

HIGH SCHOOL PRESS CONVENTION DELEGATES HERE FOR TWO DAYS

Scholastic Press Association May Be Established For Publications

Delegates from 15 Nevada high schools registered today for the annual two-day press convention.

A total of 48 representatives—heads of high school publications—had registered this morning and according to Chairman Louise Leonard, several others are expected later today.

Those registered this morning are: Carson—Jean Mahlan, Genieve Pohlman, Richard Jepson, Jack Scott, Lowell Bernard, Stan. Priest.

Fernley—Eleanor Lauraton, Ada Kramer, Thelma Smith.

Tonopah—Bill Beko, Bill Barsanti.

Winnemucca—Margaret Havelan, Dora Wark, Doll Corbett.

Carlin—Mary McKenna, Janet Stockton, Friend Stone.

Yerington—Emily Morconi, Barbara Verges, Peggy Hatch, Marie Repozo.

Fallon—Thais Sherman, Patty Crehore, Don Bowers.

Austin—Geraldine Streshley.

Reno—Nita Reifschneider, Frances Dunner, Gene Carlon.

Gardnerville—Louis Bergevin, Donald Hellwinkle.

Patterson—Helen Dula, Mary Helen Smith Valley—Lucille Brown, Betty Levilla.

Lovelock—Patsy Olfers, Zola Welsh.

Las Vegas—Renna Myers, Barbara Balcom, Jean Smith, Pat Thomas.

Sparks—Byron Young, Hazel Inman, Walter Riggle, Betty Poe, Lillian Shipper, Harry Williams, Alex Lembers.

In order to further aid editors of high school newspapers a plan for a Nevada Scholastic Press Association will be placed before the group at a meeting Saturday morning. If the delegates approve the plan it will function from the University Press Club, beginning with the spring of 1940. Newspapers from high schools will be

Nevada To Have Rifle Team Soon

The University of Nevada will have a rifle team.

This became evident today when Major O. R. Bassett announced that work on a rifle range would begin immediately.

The range will be constructed on the first floor of the barracks building.

The band, which has been practicing on that floor, will be moved upstairs, Bassett said.

Sandbags will be piled against the wall as a barracks and modern lighting will be installed.

"We expect to compete with all rifle teams desiring matches," Major Bassett said.

Bassett, who is one of the foremost pistol and rifle shots in the United States, having won several important titles, will coach the team.

Nucleus of the squad will probably be composed of Dell Stewart, Ed Beaupt and Virgil Hart, senior officers who all made the "expert" rank at the R. O. T. C. camp at Monterey last summer. Any student in the R. O. T. C. corps is eligible for competition.

With the showing we made at Monterey, I'm confident that we'll rank up with the best of them," Bassett continued.

Work on the range is being done with WPA funds.

Surprises Promised For Annual Brawl

Surprises galore and many novel features blended with the theme, "College Romance, The Engineering Way", will be in store for campus and public when the university Associated Engineers hold the annual Engineers' Brawl Nov. 18.

George Beattie's six-piece campus orchestra will provide musical entertainment for the affair. The engineers will also feature several soft drink concessions and several outstanding exhibits from engineering departments will be displayed.

Tickets for the dance were released for sale Wednesday and will be available until the dance date. The engineers will feature an unusual "personality" tax device at the gymnasium gate the evening of the Brawl, which will serve as a novel and entertaining feature, according to President David Hartman.

A public address system will be stationed on the campus early next week and the engineers plan to advertise the Brawl highlights by means of this device.

AND WHO WOULDN'T BUY A TICKET?

Student Body President Byron Hardie gives for the price of a ticket to the Frosh Glee-Soph Hop dance tomorrow night. Doris Evans, sophomore, and Harriet Hills, freshman, are sale boosters. "You bet I'll go," Hardie said. "Even if I have to go in a wheel chair."

UNDERCLASSMEN'S DANCE IS SET FOR TOMORROW NIGHT

Climax to the last home football game of the season will be the frosh-sophomore dance held at 9 o'clock tomorrow night in the Century Club.

Festive decorations and entertainment will feature this first annual underclass dance. An unusual silhouette motif will be spotlighted and many varied effects are promised by the committee.

In spite of the fact that we have been required to revise our decorations so as not to repeat the "concert in the park" theme which Lincoln Hall used last week, our dance promises to be a bang-up affair," said Frances Larraguetta, chairman of the decoration committee, yesterday.

During intermissions the dancers will be entertained by several numbers, some of which have not been listed yet. Betty Cochran and Leland Strauch will again be the "sweethearts of S. A. E." and in response to repeated requests the A. T. O. octette will sing.

Patsy Prescott is the featured vocalist and will sing, swing and sway with the ten-piece orchestra.

Paul Seaborn, sophomore class manager, echoing the joint sentiments of both classes, said, "The combined efforts of the freshman and sophomore classes should really make this dance a successful underclass venture—the two classes entirely forgot traditional rivalry."

Rally and Dance Set For Tonight

Dedicated to the Wolf Pack in honor of its final home game of the season, a combined rally and dance will be presented tonight by the rally committee and Blue Key.

The rally will commence at the campus gate and end at the university gym, at which time Blue Key members will take over and present a three-hour social.

Several novelty means of entertainment and specialties will be presented at the social, according to Acting President Louis Perledo.

Buddy Williams and his four-piece orchestra will furnish the music.

Takes Field Trip

Prof. V. P. Gianella, geology instructor, and Sam Wilson, senior mining student, went on a field trip last week end to the Majuba hills region.

Gianella is making a study of the geological formation of this country in cooperation with the United States Geological Survey and in preparation of a special bulletin for the Nevada state bureau of mines.

CRIPPLED WOLF AWAITS INVASION OF COLORADOANS

Injury List is Large As Garamendi Is Lost for Season

A crippled but still fiery Wolf Pack last night put the finishing touches to a week of hard practice in preparation for its last home game of the year against Greeley State tomorrow afternoon on Mackay field.

The Wolves, minus the services of Ray Garamendi, in the hospital with appendicitis after sixty minutes of sterling play in the Chico game, had plenty to worry about as they went through the week's work.

Injuries Numerous
Frank Beloso, hard-driving little half-back, has a bad "pointer" on his right shoulder; John Polish's trick knee was still a little stiff from the Chico fracas and the team as a whole was pretty well bruised and battered up, though aside from Beloso and Garamendi, none of the injuries were really serious.

In addition to the injury list, the varsity looked anything but good in a scrimmage against the frosh on Tuesday night. It must be admitted that this year's first-year team is perhaps the best ever to play at the university, perhaps even as good as a lot of the college opposition, but even at that the way they pushed their big brothers around was anything but encouraging.

Outlook Not Too Black.
Despite all that the outlook was far from being entirely black. Though members of the team were a little disappointed in that Chico was defeated only by three points, there's plenty of consolation in the fact that the Wildcats were playing inspired football before their Homecoming crowd and in the words of their own coach "turned in the game of their lives and played away over their heads in doing it." As usual, too, the Wolves were far superior in yardage gained as well as in their general defensive game.

Individual Performances Good
Besides that, individual performances turned in at the California city were very, very encouraging. Sacramento and Chico papers raved for two days over the work of Lint Barsanti, the "watchdog" guard, end or tackle as the occasion demands, and called Clyde "Skippy" Vinson "the most powerful running back seen in these parts for many a day." Vinson was finding his holes perfectly and time after time bulled his way far into the Chico secondary before the entire Wildcat backfield finally hauled him down.

