

University Appropriation Bills Before Finance Committee

What the state legislature can do for the university is still a much discussed question.

The university board of regents, a seven student delegation from the ASUN improvement group, Dr. Charles H. Gorman and President John O. Moseley have all appeared before the joint legislature ways and means committee to appeal for increases in the university's next biennium budget.

Headed by Chairman Henry Stewart the student delegation which appeared before the finance group last week asked for increased faculty salaries, new instructors and additional equipment for existing departments and colleges.

Members of the student body delegation besides Chairman Stewart were Jimmy Glynn, Dorothy Sewell, Franklin Gardner, Michael Galli, Harold Kaul and Eileen Kerr, recorder.

Their requests are part of the university administration's proposed budget which was presented by the board of regents and Dr. Gorman two weeks ago. This budget calls for a total of $1,700,901.50 needed to operate the university for the next two years.

For instructors salaries, as required by the present salary scale, $906,936.50 will be needed for the next biennium. "However, with increasing cost of living the university cannot hold the present faculty at the existing scale. It is therefore necessary to increase salaries," Dr. Gorman told the legislative finance group. This increase will cost approximately $189,517.

Twenty-six additions are needed in present understaffed departments throughout the university. This factor adds $192,363 to the university's operating cost for the next two year period, the regents' report revealed.

In addition $492,085 is needed for new equipment both instructional and building and grounds and for expendable supplies. This totals $1,700,901.50. The present income is $1,171,516.50. This leaves a deficit of approximately $529,385 which must be met by legislative appropriations.

The university income includes $300,000 allotted by the 1945 legislature; $71,258.25, from federal government for student veterans' fees; $40,000.00 from fees of regular students, and $4500 from federal government under provisions for land grant colleges. This totals $585,758.25 for one year and $1,171,516.50 for the two year period.

If Governor Vail M. Pittman's budget is accepted by the legislature, the university will receive an additional allotment of $90,000 from the state. This still leaves $439,385 necessary to meet present increased costs of operating the university. This does not include building needs such as an adequate heating plant.

Favorable reaction from the legislature have been reported by both the board of regents and the student delegation, but until the finance committee releases a definite figure as to what the state can give the university, nothing can be planned for the legislative campaign, Dr. Gorman said.

Lack of Personnel Hinders Librarians

The university library has a number of new books which are not yet ready for the shelves because of lack of help in cataloging, Miss C. L. Johnson, cataloguer for the library, announced today.

Among these new books are "Thomas Jefferson, American Tourist," by Edward Dumbauld; "Summer Welles" "Where Are We Heading?"; "Western Words," by Ramon F. Adams; "War Neuroses," by Dr. Roy R. Grinker and Dr. John P. Spiegel, and "The German People," by Vait Valentin.

Platter Plugging By Watt Engineers Two Bits a Blast

Do you want your campus organization advertised?

The platter-chatter coming from the Electrical Engineering building is the new method used by the voltage students for advertising any organization on the campus.

The announcement of meeting and socials can be made over this public address system along with music, Jim Chester, vice-president of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, announced today.

Twenty-five cents per advertisement will be the cost of this service, and the plugs are expected to boost attendance at all meetings on the campus.

Prospective sponsors can find a member of the AIEE any afternoon in room 208 of the Electrical Engineering building. All funds derived from this project will go into the treasury of the AIEE and will help pay for the extra curricular activities of the group.

Sixteen Members Elected to Sagers At Recent Meet

Initiation Banquet Planned For Friday, March 7, States Bill Buck

Sixteen men were elected into the Sagers recently at the ASUN building, Bill Buck, president, revealed today. The initiation banquet will be held Friday, March 7.

The group, an underclass men's honorary campus service organization, elected Frank Robins, Hal Okholm, Robert Paterson, Rondell Shaw, Dale Hanna, Jerry Wyness, Stan Smith, Roger Olmstead, Pat Emery, Dave Bywater, Loren Yparaguire, Fred Muller, Martin Rissard, Bruce Belnap, Irving Hackett and Melvin Winsor.

A special meeting was held at the ASUN building Tuesday, February 25, at 7:15 pm for all regular and newly elected Sager members.

Honorary members elected to the Sagers are George Himes, Royden Beardall, Fred Desiderio and Al Checchi.

The Sagers last semester built the Homecoming bonfire, assisted in pajamaree and rallies, sold programs at home football games, wrapped goal posts at home football games, marked off reserved sections and ushered at home games, lined the campus parking lot, won the Homecoming organizational skit, entered a float in the Homecoming parade, moved sets and did other work at assemblies and sponsored the Federalist assembly.

Sagers president Buck said that men interested in trying out for the underclass men service organization can get the necessary information on the campus bulletin board.

ENGINEER LECTURE

"Carrier Currents" will be the talk given in the next meeting of the AIEE by Mr. A. B. Williams, chief engineer of the western branch of Westinghouse. This meeting will be held March 13.

NEVADA CAGERS MEET ST. MARY'S TONIGHT AT GYM

St. Mary's offensive minded Gaels clash with Nevada's high scoring quintet tonight and tomorrow night at the university gym at 8:30 pm. In the preliminary, Nevada's scrappy freshmen tangle with Reno Print at 7 pm and meet Reno high school tomorrow night at the first encounter.

On the basis of seasonal records, the unpredictable Wolf Pack basketballers will be slight favorites to edge past the Gaels in the two game series. Nevada's cagers have won 20 games and lost 11, while St. Mary's have won only 11 and lost 16.

The Gaels from Moraga have a star performer in Frank Kudelkafi who ranks second to Bob O'Shaughnessy in Pacific coast scoring. Another Moragan threat is Captain Bill Burke, who has played against Nevada several times during the past seasons, and is one of the most highly regarded cagers on the west coast.

Heralded as an outstanding western independent team, the Galloping Gaels have racked up wins over such highly touted teams as California, Olympic Club, S. F. State, Nebraska, St. Louis, San Jose (twice), College of Pacific, Bradley, Hawaiian All Stars and the California Aggies.

