Also working with Miss Cole but not in the picture were Mel Rotvetti, Ty Short, Art Johnson and Bill Gillis.

With a few dollars yet to come in to complete the university quota, Virginia Cole today announced that three sororities and one fraternity contributed 100 per cent to conclude the successful Red Cross drive. The organizations were KAT, Tri-Delta, Pi Phi and one fraternity, Theta Chi. Nevada's quota was $800.—Modern Photo.

TWELVE WOMEN, THREE MEN CHOSEN TO WHO'S WHO IN AMERICAN COLLEGES

JOBS SECURED FOR VETERANS VIA AIR LANES

The veterans program, broadcast each Thursday afternoon from 5:15 to 5:30 from KOH for the purpose of finding part time employment for servicemen returning to the campus, is getting good results. According to a recent report from the office of veterans affairs, public response to this program has provided many new jobs for veterans affairs.

The office of veterans affairs announced that offers of part time jobs have been pouring in since the radio program was aired. Jobs are being filled as rapidly as possible but at present there are more offers than there are vets in need of jobs, according to Dr. Robert S. Griffin, veterans administrator. Part time employment of every type and description has been offered ranging from "houseboy wanted" to "night watchman," gardening, and dry cleaning. Any veteran in need of part time work is urged to get in touch with the office of veterans affairs located in Morrill Hall.

Student Directory To Appear Shortly

Sagen directory will be published in ten days to two weeks, according to Gloria Rosaschi, publication chairman of the book, which contains names, addresses and telephone numbers of University of Nevada students, faculty and activities.

Price of the directory is 15 cents, Miss Rosaschi said, and Jo Miller, Genevieve Siri and Maribeth Elkins are in charge of sales. Miss Rosaschi was assisted with publication by Betty Waugh, Florene Miller and Pat Traner.

Journalism Frat To Elect Members

New members will be elected to Kappa Tau Alpha, national honorary journalism fraternity, after the spring vacation, according to Professor A. L. Higginbotham, head of the department of journalism and member of the organization's grand council.

Kappa Tau Alpha was inactive last year due to the limited amount of students eligible for membership, Professor Higginbotham said. Members are elected from the highest ten per cent of the junior-senior journalism group at the university. Nevada chapter of the organization was established in the spring of 1936.

'Traveling Libe' Established at U.

Establishment of a "traveling libe" between the Washoe County Library and the university library, was announced by James J. Hill, librarian.

This new addition to the book shelves is made up of all fiction from the westerns of Zane Grey to recent editions by Nevil Shute and John Steinbeck.

Students are allowed to borrow these books one week with a one week renewal period, Hill stated. The books will be changed every three weeks.

Some of the books now available are "Babs in the Darkling Woods," H. G. Wells; "Pied Piper," Nevil Shute; "Latching Out," Skulder Baner; mysteries by G. D. and M. Howard.

Biology Dept. Says 'Strange Fruit' Not Wanted by University

A plant that smells like decayed meat and looks like a lily except for the fact that it also is the color of decayed meat, has been offered as a gift to the university, according to Dr. P. A. Lehenbauer, head of the biology department.

The strange plant, which averages a growth of eight inches a day during the blooming period, is known as the sacred lily of India. It is now a month old and 52 inches high.

Herbert Gruess, caretaker of the university greenhouse, and Dr. Lehenbauer were forced to refuse the gift as they are familiar with the plant and its odor.

The lily which originated as a bulb in India, was sent to Mrs. J. L. Hancock of 901 Ralston street.

State Newsmen To Gather Here For Conclave

Meeting journalistic post-war conditions will be the theme of the 1946 convention of the Nevada State Press Association to be held on the University of Nevada campus Saturday, March 22, according to Prof. A. L. Higginbotham, secretary.

Heading the list of speakers from the state and other parts of the country, is Frank H. Bartholomew of San Francisco, vice-president of the United Press Association, who will speak on his war experiences as a correspondent in Japan. Governor Vail Pittman of the Ely Daily Times will speak at the banquet beginning at 6:30 at the 20th Century Club.

A record-breaking attendance is anticipated, since no meeting has been held by the association for three years. Besides the banquet, a roundtable luncheon, a tea given by Mrs. John O. Moseley, and a breakfast for the Nevada Press Women will complete the convention's activities.

