

Commencement Speakers Chosen To Talk At Graduation Exercises

Dr. Thomas Ewing to Deliver Sermon; Commencement Talk by Dr. J. W. Dodds

Two outstanding West Coast educators will be speakers at the University of Nevada Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises June 8 and 9 in the new gymnasium.

Tentative list of candidates for graduation includes 72 candidates for Bachelor of Arts degrees, 32 candidates for Bachelor of Science degrees, 28 candidates for Bachelor of Engineering, and one candidate for a Master of Science degree.

Speaking at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, June 8, will be the Rev. Thomas D. Ewing, who will deliver the Baccalaureate sermon. His topic will be "Unchanging Truth in a Changing Setting." The Rev. Mr. Ewing is director of Westminster House at the University of California at Berkeley.

Dodds to Speak

Dr. John Wendell Dodds, Dean of the School of Humanities at Stanford University, will speak at the commencement exercises beginning at 10 a. m., Monday.

At 1 p. m., immediately following the exercises, the annual Alumni luncheon will take place in the University dining hall, with graduating seniors and their families as guests of honor. Attendance will be by reservation, since facilities are limited.

The Rev. Mr. Ewing is a native of Oregon and a graduate of Princeton University. He taught for three years at the American University of Beirut in Lebanon. He came to Berkeley in 1943 as Director of the Westminster Foundation of Northern California. He is resident Presbyterian student pastor at the University of California.

Dr. Dodds is the author of several books, and a professor of English. He became Dean of the School of Humanities at Stanford in 1942. The lecturer received his doctorate at Yale and is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, a national scholastic honor group.

As in years past the Baccalaureate and Commencement program will be preceded by the academic procession of faculty members and graduating students in cap and gown.

Following is the tentative list of candidates for graduation as released by Jeanette C. Rhodes, registrar:

Thomas Allard, Arthur Alles, Mary Allum, Marilyn Amodel, Richard Armstrong, Ruth Armstrong.

Historian Suggests 47-48 Successor

Suggestions for improvements in next year's ASUN historical records were made by Pat Usery, historian, in a report to the student senate this week. Also, Miss Usery recommended that a new historian be selected from three names she submitted. They are Rita Mortara, Catherine Ghilieri and Howard Heckethorne.

Among the suggestions made was that work on the ASUN scrapbook now in the library be started immediately after the fall semester opens. Also, more pictures should be used in the book.

Gillis, Foley Cop Class Head Posts

Bill Gillis, candidate for junior class manager, and John P. Foley for sophomore class manager, came out on top in Wednesday's election by a narrow margin.

With 500 students voting, Gillis managed to run up 90 votes against Howard Heckethorne's 82.

Foley came out on top with 166 votes while Rex A. Jemison came close with 164.

Nominations Open For BMOC, BWOC For Ensuing Year

Any group or individual on the campus who wishes to nominate candidates for Who's Who Among American College Students for the year 1947-1948, should submit nominations before the end of this semester, Dr. R. S. Griffin, dean of men, declared today.

Qualifications for candidates are as follows: He or she must be of junior or senior standing for the year 1947-1948, must have a "respectable" scholastic average, must have a record of campus activities which denotes qualities of leadership, and must have a record which gives promise of constructive leadership in post-college life.

In submitting the records of candidates, Dr. Griffin requested that nominations include each candidate's class standing in the university next fall, including total number of grade hours completed. All extracurricular activities and offices held in campus organizations should be included. The correct local mailing address and full name of the candidate are also essential.

'46-'47 Selections

As those individuals who were selected for 1946-1947 will be automatically included, their names are not to be re-submitted.

Selected for 1946-1947 were: Hans Wolfe, Noel Willis, Patricia Usery, Dorothy Sewell, Virginia Olesen, Rose Nannini, Jo-Ann Miller, Tosca Masini, Adele Marsh, Gloria Mapes, Eileen Kerr, Robert Hoyer, William Henley, Marilyn Dugan, Max Dodge, Carl Diginio, John Diehl, James Borge and Edward Beaupt.

Early nominations are desired in order to facilitate the selection of the candidates for the ensuing year.

The list of candidates, when compiled, will be submitted to the Administrative Council for a composite vote.

The university's quota for the year will probably be from 20 to 25 individuals, declared Dr. Griffin.

SCABBARD AND BLADE TO INITIATE McDONNELL

Joe T. McDonnell, graduate manager, will be initiated into Scabbard and Blade as an associate member reserve officer. The initiation will be held at the regular meeting of Scabbard and Blade on Wednesday, May 28.

John Witte Named Blue Key President

John Witte, Sigma Rho Delta, was elected president of Blue Key, national honor fraternity, this week. Bob Durham was elected vice-president and Daniel Rice, secretary-treasurer. Rex Ricketts was named for corresponding secretary.