They have lost close encounters to Wyoming, Nebraska, Oklahoma A & M, Iowa, Loras, Sacramento Senators, Santa Clara, USF, Shamrocks, California, Pepperdine, Santa Barbara, Phillips Oilers and the Oakland Bittners.

Playing their last home series prior to the Hawaii game scheduled for March 10, the Wolf Pack will be out to redeem themselves from the double shellacking they received last weekend from Loyola and Pepperdine.

Upperclass Men Seek Tradition Violators

In a final attempt to enforce traditions on the University of Nevada campus, members of Blue Key, Block N and the upperclass committee gathered en masse recently and prepared to "take care" of all violators.

Although there are now only about 40 first semester freshmen who must wear their dinks and carry the frosh bible, numerous students continue to cut campus and sit on the senior bench.

Max Dodge, Block N president, said today that members of these three organizations are out to punish all violators and to see that all Nevada traditions are enforced.

Haywire Hall Clocks Provide Late Excuses

Time flies these days for the tenants of Artemisia, Manzanita and Lincoln Halls.

The electric clocks are gaining 15 minutes every hour in those buildings, according to Carl Horn, superintendent of buildings and grounds. A short circuit in the clock cables has been causing all the difficulty.

It is Mr. Horn's hope that the Sierra Pacific Power Company will be able to locate the crossed wires with a little gadget called a test lamp.

Until this is done and wires are repaired, the students in the dormitories can hope to complete the term several weeks ahead of the student body.

ROTC UNIT RECEIVES RATING OF EXCELLENT

Nevada's ROTC unit was given a rating of excellent by Col. P. A. Brawner, inspecting officer from Sixth Army headquarters, according to Lt. Col. James Smeed.

Press Association To Hold Conclave On Hill Saturday

Community Plaque Award Tops Busy Program Of Newsmen

Presentation of a community service plaque will be made to the state's most distinguished community newspaper during the Nevada State Press Association's 22nd annual convention tomorrow.

The award is the first of its kind in the state and will be given to the Nevada newspaper which has best served its community during the past year. This procedure will be carried out for a period of 12 years. When the cycle has been completed the plaque will be returned to the department of journalism at the university for exhibit and preservation.

Judge Papers

Judges are Bert Selkirk, former publisher of the Gardnerville Record-Courier, and Judge Badt, Elko. They have been working on the selection for several months.

Another important matter will be the establishment of a Nevada journalism hall of fame. This will be proposed by Prof. A. L. Higginbotham, secretary-treasurer of the association. "Portraits and short biographies of Nevada's most distinguished editors would be kept in the hall of journalism at the university," he stated, adding that all selections could be made by ballot.

Saturday Schedule

Included on the full Saturday program are luncheon and dinner social events and business and discussion sessions. The banquet will be held at the Twenties Century Club. Morning and afternoon meetings are scheduled for the Mackay science hall.

Celebrities appearing at the convention will include Gov. Vail S. Pittman, Nevada's chief executive, and Dr. John O. Moseley, university president, who will present the plaque to the association on behalf of the journalism department. Prominent newsmen from Nevada and California will also speak during the meet.

SAGEBRUSHERS INVITED TO SADDLE UP

Calling campus cowpunchers. Get old Paint saddled, and dig out yore spurs, as roundup time in Arizona is coming.

Yore darn tooten. The University of Nevada's been invited to participate in the seventh annual intercollegiate rodeo to be given by the University of Arizona, March 15 and 16.

A gala celebration tops off a "go western rodeo week" as inspired doggies from the 46 invited colleges compete for honors in a rip-snorting rodeo. Contests for the men include bareback bronc riding, wild steer scramble, steer riding, calf roping, team tying, wild cow milking, pony express race, and the wild mule race. Not to be outdone, cowgirls will compete in such events as the bronc cow pony race, boots and cigar race, potato race and bareback wrestling.

Handled entirely by students, the rodeo events will be covered by Life magazine and the Chicago Tribune. Trophies and prizes will be awarded, and entry fees for the event will be split among the winners.

So, hail to those sturdy men who take up the challenge and head for them thar (stamping grounds to gain more laurels for Nevada in one of the best refined intercollegiate sports.

Six Per Cent of UN Student Body Make First Semester Honor Roll

One Night Lease Signed by Barbs For 'Tavern' Party

Tomorrow night at 8 pm the Independents Tomaine Tavern dinner dance will be held in the California building in Idlewild park.

The party is under the direction of Mrs. Barbara Pinjuv, YWCA secretary, and will consist of a smorgasbord banquet, dancing to the music of Bill Buck's seven piece band and a 45 minute, 10 act variety show featuring everything from tap dancing to fortune telling.

Prizes will be awarded for the most original costume, for those who do not come in costume the dance will be semi-formal.

Invited guests of the Barbs will include President and Mrs. John O. Moseley, Dean and Mrs. R. S. Griffin, Dean Elaine Mobley, Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Irwin, Colonel and Mrs. Gilbert E. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. George Pinjuv.

An intensive promotional campaign was launched for the affair this week, including numerous ticket booths and colorful PA broadcasts.

Dr. A. M. Harding Slated to Speak

'Glimpses of Other Worlds' Is Speech Topic

Dr. Arthur McCracken Harding, author-lecturer and recently retired president of the University of Arkansas, will speak in the education auditorium at 7:30 Friday night, March 7.

"Glimpses of Other Worlds" is the title of the talk which will be illustrated with lantern slides. Several mathematical text books have been written by Dr. Harding who has been noted more for his hobby, astronomy. Dr. Harding has delivered approximately 2000 addresses on this subject and through it has gained international reputation as a speaker and writer with his non-technical book on astronomy.

Dr. Harding, the recipient of many educational honors, retired from the University of Arkansas in February, 1946.

He is a past president of the National University Extension Association, a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Sigma Xi, Omicron Delta Kappa, the American Mathematical Society, and the American Astronomical Society, and a charter member of the Arkansas chapter of Sigma Nu social fraternity.

This assembly is being sponsored under the joint auspices of the university and the Astronomical Society of Nevada.

No Parking Areas Given Yellow Coat

"No parking" area curbs have been painted yellow on the campus this week.