Group Discusses Soil Importance

"Your Health Depends Upon Soil," was the subject of discussion at the Faculty Club meeting held March 5, Dean Cecil W. Creel, president of the organization, stated.

Speakers at the meeting include Dr. W. D. Billings, vice-president of the Faculty Club; Mrs. V. E. Spencer of the agriculture experimental station, and Mrs. Andrew C. Rice of the agriculture extension service.

At the next meeting, to be held in home economics room April 9, President John O. Moseley will be the chief speaker, Creel said.

'Swede' Turnquist Is Elected A&M Prexy

Ellen "Swede" Turnquist, junior member of the ASUN senate, became the new president of Manzanita and Artemisia halls as the result of a ballot box election held last Wednesday, defeating candidates Barbara Whipple and Anne Iriarte.

The dormitory presidential election was held early this year so that the newly elected president would be able to accompany the group leaving for San Francisco today to study student government at the University of California and Stanford University.

1945-46 Activities, Enrollment Basis of Faculty Administrative Council's Choice

Senate Took Non-Participation Stand in Selection Of University of Nevada's BMO's for 1946

Fifteen University of Nevada students were chosen for Who's Who of American Colleges, it was announced this week by the faculty administrative council.

Paul Parraguire, Gordon Mills, Wilton Fryer, Maurya Wogan, Myrl Nygren, Frances Cook, Isabel Blythe, Pat Traner, Mary Ancho, Mary Watts Moore, Genevieve Siri, Charlotte Ferris, Lavina Ramelli, Tosca Masini and Valerie Scheeline are the students to be vested with Who's Who honors.

'Zebra Room' Theme Of Frosh-Soph Hop

Annual frosh-soph hop, featuring a "zebra room" setting, will be held in the State building Saturday, March 23.

Working under Phyllis Green, decoration chairman, are Carol Thomas, Norma Eason, Marilyn Reynolds, Virginia Casey, Violet Bangle, Betty Holmes, Roberta Whitney, David Gramkow and David Levison.

Forming the publicity committee are Betty Holmes, Ann Bergendorf, Phyllis Baker, Jean Walker and Virginia Casey. David Levison and Bob Sullivan are in charge of programs.

Enrollment Tops 1100 Students

Total enrollment at the University of Nevada this semester is 1100 at the close of late registration. This total is quite a boost over last semester's approximate 800 students. The 822 students are enrolled from the 17 Nevada counties, 173 from California, 99 from 32 other states, one from Canada, one from New Zealand and one from England.

There are approximately 635 men and 377 women enrolled. Three hundred and forty-five men in arts and science, 42 in engineering, 91 in the Mackay School of Mines, 71 in electrical engineering, 52 in mechanical engineering and 34 in agriculture. Four hundred and three women are registered in arts and science and 32 in the home economics department.

Future Teachers Number Twenty

Approximately 20 students will qualify for teachers' certificates at graduation this June, according to Dean Fred W. Traner, head of the education department.

These graduates will have no difficulty finding jobs as indicated by the amount of requests coming to the university from schools for teachers. That the shortage of teachers will probably continue was the opinion of Dean Traner. In other states especially, teachers are needed. Requests have been received from California and Washington, and Hawaiian schools are asking for 250 teachers to fill vacant positions.

SENIOR NOTICE

Samples of senior announcement cards and personal cards will be on display in the ASUN building Wednesday from 1 to 4 pm, Thursday from 2 to 4:30 pm and Friday from 1 to 4 pm.

There may be additional hours which will be announced at a later date, Frances Cook, senior class manager, said.

VETS PUT OFF DANCE PLANS UNTIL THURS.

With Stan Hill, vice-president, presiding in the absence of Bill Gillis, who is in Kansas City with the basketball squad, the student veterans voted to postpone the proposed dance plans until next week. Changing the meeting nights from Thursday to a more favorable evening was discussed.

The fact that the organization's constitution has not as yet been presented to the student senate was brought before the house and acting president Hill said that it would be put before the group at its next meeting.

Those present were informed of the possibilities of purchasing surplus government commodities with the veterans organization acting as an aide to anyone who wishes to investigate the plan.

The veterans radio program is aired weekly on Thursday afternoons over KOH. The primary purpose of the show is to help vets secure part-time employment, but with jobs pouring in faster than they can be filled, plans for changing the program to one of entertainment were proposed.

