

KOH to Broadcast Concert Planned By Univ. Singers

Program Sponsored By Two Groups, To Be Held Wednesday

The Christmas concert, presented by the University Singers under the direction of Prof. Theodore H. Post, will be broadcast over station KOH Wednesday evening at 8 pm. The annual concert, sponsored by the YWCA and Reno Peptoirc Club, will be held in the education auditorium starting at 8 pm. The program is open to the public.

Soloists for the program will be Betty Johnston, Nona Lee Tuttle and Leslie Harvey. Other members of the choir are Teddy Hicks, Hazel Deckelman, Georgianna Hicks, Norma Eason, Mary Katherine Hanley, Nora Morris and Jackie Ross.

Jane Perkins, Florence Shakarian, Maile Chase, Lydia Rassuchine, Camille Cummings, Pat Riley, Genevieve Swick, Beverly Lewis, Tosca Masini, Aleda Brown, Beth Le-maire, Gloria Rosaschi, Judy Bogard, Joylin Johnson, Sally Beebe, Betty Sue Bogges and Mary Libby. Accompanying the choir will be Mary Libby and Lorna Drown, pianists, and Lois Post, violinist.

Stan Brown Named Director of Winter Carnival

At a meeting of the University Ski Club held Wednesday evening, Stan Brown was elected director of the Winter Carnival to be held here in March.

Serving with Brown will be Gerry Brown and Peter Lawlor who will manage the ski meet, Virginia Olesen, publicity chairman and Richard Rowley who will secure trophies for the occasion. Dance and banquet committees will be appointed within several weeks.

Colleges which have accepted invitations to participate in the Winter Carnival are Stanford, University of Washington and Placer JC. Replies are expected shortly from UC, UCLA, Pomona College, Fresno State, University of Oregon, Oregon State, Washington State, BYU and Sacramento College.

President of the Ski Club, Lois Post, announced that the outing planned for this weekend has been postponed until after the holidays.

New Scholarship Is Established

Announcement of the new Reno business and professional women's scholarship was recently made by Dr. Harold N. Brown, professor of education and director of summer sessions.

This scholarship of $50 is to be awarded to students in such fields as teaching, commercial education, social work, journalism, pre-medical and pre-nursing, chemistry, pre-medical technology and business administration.

Outstanding scholastic achievement in the student's major field, upright moral character and general scholarship will be considered by the committee in awarding the scholarship, according to Dr. Brown.

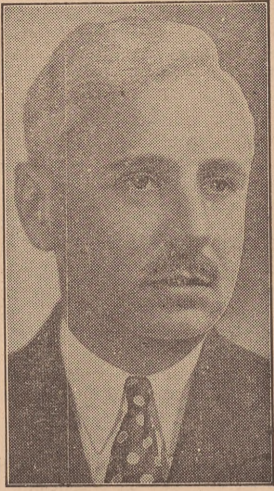

Financial need and evidence of interest in the major field are also to be considered, he said.

ON RADIO PROGRAM

Joanne "Shorty" Berg, freshman, sang over KOH radio station last night for a local motor company program. She was accompanied by Mary Lou Gerrans, pianist, and Larry Chapman's high school band.

As Homecoming sweetheart, Miss Berg sang several numbers for the Wolves Frolic.

ADDRESSES STUDENTS

Will Durant, nationally known author and lecturer, addressed students of the university this morning during the regular assembly period.

Dr. Will Durant Speaks at Student Assembly

By Marilyn Reynolds
"Civilization is the orderly freedom promoting cultural life," was the answer Dr. Will Durant, world known philosopher and author, gave to the question, "What Is Civilization?" in his lecture today for students of the university, members of the faculty and guests.

"Civilization is the linkage of order, culture and freedom," stated Dr. Durant, "with order the predominant factor in today's world. Order is the mother of freedom, just as chaos is the mother of dictatorships."

Dr. Durant believes that although we do not now rank uppermost in world civilizations, by the end of the century we will have attained that greatness.

The prominent author was born at North Adams, Mass., and is a graduate of Columbia University, New York. For a summer he served as a cub reporter on the New York Journal, but gave it up to teach in Seton Hall College, South Orange, N. J.

After a tour of Europe in 1912, he took up graduate work at Columbia University, studying biology and philosophy. He received the Ph.D. degree there and then teaching philosophy at Columbia University for one year.

