

MACKAY DAY HEAD, PLANS ANNOUNCED

GALA FESTIVITIES SET; BEARDS SPROUT 24TH

"Saturday night is the last beardless date for university men," said Lyman Earl, planning committee chairman, as he released tentative plans for the annual Mackay Day celebration to take place May 2 and 3.

Earl Carrol, authority on beauty, will again select the queen from photographs of contestants representing the five sororities and Barbs. Organizations will be contacted in the near future for photographs of their queen candidates.

The queen will reign over the dance which will culminate the weekend's festivities Saturday evening and at which cups for longest beard, best trimmed beard, best song teams from fraternities and sororities, and best work day attendance will be awarded.

Song Teams Compete

Song teams are being organized by the fraternities and sororities to compete in the contest featured at the luncheon, which is sponsored by the home economics department under the direction of Chairman Dace Ricketts. The uncheon will be held at 2 pm May 3, in the new gymnasium.

"Only ASUN members will be allowed to participate on song teams or as accompanists," Chairman Earl said, and groups are warned that if in the opinion of the judges any member of a team appears to be intoxicated the whole team will be disqualified.

Friday morning the first event of the occasion will be an assembly in the gymnasium. All students will wear their Mackay Day costumes.

At 7:30 Saturday morning university men will assemble on the quadrangle for a beard check, and at 8 am benediction service will be conducted in front of John Mackay's statue.

Honored Guests

The luncheon in the gymnasium will begin at 2 pm Saturday. Honored guests to be invited will be surviving members of the Mackay family: John W. Mackay, Mr. and Mrs. R. Z. Hawkins and Mrs. Irving Berlin.

Other guests of honor will be Governor Vail Pittman; President and Mrs. John O. Moseley; Mrs. Leon Hartman, widow of Dr. Hartman, former university president; Dr. Charles H. Gorman, comptroller, and Mrs. Gorman; Prof. Jay A. Carpenter, director of Mackay School of Mines, and Mrs. Carpenter.

Song teams scheduled to perform at the luncheon are Delta Kappa Delta, Gamma Phi Beta, Kappa Alpha Theta, Pi Beta Phi, Zeta Phi Zeta, Alpha Tau Omega, Lambda Chi Alpha, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Nu, Sigma Rho Delta, Theta Chi, Phi Sigma Kappa and Highlanders. As in the past, Barbs will sponsor a team but it will not compete for the various cups.

Submit List

Chairman Earl requests that campus organizations submit a membership list by 4 pm, April 25, to be used in checking attendance on work days and at the dance. The group having the highest percentage of attendance at these events will be awarded a cup. These lists will be checked for accuracy with official lists in the dean's office.

Enforcing beard growing has been relegated to the men's upperclass committee and excuses for not discarding the razors must be submitted to Howard Haman, committee chairman.

Members of the Mackay Day committee will hold their first meeting in the ASUN building at 7 pm next Tuesday, Earl concluded.

Planners Selected For Engineer Fete

Varied Practical Exhibits Slated for Program

Jimmy Glynn will head the planning committee for the first Engineers' Day celebration staged since the war. Nine other campus engineers were appointed at a recent meeting to coordinate activities for the event.

Practical demonstrations of various types of drills, surveying, mucking and slide rule contests will be featured on the day's program, Chairman Glynn said.

Chairmen for the individual events are Pete Hanford, contest committee; Walter Riggie, riveting; Kenny Goodrich, mucking; Bill Harrigan and Bob Jones, rock drilling; Bob Bryant, surveying, and Regan Breese, slide rule contest. Publicity will be handled by Pat Brady and John Witte.

The chemistry and physics department will present exhibitions and the engineering departments plan to exhibit various interesting machines and gadgets used in mining. Practical usage of single jack, double jack and jack hammers will also be demonstrated.

Plans are also being made to exhibit automobiles around the quadrangle and heavy equipment will be shown on the parking lot between the Education building and the Mackay School of Mines. An aircraft exhibit will be placed on the quadrangle.

Energetic Sagers Plan Activities

The Sager beer-bust and picnic for members and dates will be held April 27 at Bowers Mansion, Bill Buck, Sager president, announced today.

Jerry Wyness, Pat Emery and Johnny Beyer will serve on the picnic committee.

The Sagers will be on hand on Engineers Day to show students' families through exhibits and around the campus.

The underclass men service group will meet visiting athletic teams and escort them to their hotels.

New tryees are scheduled to paint the tram (lake bridge) if the school will furnish the paint.

Sager certificates are now on hand, said Buck, for all past members in good standing. This is the first year that certificates have been awarded, he added, and past members desiring a certificate may obtain it by applying to officers of the group.

SENATE OKAYS FINES

Permission to fine or punish freshman women who are assigned to committees for the AWS fashion show, March 27, and who fail to report for work was given the women's upperclass committee, Hans Wolfe, ASUN president, announced. This was decided at a meeting of the ASUN senate Wednesday evening.

Senior Students Given Membership In Phi Kappa Phi

Six New Names Announced At Honorary Society Assembly Today

Six senior students were elected to membership in Phi Kappa Phi, national honorary society, Thursday. These students were chosen from among the scholastically highest ten per cent of the senior class, Dr. E. W. Lowrance, organization secretary, announced.

Those elected were Marilou Ferguson, French and English major; Virginia Olesen, journalism major; Alice M. Hanssen, botany major; Evelyn Payne, journalism major; Robert Bruce Bowen, who was graduated at the end of the 1946 summer session with an English major, and James W. Teipner, electrical engineering major.

Named at Assembly
Announcement of those elected for membership was made at an assembly 10 o'clock this morning. Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen Rohde was the Phi Kappa Phi day speaker. Initiation and reception of new members will be held at 7:30 this evening in the home economics rooms of the Agriculture building.

Phi Kappa Phi is composed of graduate and undergraduate members of all departments in American universities and colleges. Its prime object is to emphasize scholarship in the thought of college students, to hold fast to the original purpose for which institutions of learning were founded, and to stimulate mental achievement by the prize of membership. The University of Nevada chapter of Phi Kappa Phi, established in 1912, is one of the oldest in the nation.

