mrs. R. C. Thompson, Sergeant and Mrs. McCormack and Louis Spitz were chaperones.

Fencing Classes Planned for U. N. Coeds

A class in fencing will be organized in the near future, according to Ruth Russell of the Women's Physical Education faculty, if there are at least fifteen women students interested.

Isaac Caraco will conduct the class and the time of the class meetings will be set later to conform with the schedules of the students.

Mrs. Glusovich has been employed as a teacher in Silver Peak since leaving the institution.

Martha Scrogum, daughter of Congressman James Scrogum, and a Delta Delta Delta graduate of 1934, became the bride of Joseph Kleviet, now attending the university. The groom is prominent as a member of Sigma Phi Sigma, Block N and the varsity football squad.

Rosalcyce Martinez, Kappa Alpha Theta graduate of 1938, will become the bride of Hayden Henderson of Elko in September. Since leaving Nevada she has been connected with the N. Y. A. in Ely and Elko.

Mary Lou Waltenspiell, '37, announced her engagement this summer to Robert Bobo of Boulder City. The couple will be married in December and will make their home in the southern part of the state.

Anthony Yrberry, Sagebrush business manager, plans to spend Saturday visiting friends in Sparks.

"Yes, this is the graceful Pen that made a railroad spike look like a sissy"

The College Favorite by 2 to 1 GUARANTEED for LIFE

Not a clumsy metal object, but a fine precision instrument—a streamlined Featherweight, whose 14 K Gold Point glides nimbly across your paper, making your thoughts glow on the page like a living trail—that's the new Parker Vacumatic!
Yet five devastating demonstrations prove that it lasts a lifetime, and also easily withstands acid that eats away a railroad spike—the same acid found in ordinary inks. Esquire Magazine rates it in their top-flight gift selections. And Jean Abbey of Woman's Home Companion says: "Its sparkling, shimmering, laminated style of circle of Pearl and Jet is the loveliest I've ever laid my eyes on."

It holds far more ink than ordinary rubber ink sac pens. For its sacless Diaphragm filler abolishes rubber sac, lever filler, and piston pump. Its Television barrel shows the level of ink—prevents running dry in classes or exams.
Go and try it today—and be sure to look for the Blue Diamond mark on the smart ARROW clip—that means it's guaranteed for life! You'll never have to buy another pen. The Parker Pen Co., Janesville, Wis.

Plans for Wolves' Frolic May Be Changed Soon

Possibility of producing the Wolves' Frolic under a new plan this year was discussed at a meeting of representatives of the various houses and the two residence halls held yesterday afternoon.

According to the plans which may possibly be formulated by Edwin C. Semenza, new director of dramatics, a musical comedy with a cast chosen from all the campus groups may be given. Formerly the Homecoming show had a central theme and each group put on its own skit. If the new idea does not meet with the approval of the students, the Frolic will be carried on as in previous years.

The next meeting of the representatives will be held next Wednesday at four o'clock in the Education auditorium.

Arthur Palm of Trenton, N. J., mechanical engineering student, is attending the University of Nevada this semester.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE

We realize it's summer; that it's much more pleasant lounging around the campus than studying; that this is Nevada—a democratic institution where formality seldom exists—but it would facilitate entrance to the library if students would refrain from blocking the two doorways.

And the strange part of this criticism is the fact that it's the coeds to whom we direct it.

The women students—and it's the older students, too—continually place themselves on the steps of the two entrances, and when one tries to excuse himself and get through they look up as if to say: "And what the hell do you want?"

Maybe we're old-fashioned, but we believe this woman suffrage is going a bit too far. . . .

CONGRATULATIONS FROSH

Probably one of the most orderly and yet spirited freshmen classes is now at the university.

At the recent assembly when student leaders were introduced to the freshmen, there prevailed a great deal of interest and enthusiasm among the neophytes. And when Dyer Jensen, university yell leader, came forth with the school yells, they responded full-heartedly.

Members of the class also appear greatly interested in student activities and sports, which is another good sign of success to the class of '43.

Doings of Our Alumni and Former Students

During the past ten days many prominent former students and alumni of the university have visited on the campus.

Guy P. Morris, graduate of the class of 1937, who is now connected with the Ingersoll Rand Company in Denver, spent several days in Reno and on the campus.