Based on his lectures given in a New York church, Durant began preparation for his book, "The Story of Civilization." To this training he owed the success of "The Story of Philosophy" which sold over 2,000,000 copies since its publication, and has been translated into 12 languages.

Durant retired in 1927 to give all his time to his life work, "The Story of Civilization." For this purpose he traveled twice around the world and four times through Europe.

Dr. Durant appeared at the university this morning under the Fulton lecture foundation. The income of this foundation is used to bring annually to the university some leader in the field of science, art, literature or public affairs, to give a lecture on a special subject.

This was Dr. Durant's second lecture at the university, having spoken here during the academic year of 1927-1928.

AED TO SPONSOR DRIVE FOR SALE OF XMAS SEALS

A drive for the sale of tuberculosis Christmas seals will be held on campus next week sponsored by Alpha Epsilon Delta, national pre-medical fraternity, according to Lorraine Serpentine, president, at a short meeting held in the agriculture building Tuesday night.

Dr. John Bibb, campus physician, gave a talk and showed a movie on tuberculosis before the meeting.

STUDENTS MAY REGISTER IN EXAM WEEK

Students can now secure railroad tickets and schedules and begin registration on the first day of examination week, continuing throughout the entire week, according to Dean Frederick Wood, dean of the college of arts and sciences.

In the past all students received their railroad tickets at the same time, schedules were a mystery until finally issued with the tickets, and at a given hour the entire campus gathered into the gym and began registration.

The new system will enable students to fill out a temporary program and hold leisurely conferences with advisors on the most convenient schedule. The long waiting line will be eliminated and where, before, the thought of registration brought up the picture of a very hectic day in the gym, the student can now register more efficiently. This new plan will be easier on both the students and professors, Dean Wood said.

Examinations begin on January 26 and official registration on February 4. Dean Wood urges students to get schedules and begin registering examination week.

Eight Freshmen Are Punished For Violations

Four freshman women, Betty Leads, Zo Schmitt, Jane Long and Barbara McQuary, this week may lose their student body privileges, subject to senate approval, for failing to help paint the N and subsequently failure to appear before the upperclass committee, according to Virginia Olesen, women's upperclass committee head, at a meeting Wednesday afternoon.

The committee will help the men's upperclass committee in enforcing the new parking regulations and assist Noel Willis with last minute registration of cars, Miss Olesen stated.

Starting with today's assembly the attendance of freshmen will be checked. All those who fail to appear at the assemblies will be called before the committee for punishment.

Freshman women before the group at Wednesday's meeting were Eleanor Norris, who for two violations will not be allowed to wear any makeup for a week, Dorothy Gennette, Lydia Rassuchine and Ruth Metzger for a first violation will wear large plaid bows.

Students Study Own Community

Evansville, Ind. (IP)—Evansville College announces completion of a significant survey report entitled, "A College Studies Its Community." The survey grew out of a project in which the college cooperated with the Evansville public schools on a report of the educational needs of the city. The report is divided into two sections, one devoted to the public schools and the other to the college.

Of interest in the introduction of the college section are such statements: "In the last few years the college has been carefully re-examining its educational function. A forward looking college development program has been developed which envisions a building expansion to permit implementation of the new program which has emerged."

In analyzing the collegiate educational needs which are non-technical, the report traces the growing interest in the community in art, drama, music and general liberal arts, and suggests possible ways of meeting the growing needs. Pre-professional education and technical education needs likewise receive detailed consideration.

IN CHARGE OF ARRANGING JUNIOR PROM

Two Small Guests At SAE House Not Uninvited

By George Hadley Himes

Some consternation was caused by two skunks who have taken residence in the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity house on Evans Avenue. Some of the roomers, who are staying at the house till the fraternity members move in next month, were alarmed at the presence of their nocturnal guests and summoned the Reno police force.

The policemen, sensing the danger in the presence of this odoriferous animal, immediately sent some of their most accomplished hunters to the scene.

The halfway in which the animals were cornered was immediately barricaded with almost every piece of furniture available in the house. One of the more accomplished hunters attempted to apply the principle of the pinchers movement to capture the animal, others stayed at a safe distance behind the barricade. Proving more wily than the hunters, the skunk escaped down a small hole.

According to local newspapers, the members of the fraternity who will move into the house in January are looking around for some means of evicting the animals. They were mistaken. The skunks are the house mascots known affectionately to the members of the fraternity as Little Esther and Little Flower, and are not uninvited guests at all.