Maestretti To Be Celebrity on Program; Veteran Housing Problems To Be Heard

Madlen Maestretti, absent from her Brush editor's desk because of a recent accident, will be the celebrity of the week on "We'll Take It From Here," third in a series of university student broadcasts to be presented tomorrow night at 8:15, said Jim Coleman, program director.

"Veteran Housing" will be subject material for this week's feature, narrated by Bill Geraghty, while Bill Friel will present the editorial. Members of Delta Delta Delta, this Saturday's chooser of song of the week, will hear Alice Ruth Doyle sing "An Hour Never Passes," accompanied by Helen Brania on the piano. Society and the celebrity of the week will be presented to the radio audience by Helen Brania and Jo Miller. Don Ealy will announce.

Last Saturday's listeners heard Warren Hursh as announcer, with Don Ealy reading sports and front page news. Coach Jake Lawlor was interviewed as the celebrity of the

'Long Time No See' In K. C. For Mike and Jake

When Coach Jake Lawlor, Nevada basketball mentor, stepped from the plane that had borne him and his charges to Kansas City for the NAIB tournament, he was greeted by his brother Mike. The reunion was the first for the Lawlor brothers in six years.

Mike and Jake, both former U of N athletic greats, caused some eyebrow lifting with their hearty embraces, slaps upon the back and antics in general, but to the two Lawlors a reunion is a reunion whether it be in Kansas City or Podunk.

Six Students Working In University Libe

Six students, five women and one man, are now working in the university library, James J. Hill, librarian, announced.

These students, Naomi Batjer, June Harp, Dorothy Hooper, Barbara Olesen, Dorothy Pilkington and Sinclair Melner, assist the library staff in typing and filing, keeping the reserve book shelves in order, listing and indexing magazines, books and newspapers, and checking out books.

Sagebrush Editor Confined to Bed After Accident

Madlen Maestretti, editor of the Sagebrush, is confined to the Washoe General Hospital with head injuries received in an auto accident last Sunday morning.

Miss Maestretti, a senior student from Austin, is a member of Delta Delta Delta. She served as sports editor for the Sagebrush for two years before taking over the editorship. For her work on sports news, she was awarded the Italic N at last year's Mackay Day luncheon.

Her activities include Press Club, Chi Delta Phi, WAA and Saddle and Spurs. Her sister, Marjorie, is a sophomore student at the university.

There will be a nominating committee meeting Tuesday at 4 pm. The panel for Mackay Day committee will be drawn up and presented to the senate for approval next Wednesday night.

Faculty Member Named to Assist Student Veterans

Dr. Robert Griffin, coordinator of veteran affairs, announced the establishment of a veterans counselor service, the purpose of which is to provide veterans with assistance in problems, both personal and scholastic.

Professor Paul A. Harwood of the English department and a veteran of World Wars I and II, has been appointed to the post of veteran counselor. Prof. Harwood, Nevada graduate of 1924, attended Oxford University in England as a Rhodes scholar and has been a member of the faculty since 1927. He is prepared to give assistance to all vets in anyway possible.

Arrangements have been made with local attorneys to provide legal service of certain types for any veterans who may need it. Veterans are welcome to partake of this service whenever the occasion demands.

All veterans who are troubled at the end of the first sixes period will be referred to Professor Harwood and aid will be given wherever possible. Vets in need of advice are urged to call upon Prof. Harwood whose office is located in Morrill Hall, room 203.

ONE FOR THE LITTLE GUY

This is one for the little guy. The news columns of this paper are filled every week, as they should be, with news of students who have done something or who have been accorded honors in studies or in any of a variety of activities. These people may have arrived at such success as they have had through special talent, character, hard work, or in some cases, luck.

The important point to any student newspaper is the fact of what such students have done, or how they have been honored.

This, too, is as it should be. Our existence is one of competition. The victor deserves not only the spoils but recognition of his feats.

But there are a great number of Nevada students whose names do not appear in the Brush very often, and perhaps never are their names importantly displayed.

There may be many reasons for this. These comparatively anonymous people may simply lack special talents. They may have interests off the campus. They may have little time to study or participate in activities because they work. Or the reason may be simply inertia.

Because of the peculiar pride vested in most humans, these little guys may not realize, or want to realize, that they are being addressed in this piece. ("Little guy" is just a convenient figure used because it is obviously distinguished from "big shot.")

