Bond Sales Total $1953.75 at Pan-Hell Bean Feed; Affair Returned to UN Men

Last Coed Staging of Traditional Event Climaxes Victory Loan Drive on Campus

Selling a total of $1953.75 in war bonds and stamps, Pan-Hellenic presented the annual bean feed last week to climax the university's victory loan drive. Long a male function on the campus, war necessitated the abandonment of the feed during the war years and the activity has been carried on by women students since 1942. Next year the interfraternity council will resume sponsorship of the annual event.

Highlight of the foodfest was the auctioning off of miscellaneous articles donated by Reno merchants, student request acts, and dates with leading male members of the campus. Top bidder of the evening proved to be Lois Cobia who purchased a $300 bond for a bottle of Ellyn Deluth perfume.

Male guests present for the evening included Paul Parraguire, guests of Mary Moore; Buster McClure escorted by Pat Crummer; Noel Willis who came at the request of Jac Peterson; Max Dodge who was present at the request of Pat Ussery; Royden Beardall who was accompanied by Pela Oyarbide, and Al DiChiaro, guest of Josie Eather.

As a sideline feature, Pat Pringle purchased a $150 bond with the stipulation that all members of the upperclass committee wear a large plaid ribbon for one week.

Helen Brania and Mary Beth Elkins served as the auctioneers for the evening's party. Beans, buns and coffee comprised refreshments for about 200 students who gathered.

Three Graduates Of Journalism Join Local Paper

Three university graduates of the school of journalism have been discharged from the service and have joined the staff of the Reno Evening Gazette.

Frank McCulloch, who was graduated in '41, is the sports editor of the Gazette. Former editor of the Sagebrush, McCulloch was a sergeant in the marine corps in press relations work. On the campus he was a member of Sigma Nu.

Joe Jackson, who was recently discharged from the navy, will return to the Gazette as telegraph editor next Monday. He was formerly a reporter on that paper. Jackson was editor of the Sagebrush and a member of the graduating class of 1942.

Alan McGill, a graduate of '42, has also returned to the Gazette staff. At the time of his discharge he was a captain in the army. McGill's wife, the former Louise Leonard, is also a graduate of the school of journalism.

REGISTRATION IS POSTPONED

Registration of all vehicles on the campus will be delayed until next week, according to Noel Willis, men's upperclass committee chairman. The delay is caused by the Reno Printing company which has not yet been able to print the tickets needed to complete the registration. Willis stated that the campus car registering should be in full swing by next week.

Tri-Delts Hold Annual Banquet

Delta Delta Delta held their annual Founders Day banquet last week at the Century Club. Ruth Armstrong was chairman of the banquet, and was assisted by Marjorie Maestretti, Merri Jo Harp and Blanche Capurro.

Noel Willis Gives Last Warning to Frosh Offenders

Noel Willis, chairman of the men's upperclass committee, issued a final warning to those wayward freshmen who failed to help paint the N on Peavine mountain and who now continue to disregard the notices to appear before the committee to give reason.

"Some of these men have been asked to appear three times," Willis stated. "Maybe we've been a little too lenient. We're not issuing any more warnings. On Saturday, December 1, the freshmen who didn't make the trip to Peavine or present an excuse for their absence, will paint the lines on the parking lot. The names on our list will be checked and anyone not showing up will have his student privileges revoked at the next meeting of the senate."

Willis revealed that the following freshmen have not appeared before the committee and that if they do not appear at the next meeting on Tuesday at 12:40 pm at the ASUN building, it will be assumed that they are deliberately overlooking this notice.

Thornton Audrain, Frank Ambler, Bob Bratton, Charles Duffy, William Ebert, Alfred Fialdini, Bill Gerahy, James Huntington, Joseph Jaksick, L. Johnston, Leonard Katz, Lester Krulewich, Will Lane, Jim Mackay, Ernest Martinelli, Robert Morrison, Roy Nishiguchi, Roger Olmstead, Virgil Patton, Jim Reading, G. AN OLD SHAKEDOWN—DRESSED UP

When the student senate voted to turn the task of choosing Who's Who candidates over to a faculty committee, we dispatched mental bouquets to the ASUN group.