Fine Arts Club Are Displaying W. R. Rice Prints

The Fine Arts Club is presenting a selection of 28 original etchings and wood block prints by William S. Rice, who is from Oakland, California, and Virginia City, has displayed several of his art exhibits before in Reno.

The colored pictures are made by block prints, each color being applied by a different block. The black and white pictures are dry point copper plate etchings.

Each individual picture has been intricately executed. The pictures are on sale at prices ranging from $1 to $5 a picture. This exhibit will be on display in the art department until Tuesday, December 18.

THETA SOCIAL HELD

Kappa Alpha Theta entertained campus men at a social held at their chapter house on Thursday from 7:30 until 9 pm. Dancing and cards were featured and refreshments were served. Alice Etchart was in charge of the social and was assisted by Lois Post and Shirley Platt.

Fewer Cases of Flu Reported This Week At U of N Infirmary

A flu epidemic prevailed on the campus last week with many students confined to the infirmary, while others were in dormitories, sorority houses and private homes with the malady.

Mrs. Pippa Phillips, R. N., in charge of the infirmary, reports that it is impossible to estimate the number of cases because the number confined to the university hospital changed every day. Many cases were probably unreported, she said.

Eleven students were confined to the infirmary with flu this week, Jane Long, Carol Dundee, Florence Shakarian, Ray Stout, David Gram-kow, Bill Gereghy, Edward Robertson and Carl Robinson, who were all dismissed by Thursday.

Isabel Blythe, Ethel Longabaugh and Bill Gillis expect to leave this weekend.

Fashion Show To Be Held On January 11

Arrangements are being completed to obtain the clothes to be modeled at the AWS fashion show scheduled for Friday, January 11, in the new gym, according to Virginia Olesen, clothes chairman for the affair.

Various downtown stores will be asked to lend outfits. The models will be assigned to the stores next week, Miss Olesen said.

Ski clothes, formals, fur coats, slacks, pedal pushers (knee length slacks), sweaters and skirts, date and sport dresses, suits, and house coats will be worn by the models.

EQUIPMENT FOR EE SOUGHT BY PROFESSOR

James R. Van Dyke, professor and acting head of the school of mechanical engineering, left for Los Angeles late Tuesday afternoon where he will confer with the heads of aircraft plants about making applications for surplus property which might be secured for laboratory equipment for U of N engineering laboratories.

On the way back to Reno, Professor Van Dyke will stop in Las Vegas to investigate possibilities of obtaining equipment from the basic magnesium plant there.

Alumni Chapter Charter Issued To Vegas Group

The first University of Nevada alumni chapter charter to be issued in the state of Nevada was granted on Sunday, November 25, when university graduates gathered in Las Vegas' Biltmore Hotel for the formal ceremony. The presentation of the charter was tendered by John Edward Chism, president of the alumni association and Oscar Bryan, newly elected prexy of the Las Vegas chapter accepted the honors.

Attended by a large number of university alumni, the granting of the charter marked the first of a series of chapters to be established throughout the state. Chapters in Elko and Ely are expected to be added within the next few months.

Principal speakers for the alumni meeting included Dr. John O. Moseley and Chism. They were accompanied south by a large delegation from Reno.

Before returning on Monday, Dr. Moseley addressed the Las Vegas high school student body on the subject, "The 'T' Formation of a Star in the Game of Life."

U of N High on List Of Colleges to Get AAF ROTC Programs

A survey recently conducted by army air force officers to ascertain the possibility of installing an AAF ROTC program "on the hill" disclosed that the University of Nevada rates among the top colleges in the nation for acceptability in the proposed post-war air program.

In a letter to Dr. John O. Moseley, president of the university, Lt. Col. Bryson R. Bailey, San Francisco air corps liaison officer, expressed the opinion that the course will be added to the university curricula at the earliest possible date.

Invitation Dance Will Be Held By Home Ec Club

Home Economics Club will present an invitation dance Tuesday night in the home economics rooms of the agriculture building, according to Blanche Parker, chairman of the dance committee.

Peggy Echevarria will be in charge of entertainment and Dace Ricketts and Dorothy Thomas will serve on the refreshment committee.

Hostesses for the affair will be Anita Iriarte, Dorothy Thomas, Maie Nygren, Jean Scott, Maxine Jones and Jean Hamilton.