But in hope that some of the little guys are reading this, and understand what is meant, we want to say this:

You're the guts of the whole institution, and the foundation of everything that goes on here.

The frosting on top of a cake is attractive, but there has to be something else to hold it up where it is.

You're the something else, the important factor. Be duly proud of it.—Reprinted from an editorial by Bill Friel, Sagebrush editor, 1942.

Lost! One Sigma Nu pin belonging to Jimmy Goodin. It is suspected that it is the possession of Sue Hancock.

Also passing the cigars in the Sigma Nu house were Thad Holcomb, whose pin is being worn by Rosemary Gianelli, and Ty Short who sent his to Redding, California.

Lois Brown, former student on campus became Mrs. Robert Compston this Sunday at a ceremony at the Coventry Chapel in Smith Valley. Miss Brown will be attended by her sister, Lucille Brown Day, a Nevada graduate, and serving at her reception are Pat Riley, Suzanne Evans, Betsy Seddon, Naomi Batjer and Bobby Lou Chichester. Miss Brown is affiliated with Delta Delta Delta.

Ethel Pettis was married Saturday to Lt. Allan Saunders. The ceremony took place in the Methodist Church in Reno. Following the 3 pm wedding, a reception was held at the Pi Beta Phi chapter house of which Miss Pettis is a member.

Billie Jean Casey, who attended the university in 1943, is wearing the Beta Theta Pi pin of Grant Davis, returned veteran on campus. While attending Nevada, she was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta.

Ellen Reid of Lovelock, who attended the university until 1944, became the bride of John Beebe of San Francisco Monday evening, February 25, in the Reno Baptist Church. The new Mrs. Beebe was affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta.

Jeanne Walker, the proud possessor of Jack Owen's Sigma Rho pin, passed the traditional box of candy at the Gamma Phi Beta Monday night supper meeting. At the Kappa Alpha Theta house Carol Dundee was displaying the class ring of Jimmy Andrews.

Lois Bradshaw, graduate of the university, became Mrs. Charles Weston at a home ceremony Sunday noon. The former Miss Bradshaw was a journalism major and was affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta.

Jean Bicknell, junior member of Delta Delta Delta, who will be married in April, was honored by Freda Kornmeyer at a miscellaneous show-er last week. Attending were Jean Bicknell, Phyllis Snyder, Evelyn Payne, Dorothy Steng, Blanche Capurro, Lavina Ramelli, Shirley Campbell, Rose Nannini, Gen Siri, Freda Kornmeyer and Mrs. Shirley Fleming.

Food Price Survey Slated for Class

Starting last week, the freshman foods class began a food price survey in Reno at the request of Albert Meyer, director of the Washoe county welfare department, Miss Mildred Swift, head of the home economics department, said today.

Forty-two retail stores will be covered in the survey and an average price for various types of staples and other articles of food will be estimated. Myrl Nygren and Blanche Parker, dietetics majors, will be in charge of the nutritional estimate part of the survey.

Through the findings of this investigation, the welfare department will be able to give the correct amount of aid according to the age and health of the person in terms of today's food prices.

Sagebrush Poll Shows Students Approve Of Cords That "Can Stand by Themselves"

By Renny Reynolds
"Do you like men's cords of the soup stained, beer spotted, oil splattered variety, or do you have a tender sense of smell?" asked the conductor of the Sagebrush poll this week.

Oddly enough, the majority of both male and female students went on record as favoring those in the "stand-by-themselves" category.

Unfortunately neither Buster McClure nor Orsie Graves, the campus authorities on this subject, were available for a statement, but the following opinions were obtained:

Walter Tripp, freshman, said "I'm for dirty cords, it saves work and washing." Bill Ward, junior, said, "I don't mind them dirty, but when they get so rotten they come over and get you up in the morning, that's too much."

Paul, Too
Paul Parraguire, senior, (caught in the Den sporting a pair of odoriferous cords) stated, "I'm all for 'em. Not so filthy that they will stand alone, but just pleasantly dirty." Max Dodge, senior, said, "I like dirty cords. Water ruins them."

Eleanor Norris, freshman, said, "The men have a fit when girls wear clam diggers, but yet they go around looking like tramps. I'm against dirty cords." Paul Weaver, junior, stated, "Financial conditions as they are, dirty cords are practical as hell."

