

The Wolf of NO Sagebrush

Determined Wolves Play for Upset Of Golden Bears at Berkeley Saturday

Reed and Farnsworth Sideline by Injuries Sustained at Tulsa; California Favored Three Touchdowns Over Nevada

Determined that history will not be repeated on successive Saturdays, a beaten, but unbowed University of Nevada Wolf Pack arrived in Reno early Wednesday morning. After the 40-0 shellacking at the hands of Tulsa, the Pack vows to make amends to its legion of followers at the expense of California.

Coach Jim Aiken sent his stalwarts through signal drill Wednesday afternoon.

Not disheartened over the team's comparatively poor showing against one of the top eleven's in the country, Aiken expressed the opinion that "they just had too many reserves." Currently ranked 14th in the nation, the Tulsans appear destined for another Bowl bid, their six successive, and it is no disgrace that the Nevadans came out second best in their Oklahoma encounter.

Nevada Prospects

The California game will be a different story. Had it been contested earlier in the year, the locals would have undoubtedly entered the fray no better than even money to take the measure of Buck Shaw's Bears. Smart money Bay area gamblers have already established the Renoites two to four touchdowns underdogs, a margin considerably off center. The Bears have displayed nothing thus far to indicate that they can be considered a top flight team. After dropping games to St. Mary's and Southern California, the Berkeleyans woke up long enough to smear the University of Washington Huskies, 27-13. After that came a pasting by their little brothers, USCLA, so California will enter the game with an inauspicious seasonal record of one victory against three setbacks.

Notoriously a strong defensive aggregation and weak in the offensive department, the Bears will undoubtedly present a definite superiority in the front line. The backfields of the respective clubs can be considered a toss-up.

Back in Action

Nevada's chances of springing a first class national upset will be greatly enhanced tomorrow by the return to lineup of veteran Kenny Simms, bone crushing Lloyd Rude and linemen Pat Heher, Stan Kitchener and Bill Morris. Rude has been out with an ankle injury suffered in the St. Mary's contest. Indications point to Rude's readiness for 60 minutes of football tomorrow.

On the debit side of the ledger, two starting backfield men will view the game from the sidelines. Both Darwin Farnsworth and Ralph "Hap" Reed were injured Saturday against Tulsa. Farnsworth is probably out for the season. There is a slight possibility that Reed may see action tomorrow if his hip responds favorably to treatment.

Starting Lineup

Again shifting his starting eleven, Aiken announced a tentative starting eleven which will include Max Dodge and Simms at the wing posts; Buster McClure and Bob Yelton at tackles; Joe Stolfi and Ed Dysle at the guards, and Bill Morris at the pivot spot. The starting backfield will consist of Ebby Robertson at quarter, Maury Hagle and Matt Klemaszewski in the half-back berths and Rude at fullback.

"Turk" Eliades, discharged serviceman, will undoubtedly get into the game in a reserve role. Eliades looked good against Tulsa considering that he has not played for three years and Aiken was impressed by the vet's showing.

REHEARSAL SCHEDULE

The rehearsal schedule for general skit practices for the coming week is as follows:
Monday, 8 pm — Ed. Building.
Tuesday, 11:30 pm — Granada theater.
Wednesday, 7 pm — Ed. Building.
Thursday, 11:30 pm — Granada theater.

Smith Memorial Scholarship Is Given to U. of N.

A four-year scholarship has been set up at the University of Nevada by Ray and Harold Smith of Harold's Club in Reno in memory of their grandparents, and will be known as the Edison and Laura Smith Memorial scholarship. Dr. Harold N. Brown, head of the committee on scholarships and prizes, announced this week.

For Orphans

The scholarship will go to either a boy or a girl who is a graduate of the Nevada State Orphans' Home in Carson City and a Nevada high school. The recipient will be chosen by the state superintendent of public instruction and the principal of the Carson City high school, subject to the approval of the dean or director of the college in which the student is to enroll at the university.

Complete Course

Designed to furnish a complete four-year college course for some student who would not otherwise have the opportunity of attending scholarship's terms provide for all expenses including board, room and tuition, and specifically state that the recipient is to enjoy to the fullest extent all social and student activities, including membership in fraternities, sororities and other groups.