WSSF Drive Ends On Campus; $1069 Contributed

Four Groups Make 100 Per Cent Donations, Students Commended

Nevada went over the top on the World Student Service Fund drive with contributions totalling $1069.48, according to report made Wednesday at the end of the drive by Billy Heath, chairman.

Contributions were still coming in today and those who have not yet contributed may still do so by contacting any WSSF solicitor. Gamma Phi Beta, Delta Delta Delta, Kappa Alpha Theta and Zeta Phi Zeta reached their goals of 100 per cent donations for their respective groups. The Independents followed with 98 per cent contributions, Pi Beta Phi with 75 per cent and Lambda Chi Alpha with 62 per cent.

Contributing largely to the success of the drive, Miss Heath said, was the work done by Dr. Ernest Inwood and his faculty soliciting committee, and by Gloria Mapes and Jim Glynn and members of their soliciting group which included Marilyn Reynolds, Jacquie Prescott, Bill Ward, Royden Beardall, Bob Durham, Gordon Mills, Noel Willis, Maie Nygren, Myrl Nygren, Judy Bogard and Paul Parraguire.

Also aiding in the work for the WSSF drive was the publicity committee, responsible for the 15 minute KOH roundtable discussion, and consisting of Bill Ward, chairman, Mitz Maestretti and Jim Coleman.

Planning committee was composed of the committee chairmen and Betty Poe, treasurer; Margaret Moseley, secretary, and Miss Helen Rachie, advisor.

All of the elementary schools in Reno and Reno high school, contributed to the drive under the leadership of Randall Ross, supervisor of elementary schools. WSSF was explained to students in every room of these schools, and in an assembly at the high school, by students of the university public speaking classes. Professor William C. Miller appointed Bob Durham, George Himes, Joyce Neilsen, Helen Brania, Marilou Ferguson and Bonnie Yturbe as speakers.

Eldredge Speaks To Chi Delta Phi

"Celebrities Off Guard" was the theme of an informal reading delivered by Dr. Paul Eldredge at a Chi Delta Phi meeting held Thursday evening at the Pi Beta Phi house.

Dr. Eldredge read letters written to a former associate by authors of note—Jack London, Owen Wister, Robert Chambers, Booth Tarkington and Joseph Hergesheimer.

President Eileen Kerr also announced that Chi Delta Phi will sponsor an invitational tea to be given in the English seminary on January 16. Gareth Hughes, Shakespearean actor, will be the guest speaker at the gathering, which is under the direction of Virginia Olesen. Jeanne Chartier will assist Miss Olesen with arrangements.

The resignation of Miss Florence Billingham, former club advisor, was accepted and Dr. Charlton G. Laird, head of the department of English, will be invited to be sponsor for the group.

Submissions for the campus literary magazine to be published next spring are now in order, Miss Kerr concluded. Maurya Wogan is the magazine editor and poems, short stories and essays may be addressed to her.

Jordan Eliades, Janet Lower and June MacFarlane have dropped school in the last week, according to Mrs. Jeanette Rhodes, registrar. This makes a total of 29 students that have dropped thus far in the semester, bringing the total enrollment to 658 students.

WHY NOT HERE?

You might list this under food for thought. Although Nevada cannot compare in size to UC at Berkeley nor to the University of Idaho, it can compare in progressiveness. But it seems that both of these larger colleges caught us napping. Both have recently instituted college radio programs. Nevada need not have been caught without one.

A broadcasting station operated by Idaho students is on the air for three and one-half hours each day during the week. Known as KUOI the station was established only after considerable difficulty and hard work. At UC the students listen to Vince Cullinane over KRE from 9:30 to 10 pm every Monday night. This campus gab program is sponsored by Roos Bros. There are a number of other colleges on the west coast which have similar weekly radio programs.

Students here at Nevada have appreciated the work of Jim Coleman in arranging special student broadcasts from time to time. However to institute a program for Nevada students, the work would necessitate the aid of many students.

There are many pessimistic souls on this campus who will have many reasons why such a program over KOH might be impossible. The answer is obvious. Other colleges have done it—so can we.

Home Ec Department To Hold Annual Xmas Tea on Tuesday

The traditional Christmas tea given by the home economics department will be held Tuesday, December 18, from 4 to 5 pm in the agriculture building. More than a hundred invitations have been mailed out.

Everyone in the department will take part in the tea arrangements under the direction of a steering committee consisting of one girl from each class and an arts and science major.