They Smell!
Jackie Ross, sophomore, said, "The smelly old things! Fellas would be awfully mad if girls wore the same uncleaned skirt every day for a semester." Jerry DeRushia, junior, said "I'm definitely against them, but if you see me wearing a pair next week, don't be surprised." Gene Evans, junior, stated, "When I wear cords I like to feel that I'm the master; when they get so strong they carry me around, that's too much. Make mine clean." Bill Gillis, sophomore, said that he believed that Orsie Graves' cords were the "epitome of masculinity."

Just for Kids
Bob O'Shaughnessy, junior, said, "I'm against them. Dirty cords should have been left back in high school." Betty Holmes, freshman, stated, "I'm for them. I like to see nice clean shoes, nice clean socks, and nice dirty cords. Right combination."

Tommy Thompson, veteran, said, "There may be a shortage of men's slacks, but there is no shortage of soap."

SURRENDER DOCUMENTS GIVEN TO DR. HICKS

Copies of the German and Japanese surrender documents were presented to Dr. Charles Hicks, head of the history department, by Earl Ross, graduate of the University of Nevada at present with the Treasury department.

Nevada Drops Out of NAIB Tourney Losing to Southern Illinois 66 to 58

O'Shaughnessy, Melarkey, Davis, Dodge Foul Out
In Final Minutes After Leading Entire Game

By a four basket margin Nevada's Wolf Pack lost the chance for national recognition when they fell in the last half of play before Southern Illinois Normal, 66-58, last night at the NAIB tournament in Kansas City.

During the first half Nevada started strong to outclass the Southern Illinois team. The half time whistle came with the Wolves ahead 32-24. With Don Cheffer, Illinois guard, taking control under the backboard with beautiful defensive work the tide of the game changed. When most needed Nevada's mainstays, Max Dodge, Jimmy Melarkey, Grant Dodge and Bob O'Shaughnessy, all took the five foul count. With only a short time to play, Illinois held the position to take over the game.

Illinois' Milosevich chalked up 21 points to take the high scoring honors for the game. "Shag" O'Shaughnessy totaled 20 points followed close by Melarkey with 16. For the games played to date O'Shaughnessy is ranked as second highest scorer of the tournament.

Win First Tilt

Winning their first game of the NAIB tournament Tuesday night 56-40 over Morningside University of Iowa moved Nevada's Wolf Pack into the second round of the Kansas City tilt.

Nevada led the game throughout after getting off to a slow start. Bob O'Shaughnessy sparked the Wolves and totaled up 20 points before Coach Lawlor pulled the regulars out in the last part of the game. Max Dodge played a fast ball game and Grant Dodge was credited with the top defensive play of the game.

Knock Off Texans

Knocking off West Texas State 60-46 Wednesday night in the second round of the tournament placed the Nevada team in the quarter finals.

The West Texas team was considered the dark horse of the tournament until its defeat, featuring a group of tall, fast ball players. Grant Dodge with 16 points was high scorer for Nevada, turning in his usual good work under the basket.

Tonight Illinois will meet Loyola University of New Orleans in one of the semi-final games while Pepperdine College of Los Angeles will be up against Indiana State.

The Wolf Pack will probably wait and return to Reno Sunday night by plane.

Fifty Men Attend Rifle Club Meeting

More than 50 men attended the first meeting of the Rifle Club last Friday afternoon at four o'clock in the Education building auditorium. Col. Gilbert E. Parker, ROTC head, is advisor for the organization of the group. The general program for the remainder of the semester was explained and a committee was appointed to draw up by-laws to be submitted at the next meeting. Dues were announced to be three dollars per semester.

Campus Boxing Team Bouts at Standstill

At present the campus boxing team situation is at a stand-still due to the recent cancellation of the Stanford bouts slated for the weekend of March 22. Stanford wired that they were unable to form a team suitable to represent the school in competition, and no new opponents have been definitely lined up. Dick Taylor, coach, said this week.

WOLF PACK RACKS UP HIGH TOTAL DURING SEASON PLAY

Scoring at a 48 point per game clip, the University of Nevada tallied 1439 points during its regular playing season while holding opposition to 1095 or a 36.5 average per tilt. The best offensive performance in a single game occurred the same evening as Nevada tanked 67 against the California Aggies and held them to 18.

Jim Aiken Says Spring Football To Open Monday

From the office of Jim Aiken, head football coach, comes the announcement that spring football will officially get under way Monday at 4 pm.