Lieutenant John Carr of the United States army air corps, accompanied by Mrs. Carr, the former Elizabeth Juniper, visited relatives and friends in Reno and on the campus. Both are graduates of the class of 1937.

Miss Millicent L. Sears, head of the Home Economics department in 1917-18-19, visited here last week while on her way east.

Sherwin "Scoop" Garside, student at the university from 1934 to 1937, is now employed by the Daily Review-Journal in Las Vegas.

Garside attended the University of Missouri after leaving Nevada and graduated from that school last February.

While at Nevada, Garside was president of the Independents, a member of the Sagebrush editorial staff, head of the News Bureau, a member of Blue Key, Press Club, and active in student government.

Lols Hutchinson a graduate of the university with the class of 1935 and a member of Gamma Phi Beta, will sail from San Francisco on August 26 for New York. She will then go to Duke University where she has accepted a fellowship to study under Dr. J. B. Rhine, famed psychologist, who is now doing research work on mental telepathy.

Leslie Gray, '37, has returned to Berkeley, Cal., where he is studying law at Boalt hall.

Gray plans to graduate next spring and is very optimistic about the future of Nevada.

When asked if he planned to practice in his native state after his bar examination, Gray said:

"Yes, yes indeed. Sagebrush can't be transplanted."

Gray was a member of Sigma Nu social fraternity, a member of the Press Club, the Sagebrush editorial staff, a member of the varsity basketball squad, and prominent in campus activities.

John Brackett, '37, is now employed on the Nevada State Journal editorial staff.

Brackett was editor of the U. N. Sagebrush during his senior year and active in campus groups and activities.

Frank Mildren, '34, is now stationed as a second lieutenant in the United States army at Fort Douglas, Utah.

Mildren received his commission in the army after graduating from West Point in 1939.

While at Nevada, Mildren was affiliated with Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity, a member of the Sagebrush editorial staff, a member of Press Club, and active in school activities.

Jake Lawlor, '28, and former basketball coach at Virginia City high school, visited Reno this summer.

Lawlor has returned to Delano high school where he will resume his duties as assistant coach to Ray Fredericks.

Lawlor gained fame at Nevada as a football player and is named on the all-Nevada mythical team. In 1928 he served as an assistant coach for the Wolf pack.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fredericks, '25, vacationed in Reno this summer and will return to Delano, California, where Fredericks is head coach of the Delano

Salty's Sage Lish

It's a mighty versatile bunch of gals we have around this old institution, according to a recent report of summer doings at Lake Tahoe. Dippy Dooner knocked the boys up there on their ears, and Ellen Foo Connelly mixed them up still more by a very neat rendition of that old Hawaiian muscle dance, the hula!

And have you heard of the four boys from Arkansas who thrilled the sorority and Artemisia gals with a serenade at 2 a. m. Maybe Prof. Post could interest some Nevadans in his glee club with a serenade laboratory course.

Here's a tale of woe that should touch the heart of every one. Told to Salty by a frosh, it has its full measure of human pathos:

A bunch of the boys were whoopin' it up
 In the old Block N saloon,
 When down the aisle, tripped a little gal—
 Fairer than the moon.

The wine and beer all rushed to his head and buzzed quite merrily,
 For never in all this world,
 Did a prettier gal he see.
 But the joy that pounded in his heart
 Died in awful troubles—
 For another terribly like the first,
 Came in,
 My God! He's seeing double.

So that poor frosh swore roundly
 That nary a drop would he touch,
 For seeing two heavenly visions
 Was seeing a little too much.

So now it seems to be likely,
 That a warning is only fair,
 That guy wasn't seeing double;
 Those gals are really there!

Ye scribe is presenting a petition to the big shots (or big Jocks) to build a balcony on the library so Ralston can play Julio to her Romietta. . . .

If gentlemen still prefer blondes, Mitch Cobeaga is right in the swing. He's taking Cleone Stewart to the Lambda Chi pledge dance this eve.

Mary Margaret Murphy, who seems to prefer fraternity treasurers, will be on deck with none other than the founder of Nevada's first secret society, Harley Himself Harmon.

Lambda Chi Names Six New Officers

Harley Harmon was elected treasurer of the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity Monday. He succeeds Donald Bowen, who did not enter school this fall.