Lois Post Elected To Presidency of University Ski Club

Lois Post, sopomore KAT, was elected the first peace-time president of the revived Ski club, at the regular meeting at that group this week. Serving with Miss Post as officers will be Vice President Peter Lawlor, skiing instructor from New Zealand and Jean Bicknell, secretary-treasurer.

Miss Post, as president, represented the university group at meetings of the Chamber of Commerce held this week to recognize local skiing groups.

New Members

The meeting also marked the culmination of last week's membership drive, bringing total membership to 68. New members are Doris Maloney, Jean Hamilton, June McFarland, Betty DeCampus, Bud Mason, Sinclair Melner, Peggy Echeverria, Joyce Stoker, Leonard Harrison, Phyllis Snyder, Charlotte Risard, Billy Shield, Joy Percy, Dot Streng, Barbara Williams, Rita Springer, Bobby Jo Walker, Carol Dundee, Jo Miller, Dick Rowley, Ty Short, Eric Richards, Bob Patamont, Ed Crockett, Stan Kitehener, Carol Riley, Myrl Nygren, Dorothy Thomas and Don Turner.

U of N Graduate Receives Degree

Llewellyn Young, University of Nevada graduate with the class of '38, recently received a doctor of law degree from George Washington University, Washington, D. C.

While at Nevada, Young was a member of Beta Kappa fraternity, the Math club, Nu Eta Epsilon, Blue Key, president of the associated engineers, chairman of the engineering day, Phi Kappa Phi and honor roll 1934-38.

He has accepted a position on the legal staff of General Electric to work with patent applications, and protect the company against infringements.

Six Candidates for Homecoming Sweetheart Introduced to Students at Assembly Today

FIVE CONTESTANTS FOR SWEETHEART TITLE

These are the five coeds who will be voted on by campus men Thursday for the Homecoming sweetheart title. Left to right, they are Wilma Schooley, Joyce Longwell, Helen Boner, Jean Walker and Joanne Berg.

RALLY FOLLOWS PAJAMOREE ON FRIDAY NIGHT

The Homecoming rally will follow a pajamoree Friday night which starts at 6:45 at the main gate of the campus. Led by the band and yell leaders, the students garbed in their brightest pajamas will snake dance downtown to the corner of Virginia and Second streets. Yells and songs will be given after which the group will return to the campus and Mackay stadium.

The big bonfire will be lighted by the Sagers and the rally will begin. Lumber and tires for the fire were brought by the freshmen on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week, stated Clayton Trigo, chairman of the bonfire committee.

Paul Parraguire will introduce the guest speakers who are to be President John O. Moseley, Coach Jim Aiken, Captain Buster McClure, the captain of the Fresno State team and the Homecoming sweetheart.

After more songs, yells and pep talks of welcome to the alumni, the students will adjourn to the Granada theater and the Wolves Frolic.

Package Sending to Europe Authorized

Packages may now be sent to friends or relatives in former Axis occupied countries of Europe and Asia, according to Postmaster Robert Prescott.

One package a week can be sent by one individual to an individual without the former government permit. Late Christmas gifts are still going to service men, Prescott said, but without the guarantee that they will arrive by Christmas time.

War stamps are still on sale at the university post office, and will continue being sold indefinitely, said Prescott.

Three Skulls Missing From Zoology Lab

Two alligator skulls valued at about $7 each, have disappeared from the zoology laboratory, according to Dr. Frank Richardson. Dr. Richardson also reported that along with the alligator skulls, a human skull is missing. No trace of the missing articles has been found, he said.

Blue Peppers, ROTC, Band Will Attend Nevada Day Festivity

According to Lt. Col. E. Lewis Field, the University band, R.O.T.C., and Blue Peppers will go to Carson City for the parade on Admission Day.

In answer to a telegram from Co-Chairman Ken Johnson and Barnard Hartung to President John O. Moseley, the university administration has decided to sponsor the groups at the celebration on October 31.

Transportation has not yet been officially decided upon, and it is tentatively planned that the band will eat at the Carson Indian school.