This Who's Who racket has gone far enough. When a representative group of the student body shows that it holds little esteem for such a set-up, we believed that the true value of the Who's Who myth has been properly treated.

A number of years ago, only a few students in each college were tabbed as BMOC material, that was as it should be. This year, however, the Who's Who people want us to turn in the names of 12 students for national BTO honors. On this campus, as on many other small campi, there are not 12 students who are truly "big time" candidates.

It seems that the publisher of Who's Who was letting his mercenary instincts get out of hand when he asked for 12 candidates from the U. of N. The publisher offers a key and a volume of the edition to those selected—there is a "nominal" fee connected. We wonder if he isn't a shrewd business man who is cashing in on student ego.

If campus leaders really have the stuff, they don't need a paragraph in Who's Who nor another key for their chain to profess their excellence. There's enough key-clamoring on each campus in this country without making a national contest out of it.

NO QUESTIONS ASKED

Just as there are petty thieves in every community the world over, there are thieves among students on this campus. This is not unusual.

However, we believe that the culprit who swiped a cigarette case and lighter from a veteran on the campus last week displayed more than ordinary petty larceny bad taste.

There's a poignant story behind that certain cigarette case. Not so long ago it belonged to a serviceman who was serving with the navy in the Pacific. The case wasn't a very significant thing then—in fact, it was just a plain gold one of simple design with a lighter attached.

It was after a Japanese air attack that the little case took on a greater significance. Its owner was near death in the cold waters of the Pacific when a buddy came to his rescue. Later, as a token of gratitude, the rescued turned over to the rescuer the gold cigarette case, it was all he had there on a life raft in the middle of the ocean.

To the man who received it, the case meant a great deal. It recalled the incident and the deep friendship between the two, and endless other things that would be foreign to civilians.

And so, writing under the presumption that even thieves are sometimes sentimental, will the student who picked up that cigarette case and lighter have the decency to return it to the owner?

Be not afraid of going slowly, be afraid of standing still.

Time goes you say? Ah, no! Alas, time stays, we go.

STRICTLY FROM HUNGER

By Roger Dodger

You asked for it, people, so here it is. No dirt, no gossip, just a paragraph or two to let you know what gives. If you have any tiem befitting the column, just drop a line to old Rog, care of the Sagebrush. He's interested in the same things you are, so come on, you grim wizards, and give with the word.

Here's good news for the gal Greeks. The Sigma Nus are sending four pledges to each house on Monday eve next to entertain, make with the dish towel and such. Doubtless the housebods will appreciate such labor saving devices. . . . Rog has a hot tip for you life readers who have been having such a rough time getting a copy of your favorite mag. In case you're a wee bit weary of fighting for it in the libe, hit the Riverside fountain around noon come Tuesdays and you are almost a cinch for a copy. . . . Also from the Riverside comes this sage bit of advice: A bellhop with a French accent recommends boiled milk with a liberal dash of spices for those colds we have been totin' around these autumn days. It's sort of a milk punch without the punch.

Is there an actress in the house? The Reno Little Theater is looking for a slightly synthetic blonde to do Tina in "A Bell for Adano," their next production. If you don't mind admitting your tresses are not exactly the genuine article, watch the papers for tryout time. . . . Department for the edification and Enlightenment of music lovers. If you like Eddie Heywood's version of "Begin the Beguine" (and who doesn't) you can hear more of him at midnight on KNX, about 105 kcs. His strictly solid jive emanates from Billy Berg's restaurant in Hollywood. "Something Sentimental" is a new Vaughn Monroe disc you ought to hear. Frankly, Roger doesn't go for the whipped cream in V.M.'s voice, but will have to admit he does a smooth job on this number.