Other officers elected to vacancies caused by resignations are Bud Williams who succeeds George Beattie as social chairman; John Russel in place of Ray Garamendi as sergeant-at-arms, and Larry Callahan as vice-president, succeeding Dick Smith, who dropped school.

Cyril Ham was elected to the newly-created office of house manager and Bryn Armstrong was named to the interfraternity council post left vacant by Ray Garamendi's resignation.

with a curious mumbo-jumbo; it has horns and walks with a dominating complex.

The correspondent received the following reply by telegram: "You fool, that's no new creature; that's Tony Yriberry with one of those brother Finkel haircuts."

In the perpetual pin-hanging derby, Sigma Nu men are far ahead of those usually close rivals, the S. A. E.'s. Late last spring Bill Newman, Bob Fulton, Mike Elcano and Neal Campbell—all Snakes—pledged their troth. The girls were, respectively, Doris Rice, Theta; Sally Robinson, Theta; Lily Venton, Pi Phi, and Wyoma Shain, Tri-Delt.

Others to whom we give our congratulations, and who should respond with cigars and candy are Leslie Leggett, SAE, and Bonnie Farrell; Perry Carlson, SAE, and Gloria Peck; Harold Foremaster, Lambda Chi, and Babe Nichols, Theta.

The boys from Lincoln Hall took matters in their own hands Sunday at their annual picnic at Lake Tahoe and impeached their mayor, Louie Peraldo. The manner of impeachment takes some talking. He was relieved of his pants. This is the naked truth.

Old Days Weren't Good for Students

A century has changed the rules of colleges and universities, according to an account written by the United Press Association.

Some of the stipulations, the story read, were straight-laced, and their terminology was dominated by don'ts with exclamation points.

In the news account were rules and regulations taken from Century College records of 1839:

"No student shall be permitted to carry a dirk, sword, cane or any deadly weapon whatsoever.

"The hours of study shall be from sun rising until breakfast, from 8 o'clock to Meridian, from 2 o'clock to 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and from twilight until bedtime in the evening. During the hours of study, every student shall keep his room, unless called from it to recite, or by some urgent necessity of which later he shall always be ready to give an account to any officer of the college who may observe his absence.

"The following rule puts the finger upon what the college joke-books would call a 'prevalent practice.'

"No student shall absent himself from his room after twilight; nor shall any student go into a tavern without permission from a member of the faculty,

Frosh Gridders Start Practice Session For Three Home Contests

Initial Contest Scheduled Here With Jassen J. C.

Cub Prospects Good as Former High School Stars Report

Three tough teams, Lassen Junior College, Reno high school and Santa Rosa Junior College will be in home games this season for the Nevada cubs, Freshman Football Coach Jim Bailey announced this week.

The Wolf men open their schedule with their traditional rival, Lassen Junior College, on the home field, Oct. 7. This will be followed by a turf engagement with the Reno High Huskies on Oct. 22.

HUSKIES STRONG

To make the game as fair as possible to the outweighed and outmanned Huskies, the freshmen will use only those men who can meet the requirements for high school players as concerns age and weight.

With every indication of meeting one of the heaviest and fastest teams ever played by a freshman team, the cubs meet Santa Rosa Junior College on Nov. 16 on Mackay Field. The Santa Rosans piled up an impressive string of victories last year and, although they lost many players by graduation, they will be in full strength for the game with the freshmen, Bailey said.

TENTATIVE GAME

Although a definite answer has not yet been received a tentative game has been scheduled with Salinas J. C. on their home field in order to provide the yearlings with at least one trip.

Don Burrus, the Reno back who ripped the Las Vegas line to ribbons, is now a member of the Frosh squad. Burrus comes to the university with all-state high school honors, and a record in football that is hard to beat.

Prospects are bright this year for a fine team, says Coach Bailey, who has been holding nightly workouts. Some of the players show exceptional promise for so early in the season.

"There are," Bailey said, "a great many fine backfield men, but a serious shortage of linemen, and unless more linemen report for practice within the

FRANK BELOSO

"Froglegs" or "Buzzer" is what he is sometimes called, but he's one of Nevada's outstanding backfield men.

Names Added To Carving Table

Four names were added to the traditional Lincoln hall "Carving" table last semester by eligible hall residents.

Additional names are Walter Lobenstein, Edward Zareh, Bud Owens and Ab Atkinson.