Five New Books Added to Library

Five new books of current interest have been added to the University of Nevada library, and are available to all students interested.

Two are biographies, "Yankee From Olympus" and "Doctor Wood Modern Wizard of the Laboratory." The first, by Catherine Drinker Bowen deals with the life of Justice Holmes, his family and his ancestors; the latter, by William Seabrook, is about Robert Wood, scientist.

"The Church and Psychotherapy," by Karl Ruf Stolz gives a practical answer to the question, how is the church related to the total health of the individual?

"Full Employment in a Free Society," by William H. Beveridge, deals with the employment problem faced by our country today.

"The Geography of the Peace," by Nicholas John Spykman tells how the peace will change the geographical boundaries of the world.

Five Ex-Servicemen Are Enrolled Late

Five ex-servicemen have enrolled in the University since formal close of registration on September 29, according to Mrs. Jeanette C. Rhodes, registrar. Only ex-servicemen are allowed this late registration privilege.

Five men and five women have dropped their registration, added Mrs. Rhodes.

Phi Sig Street Dance Revived; Slated Thursday

Rehearsals for the Wolves Frolic have been held for the individual skirts, according to Mrs. Margaret Von Fluee. Starting Monday night the entire frolic will hold rehearsals first in the education auditorium and after midnight in the Granada Theater. Dress rehearsals are Wednesday and Thursday from 11:30 pm on.

Held Thursday

For the first time since 1942, the Phi Sigma Kappa street dance will be held Thursday night, November 1, to start off the Homecoming celebration. The probable time for the dance will be 7 to 9 pm, according to Will Hedquist, chairman of the dance committee.

By Phi Sig House

The dance will be in front of the Phi Sig house at 737 Lake street and will be a free for all affair, either date or no-date. The traditional street dance has been held at Homecoming since 1923.

Assisting Chairman Hedquist are Pat Heffer and Bill Ebert.

Homecoming activities will be climaxed by the annual dance held in the State building on Saturday night. The dance will be from 9 to 1 am and tickets are set at $1.20 a couple.

Theme Set

Decoration will be a "welcome back" theme and will be handled by two people from each house and any volunteers who would like to help. The dance committee is headed by Betty Walker who is making arrangements for securing the State building.

YWCA Plans Tea For New Members

The YWCA recognition services introducing new members and a general meeting for all old members will be held on November 6, at 7 pm in the YWCA room on the basement of Artemesia hall, Rose Nannini, president, announced.

Following the meeting and services will be an informal tea in honor of the new members and Miss Louise Fleming, visiting national personnel director. Miss Fleming will meet with the YWCA cabinet at an informal meeting to be held on November 7.

Election Slated for Next Thursday; Only Campus Men Allowed to Vote

Delta Delta Delta Awarded AWS Scholarship Improvement Plaque

Candidates for the Homecoming sweetheart title were introduced by Student Body President Paul Parraguire at a pep rally held this morning at the education auditorium.

Candidates introduced were Helen Boner, Kappa Alpha Theta; Wilma Schooley, Delta Delta Delta; Jean Walker, Gamma Phi Beta; Joyce Longwell, Pi Beta Phi, and Joanne Berg, Independents.

The winner of the Homecoming sweetheart title will be presented by Paul Parraguire at the rally on Friday night at Mackay stadium, according to Royden Beardall, chairman of the rally committee.

New Yells Tried
Held in preparation for Homecoming activities next weekend, today's rally commenced with school songs which had been printed for the rally and game. Yell leaders demonstrated new yells to be used at the Homecoming game.

Mrs. Alice B. Marsh, acting dean of women, presented the Pan-Hellenic scholarship cup to Delta Delta Delta and the improvement plaque sponsored by AWS was presented to Delta Delta Delta.

AWS Plaque

The AWS plaque, a revolving trophy, is presented each semester to the sorority or social organization making the greatest scholastic improvement over the average of the corresponding semester of the previous year. The plaque was given to the AWS by the late Margaret E. Mack, former dean of women.

U of N Band Makes Recordings for KOH Programs

University of Nevada band last Thursday made recordings for radio station KOH to be used in preliminary radio rallies before homecoming.

