

STUDENTS TO ELECT OFFICERS THURSDAY

Eight Campus Organizations Give Awards, Extend Bids at Mackay Lunch

Eight organizations on the campus presented awards and extended bids to membership at the annual Mackay Day luncheon Saturday.

Athletic Awards

Gothic N, highest women's honorary athletic society on the campus, elected Pat Riley to membership on the standards of outstanding sports participation and good scholarship. Lifetime privilege cards were extended to Marie Aldrich, Barbara Byington, Carmen Grundel and Nancy Herz.

Phi Alpha Theta, national history club, extended membership invitations to Virginia Olesen, Kay Kinneberg and Gilbert Sutton.

Nora Saunders was presented with a bid to the University Dancers because of her work with this group.

Receiving bids to Press Club were Virginia Auchampaugh, Evelyn Payne, James Coleman, Pat Riley, Pat Ussey, Jo Miller, Gloria Mapes, Charles Blenio, Anna Garamendi, Tosca Masini, Jane Perkins, Adele Marsh, Helen Corica, Jean Bicknell, Barbara Mills, Marilyn Dugan, Marilou Ferguson, Maurya Wogan, Valerie Scheeline and Rose Nannini.

Betty Molignoni awarded Italic N's to Isabel Blythe, associate editor; Madlen Maestretti, sports editor; Maurya Wogan, news editor; and Marilyn Dugan, business manager for outstanding work on the Sagebrush. Miss Dugan presented business staff awards to Virginia Auchampaugh, Jean Bicknell and Pat Crummer.

Artemisia Prizes

Italic N's for work on the Artemisia were given to Virginia Olesen and Flo Miller by Bette Poe, editor. Mary Watts recognized Gloria Mapes, Rose Nannini and Marilou Ferguson for their efforts on the business staff of the yearbook.

The ASUN band award went to Robert Craig for band participation for five semesters. It was presented by Prof. Theodore Post.

High School Meet Slated April 20

Plans for the annual high school presidents convention to be held on the University of Nevada campus April 20 and 21, are going ahead on schedule, according to John Baker, chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements.

Kappa Alpha Theta and Delta Delta Delta sororities will entertain the presidents at luncheons on Friday and Saturday. Dr. John O. Moseley, president of the university, will address the high school leaders at the Friday luncheon, and Jo Ann Miller, Kappa Alpha Theta president, will give a short talk. Entertainment will be provided by the Theta song team.

Guest speaker for the Saturday luncheon has not been decided upon, but Lavina Ramelli will address the group and the Tri-Delt song team will entertain.

A full and varied schedule has been planned for the presidents, including a tour of the campus, a barbecue at the WAA barbecue pit and an assembly at Reno high school, as well as the regular round table discussions and meetings.

INDEPENDENTS TO APPOINT AWS PRESIDENT

To elect the new president of Associated Women Students, Independents will meet next Monday night in the home economics rooms in the Agriculture building, according to Italo Gavazzi, president. Organization officers will also be elected, and all unaffiliated students are invited to attend.

The AWS presidency, a revolving office, reverts to the Independent organization this year. The elected coed will replace Dorothy Abel, graduating Zeta Phi Zeta, who discharged the duties of the office in 1944 and 1945.

In addition to presidential duties, the officeholder will be vice-president of the ASUN student body and vice-chairman of the ASUN senate. Qualifications are the required number of hours for senior standing.

Following the election a reception honoring all Independent and unaffiliated students will be held. Dr. Vincent Gianella and Acting Dean of Women Alice B. Marsh will be honored guests.

12 Enrolled by Correspondence

Arts and Science Courses Popular

Twelve students are now enrolled in correspondence courses offered by the university, according to records on file in the office of Dean Fredrick Wood of the college of arts and science.

There is no limit to the number of credits that may be obtained through correspondence courses, and prerequisites must be filled as with ordinary enrollment. A fee of $5 per credit is charged and no definite time is fixed for completion of the course.

Information Available

Information on these courses may be secured by writing to the Correspondence Study Department, University of Nevada. After completion of prescribed lessons the student must take a final examination either at the university or under the supervision of a qualified school authority.

Most of the students registered are teachers renewing certificates and doing graduate work. Sgt. Lyle Roush stationed with the army air force in the South Pacific is the only member of the armed service enrolled.

Among the more popular courses are English, mathematics, political science, history and psychology, Dean Wood said.

Pat Traner Named Sagen President

Pat Traner will officially take office as president of Sagens at the initiation breakfast to be held April 15 at 9:30 am in the Riverside Hotel. She replaces Leonore Hill in this office.

A junior Pi Beta Phi, Miss Traner is past president of Pan-Hellenic council, member of YWCA, Fine Arts, upperclass committee, Chi Delta Phi and History Club.