Qualifications for an enscribed name are that the student have two semesters residence at the dormitory, and three of the semesters at the university must be in good scholastic standing.

Names have already completely covered one specially constructed table top, which now rests over the fireplace; and now names are being carved on another.

next week, some of the men with backfield training will have to be switched to positions in the line."

As an indication of the type of players which composes the team, Bailey points out that eight of the 24 reporting for practice were named first-team men in all-state selections, or received honorable mention.

Among those showing promise in early workouts is Gene Robens, speedy end. "Robens is playing mid-season football now," Bailey said, "and should prove one of the most valuable players on the team."

Also out for practice is Boyd Smith, Ely lad who attracted state-wide attention for his work on the Ely team when it defeated Reno's eleven old men last Thanksgiving.

NEARY GOOD

James Neary, back, exhibited great speed in the early workouts and exceptional ability in retrieving punts. Geno Quilici, Sparks, played well for so early in the season. Sutich and Drakulich, both of Ely, also showed great ability, Bailey continued.

Three southern California men, MacArthur, Sagerman and Hampton, are reporting regularly and appear well-versed in fundamentals. Although too early in the season for accurate prediction, Bailey believes these men will contribute a great deal to the team.

Wisniewski, chunky Panaca tackle with the all-American name, soon showed that very little yardage will be gained through his position this year. With Booth at guard, McVey at tackle, Harrison, Carter, Gelmstead, Underhill, Ross, Montgomery, Dunn, Booth and Dodge completing the roster, the team should make a fine showing.

Composed of men from southern California, Reno, Fallon, Yerington, Ely, Panaca, Las Vegas and Sparks, the team will have a good cross-section of all types of football men, Bailey said.

"The main problem is to co-ordinate the different styles of play into a smooth-working unit which will understand and follow Head Coach Aiken's system," he concluded.

Creel Is Given Honorary Degree

Cecil W. Creel, director of the University of Nevada agricultural extension service, last summer received the honorary degree of doctor of agriculture from the University of Maryland. The degree, which was conferred on the University of Nevada faculty member personally at the commencement exercises in College Park, Md., was awarded in recognition of his services in the interest of research and higher education in agriculture in the land-grant colleges and universities of the nation.

Creel has also received the distinguished service award of the American Farm Bureau Federation and has been honored with the certificate of recognition of Epsilon Sigma Phi, national honorary extension fraternity.

In 1937-38 Creel served as president of the Association of Land-Grant colleges and universities.

He has served as director of the agricultural extension work of the University of Nevada since 1921.

Creel is a graduate of the University of Nevada and has studied in three other institutions, Montana State, Kansas State Agricultural college and Tri-State college in Indiana.

Four Sets of Twins Attending University

Four sets of twins, at least, are attending the University of Nevada this semester. This is something of a record according to Mrs. Jeanete Rhodes, the registrar.

Dorothy and Elizabeth Mason, sophomores, have the added distinction of being the only set of twins whose father also is a student at the university.

Beulah and Viva Leonard, Esther and Ruth Hanson, sophomores, and Emily and Rita Turano, freshmen, are the other sets of twins.

BADMINTON CLASSES TO BE PLANNED

For those students interested in badminton, classes will be organized some time next week. The classes will be co-recreational, and will meet in the gymnasium on Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

Further details can be obtained from Miss Sameth of the Women's Physical Education department.

VISITS CAMPUS

New Morehouse, University of Nevada journalism and electrical engineering graduate in 1935, visited the campus during the summer and renewed acquaintance with faculty members here at that time.

Morehouse is in the publicity department of the General Electric company and is stationed at Schenectady, New York, where he is following the work for which he prepared in the university, combining a full course in journalism with the complete electrical engineering course.

When on the campus Morehouse was active in publications work, being editor of the Artemisia in 1935.

OPEN HOUSE PLANNED

An open house will be held by Gamma Phi Beta in about two weeks for university students. The Gamma Phis, who have just moved into their new home on Sierra street, have invited the entire student body to the house-warming.

A definite date has not yet been set. Earlmund Baker, social chairman, is in charge of the arrangements. She will be aided by two other members.

Shirley Ferron, member of Tri-Delt and former University of Nevada student from Las Vegas, is visiting friends in Reno. She will leave next week for U. C. L. A. where she is now a senior.
