In delegating such powers to this group, the senate brings within its grasp an inside view of happenings as they affect individual groups and the student body as a whole. If this newly-formed group takes full advantage of the authority vested in it, it is possible that a good number of problems now facing the students may be solved soon.

It is our hope that the investigating committee carries forward the aims which led to its establishment.

NEVADA VETERANS . Record of Bob O'Shaughnessy Leaves No Margin for Superstition Charge

Take the case of Bob O'Shaugh nessy, for example. Bob, or "Shag" as he is known, is probably the most fearless person alive. He had to have plenty of that well known fortitude as a pilot of a C-46 to survive a landing during enemy ar-tillery shelling; two crack-ups; ferrying gasoline at night in the Phil-ppines; a 150 mile per hour ty-phoon on Okinawa, and 1500 hours

The Beginning
The saga of Mr. O'Shaughnessy's overseas service really dates back to september, 1941, when he entered the university and proceeded to em-blazon his name on local sports annals as one of the greatest athletes in the history of the school. Until he went to war, Bob was just about as near to being a one school team as ever existed. His first year in the colors of the Silver and Blue he cracked the school's basketball scoring record against San Jose State by nudging 30 points through the hoop. He followed that up with a 31-point demonstration in 1942 against the Cal Aggies.

The same year he ranked as one of the three leading scorers on the victorious Wolf Pack track squad counting 49 points in four meets.

Twice that season he broke the tape for the 100 yard dash in the respec-table time of 9.8 and on several occasions cleared 22 feet six inches in the broad jump.

Melarkey Breaks Into 300-Point Scoring Ring; Tallies 27 Points in Weekend Series With Dons

After receiving one of their worst scares of the season, the University of Nevada basketeers scored an uninspiring 49 to 38 victory Friday night over an undermanned University of San Francisco five to register their twenty-third win of the season.

After an erratic and sloppy first half which found the locals trailing 27 to 23, Nevada decided to change tactics. Switching to a driving fast break they wore the Dons down by speed and power, took over the lead and was never headed although se-4 riously threatened throughout the Johnson who just joined the squad

"Howitzer" Jim Mackey, Neva-da's other long range firer, had the same trouble with his mid-court shots, but switched to a driving game and picked up 10 points. Grant Davis who has really found himself lately tallied 10 points to keep the Pack in the game in the first half.

Regulars Out

San Francisco's sorely missed reg-ulars, John Flaherty and Harold Beveridge were left behind in a sick bed. Their heighth and experi-ence might have read a different ending into the story.

Saturday night was a sharp contrast to the Friday night affair as Nevada returned to form and dis-Nevada returned to form and dis-played a dazzling passing and driv-ing game. Seizing control of the game in the first few minutes the Wolf Pack couldn't be stopped as they rolled up a 61 to 36 revenge for the scare they were given the previous night.

"Catapult" Jim Melarkey broke into the 300-point scoring ring as he tanked 15 points on his now famous jump shot. "Shag" O'Shaughnessy tallied 10 shots and was responsible for several others as he fed teammates driving into the bucket. Mackey's passing and Davis' lay-ins contributed to the victory. San Francisco couldn't match the speed and passing of the locals and tired early. Lawlor substituted freely in the second half to keep the score from mounting too high. Les

Nevada Pugilists In Lassen Debut

The University of Nevada Wolf Pack boxing squad makes its first public appearance of the 1946 season on March 2 when they journey to Susanville to take on the strong Lassen Junior College squad. The six match contest will be part of the California college's Homecom-ing day celebration and will include bouts in the heavyweight, light heavyweight, junior welterweight, senior welterweight and middleweight divisions. Led by Mervin Evans, ex-middleweight golden gloves contender, the Lassen scraps will provide plenthe Lassen teaches with provide particular ty-of needed experience for the local amateur pugilists who meet Stanford late in March. Date for a return engagement with Lassen in Reno has tentatively been scheduled for March 16.

First Session

Despite inadequate training facilities, Coach Dick Taylor this week sent his charges through their first sparring session of the season. Jack Swobe and Frenchy Laxalt, only members of the squad with previ-ous ring experience, were particu-larly impressive while John Ken-tera proved that he will be tough to handle in the heavyweight divi-

With 20 men now vieing for place on the squad, Coach Taylor issued an invitation to all members of the student body interested in boxing to report to the gymnasium at 4 in the afternoon.
