Most of the men promoted are members of the first-year advanced class. Cadet master sergeants Ralph W. Lattin, Edwin C. Mulcahy, and Leland J. Whipple have been appointed cadet second lieutenants

James McNabney and Leon A. Etchemendy have been made master sergeants while Robert F. Robens, Heath M. Hovey and George L. Clark have been promoted to cadet first sergeants. James D. Rookus and John A. Ulhade are now staff sergeants.

The following corporals have been promoted to the rank of sergeant: Damon M. Tranter, Bernard A. Con nolly, James V. Dupratt, William S Etchemendy, Angelo J. Barsanti, Peter I. Echeverria, Ira S. Dupratt, Bob Bennyhoff, Mario J. Recanzone, Robert L. Burns, Alfred P. Mills and

Some cadet privates were raised to the rank of corporal. They are Robert E. Gould, Deanne L. Quilici, and Alphonse Wisniewski.

Four Yell Leaders To Aid Etchemendy

Definite arrangements for the University of Nevada cheer leading staff were completed last night with the appointment of four assistant leaders by head man Leon Etchemendy and Masque and Dagger the committee in charge of pep rally functions.

It was said that the choices came after a great deal of discussion concerning the relative merits of the ten tryees, and Etchemendy stated it was the most difficult task he has encountered in some time.

Named to assist the head vell leader are Harold Sweatt, Art Palmer, Harriett Morrisson and Mary Stichter. They will appear at all rally functions of the student body this year.

Tentative plans were revealed for purchase of a new white sweater for Etchemendy and blue ones for all the

UN Registration Record Smashed

With an increase of one per cent ver last year's fall registration, the official count of 1136 establishes a new enrollment record for the University

Although this figure doesn't represent a record of enrolled students on the campus, it does establish a new official record for a 17-day open registration period. The enrollment after the first 17 days was 1050 in 1938 and

An erroneous report which has been circulating about the campus concern ng a non-record-breaking fall enrollment was rectified today by President Leon W. Hartman

The belief of many students has been that the record enrollment of the uni veristy is 1200, achieved in 1938, Dr Hartman said. But though the enrollment did reach the 1200 mark in 1938, it cannot be considered as an official count because registration was held open all semester in contrast to the 17-day enrollment policy which was adopted last year.

The count of the classes is as follows freshmen 421; sophomore 256; juniors 216; seniors 181; specials 26, and graduates 36. The freshman class in 1938 totaled more than 500.

Men on the campus outnumber women 724-412, thus having a 3-2 ratio

Artemisia pictures are scheduled to start Sept. 16, Walter Wilcox, editor of the year book, announced this week.

Members of A. T. O. fraternity will have their pictures taken Sept. 16, 17 and 18, followed by the Lambda Chi's Sept. 19, 20 and 21.

Wilcox requested that all fraternity men wear dark suits and white shirts for the pictures and that sorority women wear plain white blouses.

The fraternity having the highest percentage of men having pictures taken will be given a free panel, Wilcox announced. In cases of ties, duplicate awards will be made.

Blue Keyers Begin Work on Parking

Blue Key's solution to the campu parking problem moves one step close to completion tomorrow morning when members of the service group are to line designated areas on the university grounds for regulated parking of student cars.

First area to be marked off will be the vacant area between the gymnas ium and the agricultural extension building, facing the education building This space is to be lined into four double rows, the cars to be parked bumper to bumper facing north or to-ward the gym. A 20-foot lane is to be marked off between the double rows.

Upperclassmen Only privilege of parking in the gymnasium parking area. Designation stickers will be issued in the very near future to all student car owners, each class receiving a different colored idenetification marker. To be strictly supervised by upperclass committee, headed by John Lemich, all freshmen and sophomores found violating the rule will be dealt punishment by the two groups.

Woe unto all underclassmen found parking in the restricted area, said Blue Kep president Bill Casey today. Casey said that violators would be given corporal punishment by the upperclass committee, or would be fined $1.50, should the university regents approve

Other Lots

Also to be done Saturday morning is the lining into parking spaces of the areas to the east of the electrical engineering building and behind the Mackay Hall of Science. Parking in these places is open to all students of the uni-

No improvements will ge made on the large parking area immediately behind the gymnasium, Casey said. He said that some sort of organization of the lot is planned but that no definite plans have been drawn up as yet.