Ray Garamendi, lost for the rest of the season, of course, was smashing up play after play, and Bud Young

FROM CHICO STATE

Byron Hardie, President, ASUN, University of Nevada, Reno, Nevada.

Dear Byron:

I am sorry our first communication is of this nature. Several of our students visited your campus and did some painting. This act does not reflect the attitude of our college. It was done entirely on the initiative of those few students. We are making every endeavor to apprehend the culprits. Please accept our apology and let me know the extent of the damage.

McDonald Elected To Head Carnival

Nevada Winter Show Is Set For Early February

Joe McDonald, junior, was elected director of the 1940 University of Nevada Winter Carnival Tuesday by the executive committee of the University of Nevada Ski Club.

McDonald replaces Dick Roche, who withdrew from school two weeks ago.

Affiliates with the executive and the Winter Carnival committee still remain the same. They include executive and corresponding secretary, Jack Starrett; publicity, Jack Pieri and Jim Gibbs; finance, Ray Garamendi; accommodations, Don McMeekin; tournament, Frazer West.

Director McDonald said that no dates have been decided upon as yet, but expressed the last two weeks of January or the first two weeks of February as logical dates for the holding of the Winter Carnival and Ski Tournament.

"Last year the Winter Carnival and Ski Tournament was directed and sponsored by the University of Nevada Ski Club," McDonald said, "but this year it will probably be sponsored by the associated students." He also said that he hopes the student senate will meet next week to approve this sponsorship.

Invitations will be sent to universities and colleges in California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Utah and to other universities that might be interested in attending.

The Winter Carnival program will cover a period of three days, will include fraternity and sorority open houses, dances and a Carnival Ball, banquets, tours of Reno and other forms of entertainment for out of town guests.

The intercollegiate Ski Tournament, to be held during two of the three carnival days, will bring together the competing university teams in slalom, downhill, cross-country and jumping competition.

The site for the intercollegiate ski tournament has not yet been announced—that must be left to the weather man, said Joe McDonald.

Deutsch Of U. C. Slated To Talk

Vice-President Is Termed "Berkeley's Most Useful Citizen" By Colleagues

Dr. Monroe E. Deutsch, vice president and provost of the University of California, will deliver the principal address at the inauguration ceremonies for Dr. Leon W. Hartman, president of the University of Nevada, Dec. 15. The announcement was made today by Dr. Robert Stewart, head of the committee in charge of arrangements.

Local officials have not as yet received word from Dean Deutsch about the topic for the speech or other detailed arrangements for the event, scheduled to take place Dec. 15.

Awarded Service Medal
The distinguished educator was recently named as the "Berkeley's Most Useful Citizen" and was awarded the Benjamin Ide Wheeler medal for outstanding service to that city.

At the time of the presentation of the medal, Dr. Deutsch was praised highly by civic leaders and associates at the University of California.

"Devotion, enthusiasm, understanding, tolerance, sincerity, courage, and honesty speak through other lips than mine, it would doxol his long record of accomplishment.

"The complex faculty functioning with less friction now than an time in the last 20 years would acclaim his prudent guidance; the students would thunder their applause at this climactic moment, all of which would be embarrassing to one of such exquisite refinement of intellect and character," Dean Frank H. Probert of the college of mining at California, said in speaking of Dean Deutsch.

The civic leader and eminent educator is a graduate of the University of California in 1902 with a B. A. degree and received his master's degree one year later from the same institution. He earned a Ph. D. from his alma mater in 1911 and in 1933 was awarded an honorary degree of doctor of letters from St. Mary's College in Moraga, Calif.

Named Vice-President in 1930
To taught in the Berkeley schools and later joined the faculty of the college of letters and science in 1922, a position which he held until 1930. He was named as vice-president of the institution in 1930 and one year later was named vice-president and provost, a title which he still holds.

He was the originator of the plan for the Benjamin Ide Wheeler award in 1927, when he served as president of the bay city Service Club Council and the Rotary club. He also wrote a book on the life of the former University of California president for whom the award is named. The title is "The Adventurous Life."

Dr. Deutsch has served as a member of the advisory council of Yenching University in Peking and the executive committee of the Northern California branch of the League of Nations Association.

The university committee in charge of the inaugural arrangements is composed of Stewart, Dean Frederick Sibley, Dr. F. W. Turner and Dean Frederick Wood.

Uniforms Issued R. O. T. C. Officers

Both commissioned and non-commissioned junior officers of the R. O. T. C. will receive new uniforms this week.

The new uniforms will have gray slacks instead of the former riding breeches and boots. This change was prescribed by the United States army for infantry cadet officers.

The junior non-commissioned officers will not wear the upper half of their Sam Browne belts and will remove the ranking insignia bars from their shoulders.

Mitchell Cobega and Raymond Garamendi, junior commissioned officers, will be permitted to wear the complete regalia of their rank. Both commissioned and non-commissioned officers will wear their uniforms in all parades and formations.

PROPOSED CHANGES IN A. S. U. N. CONSTITUTION

Article 1, Section 2, Paragraph (a): Changed to read as follows: "Payment of $12.50 shall constitute membership in the A. S. U. N. for the ensuing semester."

EDITOR'S NOTE: The proposed change to Article No. 1, Section 2, Paragraph (a) outlined above, provides for raising the A. S. U. N. fee to $12.50 per semester. The additional $2.50 would go to the board of athletic control to carry on the entire major and minor intercollegiate athletic program, which at the present time includes such sports as skiing, tennis, track, basketball, football and the entire freshman sports program. This would mean that the board of athletic control would receive a total of $7.00 out of A. S. U. N. fee of $12.50 ment, the term 'intercollegiate athletics' is defined as all major or minor sports in which competition is held with other universities or colleges and for which an athletic award is given.

4. The specific responsibilities of the board of athletic control shall be as follows:

(a) To determine all policy as it affects intercollegiate athletics.

(b) To have complete supervision of all intercollegiate athletics.

(c) To hire and contract for all coaches engaged in intercollegiate athletics and to remove and determine causes for removal of all coaches so engaged. To assign and supervise their duties.

(d) To hire and contract for a full-time graduate manager, and to remove and determine causes for removal of such graduate manager. To assign and supervise his duties.

(e) To determine the salary, time of payment and length of contract for all coaches engaged in intercollegiate athletics and the graduate manager.

(f) To approve or disapprove all schedules drawn up by the director of athletics, who shall be appointed by the board, and to approve and have signed all contracts in connection with such schedules.

(g) To approve or disapprove all budgets for intercollegiate athletics and to have complete supervision over all expenditures made from such budgets.

(h) To have complete supervision and control of all intercollegiate athletic contests held on the Nevada campus or near the university. To have supervision of all activities that are directly connected with an intercollegiate athletic contest.

5. There shall be allotted to the board of athletic control out of each A. S. U. N. fee of $12.50, the beginning of each semester seven dollars ($7.00) which shall be used to carry on the intercollegiate athletic program.

Nevada Graduates Take Prominent Part in S. F. Fair

Two University of Nevada graduates, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sam of Canton, China, were employed by the Chinese government at the Golden Gate exposition in San Francisco, which closed recently. The couple was sent over with the Chinese concession, and was in charge of the ivory display.

Frank Sam graduated from the university with the class of 1935, and after working in the cyanide plants of this country for two years, went to Hong Kong, China, where he entered the employ of the Chinese government in the tungsten industry.

Mrs. Sam, the former Bernice Lam, and a native Chinese, graduated with the class of 1936 with an A. B. degree.

After graduation she returned to her native land and became a science teacher in a Canton high school.