TO GET BOMBER

Plans for securing a light two-engine bomber are now being discussed by the electrical engineering department, Dean Stanley G. Palmer, head of the school of engineering announced.

This plane, which would have to be flown in, would be dismantled and the parts used for instruction purposes. At present this system is being used in Santa Clara, California.

at the Carlton cocktail lounge, but if you haven't, grab your hat and rush right down. For our money, that gal has Jackson backed clear off the map. . . . Mystery of the week. Rog is wondering who put the benzedrine in Mrs. Murphy's ovaltine, but Jimmy Glynn and Don Turner are wondering who the arch fiend is that walked barefoot across the freshly refinished floors at the Lambda Chi house last Friday. . . . Probably some joker who mistook the place for Grauman's Chinese Theater. . . . Ginnie Olesen and Jim Coleman seem to be seeking fame via the ether waves. Jim's speciality is the KOH farm news, while Ginnie keeps the kids amused with authentic Nevada pioneer and Indian stories at 4:45 Wednesday afternoons. . . . Evidently Jerry Brown has harnessed atomic energy for her little red auto. Rog's special correspondent in Beatty reports seeing a red steak passing through last Saturday, but nothing more was seen or heard of her and her pal, Shirley Platt, until they reached Las Vegas' Last Frontier Hotel six hours after leaving Reno.

Well, guys and gals, there it is. Any additions, omissions, corrections or does the column stand approved as read? Does Roger satisfy your intellectual craving or is Action Comics still your favorite reading material? Leave us know your reaction by carrier pigeon, secret code or any other handy means of communication and Rog will be on hand next week with more of the same.

Letter to Editor

To the Students:

As I see it, the welfare of this sheet is as much the responsibility of the members of the ASUN as of the editor and business manager. I have listened to a lot of gripes during my year as business manager about the amount of advertising in the Brush, the lack of six page papers, the inefficiency in circulation and I agree with the gripers wholeheartedly.

We have a lot of advertising for the size of the paper, but we have to carry that much to meet expenses. We don't have many six page papers, but it takes a lot of good ad chasing to get the 400 inches for a six pager. The circulation plan hasn't been good, but it takes a good staff to mail 900 papers every week.

Well, maybe by this time you've caught on to what the old B.M. is griping about. If you want to see some startling improvements in the Brush, it's up to you. We need some eager ad chasers in the form of male students. We need a fellow who is willing to give up his Friday afternoons to go down to the Silver State Press and help with circulation. And, incidently, it would help a lot if the students would make a wholehearted attempt to patronize Brush advertisers.

I'm as eager as anyone else to turn the Brush into an up and coming newspaper and I'm wide open for suggestions. I want you to know that the business staff, such as it is, is doing the best it can—with your help, we can do a lot better!

Marilyn Dugan.

Dear Editor:

I am a student who lives in Lincoln Hall, and I think it is a pretty good place to live—except for about one night per week. That is the night the football boys go on a spree and start straggling in from 11 pm to 2 am.

If they would just come in and go to their rooms, it wouldn't be so bad, but they have to run up and down the stairs, shout from one side of the hall to the other, and make all the racket they possibly can. That has been happening nearly every week since school started, and I think it is time someone did something about it.

A couple of weeks ago, they came in from 1 to 2:30 am. During most of that time, they sounded as if they were tearing the house down, not to mention playing the juke box at full volume part of the time. A Lincoln Hall meeting was called a few nights later, and I hoped that would be the end of the weekly carousals. But last night I was kept awake from 11 to 12 midnight by the same persons who were guilty before.

Don't get the idea I'm saying that all the football boys make noise or that they are the only ones who make noise, because some of them don't make any noise at all. If they can be quiet, why in the hell can't the rest of 'em act a little less like high school freshmen and a little more like college students?

Very truly yours,
A Disgusted Student.