Blue Slip Total Tops All Records

Largest number of cinches ever turned in to the office of registration were received on March 15. There was a total of 503 delinquent notices for the first six weeks' period.

This figure includes 109 women, receiving a total of 150 cinches; and 257 men, receiving a total of 353 cinches.

In comparison with the first six weeks' report during the fall semester, they are as follows: on October 28, 1946, there was a total of 463 delinquent notices turned in. Two hundred thirty-five men received 319 cinches and 99 women received 144 notices.

CHEMISTRY INSTRUCTOR INJURED IN EXPLOSION

Manuel F. Drumm, fellow in chemistry at the university, suffered acid burns and cuts about the face when an explosion occurred today from a chemistry experiment he was performing.

Drumm was rushed to the Veterans Hospital for emergency treatment and according to hospital authorities his left eye was severely injured. Drumm is now undergoing treatment and his condition is yet unknown.

COMMERCE CLUB

Commerce Club at a meeting held last Thursday night in the home economics room of the Agriculture building, heard Mr. Glynn E. Sanford, assistant manager of J. C. Penny Co., speak on the opportunities of merchandising.

JUST MACKAY AND ME

LYMAN EARL APPOINTED 1947 MACKAY CHAIRMAN

Lyman Earl, Lambda Chi Alpha, was selected as chairman of the committee for the 1947 Mackay Day celebration, to be held May 2 and 3, by the ASUN senate in a meeting Wednesday night. Dace Ricketts, president of Home Economics Club, was appointed as head of the luncheon committee.

16 Campus Lovelies Chosen to Contest Military Queen Job

Scabbard and Blade Members Observed Candidates Thursday

Sixteen beautiful women of the university have been chosen by the Scabbard and Blade Society to compete for the honor of becoming candidates for the queen of the military ball May 17.

At a Scabbard and Blade meeting last night in Stewart Hall, the 16 women attended a presentation social in their honor.

Merton Domonoske, captain of the military group, presented the women to the members of the society. They are Helen Bonner, Los Angeles; Mary Ellen Callahan, Reno; Barbara Cullen, New York, N. Y.; Gene Downey, Las Vegas; Norma Hall, Los Angeles; Teddy Hicks, Sparks; Alice Bidhart, Winnemucca; Mary Hill, Reno; Maxine Jones, Winnemucca; Maida Lee, Boulder City; Gloria Mapes, Reno; Lucille Monroe, Las Vegas; Beverly Nellis, Boulder City; Carol Riley, Sacramento; Mary Lou Sewell, Reno, and Arlene Sorensen, Reno.

When the introduction was completed, the candidates were entertained by dancing, and refreshments were served.

In a short business meeting prior to the social, it was decided the members would eliminate the candidates until there were five left, one of whom would be elected queen at the military ball.

The dance committee chairmen are Kenneth T. Rice and Bert Hildebrand. They have arranged to have the dance in the Red Room of the Masonic Temple and are planning extensive decorations.

Nomination Made For WRA Officers

Dorothy Thomas and Betty Ann Rice were nominated for the presidency of WRA, women's athletic organization, at a special meeting held Monday, Miss Billie Kennedy, WRA president, said today.

Election will be held Tuesday, March 25, from 9:30 to 11:30 and from 12:30 to 4:30 in the foreign language seminar of the library.

Others nominated were "Squeak" Scheeline, Marjorie Simons, and Pat Fee for secretary; Zina Coe and Lois Hit-chens for vice-president, and Barbara Olesen and Cecilia Schindler for treasurer.

PRESS CLUB PREXY HAS BABY DAUGHTER

A girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Armstrong on Friday, March 14. She will be named Christine.

Other members appointed to the committee are Barbara Mills, Kappa Alpha Theta; Betty Sue Boggess, Pi Beta Phi; Bernadette Ertter, Delta Delta Delta; Patricia Fee, Gamma Phi Beta; Rosemary Welch, Independent; Bill Brush, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Milo Price, Phi Sigma Kappa.

Authority Granted

Earl will have the authority to make new appointments and revise his committee before the event takes place. Miss Ricketts will appoint the luncheon committee.

Earl first attended the university in 1939 and until he joined the army in 1943. Last fall he returned to the campus as a senior. His home is in Las Vegas, Nevada. He is a member of the Sundowners, Math Club and Scabbard and Blade. Other activities include Nu Eta Epsilon, an electrical engineering honorary, American Institution of Electrical Engineers and the Associated Engineers.

Miss Ricketts served on the luncheon committee of Mackay Day celebration last year. She has served as chairman of two banquets sponsored by the home economics department.

Underclass Holds Easter Bunny Hop Tomorrow Night

Easter bunnies will be the decorative theme of the froshoph bunny hop to be held tomorrow night in the new gymnasium. Ernie Piersall's Star Dusters will furnish music for the dance, which will begin at 9 pm, according to Franklin Gardner, sophomore class manager, and Norman Olsen, freshman class manager.

Several door prizes will be given away, including a Farnsworth table model radio. Novelty dances, such as a broom dance, spot dance and conga line will be scheduled during the evening.

The dance may be date or no-date, Gardner said, with tickets selling for $1.25 per couple and 75 cents stag.

Advertising for the hop has been under the direction of chairman Art English. His committee members are LaMar Smith, Ruth Armstrong and Jack Smith.

Virginia Shaw heads the decoration committee with assistants Gwen Byrd, Barbara Smith and Margaret Fairchild.

FOUNDER'S DAY

Lambda Chi Alpha will observe founder's day Saturday, March 22.

Starting at 5 pm, a stag get-together will be held at the chapter house for all alumni, active members and pledges.

SNAKE PLEDGES

Sigma Nu pledged four men this week, bringing their total to 14 pinned this semester. These are the only new pledge cards to come into the dean of men's office in the last two weeks.

BIG STICK GIVEN BLUE KEY GROUP One Thrown Out

Full disciplinary powers on parking and traffic control regulations have been granted to the Blue Key, service organization, by the student affairs committee, said Dr. Robert S. Griffin, dean of men.

He said that all necessary steps will be taken to see that violators pay their fines, but that if the fines were not paid the case would go before the administrative council for action.