"We want everyone out that can possibly make it," said Coach Jim, "for it is in spring ball that a man makes the team. From all appearances, with the number of high caliber ball players on the campus, we should have a good turnout," Aiken went on to say.

Six Week Period

The practice sessions, once they get rolling, will continue for a six week period, ending sometime in May. The prospect of a favorable training period has been enhanced by the arrival of fair weathers which will allow the footballers to get in as much work as possible out of doors.

"Weather conditions are an important factor in our spring practice period," said Aiken. "The better the weather, the more outdoor work, and the better condition the men will be in when next fall rolls around."

Nevada Ski Team To Race for CSA

Events To Be Held on Mount Rose Slope

Six Nevada students will compete with nationally known skiers of downhill and slalom honors in the California Ski Association's championship tournament at Mt. Rose bowl this weekend.

Ashley Van Slyck, Eddie Meaker, Les Hawkins, Ted King, Jerry Brown and Lois Post are the students listed among the entrants.

The events of the two-day meet include a downhill race on Saturday at 12 noon and a slalom at 11 am on Sunday. Sunday's events will take place right at the bowl, Joe McDonald, Jr., chairman of the tournament said, while the down mountain race on Saturday will be held near Slide Mountain. The downhill course, which is almost two miles long, was set up by Warrent Hart, coach of the university ski team.

The record-holding entrants of the meet are the top-notch skiers of the country, MacDonald said. Among the entrants are Dick Movitz of Salt Lake City and Charles Knowlton of Aspen, Colorado, the new downhill and slalom champions of the National Ski Association.

The Reno Ski Club and the Reno Winter Sports Association are sponsoring the contest.

Freshmen English Hits High Mark With 22 Sections

Freshman English enrollment has reached an all time high, according to Dr. Charlton Laird, head of the English department. For the first time in its history, the University of Nevada is teaching 22 sections of freshman English and has been forced to add two full and two part-time instructors to its faculty.

During the spring semester, one section of frosh English is normally taught, but with the return of war veterans to the campus, nine classes of English one, one class of English A, ten classes of English two, and two classes of English literature are scheduled, making a record total of 22 sections in all.

Mrs. Maya Miller, wife of the curator of the State Museum located in Carson City, has been appointed full time instructor and has four sections assigned to her. Mrs. Miller received her M.A. at Cornell University and has previously taught English of high school and college level.

Edwin Semenza, a former instructor of dramatics and recently returned from the service, is teaching four English sections. Mrs. John Bibb, who previously instructed in the east, and Mrs. Harriet Spencer, an English instructor for the past year and who had hoped to retire this semester, have been temporarily appointed to the faculty staff. They are instructing two and three sections of freshman English respectively.

CONSULTING ENGINEER TALKS TO MATH CLUB

AAUW Schedules Buffet Supper For March 20

Thirty-nine senior women are to be introduced to members of the Reno chapter of the American Association of University Women at the annual buffet dinner March 20 at 6:30 at the 20th Century Club, stated Mrs. Mable Hartly, secretary of the local chapter.

All state chapters of the organization received invitations to the dinner. Mr. Edward C. Lamphier, regional vice-president of the national board of directors from California, will be the guest of honor.

The dinner is under the direction of the social arts groups of the AAUW. Rankin Mansfield of the Reno Little Theater is in charge of entertainment.

Graduate Visits Before Assuming Cornell Position

Dr. Lloyd Smith, an electrical engineering graduate from Nevada in 1924, visited the campus this week before leaving to take over his new position as head of the physics department at Cornell University. His new position requires the planning of a combined course in engineering and physics.

After leaving Nevada Smith studied for his doctor's degree at Cornell where he later served as a professor of physics. He has been connected with the RCA research laboratories until recently.

90TH ANNIVERSARY OF SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON

Celebrating the 90th anniversary of the founding of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, the Nevada chapter held a banquet at 7 pm March 9 at the Nevada Game Farm.

Speaking for the active members was Elmer Vaccina, Harold Luce, alumnus, acted as toastmaster. Bob Steele, David Levison and Royden Beardall were in charge of arrangements.

BLUE KEY TRYEES

Tryees for membership in Blue Key are asked to appear in front of the old gym Saturday at 1 pm, President Noel Willis announced.