Also leading to final solution of the parking knot was the announcement made today by the state highway de-partment that they would shortly continue the middle lane stripe of University avenue on through the campus The highway officials stated that parking stripes would be marked out on the campus portion of the thoroughfare, permitting parallel parking after 7 p. m. each evening. Parking will be allowed on the east side of the street only

Rally Committee Plans Pajamboree For Friday Night

This was the one-word explanation with which the Rally committee today flung aside the curtains of secrec which have for the past several weeks enshrouded its plans for the first ralls of the year. Thep lan calls for a parade through downtown Reno, with yells and songs at intersections, being given by a one hundred per cent pajama-"Because of Constitution day ad-pajamas. Sevenral of the schools on the coast have such parades regularly and although the idea may be a novelty for Nevada, we believe it will be an acceptable one," he concluded.

The rally will form at 7:00 p. m. next Friday in front of the campus gates Starting there, the pajamaed paraders will march down University avenue and Center street to First street; west on where the pajamboree will become general pajamboreno as the collegians spread throughout the town.

"Inorder to make it even more certain that this year will be Nevada's year," Wylie continued, "participation in this initial rally and parade must be a 'must' for every one of us. Moreover, evrey parader should know ou most popular songs and yells. As for the costumes, theb righter the better.' San Francisco State Also Plagued by Bad Luck For First Game

BY GEORGE ROSS

The up-again down-again fortunes of Coach Jim Aiken's crisis-facing squad fulctuate so rapidly that the Ohioan last night balked at naming a tentative first string for the season's opener next Saturday when the Pack meets the San Francisco State college

Although Aiken is confident that the men now in suits are capable of giving a battle to any of the scheduled opconents, he is as worried about the Gator tussle as any.

"Things have happened, and will happen, that put us on no better foot-ing than the second string of Milpitas Riding Academy," the coach stated. 'We won't have a football team until the game is over, and even then there will be many questions to be decided.

Many Casualties The loss of Vince, Shea, slated for a st string guard job, and injuries to Royalty, Ruess, Forte and Robinett, all counted on to play lots of football, have shaken the squad. Although Smith-wick and Pillifant were headlined as cst" to the varsity, Aiken pointed out that Smithwick wasn't scholastically eliigble, and Pillifant hadn't registered or donned moleskins when the trio

Schedule Set Tuesday To Be Final For This Semester

Members of the social calendar committee revised the fall schedule and allotted Saturday night dates to campus organizations at a meeting Tuesday afternoon. Among the revisions was the addition of dates for campus organizations and honorary societies. A few changes have been made in sorority and fraternity dates, as well.

This schedule is the final one to be made for the semester, and further changes will not be made in dates. Thus, any organization which drops a date will forfeit its chance for an approved party.

Curves of Campus Too Tame for Wolf Student Engineers

Engineers enrolled in C. E. 51, better known as surveying, usually take as a prerequisite a much simpler course of earning, called Piping 76.

Probably due to the fact that the physical contours of the earth on campus have remained the same gentle curves for years past, the surveyor-students have esigned themselves to a bit of pastime in studying the curves of more delectable campus inhabitants.

Twice a week, in the warm afternoon sun, one sees the fellows basking on the grassy shores of Manzanita Lake looking carefully but slowly through their transits, giving special attention to the young forms tripping hurriedly languid sight, they may be seen busily endeavoring to rush through their work on the engineer's side of the campus where feminine forms are few and far between in order to move to the oppos it side of the road for bigger and greener pastures in which to gaze

Chapel Services Rev. Henry B. Thomas, Chaplain SUNDAY

HOLY COMMUNION 8:00 A. M. CHORAL EUCHARIST AND SERMON ... 11:00 A. M. UNIVERSITY .. 6:00 P. M. VESPERS ..

Special services and courses in Religion are offered at various times during the year. "Pro Christo Per Ecclesia" St. Stephen's Chapel has been the Episcopal student center for ten years. The Chapel was founded at the gates of the University that the vital contribution of the Church to the lives and thought of the future leaders of Nevada might be strengthened. Every student has a right to the rich experiences of Christian worship, and it is worship which receives the first emphasis at the Chapel.

Every student has a right to the experience of a fellowship which blends every organization and society on the campus, and it is this fellowship which is offered at St. Stephen's House.