Dr. Griffin said that beginning Monday a traffic officer would be on duty from early morning to late evening to issue tickets to speedsters, parking rule violators and those who insist on driving the wrong way down "one-way" campus portion of University avenue.

A misunderstanding which arose at the beginning of the semester concerning the night parking forbidden portion of campus streets has now been ironed out, said Griffin.

The misconception arose, he said, when mimeographed statements were circulated around the campus which stated that the parking regulations were in effect only from 7 am to 4 pm but, he added, parking in yellow zones at any hour is no longer permissible.

In an official notice by Dr. John O. Moseley, president of the university, continued Griffin, it was pointed out that the parking and traffic regulations have been published widely and are generally understood by all. The official notice made clear that rules are to be conformed with by the university staff, the student body and the public in general. Ample opportunity to be fully aware of the laws has been given to everyone, the notice indicated.

Dr. Griffin added that these regulations will be in effect at all times with the exception of big social or athletic gatherings when the parking and traffic control will be under the direction of the police department.

He concluded by saying that no exceptions would be made in the paying of fines for traffic violations.

MACKAY DAY SPIRIT(S)

The Mackay Day celebration starts from scratch Monday with the first official sprouting of beards. This shadow on the faces of Nevada men forewarns the campus population that the year's big day is but six weeks away. Townspeople also realize that fuzzy faces mean that students will be celebrating their year's biggest event.

With this in mind, students should begin to plan to have a big time on Mackay Day without going overboard and losing the respect of their fellow students and the people of the state. One incident, however minor, that goes beyond the borders of "good clean fun" snowballs into a big juicy story once it hits the streets of Reno. To keep the activities of the University of Nevada from being bandied about over the back fences of Reno homes, students should kill this type of gossip before it gets out of hand.

The way to do this is to show the world at large that Nevada students can conduct themselves like ladies and gentlemen while enjoying themselves. It is not necessary to act like a bunch of locoed cattle just because a celebration is underway.

Mackay Day Chairman Lyman Earl deserves to be given a break when the event materializes. After working on a program for more than six weeks he shouldn't have the whole thing blow up in his face by the adolescent antics of any students.

To avoid having any spontaneous outbursts of the crude type, a good, well-rounded program of events should be planned for Mackay Day. Success of such a program depends on the students working with Earl. He has assumed a big job—just about the biggest of the year—and is in for a stretch of long, hard days.

Advancement From Snow Bunny to Pro Features Body Bruises, Battered Checkbook

By Della Sorenson
Anyone who has seen skiers racing down steep slopes and executing stem-chisties with the greatest of ease is likely to comment, "Aw, I could do that. All you need is a couple of pieces of board and two poles."

But when it comes to procuring the "pieces of board" and "two poles," the average on-looker is due for a great financial shock. It costs, brother, it really costs.

Even Wholesale
For instance, skis can be bought for approximately $10 to $50. Poles run from $5 to $10 or up, and boots set you back from $10 to $100. On the average, that runs around $58 for just the bare necessities. Of course, you need ski pants, wind-breaker, mittens, sweaters and socks, to say nothing of iodine and bandages.

Then if you want to go in for it in a big way, you get after-ski boots, extra fancy sweaters, tailored pants, goggles and a set of lessons.

By that time you're broke and have to wait until next year to go, but you know that you've made a start, so you store all your equipment and wait for winter to roll around again.

Still It Costs
For those whose waiting is over, the fun begins when the snow begins. After paying up your insurance, you tie your skis on top of the car and head for the nearest thill. There will be others in the same condition, so you needn't feel self-conscious about getting your skis on backwards the first time or for forgetting to fill in the holes you make until someone breaks his leg in one of them.

After the first day on hickory, you feel like you had been kicked by a locomotive. You're wet, tired, discouraged, sore and usually hungry. Then comes the part that is the most enjoyable: talking about it.

You take off your boots, which by this time feel like they had been welded on, grab a cup of coffee and three or four sandwiches and join the gang who are trying to outdo each other with tales of prowess.

Slow Burn
Then you notice your face is beginning to burn. The more you think about it, the more it burns. You think cold water might help, but it doesn't. This is the sign that you've finally become "one of the gang," and after inquiring around a bit you get some oil or cream from someone and hope, that your face turns brown instead of peeling off in layers.

From then on, you're no longer a bystander. Each year you wait for the snow. You spend weary hours rubbing wax into the skis you once referred to as "a couple of pieces of board," and dream about how next year you're going to enter the winter competition and set a new record for the school. Life has taken on a new meaning, once again you're financially solvent, and unless you're beginning to get hardening of the arteries or middle-age heart, you can look forward to many fruitful years of dodging trees and rocks until you finally go the way of all skiers: The Great Sun Valley.

And Just What Is Your Reaction to Platter Chatter?

Some Do, Some Don't; You Pay Your Money and Take a Chance

How do you feel about the public address system blaring music and announcements across the campus between classes? This question was put to a number of faculty members. Replies were various and sundry.

"I have no particular objection to it," Dr. R. M. Gorrell, assistant professor of English, said, "but I think it a poor use of electricity."

Mrs. Katherine Mergen of the journalism department said, "I think the music enlivens the campus, but if they're going to keep it up I suggest they get a new needle."

When approached on the subject, Dr. R. S. Griffin, dean of men, replied, "It hasn't annoyed me and as long as it doesn't disrupt classes I don't believe it does any harm."

"I think it's all right," M. D. Edwards, instructor in English stated, "but they might have a bit more music. The broadcasting has improved considerably since they first started," he added.

Dr. R. A. Irwin, professor of psychology remarked that he had paid no particular attention to it and consequently had no objection to it.

Professor A. L. Higginbotham, head of the department of journalism, said that the blasting noise of the public address system offended his "aesthetic sensibilities" and added that it wasn't in keeping with the university spirit.

J. R. Gottardi, associate professor of foreign languages, said that after hearing the noise through the window, his first reaction was to close the window.

"I believe that there is a time for such things and as long as they stop broadcasting when classes begin, I have no objection to it," he added.

"I don't mind the idea so much, but the selection of music is bad, and the platter-chatter is corny," Keiste Janulis, instructor of journalism, said today.

