

FIVE COLLEGIANS ARE NAMED TO HONORARY SCHOLASTIC SOCIETY

Homecoming Ends At State Building As Awards Given

Grid Battle Heads Event; Frolic, Banquet Feature Event

Nevada's 23rd annual Homecoming ended last Saturday night with the state building dance, as alumni not preoccupied with war returned for the school's first wartime celebration.

Highlight of the affair was Saturday's scoreless deadlock between the Wolves and New Mexico, with the largest crowd of the football season in attendance.

Homecoming festivities started Thursday at the traditional Phi Sigma Kappa street dance, Friday night the Wolves Frolic played to a packed Granada theater. Fraternity, sorority and organization prizes were awarded Sigma Nu, Pi Beta Phi and the Independents, with specialty acts and boy and girl kick chorus directed by Ruth Ryan featured in the show.

Another distinctive act was the faculty barbershop quartet, Profs. T. H. Post, Leonard Chadwick, Holly Mertil and Loring Williams starring. The entire production was under the direction of Prof. William Miller.

President Hartman, Coach Jim Aiken, Hugo Quilici, Alumni Association president, and Homecoming Co-Chairmen Bernard Smith and Clark Guild spoke at Friday's rally in Mackay stadium, which immediately preceded the Frolic.

Art Larrance, Lambda Chi, won the Reno-Sparks four-mile race Saturday morning, but Theta Chi's defending champions won the team title and received 60 Kinnear points.

A small parade, in comparison to other years, was the next event on the program after the cross country. Led by a delegation of honored guests, including Gov. E. P. Carville, Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Hartman, Dean and Mrs. R. C. Thompson, Mayor A. C. Frohlich and Hugo Quilici, the entrants included the university ROTC unit and band, the Blue Peppers, fraternity floats and sorority marching units. Sigma Nu and Delta Delta Delta were awarded the parade prizes.

Approximately 180 attended the alumni banquet at Lawton Springs Saturday night, at which Aiken, Hartman and Quilici delivered addresses. Officers for the ensuing year were chosen, Earl Wooster, Reno high school principal, replacing Quilici as president.

Presentation of parade and Frolic prizes headlined the wind-up dance at the state building Saturday night. Pi Beta Phi and Lambda Chi Alpha were given awards for the largest representation at the dance.

Members of the committee which staged Nevada's first wartime Homecoming were, in addition to Co-Chairmen Smith and Little, Frank Baegle, Katie Little, Ruth Mary Noble, Jerry Wetzel, Bette Poe and Hodney Boudwin.

AIME Hold Meeting In Winnemucca

Getchell Mine Will Be Inspected Sunday

The next meeting of the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers will be held at the Humboldt Hotel in Winnemucca tomorrow evening, Jay Carpenter, director of the Mackay School of Mines, announced this week.

A dinner will be held at 7 o'clock, followed by a technical program, when Robert Lynn of the Getchell Mine will present a paper on "Direct Flotation of Tungsten Ores." A feature of the program will be a discussion of new developments in Nevada in the strategic and essential war metals.

The group will leave Reno Saturday afternoon being transported in the Hunt Foundation cars. They will remain at the Getchell mine overnight, and will inspect the mill and mine on Sunday.

HALEY TO REPRESENT

Clara Beth Haley will represent the Nevada chapter of the YWCA at the annual Pacific coast conference of YWCA and YMCA, on November 13, 14 and 15 at San Francisco.

YWCA ELECTS

Initiation services were held for Ruth Cash, Pat Thomas and Joyce Record by the YWCA last Tuesday evening at Artemisia Hall.

Monsanto, Arenaz, Morrison, Forsythe Young in Phi Kappa Phi

Election of five members of the senior class to Phi Kappa Phi, national honorary scholastic society, was announced today by Dean Frederick Wood, president of the local chapter.

The five are Clifton Young, Edwin Monsanto, James Forsythe, Rose Arenaz and Harriet Morrison. All but Monsanto, an engineer, are registered in the college of arts and science.

Initiation will be held Sunday morning at Manzanita Hall with Dean Frederick Wood officiating. Other officers who will take part are Dr. Ralph A. Irwin, vice-president; Dr. S. B. Batdorf, secretary; Dr. E. P. Vance, treasurer, and Dr. Dwight Billings, marshal. After the initiation the annual breakfast will be held in the university dining hall where Bruce Thompson, class of '32 and Phi Kappa Phi member, will speak.

Basis of Election

Election to Phi Kappa Phi is based upon scholarship, leadership and activity.

Cliff Young is Lambda Chi Alpha president, a member of Blue Key, Scabbard and Blade, and Coffin and Keys. Edwin Monsanto is president of the Independents and a member of Blue Key.

James Forsythe, also an Independent, is prominent in campus dramatics. Rose Arenaz, Independent, is president of Chi Delta Phi, a senator, and a Sagen. Harriet Morrison, a Tri-Delt, is a student senator, is a Sagen, is honorary major of the ROTC battalion and is in Gothic N.

Sororities To Hold Presentation Teas

Pledges Presented To Public Sunday

In order to present the pledges to the public, the four sororities on the campus will hold their presentation teas Sunday, November 8, from 3 to 5 p.m. at the chapter houses.

Each house has different themes for decorations and method of presenting the pledges.

Pi Beta Phi plans to use for their theme the colors of the sorority, wine and blue. Barbara Heany, chairman of the tea, will be assisted by Alice Martha Tramer and Nadine Gibson. The pledges of the house have invited special guests.

Delta Delta Delta is holding their tea in the house also. Sara Lee Wiley is chairman. Pat Johnson and Pat Ohism will assist her. The active sophomores have charge of bringing food from the kitchen; juniors are to serve the guests, and seniors will greet the guests and introduce them to the pledges.

Based on a defense theme, the Gamma Phi Beta's will present each pledge with a corsage of flowers and defense stamps. Kathleen Norris is general chairman; Brownie Wiley, flowers; Jackie Thompson, refreshments; Doris Knight, Betty Nash Carlson, decorations, and Carol Gottschalk and Melba Trigo, invitations.

With Mary Louise Griswold as chairman, Kappa Alpha Theta will have as its theme for the tea "Autumn" and the decorations and corsages will be centered around the theme. In the line for presentation with the pledges will be Fritz Jane Neddenrip, president of the house; Mrs. D. D. Duke, house mother, and Mrs. H. Halloway. Pouring for the tea are Mrs. A. Turano, Mrs. J. Clemens, Mrs. F. Humphrey and Mrs. Walter Clark. Corsages for the pledges will be of cape jasmine and those for the hostesses will be gardenias and roses.

Ore Specimens Added To Museum by Grad

The Mackay Mining Museum this week received several rock specimens from Dudley Davis, graduate of 1941.