Witte stated that Blue Key plans to publish the student directory again next year for both the fall and spring semesters. Blue Key will continue the activities the organization sponsored this year, Witte said.

Gillis Elected Block N Head

In a meeting of the Block "N" society, Bill Gillis, Phi Sig sophomore, made it a clean sweep in yesterday's elections when he was elected to the presidency of the Block "N" society. Gillis had earlier been elected manager of the junior class.

Orsie Graves, Sigma Nu basketballer, became the new vice president and James "Toad" Welin, ATO, was elected secretary-treasurer.

Plans were formulated for the Block "N" picnic which will be one of the most elaborate in the school's history, Max Dodge, retiring president, said.

The picnic will be held Thursday afternoon, May 29, at Bowers Mansion. Bill Gillis is chairman of the food committee and Orsie Graves is in charge of refreshments.

A full financial report was submitted by outgoing secretary-treasurer Harry Paille on the Stag Night held several weeks ago.

Senior Ball Plans Announced by Owen

With no classes being held on the following day, the senior ball will be held Thursday, May 29, Jack Owen, senior class manager, announced today.

The ball will start at 9 pm at the Twentieth Century Club with Carl Bruhn's orchestra supplying the music.

"For men the dress will be optional—tuxedos or suits," stated Owen.

The planning committee for the ball are Jack Owen, senior class manager, Gerry Parker, program, and Danny Rice, advertising.

President and Mrs. John O. Moseley, Dean Elaine Mobley and Colonel and Mrs. Gilbert Parker will be the chaperones.

Home Ec Group Installs Officers

In a brief candlelight ceremony new officers of the Home Economics Club were installed last Wednesday evening. Althea Benedict, the new president, received the gavel from outgoing president Dace Ricketts, and spoke on club plans for next year.

Other officers are Meryde Brown, vice-president; Ann Marx, treasurer; Marge King, secretary; Jean Scott, historian.

Decorations and refreshment color schemes were carried out in yellow and wine, and both the new and old officers had corsages of pansies. In addition to pansies, the two presidents had yellow roses.

Besides Miss Ricketts, other outgoing officers were Meryde Brown, treasurer; Dot Thomas, secretary, and Ruth Wallace, historian.

Sixteen Counties To Have Students On Service Plaque

Wartime Student Casualties Number 79; Reno Has Largest Group

Every Nevada county save one will be represented on the gold star Blue Key memorial plaque to be erected at the south entrance to the university library. Dedication will take place May 29, Jimmy Glynn, publicity chairman for the upperclassmen campus service organization said today.

There are 79 names to be engraved on the bronze plaque, and these will consist of graduates and former students at the university who gave their lives in defense of their country during the last war.

The base will be of polished native granite five feet high, three feet wide and one foot thick, with the bronze plaque itself, set atop the block measuring 30 by 26 inches.

Foot of Flag Pole

"University of Nevada World War II Plaque" will be inscribed above the names engraved on the roll.

By cities the names of Nevada men to be placed on the plaque will include John Robert Anderson, Thomas Bain Stone, of Winnemucca; Franklin Mack Andrews, Jr., of Minden; Thomas W. Bafford, Garnett L. Freeman, James E. Gibbs, Joseph Barney Macari, Wayne Van Vorhis, Ben M. Morehouse, of Fallon.

Murvyn Veral Brannan, Boulder City; Lee John Conaway, Caliente; Elmer Lawrence Davis, Alamo; Leslie Earl Mathews, Lafayette LeRoy Wadsworth, Panaca; Woodrow S. Ellertson, Walter S. Sparks, Carson City; Stephen Michael Zoradi, Buford H. Perry, Mina.

Charles Edwin Bath, Francis Elwood Brown, Russell F. Byington, Frederic Bernard Coalwell, Marshall S. Creel, Wendell James Fritz, Donald C. Good, George F. Hardman, Raymon D. Harris, Jr., Joseph Lee Haslett, John H. Jorgensen, William J. King, Stanley A. Leahigh, Clinton Wayne McKinley and Francis Menante were from Reno.

Oscar Neundorfer, Franklin Isador Peck, Jack Quaid, Dean Leslie Quilici, Melvin Ernest Radcliffe, Richard D. Sawyer, William A. Shaw, Jr., George M. Shogren, George R. Smith, Jr., James M. Thompson and Eric Reed Young, are also Reno students killed in action.

Others not listed were from out of state cities but had attended the university at some time.