This has become necessary because of continued parking of automobiles along already too narrow campus streets. Painting the curbs in this fashion should eliminate any doubt concerning the legality of parking places on the campus, Hans Wolfe, student body president, pointed out.

During the recent curb painting four new reserved parking spaces were placed around Morrill Hall. The registrar and superintendent of grounds received one space behind the hall while the post office department has reserved two spaces on the west side.

Delta Delta Delta and Sigma Rho Delta Rank Highest in Group Grade Averages

With 84 students listed on the registrar's honor roll, the university student body grade average for last semester is 2.293. The 530 women students maintained an average of 2.312 and approximately 980 men students finished the semester with 2.192.

Delta Delta Delta upheld the highest sorority grade level with 2.78 and Sigma Rho Delta ranked highest for the fraternities with 2.46. Other sorority averages are: Gamma Phi Beta, 2.540; Kappa Alpha Theta, 2.385, and Pi Beta Phi, 2.209. Fraternities averaged: Lambda Chi Alpha, 2.422; Sigma Nu, 2.345; Theta Chi, 2.284; Alpha Tau Omega, 2.241; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 2.009, and Phi Sigma Kappa, 1.786.

4.00 Students

3.94 Through 3.80

3.78 Through 3.60

Ernest Wilson, Esther Gordon, Abe Kaplan, Moray Black, Marilou Ferguson, Boleslaus Kastenas, Robert Wengert, Warren Carriger, Vaughn Marker, Warren Meacham, Elwyn Freemont, Timothy P. Sullivan, John Boynton, Robert Gifford, James M. Morris, James Teipner, Gerald Knowles, Robert Whittemore, Franklin Gardner, Robert Gould, Bruce Hill, Joseph Kinney, Wallace Schulz, Robert Thronson.

The best mimeographed and printed papers and the best annual of the year were chosen by Reno newspapermen, under the direction of the journalism staff. The winning editors received trophies for their success.

Armstrong said that no other definite plans have been made for the contest.

Fifth Housing Unit Ready This Week

Completion of the fifth veterans emergency housing unit in Victory Heights is expected this week, Fred Gribble, construction engineer for M & K Company, said today.

Work on the project was resumed three weeks ago following an FPMA shutdown last December. A skeleton crew had been authorized to maintain the project during December and January. Additional funds were granted and FPMA gave the company authority to go ahead with the work.

40 on Job

In contrast to the skeleton crew of 10 workers, approximately 40 workmen are now on the job. Mr. Gribble said that the whole project will be completed by March 15.

"We have all necessary material to complete the job. If the necessary laborers and skilled workers can be obtained, there is no reason why the project shouldn't be finished by that date," Mr. Gribble stated.

Four of the 14-family apartment units are now occupied by 56 veterans and their families. The completed project will accommodate 112 families.

GALVANIZED GABOONS READY FOR REFUSE

A shipment of new garbage cans has arrived, said Carl Horn, grounds superintendent. The shiny new cans were to be seen standing outside the university post office this week.

Out of an order of 80, only 24 came, but they were badly needed, since the garbage can situation around the campus is acute, Horn said. The new containers will be used to place old and damaged ones.

Block N to Revive Annual Stag Night

"Stag night," a prewar annual affair presented by the Block N society for the benefit of male students and townspeople, will be revived this year, according to Max Dodge, president of Block N.

Boxing, wrestling, a free-for-all, and a few special events such as a "can a boxer subdue a wrestler?" will be headlined on the event to be held March 27. Interfraternity bouts will be held to arouse college interest and outstanding local boxers will be brought in.

For Men Only

The place for the event has not yet been determined, but Tony's El Patio may be chosen. The Block N society would be permitted to handle "refreshments" there, Dodge stated.

The night of March 27 will be strictly a no-date affair from the viewpoint of both the male and female populace of the university. With the AWS fashion show being held the same night, the women can attend their event while the men watch the fisticuffs.

A JOB WELL DONE

Last week the majority of Nevada students had blood in their eyes over a reported road block erected by legislators in the pathway of the university's appropriation bills. This week the seven student representatives who met with the senate finance committee to present the students' viewpoints on the needs of the campus returned with gleams of satisfaction in their eyes.

These delegates were selected from the student improvement committee which had been working for more than a year investigating the university's needs and compiling facts and figures to present to the people of the state and the legislature.

The fact that the student body representatives felt that they were given a fair hearing in their meeting in Carson City made everyone on the campus feel more optimistic about the university's future. Students no longer believe that their school is being forgotten financially in Carson City.

The delegates appeared in Carson City armed not only with strong feeling, but they had facts to present to the senate committee. Thus prepared, the group made a much better showing and probably gained more than the proposed "march on Carson" would have. At least, the legislators said they were glad to have the students appear. That is a better reception than would have been given a "Coxey's army" approach.

During the excitement and high feeling prevalent last week, the committee members kept their heads. They held meeting after meeting to plan the best course of action. The pressure was on and it would have been extremely easy to have gone overboard on some plan that would have done more harm than good. They did not allow themselves to be stampeded.

It was for the benefit of all Nevada students, those now attending the university as well as for those who will appear on the hill in years to come, that the members of the student improvement committee put in their many hours of toil.

Any financial gains that the university makes when the appropriations are passed out will be due largely to the efforts of the improvement committee.

It is to be hoped the university's needs will be so coordinated with legislative action in coming years that groups such as this committee may concentrate on studies and not find it necessary to make biennial treks to Carson City.

Carson City Fete Tickets on Sale

Tickets for the governor's inaugural ball and reception to be held in Carson City March 8, are being sold on the campus by Robert Laxalt at the Alpha Tau Omega house.

Tickets should be purchased in the near future, Laxalt said, as invitations have to be sent to those wishing to attend. The affair is semi-formal and tickets are $6 per couple.

The ball and reception will be held at the high school gymnasium in Carson City, starting at 8 pm March 8.

UN Girls Rifle Team Overthrows Drexel

Nevada's girls' rifle team defeated the girls' team of Drexel Institute of Arts and Science of Philadelphia 487 to 482 last week.

High scoring honors were shared by Louise Thompson and Betty Rice of Nevada with 98 out of a possible 100 scores.

