Homecoming Plans Told by Committee

Chairmen Release Outline of Events For Celebration

Dance Will Be Held In State Building, Not Gym

BY JERRY WETZEL
Plans for the University of Nevada's twenty-third Homecoming were nearing completion this week as the committee released an outline of the activities and events for the entire three-day celebration today.

The committee was given a break this week when it was announced that the dance will be held in the State building instead of the gymnasium as previous plans indicated.

Festivities begin Thursday night, October 29, with the Phi Sigma Kappa street dance at 9 o'clock in front of the Lake street fraternity.

Friday Classes
Dr. Hartman has not yet given approval of not having classes on Friday, October 30, as has been reported.

Dr. Hartman said that due to the strife that most students are faced with at present classes may be held. He will report on this next week, he stated.

The rally will begin at 6:30 Friday evening and will be featured by short talks by university heads, Coach Jim Aiken and the visiting coach, Ted Shipkey, and members of the football team.

ASUN President Gene Mastroianni will welcome old grads with a short talk. Co-chairmen of the committee, Bernard Smith and Clark Guild, will speak.

Following the rally, which will last until about 8 pm, the crowds will leave to reassemble at the Granada theater for the Wolves' Frolic. Cups given for the best fraternity, sorority and independent acts.

Saturday, the climaxing day, will begin with the interfraternity cross-country race. Thirty runners will start from the Sparks high school at 9:30 Saturday morning and finish up in Mackay Field.

Honored Guests
At 10:30 the annual parade will begin at 9th and Virginia streets. The line of march will be down Virginia to Pine then to Center and up Center to the university.

Guests of honor include Governor and Mrs. Carville, Senator Pat McCarran, Congressman and Mrs. James Scroggins, Senator Berkeley L. Bunker, Chief Justice and Mrs. Ducker, Colonel and Mrs. Gibson, President and Mrs. Leon Hartman, Dean of Women Mrs. Benson, Gene Mastroianni, ASUN president; Joe T. McDonnell, graduate manager, and Hugo Quilici, president of the Alumni Association.

A reviewing stand will be set up on the steps of the Washoe County Courthouse for these guests of honor to view the parade from. Guild and Smith announced that they have not yet named the guests to lead the parade, but they will probably be some of the above mentioned guests.

Saturday afternoon the Nevada Wolf Pack meets the University of New Mexico on Mackay Field at 2:15 pm.

The Aggies will be in charge of the Homecoming dance in the State building at 9 pm. Awards to the winners of the various events will be made at the dance.

Sororities and fraternities will hold open houses for returning grads. Townspeople are invited to attend. There will not be any house decorations this year due to shortages of materials.

Smith and Guild announced that letters to all alumni have been mailed. Members of the committee assisting Smith and Guild are Betty Poe, Frank Bacigalupi, Kattie Little, Rodney Boudwin, Jerry Wetzel and Ruth Mary Noble.

Alumni Association To Hold Annual Meet

Alumni will hold their annual Homecoming meeting at Lawton Springs October 31 at 8 pm, Hugo Quilici, president of the Alumni Association, said this week.

Election of new members of the board of directors for the association will take place during the evening, according to Quilici, and all speeches will be limited to five minutes in length.

Provisions for those coming in parties and also those attending singly are being made so that all attending will be assured of an enjoyable evening.

A six-piece orchestra will furnish music for dancing and special entertainment will be provided during dinner.

M. S. Blakely is chairman of the committee in charge of the banquet and will be assisted by Joe McDonnell, Merle Snider, Bruce Thompson, John Chism, Mark Yori and Paul Leonard.

MANZANITA LAKE GIVES UP MOSS AND SCUM

Future unfortunates who are unwillingly tossed into the depths of Manzanita will no longer come out looking like potted ferns. This is the promise of Carl Horn, superintendent of grounds. Horn is directing the work of five men now cleaning the moss and scum off the lake in order to have it looking pert for the Homecoming celebration.

Although the cleaning activity takes place every year, the moss menace seemed much worse this year than ever before, Horn stated.

Students who experienced laking in the murky water began their complaints about the lake's condition early in the semester and sought a cleanup. These complaints ranged all the way from "It smelled something awful" to "I had to dig myself out of the bogs and missed my class."

The workmen employ large rakes to clean the edges of the pond and have built a raft on which to navigate while they clean the center. Already ten truckloads of moss have been hauled away, and the job is only half done, according to Horn.

Horn said the job will cost the university about $200 and will take two more weeks to complete.

Frosh Head Names Committee to Paint 'N' This Saturday

Bacigalupi, Yori Selected Co-Chairmen of Frosh Work and Duties

Committees have been named for the painting of the "N" tomorrow by the frosh students. Harold Hiltz, freshman manager, appointed George Yori and Frank Bacigalupi, co-chairmen of the work day.

All frosh students will meet at the university gates at 8 am and from there they will journey to Peavine hill.