The room will be decorated in the Christmas theme with evergreen and candles. Several carols will be sung during the afternoon.

"How much is the toll, mister?" asked two old women of a Catskill tollgate keeper.

"Twenty cents for man and a horse."

"Well, then, get the hell out of the way—we're two old maids and a mare. Giddap, Jenny!"

LIBRARY TO BE CLOSED FROM DEC. 23 TO JAN. 1

The university library will be closed on December 23, 24, 25, 30 and January 1. It will remain open from 9 am to 12 pm Saturday, December 22, and will be open during the hours of 9 am to 12 noon and 1 to 4 pm, for the other days of vacation.

Approximately 75 books are overdue at the library, and James J Hill, librarian, has requested that as many of them as possible be returned before vacation begins.

CORRECTION

In last week's interview with Dr. Philip Gerald Auchampaugh, the statement was published in paragraph nine, "In the old days of the czars there were pro-Russian groups within the United States trying to Russinize the American way of life." This should have read "In the old days of the czars there were no pro-Russian groups within the United States trying to Russinize the American way of life."

STRICTLY FROM HUNGER

By Roger Dodger

Rog is working under a terrible strain this week—something seems to have gone wrong with the ball bearings in our little portable. Sorry, no caps. Does anybody want to buy a typewriter, ding?

All right, all right, so those white leather seats in the Troc turned out to be pink. Anyone can make a mistake, can't they? . . . Rog is all wild, blue and yonder over the return of the ski carnival to the hill. Our stem Christie isn't exactly perfect yet, but we'll be on hand for the festivities. . . . Speaking of skiing, and we just were, have you heard about the new magnesium skis? They're non-splintering, unwarpage, as flexible as hickory and 10 per cent faster on a 20 degree slope. But that's not for us—we're still trying to figure out how to put the brakes on the good old fashioned kind. . . . If the frenzied activities of Pat Riley, less Harvey and Phil Snyder are any indication, the junior prom ought to be a tearing success. These super decorators have been dashing around like mad delivering shellac and glisties to various members of the prom paper hanging committee. . . . Ex-marine Lt. Like mystery fan Tommy Thompson, Rog likes to sit up till 3 am reading detective stories, and one of the best he's run across in a long time is Erich Ambler's "A Coffin for Dimitrios." Moom picture fans will remember it "The Mask of Dimitrios." A real thriller, but Rog thinks the book's much better. . . . Those block prints and etchings (stop howling, you wolves) selling for $2.50 to $5 at the fine arts exhibit make nifty Christmas gifts for those difficult people. . . . Montana Provides Housing Units For War Veterans

Missoula, Mont. (IP) — Montana State University has contracted to lease 50 houses from the Federal Public Works Administration for war veteran use. The insulated plywood structures will be moved here from Richland, Wash., probably this year, although a definite time has not been set.

Partly furnished and consisting of living room, kitchenette, bath and shower and one, two and three bedrooms, the houses will be brought by truck to various universities and colleges which have applied for the buildings. The FPHA will deliver some 500 houses at the same time to schools in the Pacific northwest area, it was disclosed. The structures formerly were used by war workers.

Culmination of the lease project came after representatives of colleges in Montana, Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Wyoming and Utah met with national housing authority and the officials of FPHA early last month at Richland to request that specific plans be formulated to relieve the acute housing shortage of veterans.

The university had been working for more than two months to bring in the houses for returned service men and their families. All houses will have some furniture, refrigerators, water heaters, kitchen equipment and linoleum floors and will be electrically lighted and heated. The houses are said to be painted in different colors but are similar in structure.

Picture Schedule For Book Told

No more student pictures for the Artemisia will be taken by the Arcade studio until after the first of the year because of the Christmas rush, according to Alice Etchart, editor. All students whose pictures have not been taken must go to the Arcade during the week following vacation if they wish to have their pictures in the year book.

The cover design, drawn by Lew Hymers, well known Reno artist, has been sent to the Babcock Cover Company to be made.

Copywriters are trying out for the various articles. Those who are now writing include Virginia Olesen, Jo Miller and Vivian Davis. Besides copy writers, typists are urgently needed by Miss Etchart.

Office workers now helping the editor are Betsy Seddon, Kay Sterling, Yolo Musso, Doris Hanssen, Naomi Batjer, Dorothy Hooper, Madeline Etchegaray and Marilyn James.