SAE Plans Banquet At Masonic Temple

In celebration of the 30th anniversary of the chapter's founding, Alpha chapter of Sigma Epsilon is planning a banquet and formal initiation of fall semester pledges. The events will take place in the Masonic Temple in Reno on Sunday, March 9.

Province officers have been invited and will be honored along with SAE alumni. Approximately 25 pledges will be initiated.

STUDENT UNDERGOES MAJOR OPERATION

A slumber party Friday night will begin a round of events to be held during the Pi Phi initiation this weekend.

Committee members for the slumber party are Lois Hitchens, Betty Ann Rice and Dorothy Hooper.

The formal initiation will take place tomorrow and that night there will be a pledge-initiate dance. In charge of this affair are Barbara Gould and Sally Beebe.

On Sunday, March 9, the Pi Phi pledge initiation luncheon will be held at the Trocadero.

Art Works Adorn Home Ec Offices

Two paintings each month will be furnished by the university's art department for the home economics office and library, Miss Mildred Swift, department head, announced this week.

Now on display in the library is a water color of Mount Rose, seen from Carson Valley. In the office is an oil painting of a scene in Virginia City. Both were done by Mrs. Helen Joslin, instructor.

WOMEN DORMITORIES PLAN FORMAL DANCE

Artemisia-Manzanita Association has scheduled a spring formal for April 26. Plans will be completed at a joint meeting on March 3.

Joyce Longwill, social chairman for the association, will be in charge and her committees will be named at a future date, according to the Artemisia-Manzanita president, Ellen Turnquist.

Gamma Phi Reveals Recent Engagement

Olive Bobyns, freshman, has recently announced her engagement to Lynn Pursel, formerly of the merchant marine.

The engaged couple, both natives of Yerington, were honored at a luncheon given by Pursel's mother, Mrs. Ralph Pursel, on February 9 when the engagement was officially announced.

Miss Bobyns is enrolled in Nevada on a Smith scholarship and is a new initiate of Gamma Phi Beta sorority.

Pursel is now employed as a rancher in Yerington.

STUDENT COOPERATION IMPROVES IN Y ROOM

There is a definite improvement in the cooperation of students with the snack bar volunteers in keeping the snack bar and Y room clean, but it could still be better, according to Jack Brown, manager of the snack bar.

"It is to the students' advantage to cooperate because the snack bar is a non-profit organization and as long as they continue to do so we can put it over," Brown said.

A few girls are still needed to work in the snack bar, he added, particularly at 8 o'clock every morning and noon on Tuesday and Thursday.

Barry Lynn Troop Presents Program In New Gymnasium

Brazilian, Psychological Numbers Highlight Monday Event

A varied modern dance program was presented by the Barry Lynn troop in the university gymnasium recently. The numbers ranged from color and gaiety to a psychological number with dialogue.

Costuming and lighting effects for the occasion were designed and planned by the three members of the troop, Nicolas Vancoc, Paul Sherwood and Barry Lynn.

A number that drew a good deal of applause was the Brazilian dance, "Zamba Casserole." The drums and the Brazilian folk music made an appropriate background for the colorful costumes of the dancers.

Portrays Victim

Another highlight of the evening's performance was "My Blood Remembers," a slight variation of a number done with the Virginia Tanner troop in the first of the present dance series. It was a sacrificial dance in which the victim is portrayed by Barry Lynn.

After the evening's performance, the troop left for Salt Lake City. From there they are going to Key West, Florida, Cuba, and then to Bali where they will do research on primitive native dances.

Queen Coronation Climaxes Ski Ball

The announcement of Miss Norma McDonald as queen of the annual ski carnival climaxed the snow ball held Saturday night.

Miss McDonald, who majors in decorating art at the University of California, was chosen by members of the Nevada ski team "for her skiing ability, attractiveness and personality." The queen was presented with a sterling silver bracelet on which was engraved, "snow ball

Anatole Mazour To Finish Work On Russian Text

Dr. Anatole G. Mazour, professor of history and political science, is now working on a history of Russia to be completed this summer.

The history, which will be about 800 pages long, has been six years in the writing, and will be printed by the Houghton-Mifflin Co.

Dr. Mazour intends to use the new book as a text for a course in Russian history, which will be expanded to include the cultural and religious, as well as the political aspects.

This summer Dr. Mazour will teach Russian history at Stanford University, coming back to Nevada in the fall. He taught at Stanford last summer also.

Student Requests Aired Over KOH

Request programs have always been a popular feature of radio, and recently KOH's "Open House" has become, as the announcer said, "a University of Nevada intercommunication system."

Artemisia Hall residents broadcast their plight to the world with the request number, "Don't Get Around Much Anymore."

Sororities requested "A Man Is Brother to a Mule" for the fraternities on campus, and the fraternities returned with "Isn't That Just Like a Woman" for the sororities. "Temptation" and "That's the Beginning of the End" are other samples of the messages sent back and forth on campus.

"Open House" is presented from 10:30 to 12 every night, and perhaps the late hour suggests the answer to why so many students have been sleeping through classes lately.

queen, University of Nevada, 1947."

Special guests at the dance were Dr. and Mrs. Austin Hutcheson, President and Mrs. John O. Moseley, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Griffin, Elaine Mobley, dean of women; Mr. and Mrs. George Pinjuv and all visiting skiers from other campuses.

Tri-Delts, Thetas Theta Chi Secure Carnival Awards

Featuring snow bunnies, St. Bernard dogs, and relief maps of this area, the winners of the fraternity and sorority contests for ski carnival decorations were Tri-Delt, Theta Chi and Kappa Alpha Theta.

Delta Delta Delta received the award for outside decorations of the sorority houses. A huge fuzzy bunny, two stories high, covered the front of the house. Also, scattered around on the lawn of the house were smaller white rabbits of various sizes, all drinking carrot juice.

Relief Map

The Theta Chi house, down on University Avenue, featured a large relief map of this area and told the story of winter sports for northern Nevada. With it, they won the cup for the best outside decorations of the fraternity houses.