Initiating 19 members, Lucille Shea is in charge of arrangements for the breakfast aided by Marjorie Kelley and Maurya Wogan. Entertainment is being planned by Beulah Haddow assisted by Kathleen Norris and Katherine O'Leary.

Pat Traner Named Senior Ball Head

Patricia Traner, junior Pi Beta Phi, will head the committee for the senior ball, according to Genevieve Siri, junior class manager. The semi-formal dance is an annual affair given in honor of the senior students by the junior class.

Friday, April 20, is the date set for the event, which will be held in the new gymnasium from 9 to 12 pm. Admission will be $1.20 per couple. Refreshments will be served during the evening.

Women who attend the dance will wear formals and the men will wear business suits, according to Miss Traner.

All students of the University of Nevada are welcome to attend the dance. The high school presidents who will be here on their convention will also be entitled to attend.

Other members of the committee who are assisting Miss Traner include Maribeth Elkins, orchestra; Vivian Cobia, publicity; Bob Craig, decorations; Jacqueline Prescott and Madeline Maestretti.

Students, Faculty Take Part in Meet

Four University of Nevada students and five faculty members will take part in the fourth annual meeting and wartime conference of the Nevada Congress of Parents and Teachers to be held at the University of Nevada April 24 and 25.

With Kathleen Norris, university war board president, as chairman, a roundtable discussion on Dumbarton Oaks will be presented before conference members April 24 at 3:15 pm in the Mackay Science building. Students participating and their topics are Gilbert Sutton, general assembly and economic and social council; Shirley Bowen, security council; Madlen Maestretti, international court of justice.

Faculty Speaks

Faculty members scheduled on the program for April 24 include Dr. R. S. Griffin, professor of English, who will give the greeting address; Dr. Harold N. Brown, professor of education and director of summer session, will take part in a panel on the topic "Are the Schools Meeting the Needs of Youth?", and Dr. Fred W. Traner, dean of the school of education, who will speak on "The Increasing Demands of Democracy on the Public School."

April 25, Mrs. A. C. Rice and Miss Mildred Swift, of the home economics department of the university, will participate in a discussion on nutrition.

The conference will be concluded that afternoon with a tea at the home of Dr. and Mrs. John O. Moseley, president of the university.

ARTEMISIA PRINTING STARTED THIS WEEK

Six hundred copies of the Artemisia, University of Nevada yearbook, went to press this week, according to Bette Poe, editor.

Printing of the yearbook started as soon as cuts for Mackay Day were ready. The covers, of cream colored linen with a drawing in green and brown, are completed.

The book is divided into three sections, 110 editorial pages and 34 pages of advertising.

Extra copies of the Artemisia will be sold to persons who wish to purchase them later, according to Mary Watts, business manager.

FORMER STUDENT VISITS

Captain Thomas J. Salter, a member of the engineering class of '41 has been visiting Reno for several days. Salter has been supervising the installation of Radar equipment in southern California, receiving recognition from army authorities for outstanding work.

SENIOR WEEK PLANS MADE

Events for senior week will commence with a tea Sunday, May 6, for the senior girls, according to Jane Creel, senior week chairman. Two other teas will also be given on Tuesday and Friday, according to Kathleen Norris, chairman of the teas. It has not been disclosed as yet which group will sponsor each tea.

Senior students will sign the book of oath on Monday of that week in the president's office. At that time they will be able to obtain tickets for the baccalaureate and graduation exercises.

A picnic to be held at Bowers Mansion will take place Wednesday, said Jack Good, chairman for the event. Tentative transportation will be by the V & T railroad.

Formal Banquet

The Trocadero will be the scene of a formal banquet for seniors only. President and Mrs. John O. Moseley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Gorman, and the new student body president will be guests at the affair. Raylin Collins and Nancy Herz have charge of the dinner.

Bette Poe has arranged for the senior pilgrimage to take place on Friday at 10:30 am. Speakers for the occasion have not as yet been selected. Phi Kappa Phi banquet will be held Saturday evening.

The exact time for baccalaureate on Sunday, May 20, has not been decided. Commencement services will be Monday morning.

UN YWCA Installs Officers at Meet

A discussion on war marriages led by Pat Thomas and installation of new officers composed the program at the YWCA meeting last Tuesday evening in the new YWCA room in Artemisia Hall.

This meeting was the room warming in celebration of the new curtains, paint and furnishings recently obtained for the room. Furniture was purchased with the money received from the silver tea, and Harriet Anderson headed the committee for work on the room.