Dear Editor:
I saw and read (I am one of your regular readers) an article in last week's Brush which stated that our lovely head yell leader wants a wolf for a mascot.

Well, I want to call attention to the fact that we have at least 50 here at Lincoln Hall, and she would be welcome (I'm sure) to come up any time and pick out one or maybe two from our varied assortment.

Nevada Quintet Downs Navy Team Wednesday Night by Score of 40 to 24

Wolves Play Sacramento College Tonight, To Challenge Mather Field on Saturday

University of Nevada's basketball team scored a 40-24 victory over Fallon Navy here Wednesday night in a rough and tumble game in which 31 fouls were called. The win was not an impressive one as the Wolf Pack continually missed close-in shots and bogged down on both offense and defense.

Coach Jake Lawlor substituted freely as he has done in the three previous games giving each player a chance to show his merits before the staging of the big tournament here December 28 and 29 against Stanford, Utah and UC.

Rough Contest
The game was so rough that no one player had a chance to exhibit much basketball ability. Jim Mackay did a good job handling the ball and capitalized on his foul shots by sinking six out of seven. He also copped three field goals to take high point honors with 12 points.

Darwin Farnsworth, whose shoulder is stiff from a broken collar bone suffered during football season, proved to be the "shot in the arm" when he was inserted in the game. His driving floor play and one-handed push shots were a contributing factor in the Nevada triumph.

Ebby Robertson, just recovering from a flu attack, looked good on his drive-in shots under the basket, and helped open up the Navy defense. "Smoky" Smolinski grabbed more than his share of rebounds and tapped in three baskets to be one of the evening's big guns.

Both Teams Miss
Neither team could find the basket consistently at the beginning of the game. The first quarter ended 8-4. Nevada momentarily came to

More Riflemen Needed for Nevada's Team

With rifle matches already arranged with Montana State, Pittsburgh, Pa., Louisiana State and Oklahoma A & M, M/Sgt. Michael McCormick, military science instructor, this week issued an urgent demand for more riflemen. At present only 12 ROTC students are vying for the team and 20 are needed to form the nucleus of a good squad.

Sgt. McCormick further stated that facilities in the partially completed $12,000 range, located underneath the old gymnasium, are the most elaborate on the west coast. Practices are held on Tuesday and Thursday evenings starting at 7.

Members of the Nevada rifle team are annually awarded rifle N's for participation.

Introducing . . . Nevada Veterans

Noel Willis answered the call of his country by enlisting in the army air corps and leaving the university in February, 1943. He went first to Ellensburg, Washington, for indoctrination flying and CTD training. In May, 1943, Willis received his classification as a navigator at Santa Ana, California. From Santa Ana he went to Texas for pre-flight training at Ellington Field, gunnery at Harlingen and advanced navigation at Hondo Field. February 26, 1944, ended the "battle of Texas" when Willis was commissioned a second lieutenant.

Trained in Cuba
After being assigned to B-29s and the first air group in Westover Massachusetts. Lieutenant Willis went to Savannah, Georgia, and Cuba for further training.

In June, 1944, Willis left for England. He flew across in the B-29 and arrived in England on July 4, 1944. In England Willis was assigned to the 801 bomber group. His first type of missions were operating "carpetbagging," flying support to the underground movement in France, Belgium, Denmark and Holland.

Given Promotion
In September of that year Willis was promoted to first lieutenant and started operations of flying gas to Patton's army in Belgium. The 801 group delivered 900,000 gallons in seven days from an English base. A rest was awarded the group by returning to England to study night bombing from the RAF in November and December. This group did the only night bombing by U. S. heavy bombers.

Arrives Home
In March, 1945, Willis came home to Reno for the first time since February, 1943, and after 30 missions. He reported to Santa Ana for reassignment, but the news of V-E day came before he got there. The demobilization plan was put through and Willis received his discharge on July 3, 1945.

Willis is now a junior agriculture major and president of Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity. He first enrolled at Nevada in the fall of 1940.

CRUCIBLE CLUB MEETING

A colored slide lecture, "Paricutin Volcano," given by Donald White, geologist with the U. S. Geological Survey, was the feature of the Crucible Club meeting Tuesday evening held in the Mackay School of Mines, according to Charles Crow, president of the organization. A regular business meeting was held in conjunction with the lecture.