The hospitality contest, judged by the heads of the visiting ski teams at open house Friday night, was won by the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. One of the most eager hostesses in the house was Bijou, the big, golden St. Bernard dog.

The interior of the house was made into a mountain inn, complete with ski shop, skating pond and bar. Cider, pretzels and hors d'ouvres were served.

Etchart Elected KAT President

New officers of Kappa Alpha Theta were announced at the Monday night meeting of that organization and will take oath of office next Monday.

Alice Etchart, junior student from Winnemucca is the new president; Josephine Eather, Eureka, is vice-president; Mary Libbey, Grass Valley, California, recording secretary; Lu Hansen,

Harriet Lee Named Head of Dormitory By Executive Group

Harriet Lee has recently been appointed new house manager for Manzanita Hall by the executive committee of Artemisia-Manzanita Association.

Miss Lee, a junior, succeeds Eileen Sweeney who has resigned because of ill health.

The executive committee is composed of Ellen Turnquist, Muriel Smiley, Maida Lee, Genevieve Swick, Harriet Lee, Jean Brennan, Gedney Gallagher, the two social directors, Mrs. Florence Peacocke and Mrs. Mabel Fulton, and Elaine Mobley, dean of women.

The committee has reported no violations of any of the house rules and this semester, no women have been brought before the committee during this semester, an unusual record, according to President Ellen Turnquist.

Loss of Instructor Halts Riding Class

Miss Irene Ruth Russell, women's PE instructor, announced that Saddle and Spurs will have to postpone its plans for an English riding and jumping class. John Jackson, who was slated to teach riders, left school last semester.

Jackson was a freshman at the University of Nevada and Miss Russell did not find out that he had left until recently.

If a new instructor can be found, Miss Russell said, the riding and jumping class will be held in March, and any girl interested in taking the course should see her.

Portland, Oregon, corresponding secretary, and Naomi Batjer, Smith Valley, treasurer.

Marilyn Reynolds, Sacramento, was elected rush chairman, Virginia Casey, Los Angeles, is pledge trainer, and Kay Sterling, Lovelock, is the new senator.

Freshman Student Member of Play

George Bennett, freshman in the college of arts and science, is one of 13 members of the cast for "Guest in the House," Reno Little Theater's current production, Edwin Semenza, director of the dramatic group, announced today. Bennett is playing the part of Cam Tracy, a newspaper photographer.

Bennett has worked with the Little Theater since last fall. He played in "Dear Ruth" and was on the stage crew for "The Late George Apley."

"Guest in the House" is the theater's fifth production of the season. The sixth and last play has not yet been announced.

Gamma Phis Usher March's Lion, Lamb

A "lamb and lion" dance to introduce new pledges will be given by the Gamma Phis tomorrow night at 9 in Sierra street sorority dance.

The dance will be informal. The mantle will be decorated with lions and lambs, and there will be spring flowers around the rooms.

The social chairman is Alberta Brunner of Winnemucca. Heading various committees will be Jane Willcox, Mary Gerrans, Roma Garner and Jac Petersen.

Regional Secretary Honored at Y Tea

Mrs. Elsie Wells, regional YWCA secretary from Los Angeles, was the honored guest at a YWCA tea given from 4 to 5:30 pm Tuesday, February 14, in the basement of Stewart Hall.

Barbara Thompson Pinjuv, campus secretary directed the tea. Decorations followed a Valentine theme. Red and white heart posters gave a resume of YW activities on campus.

Membership, according to one poster, is now 248 on campus, compared to 70 last year.

Other guests at the tea were the campus and downtown advisory boards of YW, faculty members and wives, and all Y girls. Advisory board members are Mrs. John D. Bibb, president; Mrs. L. A. Ferris, vice-president; Miss Alice Terry, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Ludo-

NEVADA EDGED BY CALIFORNIA IN SKI CARNIVAL

In spite of a record breaking 149 foot jump by Jerry Wetzel and Barnes Berry's first place in the strenuous cross country, the Nevada ski team was unable to cop first place honors in the eighth annual winter carnival last weekend.

The two day tournament which was held at Spooner's Summit and Mount Rose saw the Nevadans nosed out of first place by a slim margin. Just how slim the margin was can best be shown by comparing the total points of the two top teams, the University of California and Nevada. California emerged from the hotly contested engagement with 394,250 points against 393,231 for Nevada.

In Saturday's jumping, Wetzel took first place, Mickey Munley 12, Barnes Berry 16, Cliff Banta 20 and O. Hendrickson 24.

Barnes Berry, third place winner in the grueling Snowshoe Thompson classic a few weeks ago, bounced across the finish line first in the cross country in 37 minutes and 47 seconds. He was followed in by Jerry Wetzel in 4, and Cliff Banta who came in ninth.

When the flying snow had settled and figures were totaled for the day, California led the field by three-tenths of one point.

On Sunday the skiers moved to the slopes of Mount Rose to wind up the meet with the slalom and downhill events. Les Hawkins, Cliff Banta, Jerry Wetzel, Barnes Berry and Mickey Munley placed second, third, sixth, ninth, eighteenth, respectively, in the slalom. It was won by Dan Williams of Stanford.

In the downhill event, which was won by Harry Morgan of California in the fast time of 32.3, Wetzel was fourth, Munley seventh, Banta eighth with Les Hawkins and Barnes Berry sharing honors for eleventh place.

"Though the snow was soft in spots it was fairly good and the downhill course was exceptionally fast" was the comment made by Barnes Berry when asked about the condition of the snow.

Bob Nelson, tournament director, and the man responsible for much of the success of the two day meet, did an exceptionally good job of getting things in shape and should be given a bouquet for his efforts was the general consensus of opinion expressed by members of the ski team who were contacted and asked to comment on the condition of the courses and general efficiency of the weekend classic.

Final standings in the tourney are as follows:

College	Points
University of Calif.	394,250
University of Nevada	393,231
Utah	384,018
Stanford	351,574
Fresno	320,555
Oregon	275,343
Cal. Aggies	254,451

MEET THE PACK

By Robert Radovich
Orsie Graves, three letter stalwart on the Wolf Pack quintet for the past four seasons, is a native son of the Silver State.