Other committees named are: Transportation, Milton Crew, chairman, Carl Stevens and Lyle Minor; Food committee: Kay Holcomb and Miriam Holcomb, co-chairmen; Isabel Blythe, Kathleen Blythe, Shirley Bowen, Marie Cassinelli, Marge Eather, Mattie Jean Geraghty, Lurayne Hamlyn, Marie Hicks, Welda Pfum, Jackie Prescott, Lavina Ramelli, Joyce Record, Helen Shaw, Genevieve Siri, Mary Watts, Mary Beth Winchester, Clare Zollinger and Virginia Argottia.

Pep Meeting Held Tonight to Avoid Speech Conflict

The pep assembly scheduled for this morning will be held tonight at 7 pm in the Education building auditorium, Gene Mastroianni, ASUN president, stated.

Tonight the newly elected sophomore and junior class managers will be sworn into office. The Sagens have prepared slides of school songs to be shown on the screen for the students to sing. Coach Aiken will speak to the students.

Berlin Housepainter Hinders Majorettes

It's that little man in Berlin again. As an indirect result of A. Hitler the band majorettes will not have new uniforms this year. The factories are turning out plenty, but not of the type suitable for the gyrations of Majorettes Leonore Hill, Beth Peterson and Zeldia Heitman.

However, the girls say they are "all out" for defense, at least until "all out" begins to take on a literal meaning, and they will not curtail their twirling as long as their present costumes hold together.

Sagens to Choose Nine Worthy Girls

Sagens, women's service organization, will choose nine new members on November 6 to bring their quota up to 25. At present there are only 16 active members of the organization. The new members will be chosen from the women's organizations who are entitled five members each.

This year the Sagens have made available to the student body copies of school songs and pom-poms for the home football games.

Building Material Arrives for Gym

Soundproofing board for the ceiling of the new gymnasium has arrived. Dr. Leon W. Hartman, president of the university, stated yesterday.

The material will be installed as soon as possible, he said, although plans to complete the $250,000 building still hinge upon receipt of a priority that will allow installation of a heating system.

Because of the difficulty in obtaining building materials, university officials had not been assured of delivery of the soundproofing board.

NOTICE
All students and faculty members planning to attend the Wolves' Frolic should purchase tickets immediately. Nearly all logs and center section seats will have been sold out by the time of publication of this notice.—Bob Hoyer, Frolic ticket sales head.

'Brush Assistants Edit Feature of Homecoming Issue

The four-page special Homecoming edition of the Sagebrush, a special feature of the paper, will be edited by Nita Reifschneider, present assistant editor of the 'Brush, and Viola Sorensen, associate editor, Bill Friel announced this week.

The Homecoming issue this year will be especially dedicated to alumni and former students on active duty, and will stress activities of Nevada-ites in Uncle Sam's forces.

There will be a six-page regular news section as well as the four-page special.

Approximately 800 copies of this issue will eventually reach Nevada boys in the service. Many of the papers will be sent to the parents of the boys with the request that they be forwarded to the ever-changing addresses of former students fighting on the many fronts.

Miss Katherine Riegelhuth, war historian, has asked the cooperation of parents in facilitating mailing, for her files cannot keep up with the many changes of address that the boys go through as the war progresses.

Three Frats Hold Initiation Fetes

Merging of Beta Kappa with Theta Chi is simultaneous with the initiation ceremonies being conducted by three other fraternities on the campus during the last two weeks, Alpha Tau Omega, Lambda Chi Alpha and Sigma Nu.

After initiation ceremonies last Sunday members of Sigma Nu had a banquet at the Lincoln Hotel in Sparks. New initiates of the fraternity are Stanley Cohen, Everett Curless, Raymond Hazar and Croston Stead.

Lambda Chi Alpha has been holding its formal degrees for the past three weeks, after the final initiation rites Sunday evening, they will celebrate with a banquet at the El Cortez hotel. The neophytes comprise Robert Bell, Richard Cameron, Jordan Eliades, William Kalgorovich, Raymond Oyarbide, and John Phillips.

Alpha Tau Omega who began their "Hell Week" last night, will initiate their pledges sometime this semester. The Tau initiates are LeRoy Wadsworth, Bill O'Brien, Bob Preece, Neil Stewart, Dick Stewart, Gordon Hawkins, Mike Drakulich, Edward Hollingsworth, Sam Puskulikas, Jack Swedeborg, Frank Miskulin, Bill Trent, Don Hahn, Bill Williams, Francis Chapman, Bob Sharp, Marian Itza, Frank Gardner, Calvin Fricke, Art Block, Lyman Schwartz, Burnson Harris, Bob Giblin, Milton Grow, Harold Hiltz, Ed Reed, Ken Bradley, Bruce Shaw, Frank Torre, George Gibson, Del Murphy, Carl Franston, Barney Macari, Simon Connelly, Leslie Hawkins and Norman Rebaleati.

Theta Chi Merger Is Simultaneous

Keeping in step with the chorus the independents will present a musical gay nineties act.

A dancing act featuring "The Sweetheart of ATO" will be the subject of the Alpha-Tau Omega entry.