Officers Installed

Rose Nannini, president; Doris Patterson, secretary; Blanche Parker, treasurer, and Elinor Jensen, vice-president, were installed into office. Mrs. Pat Cooke, retiring president, presided at the installation, and Georgeanne Hicks and Lucille Leonard, former officers, assisted her.

Faculty, Students Write Articles for UN Alumni Magazine

The University of Nevada Alumni, official publication of the University Alumni Association, is now available as a pictorial and written record of 1944 activities. The 54-page magazine bears a cover picture of President John O. Moseley and contains articles written by faculty and students now on campus.

"Inauguration of Dr. Moseley," by Prof. A. L. Higginbotham, describes the ceremonies which were the highlight of last semester. Journalism students are responsible for three articles, "We Have a Dairy," by Jo Miller; "Veterans, Your G. I. Bill," by Barbara Mills, and "University Regents," by Adele Marsh.

Extent of the university and faculty research is covered in an article by Dr. W. D. Billings, professor of botany. Ed Montgomery, '34, who is editor of the publication, presents an account of wartime athletics, and for the benefit of scattered alumni a report of 1944 football is given, as well as a record of 1945 basketball, by Ty Cobb.

In addition to Editor Montgomery, Thomas Wilson, '30, serves on the Alumnus staff as business manager, while the position of circulation manager is held by Dr. Robert S. Griffin of the university faculty.

Furniture Asked For Canteen

Although the student canteen in Stewart Hall is now open for meetings of campus committees, complete use of the rooms is limited because of lack of suitable furniture. Mrs. John O. Moseley stated this week in an appeal for donations of usable furniture.

Donations of chesterfields and comfortable chairs are much needed. Repairs can be made by the university carpenter shop. Information concerning donations can be turned in to the president's office. The limited funds for the canteen prevent the purchase of new furniture at this time.

On behalf of the Associated Women Students, Dorothy Abel, president, this week announced that their organization will sponsor the refinishing of the furniture in the lounge of the canteen. This work will not begin until after the semester terminates but should be finished by the time summer school opens.

Despite the lack of furnishings, Kate Harris, campus YWCA secretary, has been able to move into the canteen office and is holding office hours daily.

President Roosevelt

Citizens of the United States and freedom-loving people all over the world were stunned yesterday afternoon by the death of President Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

Even now, while plunged into the abyss of World War II, we found assurance in his great faith. Faith in his country and faith that the peoples of the world could be brought to an understanding of each other and establish an everlasting peace. It seems heartbreaking that President Roosevelt could not live to see the product of his last 12 years' working and planning and hoping.

The amazing amount of work he willingly undertook to save life that might again be lost in a possible future war took his life. He died fighting for freedom—as surely as if he had been in Germany or on Iwo Jima.

The fact that he was four times elected to the highest office in the nation is in itself testimony to his greatness.

He was interested in establishing the rights of the smallest citizens of the United States, and, when this country entered the war, in ridding the world of the oppression that was slowly draining the vitality of nations around the world.

President Roosevelt was a man of vision unlimited by horizons. He was a man who believed strongly in what he was doing, and through his strength and his determination led the nation in the fight to establish the principles of democracy in every battle-broken country.

People everywhere will long remember Franklin Delano Roosevelt, President of the United States and citizen of the world.

Third Candidate for ASUN President May Be Selected by Exec. Committee

Genevieve Siri, Paul Yparraguirre and John Jensen, nominated for the office of ASUN president at the Mackay Day luncheon Saturday, were considered as to eligibility by the senate executive committee, and Jensen was declared ineligible due to a deficiency in hours.

Must Be Three

Since the student constitution states that three candidates must be running for each office, the executive committee said that unless another candidate had been nominated by 4 pm today, they would choose a candidate from the junior class and submit the name for senate approval.

There is a possibility that Jensen may remove the deficiency, thus becoming eligible for the office. In such case the committee would declare him eligible and no other candidate would be nominated, it was reported.

Political Rally

Candidates for all offices will address the students presenting their political platforms at a rally to be held Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the education auditorium, and the primary election will take place the following Thursday in the ASUN building.

The secondary election will be held April 26 to determine the winner between those receiving majorities in the primary.

Qualifications

Genevieve Siri, Delta Delta Delta, was manager of the sophomore class in 1943, and of the junior class in 1944. She is a member of Sagens, Blue Peppers, ASUN election board, social chairman of Fine Arts Club and secretary of Newman Club. She was chairman of the 1944 Homecoming skit parade. Her major is economics.

John Jensen, Sigma Nu, is head of the men's upperclass committee and a member of Sagens and an ASUN senator. He is studying economics.

Paul Yparraguirre, Alpha Tau Omega president, is a member of Sagens, Coffin and Key, and was chairman of the Mackay Day committee. He is also a senator.