The couple was married in 1937.

At the exposition Mr. and Mrs. Sam greeted many of their Nevada friends and reported that while residing in Canton they experienced several air raids and were forced by the Japanese invasion to retreat to Hong Kong, where Mrs. Sam's father is a prominent banker.

At the present time Mr. Sam is in Hong Kong. He will soon return with their two-year old boy to San Francisco, where Mrs. Sam is now residing until it has been decided whether the fair will open next year.

Sagers Election

Sagers, men's pep and service group last night at a meeting elected Ed. Dodson secretary-treasurer and Warren Ferguson vice-president of the organization.

Dodson replaces Bill Mitchell, who resigned, and Ferguson succeeds Robert Smith, who recently became a member of Blue Key.

MINOR SPORTS TO BENEFIT BY RAISE IN STUDENT FEES

In the event the contemplated $2.50 raise in student body fee is accepted when the measure is voted on, the entire sum will be used to provide support for the intercollegiate athletic program, Graduate Manager Joe McDonnell said yesterday.

"When the fact that almost all sports at the university are operated on the deficit basis is taken into consideration, it becomes evident that further student body support is absolutely necessary," McDonnell said in pointing out the fact that football alone is the sole self-supporting sport on the campus, while basketball, because of limited seating capacity of the gym, tennis, track and skiing present a loss every year.

"This does not mean that the board feels that minor sports should not be encouraged," McDonnell stated further. "On the contrary, we feel that all these sports should have a definite spot in the program but, in order to sponsor them more money must be obtained for their continuance."

McDonnell also pointed out that none of the student body funds would be used to provide athletic scholarships. He stated that funds for this purpose must come from outside sources.

"Undoubtedly much of the financial difficulty will be removed with the erection of the new gym because this will make it possible for basketball to finance itself," McDonnell said in commenting upon the future of athletics at the university. "Then there is the possibility that we will realize more on football games due to the interest that the tentative schedule has aroused among students, townspeople and alumni supporters."

Tri-Delts Again Cop Volley Ball Trophy

W. A. A. intra-mural volley ball tournaments ended this week with Delta Delta Delta sorority in top place on the tournament ladder.

The tri-Delts were awarded the permanent volley ball cup at the close of the season last fall and will, as winners, receive the new cup for this year.

The Independent team received second place in the tournament.

Practice for inter-class tournaments will begin Tuesday, and girls intending to participate in the tournament must come to three of the four scheduled practices before being eligible for the teams, Eleanor Du Pratt, volley ball manager, said yesterday.

Inter-class games which will be held Nov. 28, Dec. 14 and Dec. 17, Miss Du Pratt said.

War Armistice Is Lecture Subject

Sam Platt, Reno attorney, addressed a joint meeting of students and faculty members this morning in the education auditorium on "The Significance of the World War Armistice of 1918."

Platt attended Stanford University and later received his L.L.D. from George Washington university law school. Returning to Nevada, he engaged in legal practice. President of the Nevada Community Concert Association, he is also a member of the Washoe county, State of Nevada and American Bar Associations.

He has held many important political offices in the state.

PLAY TOO ROUGH

According to Robert Keefe, a local junior high school boy, certain University of Nevada students play too rough.

Keefe was apprehended by the students when he annoyed them by ringing the doorbell of a sorority house which they were visiting.

He claimed that what was all in the spirit of good clean Hallowe'en fun turned out to be a sorry mess for him when the students tarred and feathered him with straw and waffle syrup.

G. Sawyer Given Lead In First Campus Production

The University Play Productions' fall presentation "What a Life" by George Abbott, starring Grant Sawyer in the role of Henry Aldrich, a fifteen-year-old high school boy, took definite shape this week with the cast mastering the lines for the first act and part of the second.

Two of the leading roles, that of Henry's girl friend and one of his teachers, were filled this week by Julia Barkley and Mary Ann Lockridge. Mary Higgins and Ethel Hardy have taken the place of Ridgely Pierson in the cast as high school students. These players have all had experience in previous campus productions.

This play in its original presentation on Broadway in New York City, had a successful run of a year and a half and is now being staged as a road show throughout eastern cities. A radio series based on the same cast and featuring more of the antics of the same Henry Aldrich has also been offered for the past year.

"This should be a very good performance," Edwin Semenza director, said yesterday. "It is a good, clean comedy and should prove very amusing."

John Marean is production manager in charge of the opus and Bud Owens handles all of the sets, lighting and curtains in his position of stage manager.

Rehearsals are held every week day afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock in the education building auditorium.

Debaters To Attend Meet In Stockton

The university debate squad is making final preparations to attend the debate and speech tournament in Stockton November 20, 21 and 22.

With Charles Mapes and Russel Strom meeting Robert Joy and James Tranter, and Bill Casey and James Driscoll debating Kay Devlin and Helen Lilly this afternoon, the tournament that has been in progress all week will be wound up.

Five teams have been working for the past two weeks for the honor of representing this school in the tournament. Debating this last week have been the following teams: Robert Joy and James Tranter; Charles Mapes and Russel Strom; Donald Downs and Andrew Rosachi; Bill Casey and James Driscoll and Katherine Devlin, Betty Mason and Helen Lilly.

Professor Robert S. Griffin, in charge of the forensics of this university, stated that beginning next week work will be done on polishing up debates and working on other speaking events for the tournament.

The tournament in Stockton this year comprises oratory contests, debate, both junior and senior division, impromptu speaking, extemporaneous speaking and problem solving.

Robert Towle, sophomore SAE, is confined to the hospital with a throat infection.

Armistice To Be Celebrated Saturday

The University of Nevada will celebrate the 21st Armistice in commemoration of the signing of a peace pact on the eleventh day, the eleventh hour and the eleventh month, in spite of the war clouds which again roll over Europe.

The R. O. T. C. battalion of the University of Nevada will participate in the Armistice Day parade tomorrow. The following cadet officers will command the battalion:

First Lieutenant Edward Beaupert will be commander of troops; 1st lieutenant Roy Shipp will command Company A; 1st lieutenant Clarence Heckethorne will command Company B and Captain Ned Dickerson will command Company C. Captain Walter Powers will be the adjutant.

The colors will be carried by Company C, an honor that was conferred upon Company A last year.

Forming in line at Stewart Hall the battalion will march behind the University of Nevada band. The band will follow the automobile which contains officers of the regular army, navy and marine corps.

While passing the reviewing stand, the entire body of cadets will sing a national song.

From their position on West Second street, the battalion will fall in behind the leading elements of the parade and will march behind the band until the parade has passed Center and Mill streets. From this point the cadets will leave the parade and return to the armory.

Nevada Coeds Take Part In Celebration

Sixty University of Nevada coeds participated in the dance interpretation of "The Creation," the prologue to the pageant held in the Carson amphitheater on Admission Day.

Professor Elsa Sameth, Miss Ruth Russell and Miss Audrey Stewart of the women's physical education department, instructed the group in the dances for the prologue.

Betty Cochran, attended by Fritz Neddenreip, and Gloria Day, attended by Harriet Hills, and Elizabeth Shwartz, represented the sun and the moon in the solo dance numbers.

Miniature Newspaper

A number of students have received copies of the "Storkville Clarion," a miniature newspaper announcing the arrival of a baby girl to Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Newman.

Newman was graduated from the university in 1929 and is editor of the "March of Progress" of the Los Angeles Examiner.