The quiet, genial, six foot, 168 pound guard was born and raised in Sparks, Nevada, where he attended the local schools and started the athletic career which brought him to the University of Nevada and the Pack cage squad.

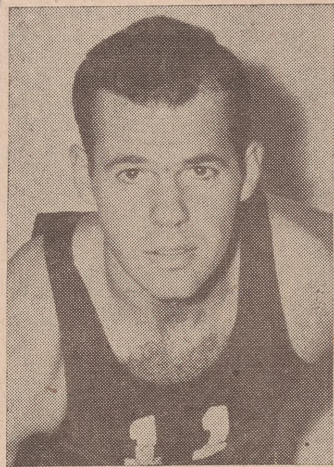

During his four years at the Sparks high school he excelled in the sports he liked best, namely football and basketball. Playing halfback for the Sparks varsity netted the speedy athlete two letters for his efforts in that field. He received two more letters for his play on the hardwoods. Graves was one of the top performers for the Sparks hoopssters when they copped the Nevada state championship for high school basketball in 1940.

Graves entered the university after his graduation from Sparks high and started on another basketball spree, this time with the Wolf Pack. His outstanding cage ability was rudely interrupted by the beckoning call of Uncle Sam. Orsie found himself a member in good standing in the army air forces, dressed in khaki and learning the finer points of piloting B-24s. Before long he became Lt. Graves and after three years of active service returned to Nevada and thence back to the university and more basketball.

The tall, 24-year-old guard got back to the basketball court in time to play in the 1945-46 season with the Wolf Pack quintet and participated in the NAIB tournament in Kansas City with his teammates last year.

Besides holding down a berth with the Pack, Graves is vice-president of the Sigma Nu fraternity, and a member of Blue Key, Sundowners, and Block N.

In spite of the full schedule which Graves obviously has, he handles all of Sigma Nu's interfraternity sports events and has entered the rugged cross country foot race for the last three years. Up until now he has been unable to place first in that event, but feels that if he can keep the law of averages running this year as it has in the past, he will win this year's contest hands down. The first year he entered the race he placed fourth, then the following year, third, and last year second. There is only one spot left, ac-

According to Graves, and that is first place.

That kind of determination is the motivating force behind Orsie's success the past years on the campus.

A consistently good ball handler and smooth all around player, Orsie has been instrumental in several of the Pack's cage wins.

Male 'Fish' Swim In May Aquacade

Twenty-two boys accepted the invitation to the Paniwallas Swimming Club Thursday, and really proved to be good swimmers, said Miss Irene Russell, instructor in physical education.

"It now looks as if the aquacade to be put on in May will consist of both men and women, Miss Russell stated.

Miss Russell also remarked that Miss Mary Ferguson, who is now an instructor of physics at the University of Nevada and who is also a beautiful diver and excellent swimmer, plans to join the Paniwallas Club.

Wolf Pack Cagers Lose Two Games To Lions, Waves

Melarkey Scores 24 Points As Wolves Lose 47-44; Waves Win 54-43

University of Nevada basketball team lost a doubleheader last weekend in Los Angeles to two teams which they had previously beaten. Loyola University of Los Angeles won Friday night 47-44, and Pepperdine College emerged the victor in Saturday night's contest 54-43.

Jimmy Melarkey sparked the Wolves in the first game and chalked up a total of 24 points to take game high scoring honors. After he started to click, his teammates fed him the ball continually. Bill Donovan of the Lions scored 18 points and his teammate, Bob Perich, racked up 12 to overcome Melarkey's hot streak.

The first half ended with Loyola slightly ahead 26-22, but they came back early in the second period to gain a 10 point margin. Late in the game Nevada came within three points of tying the score, but again the sharp shooting Lions began hitting the basket, and cinched the final score.

Max Dodge turned in a fine defensive game for the Wolf Pack by constantly snaring the ball off the backboard.

The second game went nip and tuck for the first period, and early in the second half Nevada forged ahead. Then Pepperdine began dumping them in and they took the lead throughout the remainder of the contest.

Moylan paced the Wolves and set up several scoring plays. He shared scoring honors with Davis and Melarkey.

The games were played on a small court, and there was more bodily contact than usual. The brand of ball was ragged in both

'STURDY MEN' NEED 'STURDY MAN'

All the kings horses and all the king's men can't seem to put Nevada's coaching staff together again.

In round figures, and making a conservative guess, it can be safely estimated that approximately 30 persons have been interviewed for the position of head football coach to lead "our sturdy men" next fall, following the resignation of Coach Jim Aiken last month.

Joe T. McDonnell, graduate manager, said that no decision has been reached by the board, and names submitted are still under consideration.

There it is. Practically any man who decides to hang his hat in the "Biggest Little City in the World" for half an hour may become Nevada's next grid mentor, it seems.

BETTY RICE ENTERED IN NATIONAL MEET

Miss Betty Ann Rice, sharpshooting Nevada student, has been entered in the national intercollegiate girls' rifle shoot.

Miss Rice will fire against the outstanding women marksmen among the American collegiate ranks.

The match will be carried on by wire with members from most of the women's college teams in the country competing.

games and the Wolf Pack's opponents won only by more accurate foul shooting.

In previous contests Nevada beat Loyola 51-38 and 57-47. They also topped Pepperdine 43-42 and 53-40.

Baseball Season Starts March 5

Prospective baseball pitchers are requested to report to Coach Jake Lawlor in the new gymnasium as soon as possible. Baseball practice will start about next Wednesday, March 5, stated Lawlor.

As the basketball season comes to an end, baseball begins to steal into the limelight. Lawlor said he expects a large turn out on the fifth but thinks that there will be a scarcity of pitchers.

Workout practice will have to be staggered in between intramural games, and just how it will be worked out has not been decided as yet.

"Such veteran players as Bill Gillis, Roy Nishiguch, Chub Drakulich, Bob O'Shaughnessy, Pat Francellini and Jack Swendenborg will turn out again," stated Lawlor, "and we expect more than enough new men to turn out who have ability and who will come out to practice."