Other Contestants

Contestants for senior class manager are Patricia Traner, Pi Beta Phi; Valerie Scheeline, Delta Delta Delta; Frances Cook, Kappa Alpha Theta, and Gordon Mills, Theta Chi.

Vying to head the junior class are Barbara Mills, Kappa Alpha Theta; James Coleman, Sigma Nu; Marilou Ferguson, Delta Delta Delta; Pat Ussey, Gamma Phi Beta, and Florene Miller, Pi Beta Phi.

Clayton Triger, Alpha Tau Omega, and Jack Dieringer, Sigma Nu, run for office of Block N representative.

TRI-DELTS PLAN SPRING ACTIVITIES

Commencing with the annual senior banquet honoring prospective graduates, Tri Deltas will commence final spring social activities. Lucille Leonard is in charge of the dinner to be held at the Twentieth Century Club.

Following the banquet the spring formal will be held Saturday, April 21, with Marie Aldrich making arrangements for the affair. Peggy Boyle heads the committee in charge of the annual pansy breakfast to be held at the Riverside Hotel May 13.

MEMORIAL COMMUNION

Memorial holy communion will be held for President Franklin Delano Roosevelt, who died in Warm Springs, Georgia, Thursday afternoon, at St. Stephens House, the university chapel, at 8:30 Saturday morning with the Rev. William H. Holt, celebrant.

In charge of arrangements are Roy Beardall and Clayton Hurst, whitewash; Billie Heath and Mary Agnes Duffy, refreshments; Barbara Olesen and Lois Cobia, transportation.

Annual trek to whitewash the N on Peavine mountain will be Saturday, April 14, at 9 am, according to Neva Gardner, freshman class manager.

Freshman students will meet at Mackay stadium and should be dressed in old clothes, according to Miss Gardner. Members of the upperclass committees will check all students attending.

STUDENT LEADERS

With Nevada's fourth wartime election coming up this week, campus talk is centered around next year's student leaders. Men and women, affiliated and independent students, underclassmen and upperclassmen—all are competing for positions in our student government.

The question "who to vote for" is foremost in the minds of students. It is quite natural for some to cast their ballots for a particular person because he belongs to a certain fraternity or sorority, or because the candidate is a man or a woman. In these instances, the candidate's experience and qualifications are little considered.

An efficient government must have efficient leaders. It is up to the students to pick these leaders—leaders who will do justice to them in governing our university.

Fraternity politics must be done away with, and sex prejudices must be forgotten if we are to have a democratic and well-run government. Vote for the candidate you believe to be best qualified, the one you believe will do the best job, and forget your personal differences. And may the best one win!—Isabel Blythe.

KEEP THEIR TRUST

Nevada's sons on battlefields throughout the world would have been proud of their university last week; they would have been proud of the success of the 1945 celebration in honor of the Mackay benefactors.

Those in the armed forces, no doubt, are remembering past Mackay Days. They are recalling the good times and spirit that prevailed over the annual celebration. They want to feel that during their absence the university is carrying on, to know that upon their return things will be as they left them, and to know that Mackay Day is continuing and will still be celebrated when they are once again on the campus.

Last weekend, students proved that in spite of wartime uneasiness and a smaller than average enrollment, they had spirit—spirit that our fighting men want to see in us, spirit that they expect. Students kept that faith with our fighting men; they attended the luncheon and dance, put on their skits, dressed to fit the occasion, grew beards and attended open houses.

And thank you, Mackay Day committee, for doing your job well—for making this year's celebration one we can be proud of.

Let us do all in our power not to destroy that faith with which they have entrusted us until their return. Let us be able to say honestly, that we have maintained spirit at Nevada.—I. B.

RED CROSS PLEDGES TOTALING $20 DUE

Approximately $20 in pledges is yet to be turned in for the recent Red Cross drive at the University of Nevada, Valerie Scheeline, chairman of the drive, said today.

Students are urged to contribute all that they have pledged as soon as possible, as the committee wants to close the drive officially, Miss Scheeline commented.

The drive which almost doubled its quota this year, officially terminated March 20.

Bonds and stamps will reduce loss of life, injuries and will shorten the war.

SUMMER RESORT JOB FOR WOMEN ANNOUNCED

An opening for summer work at Camp Richardson, Lake Tahoe, for college women has been reported to Mrs. Alice B. Marsh, acting dean of women.

Women must have some experience in fountain work, and be 21 years of age or over to apply for the positions. Interviews may be had after May 15. Anyone interested in such a job should apply to C. A. Richardson, Camp Richardson, California.

Editor: And what did the president of the organization say?
 Reporter: Nothing.
 Editor: Well, you better cut it down to one column.