Engineers Attend Lecture and Movies

The Associated Engineers of the University of Nevada were entertained Wednesday by a motion picture and lecture given at the Mackay Science Hall by Mr. A. L. Prior of the General Petroleum Corporation of San Francisco.

A forty-minute talking picture on the inside story of lubrication was followed by a lecture on lubricating high speed Diesel engines and a discussion of additional agents in lubricating oils. After the lecture Prior announced that he would present the engineering library with thirty-five copies of "Lubricating Practice," a valuable text book for engineers.

The lecture, reported to be the best of the semester, was well received and was enjoyed by a large gathering.

Souvenir Program to Be Out Tomorrow

A special football program commemorating Armistice Day will be placed on sale tomorrow when the Nevada Wolves tangle with the Greeley State Bears on Mackay Field.

A special feature of the program will be a cut drawn by Marg Rives, sophomore journalist student, which will portray the advantages of attending college in America, as compared to the life of students in Europe.

The souvenir number will also contain a special story of the Nevada band, which has played a major part in all home games of the Pack.

A record of the game played by Greeley State, their lineup and bits concerning the coaching staff will be given a prominent place in the program.

Leonard Anker, freshman student from Lovelock, was pledged by Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity this week. Anker is registered in the school of agriculture.

Dismissal List Amounts to 33

Thirty-three students are subject to dismissal from the library for misconduct.

Misconduct, according to the library regulations, is defined as conversation in the reading room; eating, smoking or sleeping in the buildings; sitting on the arms of the chairs, leaning on the stair rails; playing with the revolving doors, mutilation of books or damage to any part of the building or grounds; presence in the library for any reason other than study or reading.

Conversation in the reading room constitutes the majority of offenses, according to librarians.

Those students on probation at the present time are:

Women May Have Rifle Team In '40

Hopes for a 1940 women's rifle squad at the University of Nevada rose today when it was learned that the military department will undertake to repair the rifle range.

Plans are now being arranged with the military department to furnish instructors for all women who are interested in rifle shooting.

"All women students who are interested," Miss Elsa Sameth, head of the women's P. E. department, said, "are requested to sign up with Miss Russell immediately. If enough girls sign up, and the rifle range is available for practice, rifle matches will be scheduled."

The rifle team is financed through a budget submitted to the W. A. A. This budget takes care of the ammunition and provides for new covers for the bats.

As yet there has been no rifle manager appointed for this year. Eunice Beckley was last year's manager, with Earlmond Baker and Felicia Moos as assistants.

B. Landson Cops Honors In Show

Beatrice Landson, president of Saddle and Spurs, rode riding club, placed first in three events of the combined Women's Athletic Association Saddle and Spurs horse show Saturday.

Miss Landson received first prize in the "game of Hallowe'en", the "hat and boot" race and for the best mounted western-style rider.

Ramona Beachem placed second in the "hat and boot" race and Mary Mahoney was awarded second prize in the western riding contest.

Other "blue ribbons" were claimed by Anne Kirkwood for first place as the best mounted English rider and by Katherine Bolander for first place in the beginners' saddling and bridling contest.

Special events during the show included an exhibition of prize stock horses by Beatrice Landson and Wayne Cutler.

A. W. S. Meeting Is Set For Thursday

Gertrude Freeman, chairman of the Associated Women Students, announced today that an A. W. S. meeting will be held next Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the education auditorium.

The program includes a speaker from Reno to be decided upon by Dean Margaret Mack. A member of the men's athletic board will also be present to explain the proposed amendment which will give an additional $2.50 fee per student to the athletic department of the university.

Mary Kornmayer, head of the Women's Athletic Association, will present W. A. A. awards and the recipient of the A. W. S. scholarship for this year will be announced by Dean Mack.

As further entertainment, Adrian Anderson, Patsy Prescott, Mildred Missimer and Margaret Sears will sing several selections.

Art Exhibit Held

Another art exhibit was held this week by the Fine Arts Club.

This exhibit featured the artistic achievements of all the art classes of the University of Nevada. It has been open to the campus since Monday and nearly all types of art work have been displayed.

According to Thelma Crosby, president of the organization, the next exhibit will be held some time in December and further details concerning this will not be released for a few weeks.

SOCIAL DOINGS AT THE U. OF N.

PHI SIGS HOLD DANCE

Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity held a radio dance at their house Saturday. Chaperones were Professor Edwin Semenza, Blythe Bulmer and Mr. and Mrs. Hollis McKinnon.

Those attending were Lowell Hillygus, Juanita Elcano, Roy Seeman, Inez Peal, Aaron Dunn, Ted Wise, Molly Morse, Glen Keister, Katharine Devlin, Loyal Willis, Irene Finn, Tom Ross, Frances Willis, Lynn Montgomery, Betty Ricker, Frank Schumacher, Sue Hicks, Henry Mayer, Waleena Jayness, Elliot Leemer, Lois Poulson, Henry Jones, Geraldine Hartman, Austin Reemis, Betty Brown, Arthur Hackwood, John Gabrielli, Philip Hutchinson, Harry Boney, Franklin Davis, Frank Roylance, Barbara Heany, Joe Kosakowski, Doris Chestnut, Fred Batchelder, John Giomi, Leland Beckley, Gloria Hammond, Ralph Kergan, Joe Giomi, Gordon Robertson, Joe Lom-mori, Marvin Turner and Mr. and Mrs. Hutchins.

HALL DANCE

Dancing to the strains of Mark Nesbitt's campus orchestra amid a "concert-in-the-park" theme, a joint dance was given Friday by Lincoln Hall and Manzanita Associations at the university dining hall.

Chaperones were Dean Mack, Miss Loder and Miss Garrison, dining hall dietitian.

Others attending were Larry Carter, Jeanette Taylor, George Wade, Mary Comish, Robert Smith, Venitia Dahlstrom, George Escobar, Margaret King, Roy Shipp, Gwen Shearer, Edward Kuhlman, Virginia Pluum, Harry Dawson, Ruth Hanson, Ned Dickson, Fritz Jane Needenripp, Bill Lattin, Billie Jean Stinson, Ike Caraco, Emilie Turano, Bill Mitchell, Eileen Buck, Ralph Isaac, Betty Brannin, Bud Owens, Edna Pluum, Grant Anderson, Dolores Saval, Louis Peraldo, Cleone Stewart, Trig Johnson, Betty Brown, Guy Allen, Mary Margaret Murphy, Clarence Hecke-thorne, Ellen Lou Connolly, Tony Yri-berry, Margaret Johnson, Jack Pieri, Helen Cameron, Edward Beupuert, Gene Wines, Art Palmer, Rita Turano, Jim Wolff, Jeanette Rives, Joe Gross, Mary Madlyn Down, Burton Barrett, Charleen Wieland, Fred Stiverson, Virginia Green, George Clark, Grace Menke, Harvey Johnson, Betty Nash, Ted Knopf, Marlea Dodge, Leota Davie, Jack Pierce, Drew Smith, Harriet Hills, John Marean, Alice Wade, Virginia Pluum, Edward Kuhlman, Dyer Jensen, Molly Morse, Phyllis McCullough, Donald Downs, Andrew Rosachi, Marjorie Gregory, Melvin Woodgate, Sally Woodgate, Jim Perkins, Mildred Brendell, Dave Hartman, Wilma Foote, Gertrude Freeman, Rod Perkins, Carlyle Pribenow, Marie Williams, Bill Newman, Doris Rice, Warren Salman, Gloria Day, Kenneth Eather, Margaret Mullin, Pete Echeverria, Della Oleachea, Bob Taylor, Betty Lee Perry, Bud Bacon, Raveau Hansen, Edith Salvi, Dan Fryberger, Evelyn Barry, Bob Fulton, Sally Robinson, William Orr, Katharine Wilkes, Cliff Young, Larene Wright, Leonard Anker, Virginia Mathews, Bill Bingham, Jerry Black, Arthur

Dean Mack, Echo Loder and Clara Garrison acted as chaperones. Le Roy Mow was in charge of serving refreshments.