At a Blue Key meeting held in the ASUN building Thursday evening, it was decided that the tryees would line the parking lot.

Nevada Veterans . . . Mary Noble, Vivian Peterson Study After Wartime Service in Uniform

Nevada has several women veterans of World War II attending the University of Nevada under the GI Bill of Rights, a survey of registration lists this week revealed.

Mary Noble, a former sergeant in the marines, from Ely, Nevada, is taking several refresher courses in history and English at the university. Miss Noble, a graduate of the University of Colorado, previously attended Stevens College in Columbia, Missouri.

Miss Noble joined the marines in Salt Lake City, Utah, August 11, 1943, and served 26 months in the service. Receiving her training at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina, she was then sent to San Diego, where she was stationed until discharged. While stationed at San Diego, Miss Noble's rating was that of a cook.

When she finishes her courses here, she plans to attend a library school, but has not definitely decided which one she will go to. In the meantime, along with her courses at the university she is working in the Washoe county library.

Now majoring in journalism at the university, Vivian Peterson, also known as Mrs. Jack W. Peterson, is a former private first class in the women's army corps. Mrs. Peterson and her husband, Jack W. Peterson, are both attending school here, Reno being Mr. Peterson's home.

England Is Subject Of Assembly Lecture

"The England We Have Known" was the subject of an illustrated talk given by Philip Nobel, world travel, expert photographer and lecturer at the student assembly today in the education auditorium.

Colored slides and films showed Cathedral cities, Oxford and Cambridge, lake countries, old estates and gardens, architecture, and cities and villages of various parts of Old World England.

PI PHI GRAND PRESIDENT TO VISIT U OF N CAMPUS

Amey B. Onken, grand president of Pi Beta Phi sorority, will make her first visit this week to the Nevada chapter in eight years. Miss Onken, who is from Decatur, Illinois, has been grand president for the past 15 years.

A "cookie shine" will be held Thursday evening honoring Miss Onken. Friday noon a luncheon will be given by the alumni.

CANTERBURY CLUB INVITES UNIVERSITY STUDENTS TO MEETINGS

Special programs for university students, to be presented at the regular Sunday morning meetings of the Canterbury Club at Stephen's house, were planned by the Episcopal organization last week. Next Sunday the program will include an explanation by Reverend William T. Holt of the origin and significance of vestments and sacred vessels of the church.

All university students are invited to these meetings at which speakers from Reno and the campus will be featured every Sunday.

Mrs. Peterson enlisted in the WACs in Chicago a year ago December. She received her basic training at Des Moines, Iowa, and was later stationed at Oakridge, Tennessee, and Richland, Washington. While stationed at Richland she was attached to the atomic bomb unit, her detachment receiving a meritorious service award. Members of this detachment had a unique shoulder insignia with ASF in small letters surrounded by a white question mark with a jagged tail splitting a supposed atom.

An interesting sidelight on her work at Richland is that all of the WACs stationed there had maid service, none of them being assigned menial detail. Mrs. Peterson worked in military intelligence.

While attending an American Legion affair in Pasco, Washington, Mrs. Peterson met her future husband. Six weeks after their introduction they were married by a navy chaplain.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Peterson are juniors, he having attended Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa, and she having attended the University of Indiana at Bloomington, Indiana, and Valparaiso University. Valparaiso is Mrs. Peterson's home. She is a member of the Alpha Omicron Pi sorority, and Mr. Peterson is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon of Drake's chapter.

Parking Violators Now Number 25

Noel Willis, chairman of the men's upperclass committee, reported that the students are continuing to violate campus parking regulations.

Seven students were fined this week bringing the total of campus law breakers up to 25 who have not paid their dollar fine to the comptroller's office.

The parking zones have been outlined in previous issues of the Sagebrush and by announcement, and car owners are held responsible for knowing these areas.

Those owing parking fines are Owen Chaffee, Royden Beardall, Fred Desiderio, Walter Menke, John Baker, Jac Peterson, Elmer Lyon, Robert S. Griffin, John Chism, Henry Mayer, C. H. Gorman, Ty Short, Edward Autchenson, Rose Nannini, Zeke Fairchild, Gino Quilici, Dr. C. G. Bradley, Bob Creveling, George Hackworth, Dorothy Brigman, Robert Palmer, Santino Oppio, Florence Barrett, Joanne Berg and Pat Burkhalter.