CLOTHING COLLECTION DRIVE TO BE INITIATED AT UNIVERSITY MONDAY

United National Clothing Collection drive will open on the University of Nevada campus Monday under the sponsorship of the salvage bureau of the war board, according to Kathleen Norris, president.

Containers will be placed in all sorority houses and dormitories for the collection of the clothing, and a special publicity campaign is being planned by the committee. Students are asked to cooperate in donating substantial used clothing for both winter and summer wear.

Goal Set

Sponsored nationally by various war relief agencies of the united nations, the collection has as its goal 150,000,000 pounds of used clothing to be distributed free to needy peoples in war-devastated countries. The campus drive will be conducted in cooperation with the local committee, headed by the Rev. Thomas F. Collins, Miss Norris stated, and will be concluded April 30.

Apparel Needed

Wearing apparel most urgently needed includes coats, jackets, suits, shirts, all types of work clothes, sweaters, underwear, knitted gloves and headwear, shawls, dresses and nightwear. Also in demand are infants' garments, bedding and shoes. Either oxfords or high shoes, of durable type with low or medium heels are desired.

Evening dresses, tuxedos, dress hats and suits, and novelty type or high heeled shoes cannot be used. All types of cotton garments should be washed before they are donated, but need not be ironed. Shoes should be mated and tied securely into pairs.

Clothing Shipped

Donated garments are shipped to countries on the basis of greatest need and available shipping space. More than 125,000,000 people in liberated nations of Europe are in dire need of clothing, said Henry J. Kaiser, national chairman. Because of the demands of armed forces and civilian needs, manufacture of clothing in the United States or other countries to relieve distressed people will not get underway for some time, he added.

Mary Ancho, junior student and chairman of the salvage bureau, will head the collection committee. She will be assisted by Doris Patterson, Jim Coleman, Dave Yparraguirre, Billy Kennedy, Gloria Springer and Gloria Rosaschi.

YWCA to Sponsor Speaker Thursday

Dr. William H. Clark, Presbyterian missionary from China who has done refugee work in connection with university students, will speak April 19 at 8 pm in the education auditorium, according to Miss Kate Harris, general secretary for the YWCA, which is sponsoring Dr. Clark.

Students, faculty and townspeople are invited to attend, Miss Harris stated.

Dr. Clark has been working in conjunction with all the major Protestant boards in China, and was administrative director for the united Protestant work with refugee students. He has been in Kunming, Free China, at the inner end of Burma Road, since 1938. Kunming has become a center of air travel, textile mills, copper and tin refineries, power, airplane and munition plants, and has been one of the most bombed cities in China.

Dr. Clark is a native of Kansas, and was graduated from the University of California and San Francisco Theological Seminary. Later he took two years post-graduate study at the University of Edinburgh, Scotland, where he obtained his doctor's degree. From 1925, he and his wife were in Changsha, in the Hunan province of China, until 1936, where they did evangelistic work among government middle school students.

The Church of Christ in China, in cooperation with the 13 affiliated mission boards, undertook work in the large industrial areas of Yunnan province, centering in Kunming, and including the tin mining regions. Dr. Clark was assigned as the Presbyterian representative in this large cooperative project.

On boarding the Pullman, the bride and groom tipped the porter generously to keep their newly-wedded state a secret. The next morning, conscious of the knowing glances cast his way, the angry groom called the porter to account.

"Goodness, boss," he replied, "I didn't tell anybody. Some people asked me if you two was just married and I says no, they're just good friends."

Spring Football Scene Forecasts Good Fall Season

By Chuck Blenio
Spring practice is now in its third week with the candidates for the 1945 Wolf Pack varsity rounding into shape. Coach Jim Aiken is well pleased with the showing so far, and with the addition of the incoming freshmen next semester hopes for a successful season.

Although the football team lost such stars as Bill Mackrides and Al Nocciolo to Uncle Sam, and Alf Sorensen and Jack Dieringer will not be in school next semester, the Wolf Pack will be strengthened by freshmen and discharged veterans.

Pack Standbys
Buster McClure, who won national acclaim last season will be a tower of strength at one of the tackle positions, with Bennie Coren handling the ball back in Coach Aiken's version of the "T." Lenny Marmor is the most experienced back and will probably operate in the fullback spot. Although small, Lenny generates a terrific leg drive and is hard to bring down once under way.

Jim Clarkson, John Helstowski, Matt Piccini, Gus Cammareno, Dick Bossert, Walt Coughlin, Ed Diersks, Vince Scalera and George Vuconovich are all appearing each afternoon in the drills and were members of last season's University of Nevada team.

Campus YWCA to Aid

Since OPA has refused either national or district conventions for YWCA, the local and campus chapters are presenting a program of issues of national importance in the form of a dramatic poem, at 2:30, Saturday, April 21, at the downtown clubrooms, according to Miss Kate Harris, general secretary for the campus.