A. T. O. COCOANUT DANCE

Alpha Tau Omega fraternity will hold its annual "Cocoanut" dance tonight at the chapter house.

The dance, which is a costume affair, will be chaperoned by Professor John Gottardi, Bernard Hooper and John Yapuncich.

Besides fraternity members and chaperones, eight other persons from various fraternities have been invited: Jim Perkins, Lambda Chi Alpha; John DuPratt, Sigma Nu; Jack Pieri, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Bill Mitchell, Lincoln Hall; Allen McGill, Sigma Phi Sigma; Wayne Goodin, Independents; Glen Kaiser, Phi Sigma Kappa, and Warren Ferguson, Beta Kappa.

SAGE DINNER DANCE

The Sagers, men's underclass pep organization, held a dinner dance at the Colombo Cafe Saturday night, honoring four newly-elected members, Jay Gibson, Paul Seaborn, Richard Jameson and John Bazzini.

Something new in Sagers functions, the dinner marked the first social activity of that group since it has been organized and, according to President Jack Pieri, it was a great success.

Short speeches were given by the newly-elected members, followed by short talks by Robert Joy, Jack Pieri, John Cooper and Henry Cooper, the chaperone.

LINCOLN HALL TEA

Lincoln Hall Association will entertain Manzanita Association Sunday afternoon from three to five at Lincoln Hall, where another of the series of fall teas is to be presented.

A special devised game recently arranged for the Sunday socials will be featured at the affair and refreshments will be served.

Chi Delta Phi Looks For Talent

A search for talent on the University of Nevada campus will be inaugurated by Chi Delta Phi, women's honorary English society, it was decided at a meeting Wednesday evening.

Object of the search is material for a "talent show" to be presented early next semester, instead of the time-honored "scandal show" of that organization. College men and women, talented in various fields but hitherto "unknown" will be given their chance in this production, according to Cleone Stewart, president.

A party for potential members of Chi Delta Phi will be held on Nov. 20, English majors and minors with the required scholastic qualifications will be guests.

Plans for the annual poetry contest were discussed and include inviting the various Nevada high schools to participate. A cup will be presented to the author of the prize-winning poem at the state forensic meet next spring.

HERE'S YOUR CHANCE TO BE A STAR

Students at the U. of N. who have ambitions toward being in the movies probably did not know what they were missing the past few weeks. For right "under their noses" was the one man who could possibly help them fulfill those ambitions.

This man, L. L. Cole, is interested in the Wolf Den, along with Mr. Glusovich, '37. Cole is connected with several motion picture companies in Hollywood. He is engaged in location work and is well acquainted in Hollywood, having been employed in this position for the last eight or nine years.

Several motion pictures are to be made soon in the close vicinity of Reno, Cole said, and he believes that there will be plenty of positions open for extras.

Richard Taw and Charles Turner, alumni of Beta Kappa '38, are now attending medical college at the University of Southern California.

Cap and Scroll Plans To Go National

Cap and Scroll, local women's honor society, is now making plans for joining Mortar Board, national women's honor society.

Although no definite word has been received from the national organization in regard to securing membership, the local group is preparing to sponsor campus projects to make money for initiation fees, according to President Pat Meaker. The nature of these projects has not been disclosed.

Miss Meaker states that the next meeting of Cap and Scroll will be a dinner at the Club Fortune.

Members of the organization are Pat Meaker, Shirley Fuetsch, Sybil Furchner, Evelyn Bulmer and Nellie Roseberry.

B. K. MOTHERS HOLD AUTUMN CARD PARTY

Beta Kappa mothers will hold their late autumn card party at the chapter house tonight beginning at 8:00 p. m. Door prizes, refreshments and special entertainment is being offered by the organization.

Gene Scarcelli, sophomore, was pledged to Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity last week.

FOR MORE MILDNESS—COOLNESS AND FLAVOR

Camels Slow-Burning Costlier Tobaccos

Here's luxury and thrift together!

TOBACCO'S temperament! Its elements of flavor and aroma are delicate... fragile.

And nothing destroys tobacco flavor...nothing turns natural fragrance into tasteless discomfort like...heat!

Fast-burning cigarettes can't yield either comfort or delicate taste. They taste... well, like anything but a good cigarette. Camel's slow-burning, costlier tobaccos give you the luxury of milder, cooler, more fragrant and flavorful smoking.

And that luxury not only doesn't cost you more... it costs you less! Simple arithmetic shows you how slow burning also gives you the equivalent of 5 extra smokes per pack! (See panel at right.)

A prominent scientific laboratory recently made impartial tests on 16 of the largest-selling cigarette brands. They found that CAMELS BURNED SLOWER THAN ANY OTHER BRAND TESTED—25% SLOWER THAN THE AVERAGE TIME OF THE 15 OTHER OF THE LARGEST-SELLING BRANDS! By burning 25% slower, on the average, Camels give smokers the equivalent of 5 EXTRA SMOKES PER PACK!

FAST BURNING - creates hot flat taste in smoke... ruins delicate flavor, aroma...

SLOW BURNING - protects natural qualities that produce mildness, thrilling taste, fragrance... a cooler smoke...

NO ILL FEELING

Last week U. N. students were slightly angered when they discovered that the university campus had been spotted with paintings—the doings of an over-enthusiastic group of Chico rooters.

Many of us, naturally, were bitter toward such doings. Yet we forgot one thing: that what was done did not reflect the general opinion of the Chico student body, but that of a certain few.

This is expressed in a telegram sent by Art Whitmer, president of the Chico student body by Byron Hardie when he said: "This act does not reflect the attitude of or college. It was done entirely on the initiative of those few students."

"We are making every endeavor to apprehend the culprits," President Whitmer continues. "Please accept our apology and let me know the extent of the damages."

Quite often students, in a spirit of enthusiasm, do things with no malthought. Such was the case, we believe, when the California rooters visited Reno last week, and we are certain that this incident will bring no ill feeling between Nevada and Chico, for win, lose or draw, we have always considered Chico a good friend even in the midst of athletic competition.

THE THREE WISE MEN

Once upon a time there were three wise men who lived, for the most part of six days a week, on top of a hill. The rest of the time they lived in their unmade beds at their fraternity houses.

One day in the fall of the year the three wise men met at the top of the hill on which they lived and held a council. Being very, very wise men who always thought before they acted and had lots of regard for other peoples' feelings and rights, they used up all of three seconds in a huddle and then came out with an exceedingly clever plan. The plan, since the wise men knew all about everybody else's business better than everybody else did, clearly showed the wisdom of active, conscientious men, working for the good of all concerned.

Said the first wise man, with his tail between his legs, "Well, I ain't never had time to get into activities around here and when I did have time nobody appointed me, but I know that I could do the job lots better than those guys. Why just look—there's eleven frosh in that class without dinks."

The second wise man shook his horns sadly. "Yeah," said he, "it's just like this football team. Myself, I never played any because I got a bad heart, but if you ask me, I could do better than that bum Jones. Why, them bums are just lucky to win the way they have been lately."