OFFICERS INSTALLED IN WRA THURSDAY

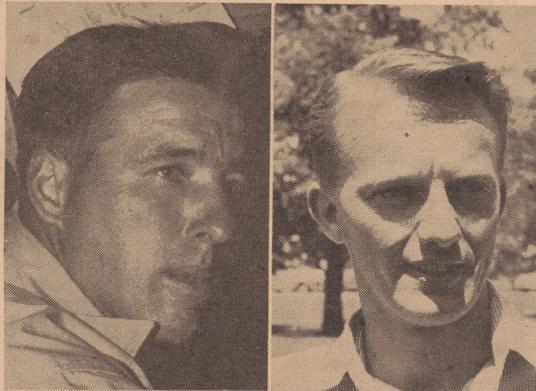

Formal installation ceremonies were held yesterday for the recently elected officers of the Women's Recreation Association.

Miss Betty Ann Rice, sophomore member of Pi Beta Phi, was installed as president. Other officers installed were Lois Hitchens, vice-president; Helene Heywood, secretary, and Barbara Olesen, treasurer.

Miss Heywood was elected secretary following the resignation of Evelyn "Squeek" Scheeline, who was married recently.

Sagebrush, Artemisia 'Wheels' Selected at Publication Meeting

Gene Evans and Doris Hanssen were appointed editors of next year's Sagebrush and Artemisia, respectively, at a recent meeting of the publications board. The board also appointed Ted Furchner business manager of the campus newspaper and Bud Bowers, for the year book. Furchner announced that Bob Nelson will be advertising manager for the Brush.

Entering his senior year as a journalism major, Evans has had experience as sports editor and assistant editor on the Sagebrush this year. He has also been reporting for the Carson City Appeal as an interne. He was born in Oakland, California and attended Washington State college for two and one-half years before entering the army.

Okinawa Vet

Evans is a veteran of four years' service as a combat infantryman with the 7th Infantry division and participated in the invasions of Kawajalein, Philippines and Okinawa. He was wounded twice by flying shrapnel during the Philippine invasion and was hit again on Okinawa. Evans came to Nevada in the spring of 1946. In addition to his activities on the Sagebrush, he is third baseman for the university baseball team.

Miss Hanssen has assisted editors of the Artemisia for the last two issues. Because of printing problems, film shortages and lack of assistance, both of these books were delayed in publication, but she is going to start editing the 1948 annual before the fall semester begins. Miss Hanssen acted as assistant editor and editor of the Sparks high school annual during her junior and senior years there. She has also served as reporter on the Sagebrush this year.

Active in many women's sports she is a member of Gothic N and is secretary for WRA. She is also a member of YWCA and Fine Arts club.

Ad Manager

Furchner has served on the business staff of the Sagebrush for two years and is now advertising manager. He has also been assisting Dick Rowley, now business manager of the 'Brush, and is thoroughly familiar with the routine of the position. He was born in Washington but has received most of his education in Reno.

While attending Reno high school he served on the business staff of the school paper. Furchner spent three and one-half years in the Navy as a radar maintenance man, and was stationed on New Guinea for most of this time.

In Air Corps

Bowers served one year on the business staff of the Artemisia before he enlisted in the Air Corps, and has worked with Rose Nannini, business manager, this year in addition to chasing ads. Bowers is from Fallon and while attending high school there he worked on the business staff of the annual. He served three years as a ground crewman for the 8th Air Force in England.

Bob Nelson, named advertising manager by Furchner, has worked on the Sagebrush advertising staff this year in addition to reporting. Nelson also works in the Wolf Den.

BRUSH SEEKS NEW BLOOD

What type blood have you? The business staff of the Brush needs new blood this fall of the advertising type. Both red and blue bloods interested in ad sales and layout are needed.

A few hours a week with the ad staff will pay off in actual business experience.

Fraternity, sorority and independent students desiring an interesting activity with the Brush ad staff see Bob Nelson at the Wolf Den.

Interfrat Council Assails Deadbeats

Fraternity Free-Loaders May Get Stiff Rap

Severe penalties will be meted out to fraternity members who do not pay their house bills, Dr. R. S. Griffin, dean of men, said yesterday.

Interfraternity council members decided Monday that upon approval of most of the houses on the hill any house can call for university action to be taken against non-paying members.

Dr. Griffin said that action would be taken in the form of withholding of grades, refusal of graduation, or refusing to register the debtor for the next semester. All penalties would be subject to the approval of the Board of Regents.

Hands Tied

"At present," Griffin said, "the university can do nothing if a man does not pay his fraternity bills."

So far, all of the houses but one have agreed to the proposal. It will go into effect this semester.

Also proposed at the Monday meeting was the suggestion that the fraternities allow a certified public accountant to audit their books each semester.