Shirley Bowen and Charlotte Ferris are in charge of music from the campus chapter. All members of the organizations are invited to the event, as well as any townspeople who may be interested.

gridiron sport are Cliff France, all-state forward; Harry Spencer, Pete Simon and "Pillsbury" Smolinski. Simon and Smolinski seem to take to the full sport and may be an aid to Coach Aiken next season.

Vic Onofrietta, Warren Parks, Bob Titus and Neil Burns are other university boys vying for positions. Onofrietta comes to the university with a high school reputation gained in New Jersey. Warren Parks played high school ball in southern California and as a freshman at the Colorado School of Mines.

There are several former high school stars working out daily with the varsity including Henry Baker, all-state half from Sparks high, George Tavernia, also from Sparks and a good blocking back; Walt Pinana a guard, and Merlin Shea fleet halfback from the Sparks team of a few seasons ago.

Reno Huskies
The Reno Huskies are represented by Paul Richards, a classy end who won all-conference honors, and Buddy Garfinkle, smart all-state quarterback last season. Ty Short and Jack Dunn, both backs, complete the Reno contingent.

Neal Ryleck, six foot two inch center, who gained experience at Compton Junior College and St. Mary's College, is expected to enroll next semester and add defensive strength to the line.

Varsity line received a serious blow when Kenny Sinofsky and Bobby Durham left this week for the service. Both received letters last season for their sterling play and would have made Coach Aiken's plans for the coming season easier.

INCREASE IN SPORTS IN '45

In checking through a few copies of last year's Sagebrush it has been brought to light that there was no spring sports on the campus in 1944. In the Brush of March 17, 1944, a statement can be found to the effect that the coeds were monopolizing the spring sport scene.

However, there was one man on the hill that could really be called a man and he was Chuck Blenio, who was at that time training for the Golden Gloves tournament held here in Reno. All the rest of the males of the University of Nevada sat around on the green grass and sunned themselves, apparently.

The only time that the men seemed to have thought of stirring was when they got the chance to get back at some of the pros. who were fielding a soft ball team to play in the Mackay Day contest. The men did win that game, and consequently got back in the good graces of the rest of the student body.

Sports Revived
This year, however, there are quite a few more men on the campus and they are very much in the sports news. Vin Scalera fought in the Golden Gloves tournament. Coach Jim Aiken is holding spring football practice this year. The idea is that some of the men will be back and those that won't be back next year may be back after the war, so Aiken wants to keep football in the air. Many high school players have come up from Sparks and Reno High to get in shape for next fall varsity ball. The men had two soft ball teams this Mackay Day as contrasted to the one of last year.

Interfraternity sports have also been active this semester, while they were just about the farthest thing from the minds of the student of last year. It looks as though the campus of the University of Nevada is slowly returning to a pre-war standing in the sports field.

BOB DURHAM LEAVES FOR MERCHANT MARINE

Bob Durham, member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, has received his merchant marine call this week and left the campus Wednesday for New Orleans where he will become a cadet in the merchant marine.

Durham played football last fall and basketball this winter here at the university, receiving his letter in both. He is from Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

I once had a classmate named Guesser,
Whose knowledge got lesser and lesser.

It at last grew so small
He knew nothing at all,
And now he's a college professor.

Freshman Named Badminton Champ

Alberta Brunner defeated Elma Hand for the singles badminton championship Wednesday. Janeth Rowley walked off with consolation honors by defeating Myrl Nygren. Miss Ethel Dixon, women's physical education instructor, stated that 16 women had completed attendance requirements and would receive WAA credit.

A bowling tournament will be staged next week by the PE classes. With five women on a team, an accumulative score will be kept for a period of three weeks. Teams to compete are Fighting Spares, Pin-Up Girls, Hair Shirts, Last Chance and the Holy Rollers.

WAA riders have continued their usual weekly workouts. The first "lunch" ride will be held Saturday, April 20, according to Miss Dixon. Saddle and Spur members have reported a constant vigil of new riders as possible members of the honorary equestrian society.

According to Gwen Miller, manager, both singles and doubles tennis tournaments will start Tuesday. Information will be posted on the bulletin board as to the time players are scheduled to play.

A lack of players has hindered plans for a soft ball game between Manzanita Hall and Artemisia Hall. However, Zina Coe, manager, stated that 15 girls turned out regularly and that the contest would probably be held in the near future.

Returning to camp one evening, a two-star general couldn't produce his identification, and the rookie on guard refused to let him pass. Exasperated, the general leaned forward, pointed to the stars on his shoulders and bellowed: "Do you know what these mean?"
"Sure," popped the rookie. "You got two sons in the service."