These between class broadcasts are sponsored by the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, student branch.

1913 Grad Named To Represent UN At Rice Inaugural

Frank C. Gignoux, graduated from the university mechanical engineering school in 1913, was appointed official delegate of the University of Nevada to the inauguration of Dr. William V. Houston as president of Rice Institute to be held in Houston, Texas, April 10.

This institute, founded in 1908 by William M. Rice, Houston millionaire, is a nationally known technological school and until Dr. Houston's appointment this year Dr. E. O. Lovett had been president since its founding.

Following graduation in 1913 Gignoux carried on graduate work in mechanical engineering on the campus for two years. He later went to South America as construction engineer for Shell Oil Company.

Alumnus Gignoux, now living in Houston, is research director for the Reed Roller Bit Company there, according to Rex Daniels, campus secretary for the alumni association.

Engineering Profs Attend Conference

Professor H. B. Blodgett, professor of civil engineering, and Mr. Robert C. Poolman, instructor in civil engineering, will attend the meeting of the Western Metal Congress in Oakland, California, Dean Walter S. Palmer, head of the school of engineering, announced today.

The meeting will be held March 22 to 27 and demonstrate the various methods used in testing metals.

A "supersonic reflectoscope" for testing metals will be demonstrated at the Western Congress meeting.

Four Fraternities Feted at Socials

Four fraternities on the campus were entertained at sorority socials on Wednesday night.

Pi Beta Phi held a social for the members of Alpha Tau Omega at the sorority house. Miss Nellie Corle, Pi Phi housemother, was chaperone.

Sigma Rho Delta was entertained by Kappa Alpha Theta. Marilyn Hansen, social chairman, was in charge of all arrangements. Mrs. Dean Duke was chaperone at the affair.

A social was given for Theta Chi fraternity by the members of Zeta Phi Zeta in the YWCA room at Artemisia Hall. Connie Madsen and Patricia Babb were in charge of the party.

Delta Delta Delta entertained the members of Sigma Nu fraternity. Joyce Neilson, social chairman, made all arrangements. Mrs. Maude Starr, Tri-Delt house mother, was special guest at the social.

AIEE Will Discuss Electronic Welding At Wednesday Meet

Resistance welding by electronic control will be discussed at a meeting of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers on Wednesday at 4 pm in the Electrical Engineering building. Professor Irving Sandorf, head of the electrical engineering department, made the announcement today.

Tom Orrock, junior engineer, will lead the discussion on the various possibilities of the electronic control welder.

Women Students Plan Annual Show With Coed Models

Marilyn Amodi Manages AWS Fashion Show For March 27

Fourteen freshman women will model clothes from downtown shops at the annual AWS fashion show to be held March 27 at 8:30 pm in the new gymnasium. Marilyn Amodi is in charge of arrangements.

Models will be Ann Morgans and Kay Capurro, Delta Delta Delta; Lucille Monroe and Nina Garner, Gamma Phi Beta; Beverly Bergeron and Maida Lee, Pi Beta Phi; Nannette Brown and Delores Bena, Kappa Alpha Theta; Ellen Farnsworth and Shirley Keller, Artemisia-Manzanita; Ethel Stewart and Mary Ellen Callahan, Zeta Phi Zeta, and Moray Black and Marilyn Wathen, Independents.

Patrons and patronesses will be Mr. and Mrs. Silas E. Ross, President and Mrs. John O. Moseley and Dean Elaine Mobley.

Tickets are 50 cents each and may be obtained from Jane Wilcox, Mary Kathleen Hanley, Ethel Pettis, Marilyn Amodi or from Zeta Phi Zeta, Independents and Artemisia-Manzanita Association members. They will also be on sale in the "Y" room in the basement of Stewart Hall from March 20 through 27.

Sally Beebe is handling advertising; Charmaine Hubbard and Janet Rowley are in charge of securing models, and Carol Riley, Jo Ann Tice and Beverly Lehman will obtain clothing from downtown stores. Mary Libby will furnish background music and Jo Ann Miller will act as commentator.

The preparations committee will be headed by Phyllis Green, and serving on the committee will be Virginia Abalos, Patricia Babb, Annabelle Calkins, Lucille Damron, Betty Jane Edwards, Margaret Fairchild, Eva Mae Garrett, Melya Hand, Mary Jean Jensen, Eunice Kamikawa, Arlyn Laughery, Constance Madsen, Jean Nash, Phyllis Phelan, Marie Quackenbush, Lucille Rau, Ida Sanderson, Marilyn Tavernia, Nanette Unsworth, Hope Vassar, Beverly Waller, Ruth Dalton, Darrel Durham, Georgia Anne Puddington, Elizabeth Weir.

Refreshment committee is headed by Marjorie Simon and includes Querida D'La Rosa, Joyce Edwards, Rose Marie Faul, Nancy Hecker, Barbara

Concert Draws 600; Draper, Adler Give Two-Hour Program

Approximately 600 students and Reno townspersons attended the concert presented by Paul Draper and Larry Adler, tap dancer and harmonica virtuoso, respectively, in the university gym last Sunday evening.

Numbers ranged from Bach to Gershwin and classic to jive. For the ton-deaf, Mr. Draper performed a dance without music.

Adler demonstrated his ability by imitating a variety of musical instruments on his concert harmonica.

The last number by the two artists was an "Ad Lib Duet." In response to request numbers from the audience, Adler played and Draper danced totally without preparation.

Harriet Lee, president of Orchesis, the university dance club which sponsored the program, stated that Draper and Adler "were certainly worth the two hours of sitting on hard benches."

Pardee, Doris Smart, Gertrude Smith, Shirley Van Meter, Betty Whitworth, Dona Williamson, Gloria Griffen, Marion Nielsen, Alice Arentz, Gwen Byrd, Elizabeth Haydock, Ann Heim, Anita Coates, Norma Moody, Vivian Chambers, Carol Jean Thomas, Betty Sweeney, Patricia Ross, Marjorie Wills, Sue Wilde, Virginia Wines and Evelyn Yreuta.