The third wise man stepped back and nibbled at a piece of cheese in a rat trap before he spoke. Then with a knowing leer, he whispered:

"Ah, I know; we're living in the dark ages; let's get up a petition to boot everybody outta here shut us."

Just then the rat trap closed shut with an awful bang and the three wise men were caught.

Then do you know what happened? The rest of the people who lived on top of that hill took the three wise men and called them knockers and threw them in Manzanita lake, where they all drowned.

The moral is, if you're going to be a wise man, stay away from the rat traps.—F. M.

A free press is an essential principle of any democracy.—A. L. Higginbotham.

DR. CHAPPELLE OUT FOR FALL SEMESTER

Dr. B. F. Chappelle, head of the department of foreign languages, who suffered a heart attack at the beginning of the school year, will not be able to resume his classes this semester, it was learned today.

Although his condition is greatly improved his physician does not believe he has regained strength sufficiently to attend classes.

Harold Baird, junior student, was confined to the university hospital for four days, where he was treated for tonsillitis.

Phi Sigma Kappa Members Attend District Conclave

Five members of Phi Sigma Kappa left for Los Angeles yesterday afternoon to attend the regional conclave of the fraternity, which is being held at the University of Southern California.

The conclave will continue over the weekend and the Phi Sigs will return to Reno Monday.

Those attending the convention are John Giomi, Loyal Willis, Fred Batchelder, Leland Eckley and Frank Shumaker.

Salty's Sage lish

It seems that a school year at Nevada would not be complete if something didn't happen to disrupt the sleepy western atmosphere of the campus. This year the fuss is raised about the attire of our bevy of majorettes. A standing order for the riot squad has been placed on file at central agencies.

Nevada, my Nevada, Oh, state that's my battle born

Why must thou live thy days of youth

And peaceful pathways scorn?
The need for calm is present in every student heart;

One worry drops from wrinkled brow—

Then other worries start.
Oh, land of tranquil beauty, oh, placid days of yore

We'll attire our gals in hooped skirts

If you give us peace once more,
And not one inch of girlish flesh

Shall prying eyes behold—
We'll wrap them up in flowing robes

As Victoria did of old.

The latest cute little trick of the S. A. E. house is the election of a cute freshman woman as house mother, or something. The new dignitary is none other than Ivaloo Johnson, and we must say the choice is a compliment to someone's taste.

Anyone calling the Lambda Chi house of late is doomed to disappointment if they expect to reach their party. Since the romance of Vernon Laca and Jean Stewart has gotten well under way, hour-long 'phone connections have been the rule.

The atmosphere at Farley's has been considerably enlivened by the impromptu performances of Pio Mastroianni, who, since the Frolic, has put on several original interpretations of what the well-dressed fan dancer should not wear. He has been ably assisted by Annie Johnson.

The following little bit has been dedicated to an old campus tradition that we have been subjected to for the last week:

It's only a shanty of uncertain age Embattled by wind and by storm. The termites rest and multiply Within its shapeless form.

The tide of strife and adversity Have crushed her, made her sway. But the student union building Might stand for many a day.

For though they sell their little bricks

"Buy a Brick," they cry, Those damn bricks, not like termites, Refuse to multiply.

Study Formations

Prof. H. E. Wheeler of the geology department of the Mackay school of mining and Dudley Davis, senior mining student, recently went to the Pioche mining district to study and recheck the field relationships of various Cambrian formations in that area. The work is being done in connection with the preparation of Wheeler's forthcoming Nevada state bureau of mines bulletin on this district.

Members of the W. A. A. intra-mural board will meet Monday afternoon to discuss plans for the annual group banquet, Mary Kornmayer, chairman of the board, announced today.

Letters to the Editor

Editor, Sagebrush—Where is the university going? Last year a group of courageous footballers took the bull by the horns and revolted against the conditions and practices obtaining in the handling of athletics. Perhaps this method was wrong—perhaps not. At any rate, the objective was achieved—and Nevada now boasts the foundation of a real football team and the show that goes with it.

Which brings up the matter in question—the university band. Second to none in the country, their marching led by a girl whose character and morals are on the same superlative plane as her performance as drum majorette, the band has been loyal—a bright spot in the early season's battles of Coach Alken's tiny football squad, when the hard-luck jinx dogged a game team that consistently outgained their opponents. In spite of the early losses, in spite of last season—the attendance at the games has been excellent. The cash customers are always assured of good music and a setting for bright entertainment by the best drum majorette in the country. And to those who carry the financial burden in an attempt to give Nevada a good team, and the advertising that goes with it, a good gate is a help. And there can be no doubt as to the part Miss Crabtree's performance plays in a good gate.

From another viewpoint—not so important to anyone but Elsie Crabtree—her dress and actions have been labeled indecent—with the attendant reflection on her character. How much longer will the student body accept without action the dictatorial powers assumed by the dean of women? Is it not time that the directing body of the college—the board of regents—exercise its authority and examine into an edict concerning the conduct of a girl who is today the biggest financial asset to the athletics of the university, as well as being above reproach in every way?

Viewed by a purient mind, through the fog of 1890, hoop skirts, pantaloons and parasols, when legs were limbe and a dashing game of croquette the height of deviltry, perhaps Elsie's performance is scandalous—but to clean-minded, sport and music-loving American youth—and to every-one else who has seen her at the head of her band—Elsie Crabtree, her baton, her dancing and her short skirts combine to make a beautiful picture that is a credit to any place in the United States.

ANONYMOUS.

Jack Woodward, engineering student class of '31, and alumnus of Beta Kappa fraternity, is at present employed as metallurgist at the Getchell mines.

ARCHERS PREPARE FOR FEBRUARY MEET

Two practice meets were held Oct. 30 and Nov. 2 in preparation for the inter-collegiate archery meet in February.

Members and candidates for the women's archery team used forty-eight-inch targets in the practice matches. Viola Sorensen shot a 125, top score of the meet.

Eleanor Ryan and Hilma Wickstrom placed third and fourth with scores of 91 and 87.

WHAT WE THINK

By JACK RHOADES

Nevada Spirit

The spirit will take a nose dive if Elsie's knees don't show. All of the papers in the Pacific region played this story up big, especially the San Francisco Chronicle. A rumor around the campus says that she is going to appear in an 1864 garb. Miss Crabtree is probably one of the best majorettes on the coast and if the authorities make her "cut" her best assets the band will probably lose all of its color. In this day and age a band without a group of majorettes is about as lonesome as the president of the Green Lea Club.

Mid-Week Practice

The frosh ran the varsity dizzo Tuesday in the practice session. Boy, what a team Nevada will have next year if all the mainstays are back in school. The whole team works well as a unit, especially on passes. The varsity didn't look very impressive in the workout, but will they snap out of it on Saturday?

Greeley State

They pass and pass and pass. Against B. Y. U. they used 34 and connected on one third of them. This boy Funk is the spearhead of the passing attack. He covers more ground than three men when going down on passes. Greeley has won four and lost two so far this season.

Basketball

The S. A. E. team is headed for the first-place cup. They have good support from their house men, with Big John as the cheer leader. The varsity candidates are working out nightly on Mackay field getting into shape. Conway, Thompson, Etchemendy, DuPratt and Lemich are jumping rope to get the spring back in their legs after a year's layoff.

Odds and Ends

The U. of N. ski team is trying to raise money to carry on skiing this year. Most of the aces were lost by graduation, or by other means, and right now the leaders of the team are passing fancy. Skiing is probably the most popular winter sport on the are wondering if this sport was just Nevada campus and it would be a shame to lose it as an intercollegiate sport.