Besides the recent recordings, the radio rallies will use several records of the university singers, said Prof. Theodore Post, head of the music department.

Band May March

Arrangements for a parade on homecoming have not been officially announced, but if there is a parade the band will march, added Prof. Post.

Because guest members of the band are members of the National Musicians of America union, recordings of the band were omitted during the re-broadcast of the Tulsa-Nevada game, and only a Nevada yell was heard.

Stay Home

The band will not go to California because several of the members are guest players and it would be difficult for them to make the weekend trip.

Williams, Bixby Elected to AAUP

Dr. Loring Williams of the chemistry department and Prof. Charles Bixby of the civil engineering department were elected to membership in the campus chapter of American Association of University Professors at a recent meeting of that group, Dr. P. A. Lehenbauer, president, revealed. Dr. Robert Gorell, a transfer from the University of Indiana chapter, was also accepted for membership.

Also at the meeting, Dr. Benjamin Chappelle discussed group hospitalization and its usefulness to club members. Replacing Dr. Robert Hume as association secretary will be Dr. Charlton Laird.

Chi Delta Phi Names Hinslot To New Office

Anita Hinslot was named program coordinator of Chi Delta Phi, national English honorary fraternity, at a meeting held last night at the Gamma Phi Beta house. Her duties will include aligning programs for the regular monthly meetings of the organization, appointing members to handle refreshments and provide a meeting place.

Discussion of the annual Chi Delta Phi poetry contest for high school students was held. This event was not presented last year. The contest will be held, it was decided, with several volumes offered as prizes, and a short story contest will be held in conjunction. All high schools in Nevada will be contacted.

Possibility of the organization publishing an annual campus magazine containing literary efforts of University of Nevada students adjudged by Chi Delta Phi members was discussed. It was decided to call a special meeting to discuss the subject following investigations.

Pat Ussery then delivered a discussion of the works of Count Leo Tolstoy, famous Russian author, and sketched his biography. Anita Hinslot read a few selections from the works of Ivan Turgeneff, another famous Russian author.

Eileen Kerr, president, presided over the business meeting, and Miss Florence Billingham, advisor, was present.

Plans Complete For Alum Dinner

The annual Homecoming dinner honoring the alumni will be held at Lawton's plunge November 3 at 8 pm, according to Mark Yori, chairman of arrangements.

Tickets are on sale at Southworth's and can be purchased on campus from Dr. Robert Griffin, dean of men.

After a business meeting, dancing and entertainment will be featured, accompanied by a six-piece band. Between 250 and 300 alumni are expected to attend.

NO TIME FOR CONFLICT

A word to the good should be recorded for our ambitious Wolves Frolic director, Mrs. Margaret von Fluee. She has undertaken an enormous task—that of preparing in very short time, a show which formerly took nine weeks of practice. There have been many times during these past several weeks when things appeared to be going poorly for her and the show. Students missed practices, scripts needed repairs, practice hours were confused, and then sometimes, students resented Mrs. Von Fluee's directions. We found the last complication most irritating. In order that the show be done well, each skit group should give Mrs. Von Fluee their complete confidence. She has the background to judge what is good and what should be changed in each skit. She was a dramatics major at Mills College, she has written and directed many plays, radio skits and musical comedies, she worked for the San Francisco Opera Company, and directed the road show of "Star Juveniles." There will be only three more rehearsals before the Wolves Frolic goes on before many grads and people of this community. That means that each and every student in the show must put forth all the effort possible to see that their skit is a success. I calling the show by its former name we have taken on great responsibility. The audience will expect to see a performance that will measure up to previous Wolves Frolics. This is not another Skit Parade. Full cooperation of everyone concerned must be shown during the coming week.

IS THIS LOST TIME?