Davis, who is now employed by the Anaconda Copper Company at the International smelter in Tooele, Utah, sent 13 specimens, one of which was taken from the 4200 foot level of the mine. While at Nevada, he was affiliated with Beta Kappa Fraternity.

Prof. Walter Palmer, head of the metallurgy department, stated that due to the lack of NYA help this year, it will be impossible to care and arrange displays as was the custom in years past.

BLUE PEPPERS MARCH

Valerie Snell, drill captain of the Blue Peppers, announced that the group will march at the Armistice Day football game, November 11. This will be the final appearance of this organization for the year, and the average turnout of 32 girls is expected to be at the game.

AN EDITORIAL

MORE PERFORMANCE AND LESS NOISE

Presidents of three campus service organizations—Blue Key, Sagers and Sagens—will be hauled up on the carpet next Wednesday by the ASUN Senate for failure of their clubs to perform duties outlined for them by the student governing group at the beginning of the semester, according to an announcement made this week by ASUN President Gene Mastroianni.

We hope this is the first step in cleaning up the service group situation here at Nevada, and we laud the present Senate for taking action that should have taken place a long time ago, but did not.

Service organizations at Nevada have for some time enjoyed a prestige and have been given an amount of publicity not at all in accord with their accomplishments.

Blue Key has been the worst offender in the matter of receiving unwarranted prestige and publicity, largely through the influence exerted by some of its members in important campus positions, plus the national reputation of the fraternity.

Sagers and Sagens, similarly, have been long on talk and short on performance, although they, especially the latter, have not enjoyed any great prominence.

YWCA and the Blue Peppers, alone among the service organizations, have performed all that could be expected of them, and in the case of the latter, even more, and without much publicity—probably not even enough.

Blue Key several years ago did considerable work in initiating the campus parking program and did a good job on it. But the group has been coasting along ever since without making a major contribution to campus welfare. And they have made almost no contributions, however slight, on their own initiative, doing only a few jobs regularly allotted to them, such as work on the Wolves Frolic and football games.

The Sagers, too, have been going along without making any particular service contribution except those regularly expected of them—and they are small enough.

Members of the organizations mentioned in uncomplimentary fashion will probably complain that their service groups have all to do that they can handle, without taking on more than their own initiative. And the fact that the three groups are in trouble with the Senate, their Lord and Master, over not performing even the few tasks assigned, might be some proof of this.

But we might ask in reply—is it not a fact that the large part of the work done by both Blue Key and Sagers is done not by the members, but by the people who do not even belong to the groups—tries? And granting this wouldn't it be reasonable to believe that these service clubs are therefore capable of a good deal more work and service than they have been giving forth—through the simple expedient of putting its members to work?

And in view of the fact that people not yet members of the group do most of the work—selling programs, lining parking lots, selling Frolic tickets, etc.—would not these clubs be better named if they were classed as honoraries rather than as service clubs?

Probably we should not burden groups that are now on the carpet for not even performing their assigned tasks, but in case they want something specific instead of the general complaint stated above that the service groups—and we are still talking about Blue Key and Sagers and Sagens—never contribute anything to the welfare of the campus on their own initiative, we might mention a couple of things that could stand doing on the campus.

A campus scrap drive, with service groups doing the organizing and collecting, would be one item. For another, a war bond and stamp sale would also be a service not only to the campus, but to the country. Booths for the sale of war stamps stand on many camps throughout the country, and are usually run and run successfully by service clubs—most often Blue Key.

And if these aren't enough, we could probably think of other possible duties, if pressed.

Initiating a few such drives would go far toward putting the Nevada service clubs on the solid—and honest—footing they and their corresponding groups have at other universities and colleges. So, service clubs—how about getting off the dime?

New Idea in Rally Promotion Started; Ten to Try Out for Subsidiary Group

Broken Arm Ends Season for Sims As Edsall Starts

Nevada's fighting Wolf Pack suffered its first serious injury Saturday when Kenny Sims, the stellar colored end, received a compound break in his right arm.

The injury occurred in the second quarter of the New Mexico game when Sims came in fast to make a tackle on the south side of the field. In the pileup after the play Sims sustained the injury.

Coach Jim Aiken has stated that the flashy pass receiver will be sorely missed in the Fresno game next week, and will not see action for the rest of the season.

Sims is a first year man from Evanston, Illinois. Edsall will probably start for the Wolf Pack when they play the rampaging Bulldogs next week at Fresno.

The nominating committee yesterday selected the following students as tryees for the subsidiary committee to aid Jack Pierce, rally committee chairman. Those chosen were Ed Sawyer, Warren Hersh, Katie Little, Hope Fleming, Jac Shaw, Lurayne Hamlyn, George Yori, Gordon Hawkins, Jack Nicholson, Bill Kormmayer, Bill Mastretti, Charles McAvoy, Bill Arrant and Leonore Hill.

Thursday the Senate will meet to select the best 10 tryees. Pierce announced that any student can try out for this committee. When the committee is chosen they will be divided into three or four groups an each will put on a rally.

Joe T. McDonnell Chosen for Post

Graduate Manager On War Group

Joe McDonnell has been appointed to the War Savings Board in Nevada. He received word of his selection via a telegram from Henry Morgenthau, Jr., secretary of the treasury.

McDonnell, graduate manager, will assume this new post in addition to his university position.

Prizes for Bonds Halftime Feature Of Victory Game

Reno Merchants Donate; Blue Peppers Accept Bond Pledges

Auction of prizes for bond purchase pledges will be made during halftime at the Victory Day Cal Aggie football game Wednesday in Mackay stadium, according to Joe T. McDonnell, graduate manager.

Prizes donated by Reno merchants will be auctioned to the public, who will bid with bond purchases. Blue Pepper members will accept the pledges in the stands.

Attending the auction and game will be American Legionnaires, naval officers and men, and representatives from both the Marine Corps and the Army.

Other scheduled to attend are Gall Johnson, special representative of the Treasury Department; Colonel John H. Gibson and Lt. Col. William F. Gent, heads of the University ROTC; commanders of various veteran organizations and Bob Douglas, collector of internal revenue. Morley Griswold, former lieutenant governor of the state, will serve as master of ceremonies. The auctioneer has not yet been chosen.

No speeches will be made, but the entire time will be devoted to the pledging of bonds through the auctioning of prizes. A tabulator will be used on the platform and results of the pledges will be announced during the second half of the game.

Weiderhold Speaks At Faculty Meet

Religion in School Topic of Talk

With Dr. Albert Weiderhold of the university faculty as the principal speaker, the first meeting of the American Association of University Professors was held at the home of Dean Reuben C. Thompson on Riverside Drive.

The topic of Dr. Weiderhold's talk was "Religion in Higher Education." The speaker brought forth the report of a major-school conference recently held on the coast.