Four Team Tourney Planned for December 28 and 29; Several Former Stars Return to Lineup

With King Basketball officially replacing football as the major sport on the hill this week, Coach Jake Lawlor Wednesday released a tentative 21 game schedule featuring a four team tourney with Stanford, Utah, and California to be staged in the local gym on December 28 and 29. In making public the Pack's 1945 schedule, Lawlor stated that there is a strong possibility that several more contests will be added to the three-month season.

First game of the 1945 season will send the Pack hoop squad into action in Sacramento on December 6 against a strong AAU five from the California capitol city. Two days later the Wolves journey to Hawthorne to engage the Hawthorne Navy and Marine quintets with games slated to be played the evening of the eighth and the afternoon of the ninth.

Three Lettermen

Starting from scratch, Lawlor in his first postwar season at Nevada must mold a winner of unproven quality. Only three lettermen, Buster McClure, Bob Durham and Smokey Smolinski, are back from the 1944 squad which compiled a record of 16 wins in 26 starts.

Star of early season practice sessions has proved to be Jim Mackey, erstwhile freshman from Ohio, who is currently leading the interfraternity scoring race with 46 points in two games. Mackey cavorts from one of the guard positions.

First String Material

Others vying for first string berths to date include Max Dodge, Matt Klemaczewski, Ebby Robertson, Carl Robinson, Buck White, Bob Ninnis, Dick Fulstone, Sharon Wasson, Bill Gillis, Bud Mason, and Jim Taylor. Walt Polenske, Darwin Farnsworth and Maury Hagleen, all presently nursing grid injuries, are expected to join the club in a few days.

Most welcome news to the Pack's chances for a successful season was the arrival of Orsie Graves to the campus this week after serving three years in the air corps. Graves performed under the Silver and Blue banner in 1942 as a regular and the ex-flier immediately got down to the serious business of rounding into condition for the coming campaign.

Expected Back

Another ex-Pack star, Jim Melarkey, is expected back from the service this week and his presence should definitely bolster the Wolves scoring attack. Melarkey starred for the U of N in 1942 prior to exchanging his civies for the garb of the navy's blue.

Sigma Nu Leads Frat Hoop Race

Sigma Nu this week took a commanding lead in interfraternity basketball play when they upset the dope bucket by dumping a highly favored Lambda Chi quintet in the best frat game of the year.

Perfect Record

Final score found the Sigma Nu five in front 19-16 and the victory preserved their perfect record of three wins in as many games. Sigma Nu also holds victories over SAE and Sigma Rho defeating the former 39-6 and the latter 18-6.

In second place with two wins against a single setback are ATO, Lambda Chi and the Independents. ATO dropped SAE 37-4 and Theta Chi 55-13. Lambda Chi edged the Independents 26-10 and Sigma Rho 40-26, while the Independents garnered their wins at the expense of the Phi Sigs 38-8 and ATO, 30-13.

Other Games

In other games to date SAE won over Theta Chi, 45-25, Theta Chi defeated Sigma Rho 23-12 and Phi Sigma Kappa poured it on the Theta Chi to the tune of 40-33. The interfraternity season ends on December 8.

Sparks to Play Vegas Here Sat.

As a parting gesture before bedding down the moleskins and footballs in moth balls for another year, grid enthusiasts will be treated to the final game of the year on Sunday afternoon when the Sparks and Las Vegas high school elevens will tangle on Mackay field for the state championship. Game time is scheduled for 1:45.

Las Vegas, defending state champions, will enter the Sunday fray heavily favored to retain their title. The two schools also met in the 1944 finals with the southerners turning back the Railroaders, 19-0.

Nevada Gridsters Select Mythical All-Opponent 11

With everyone in the country who can spell the words "All-American" picking their favorite mythical football dream teams, Nevada gridsters this week released their 1945 all-opponent eleven.

St. Mary's and Tulsa in the minds of the Wolf gridsters were the toughest club faced this season and the scores of those respective games should bear out that fact. Both California's Galloping Gaels and the Texas Golden Tornados placed four men each on the all-opposing first team with Utah, California and the Santa Barbara Marines accounting for the other three positions. Fresno, with three selectees, dominated the second string.