Bonds and stamps will reduce loss of life, injuries and will shorten the war.

Plant Nutrients To Be Discussed

As guest speaker, V. E. Spencer of the university soils research laboratory will speak to members of Sigma Xi Club, national honorary scientific fraternity, April 17. The group will gather at the home of Dr. G. W. Sears.

"Studies on Positional Availability of Nutrients to Plants" will be the topic discussed by Spencer. He points out that "these studies are made in order to learn the effect of where the nutrient is, with respect to the root system, as distinguished from what the nutrient is."

Sameth Director of PE Dance Program

Appearing before students, faculty members, townspeople and members of the American Association of University Women, physical education classes under the direction of Miss Elsa Sameth presented the spring program of dance Wednesday evening at 8 pm in the university gymnasium.

part in the festival. Various groups composed of freshman physical education classes, university dancers and advanced dancers, university graduates, and a Mexican group, obtained through the courtesy of Mr. W. A. Morby, presented foreign folk dancing, modernistic dance and interpretative original compositions.

The original group of university dancers which includes Mary Kathryn Carrol, Virginia Spencer Cottam, Myrtle Elges Dohr, Jo Ann Record Sorensen and Viola Sorensen presented an interpretation of "Alice Blue."

"Las Chapaneccas" danced by Enrique Cornejo, Aquilino Saigado and Chato Aguilar, Mexican Nationals, together with members of the original university dancers group, added a bit of color and Latin music to the program. Several guitar solos were rendered, and the Mexican Nationals also sang several native melodies.

Guest accompanists of the program included Mary Higgins who furnished music for the "Alice Blue" number, and Martin Martin with the Mexican group.

Student accompanists for the program were Rosa Campbell, Gloria Rosaschi and Lenore Wittwer.

Speaking of Operations!

An invasion fleet of several hundred warships uses some 48,000 telephones—from 1,500 on a battleship to 10 on a motor torpedo boat. That's as many as are used by most cities of 160,000!

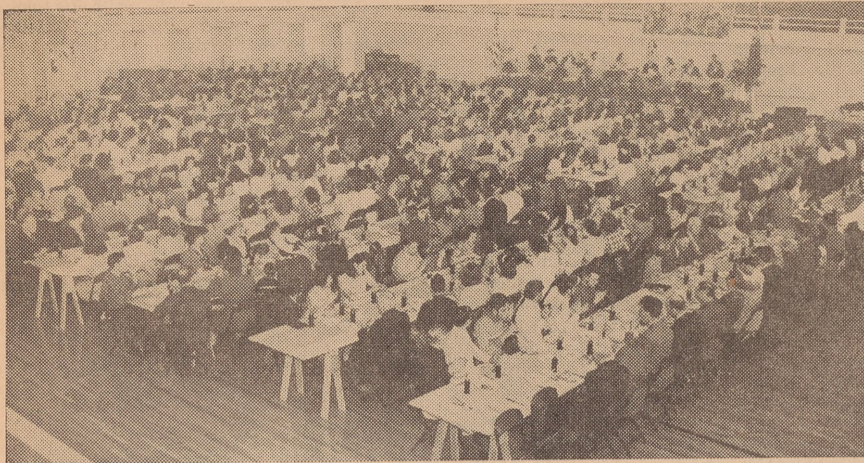

Our fighting men are using telephones, wire, switchboards, and other communications equipment in huge quantities. And Western Electric workers, peacetime suppliers to the Bell System, are busy meeting those needs.

That is why there are not enough home telephones right now. But we are looking forward to the day when the Bell System can again provide telephone service to anyone, anywhere, at any time.

MACKAY DAY LUNCHEON

More than 600 people attended the Mackay Day luncheon in the new gymnasium last Saturday. Seated at the speaker's table were queen Beulah Haddow, luncheon chairman Jane Creel, Thomas P. Brown, guest speaker; Mrs. Robert Z. Hawkins, member of the Mackay family; President John O. Moseley, Father John Smith, Prof. and Mrs. Jay Carpenter, Paul Yparraizurre, Mackay Day chairman, and Leonore Hill, ASUN president.

Mackay Day Award Winners Are Announced as 32nd Celebration Ends

The 32nd Mackay Day was brought to a conclusion with the annual dance in the State building Saturday night. Highlights of the affair were the presentation of Beulah Haddow, chosen queen by Earl Carroll, and announcement of costume, beard and song team awards.

Pi Beta Phi received the prize for the best women's song team. Their program included a medley of the Warsaw Concerto; Vienna, City of My Dreams; Italian Street Song, and My Hero.