The conference outlined points of religion, and just how much of it should be included in the curriculum of the average university. They also established points on which they agreed. Among these was the obvious fact that religious education occupies a very important place in the higher education of any student. Religion is an integral part of our daily lives, and can be caught and taught, according to Weiderhold.

The meeting was then opened for discussion and various points were raised as to the total plan for corporate worship among the students.

OX and Gamma Phi Hold House Dance

KAT and ATO Cancel Scheduled Dances

Gamma Phi Beta and Theta Chi will give dances tonight as scheduled, but Kappa Alpha Theta and Alpha Tau Omega have cancelled their plans for this weekend.

Gamma Phi pledges and actives will dress in gingham and their escorts will wear jeans. Decorations and refreshments will be in keeping with the Harvest theme.

Raymond Davis and Bill Kubler are in charge of arrangements for the Theta Chi dance.

Theta Chi Jumps To Third Place in Kinnear Points

With a fifth place in the cross country race and a mere five points more toward the Kinnear trophy, the Taus are still leading with 155.

Sigma Nu is in second place with 110 points; third, Theta Chi, 105.42; fourth, Lambda Chi Alpha, 83.75; fifth, S.A.E., 52.48; sixth, Sigma Rho Delta, 10; seventh, Phi Sig, 7.50, and eighth, Independents, 2.50 points.

The cross country race boosted Theta Chi from fourth place in the Kinnear race to third place and lowered Lambda Chi to fourth.

Sports remaining to be played are basketball, track, baseball and handball singles and doubles. Basketball, track and baseball each count 100 points toward the trophy and handball singles counts 20, while doubles 40 points.

PACK FACES BULLDOGS AGGIES IN LAST GAMES

Coast Scribes Rate Fresno 18th Best Among Grid Teams

Twenty-five Nevada gridders left yesterday for Fresno for their last out-of-town game for the season and probably the last traveling game for Nevada for the duration with Coach Jim Aiken, his team hindered by injuries, holding high hopes of knocking the unbeaten, high scoring Bulldogs from the undefeated ranks and return home for the last game of the season three days later with the California Aggies on Mackay Field on Armistice Day.

Disheartened by the loss of Kenny Sims, who suffered a broken arm Saturday in the New Mexico game, Aiken has been putting them through strenuous paces all week in preparation for the two games. Practice for the Fresno game was topped today by a light workout in Fresno, but Aiken expects to hold only one light practice prior to the Cal Aggie game Wednesday.

Fresno

Rated the eighteenth best team in the nation, and one that has been termed a "big league team with a minor league schedule," the Fresnoans will be at full strength for tomorrow's fray in Radcliff stadium.

Aiken will be counting heavily on the starting eleven tomorrow to play most of the game. He stated that if Nevada can play the same game that they performed against St. Mary's and Santa Ana that they might dump the Bulldogs who last year defeated Nevada, 7 to 3, after Nevada had pushed them all over the field for numerous losses.

The Pack will be led by Marion Motley who will try to cope with the individual performance of the highly touted Jackie Fellows. Fellows has been rated by coast scribes as one of the best backs on the team, while Motley has been given coast recognition as well as All-American listings. With Motley passing and running, Hatalala carrying on reverses and Wristen going around the ends, Aiken hopes to outdo the heavy Fresno eleven with deception and power.

Except for the loss of Sims Nevada will be playing at full strength in the forward wall. Smithwick, Talcott and Shea are expected to carry the burden in the line for the Pack.

The Fresno team outweighs Nevada approximately 15 pounds to the man with the Bulldogs backfield averaging 188 pounds which is composed of Masini, Fellows, Kelly and Futrell. Their line goes well over 200 pounds.

Cal Aggies

If the Pack emerges from the Fresno fracas without injury, Aiken is confident that Nevada will win from the Aggies who have lost two games this season and won one. The Aggies lost to a strong California Rambler team, 19 to 13, after one of their kicks had been blocked. They were knocked off, 6 to 0, by Chico on an intercepted pass. Their only win this season was over the Stockton Commandos, 25 to 0.

The Cal Aggie tea mboasts a large left side of the line with DeWitt, a 220-pound All Far Western Conference tackle, being the mainstay. The Cal Aggie team will also outweigh Nevada considerably. The backs are considered good football players by the teams they have already faced. Coppes and Lyons will probably give Nevada trouble at their halfbacks Wednesday.

Starters

Aiken will start the same men for the Aggie game that will open the Fresno game tomorrow. Edsall and Smithwick, ends; Talcott and Shea, tackles; Poulikadis and Cashbaugh, guards; Potter, center; Motley, Wristen, Hatalala and Elides, backs.

Interfrat Council Will Hold Annual Dance November 14

The annual Interfraternity Council dance will be held in the gym on November 14, according to the council's decision on Monday afternoon.

The dance will be an informal date affair, at which couples will be admitted for 85 cents and each person must donate a book which will be given to the USO.

Fraternities will be assigned portions of the gym which they must decorate, according to Jim Kehoe, committee chairman.

Nevada Reserves Defeat Tonopah

Nevada's Wolf Pack held a scrimmage on Mackay field with soldiers from the Tonopah Army base last Wednesday, winning 14-0. The soldiers gave the varsity second and third team good opposition.

Neil Olds scored and then Bobby Clark struck pay dirt on a 25-yard jaunt for Nevada's tallies.

International Day Will Be Observed Here November 20

Executed Czech Students Who Opposed Nazis Given Honor

International Students Day will be observed November 20, according to ASUN President Gene Mastroianni. The event honors 160 Czechoslovak students who were executed three years ago for protesting against Nazified education.

Ideas for this special assembly from the student body are requested, Mastroianni said. He indicated that a special speaker would be secured for the occasion.

England, China, India, South America and some parts of the United States observed the day last year. The stand of these European students is considered a real contribution to free education throughout the world.

Standard Oil Co. Uses Nevada Talent To Promote Bonds

Wolves Frolic Actors Will Present Skits On Victory House

To promote the sale of war bonds, the Standard Oil "Victory House" with several acts from the Wolves Frolic, will present a show Saturday from 1:30 until 4:30 on Virginia street between First and Second streets. The Victory House is a traveling group with a stage on wheels, but which has only a small troupe so that entertainment is supplied by each community.

Acts which will be given by university students are Alce Ruth Doyle, songs; Fritz Jane Neddenrip and Dorothy Savage, tap dance; part of the Theta kick chorus; Bea Thompson, accordion selections; Alvin Wiehe and Luana Jensen, tap routines; Professors Post, Chadwick, Williams and Mertil, songs, and Warren Salmon and Croston Stead with Sigma Nu's "Rhythm of the Islands."