The remaining Greek letter groups are still in the process of planning their skits.

Commenting on a specialty act entered by the faculty, Miller said, "Professors Post, Chadwick, Williams and Mertil in their barber shop quartet, singing such old timers as 'Sweet Adeline,' and 'Down by the Old Mill Stream,' will bring some of the closest harmony into the Frolic that the show has had in recent years."

Night rehearsals every night for the entire cast of the Frolic will start Monday at 8 pm. Deed Benedetti's orchestra will be on hand at all rehearsals beginning Monday night through the opening of the show.

Cups for the best sorority and fraternity skits are awarded by the decisions of the three judges chosen by the chairman of the Homecoming Day committee from the audience as they enter the theater on the night of the show. Entertainment value alone is the criterion for judging.

The box office at the Granada Theater will open ticket sales Monday noon and will remain open between the hours of 12 and 5 pm until Friday when it will be open from 10 am to curtain time.

Mazour to Appear In Theater Play

Dr. Anatole Mazour, professor of history and political science, will appear in the first production of the Reno Little Theater for the 1942-43 season.

"My Sister Eileen," a fast moving comedy seen on Broadway last year, will be the opener for the current season of the group.

Dr. Mazour plays the role of an eccentric landlord of a basement studio in New York's Greenwich Village.

Tom Buckman, freshman student at the university, also plays in the production.

The show will open for one week starting October 26. Student admission is 39 cents including tax.

Editor of Sagebrush Airs Out Problems At Publications Board Meet Wednesday

The problems confronting the publication of the Sagebrush were discussed in detail at last Wednesday's meeting of the publication board, according to Joe T. McDonnell, board secretary.

"We would hate to be brought to a choice between editing the Sagebrush and not studying, and studying and not editing the Sagebrush. But unless help is forthcoming immediately, we may be brought to such a decision," Bill Friel, Sagebrush editor, stated in bringing out the fact that members of

Frolic Rehearses Four Days Before Curtain Comes Up

Professor William C. Miller, director of the show, optimistically predicted this week that "Students who participate in the 1942 Frolic, probably the last for the duration, will see to it that this year's show will achieve the same standards of success as have been set in recent years."

Kick Chorus
Nine men and 16 chorus girls composing the dance chorus directed by Miss Ruth Ryan dance director of the Frolic, will present, together, a gay nineties tap number and a tango. Of the two remaining kick routines, one will be exclusively men and the other women.

Organizations presenting acts in the show include Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Lambda Chi Alpha, Sigma Nu, Alpha Tau Omega, Pi Beta Phi, Kappa Alpha Theta, Delta Delta Delta, Sigma Rho Delta, the Independents, and Gamma Phi Beta.

Six new acts have been added to the show since last week.

Delta Delta Delta will present a dance revue including a kick routine, tap dance, waltz and serpentine numbers.

Hawaiian hula dancers and singers will be featured in the Sigma Nu act.

Kappa Alpha Theta, emphasizing the attractive points of sweater girls will present a skit in song and dance.

A medley of patriotic songs from "Yankee Doodle Dandy" will be presented by Sigma Rho Delta.

Independents
Keeping in step with the chorus the independents will present a musical gay nineties act.

A dancing act featuring "The Sweetheart of ATO" will be the subject of the Alpha-Tau Omega entry.

The remaining Greek letter groups are still in the process of planning their skits.

Varsity Debaters Conduct Symposium

Two varsity debaters, Pete Echeverria and Clifton Young, will conduct a symposium on the problem of current and post-war inflation before the Reno Kiwanis Club October 28. Dr. Robert Griffin, varsity debate coach, announced today.

In their first intercollegiate contest the veteran speakers will meet the University of Utah squad at Ely November 6. Difficulties of transportation caused the two teams to adopt the plan of meeting each other half way.

The two debate teams will meet in two contests, one before the Ely high school and the other an Ely service club.

Griffin received an announcement this week tentatively scheduling the annual tournament of the Western Association of Teachers of Speech for November 23, 24 and 25 at San Jose State College.

The problems confronting the publication of the Sagebrush were discussed in detail at last Wednesday's meeting of the publication board, according to Joe T. McDonnell, board secretary.

"We would hate to be brought to a choice between editing the Sagebrush and not studying, and studying and not editing the Sagebrush. But unless help is forthcoming immediately, we may be brought to such a decision," Bill Friel, Sagebrush editor, stated in bringing out the fact that members of the Sagebrush staff were not giving their full cooperation in the publication of the 'Brush.

Leota Davis, Pi Phi, was elected chairman of a committee to make plans for the publication board banquet to be held later in the fall. Others on the committee are Dorothy Casey and Fred Heinen.

Attending the meeting were Dr. Ernest L. Inwood, chairman, Dorothy Casey, Fred Heinen, Joe T. McDonnell, Bill Friel, Walt Riggie, Deane Quilici, Cliff Young, Gene Mastroianni and Barbara Francis.