Pat Flavin is chairman of the cleanup committee and working with her will be Carolyn Pickens, Romola Schuyler, Sue Smith, Jean Brennan, Lois Shaver, Geneva Marker, Eldora Miller, Alice Micheo, Patricia Jones, Alberta Huff, Norma Montgomery, Jacqueline Muni, Eleanor Sweatt, Beverly Vawter, Frances Batt, Vilma Hokhold, Jeanne Finch, Anna Belle Gillespie, Fay Fryberger, Patricia Fairn, Lois Darney, Betty Lou Coyan, Shirley Bell, Madona Clark, Patricia Shephard, Bonnie Lou Taylor and Angela Navern.

Time and places of committee meetings and meetings for models will be posted on the bulletin board. Failure to appear or secure an excuse before meeting time will be punishable.

SPANISH CLUB MEET

Because of the illness of President Gloria Rosachi, the Spanish Club did not meet last Thursday as scheduled.

Miss Rosachi said that the meeting has been postponed until next week.

Lambda Chi Alpha, Theta, Tri-Delts Hold Theme Hops

Hoboes, farmers and Irishmen took the spotlight this last weekend in dances held by the fraternities and sororities on the campus.

"A Gal in Calico" was the theme of the Delta Delta Delta dance held Friday night at the Oddfellows Hall. Cotton and cords were the dress order of the day.

Scarecrows and saw horses were used in the decorations to typify the down-on-the-farm atmosphere. Originally, the gals had planned to decorate the hall with a haystack but when the fire department forbade it, a grave with a headstone for Johnny Haystack was placed in the center of the dance floor.

Alice Joudas headed the committee in charge of all arrangements. Chaperones at the dance were Mrs. Maud Starr, Tri-Delta housemother; Miss Georgia Cole, Mrs. Sarah Brown, Mrs. Mabel Fulton and Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Nelson.

Kappa Alpha Theta house was the scene of the annual get-together of all campus bums and hoboes Saturday night. The house was decorated to resemble a hobo jungle, complete with tin cans, old clothes hanging from bushes and a campfire.

All guests were dressed in the rags and tatters of bums. Music was furnished by Bob Warren and his band.

Special guests at the affair were Dr. and Mrs. Phillip Lehenbauer and Mrs. Dean Duke. Marilyn Hansen was chairman of the committee in charge of the dance and Naomi Batjer was in charge of the decorations.

St. Patrick's day was celebrated by Lambda Chi Alpha a couple of days early at their dance held Saturday night at the Twentieth Century Club. The dance was given to honor the new pledges of the fraternity and their names were placed on large shamrocks about the room.

Larry Chapman's band played for the dance. Dale Riley and Bill Bowden were in charge of the affair. Chaperones were Prof. and Mrs. J. E. Martie, Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. John Unalde.

On the hill it's "hi."

Then there was a papa robin who flew to his nest and proudly announced that he had just made a deposit on a new Buick.

AWS Representatives Tracy, Saunders To Take Trip East

Betty Tracy and Nora Saunders will attend the associated women's student convention to be held at the University of Minneapolis on April 9 through 12.

Miss Tracy is attending as president-elect in the place of Rose Nannini, who is kept busy on the Artemisia business staff.

Miss Saunders is the secretary-treasurer of the group.

The business meeting for the four-day convention will take place in the Coffman Memorial Student Union building on the Minneapolis campus, reported to be one of the best in the country.

The program for the convention will consist of business meetings, executive board meetings, dinners and entertainment.

Miss Saunders and Miss Tracy will travel by United Airlines, leaving Reno on April 9.

PHI SIGS CELEBRATE 74TH FOUNDERS DAY

Seventy-fourth anniversary of the founding of Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity was celebrated Saturday by both active and alumni members at a cocktail party and buffet supper held at the chapter house.

The regional vice-president of the organization, Dr. Frank C. Palm of the University of California, was guest of honor.

Greek Is Fit To Be Green-Tied Tuesday

Saint Patrick, the patron saint of Ireland, who, it is said, was born in the year 389, would probably be puzzled by the modern observance of March 17, 1947, in his honor.

Eppie Johnson of Theta Chi fraternity typifies the active participation of all nationalities on this Irish holiday. When someone asked about his green bowtie, his answer was that he was just as Irish as his Greek ancestry would allow.

The color green, typical of the Irish, was in lavish display on the campus this saint's day in sweaters, jackets and ties.

Jo Ann Erb Chosen Orchesis Vice-Prexy

Jo Ann Erb was elected vice-president of Orchesis, women's dance club, at a meeting of the group on Tuesday evening. She will go into office next fall automatically as president of the club.

Louise Thompson was elected secretary-treasurer, and Connie Burkholder became publicity manager. Bonny Taylor will be in charge of Orchesis' scrap book.

Harriet Lee, president last fall, will again preside over the group this semester.

Mary had a little wolf, She fleeced him white as snow.

You Can't Get In At Phi Sigma Kappa Unless You Know Joe

The Phi Sigs will recall the gay and giddy prohibition days at their dance tonight. The refreshment room will be transformed into a speakeasy of about the 1928 vintage. Only those who know the pass word will be allowed in the jernit.

The dance is to honor new members and pledges of Phi Sigma Kappa. Milo Price is chairman of the committee in charge of the party.

Special guests will be Mr. and Mrs. George Ross and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jefferson.

On the hill it's hello.

NEVADA WOMAN SELECTED FOR OLYMPIC TEAM

Dodie Post, Nevada graduate and former ski pro at Mt. Rose Bowl, has been selected to perform for the United States Olympic team.

This announcement was made recently at Sun Valley by Albert Segal, president of the California Ski Association and chairman of the Olympic team selection committee.

Although she had missed the Olympic team tryouts and the national ski meet because of an injured ankle, Dodie Post's performances in past competition clinched a position for her on the American squad, said Segal.

Skiing under the colors of the famed Sun Valley Ski Club, she won the combined championship in the western interstate meet, took both the slalom and downhill races at the Intermountain Ski Association meet at Jackson Hole and then captured the tri-state combined crown.