Selections follows: First string—Phillips (Tulsa) and Ryan (St. Mary's), ends; Beard (California) and Briggs (Tulsa), tackles; Beasley (St. Mary's) and Daugherty (Santa Barbara Marines), guards; Prewitt (Tulsa), center; Adelt (Utah), Wedemeyer and Cordiero (St. Mary's) and Wilson (Tulsa), backs.

Second string—Raley (Fresno) and Petre (Great Bend), ends; Stanley (Tulsa) and Adair (St. Mary's), tackles; Bolt (Fresno) and Vicchio (Great Bend), guards; Mauss (Utah), center; O'Connor (St. Mary's), Kelley (Fresno), Smith (Tulsa) and Bonatus (San Diego), backs.

Interfrat Sked Gets Revision

Chet Scranton, assistant physical education director, yesterday announced the revision of the interfrat basketball schedule. First priority for use of the gymnasium will be tendered Coach Jake Lawlor's late-starting hoop squad.

The revised schedule as posted by Scranton follows:

Friday, November 30: 7 pm, Sigma Rho vs. ATO; 8 pm, Phi Sigs vs. Sigma Nu.

Saturday, December 1: 1 pm, Independents vs. Theta Chi; 2 pm, SAE vs. Lambda Chi; 3 pm, ATO vs. Sigma Nu; 4 pm, Phi Sig vs. Sigma Rho.

Tuesday, December 4: 7 pm, ATO vs. Phi Sigs; 8 pm, SAE vs. Sigma Rho.

Wednesday, December 5: 4 pm, Sigma Nu vs. Theta Chi; 5 pm, ATO vs. Lambda Chi.

Thursday, December 6: 4 pm, Sigma Rho vs. Independents; 5 pm, SAE vs. Phi Sigs.

Friday, December 7: 7 pm, Phi Sig vs. Lambda Chi; 8 pm, SAE vs. Independents.

Two scheduled contests with Theta Chi and Sigma Nu furnishing the competition for Lambda Chi and the Independents, respectively, will be played at the conclusion of the season.

Wolf Pack Scores 40 to 0 Win in Last Game of '45

Led by fullback Lloyd Rude, who powered over three touchdowns and booted four extra points, the Wolf Pack rolled over the Las Vegas Army Airfield 40-0, Sunday in Las Vegas's Butcher Stadium before a near-capacity crowd of 5000 fans. Southern Nevada rooters were deeply impressed by the display of power and teamwork put on by the college grid team in their first appearance before Vegas rooters and their last game of the season.

This win put Nevada well up in the percentage column with a total of seven victories against three defeats. On the scoring side of the ledger the Pack wound up the season with 240 points scored while the opposition paked up 150.

For the first seven minutes of the game it looked as if the pre-game dopesters were all wrong. Nevada won the toss and elected to receive. The scrappy Indians evidently had not read the papers because they took the ball on their own 25 yard line and proceeded to march to the Wolf Pack 10 yard marker before they bogged down.

This seemed to have ruffled someone's hair because after excepting the 15 yard penalty for unnecessary roughness, Nevada squared off and pounded some 80 yards for their first touchdown and were never in serious trouble again. Rude made the touchdown with a seven yard jaunt around right end. He then added the extra point as the quarter ended 7-0.

In the second quarter Rude intercepted an Indian pass on his own 41 yard line, and a few plays later he plunged over for the second score. His place kick made the score 14-0 for Nevada.

Nevada kicked off and forced the tiring locals to punt. Rude, Hagleen and Taylor ripped off long gainers and the Wolf was again at the Army's back door. Pass pitching "Happy" Reed, who is strongly in favor of making them "the easy way," laid the ball squarely in Max Dodge's hand for six points. Rude kicked the extra point as the time began to run out in the first half.