John Polish is plenty worried about his knee. A couple of jolts in the Chico game didn't do it any good. Bud Young, Bob Robinett and Polish will be strong contenders for all-conference honors when the team comes out later this month.

Doug Dashiell and the Stockton junior college are doing all right this season. More power to Doug and his boys.

Coach Aiken plans to continue football during the winter months in the training quarters. His program is light blocking and tackling—and training.

Poets' Corner:

Mr. Robinett is a stellar player
And with the gals a he-man player.
But his play will slip some 20
degrees
If the head majorette don't show
her knees. —Anonymous.

S. A. E. Is Greek Basketball Champ For 1939 Season

Three Teams Knotted in Tie For Second With Two Defeats Each

Sigma Alpha Epsilon is intra-mural basketball champion for 1939.

The championship was practically cinched Wednesday when the SAEs beat Lambda Chi, 42-20.

Babcock, SAE forward, handed in his best performance to date by covering the floor throughout the game and scoring 18 points.

A second half rally that threatened the Sig Alphas for a while but faded before becoming serious.

Lincoln Hall played a defensive game with Sigma Phi Sigma to come out on the long end of a 14-4 score. Neither team was at its best. In the second half Lincoln Hall was held to four points, while the Phi Sigs made one lone bucket.

The Lambda Chis guaranteed themselves a crack at the title by defeating Alpha Tau Omega 21 to 18 in one of the closest games of the season. Both teams showed efficient team work with smooth passing and setups. Pierce's eight points for Lambda Chi was the deciding factor.

A nine-point scoring spree by Walker in the second half decided a hard-fought game between Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Sigma Nu. The S. A. E. 30 to 25 victory made it a two-way tie for first place with Lambda Chi.

The Independents defeated Phi Sigma Kappa Monday, 36 to 21. Montgomery of the Phi Sigs and Peterson of the Independents shared high point honors with eight points each.

Vaughn carried away top honors in the Lambda Chi win over Sigma Phi Sigma. The lanky Lambda Chi center scored five times and sank a free throw to lead his team to a 25-14 win. The rough and tumble play of Vincent Shea and Allen McGill for the Phi Sigs threatened for a while but the smooth working Lambda Chi refused to be rattled.

The A. T. O.s forced the Beta Kappas back into the cellar with a 20-16 victory. At the half time the narrow 14-12 lead seemed inadequate but a Beta Kappa rally failed to materialize.

The previously humbled Sigma Nus were back in their stride Tuesday night, defeating Lincoln Hall, 33-10. Powers turned in his usual sparkling game to garner top honors with ten points.

Wednesday night Sigma Phi Sigma defeated Lincoln Hall to register the Phi Sig win of the season. The hall squad led at the half time, 10-6. The Phi Sigs scored 12 points in the second half to win 19-15.

The ATOs clipped Independents 36 to 28 to turn in a season record of consistently good basketball. Hawkins of the Alpha Taus led the scoring with 10 points.

Team Standings:

Team	Won	Lost
Sigma Alpha Epsilon	7	1
Alpha Tau Omega	6	2
Sigma Nu	5	2
Lambda Chi Alpha	4	2
Independents	3	3
Beta Kappa	1	5
Lincoln Hall	0	6

B. K.s Initiate Four

Four men—William Cristani, Warren Ferguson, William Covington and George Frey—are undergoing "hell-week" at the Beta Kappa fraternity, officials of the group said. Formal initiation for the men will be held Saturday.

PLAY LAST HOME GAME OF 1939 SEASON TOMORROW

Back row—Assistant Coach Schuchart, Polish, Clayton, Schlager, Robinett, Nickovich, Vinson, Shea, Smithwick, Pillifant, Giomi, Chesher, Cobega, Kirkendall, Head Coach Aiken.

IMPROVING

Ray Garamendi, junior student from Ely and varsity football player, who underwent an operation for appendicitis Sunday afternoon. He is reported by hospital attendants to be improving.

He was stricken Saturday night on the train returning from the football game with Chico State, and was rushed to St. Mary's hospital upon his arrival.

Garamendi has played as both guard and tackle on the varsity football squad this season, and is the fifth man to be forced out of competition because of injury or illness.

C. O. P.-NEVADA CLASH IN STOCKTON DEC. 2

The College of Pacific-Nevada grid initially has been scheduled for Saturday, Dec. 2, according to a telegram received by Graduate Manager Joe McDonnell today.

Originally the game was to be played Nov. 30 (Thanksgiving) but because of the conflicting dates this year for Thanksgiving, the game was postponed until the following Saturday.

Nine Old Wolves To Play Last Home Game

Nine senior men will play their last home game tomorrow when the Wolf Pack meets the Greeley Bars on the Mackay football field.

The football players are Ollinto Barsanti, guard; Earl Brooks, guard; Hank Clayton, end; Pat Eaton, quarterback; Joe Kievet, tackle; Eli Nickovich, center; Bill Peccole, halfback; Del Stewart, tackle, and Dick Taylor, quarterback.

Edward Montgomery, University of Nevada journalism graduate with the class of 1934, is now on the editorial staff of the Reno Evening Gazette.

Montgomery was at one time on the staff of the Nevada State Journal. When on the campus, he was active in publications work, being one of the organizers and early president of the University of Nevada Press Club.

TO THE SAGEBRUSH:

Listen, you muckraking scandal-mongers who masquerade under the fair name of journalism; you beer-drinking, undernourished morons who bombard defenseless student body with that odorous rag you so humorously call a newspaper; we, the valiant athletes of the Artemesia, do hereby accept the challenge tendered us and will appear Saturday, Nov. 18 on Mackay field, to give your anemic team the worst drubbing ever administered a touch-tackle team.

Expectantly yours,

TICKET CONTEST TO BOOST JUNIOR PROM

Plans for the annual junior prom were launched Tuesday when Jack Pieri, publicity chairman, announced that a ticket sales contest among the fraternity houses would be sponsored by the prom committee. "A huge thermometer will be placed on the campus and as the fraternity sales go up, the lines on the gauge will rise," Pieri said.
Negotiations for the hiring of a prominent coast orchestra are under way and it is entirely possible that Nevada's junior prom will be staged to the music of one of the better known orchestras, according to Pieri.
The advance sale of tickets will start soon, as well as an intensive campaign of posters, stickers and placards.
The prom will be held Dec. 9 in the state building.

CAN YOU NAME IT?

What's in a name?
That's the question now confronting Oly Glusovich, '37, and proprietor of the Wolf Den, for he has a new and novel drink which he cannot name.
The drink, according to Glusovich, contains Nesbitt's orange, two scoops of ice cream, carbonated water and a shot of Cole's mixture.
A prize of a carton of cigarettes is offered the student submitting the most appropriate name for the drink. Judging the contest is the U. N. Jock Club.
Until a name has been accepted the drink will be called a "slisher."

PUNISHMENT GIVEN TRADITION BREAKERS

Four freshmen girls underwent the worst punishment that has been administered this semester by the Women's Upperclass Committee today.
Barbara Dickerson, Clara Turillas and Ivaloo Johnson were forced to wear three-foot placards bearing the words "I am a tradition breaker." Each girl carried a raw egg in her hand and none were allowed to speak during the entire day.

Undeclared Frosh Win Again, 40-0

The powerful University of Nevada freshman team came through with their fourth decisive win of the season by soundly whipping Lassen J. C., 40-0, on Mackay field Saturday.

Paille, lanky end, led the frosh line on both offense and defense, being capably backed up by Hampton, Robbins, Wisniewski and Quillic.