Daughter of Prof. Post
Daughter of Professor Theodore Post, a member of the university staff, Dodie began her skiing career while a student at Reno high school. In 1940 she entered the University of Nevada where she became the star woman performer of the Wolf Pack ski team and eventually Nevada state women's champion. Shortly after the start of the war, Dodie turned pro and served as ski instructor at Mt. Rose Bowl. At the beginning of the present ski season, she applied for and received reinstatement into the amateur ranks in order that she might try out for the American Olympic ski team.

Sports Plans Set By Women's Group For Spring Period

Riding, Tennis, Softball To Begin After Easter, Announces Kennedy

A sports session, to begin the week following Easter vacation, was announced at the Women's Recreation Association sports dinner yesterday by Billie Kennedy, WRA president.

These sports, open to all university women students, are riding, tennis and softball.

Pela Oyarbide is manager of riding, which will be held every Thursday and Friday at 3 pm and every Friday at 1 pm. Helene Root is instructing the jumping classes held every Thursday and Friday at 3 pm.

Tennis Offered
Tennis will be offered at 4 pm on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Barbara Olesen is manager.

Elizabeth Benz will manage softball. This will be given every Monday and Wednesday at 4 pm.

In charge of the sports dinner were Alice Etchart, Bonny Mognoni and Elizabeth Benz.

Special Guests
The sports dinner is held after each sports session in order to initiate those girls who have received participation credit and also to present awards earned.

Special guests at the dinner were Elaine Mobley, dean of women; Elsa Sameth, head of the department of women's physical education, and Mary Ferguson, instructor in physics who is now assisting in the direction of Panawallis, women's swimming club.

PACK TRACKS

By Ray Gardella

SPORTING BOOM

Our Nevada campus is presently enjoying its greatest sporting season in years.

With football and basketball having blazed a creditable chapter in Nevada's athletic history, and boxing revived after a lapse of several years, sports fans may look forward to a variety of top-caliber college activities.

Reputedly flourishing with outstanding material, intercollegiate baseball, track and golf will soon highlight the university's expanding sports program.

Spring football will start after the arrival of new grid coach Joe Sheeketski who is expected here next week. Over 50 candidates are expected to turn out, including many of the veterans from last year's squad.

Intramural warfare will commence April 15, when rival teams begin their battle for the baseball crown.

Not to be overlooked is the interfraternity track meet to be held April 14. Tracksters must practice for three weeks prior to the meet to become eligible.

TOUGH BREAK

Our deepest sympathies go to a brilliant Las Vegas basketball quintet who came here top heavy favorites to cop the state high school tourney.

It was not long ago that we pleaded, along with other local citizenry, that a dangerous phenomenon known as the backboard contraption, be eliminated or remedied. Unfortunately, our bellowing went unheeded.

Consequently, as neat a high school ball club as we've seen trod the hardwood court, paid a discouraging price—injury to three star players, plus losing the state championship—because nobody had intuition to rectify or eliminate an unnecessary hazard.

essary hazard.

TABOO PUGILISTS

Campus boxers who have been participating in intercollegiate matches will lose their college eligibility if they compete in any boxing events aside from university competition, stated Jim Bailey, varsity boxing coach.

This new ruling will affect varsity pugilists who were contemplating on entering the Nevada Golden Glove tourney in Reno April 15, 16 and 17.

Any mittmen over 16 years of age who compete in any AAU tourneys are also not eligible for college competition.

Although we'll miss the colorful array of Nevada boxers who have performed spectacularly in each year's event, we readily agree with the new ruling which is strictly in keeping with the high standards of collegiate boxing.

ELIGIBLE CHUM?

Eligibility rules concerning varsity athletics participating in intramural activities were briefly defined by Doc Martie, PE head. He stated that all varsity players who have not received their letter are eligible for interfraternity events providing they have the consent of their coach.

Basketball coach, Jake Lawlor, said he would allow members of his varsity hardball team to compete in intramural baseball. Other mentors may follow suit in order to keep varsity and intramural sports on an extra-active basis.

No Golden Gloves For Pack Boxers

New Intercollegiate Rule Adopted by Commission

"Amateur boxers over 16 years of age who participate in Golden Gloves tournaments or any bouts other than inter-scholastic, are barred from inter-collegiate competition," Jim Bailey, Wolf Pack boxing coach, stated.

This ruling was adopted by the National Inter-collegiate Boxing Commission and any college using ineligible amateur stars will be suspended from inter-collegiate competition.

Under existing Nevada Golden Gloves rules boxers seeking amateur experience must be 16 to compete. Those who do will lose their chances of competing on the university team. This eliminates the chance for prospective Pack battlers to gain pre-collegiate experience.

Stay Away?

"At the present time we are trying to stimulate boxing in Nevada high schools in an attempt to provide adequate experience, but fighters anticipating joining the Nevada team must steer clear of Golden Glove contests," Bailey added.

Next year, with many of the freshman-laden University of Nevada team returning, the silver and blue team will start training early and will enter some pre-season tuneup matches in preparation for a full season against good competition.

"If we can sign up some of these high school fighters who are graduating and have not violated the newly adopted rule, it will bolster the team considerably," Bailey concluded.

The stronger sex is usually the weaker sex because of the weakness of the stronger sex for the weaker sex.

Five Nevada Skiers Enter Dollar Derby

Five members of the University of Nevada ski team announced this week that they would compete in the second annual silver dollar derby to be held at Mount Rose March 22 and 23.

This ski meet, sponsored by the Reno ski team, is one of the most important meets of the year in the United States and will attract most of the important skiers of the U. S. plus ski teams from Switzerland and Canada.

Planning to enter from the University of Nevada are Jerry Wetzel, Barnes Berry, Les Hawkins, Cliff Banta and Mickey Munley.

Men's Organizations Must Submit Names For Intramural Track

Entry lists for the intramural track meet to be held April 12 in Mackay stadium must be turned in to the men's PE department on or before March 24.

Physical examinations for all entries, except those PE students who have been examined this year, must be taken by this date, said Chet Scranton of the PE department.

No names can be added to the lists once they are turned in, so organizations are urged to turn in their full quota of three men in each event.

Participants will be required to work out daily after March 24, Prof. Scranton said. The final entries must be in by April 9.