Auctioneers for selling bonds are Lt. Hackett for the Navy, Sergeant Caser for the Marine Corps and Sergeant Josephson for the Army.

High School Views On Meet Asked

Press Convention May Be Dropped

Letters were sent to every high school in the state this week asking them if they plan to send representatives to the press club convention which will probably be held in late November, Bill Friel, club president, announced.

Friel is waiting for replies and if enough can attend the convention, the press club will set a date for the affair.

Officers to Inspect U. N. Military Setup

Colonel Raymond C. Baird, Pomona Junior College military head, will inspect the military facilities at the university next Monday and Tuesday.

Colonel Baird will review the military set-up, methods of instruction and military equipment.

PREXY SAYS

BY GENE MASTROIANNI

This rally setup is being revised again, this time for the better—we hope. This is a fine opportunity for a lot of students who seem dissatisfied with the rallies to volunteer and take a "crack" at it. If the proper spirit is there we can make our rally committee a big activity and put it on a par with that of other schools of our size. Its merits will be tested for the rally November 10 and also during basketball season. Our university will play a great part next Wednesday in helping our community celebrate Armistice Day. Since the year's theme is more of a "make possible the next Armistice" affair, let's all dig in to do our part at the game Wednesday.

LET'S DECLARE WAR

Last week in these columns we offered the opinion that students at the University of Nevada don't give a damn about the war.

This week we've decided they don't give a damn about not giving a damn.

We noted the fact that just four war bonds have been bought at the comptroller's office since last January, when they went on sale there.

We also noted that no male student had ever bought a war stamp at the university post office, and that only occasionally did women students buy them.

Yesterday a Sagebrush reporter checked again with the comptroller's office and with Postmaster Prescott.

No more bonds bought. Not a single stamp bought by any student since last week.

In nosing around the campus we found that, as usual, few had read our editorial—or the front page story on the same subject—and that those few had paid absolutely no attention to either piece.

We were accustomed to the indifference shown to editorials in the Sagebrush, but we are having trouble accustoming ourselves to the criminal apathy of students at this university toward the war.

We're getting so we are embarrassed every time we hear the words, "Hail, proud Nevada!"

In our exchanges we have noticed lately that the big news carried every day on the front page of the Daily Californian is about the new drive under way at U. C. to sell war stamps.

Each student is expected to buy one 25-cent stamp per week. The stamps are to be sold through representatives in each housing unit, and by booths on the campus.

There is a like story about war stamps told in most of the student papers from all over the country that come to our office, and we are glad to know that there are college students some place who realize that there is a war on now—not at the end of the semester, or upon graduation—but now.

We think the 25-cent stamp a week plan would be a good one to start at Nevada. We think the method of having responsible representatives of each sorority and fraternity do the selling is good. And we think that booths on the campus run by service clubs and aided by volunteers might help, too.

Put together, they might wake Nevadans up a little.

We are putting the issue squarely before the ASUN governing body, the student senate. We think that once made aware of the deficiencies of Nevadans in support of the war, they will be sadly errant in their duties if they do not take direct steps to remedy the situation at their next meeting.

We've made our suggestions, and of course the Senate can take 'em or leave 'em.

But we think that even the most arrant escapist on the campus will admit the necessity for doing something to get Nevada into the war.

Frolic Big Success as Quartet Stars; Snakes, Pi Phis, Barbs Win Contests

Closing their act with a special arrangement of "Praise the Lord and Pass the Ammunition," an old-fashioned barber shop quartet, composed of Professors T. H. Post, Holly Martel, Loring Williams and Leonard Chadwick, scored the biggest hit in this year's Wolves Frolic.

Continued applause called the four faculty members back to the stage before the audience of 1200 would let them go. The quartet, complete with a barber chair and handle-bar mustaches, sang such old favorites as "Down by the Old Mill Stream" and "Sweet Adeline."

Sigma Nu, Pi Beta Phi and the Independents, respectively, were awarded cups for the best fraternity, sorority and organization acts in the '42 Frolic. Awards were made Saturday night at the Homecoming dance.

"Rhythm of the Island," winner in the fraternity competition, featured two Hawaiian comic dancers with a background of Hawaiian tribesmen chanting their native songs. The act was climaxed by the expert hula gyrations of Valerie Snell and Barbara Smith, university students, who learned the dance while in the Hawaiian Islands.

Pi Beta Phi won the sorority cup with a lively musical skit telling the sorry plight of "war brides" and coeds on a wartime campus completely devoid of men.

A "Gay Nineties" act featuring the song, dance and costume of the bowler hat period, won the cup for the Independents.

All the bills of the '42 Frolic have not yet been paid; however, "the Frolic definitely made money," according to William Miller, director of the campus show.

A complete statement of profits going into the ASUN coffers from the Wolves

Frolic will be announced later. Student entertainers in the winning acts were as follows:

Sigma Nu: Valerie Snell, Barbara Smith, Warren Salmon, Bernard Smith, Croston Stead, Carl Foster, Howard Heckethorn, Ray Hagar, Nick Jackson, Orsie Graves, Deanne Quilici, Bill Paterson, Mahlon Fairchild, John Aymar and Elwyn Freemonth, piano accompanist.

Pi Beta Phi: Adey Mae Dunnell, Nadine Gibson, Patsy Prescott, Geraldine McFarlane, Beulah Haddow, Barbara Heaney, Katherine Little, Alice Martha Traner, Betty Burkhalter, Lurayne Hamlyn, Katherine Holcomb, Mariane Holcomb and Bill Friel.

Independents: Ed Monsanto, June Conser, Katherine Berman, Bill Maestretti, Dorothy Reynolds, Janet McClellan, Rondell Shaw, Norma Quilici and Paul Arenaz. Nellie Higgs, piano accompanist.

The kick chorus, always a highlight of the show, kicked up four top-notch routines for the Frolic. The dancers were under the direction of Ruth Ryan. Dean Benedicti's orchestra played for the show.

The balance of the program in the '42 Wolves Frolic, probably the last until the end of the war, included fraternity and sorority skits by Lambda Chi Alpha, Delta Delta Delta, Gamma Phi Beta, Alpha Tau Omega, Kappa Alpha Theta, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Rho Delta, and specialty numbers as follows: Alice Ruth Doyle, soprano; Harlan Laufman, Barbara Heaney, double piano; "Splash Me," novelty act with James Forsyth and Barbara Francis; Francis Frandsen, blues singer; Luana Jensen, Alvin Weihe, novelty dances, and Bea Thompson, accordion selections.

Book Store Finds New Headache Now

School Supplies Are Of Second Quality

Shortages, priorities and transportation difficulties are adding to the headaches of the University Book Store.

White paper is steadily becoming less white, the Esterbrook company are not making any more fountain pens, and shipments of all supplies, including war-precious slide-rules and rota-rules are held up for weeks.