Las Vegas was anxious to break into the scoring column and began to fill the air with passes. Six foot three inch Maurice Hagleen out-jumped a Vegan end, intercepted the ball and streaked to the Indians' 37 yard line before he was knocked out of bounds. Reed danced back to the 40 yard line and rifled the ball into the waiting arms of freshman Bud Sleight for a touchdown. Rude split the uprights and the half ended 28-0.

The Horse Scores

Starting the second half with a renewed vigor, Las Vegas drove to the Nevada 25 yard line where Buster McClure threw Tetslaff for a five yard loss and the attack bogged down. Rude and Hagleen ran 20 and 10 yards, respectively, for two first downs and then "The Horse" Rude brought the fans to their feet with a 40 yard scoring jaunt down the left sideline.

A long Vegan pass was taken on the Indian 40 yard line and ran to the 20 by an alert Lloyd Rude. Reed then arched the ball over the safety man's head to Dodge for the game's final score.

GRID CONTEST ENDS

With football season at an end, this week winds up the Sagebrush football guessing contest. Results of the final contest will be announced in the next issue of the paper. Due to the mid-week holiday period and negligible amount of entries, no awards were made for last week.

McClure Placed On Coast Team For Second Year

Buster McClure this week was the recipient of further national recognition when he was elected to the International News Service's all-west coast football team, an honor accorded him last season.

Bay area sports scribes were impressed by Buster's performance in the St. Mary's and California encounters with one writer voicing the opinion that McClure was, without a doubt, the west's top lineman this season.

Although Nevada has completed the 1945 grid season, San Francisco fans will undoubtedly get one last glimpse of Nevada's star tackle on New Year's Day when the East-West game will be staged. McClure was called the outstanding lineman in last year's intersectional fracas.

Anyone can play bridge, but it takes a cannibal to throw up a hand.

Brush Reporter Interviews Students on Jobs

By George Himes

Various students on the university campus are using some of their spare time to maintain a job off the campus. While the main objective of the effort they put forth is to gain some of that material known as "jack" or "moola," many of them have a desire to learn a little while working that will help them in their future occupation.

Gus Cammerano has been working in the kitchen of the university dining hall. Gus is a physical education major, but he has admitted that his secret desire is to become a chef.

Student Mechanic

Working as a mechanic's helper at the A C Garage in Sparks is Bill Buck. Bill's prime ambition is to become the owner of a chain of garages throughout the state of Nevada and California.

The well trimmed lawns at Underpass Park are due to the efforts of Fred Desiderio who has had bestowed upon him the title of assistant caretaker. Fred tells us that he has no desire to make lawn trimming his life's work.

Man Who Goes Around

With a hope that he might some day become a traveling salesman, Bud Mason has been working as a part time freelance salesman around the stores of Reno.

Sam Bacus has a weekend job at the Wagon Wheel bar on Commercial Row. Sam says that tending bar has not only taught him how to be the perfect host, but that it is aiding him in his voice training, via some of that good old bar-room harmony.

Journalism Grad Visits Department

Peter Kelley, graduate of the school of journalism with the class of '41, recently visited the campus after receiving a discharge from the army.

While on the campus, Kelley was a member of Alpha Tau Omega, Press Club and Sagers. He served as editor of an army newspaper published in Germany while in the service.

His wife, the former Caroline Best of Fallon, was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta.

Rude Edges Dodge In Scoring Title

By the narrow margin of a single conversion, Fullback Lloyd Rude edged End Max Dodge for the 1945 University of Nevada grid scoring title. Rude, inactive for several games earlier in the year, tallied nine touchdowns and added seven conversions for a 61 point total for the season. "Big Max" led the touchdown parade by crossing the goal line on 10 occasions, for 60 pointers.

To Dodge went the honor of a single game's outstanding performance. Against San Diego, the Washington state athlete rang up four touchdowns for 24 points while in the final game of the year Rude scored 22 points as the result of three scores and four conversions, for runner-up honors. Thirteen players shared in the Pack's 250 point seasonal total.