With the first six weeks passed and cramming and wailing over for a time, students wonder in an aimless, detached way, why they did not do better in their exams. This week students were tested for what they had learned during the first six weeks of school and now some of them realize that they haven't learned much more than their way around the halls and buildings. Most students realize that they are at college for a reason, whether it be to have a good time or to learn things useful throughout a life time. It is the fulfillment of this goal that should be all-important in their lives on the campus. If they are here for a good time—they should have it, for in setting such a goal they must have known what the consequences would be. If they're here to learn—they should devote their time to doing just that. A person does not learn to study easily. Some people never do. It is a form of concentration mastered only by the purposeful of mind. So what's it to be for you. You have only six weeks before the next exams—that is not very long to make up for lost time.

Grid Contest Won By Gordon Mills

By the narrow margin of three points, Gordon "Corky" Mills, university undergraduate manager, this week carded off the pigskin guessing contest sponsored weekly by the Brush sports department. Mills, by virtue of his prognosticative ability has been awarded two complimentary dinner tickets to the Club Fortune. Second prize, a pair of tickets to any Reno cinema house goes to W. I. "Pappy" Lane who finished in the runner-up spot. Both winners tabbed eight correct games of the ten listed but the margin in the final scores proved to be the deciding factor. Mills wound up with 231 points to his credit while Lane tallied 234. Oddly enough, Lane was the only contestant to tab the week's biggest

Many Rooters Plan Trip to Berkeley For Cal-NEV Game

"Follow the Pack" seems to be the by-word of students on the campus this week. With all modes of transportation represented, many students plan to attend the Nevada-Cal game on Saturday in Berkeley. Plan Driving A few of the students planning to drive down are Jeanne Finch, Helen Foster, Lois Wilson, Bebe George, Barbara Gould and Joan McInnis. Eleanor Norris is driving her car, and her passengers will include Carol Dundee, Helen Casey, Bernie Murphy and Gini Aucham paugh. Charlotte Risard and Dorothy Linabary are going by bus. Maribeth Elkins, Pat Ireland, Bonny Molignoni, Sylvie Geraghty, Freda Kornmayer, Jean Bicknell, and Yolanda Musso are going via Maribeth's car. Lavina Ramelli, Gen Siri, Pat Riley, Pela Oyarbide, Shirley Beetschen, and Betty Ann Rice also plan to attend. Bob Ninnis, Dick Gilbert, Thad Holcomb, Ty Short, Sinclair Melner, Dick Burkhalt, Tommy Thompson, Frank Apa, Johnny Baker, Bob White, Dick Gorman, Dick Rowley, Gloria Richards, Alice Joudas and Stan Brown will be among the spectators at the game. John and Roy Jensen are driving with their passengers, June Zunino, Dewi Hansen and Marilyn Hansen. Plane Travel A choice few are planning on a plane trip to Berkeley. These include Marilyn Reynolds, Roberta Whitney, Nancy Shedd and Flo Shakarian. Mrs. Helen Corica is driving with her family. Suzie Evans, Madlen and Peach Maestretti, Jo Ann Erb, Kay Boyle, Ginny and Barbara Olesen, Pat Crummer, Flo Miller, Jim Mackay and Bill Gillis also plan to root for their team at California Memorial Stadium tomorrow. Flo Blair, Vivian Davis, Beverly Birch, Bobby Jo Walker, Edith Moore, Jean Adrian Sutton, and Norma Eason are going also. Bonnie Yater and Toby Smythe upset, Purdue over Ohio State. Lane lost out, however, on Pacific Coast games when he failed to pick the winner of either the Oregon State-Washington or Washington State-Oregon contests. Mills also called the latter game incorrectly. Here they are. The ten toughest teams we could find on the November 3 football card. You don't have to pick the probable final score for both teams. Only the difference in the final outcome. Incidentally, calling ties automatically disqualifies your entry. Either you pick one team to win or the other. Entries will be accepted until Friday, November 2, in the container provided in the Wolf Den. Remember. Winners receive complimentary dinner tickets to the Club Fortune and the cinema. Results of this week's contest will be published in the November 9 issue of the Brush. The decision of the judges is final.

Farnsworth, Reed Injured in Game With Hurricanes

Tallying all their points in the first three quarters, the Tulsa Tornados rolled over the University of Nevada Wolf Pack last Saturday by the one-sided score of 40-0. The game was played in Tulsa and was the second and worst defeat of the season for the local gridsters who had previously been downed by St. Mary's, 39-0.