Riggie Wins Post; Heckethorn Trims Parish in Finals

In the junior race Riggie polled 37 votes against 23 for Crowell, while Heckethorn garnered 47 ballots and Parish 28 in the sophomore battle.

Riggie and Heckethorn will take the oath of office tonight at the pep assembly in the education building.

Santa Ana Fliers Bring Star Cast To Nevada Battle

Coach Jim Aiken has been concentrating on a passing attack for the Fliers during practice this week. The pass offense was not up to snuff in last week's game with the Stockton service club, but Aiken expects to connect with a better percentage this time.

The team went through one of the toughest scrimmages of the season Tuesday night, and Aiken states that the boys are in the best shape they have been all season.

Aiken Says Team Ready; Ex-College Stars Lead Air Base

With a roster of ex-professional and college players who have played with USC, Duke, Tulane, Illinois, Michigan, Santa Clara and USF, the Santa Ana Fliers meet the Nevada Wolf Pack tomorrow in Mackay stadium.

Lineup Puzzle

Aiken's lineup is indefinite at this time, and with Stan Dahlberg and Harvey Vicchio quitting the team, his starting lineup is a puzzle, but he does expect to use Bob Cashbaugh quite a bit in the line, because of his showing in the last two games.

Captain Hugh Smithwick, who sat on the bench last week because of a shoulder injury, will start at right tackle. The Nevada captain is in shape for this game, it was indicated this week.

The Santa Ana eleven has been beaten only by the professional Hollywood Bears, and has trimmed the Los Angeles Bulldogs, Whittier College and Mather Field.

Reservists Grade Status Cleared Up

Dean Robert Stewart, head of the scholarship committee, announced that mid-semester delinquencies will be reported on the same basis as before; students falling one-third of their hours will be placed on probation. This indicates that they are not doing satisfactory work, and will be reported to draft boards, and army, navy and marine reserves.

In case of the army reserve, probationary students face immediate induction; western military headquarters will be notified and the erring students taken into the army as privates when openings occur. Exact disposition of other affected students is not known, but service branches and draft boards have indicated that a close scrutiny of marks of collegians under their jurisdiction will be made.

Gibson Approves Crack Drill Team

Colonel John H. Gibson gave his approval this week for 28 cadet officers to organize a volunteer crack drill team to be instructed by Staff Sergeant Michael J. McCormick.

Cadet officers who have volunteered are Leroy Talcott, John Staufberger, Lyman Earl, Paul Arenaz, Nick Mastrovich, Mario Recanzano, Leonard Anker, Dick Stewart, Willie Etchemendy, Gene Mastroianni, Bruce Bowen, Alex Lembers, Merton Domanoske, Neil Stewart, Addison Millard, Mike Zoradi, Stan Reese Elwyn Freeman, Robert Preece, Rodney Boudwin, Paul Gibbons, Deane Quilici, Clifton Young, George Basta, James Barrett, Robert Brambila, Hugh Wilton and Peter Echeverria.

Echeverria has been chosen to make arrangements for the drills.

WAAC Officers Here Next Week For Interviewing

Lieutenants Mary E. McGilinn and Mary M. Miller, graduates of the first class of the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps at Des Moines, will speak to university women Monday at 4 pm in the Education building auditorium.

Mrs. Lucille Benson, dean of women, will entertain the lieutenants in the university dining hall after the lecture.

The two lieutenants have lectured and conducted interviews at the University of California, USC and Stanford during the past two weeks.

Theta Chi Initiation Set for Homecoming

Nevada's chapter of Beta Kappa will be officially initiated into Theta Chi on Homecoming day when the chapter will take formal initiation.

Last week four of the Nevada members traveled to Fresno where the Fresno chapter was initiated into Theta Chi. These members from Nevada were Al Mills, Harold Keen, George Frey and E. O. Sawyer. The formal initiation of the Nevada chapter will be taken over by a traveling committee from Berkeley and will consist of all high national officers of Theta Chi.

Catholic Club Meets

The Newman Club, campus Catholic organization, held a dinner dance at the Colombo Cafe last Sunday night to introduce the new Catholic students to the members of the club.

Principal speaker of the evening was Rev. Harrigan, chancellor of the Diocese of Reno.

Civil Service Officer Interviews Seniors

William C. Miller, Jr., of the Twelfth United States Civil Service Regional Office, San Francisco, visited the Nevada campus today and interviewed senior students interested in securing positions such as junior engineers, junior physicists, junior geologists, junior metallurgists, junior meteorologists and junior architects.

Frolic Ticket Sale Slow First Week

According to Bob Hoyer, chairman of ticket sellers committee for the Wolves' Frolic, approximately one-fourth of the available tickets have now been sold.

Next week, tickets will be sold at the Granada theater up to the time of the performance, Friday night.

Twenty-three salesmen have thus far sold as many tickets as 35 did last year at this time.

Carpenter Returns From Vegas Trip

Professor Jay Carpenter, director of the Mackay School of Mines, returned from a trip to Las Vegas October 13.