Every student has a need of religious "orientation," and for a point of view which throws his varied academic work into perspective, and it is through the courses and discussions which St. Stephen's House offers that this sense of proportion may be formed. All members of the University are welcomed to any of the activities of St. Stephen's House. The Chaplain is available at all times for consultation. Members of other religious denominations are refered to the various pastors.

FOR THOSE WHO DON'T READ

This editorial was written for that body of people which doesn't read the Sagebrush, in other words, the University of Nevada student body.

We'll take it as an accepted, and perhaps a justified, fact that you don't read the stories in this paper, but we don't mind that much because we get a big bang out of putting them out anyway. But what we do ask is this: after you're through with this issue-after you've read the dirt column, that is-take a look at the advertisements in the paper

In the first place, we didn't put them there just to fill up space. Without them there would be no Sagebrush, and without a Sagebrush there would be no dirt column, and who can imagine a University of Nevada sudent, matured adult that he is, getting along without his dirt?

Second, these ads have all got something to say. If merchants haven't got something worthwhile to sell, there's naturally no use of fixing a situation: by crabbing, by of their advertising what they haven't got. An advertisement in the Sagebrush ninety-nine times out of a hundred is proof that the advertiser has something to offer that will not only be worth its price but will be offered at the lowest price available.

Third, you, as students, owe a tremendous debt of gratitude to local business men. They buy ads for the 'Brush, ads for the football programs, ads for the Artemizia, and ads for the frosh handbook; and when they've about exhausted their pocket books doing that, they're expected to, and usually do, chip into the university athletic fund Out of Reno they "sell" this university far more enthusiasticaly and effectively than most of us ever do, and to top it all off they give us lessons on how to support a Nevada team at every athletic function on the hill.

Isn't it about time they were reaping a dividend or two from that kind of support?

Now that we've had our little say we just remembered that nobody will read it anyway, but if some one of you just happen to stumble on this, will you spread the word around among your brothers that these Reno merchants deserve our support as fully as they give us theirs?

WE'RE ON THE AIR!

Are you another Orson Welles?

Well, for the sake of campus serenity and for the general peace and quiet of the people of Reno we hope not, but right now we here at Nevada should begin thinking along that line.

One thing is needed now-needed badly! That one thing is talent—talent for the newly organized student radio show, talent down these forty years the storms has held strong against the storms for the approaching Wolves Frolic

Both of these productions are put on by students. One is a new stretch of the imagination was it in idea in university entertainment, the other a well-established and traditional campus show. Both of them reflect to a great extent just what kind of people we have here at our university, what they think about, what they are able to do.

Lots of us here can do things. Things that are known as talent. Some of us sing, others play piano, some can imitate Mrs. Astor's horse, Fred Allen or perhaps even Adolph H.

Maybe we won't win Hollywood contracts, but we can have a lot of fun singing over the radio, or dancing in the Turkish towel chorus in the Wolves Frolic on October 18.

Tonight marks the inauguration of a new idea in campus entertainment—an all-student radio program. The program will last, it will reach a new high in Nevada fun-if we all chip in with whatever talent we may have. Some of us don't have time to spare, but most of us can find it somewhere.

The same thing applies to the Wolves Frolic. Prof. Bill Miller said today that as yet he hadn't received notice of even an application for a single specialty act. We've always managed to fill our Homecoming show program in the past, but we've always waited until the week before show time to do it. We can wait again, but this year let's at least come out two weeks before the curtain goes up.

So let's see if we can make our student shows fall in line. Let's reach a new high in Nevada entertainment.-B. B.

HATS OFF!

Give credit, we say, where credit is due.

Right now we're taking off our hats to "Here and Now," in its own words, "Nevada's one and only Youth Movement."

Begun last year by a number of energetic high school kids who possessed an amazing command of the English language and who on the whole did more real thinking than ninety per cent of the University of Nevada student body, the little monthly magazine didn't take long to surge into national limelight when "Time" gave it a big play in a summer issue.

Meanwhile local folk applauded its virtues and busily went about predicting its early fold-up. Today they're limited to applauding its virtues, the expected fold-up having become a virtual impossibility, what with the general stir and support these kids have stirred up

Once cut of high school and in university-Norman Towner, editor, and a number of his staff are local freshmen—there wasn't any sign of a let-down. That's a lot more than most freshmen are able to say about themselves, let alone any project which they began gender any dangerous rivalry on the in high school. The quality, punctuality, and staff of the publication are apparently going to continue unchanged.