In the future students will find themselves using pale green or "ivory" note-paper, because of the vital war materials used in the bleaching process. Subsequent orders of pencils may have erasers set in plastic, or none at all. The store reports a good stock of most supplies, including erasers and college jewelry, but is not optimistic about orders on certain articles.

SAGEBRUSH STAFF SHOCKED BY OFFICE CLEANUP

"Am I in the wrong office?" "Boy! What a party that must have been!"

"What happened? Friel lose a hickel?"

The above quotations are direct from the Sagebrush staff upon viewing the results last week when a time-honored precedent was shattered and the 'Brush office underwent housecleaning.

The move, however, was not a complete surprise, as occasional predictions and conjectures have been cropping forth for the past several years on the ultimate necessity of making room for the staff members. The editorial room was found to be covered to a depth of approximately 20 inches, and the editor's office was beginning to assume the aspects of a sort of nest with the litter piled high against the walls and graduating to approximate ankle depth in the exact center.

After the removal of an elephantine file cabinet and the shifting of the editor's desk to a less vulnerable position facing the door, the cubicle seemed to create an effect of spaciousness, similar to that of a rather large clothes closet. The rumor that both rooms possess floors has been definitely corroborated by eye-witness accounts of those present when the final layer of debris was removed.

Although the staff expressed their approval of the revolutionary action, several of the sentimentalists are wistfully of the opinion that it isn't nearly so cozy any more.

"Didn't you tell me you hunt bear?" "Madam, you are wrong. I always wear a hunting outfit."

Three Brothers In War Plants; All Nevada Alumni

Included among the university alumni now active in civilian defense work are Fred, Alex and George Lohse, all members of Lambda Chi Alpha.

Fred received a degree in chemistry in 1930 and is now chemical engineer with the Henry J. Kaiser company, Oakland.

Alex received a degree in electrical engineering in '32 and is now with the Permente company, a subsidiary of Kaiser, near Palo Alto.

The third brother, George is the Nevada state rationing representative of the OPA. He graduated in 1935.

ITALIAN JANITOR BUYS BONDS FOR DESCENDANTS

"We're in it and we got to do all we can to get out," said Charlie Gadda, janitor at the gymnasium.

Gadda is the man who has done a great deal toward boosting war bond sales at the comptroller's office, having purchased seven bonds since January.

He has been buying a war bond for each of his grandchildren, and has some job ahead of him. Counting his grandchildren, he said: "Bill has three; George has three. Dolly's got one; Florence has one and have another soon, that's eight all together. I buy one for each, so they have something when it's over."

Gadda came to America from his birthplace in Italy when he was 22 years old. That was in 1899 and he migrated west to follow the lumber trade. In 1915 he settled permanently in Reno to bring up his family. He began working at the university in 1924 and has been here ever since. He lives alone now with only himself to support, unless as he says, "One of the kids needs something, then I help."

Before the comptroller became an agent for bond sales, Mr. Gadda bought them from the Reno postoffice.

"Everybody got to put something in so we win the war," was his comment.

Professors Return From Chicago Meet

Stanley G. Palmer, acting dean of the College of Engineering; Thomas E. Buckman and Samuel Doten, of the agricultural extension department, and Miss Mildred Swift of the university faculty, have returned from Chicago where they attended meetings of colleges from all over the country.

New AWS War Board Plan to Organize Women Activities

Red Cross, USO and Other War Work Considered As Activities

Synchronization of all civilian war activities of campus women's organizations will be undertaken by the newly established War Board of the Associated Women Students, according to the joint statement of Dean Lucille Benson and Betty Nash Carlson, AWS president.

The board will consist of presidents of organizations planning to contribute time to the Red Cross, USO and other work pertaining to the war effort. Its purpose is to encourage more active participation in these activities and to distribute the burden equally among the various groups.

Further details will be announced after a special meeting to be held next week.

LIBE COLLECTS $5.03

Library fines have amounted to $5.03 since October 10, according to Thea C. Thompson, librarian. Fine money is used for purchasing incidentals such as postal cards and inks. Books specially requested by the students are also paid for out of this fund.

Phi Sig Magazine Honors University

The October issue of The Signet, national Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity magazine, has been dedicated to the local chapter, Eta Deuteron.

The magazine carries four articles covering the history of the university and stresses chapter accomplishments and prominently mentioned also. The articles were written by Ed Grindel; Eto Georgi, recently inducted into the Army; Fred Batchelder, graduate of this year, and Edwin Semenza, who graduated in 1930.

Photographs of the Mackay statue, chapter members, scenes of the campus, the chapter house and active members are shown. Fifteen pages of the 50-page publication are dedicated to the Eta Deuteron chapter.

You can help save 29,000 hours a day

ONE second saved in each of the 106 million telephone calls made every day would add up to well over 29,000 hours—would help greatly to keep lines open for vital military and war production calls.

A single second is that important. So answer promptly, giving your location and name, and keep your conversation brief. When making a call, be sure you have the right number—use the directory—call information only when it's really necessary. And please don't use Long Distance to defense areas unless your call is urgent.

The Bell System has a big job to do. By saving seconds you may make room for a vital war-time call.

Good Hoop Season Strong Possibility If Vets Return

Frosh May Be Picked For Varsity Spots, Lawlor States

"Providing returning veterans are eligible, prospects for a successful basketball season appear very bright," stated Jake Lawlor, basketball mentor.

With several veterans returning from last year's squad, the varsity hoopsters will begin extensive practice the week following Armistice Day. Among the returning veterans are Bob O'Shaughnessy, sharpshooting forward, Harry Paille, lanky center, Jim Melarkey, speedy forward, Alf Sorenson, Royce Hardy, Gene Mastrolanni, Orsie Graves, Jack Pierce, and Otis Vaughn.

Supplying additional strength to the varsity hoop squad are the following members from last year's frosh squad: Everett "Snooks" Curless, Bob Wise, Jordan Ellades, Bob Bell and Stan Cohen.

Lawlor stated, "Freshmen will be eligible for varsity competition. Three or four frosh players may be picked from the frosh squad to play varsity ball, although these players might somewhat be handicapped due to the lack of varsity experience."

Several practice games are being arranged, Lawlor said, but as yet no definite date has been set.

Nevada's schedule for the coming season includes top-notch college teams as well as service teams, on the Pacific coast. The schedule follows:

Dec. 11-12—McClellan at Nevada (tentative).

Dec. 17—Utah State at Nevada (tentative).

Jan. 8-9—St. Mary's at Nevada.

Jan. 15-16—To be filled.

Jan. 22-23—Cal Aggies at Nevada.

Jan. 29-30—Mather Field there (tentative).

Feb. 5-6—Chico at Nevada.