While on this tour he visited the mines at Goodsprings, the Basic Magnesium plant, and the Bureau of Mines at Boulder City.

Today Mr. Carpenter will leave for Lovelock and Imlay to visit the lead, zinc, mercury and tin mines.

LET'S GET TOGETHER

This is another of our regular fall complaints about lack of spirit at football games.

This complaint, which we feel we must offer after each home football game, has come to be so regular a thing that we feel a little embarrassed at offering it—not because we don't think we're justified in doing so, but because we hate to sing the same old song so often.

And besides, when you sing the same old song too often for people, they get so they don't even notice it.

Probably this situation may be said to exist already here at Nevada in regard to editorial pieces such as this, expressing the Sagebrush editor's annual fall beef.

But usual or not, wanted or not, read or not, here it is:

The response to the yell leader's attempts to lead yells was almost nil at last Saturday's game, the yelling we heard was so slight as to be rather pitiful.

Many students, including some of the supposed student leaders—BMO's—got up and left during and before the Triumph Hymn was being played, violating one of the long-standing traditions here on the Hill.

We had the stray thought while watching Nevada students at the Stockton Motor Base game that perhaps the Rah-Rah boys have come of age, we weren't sure whether we should criticize that or not.

But upon thinking it over, we decided that there was nothing juvenile about getting together and hollering for one's team, but rather that it was a healthy manifestation of spirit. Watching the old grads holler for Nevada at the Homecoming game should be sufficient to prove this to anyone. They are not longer juvenile, certainly, and we are certain that an outsider watching them at a Homecoming game would not sneer at them for their lack of sophistication, but rather would envy them for their expression of a spirit which binds them together.

For even if it is the student's conviction that yelling at a football game is juvenile, and even if they feel self-conscious about doing it, as long as their school does have a cheering section, then as Nevada students it is their obligation to enter into it.

And we think they would find that if they all entered into the cheering, there would be such a thrill involved in feeling themselves a part of a closely united and momentarily single-minded group, that they would like the experience and come back for more.

To add to the above criticism and exhortation, we offer the following constructive suggestion: If the service groups would see to it that only Nevada students sat in the cheering section, it would help tremendously. As it is, a goodly proportion of high school students and local citizens drift in, raising the devil with the cohesion of the group.

This could be accomplished by roping off the necessary section and allowing admittance on showing of student body cards, or on recognition by service group members.

Of course this would involve getting members of the service groups to do something, rather than having their tryees do practically everything, but by this writer's definition of a service organization this wouldn't be asking too much. Or would it?

THE EDITOR 'BEATS HIS GUMS'

Last week the editor made a couple of requests for assistance on the Sagebrush by the student body at large in an editorial entitled "The Editor Takes Inventory."

He explained that he was in a rather tough spot, and explained the factors. He requested cooperation of two specific types.

1. That each organization or committee on the campus should appoint someone—preferably its president or chairman—to keep the Sagebrush informed of its doings.

2. That each student submit personal mentions of men in the service.

The editor didn't expect too much from the plea, and said as much. But this week it develops that he could have been justified in being even more cynical about it than he was.

An influential member of one organization—Sigma Rho Delta—approached the editor and made a suggestion for getting news about this group.

One student—John Beatty—gave us some personal mentions. There are over 700 students in school, and a vast number of organizations. We heard from one student, one organization. Thanks, everybody.

Theta Chi, Kappa Alpha Theta Lead Greek Houses in Scrap Metal Drive

University fraternities and sororities have been digging into their cellars and closets for scrap metal to do their part in the nation's all-out drive for scrap metal.

Among the fraternities, Theta Chi has already contributed several boxes of scrap metal, including a large bell which they have had tucked away on a back porch for many years. SAE has turned in boxes of tin cans and scrap amounting to almost a hundred pounds.

Several boxes of scrap metal were collected in the ATO house this week, and further search of the fraternity will reveal even more, members report.

Phi Sigma Kappa will have a clean-up this weekend and promise to have their contribution out Sunday.

Kappa Alpha Theta leads the sorority houses with three large boxes of scrap metal, salvaged from a general cleanup of their basement conducted last week. During their search, they uncovered 10 long unused irons which they added to their scrap pile.

Gamma Phi Beta has some big boxes of empty tin cans ready for the collectors when salvage trucks make their next collections in the northern part of town.

Pi Beta Phi reports a collection of tin cans to add to the drive.

Other houses have as yet shown no activity in the drive.

YWCA to Write Lonesome Soldiers

The YWCA will write round-robin letters to men in the service and help the Red Cross make bandages along with their other duties, Mildred Missimer, club president, announced this week.

She also stated that sale of hotdogs, ice cream and cokes at the football

Interfrat Tourney Basketball Practice Has Large Turnout

Interfraternity basketball practice began last Monday in preparation for the on-coming tournament to be held shortly after Homecoming.

A large turnout of fraternity cagers began extensive drills during the week. Plenty of material is available with all houses boasting powerful quintets of both new and veteran players.