For 29 minutes, the outmanned Nevadans furnished the Oklahoma Hurricanes with their stiffest competition this year. Trailing 7-0 after being on the defensive for the major portion of the opening two periods, the Pack suddenly went to pieces with only 55 seconds remaining in the first half.

Tulsa's Wilson
Big Camp Wilson, Tulsa's 1945 nominee for all-American honors, personally engineered and accounted for the first three scores, counting one each in the first, second and third stanzas.

Shortly after the start of the second half, Tulsa tallied a third touchdown and from then on it was just a question of how large the final score would be. Tulsa dented the Pack goal line four times in the third quarter. In the final period, the Wolves defensive play stiffened to thwart several Tulsa drives but the damage had been completed in the first 45 minutes of play.

From Nevada's viewpoint, shining light of the otherwise disheartening loss was provided by Capt. Buster McClure and "Joltin' Joe" Stolfi. McClure exhibited his usual brilliant game at center while Stolfi, only recently entrusted with a starting guard role, was a bulwark on defense.

The Pack's chances were given a setback in the opening minutes of the game when Darwin Farnsworth, most consistent ground gainer on the club, was carried from the field with a broken collar-bone. Farnsworth will be lost for the season on account of the injury.

"Happy" Injured
Nevada's other main offensive threat, "Happy" Reed's strong right arm, was also sidelined in the third canto when the Arkansas mite suffered an injured hip. While battered and bruised from the terrific pounding to which he was subjected all afternoon against the tough Tulsa line, Reed will be back in uniform later to go against the California Golden Bears tomorrow.

Vital statistics of the game tell the story of the rout in a nutshell. The victors rolled up a sum total of 18 first downs while the Pack was credited with a meager two.

Considered a weak passing team, Tulsa completed eight out of 15 aerial attempts for a net gain of 158 yards.

Halfback "Turk" Eliades flashed some of his old time form in intercepting a stray Tulsa pass early in the contest. Eliades, with more rehearsal and conditioning may yet prove to be a boon to the now depleted Pack offense.

Fullback Ebbby Robertson also came up with an interception in the opening moments of the game to give the Nevadans one of their few opportunities of the afternoon to cheer.

Theta Chi Favored in Cross Country Run

With the revived cross country run only a week away, Theta Chi appeared to have the inside track toward dragging down team honors.

Sparked by Don McBride, Nevada State 1945 mile champion, the Theta Chis will offer the starter a well balanced squad on Homecoming morning. Dick Watts, Don Johnson and George Swartz will be cast in the supporting roles with McBride.

With 18 entries assured, team honors were expected to be bitterly contested between Theta Chi, Lambda Chi and SAE.

Saddle and Spurs Plans Breakfast

Members of Saddle and Spurs, who recently sponsored a hay ride, are planning a breakfast ride to Virginia Lake November 10. The coeds will begin their ride at 8 am and will recess at 10, for breakfast.

As soon as the Women's Athletic Association riding classes end, Saddle and Spurs will offer the skill tests to tryees for admittance into Saddle and Spurs. Those successfully passing the horsemanship test will be eligible for initiation.

Lambda Chi Cops Volleyball; Now Leads Frat Race

With two sports already completed, Lambda Chi this week forged to the front in intermural sports activities by copping the volleyball play-offs and finishing in the runner-up spot in the horse shoes singles. Lambda Chi has compiled a net total of 70 points with Sigma Rho in second place with 40 1-3 points.

In the volleyball contests, Lambda Chi swept aside all opposition to finish with a perfect record, defeating Sigma Rho in the crucial contest to walk off with the honors.

Noel Willis, Phi Sigma Kappa contestant, garnered laurels for the Phi Sigs by taking seven horse shoe matches. John Poli, under the banner of Lambda Chi, finished second, suffering a single defeat, that at the hands of Willis.

Theta Chi's John Bradley assured his frat of at least a tie in tennis singles last Friday when he downed Jack Owens of Sigma Rho in straight sets, 6-3, 8-6. Both contestants were previously undefeated until the deciding match. With a single remaining on the racquet calendar it appeared that the Theta Chi's would add 20 more points to their total in their quest for the Kinnear trophy.