Feb. 12-13—San Jose, there.

Every Year Is Nevada's Year.

Cross Country Won By Art Larrance; OX Beats Greeks

Art Larrance, speedy Lambda Chi marathoner from Reno, took individual honors in the annual Homecoming cross country trek from Sparks to Reno last Saturday, clocked at 24 minutes 17.5 seconds.

Theta Chi, defending champion, took the race crown and 60 points toward the Kinmer trophy, by being the first Greeks to place three men across the finish line. Second place winner was Sigma Nu, who garnered 40 points. Lambda Chi Alpha placed third, winning 20 points, Sigma Alpha Epsilon tallied 10 and Alpha Tau Omega trailed with five markers.

Larrance was followed by David Pulstone, Smith Valley SAE, at the finish line, with Orsie Graves, Sparks Sigma Nu, finishing third by a foot, followed by Robert Tognoni, Theta Chi from Eureka. Forrest Nickles, Reno ATO, finished in sixth place; Alfred Mills, Fallon Theta Chi, seventh; Carl Dignio, Reno Lambda Chi, eighth; Jim Barrett, Reno Theta Chi, ninth; Tony Martinez, Sigma Nu from Sparks, tenth; Barnes Berry, Reno Sigma Nu, eleventh; John Gent, Reno Lambda Chi, twelfth; Chester Meckley, Reno SAE, thirteenth; Eugene Tidball, Reno ATO, fourteenth; John Jorgensen, Reno Lambda Chi, fifteenth; Robert Steele, SAE from Long Beach, Calif., sixteenth. Bill Johnson, Fallon Theta Chi, seventeenth; Nick Hall, Reno Sigma Nu, eighteenth; Bob Jackson, Fernley Sigma Nu, nineteenth; Jerry Wetzel, Theta Chi of McCloud, Calif., and Bruce Shaw, Gardnerville ATO, ended up in a dead heat for twentieth and twenty-first; Don Kramer, Fernley Sigma Nu, twenty-second; Ken Bradshaw, Reno Sigma Nu, twenty-third; Kerry Keresy, Reno Lambda Chi, twenty-fourth; Ashley Van Slyck, Reno Sigma Nu, twenty-fifth; Tom Ebert, Sigma Nu from Las Vegas, twenty-sixth.

Tognoni, Mills and Barrett were the first Greek runners representing one house to bring victory for the third year in a row to Theta Chi.

Dale Smith Raised To Head Officer

Lt. Col. Dale O. Smith, attending university during 1929, was recently made commanding officer of the second bombardment group of the army air forces anti-submarine command, according to word received here.

While attending the university, Lt. Col. Smith was affiliated with Sigma Nu fraternity. He graduated from the United States Military Academy at West Point in 1934.

Three Hoop Clubs Stay Undeclared In Opening Games

LXA, ATO, Theta Chi Beat Opponents Rather Handily

Interfraternity basketball got under way this week with Alpha Tau Omega, Lambda Chi Alpha and Theta Chi emerging undefeated.

In last Wednesday's games Theta Chi downed last year's champions, SAE, by a score of 37 to 16.

Substituting freely during the game, an inspired ATO quintet trounced the Independents, 63-16.

On Tuesday night, the Phi Sigs led, 11 to 6, at halftime, over the strong Alpha Tau Omega five. The Taus came surging back in the second half to trounce the Phi Sigs, 41-17.

SAE downed their less formidable opponents, the Independents, by a lopsided score of 40-14.

Lambda Chi downed a surprisingly strong Sigma Rho Delta team, 37-23, in a close, hard-fought game.

Sigma Nu came back strong after their defeat at the hands of the Taus, to trounce the Independents, 40-12.

In Monday's opening night games, Lambda Chi Alpha's speedy hoop squad scored a decisive 69-9 victory over a weakened Phi Sig team.

Alpha Tau Omega defeated a strong Sigma Nu team, 22-9, in the second game of the evening.

With Emery De Rushia hitting the hoop for 11 points, the Theta Chi quintet defeated Sigma Rho Delta, 21-11, in a slow, ragged game.

Wolf Pack Ties New Mexico Lobos

In a rough and tough game last Saturday the New Mexico Lobos and the Nevada Wolf Pack fought a tieless game before a Homecoming crowd of about 2500.

Led by Marion Motley and Johnny Hattala, the Pack ground offensive carried them as far as the ten-yard line five times during the game. A tough Lobo line spoiled Nevada's chances to win.

Playing one of his best games, Hattala intercepted one of Brown's passes and ran 52 yards before being laid down by Jourdan of New Mexico on the 20-yard line. Hattala's spectacular running, good for 10 yards per try, was the highlight of the contest.

Motley's place kicks, which brought Nevada victory over Santa Ana, were unsuccessful in his two attempts to eke out a Nevada victory.

Kenny Sims, end, played spectacular ball in the opening minutes, only to be lost to the Pack for the remainder of the season due to a broken arm received in a head-on collision with a Lobo ball carrier.

Captain Hugh Smithwick, Don Talcott and Vince Shea played outstanding ball in the line for Nevada. Smithwick and Shea, played their last Homecoming game.

Seven Nevada and nine New Mexico passes were good for one completion for each team.

Sorority House Mothers Entertained by Dean

Dean Lucille B. Benson, dean of women, entertained sorority and dormitory house mothers for tea Tuesday afternoon in Manzanita Hall.

A discussion was held on regulations for women students and general campus affairs. A similar meeting will be held the first week in every month.

Mesdames Celma Frances, Dorothy Grill, Gertrude Neville, Hazeldean Seitz and Katherine Rawles were present.

TRI-DELTS STUDY AIDS FOR WAR AT LUNCHEON

Delta Delta Delta Mother's Club met Wednesday for luncheon at the Tri-Delt chapter house on Sierra street.

Plans were discussed for the present war work of the club and arrangements were made to furnish refreshments for the USO for this week.

The table was attractively arranged with a centerpiece of orchid and gold chrysanthemums. Mrs. V. W. Poulsen, Mrs. H. H. Elkins, Mrs. John Chism and Mrs. J. G. Juniper were hostesses for the afternoon.

THE WOLF DEN

WOLF PRINTS

BY JERRY WETZEL

THIS CORNER RECEIVED SOME kickbacks from Alken and company this week about our comment on the Fresno game tomorrow. We stated that New Mexico was only a sidelight in preparation to the Pack-Bulldog fray. But Alken informed us that tomorrow's fracas is only another game as far as he is concerned. We apologize for the remark, but sincerely feel that should Alken win tomorrow it will be the answer to quite a few prayers issued after that excuse for football last fall exhibited in the Fresno game.