Every house is determined to cop the coveted 100 points which goes towards the Kinnear trophy and the large cup that is awarded.

Scranton urged that all games be played on time to avoid forfeiture. Managers of the respective teams will keep the score and time and see that all their respective players are on the floor at the designated time. Teams must secure their officials before game time to avoid conflicts.

Recognition services will be held at Artemisia Hall next Tuesday and all campus women interested in the group's work are invited to attend the meeting.

The group entertained campus women at the Tri-Delt house Sunday afternoon with a puppet show.

Before you call Long Distance, please ask yourself:

1. Is it really necessary?
2. Will it interfere with war calls?

TELEPHONE lines—especially Long Distance circuits—are crowded as never before, these war days. Materials to build new lines—copper, rubber, nickel—are needed for the shooting war. So we must get the most out of present facilities.

You can help us keep the wires clear for vital war calls if you will do these two things: (1) Don't call Long Distance unless it's urgent; (2) Call by number if possible and please be brief. Thank you!

WOLF PRINTS

BY JERRY WETZEL

A STAG BIERMAN OR CHRISLER would be on a downhill trail to the old folks' home after what happened around Clark Field this week to Jim Aiken and company. Sometimes it has been a habit for second, third and fourth string players to quit a coach flat in the middle of the season, but seldom does it happen that regulars up and leave a team midway through a season's schedule without any more reason than that offered by Stanley Dahlberg and Harvey Viechio early this week. The San Francisco boys headed home-ward after the Stockton game Saturday leaving Jim Aiken to fill in their guard and backfield spots on little notice. Reprimands will do no good now, but we quote Aiken in saying that it shows what players are made of when this sort of situation arises. And we thought the era of football bums had seen its last years at Nevada.

THE NEVADA-COLLEGE OF Pacific football game in 1919 is considered by some as the first Homecoming grid game in the history of the Homecoming battles. (From the records, though, the first official game was in 1920.) In the Pacific contest Nevada averaged 2.2 points per minute. This Nevada won that game, 134 to 0. Nevada must have been the high scoring team in the nation that year because they also laced the Mare Island Sailors, 120 to 0. This was in the days when the Pack's schedule included the University of California, St. Mary's, Santa Clara, Stanford, USC and even the Carson Indians.

RUMORS THAT NEW MEXICO would cancel their Homecoming fracas here next week were quelled this week. Jake Lawlor, who scouted the Colorado-New Mexico game in Boulder, Colorado last Saturday, had a brief word with the New Mexico athletic director who stated that the Lobos would be in Reno October 31. The Lobos' head man indicated that they might have trouble in scheduling a train, but to date plans are being made for the Reno appearance. This is a relief to some around here who are finding service teams a little harder to get lately.

Incidentally, Lawlor mentioned that New Mexico ought to give grads the best exhibition of football seen in a Homecoming game in some time. He believes that the Lobos and Nevada will be the most evenly matched game that Nevada will play in all year. This is a glad cry considering that Nevada ran over Arkansas Agies, 78 to 0, two years ago, while last year grads saw football at its worst when Nevada was dumped, 6 to 3, by Fresno.

STUDENTS AND DOWNTOWN supposed supporters have always asked why big-time football cannot be brought to the Nevada campus. Maybe last week's attendance will furnish the answer that we have so often tried to explain. With only 1200 in the bleachers, and nearly half of them "dead-heads," receipts can hardly pay the guarantee for the visitors. Students are still supporting football at Nevada both financially and otherwise.

IF SANTA ANA WON'T DRAW then no team on the coast will. The Fliers' roster is studded with the greatest array of ex-college, ex-professional stars Reno fans will ever see on their home field. They claim the strongest service team on the coast. They have beaten such teams as the professional Los Angeles Bulldogs, Mather Field and Whittier. Here are names that all pigskin followers will know upon mention and can watch providing they are not so hard up as to part with a couple of sheekles. Beatty of USC, Mosconi of USF, Cantor of UCLA, Forte of USC, Horne of U. of Oregon, Lockard of Michigan, Smith of Tulane, Telesmanic of Santa Clara and a great many others. We ask you again, if they won't draw—who will?

WHAT KIND OF PRE-GAME

psychology are the St. Mary's Gaels handing out these days? Clippings from the Gael Collegian show the love for their across-the-bay neighbors, USF. How is this for mockery, sarcasm, or what have you. (From Gael Collegian.) "Why, when the Dons smashed little, inexperienced Arizona State, 54 to 6, and then came from behind heroically to overwhelm a weary Nevada eleven, 27 to 7, their future opponents (meaning St. Mary's) reading press clippings about that invincible offense, cringed with fear. The Galloping Gaels, were so nervous against Nevada that two of the Gaels touchdowns were nullified and three potential scoring passes were dropped by receivers, who looking ahead, wondered whether against USF, one week hence, they would be knocked silly even before they had a chance to get past the line of scrimmage. Yes, indeed, this entire institution was verily shaking at the thought of meeting such a powerful team."