Point standings of the teams follows:

Lambda Chi	70
Sigma Rho	40 1-3
SAE	20
Phi Sig	20
Theta Chi	10 1-3
ATO	10
Independents	2 1-2
Sigma Nu	1-3

Pack Traits

Charles Darwin possessed a theory that man came from monkey. This week Pack-Traits presents the man who made a monkey out of the Santa Barbara Marines—Darwin Farnsworth.

Born: June 11, 1926, in the sleepy little hamlet of Burley, Idaho. Christened at birth after the eminent evolutionist, Darwin.

Schooling: Attended the Woodland, California High School for three years where he played two years of varsity football. Moved to Sacramento for senior year and proceeded to burn up the San Joaquin Sacramento Valley conference gridiron playing for the powerful McClatchie High School Lions. Voted all-conference halfback and further honored as an all-city selection in the California capital.

Presently: Was one of the U. of N. grid standouts until injured in the Tulsa game. A sixty minute player if there was one. Missed only one quarter in four games until sidelined by broken collar-bone. Crossed the goal line on four occasions.

Thrill of a lifetime: What was the greatest thrill ever experienced by this good looking, blond 5-foot 11-inch, 175-pounder! Against the Santa Barbara Marines when he went over standing up in the fourth quarter for Nevada's final score—and the touchdown that paid off on the victory of the ledger.

Present scholastic status: Majoring in pre-med, surgery to be exact.

Nickname: We are curious too, as to the origination of "Goldie" so we asked. It seems when Darwin was a freshman to Woodland high school, he owned the goldiest set of locks in the country. Papa and mama have been content to refer to their fair-haired boy as "Darwin." Not so the fellows. "Goldilocks" was a natural and only the years have shortened the title.

Post-War Election For Rhodes Scholarships Set

The first postwar elections for Rhodes scholarships will be held in December of 1946, and applications should reach the secretary of the appropriate state committee of selection on or before November 2, according to Dr. Sigmund W. Leifson, head of the department of physics and head of the university committee for Rhodes scholarships.

Men who are eligible are those who were born on or after October 1, 1922 and before October 1, 1928. Scholars-elect will enter the University of Oxford in October, 1947.

Two-Year Appointments
The compensation of a Rhodes scholarship is set at 400 pounds or approximately $2,000 a year. However, a Rhodes scholar should be prepared to add from his own resources to this amount at least 50 pounds. Two year appointments are made, with a possible extension for a third year for a man who presents a definite plan of study for that period which is satisfactory to the Rhodes trustees and to his college.

The Rhodes trustees have also created a number of war service scholarships in addition to the ordinary appointments. The war service scholarships are open to men who at any time since October 1, 1940, were between the ages of 19 and 25, and who have completed at least one year of war service. Thirty-two war service scholarships will be

Nevada Coeds Taller Than Average, According to Powers

Are University of Nevada women of average size? No, according to John Robert Powers, Nevada women are not of either average size or weight.

Mr. Powers claims the average woman is 5 feet, 3 1/2 inches tall and weighs between 110 and 115 pounds. Nevada's average coed is 5 feet 5 inches tall and weighs 127 pounds; almost two inches taller and 15 pounds heavier than the Powers' average.

At present the tallest Nevada coed is 5 feet 11 inches tall and the shortest just 4 feet 10 inches in height. The heaviest woman on campus weighs 196 pounds and the lightest barely tips the scales at 93 pounds, physical education records show.

Mosley Attends Chicago Meeting

Dr. John O. Moseley, president of the university, is now in Chicago attending the 59th annual convention of the Association of Land-Grant Colleges and Universities held on Thursday and Friday.

Dr. Moseley attended the Tulsa-Nevada game and then went to Chicago for committee meetings and discussions prior to association meetings to be conducted during the first part of the week.

The convention is to be devoted to the necessary business of the association and committees, the chief topic being the educational program for returning veterans. Other discussions will cover adjustments required, program for agriculture and home and the future.