FRESNO FALLS BACK TO THE second highest scoring spot in the nation after last week's 13 to 0 win over College of Pacific. Again we ask who has Fresno played. Naturally they won over Whittier, 51 to 0; Occidental, 53 to 6; San Diego State, 66 to 0; March Field, 20 to 0; Fort Ord, 80 to 0, and College of Pacific, 13 to 0, for a total of 283 points, but none of these teams play the same type of ball that Nevada does. As sport scribes on the coast mentioned, Fresno is riding for a fall from that high horse they have been riding lately. If it comes tomorrow, and we expect that it is possible, we hope that Bradshaw will take it on the chin, 50 or 60 to nothing. Coaches depend on the success of their teams for their livings and when their team become jokes because of a 60 to 0 defeat it certainly doesn't add to their bread and butter. Alken has told us that he never has nor never will lay it on such as Bradshaw has been doing. (Explanations for the Arkansas game two years ago can be answered by Alken.)

SINCE WHEN HAS FRESNO BEEN rated 18th among the nation's grid teams? Every team in the Pacific Coast Conference could push Fresno around, with probably the exception of Montana and Idaho. And we could probably name 30 or 40 others around the nation without much difficulty.

BASKETBALL CORRALLED INTERFRAT interest this week. Last week we picked the four top men in the cross country race so again we go out on the well-bent limb to pick the top Greek quintets, Lambda Chi, at their present pace will finish on top. Jack Pierce and Tom Cross are two of the finest players in the league this year. Not prejudiced, we pick Theta Chi to finish up with the hilltoppers. It will be the Theta Chis playing the LXAs that will determine the championship. Jerry DeRushia is good enough for any all-frat team that we can name at present. Right behind will be the ATOs. Although the team is made up of freshmen, we are beginning to see how those Nevada all-state presters got there. Swendenborg will garner quite a few points on our all-frat selections in two weeks.

Then Sigma Alpha Epsilon, who is hindered by too many football players not getting into the games because of practice, Sigma Rho Delta and Phi Sigma Kappa who also can win a few if they can play with the strength of the boys who are out for football and the Independents. Incidentally, the Independent squad is the best we've seen play for that group in some time. Keep your eye on Yoshito Ito. He is capable of varsity ball and certainly ought to get mention on the all-frat team.

FROM HERE AND THERE The football schedule was picked right this year as far as delinquent graders are concerned. The grades are due to be on file the 10th, the day before Nevada plays its last game. We know a few members of Alken's headcase that won't be around after the 11th.

Pix Pierson, line coach at Fresno and former Nevada great, was in the scouting booth Saturday along with Woody Wilson, Cal Aggie scout. Talking to Pierson after the game, he states, with a straight face, that Fresno will dump Nevada although he seemed impressed by Nevada's showing.

Jackie Fellows is the greatest back on the coast, is what we get from Rube Boyce this week after the backfield coach scouted Fresno last week. He passes and runs 98 per cent of Fresno's plays, Rube states. But Alken is wondering what the Bulldog wonder would do up against St. Mary's or USF.

Records of Who's Who Selectees Acclaimed as Outstanding on Campus

Twenty Nevada students were singled out last week for recognition in Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges. The Sagebrush listed the students who were selected, but it was impossible to present more than their names because of the late arrival of the information.

Clark Guild, George Basta, Bernie Smith, Eugene Mastroianni, Jack Pierce, John Gabrielli, Clifton Young, Dean Quilici, Bill Friel, George Frey, Frances Hawkins, Mary Kathryn Carroll, Patsy Prescott, Yvonne Rosasco, Fritz Jane Neddenriep, Harriet Morrison, Art Palmer, Jim Kehoe, Betty Nash Carlson and Virginia Mathews were named by the publication. Here is a more complete record of these collegians.

Guild was freshman class manager in his first year on the hill. He now represents the student body on the health committee, and was co-chairman of last week's Homecoming celebration. A native of Carson City, he is an ATO. He belongs to Coffin and Keys and Blue Key.

George Basta is president of Scabbard and Blade and heads the university ROTC unit. He has been upper-class committee head, and is in Blue Key and Coffin and Keys. Basta's home town is Ely. He is president of ATO.

Bernie Smith, a Reno resident, is a Sigma Nu and a member of Blue Key and Coffin and Keys. He was Homecoming co-chairman with Guild.

ASUN president, Eugene Mastroianni, is a Lambda Chi Alpha. He is a Blue

Key, in Coffin and Keys, and worked out the Homecoming committee. In addition he was elected class manager in his sophomore year. He lives in Reno.

Jack Pierce worked on the Ski Carnival committee, is president of the senior class and the Associated Engineers, and is now active as rally chairman. He is a Reno Lambda Chi.

John Gabrielli, one-time junior class manager, is equipment boss of the football team and president of the Newman Club. He resides in Reno, and is an ATO.

Clifton Young, business manager of the Artemesia, is president of Lambda Chi Alpha and has worked in the student senate. He comes from Lovelock. He is in Scabbard and Blade, Forensic Key, Blue Key, and Coffin and Keys.

Bill Friel, Sagebrush editor, is a member of Sigma Nu. He is on the student affairs committee, and belongs to Coffin and Keys. He is president of the Press Club. His home town is Tonopah.

Deane Quilici of Dayton, Sagebrush business manager, is a Sigma Nu, and active in Coffin and Keys and Blue Key and a member of Scabbard and Blade.

George Frey, Fallon Theta Chi, is on the upperclass committee and is a letterman in varsity track. He is president of his fraternity, and chairman of the election board.

Art Palmer is president of the Aggie Club and Blue Key. He is assistant graduate manager. In addition he heads Masque and Dagger, has been business manager of the Wolves Frolic. He lives in Bloomfield, N. J., and his fraternity is Sigma Rho Delta.

Jim Kehoe was the organizer and is drillmaster of the Blue Peppers. He is a Sigma Rho Delta, belongs to Masque and Dagger, Coffin and Keys, Scabbard and Blade, President of the interfraternity council, and lives in Boulder City.

Frances Hawkins is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority, and heads the women's upperclass committee as well as Gothic N. She has served in the student senate. She resides in Winnemucca.

Mary Kathryn Carroll, Reno Independent, is WAA president and on the women's upperclass committee. She was president of the University Dancers, and is in Gothic N.

Yvonne Rosasco was recently honored by the Navy as "Miss Navyda." She is a Kappa Alpha Theta, a Chi Delta Phi member, and lives in Reno.

Fritz Jane Neddenriep is president of Fine Arts group, president of Kappa Alpha Theta, and is a member of the women-in-service flag committee. She comes from Gardnerville.

Harriet Morrison, Reno Tri-Delt, is a varsity cheer leader, honorary major of the ROTC battalion, and active in WAA and Gothic N.

Betty Nash Carlson, Las Vegas Gamma Phi Beta president, is AWS president, and a member of the service flag committee. She also serves on the student affairs and student health committee.