There's only one thing we don't like about the whole thingthe magazine takes up enough time of the kids so that they find it a practical impossibility to turn ot for campus publications.

Dear Ed:-

Oh well, our loss, "Here and Now's" gain.

It is this bigness of spirit, this tolerance and democracy, that at once dis-tinguish the true leader. This is our pest example of the Nevada spirit.

Which brings us around to the green year's greenest idea; that of a frosh who was heard to say, "Shucks—this place is just another year of Reno high!" He doesn't know it yet, but he's going on a tour-a rocky one

A week's routine: First, we'll visit the ASUN building at close to Thursday's midnight, and listen to Sagebrush typewriters pounding into the deadline. Next afternoon we'll tour Mackay field, and see the team's three hour routine of sweat, willingness, and try again. In a few days, we'll saunter over to where the boys are building floats for Homecoming, and take in Wednesday social at the gym. And lastly, we'll wind up at the President's office, for an inter-

Well, the evening went on and then Coach Aiken scored a touchdown in the most casual way. He merely said, 'Don't be a bolshevik!"

Now a bolshevik is a weak-minded bluesinger who has three stock ways namite, and by himself.

His crabbing begins with a false promise and whines up with the wrong conclusion. Then—silence. First, because you are surprised to find that it is any of his business secondly because he is waiting for you to jump on the piano and aclaim him prophet. A bolshevik's brain is as empty of thoughtful criticism as a fan dancer's pockets. The second method runs all the way rom dynamiting a better man's glory stuffing the ballot box. And both ve happened on American campuses

As to his third method, we recall the campus big shots who were going to run the whole works, fraternities to team. But they spread their brilliant wings too far and soared too high. And now they gather in the dusk of their glory. busy picking up precious little fragments-alone.

Work Nearly Done On Football Fence

Modern Turnstiles to Give Accurate Check on Game Attendances

Completion of two thousand feet of wire fence around Mackay stadium in time for Nevada's opening football First meeting of the club was held game with San Francisco State on Sept. 21 was assured this week by university officials. Laborers began work on the project shortly before school

The fence, to stand seven feet in over-all height, will be made up of 182 posts, imbedded in three feet of concrete at ten-foot intervals. Six feet of wire netting will be topped off by an angular overhang of strung barbed wire which add sanother foot to the fence and provides greater protection against climbers.

Turnstiles

Entrance to the field will be located directly behind the grandstand where six ultra-modern green and chromium turnstiles will take care of crowds. Each turnstile will be taken care of by an at-tendant who, after tearing off the ticket stub, will press a lever that allows the patron to enter. The turnsiles keep an automatic check on the size of the gate thus guaranteeing for the first time an accurate check on attendance at each

Separate Gates

Separate gates will be provided for all types of patrons. Students will be al-lowed to enter one gate only, and student body eards will be punched at each game. A gate for each type of attendance, regular patron, high school stu-dents, university students, children, and pass tickets, will be provided.

Construction of the fence, however will not eliminate the necessity of having the field patrolled by R. O. T. C cadets. Instead, their duties will be somewhat simplified as they will only have to watch the fence. The S. F. State game will test the efficiency of the fence and will indicate the number of gate attendants needed for future games, according to Graduate Manager McDonnell.

No Parking

There will be no parking along the rim of the stadium this year, as the fence is placed away from the curbing. Instead the cars will park in the sur rounding lot. This elimination of auto-occupant spectators will make the amplifying system more effective, Mc-Donnell said.

The fence building project is part of an all-year improvement program that includes the laying of a pipe line to Clark Field so that lawn may be planted there for next year's season.

Marathon Training Grind Intensifies

The training grind for interfraternity ross-country aspirants intensified this week as preparation time for the annual marathon, a feature of every Homecoming celebration, grew shorter and shorter

Sigma Nu entered the competition this week with an eight-man team leaving only Phi Sigma Kappa with no representation in the race as yet. Members of the Lake street house promised, however, that a squad representing them would begin working out

Bill Hephelstine, John Aymar, Mar-shall Robb, Grant Cloud, Tom Harvey Doug Trail, Warren Salmon, and Bob Hawley made up the Sigma Nu con-Aymar is the only veteran of the squad, having run the grind once

Meanwhile teams of other house ontinued to improve, with Beta Kappa's five-man contingent showing a form that has made it one of the pre race favorites. Led by little Hale Tognoni, who finished second behind Lambda Chi's Larry Callahan last year the Beekay squad was considered by most fall track observers as the best-balanced outfit in the competition.