Award for the best men's song team went to Lambda Chi Alpha for their rendition of Harvest Moon, Heaven Will Protect the College Girl, Don't Go to the Frat Meeting Tonight Junior Darling, and Cuddle Up a Little Closer.

Two vases from Ginsburg Jewelry were given to Pi Beta Phi, and Lambda Chi Alpha received a merchandise order from Herz's.

Helen Brania was presented with the award for the women's best costume. She was dressed in gay nineties style with a maroon velvet cloak and a white plumed hat.

Costume Prize
Recipient of the men's costume prize was Melvin Rovetti, who was attired in the manner of Abraham Lincoln and made up to resemble the 16th president of the United States.

Clayson Trigerro was rewarded for growing the heaviest and blackest beard, and Mat Piccini won recognition for the best trimmed beard.

Theta Chi won the men's award for work day participation. This fraternity had 100 per cent turnout of members and completed its tasks fully, Yparraizurre said. Proceeds from the dance totalled approximately $106, according to Mackay Day chairman, Paul Yparraizurre.

Nomination for student body officers and performances by sorority and fraternity song teams took place at the Mackay Day luncheon. Principal speaker for the affair was Thomas P. Brown, who told some of his experiences in college in contrast to college life today. Mrs. Robert Ziemer Hawkins, daughter of Clarence Mackay, was also a guest speaker, emphasizing the importance of the Dumbarton Oaks conference.

Luncheon Menu

Freshman girls aided Miss Pat Lowry, school dietician, in the preparation for the luncheon.

Freshmen defeated the upperclass men in their baseball game played Friday afternoon on Mackay Field. No score was kept.

Friday evening each of the sororities on the campus held open house at their respective chapter houses.

Lt. Weihe Awarded DFC at India Base

First Lt. Joseph W. Weihe, former university student, has received the distinguished flying cross at his air transport command base in the India-China division recently, according to word from the war department received by the Sagebrush.

Citation

The award, presented by his commanding officer, read in part "for extraordinary achievement by participating in more than 300 hours operational flight in transport aircraft over dangerous and difficult Assam China air routes, where enemy interception and attack was probable and expected.

"Flying at night as well as by day, at high altitudes over impassable mountainous terrain through areas characterized by extremely treacherous weather conditions necessitating long periods of operation on instruments, often encountering severe icing conditions and mechanical difficulties requiring courageous and superior performance of his duties to overcome, he accomplished his missions with distinction. His achievement in the face of hazards and difficulties faced regularly and with steadfast devotion to duty, reflects much credit

Campusites Placed In Teaching Field

Position Applicants Fewer Than in 1944

Only two graduating students from the education department have been placed thus far, Frederick Traner, head of the department, stated this week.

Traner said that only 12 were enrolled with the appointment service of the department, and some of these are uncertain of accepting positions.

This may be contrasted with 60 who had enrolled in 1941 for teaching positions. There were only 21 practice teachers this semester in comparison with 75 who acted as practice teachers during each semester during 1941, Traner said.

Higher Salaries

Higher salaries and lower requirements are found in the teaching situation this year than before. Washington and California pay the highest salaries of any of the western states, but Nevada pays higher wages for teachers than any states east of Nevada as far as the Mississippi river, Traner stated. Offers are received from elementary, intermediate and high schools in the state of Nevada, although positions have been reported in Hawaii and other western states.

Requirements Lowered

Education requirements have been lowered, as well as other specifications. In Hawaii, for instance, schools formerly required that their teachers be residents of the islands; now they have sent offers to many appointment services all over the United States. Barriers that were set up for married women have been lowered in most communities, Traner said.

After a school session preparatory to the first practice leap at a U. S. paratrooper base, a newly arrived soldier asked his sergeant, "Now what if I'm up there and the chute doesn't open?" "That," snapped the sergeant, "would be called jumping to a conclusion."

on himself and the army air forces of the United States."

Accompanying the letter was a picture of Lt. Weihe receiving the cross from Major Nicky D. Patterson, base executive officer, on behalf of Brig. Gen. William H. Tunser.

Downed on a mission over one of the South Sea islands, an American pilot came face to face with a leering cannibal. The Yank snatched at his gun, but the cannibal made no move. He merely stood studying the aviator from every conceivable angle.

"Why do you stare at me that way?" inquired the airman.

"It's part of my job," returned the cannibal. "I'm the food inspector!"

Música Maestro... Have a Coke

(MAKE WITH THE MUSIC)

...or the cue to making friends in Cuba

At fiesta time the gay little isle of Cuba is a mighty cosmopolitan corner of the globe—where the familiar American greeting Have a Coke is just as happily understood as their own native Salud. From Hanover to Havana, the pause that refreshes with friendly Coca-Cola has become a symbol of the good-neighbor spirit.