WAA Volleyball Slates Final Game Tuesday

WAA championship volleyball game is scheduled to be played at the old gymnasium at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon when the Sleeky Minks and the Bonecrushers meet to take a crack at the title.

Three teams, the Sagers, Sleeky Minks and the Unknowns, were chosen from the freshman class. The sophomores fielded the Bonecrushers and the upperclass team was called of Atomic Six.

Monday the Unknowns played the Sagers with the Unknowns taking a close 32-31 victory. The Bonecrushers took on the Atomic Six with the Atomic Six coming out on the short end of a 43-19 score. The Sleeky Minks drew a bye.

The Unknowns met the Sleeky Minks Tuesday and lost, 34-30.

The consolation game, also played Tuesday, featured the two first day losers, the Atomic Six and the Sagers. The Sagers took the consolation title with a 41-33 score.

Captains of the two teams competing for the title are Josephine Marisquirena of the Bonecrushers and Dorothy Delmoe of the Sleeky Minks. Jean Hamilton heads the consolation winning Sagers. Captain of the Atomic Six is Myrl Nygren while the Unknowns' captain is Yolanda Musso.

WAA badminton will begin next week.

Girls Dorms to Hold Annual Xmas Parties

Next Wednesday evening at 11 o'clock the girls of Artemisia and Manzanita halls will gather around their respective fireplaces for the annual Christmas parties. Both halls are to be decorated in the yuletide spirit, while Christmas trees will add the finishing touch.

The girls will sing Christmas carols and various forms of entertainment will be presented. One of the features of the evening will be an exchange of surprise gifts among the girls at the time that St. Nick makes his appearance. Hot chocolate and doughnuts will comprise the refreshments.

McCormick Promoted To Rank of M-Sgt.

Michael McCormick, military science instructor at the university since 1938, this week was promoted to the rank of master sergeant, the highest enlisted grade in the army. The order authorizing McCormick's elevation came from the office of Lt. General William E. Shedd, commanding officer of the ninth corps area, located in Fort Douglas, Utah.

A professional soldier for the past 21 years, M/Sgt. McCormick has served overseas in Hawaii, Panama and Cuba.

The Bell System plans an extensive trial of two-way radio in providing telephone service to vehicles in a number of large cities.

Connections with other telephones will be made through the nearest of several receiving and transmitting stations operated by the telephone company. It is generally similar to the existing ship-shore radio telephone service for vessels in coastal and inland waters.

The main job right now is making more telephones available for those who have been waiting for regular service. But as soon as the new equipment can be built the Bell System will begin extending telephone service to vehicles.

Courses in EE Opened to Frosh Students

Beginning engineering courses will be offered to freshmen during the second semester this year, according to Stanley G. Palmer, dean of the college of engineering.

"Ordinarily in engineering beginning courses may not be taken in the second semester, but this has been changed this year in order that returning servicemen may start their college work immediately," Dean Palmer said.

Fifty Expected
At least 50 veterans with two or three years service in the armed forces are expected to enroll in the college of engineering and take beginning mathematics, chemistry, English and drawing classes after Christmas.

Arrangements are also being made to give second semester freshman mathematics and chemistry in summer schools for men who enter this spring. This will enable these students to start school next fall with math and chemistry completed.

Many to Return
Dean Palmer reported that from one to two returned veterans have called him every day for the past month saying that they will enroll at the university after Christmas.

Annual Xmas Dance Of Gamma Phi Beta To Be Held Tonight

Gamma Phi Beta will hold their Christmas formal dance tonight at the Gamma Phi Beta house at 9 o'clock with Johnny Bradley's orchestra furnishing the music. A Tom and Jerry party will be held before the dance at 7:30 at the home of Toy Farrar at 31 Keystone Street.

A Christmas theme was used to decorate the house under the direction of Eileen Kerr and Jac Peterson. A buffet turkey dinner will be served with Jane Wilcox in charge.

Guests at the dance will be Mr. and Mrs. Steven Moore, Miss Catherine Griffen, Miss Madge Elder, Miss Margaret Griffen, Mrs. Merivina Doherty and the house mother, Mrs. H. W. Seamon.

Frosh Violators Receive Swats

For not wearing the traditional dink on campus, Dick Rowley and Dick Gorman were punished this week by the men's upperclass committee with the customary swats. Administering the punishment was Noel Willis, head of the committee.

Willis reported that the upperclass committee has completed car registration with a few faculty and student owners remaining to sign up. Their autos may do so through the men's or women's upperclass committee of at the office of Paul Parraquiere, student body president.