Nevada baseballers play the University of San Francisco here on May 9 and 10. Jake also added that there have been

Nevada Punchers Take It On Chin From San Jose

Pack Boxers Win Only One Bout From Classy Californians

Nevada leather swingers suffered their second defeat in as many starts last Friday in the local gym, this time from the hands of the San Jose boxing team. The Wolf Pack won only one bout in the eight scheduled for the meet.

Experience proved to be the prime factor in San Jose's victory as they scored one KO, two TKOs and four decisions against the Nevada team. Glen Kanig won the only match for Nevada with a technical knockout over Al Figg, considered one of the best collegiate prospects on the coast.

San Jose's tall, 121 pounder, Ray Davila started the ball rolling by taking a unanimous verdict over Nevada's Joe Mirco from Caliente.

Defending Pacific coast champion Charles Townsend defeated Nevada's Howard Heckethorne in a clean cut decision by a superior show of boxing experience over the local lad.

Nevada's lone win came when Kanig beat husky Figg in the third bout of the night. Figg started the match with some mean blows but Glen soon got his bearings and with some solid rights to the head cut the visitor's eye. Referee Tony Poloni stopped the fight when Kanig had Figg against the ropes blasting him with lefts and rights alternately.

In the closest and classiest fight of the evening, San Jose's Bob Anderson nosed Bob Thomson in a heated battle. Both men landed hard, consistent punches, but Anderson's powerful left hook paved the way for a San Jose decision.

Spartan Dave Gray took all three rounds in a decision over Nevada Bill Baumann. Richard Piccinini lost to San Jose's Buddy Roberts.

The only knockout of the night came when Wolf Packer Gene Mills received a left handed haymaker at the start of the second round of the semi-wind-up from San Jose's Wayne Fontes. In the heavyweight match of the night Don Schaffer of San Jose had too much experience and punch for Nevada's Bud Harwood with the bout being stopped midway of the third stanza.

She's the type that whispers sweet little nothin' doin' in your ear.

PACK TRACKS

By Ray Gardella

NO POST SEASONERS

Nevada's reluctance to accept an invitation to compete in any of the post season tournaments brings up the heated arguments, pro and con, that occurred at the end of last football season.

Playing an energetic schedule of 34 games, the Wolf Pack basketballers have competed against some of the strongest teams in the nation. The Pack's undaunted fighting spirit and basketball know-how has elevated them to a prominent place among the nation's better cage teams.

Such a team rightly deserves to display its ability against other highly rated teams in post season play. The publicity and prestige gained would be well worth the effort involved.

On the other side of the fence, is a very band of ball players who have practically completed a long, drawn out schedule against top flight teams across the nation. Their record is convincing enough and no tourney games are needed to add to the prestige and popularity they have already gained during their season play.

Many of the players have been keeping the lights burning into the early hours of the morning trying to keep up with the heavy scholastic burden placed upon their shoulders due to athletic activities.

To such seniors as Bob O'Shaughnessy, Jimmy Melarkey, Orsie Graves, Harry Paille and Max Dodge, it would be a fitting final chapter to already sparkling cage careers.

But who has a higher right to decide such an issue than the players themselves? Surely not the armchair strategist who sits back comfortably in his easy chair and flips on the radio dial to hear a play by play account of the ball game.

Yes, we think the team made a wise choice, as long as they were the ones that did the choosing.

EDGED BY NOSE

Winning prominent places in several events, California's ski team amassed enough points to edge the slightly favored Nevada squad in the hectic eighth annual ski carnival.

Limiting the number of skiers on each team hindered the Wolf Pack immensely. Nevada has numerous trail blazers who could have placed high in several events had they been allowed to compete.

Individual stars of the meet were Nevada's Jerry Wetzell, who captured first place in the jumping event, and Barnes Berry, who won the gruelling cross country race.

TOSSING LEATHER

Lacking experience, Nevada pugilists lost a 7 to 1 decision to the crowd pleasing San Jose mittmen. The Nevada boxers put up a good showing against the highly touted Spartans, but just couldn't cope with the boxing ability possessed by the invading leather punchers.

It's no wonder San Jose ranks among the best boxing teams on the coast as they had over 100 pugilists to pick from and also hire two full time boxing coaches to handle these men.

ROUGH TONIGHT, TOO?

Nevada's basketballers from the southland licking their wounds from the double shellacking handed them by Loyola and Pepperdine. Again rough tactics prevailed, with four technicals and 31 fouls called against the Pack in the second encounter.

A scoring duel will be in store for cage fans tonight when O'Shaughnessy and Melarkey pit their deadeye shooting accuracy against high scoring Frank Kudelka and Bill Burke of the Gaels.

Sigma Nu Leads Frat Cage Race; ATO, SAE Second

Sigma Nu, two games behind schedule because of necessary postponements, is still leading the intramural cage race with five wins and no losses as the red hot race for cage honors is approaching its final week of play.

Alpha Tau Omega, edged by Theta Chi last Tuesday 29-6, shares second place honors with Sigma Alpha Epsilon in the heated intramural cage race. The Taus trailing in the last minutes of the game came surging from behind to annex the win.

Leading 16 to 13 at half time, Theta Chi increased its lead to six points when the fourth quarter got under way, but sharp shooting Glenn Pridgeon, with 16 points, proved the margin of victory for the winners. Bob McCrae played outstanding ball for Theta Chi.

The first game of the evening last Wednesday saw the Independents hand Lambda Chi Alpha its seventh setback. The rejuvenated Independents were paced by Maraman with 14 points, while Bob Bondurant with 11 was high for the losers.

In the second game Sigma Alpha Epsilon outscored Theta Chi 35-30 in a nip and tuck game, leaving the Violets in second place with Alpha Tau Omega.

Alpha Tau Omega vs. Sigma Nu and Phi Sigs vs. Sigma Rho Delta, were postponed because of the tournament sponsored by the National and American Leagues composed of Reno town teams.

A victory for the Taus over Sigma Nu in their coming en-

Block N Society Will 'Get Tough' With Delinquents

Lettermen Must Take Part In Group's Activities To Insure Privileges

Attempted reorganization of Block N to prewar standards has hit a snag," Max Dodge, Block N president, said today.