Virginia Mathews is secretary of the ASUN and president of her sorority, Zeta Phi Zeta. Her residence is Panaca.

9 Campus Greeks Entertain Alumni

Frats and Sororities Hold Open Houses

Nine Greek houses entertained their alumni members at various social events over the Homecoming weekend with informal luncheons, get-togethers and open houses.

Pi Beta Phi entertained 75 of its alumnae at a buffet luncheon Saturday noon. The Pi Phi house was decorated with autumn flowers and a centerpiece of gold and bronze chrysanthemums adorned the table.

Theta Chi members and alumni participated in a joint celebration of Homecoming and the merging of Beta Kappa and Theta Chi fraternities. A luncheon and open house was held both Saturday and Sunday afternoons for Oakland-Berkeley Theta Chi alumni installation team and 30 alumni of Theta Chi.

The Gamma Phi Beta alumnae were entertained at a buffet luncheon Saturday noon. The house was decorated in the Halloween motif with black and orange candles, cats, witches and pumpkins arranged about the house and table. The centerpiece was of gold and bronze chrysanthemums.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon held open house for 40 alumni at their house all day Saturday. A buffet luncheon was served at noon for members and alumni.

Fifty-two Delta Delta Delta alumnae were honored at their chapter house at a luncheon Saturday noon. Small tables were covered with Dresden cloths with autumn flowers as centerpieces. Place cards were miniature Nevada pennants.

New pledges and actives of ATO were presented to Homecoming alumni at a regular meeting Friday evening. After the meeting members and alumni present enjoyed an informal get-together.

Lambda Chi Alpha honored 25 of their alumni at their chapter house on University Terrace Saturday afternoon after the game at an informal get-together.

Kappa Alpha Theta feted 30 alumnae at a traditional Homecoming luncheon Saturday noon. Autumn flowers were attractively arranged about the house and in the center of the table.

A box luncheon was served for Sigma Nu alumni and members Saturday noon at the Sigma Nu chapter house. After the game Saturday afternoon an informal get-together was enjoyed. Thirty Sigma Nu alumni were entertained.

Sagens Select Six From Greek Houses

Six coeds who have been chosen for membership in Sagens this semester are Ruth Mary Noble, Delta Delta Delta; Darden Tibbs and Brownie Wylie, Gamma Phi Beta; Katherine Little, Pi Beta Phi, and Lela Iler and Jane Dugan, Kappa Alpha Theta.

Symposium Given To Faculty Club

A symposium on "Post War Problems," featuring Dr. Eldon Wittwer, Dr. Robert Griffin and Dr. Phillip Auchampagh, was presented to the University Faculty Club last Tuesday evening.

F. B. Headley, chairman of the faculty club, presided at the meeting.

Wooster Elected Alumni President At Lawton Dinner

Annual Affair Draws 180; Hartman, Aiken Give Talks

Earl Wooster, 21, principal of Reno High School, was elected president of the University of Nevada Alumni Association at the annual banquet held Saturday evening at Lawton Springs.

Wooster succeeds Hugo Quilici, local banker, as president of the association.

Other officers named at the meeting included John Chism, vice president. Elbert Walker, secretary-treasurer, and fifteen members of the executive committee. Those chosen were Hugo Quilici, Joe McDonnell, George Southworth, Jr., Francis Smith, Charles Roeder, Proctor Hug, Blythe Bulmer, Thomas C. Wilson, Denver Dickerson, Bruce Thompson, M. S. Blakely, Jack Walthers, Harry Frost, Nevada Pedrol and Fred Steiner.

The attendance at the alumni banquet was the largest in some time, with approximately 180 Nevada alumni present. During the dinner short talks were given by Jim Aiken, University of Nevada football coach; Silas E. Ross, president of the board of regents, and Dr. Leon W. Hartman, president of the university. Dr. Hartman explained the financial condition of the university, stating that the financial resources had been materially increased from a million dollars to almost a million and a quarter because of a number of recent bequests.

Two floor shows were presented from the Trocadero and the Club Fortune. Dancing music was played by Merle Snider and his orchestra. The entertainment was concluded with Hoyt Martin leading community singing.

"Do you have many lines to speak in the new play?"

"No, I take the part of the husband."

Kick Chorine Glad Frolic Ended for '42

Loud laments to the passing of the kick chorus were wailed by its 16 members this week when the girls realized that regimented physical kicking was over for another year.

KAT's Terry Nagle and Pete Gusewelle kicked verbally over the dinner table because evenings were a little dull.

Valerie Snell and Jean Chambers claim losses of weight, but agree that they would do it again next year if given the chance.

Upon being asked how she felt about the kick chorus, Betty Poe muttered that she didn't know, 'cause she hadn't recovered yet.

Hope Fleming says that it was fun, but she's glad it's over; she needs the time to study.

The general opinion seems to be that it is fun and it helps to promote inter-sorority contacts and good feeling. If there's a Frolic next year, they'll all do it again.

COEDS IN FASHION SHOW

Ten university coeds participated in a fashion show sponsored by the Rainbows Thursday night.

New fall clothes, sports affairs, and formals were shown by Jacqueline Prescott, Mary Watts, Valerie Scheeline, Shirley Bowen and Viola Sorensen, who were the college models.

Lurayne Hamlyn was the fashion commentator and Mildred Missimer played the piano accompaniment.

During the evening Frances Frandsen and Alice Ruth Doyle sang a vocal solo, and Beatrice Thompson played her accordion.

MADAME OSGOOD

Among those enjoying the Homecoming celebration last weekend was Madame Henriette Osgood, former member of the university faculty.

Madame Osgood is now engaged in government work in San Francisco, but returned here to enjoy the Homecoming festivities and to renew former acquaintances. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. McBride of Elko, Nevada.

While on the campus Mrs. Osgood taught French. She left Nevada at the end of the school term last spring.

THIRTY QUIT SCHOOL

The office of the registrar reports that 30 students have withdrawn from school since the beginning of the semester. Of this number, 24 were men and six were women.

Most of the men students said they were planning to enter the armed forces, but no reasons were given by the women.

PRINTING of DISTINCTION
Experience in handling campus printing is invaluable in fine craftsmanship, for it is the most demanding of all for quality in reproduction.
Whether it be the Artemesia or a dance program, campus printing must be of the highest quality, and yet produced for a price which is extremely reasonable. There is no harder test. We have met it for decades.

"Facts about wartime"
I never saw a fighting man who didn't cherish the very thought of a pause with Coca-Cola. That goes for workers in factories, too. Ice-cold Coke is something more than the drink that answers thirst. It adds the feel of refreshment.
In war, Uncle Sam restricts the supply. But there's still enough for many refreshing pauses.