Posters have been placed on the grounds indicating parking zones and who may use them. Willis concluded that no differentiation will be made between upperclass men and lowerclass men, since only 20 cars have been registered by upperclass students.

Committee members assisting Willis are Haskel Tarlow, Clayton Trigerio, Jack Dieringer, John Jensen, Jim Glynn, Royce Gregory, Bob Craig, Hugh Wilton and Doug Laurner.

POLI HAS APPENDECTOMY
Johnny Poli, freshman, was rushed to Washoe general hospital December 12, for an emergency appendicitis operation. Poli, Lambda Chi pledge from Yerington, is reported to be improving.

Christmas Party Of YWCA Slated For This Sunday

Popcorn balls will be a feature of the decoration at the YWCA Christmas party to be held in the basement of Stewart Hall Sunday, December 16, from 7 to 9:30 pm. Committee chairman and members met Thursday evening to make the popcorn balls, according to Mary Hill and Jini Auchampaugh, who are in charge of decorations.

Margaret Moseley, chairman of the party has announced that although informal clothes are to be worn, those attending are asked not to wear slacks and jeans as was formerly announced.

Special guests invited to the affair are Mrs. Alice B. Marsh, acting dean of women; Mrs. Georgia Ann Mershon, assistant librarian; Miss Helen Rachie, YWCA campus secretary; Mrs. John D. Bibb, president of the YWCA advisory board, and Mrs. William Miller, member of the advisory board.

Tri-Delts Honor Faculty Members

University faculty members were honored at a party given by Tri-Delta sorority Wednesday at the chapter house.

The professors' party is an annual event at which the professors spend a social evening with some of their students. A spelling bee was held and card games were played. The Tri-Delta chorus led the group in singing Christmas carols.

Refreshments of pie a la mode and coffee were served. Pat Ireland and Sylv Geraghty were co-chairmen in charge of the party and were assisted by Janet DaCosta, Pat Rovezzi and Gloria Mapes.

Zeta Phi Zeta Dance To Be Held Tonight

Zeta Phi Zeta's annual Christmas dinner dance will take place this evening at Club Fortune for members of the organization and their guests.

With a snowman theme, and with snowball placecards carrying out the theme, the table for the occasion will be attractively decorated. Ann Uriarte is the chairman in charge of the dance, while Zella Leavitt, Jean Scott and Blanche Parker are committee members.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Whitlatch and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Durkin will be guests at the dinner.

Univ. Represented At Convention

University of Nevada was well represented by students and faculty members at the annual Nevada State Farm Bureau convention held in Reno this week.

Dr. Cecil Creel, dean of the college of agriculture, spoke on "Plans for College of Agriculture" at Tuesday's meeting. Miss Margaret Griffin, assistant director of home economics, chose the subject, "The Extension Program in 1946."

Miss Lois Post presented a violin solo and the university choir sang three selections at a dinner held at the Twentieth Century Club.

Other speakers were Dr. O. F. Smith, pathologist connected with the university; Dr. Edward Records, director of the state veterinary control service, and Paul Maloney, district extension agent.

John O. Moseley, president of the university, and Silas Ross, chairman of the board of regents, spoke briefly.

Visitor: "I can't tell you how delighted I am, Mrs. Giles. My son Reggie has won a scholarship."
Farmer's Wife: "I can understand your feelings, ma'am. I felt just the same when our pig won a medal at the agricultural show."

Christmas Dinner Planned at Hall

The traditional Christmas dinner held at the university dining hall will be Sunday, December 16, at 2 pm for all regular students who eat at the dining hall and invited guests.

Guests are to be President and Mrs. John O. Moseley, Vice-President and Mrs. Charles H. Gorman, Dean and Mrs. Frederick Wood, Professor and Mrs. Theodore H. Post, Dr. and Mrs. Robert S. Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. Silas E. Ross, Mrs. Alice B. Marsh, Mrs. Ludivca Graham, Dr. Ernest L. Inwood, Mr. E. Diamond, Mrs. Frank Humphrey, Mrs. S. K. Morrison, Mr. H. Kittle, Madlen Maestretti and Paul Parraquiere.

The turkey dinner will consist of four courses and will be served under the direction of Jim Mackey. The tables will be decorated with the Christmas theme of pine cones and red ribbon. Christmas carols will be sung by the entire group.