At recent meetings, small turnouts have prevented the organization from carrying out the duties as set forth in the constitution. "Everything but subpoenas have been used to get members to come to meetings. With all efforts producing little results it has been decided that a much firmer policy will be used," Dodge stated.

Rules To Be Enforced
A list of known Block N members will be posted on the bulletin board. At the next regularly scheduled meeting, roll call will be made from the list. Then, as stated in the constitution, a 25 cent fine will be levied on all absentees. The missing of three consecutive meetings will result in the revoking of all Block N privileges.

There is more to Block N than just wearing the sweater. The actual sweater is an award made by the associated students and does not entitle the wearer to membership in Block N and the enjoyment of its privileges.

Cards Rescinded
Each award winner must be voted into the organization by its members and issued a Block

Wolf Cubs Face Two Reno Teams

University of Nevada freshmen cagers who have enjoyed a successful season, play two games over the weekend in preliminary contests to the Nevada-St. Mary's games.

Wolf cubs face hustling Reno Print of the Reno City League on Friday and oppose the Reno high hoopsters Saturday.

Starting for frosh are: Guards, Paul Richards, ex-Reno high product, and Bob Knudson, another Reno high grad. Center spot will be handled by towering Harold Dale. Forwards will be Johnny Laxalt, former Carson prep star, and Shearl Nielson, Boulder City standout of last season.

When the members fail to comply with the organization's by-laws this card may be rescinded. The actual sweater may not," Dodge concluded. Meetings will be held every third Thursday of the month. During the ensuing month, special meetings will be held to formulate plans for "stag night."

NEVADA THIN CLADS SPORT FAST TRACK

Twenty loads of sand and clay have been dumped on the track in Mackay stadium at seven cubic yards per load.

After much trouble, the board of athletic control finally was able to have the track graded and made into a fast running track rather than the old cinder one that used to get rough after one round of running.

The cinders on the track were left as a mat for the sand and clay. The only complications that might arise from this new track is that it may get too hard and have to be wetted down before racing.

Dr. Church Leaves To Survey Snow In High Himalayas

Proceeding to India by Way Of Manila, Shanghai And Chungking

Going to India to teach snow surveying to members of the weather bureau, Dr. J. E. Church, emeritus professor of the classics and chief in station meteorology, departed Wednesday.

Proceeding by plane, he will touch Manila, Shanghai, Hong Kong, the Yangtze Gorge, Chungking, India, and, if plans go right, he may return by way of Soudan, Dakar, Brazil, Argentina, and then the United States by way of Miami.

Leaving alone for his three months in India, Dr. Church will fly to Manila, then to Hong Kong via Shanghai. Going up the Yangtze river from Hong Kong, he'll stop at Yangtze Gorge and get an idea of the progress being made on the largest dam in the world.

Chungking Next After the Yangtze Gorge, Chungking comes next on his list, where he'll see what the prospects for a snow survey system are in western China.

Flying from Chungking south over the "Hump" into India, he will meet the group with which he is to work.

"The snowmobile will arrive in India around the 11th of March," said Dr. Church, "and I'll have to get there between March 10 and 15. We have everything to learn and nothing is known," he added.

The group's main job is to get acquainted with the mountains and see how the snow melts. The Coast and Geodetic Survey is anxious to get a water survey of that same territory and will work along with Dr. Church and the weather bureau.

The main drawback when they reach the mountains is that the snow line starts at 10,000 feet and the roads only go up to 6000 feet. "This will make our work interesting and exciting," Dr. Church stated, "and we hope the snow-cat can do it."

Dr. Church plans to stay in India for three months and then return. He hopes to return by way of Khartoum on the upper Nile in the Sudan, across Africa to Dakar on the west, and to Rio de Janeiro.

It has been rumored that Argentina is planning a snow survey of the San Juan Basin of the Andes. If he can make it to Rio de Janeiro, Dr. Church plans to continue down to Buenos Aires where he will discuss the problem of snow surveying with the Argentinians.

From there he will head home by way of Miami and plans to be back by June. He will return to India next year if the spring thaw, which limits his stay to three months, comes before his work there is completed.

Mackay Day Plans To Be Formulated By Senate Group

Beard-Growing Tradition To Continue; Carroll Will Pick Queen

Now that the ski carnival is over, plans must be made for the next big campus event, which is celebration of Mackay Day on May 2 and 3, Hans Wolfe, ASUN president, said.

Chairman for the Mackay Day celebration will be a senior. He should have worked on the committee in some previous year, Wolfe emphasized. The nominating committee of the student senate will recommend two persons for the chairmanship and the senate will select the one they think best fitted.

Mackay Day queen will be chosen by the same method as in previous years. Each national and local sorority on the campus and the Independents will nominate one senior woman. Pictures of the contestants are to be sent to Earl Carroll in Hollywood for selection of the queen.

When the committee has been chosen, definite plans will be made for the schedule of events, Wolfe said. Six weeks prior to the event all men on the campus will discontinue shaving and start their growth of beards. At the Mackay Day dance prizes are awarded for the reddest, the best trimmed, and the thickest beards.

Seventeen Vets Given Interview

Seventeen veterans were interviewed by the mobile trailer unit on the campus last week, according to Mr. Raybel Mitchell, head of the insurance division of the veterans administration.

The unit may return to the campus in the future to advise veterans interested in forms for changing their beneficiary, or making their policy payable in a lump sum. The necessary forms may be obtained at the office of Mr. Keith Lee, veterans counselor.

Lee call veterans' attention to the new bill recently enacted. The new measure extends the period of reinstatement from the former deadline of February 1, 1947, to August 1, 1947. "Two

NEVADA BOXERS MEET USF DONS

Nevada boxers will try to break into the scoring column this weekend when they tangle with the University of San Francisco in the bay city's coliseum.

Neither team will enter the ring with an impressive record Saturday night, Nevada having lost two out of two meets and the San Francisco team having the same record.

Nevada will send seven men to the coast. They will include Bud Harwood, Gene Mills, Bob Thornson, Glen Kanig, who won the only fight for Nevada last weekend against San Jose, Howard Heckethorn, Joe Mirci and either Bill Baumann or Richard Piccinini.