Dr. Moseley is expected to return from the convention during the first part of next week.

offered each year for two years, and possibly even three years.

War Service Counted
Not only membership in the armed forces will be considered as war service, but also various kinds of civilian war work, such as scientific research, government service, and positions in industry and agriculture. Work for which draft boards have granted deferments will also be considered as war service. One year of college will be required of the candidates for war service scholarships; and except in regard to age, marriage and the amount of college training, requirements will be the same as those for the regular appointments. For war service scholarships, men will be eligible who were born on or after October 1, 1915 and before October 1, 1928.

Further information in regard to the scholarships will be given out at a later date.

Russian Speaker Discusses Status of USSR-America

"The future of the world's safety depends upon America's relations with Russia," said Madame Nina N. Selivanova, speaker at the assembly last Friday morning.

Born of czarist nobility in Russia, she was educated in Russian and European universities. In 1919 she acted as interpreter for the United States Army in Siberia before coming to America.

Russian Youth
At the Friday assembly Mme. Selivanova spoke largely on the youth of Russia and their services to their country during World War II. According to Mme. Selivanova, there are two outstanding youth groups in Russia today, the Timorites and the Pioneers. Of the two groups, the Pioneers is the largest, having as members some 15,000,000 boys and girls between the ages of 12 and 16.

The main purpose of these organizations is to help the families of servicemen. The government of the U.S.R.S. has built clubhouses, libraries, gymnasiums and other recreational facilities for the two organizations. One of the most popular sports is a course in parachute jumping.

She said that the U.S.S.R. was counting on America's friendship and understanding in the future. Mme. Selivanova is of the opinion that Russia and America are similar in that "they are both children of great expanses, they both have a sense of humor, the people of both nations have great faith in their own countries, and that the two nations have a strong sense of loyalty to friends."

In closing, Mme. Selivanova said that she hoped the relations between Russia and America today would serve to strengthen the bond of tomorrow.

Miss Mildred Swift, head of the department of home economics, acted as hostess at a tea in the home economics room Friday afternoon from 3 to 4 given for Mme. Selivanova. She continued with her dis-

Art Instructor Injured in Fall

Art classes were halted briefly this week following the injury of Mrs. Helen Joslin, head of the art department.

Mrs. Joslin suffered a sprained ankle when she tripped on a step at an art exhibit in San Francisco at the City of Paris "Art in Action" shop. She was in San Francisco purchasing materials for the university art department.

Mrs. Marion Root held classes for Mrs. Joslin in her absence. Mrs. Root is a member of the Chicago Institute of Fine Art.

Student Geologists Study Formations

Prof. Vincent P. Gianella and the members of several geology classes took a field trip to Donner summit Saturday to study rock formations in their various stages.

The group left Reno at 9 am and returned via Lake Tahoe late Saturday afternoon. If the weather permits another field trip will be taken to Virginia City and vicinity later this fall, stated Prof. Gianella.

NOTICE

Low grade reports will be issued Tuesday, October 30, which marks the end of the first six-week period. The administration council will at this time consider cases for probation.

discussion of Russia and answered questions informally. Mme. Selivanova has lectured previously on several lecture circuits.

Banquet Honors Tri-Delt Pledges

Twenty-two pledges and five members of Delta Delta Delta were honored at an annual banquet by the Tri-Delta Alliance Club at the Twentieth Century Club on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Sarah Brown, president of the alliance club made a welcoming speech during dinner and later a quiz program was enacted. The alliance members challenged the pledges and were beaten by a large majority.

Those attending the banquet were June Anderson, Constance Ayer, Shirley Beetschen, Patricia Carmichael, Janet DaCosta, Bernadette Ertter, Dorothy Gennette, Phyllis Green, Mary Cathleen Hanley, Doris Hansen, June Harp, Alice Joudas, Freda Kornmayer, Joan Matcovich, Bonny Malignoni, Yolanda Musso, Gloria Richards, Wilma Schooley, Jean Sweatt, Pat Pringle, Rene Dupratt, Marjorie Maestretti, Berle Dickerson, Nancy Connolly, Jane Littlefield, Mary Clinton and Lois Brown.