FROM THIS POINT ST. MARY'S moves into the Oakland territories in taking a usual crack at Art Cohn, sports editor of the Oakland Tribune. (Gael Collegian again.) "Did you know that one of the reasons for Nevada's defeat last Sunday was because the Wolf Pack failed to get any sleep the previous night, due to crowded trains, poor connections, etc. Well, it must be, 'cause Art (Alternating Current) Cohn said so."

What's the matter with St. Mary's these days? From what we've heard their team gets at least 10 hours sleep prior to a game. Things must have changed around Moraga. Oh, well, we will admit that things are dull around the bay these days—no earthquakes, strikes, police shakeups, etc.

SCORE-O-LOG Marion Motley leads Pack scorers for the four games played. Out of the 64 points Nevada has totalled, Motley has scored 34, Clark 12, Hatalala 6, Wristen 6 and Sims 6.

PROMISES OF AN ALL-fraternity volleyball team were made a week ago, but lack of cooperation by certain fraternities and shortage of space last week held this selection up. However, we will print the first all-fraternity volleyball team this week. Rules were based on the same rules as the basketball and baseball picks were.

Nevada Transfer & Warehouse Co.

made. Any beefs can be aired here, but not from the three frats who failed to cooperate.

We now plug a game between the first all-fraternity squad and the faculty of the university. We understand that there are some active athletes among the faculty. If rules are followed, we'll put our money on the faculty.

FROM HERE AND THERE

Art Larrance will be the runner to beat in the cross country stroll next Saturday. We understand that he did the four-mile trip the other night in slightly over 24 minutes. Not bad considering that winning times were 25 minutes in a couple of the former races.

Jim Aiken gets mention in the Gael paper when he picked the Gaels by seven points over USF last week. Not bad, Aiken, we'll be around for advice next week; football pools seem to be getting the best of us downtown lately.

Rube Boyce, varsity backfield coach, is being mentioned for a coaching spot in the Lovelock high school. Aiken is shooting for the Fresno game November 7. Prepare yourselves for a tough week following the New Mexico game, boys, because we know what the team put up with last year.

Pierce's Picks got out on top last week. Twenty-four picks, 20 wins and four losses for an .833 average. Not bad, not bad.

Navy Recruiter Speaks On Importance of Math

Lieutenant J. Forest Jamison, U. S. Navy recruiting office, was guest speaker at a meeting of the Math Club this week.

Jamison spoke on the vital importance of mathematics as a basis of naval training at the largely-attended session.

Wolf Pack Defeats Stockton Motor Base By a Wide Margin

Turning the tide after two weeks of defeats, the University of Nevada Wolf Pack brought their season record up to two wins and two losses by defeating the hapless Stockton Motor Base, 33 to 0.

The Pack centered on their passing attack and completed nine passes out of 23 tries. With Fred Wristen doing the passing and Sims, Edsall, Motley, Clark and Hatalala receiving, the Wolves gained 163 yards on completed passes. Stockton was consistently smothered by the hard charging Nevada line with Talcott, Cashbaugh and Shea crashing through the offensive line to throw opposing backs for numerous losses.

Fred Welsch played good defensive ball for the invaders by dumping Nevada backs several times.

The Nevada scoring was made by Marion Motley who scored 27 of the points and by Bob Clark who scored one touchdown on a pass from Wristen. All of Motley's touchdowns came from running plays.

Report on Hospital Given to Senate at Meeting Wednesday

At the meeting of the ASUN Senate last week, Eugene Mastrolanni, student body president, gave the financial report on the university hospital service submitted by Vice-President Charles Gorman.

Other reports read at the meeting by Professors R. S. Griffin and E. W. Lowrance, members of the health board, were on injuries received by students both on and off the campus.

Pete Echeverria, Harriet Morrison, Addison Millard, Paul Arenaz and Betty Nash Carlson were named to the Senate Constitutional revision committee by Mastrolanni.

In investigation of the Sibley Memorial plaque, Noel Willis, Phi Sigma Kappa, stated that the plaque had arrived at the mechanical engineering shops in a defective condition and so Jack Ryan, in charge of shop, had returned it for repair.

The Senate also accepted the change in name of Manzanita Association to Zeta Phi Zeta.

Nevada Speakers Receive Season Debate Question

Intramural Debaters to Use Varsity Question in November

With the arrival of the 1942-43 intercollegiate debate question, University of Nevada debaters were able to begin in earnest their preparations for the fall debate season.

The current intercollegiate debate question, framed by a committee of the National Association of Teachers of Speech, is worded as follows: Resolved, That the United Nations should form a permanent federal union, with power to regulate and tax international commerce, provide for a police force, settle all international disputes and enforce its decisions and provide for the admission of other nations which accept the principles of the union.

Better Contests

The concrete and specific provisions of this year's debate question will probably make for more closely reasoned debate contests, Dr. Robert Griffin, varsity debate coach, commented.

Debaters who have had varsity experience will commence practice debates on the new question in about two weeks, Dr. Griffin said.