Lambda Chi, however, despite the oss of Callahan, who will not run this year, will bid plenty to retain the crown which they won last fall. Gene Mastroianni, brother of one of Nevada's greatest varsity two milers, leads a squad made up of green but willing

A. T. O., always in the running re gardless of what sport is on deck, will field a complete team of veterans in Bill Andrews, Nick Evasovic, Tom Kent and Art Kinneberg, while S. A. E. will enter Perry Carlson, Dave Melarkey, and Toby Larsen.

Sixty points toward the coveted Kinnear trophy go to the house which puts the first three men across the inish line.

Men wishing to compete in the grind nust submit application blanks to Chet Scranton of the physical education department before Sept. 30 and must receive the official okay of the university physician before they will be allowed to run.

(Continued from Page 1) enrollment and registration costs and would resume study again upon returning at the beginning of the semester a year after the one in which he was called to active duty. The university administration would hold each student's registration funds in custody until his return to the school. Several Guardsmen in School President Hartman said that there ere several Nevada students who were members of the national guard. He said that as yet he had received no communication from national guard officials concerning the status of students who were guardsmen. Nevada, California and Idaho national guardsmen are scheduled to be called to active service in two groups. September, while the second call to active service will be made Oct. 15, to be followed by successive calls until all guardsmen are undergoing the training.

Under terms of the conscription bill now under consideration in Congress. passage of which is expected today, all students over the age of 21 would be required to register for the compulsory

Students Exempt Till 1941

Obscure is the exact status of college udents within the eligible age liimts 21 to 35, which were set Wednesday by the Senate and House compromis committee. The committee accepted a House provision which stated, "All perons entering college this year shall be exempt from all military service until June 15, 1941."

No further clarification of this clause in the final bill has been received. Whether the provision applies to freshmen entering college for the first time this year, or to all students who enrolyled in August of this year has yet o be revealed.

President Roosevelt has said that he feels that college students should be exempted from military service. Status of ROTC Officers

Another puzzle to college students is the status of students in the advanced military classes. Many Nevada students have received reserve commissions, others have but one year's work to complete before receiving them. Whether these men will be called for intensive training, then set at training receruits is one of the questions being asked on this and other campuses to-

In all, passage of the conscription bill entails many questions concerning students at Nevada, at California, Stanford-colleges all over the nationquestions which can be answered only by army and administration officials. Answers to these questions should be available before the date of registration, tentatively set now on Oct. 15. Latest date for answering of such questions will be Nov. 15, which date has been tentatively slated for the initial cal olf draftees to the colors.

All students must escure student body cards before Sept. 21. Those not possessing them at that time will be refused admission to the football game

Incomplete mental test results com piled thus far show that the average for thef reshman class this year is 71 three points lower than any freshman average in the past five years, Ralph Irwin, associate professor of psychol ogy, said this week

Freshmen and new students at the university may now find their individual average from Dr. Irwin during his office hours

Averages between men and women have been consistently close and no Hawkins, ATO, fell to Norman Towimportant differences have been found. Average comparisons of the various colleges will be annuonced later. highest average usually goes to the engineering students, Dr. Irwin said.

All new students who have not taken the examination must do so before they are considered regularly enrolled according to ofifcials. The test, which takes approximately two hours, may be taken Saturday morning from 9:00 to 12:00 or Monday or Tuesday afternoon after 1:30.

For vocational guidance purposes Dr. Irwin is also giving aptitude tests. These tests cover such subjects as science, nursing, law, clergy, art, language, and education. If a student is unable to select an occupation, he ma take a vocational interest test. To date which are for upperclassmen as well as

Prof. Coleman Writes Two Magazine Articles

Jim Coleman, assistant director of physical education at the University of Nevada, is the author of two articles on athletics which appeared in Kiwanis magazine for July, 1940, and the Research Quarterly of the American As-Tennis singles were thrown wide-open last night when Carl Joost, Sigma sociation for Health, published in May, Phi Sigma, failed to play Alfred Mills

The Kiwanis article is titled "Beginning Physical Education Early" and dealt with physical education as an aid to children in later life.

"Pure Speed as a Positive Factor in Some Track and Field Events" appeared in the Research Quarterly. More technical than the Kiwanis article, it deals with speed in running