One hundred points toward the Kinnear trophy will go to the winner of the meet, while teams securing second, third, fourth and fifth places will receive 60, 40, 20 and 10 points, respectively.

All Coast Honors For Pack Cagers

Two University of Nevada athletes were honored recently by being selected as members of UP's All-Pacific all-star basketball team.

Bob O'Shaughnessy and Jim Melarkey were chosen as members of the first and third teams, respectively.

Though the selections were dominated by Oregon State College men, Red Rocha and Lew Beck, the University of Nevada along with another independent, the College of Pacific, managed to secure two places on the team; O'Shaughnessy as guard and Jack Toomey as forward.

O'Shaughnessy set a new scoring record for the Wolf Pack by totaling 410 points during the basketball season.

Those making the first team besides O'Shaughnessy were Red Rocha, forward, Oregon State; Jack Toomey, forward, College of Pacific; Don Barksdale, tall colored center of UCLA, and Lew Beck, guard, Oregon State.

Jim Melarkey as forward made UP's third team along with Chuck Hanger, forward for California; Jimmy Johnson, center from Clark College, Vancouver, Washington, and guards Bill Durkee, of California and Robert Jorgenson of Washington.

New Era in Campus Dramatics Open With 'Joyous Season'; Excellent Cast

"The Joyous Season," ASUN's spring semester dramatic production, raised the Reno Little Theater's curtain on an excellent cast Tuesday night, and foreshadowed a new era of campus dramas under the direction of William C. Miller.

Last winter's ASUN effort was George M. Cohan's "The Tavern," a semi-flop from every angle except as an experiment. In that sense it was a terrific success.

Before the showing of "The Tavern," Director Miller explained that his primary object in putting it on was to find out how many students were interested in dramatics. The project was successful and, judging from the apparent success of "Season," greater things are in store for University of Nevada drama enthusiasts.

In the words of the poet Edwin Arlington Robinson, "Season" could be labeled "the story of an ineffectual misfit . . ."

The story of the Farleys, an Irish family which has come into a fortune by inheritance, depicts the influence of wealth and a Boston Beacon street mansion upon the country-loving family.

The Farleys are on the verge of dissolving because of disagreement and unhappiness due to greed and snobbishness brought about by the unexpected wealth.

Christina Farley, who has been away for 12 or 14 years in her travels as a Catholic Nun, arrives on Christmas Eve. Through her other worldly wisdom and simplicity she churns the feelings of the family, straightens out a couple of tangled love matches, tells the family that life is always worth living when lived right, and says goodbye on Christmas night.

Before the curtain falls the mansion is on the "for sale" list and a Farley reunion in the country is happily in the making.

Helen Brania and Jack Walling as Christina Farley and John Farley play sincere and convincing roles. Miss Brania's performance of a Catholic nun is exceptionally fine.

Joyce Nielsen as Teresa Farley Battle and Leo O'Brien as her idealistic husband, Francis Battle, are also excellent as the main love complication.

Franklin Rittenhouse as the conservative Martin Farley, and Marion Gotberg, playing his uppish wife, make for a good Bostonian touch.

The humor of Ross Farley in the form of Rex Jemison is enlightening, and the stubbornness of Mark Bray as Hugh Farley is pleasingly distracting.

Tosca Masini as the sleepless, infatuated younger sister, Monica Farley, is realistic and stirring. Jack Diehl as Patrick, the butler, and Orena Williams as Nora, the maid, also play their parts well, as does Norma Caruth as Sister Aloysius.—Arbie.

Dunbar and Beardall Now Mr. and Mrs.

Lolamae Dunbar passed out candy at the Pi Beta Phi house on Monday night, announcing that she had been married to Roy Beardall, SAE, since January 21. They were married at the court house in Carson City.

The former Miss Dunbar said that her parents were planning to hold a formal announcement at the Last Frontier in Las Vegas during Easter vacation. They plan to live in Sparks at 229 13th street.

On the hill it's hello.

ASUN Groups Plan Frosh Orientation

A "country fair" to be held during freshman week of the fall semester of 1947 was planned on Monday at a meeting of the orientation committee and the heads of campus organizations, Hans Wolfe, ASUN president, announced.

The country fair plan will be the same as was sponsored during freshman week last fall when the campus organizations set up booths in the new gym and explained the functions of their groups to new students, Wolfe said.

The entire evening will be devoted to the fair instead of including a program of speeches and dancing as was done last fall, Wolfe said. The fair will be held September 15.

Members of the orientation committee present at the meeting were Dr. Ralph A. Irwin, professor psychology; Dr. M.W. Deming, professor of chemistry; Prof. Irving Sandorf, electrical engineering, and Prof. Van Dyke, mechanical engineering.

Fifteen of the 34 campus organizations were represented. They were band, Blue Key, Blue Peppers, Campus Club, Campus Players, civil engineers, electrical engineers, mechanical engineers, home economics, math, Newman, Orchesis, history, YWCA and WRA.

PI PHI FASHION SHOW SET FOR SATURDAY

A fashion show and tea will be given Saturday for all campus women and alumni by Pi Beta Phi. The affair will be held at the Pi Phi chapter house from 2 to 4 pm.

The fashion show will feature clothes from J. Magnin and is sponsored by the alumni of Pi Beta Phi. Helen Meeker and Francis Sumner are in charge of the tea.

Varsity Ball Nine Short of Pitchers

Baseball prospects for the Nevada varsity appear favorable as the Wolves gather strength for the coming season.

Pitching remains the big question mark on the squad with only Jack Musselman ready for mound work at present. Bill Mackrides is due to help out in this department when his ailing shoulder gets back in shape.

The outfield candidates paint perhaps the rosier picture on the squad. In this department we find such horsehide swatters as Turk Eliades of Reno Garage experience, Morley Bockman and Al Lazzarone of last year's Bonanza Club, Leland Tucker and John Hellstowski.

The infield, too, has strong candidates in Pat Francellini and Vaughn Marker at first, Buddy Garinkle and Lee DeLauer at second and Chub Drakulich at short.

Third base should create quite a battle for starting honors. Candidates for the hot spot are Gene Evans, Ken Sinoofsky, Mike Mirabelli and Jerry Derushia.