The intercollegiate question will also be used for the intramural debate tourney to be held on the campus sometime in November. The contest will be open to all members of the debating classes and other students interested in debate. Varsity debaters are not allowed to enter this competition.

Six Veterans

Six veteran debaters—all with intercollegiate experience behind them—will debate this fall. The six are divided into three teams, a senior team com-

Students Receive Scholarship Awards Amounting to $725

As several recipients did not return to school this fall, the scholarship committee has been able to give $725 in awards to other students this week, Dr. Harold N. Brown, committee chairman, announced this week.

Miss Dorothy Jones of Reno was awarded the Ella S. Stubbs Memorial Scholarship of $100. This scholarship is donated annually by the Women's Faculty Club.

One of the $200 Major C. Fleischmann scholarships was divided between Annette Leighton, sophomore from Wells, and Ferdinand Simons of Reno.

Hugo Smith, senior from Lovelock, was awarded one of the Jewett W. Adams scholarships amounting to $75. Similar awards went to Noel Willis, junior from Yerington, and Neil Kenneth Stewart, senior from Alamo.

Bradshaw Wins

The Nevada Sagebrush chapter's Daughters of the American Revolution scholarship of $50 went to Lois Bradshaw of Reno.

Wendell Leavitt was the recipient of one of the Women's Christian Temperance Union scholarships of $50. Also receiving the WCTU scholarships were Raylyn Collins and Edith Menke, both of Reno.

Dr. Brown declared that the scholarship list is complete up to now, but that other scholarships are to be given in the near future from the Adams and Mathews funds.

posed of Pete Echeverria and Cliff Young, a women's team whose members are Valerie Snell and Fonita Ferguson, and another men's team led by Bob Crowell and Bruce Bowen.

Other debaters include two men with intramural experience, Jack Streeter and Bill King, and four newcomers, Huling Usery, Gilbert Sutton, Gordon Hawkins, Train West, Dorothy Masters and Mary Harriman.

Dean Wood Reminds Men Students to Check Regulations on Withdrawal

Attention of students who are leaving the university to enter the armed forces has been referred by Dean Fredrick Wood to university regulations concerning withdrawals.

Knowledge of these rules might prevent students from leaving school too soon to receive credit and the prospect of such credit, the dean believes, might encourage students to maintain good grades until their departure for the armed services.

During the spring semester the faculty adopted a plan whereby a student who withdraws to enter the service may receive some credit for his work at the university.

Half Credit

According to the plan a student who has completed more than six weeks of school will receive, upon leaving, credit for one-half of the hours he enrolled in. A student who is drafted upon completion of ten weeks of school will receive full credit for his work and will receive a grade approximate to his standing in each class when he left. A graduating senior who has been enrolled for seven weeks may be recommended for a degree, provided he has a satisfactory class standing.

These regulations apply only to students who enlist or are inducted into the various branches of the armed services and may be found on pages three and four of the pamphlet entitled, "The War Service of the University of Nevada."

Fine Arts Group To Hold Silver Tea

Townpeople Will Be Asked to Attend

The Fine Arts group will hold a silver tea sometime next month at the Kappa Alpha Theta house for townspeople interested in art, Fritz Jane Neddenriep, president, announced today.

The committee is headed by Viola Sorensen, who will be assisted by Kathleen Norris, Adey May Dummell, Gloria Gildone and Rita and Emilie Turano. Invitations will be sent out as soon as a list has been compiled by the committee.

Six Coeds Named By Chi Delta Phi As New Members

Six new members were elected to the Nevada chapter of the national English society of Chi Delta Phi Thursday, October 15.

The members were selected on the basis of outstanding work in English, above average scholarship and outstanding campus activities.

Initiation will be held soon at a breakfast meeting in the home economics rooms of the Agricultural building. The new initiates are Ada May Bachman, Adey May Dummell, Hazel Easter, Beatrice Thompson, Lois Weldon and Melba Whittaker. Professor and Mrs. A. E. Hill and Miss Katherine Reigluth will be honored guests.

Many Bond Sales Made on Campus

Sales amounting to $39,624.75 have been made since the comptroller's office of the University of Nevada began the sale of war bonds about the middle of January, it was announced this week.

Those interested in purchasing bonds can secure them at the comptroller's office instead of the university post office.

University at War Chosen as Theme For New Artemesia

Editor Walter Riggie Schedules Pictures For Fraternities

"University at War" will be the theme of the 1943 Artemesia, "Walt Riggie, Artemesia editor, announced today.

Taking of fraternity pictures for the Artemesia will be completed this week, so that men on call for military service may have their pictures in the book.

The cover for the book has been completed. Also completed are the military and football pictures, while group pictures were just recently started.

Senior questionnaires will be sent out within the next few days. Riggie said that all questionnaires, which include the activities of the senior students, must be returned within the next two weeks.

AWS HAS NO PLANS FOR AN ASSEMBLY

No plans have been made for an assembly for the Associated Women Students, President Betty Nash Carlson stated this week.