Early in the first quarter, Smith, Wolf Cub fullback, drove over right guard, ran 40 yards down the sideline and then turned and lateraled to Sutich, who continued on for the score. Sutich converted and the frosh led 7-0.

In the same quarter, Dunn ran a Lassen punt back until he was about to be tackled and then lateraled to Sutich, who, picking up blockers at every step, ran the remaining 40 yards to score. Again Sutich converted and the frosh led, 14-0.

In the second quarter, Hampton, alert yearling center, picked up a Lassen pass out of the air on his own 5-yard line. Two plays later Ross, frosh wideback, went over left tackle for the score. Sutich converted and the final count was 20-0.

Early in the third quarter Burrus rounded right end, reversed his field and came through for 35 yards and another frosh score. Smith's attempted conversion failed. A few minutes later a 32-yard pass from Burrus to Paille put the ball on the Lassen 2. On the next play, Smith went over left tackle for the score.

Burrus ran the extra point and the frosh led 33-0. Paille set up the last score with a 25-yard end-around play which put the ball on Lassen's 8-yard line. Two plays later Ross, frosh wideback, went over left tackle for the score. Sutich converted and the final count was 40-0.

Scabbard, Blade, to Initiate in December

Twenty-eight advance military students have accepted bids to Scabbard and Blade, national military society, according to President John Naughton. The new men will undergo formal initiation services Dec. 5; formal ceremonies are scheduled Dec. 10.
Men to be initiated are Darrell Birch, Nicholas Pappas, James Gibbs, Lee Conaway, Mitchell Cobeaga, James Barrett, Jess Tranter, John Severne, Chas. Jones, Eugene Williams, Mark Stewart, Phillip Carroll, Ralston Hawkins, Jack Wittwer, Gilbert Morehouse, Bill Casey, John Giomi, Wilbourne Andrews, Nick Perry Pollock, Stanley Hill, Robert McDonough, Henry Morehead, Dallas Downs, Raymond Cochran, Frank Claus, Raymond Garamendi.

Over 250 Blue Key Directories Sold Today

Louis Peralto, acting head of the Blue Key, announced that more than 250 Blue Key directories had been sold this week.
The committee which first started selling the book after it had come out were Sam Morehouse, Guy Allen, George Escobar, Bob Smith, Clarence Heckethorne, Ross Ashley, and Frank McCulloch.
Peralto stated that 500 books were printed, but if the demand is great enough the Blue Keyers would print more. This would possibly be next week, he said.
"Because they can't put advertising in the directory," Peralto said, "the Blue Keyers were forced to charge 15 cents a copy to defray the expense of printing."

Crippled Wolves Await Coloradoans

and Joe McDonald both turned in their usual steady games.

Last Game For Seniors
Then, too, there'll be nine seniors playing their last game on Mackay field, a situation which usually results in the same type of football that a Nevada team plays on Homecoming. The nine are bound to play better ball than they would under normal conditions, and such a spirit is very liable to pick up the whole team and carry it along.

Greeley Aerial Minded
Whatever the attitude of the Wolves they're going to have to give everything they've possibly got to come out with a win tomorrow. The Greeley Bears are a team that likes nothing better than to fill the air with lots and lots of footballs, and there's no use denying that that attack is still the Pack's major weak spot. Pass defense is tremendously improved, to be sure, as Chico learned, but how it will stand up against an aerial-minded squad like the Coloradoans remains to be seen.

When the air attack collapses, moreover, the Bears have power to spare in their fast, heavy backfield, so the combination makes them a mighty dangerous team, as their record of four wins and two losses so far this season will attest.

Common Opponent
Victims include Western State, Idaho Southern, Montana State and Colorado State, while they have been beaten by Brigham Young, the same team which the Wolves played to an actual scoreless tie here on Homecoming day, only to lose on a slip by the officials, and Colorado Mines.
Coach Jim Aiken, unsatisfied with the squad's showing during the week, said that lineup changes would be frequent tomorrow.

Theta Presentation Tea to be Nov. 18

Nineteen pledges of Kappa Alpha Theta will be presented to the public at a tea November 18 at the chapter house.
Pledges to be introduced are Billie Jean Stinson, Harriet Hills, Molly Morse, Pritzi Jane Neddenriep, Anne Kirkwood, Mary Louise Griswold, Gloria Day, Marigene Christianson, Jean Caple, Mary Etta McKenna, Julia Barkley, Emilie Turano, Rita Turano, Janice Bowden, Betty Cochran, Jeanne Stewart, Jo Anne Record, Anette Sargent and Yvonne Rosasco.
Following the tea open house will be held at the Twentieth Century Club for the campus.

Dramatics Society Elects Officers

Betty Marie Shidler, senior student and member of Delta Delta Delta sorority, was elected president of the Masque and Dagger, national honorary dramatic society, at a meeting Thursday afternoon. She succeeds Evelyn Bulmer, senior university stage star.
Miss Shidler has been active in dramatics throughout her campus career, having appeared in such productions as "The Wind and the Rain," "The Torch Bearers," and "Wolves' Frolic act."
Edwin Semenza, acting as dramatics coach in the absence of Professor William Miller, is treasurer of the group.

When and Where Knees are News

Regardless of what public opinion thought about the whole thing, the recent story on Elsie Crabtree was really news. This is proved by the fact that Elsie was given write-ups in many of the nation's leading papers supplied by the facilities of the United Press.
Kansas City, Memphis and all the dailies in New York City carried the full story, complete with cuts of the majorette in action.
In the meantime, Dean Margaret E. Mack has withdrawn her objections and Elsie will lead the band tomorrow in short skirts.

Byron Hardie Back

He was rough and he was tough and he fought with all he had, but he still ended up away out in Manzanita lake.
"Whitey" Brock, freshman football player who swore he'd never wear a dink, paint the "N", or bring boxes for the bonfire, learned the error of his ways today when the upperclass committee gave him 15 lousy swats and then laced him for good measure.
Brock put up a real struggle before finally seeing the point before superior numbers and an irate group of tradition protectors.

NEW MEMBERS ELECTED TO SADDLE AND SPURS

New members of the Saddle and Spurs Club will be initiated at a banquet next Thursday to be held at the Club Fortune, according to Beatrice Landson, president of the group.
Those who will be initiated are Anne Kirkwood, Ruth Wilcox, Betty Mason, Marlea Dodge, and Lorraine Robinson.
Members of the riding club of Sacramento junior college will be guests of the Nevada organization Nov. 18. A luncheon and ride will be held in their honor.

Pack Stops Chico Wildcats By 3-0

The Nevada Wolf Pack invaded the campus of Chico State College last Saturday feeling that a decided victory was in store for Nevada, but they left that night with a hard-earned 3-0 victory over the "home-coming-spirited" Chico State.

In the second quarter the Wolf Pack moved the ball into a good position on Chico's 30-yard line. It was last down; they were in a huddle—what were they going to do? Nevada's passing so far was too weak to rely on and the Pack's running attack was held almost to a standstill up to this time by the seven and eight man line defense of Chico. A decision was rendered in the huddle, and the task of scoring Nevada's only points of the day fell upon the toe of Quarterback Pat Eaton. It was good, in fact, good enough to win Nevada's first and second Far West-ern conference games.
At half time, Chico had scored eight first downs to Nevada's three, four from passing and four through Nevada's line.

Nevada proved to be a "second-half team" and covered the ball up and down the field hammering out nine first downs. In the second half the Homecoming fire of Chico faded and the Wildcats were held for no first downs.