Johnny Subda and Jerry Wyne are also showing promise in the infield.

RETURN CONSTITUTION

Ski Club constitution submitted to the executive committee of the student senate for approval was returned to the organization for revision and clarification, Hans Wolfe, ASUN president, announced.

UN Campus Library Receives Rare Gift

Mrs. Edith Holmes, wife of the late Professor William O. Holmes, instructor in English at the University of Nevada, has made another gift to the university library, James J. Hill, librarian, announced this week. The gift is a page of the rare Welmscott Press Chaucer.

This page, taken from an incomplete copy, is from the legend of Good Women, part of the story of Ariadne, as told by Chaucer. The page is about 15 inches by 12 inches, and is printed and illustrated in black and white. The accompanying text comprised approximately one-third of the tale.

Mrs. Holmes has given many other articles to the university library. The gifts fall into two categories—books to be used by students, and more valuable collectors items, such as this page.

ST. PATRICK PATRON OF ME ORGANIZATION

Saint Patrick is the patron saint of mechanical engineers, and last Monday the ASME on the campus instituted a tradition by meeting on that night.

Plans for Engineers Day were discussed at the meeting and St. Patrick's day was officially made a traditional meeting date.

Frat Baseball Prospects Good

With the signs of warm weather the horsehides are slowly spinning through the air in front of all the fraternity houses on the hill. With the interfrat season just a few weeks off, the boys are planning to get the "kinks" out early.

Tentative lineups have been submitted by the houses and judging from past performances, it will be an all out race with the "hairy chested" ATOs and the Sigma Nu "Snakes" battling it out for first and second place.

The Sigma Nus have Bill Beko, Orsic Graves, Bob Knudson, Hal McKissick, Jim Esola, Elio Barsanti, Drake Delaney, Buddy Garfinkle, Buddy Miles, Carnie Hall and Johnny Helstowski.

The Lake street gang, otherwise known as the Phi Sigs, are hard at work getting their arms in shape. Bill Gillis, Morley Bochman, Matt Klemaszewski, George Lindesmith, Larry McGowan, Bill Mackrides, Bill Ebert, John Heher, Ugo Giorgi and Bill Horton are expected to carry the brunt of the Phi Sig attack.

Tom Cross, Lambda Chi manager, announced that the following men will represent the boys on University Terrace. Turk Eliades, Bob Bondurant, Bradley, Broadbent, Jim Collins, Webster Brown, Bill Bowden, George Benson, Orville Holderman, Eric Richards and Cross.

Bob Butler, Sigma Rho manager, reported that the Lincoln Hall boys loosening up include Jack Owens, Don O'Hagan, Bill Gavitt, Johnny Michaels, Mel Winsor, Johnny Orr, Bob Butler, Loren Doxey and Irv Hackett.

Over on Evans avenue the following SAEs have been seen throwing the horsehide around. Pat Francellini, Roger Brander, Jerry Wyness, Johnny Etcheto, Earl Gilmore, Bill Leonard, Ed Sharkey, Shearl Nielson, Bob Larsen and Dave Bywater.

Bill Johnson, manager of the Theta Chi outfit, announced that the following men reported for the team. Bob McCrae, Gewnaro Falconeri, Al Prina, Wallace Spencer, Bob Allen, Don John-

Woman Lecturer Speaks to Assembly On U. N. Functions

"The United Nations has not yet caught the imagination of the world," said Mrs. Ruth Bryn Owen Rohde, authority on the United Nations, at an assembly held this morning in the new gymnasium.

"The greatest question now before the United Nations is atomic power," she said. She emphasized the fact that the scientists as well as the citizens of the world are afraid of what is to come.

"Since this question will affect the security of the world, we are going to have to get a plan to halt this armament race," Mrs. Rohde continued. The two outstanding plans now before the United Nations are those presented by the United States and Russia.

Mrs. Rohde, who was a delegate at the first meeting of the United Nations in San Francisco, presented to the students and the large gathering of townspeople the basic functions of the U. N. government and also the means by which U. N. meetings are conducted.

THREE ELECTED TO SIGMA SIGMA KAPPA

Three members of the Chemistry Club were elected last week to Sigma Sigma Kappa, the chemistry honorary society. Dr. George W. Sears, head of the department of chemistry made the announcement at a recent meeting of the Chem Club.

Those elected were Lois Hitchens, Joan Matcovich and Shirley Campbell.

Varsity Boxers Receive Awards

Men eligible for boxing awards were named by the executive committee of the student senate in a meeting Wednesday night, Hans Wolfe, ASUN president, announced. Names of the men were submitted to the committee by Jim Bailey, boxing coach.

Those to receive awards are Joseph Mirci, Glen Kanig, Robert Thronson, Howard Heckerhorn, William Baumann and Richard Piccinini. Ugo Giorgi is eligible to receive an award as manager.

Requirements for receiving an award in boxing are:

1. If two intercollegiate matches are scheduled a man must take part in one and win one or take part in two matches and he may lose both.
2. If three or more matches are scheduled a man must take part in two-thirds of the matches and win at least one or take part in all the matches and he may lose them all.
3. A man must be a member of the squad for the entire season and must be recommended by the coach.

Campus Catholics Elect Treasurer

The Newman Club, campus Catholic organization, met last Sunday after breakfast and 9:30 mass.

Louis Pico, Sigma Rho Delta, was elected treasurer.

Pictures were taken for the yearbook, and a short address was given by Father Shea, the parish priest.

The group also discussed plans for a future picnic. Nancy Heher, Pat Heher, Marjory Kelley, Betty Kim and Ray Corlin were chosen on the food committee. Elected for the transportation committee were Bob Caughlin and Louis Pico.

An epitaph is a short sarcastic poem.

The Sagebrush is the campus mouth organ.

Start that beard growing.

Vets Mobile Unit Dispenses Info

Approximately 30 student veterans received information concerning benefits incurred from war service when the V. A. mobile unit was here this week.

Grable Mitchell, regional insurance officer, and Earl Emunds, and Howard Farrell, the V. A. mobile staff office members, were kept busy answering questions and filling out claims.

This is the second time that the mobile unit has been on the campus. The men will return whenever there is sufficient demand.