This would aid in their keeping the budget and accounts straight by providing a periodic check. The service would be entirely optional, however, and Dr. Griffin said that the accountant would be responsible only to the fraternity.

JOURNALISM PICNIC

Idlewild Park will be the scene of the journalism department picnic Sunday evening from 6 to 8 pm. All journalism students, journalism faculty members, and guests may attend. Refreshments will be served.

Paul Weaver and Bill Gillis are chairmen of the committee. Other committee members are Pat Read, Julia Baker and Marilyn James.

Publication Heads To Attend Dinner At Lake Sunday

Publications board will hold a welcoming banquet for the newly elected publication heads this Sunday evening at Lake Tahoe. The dinner will also serve as a farewell party for outgoing editors and business managers.

At the last meeting of the board, held Monday, May 19, Dorothy Thomas was put in charge of making the arrangements. Miss Thomas will be assisted by Rose Nannini and Dick Rowley.

All new members of the board are invited, and any former members still attending school are welcome at their own expense, Miss Thomas stated.

Alumni Luncheon To Honor Grads

Louis Wiener, Jr., Las Vegas, vice-president of the university Alumni Association and president of the Las Vegas chapter, will be the presiding officer of the annual alumni luncheon to be held at 1 pm June 9, in the university dining hall.

President John O. Moseley will act as toastmaster at this luncheon.

The Alumni Association and the university will be hosts to the graduating class at the luncheon. Wiener will induct the members of the graduating class into the Alumni Association in which they receive free membership for the remainder of the calendar year. Membership cards will be mailed to the graduating seniors during the summer.

About 400 people are expected to attend the luncheon. There are a limited number of seats, at a dollar apiece, available in the Alumni office for parents and immediate friends of the seniors. All ticket distribution will be handled through the Alumni office.

The opinions expressed in the editorials of the Sagebrush are those of the editor and do not necessarily reflect the viewpoint of any other individual or of any campus organization.

CHECKING OUT

Every year along about this time, the editor of the Sagebrush is faced with the problem of filling his editorial columns with a handful of final words. Since in a few ways this has been like any other year, another final seems to be in order.

In past years this problem has been simply and effectively met by filling the space with a big, black "30." Other editors have felt that they had something to say about their sessions with scissors. This is one of those times.

A substitution had to be made in the editorial slot before the half-time whistle sounded. As an untried bench warmer, this editor trotted into the game with many qualms. Most of these doubts were soon dispelled. Cooperation accomplished this. Campus bigwigs and just plain students pitched in and helped out wherever they could. This made a fairly decent year out of what might have been a nightmare.

But, it's all over now. This is the issue we have been looking for all year. It's the final go. It's thirty.

Wolfe Ends Term in President's Saddle With Expression of Thanks to Students

With his term of office nearing completion, Hans Wolfe, ASUN president for the 1946-47 school year, expressed his appreciation to the members of the student senate, members of the faculty and administration, and to the student body as a whole for their cooperation in initiating and executing the ASUN rules and programs.

"Our ASUN government has been greatly aided this year through the cooperation of the student press," Wolfe said. He stated that the "Brush" was a necessity to the student government as it was the only medium through which the ASUN problems and measures could be presented directly to the students.

One-Way Traffic
Alterations and additions have been made to the ASUN rules and campus organizations in the past year to meet the demands of an increased student body and the post war changes on the campus. A system of one-way traffic was put into effect and parking regulations made and enforced, which eliminated some of the campus traffic hazards.

With the increased cost of materials and labor, the price of the Artemisia was raised 50 cents per semester by a vote of the student body. Wolfe stated that the four dollar total cost of the book is still a small sum compared to other schools.

The student veterans' club, war board, and American Red Cross were all declared inactive on the campus, while Scabbard and Blade was reactivated. The swimming club was also approved as an official organization.

"A step toward having all-around participation in student and campus affairs was made when the Highlanders were granted a vote in the senate," Wolfe said.

Improvement Group
The Student Improvement committee, under the chairmanship of Henry Stewart, played a vital role in the allocation of funds to the university by the state legislature, Wolfe emphasized. Recommendations have been made by Wolfe that the committee remain active in future years.

On a request from the senate, the city council of Reno has made plans for installing street lights on Ninth street from University avenue to Sierra street.

Reinstate Traditions
In outlining the work of the ASUN for the past year, Wolfe stated that he and the senate have tried to reinstate all the old traditions familiar to the campus previous to the war. For the first time since the war Homecoming celebration included a parade and floats, and the Engineers' day was again celebrated.

In his connections with students from other colleges and universities, Wolfe has found that the University of Nevada is known for its hospitality toward visitors. Students from Stanford, Fresno State, and other schools have expressed their thanks for the welcome shown them while in Reno for meetings or contests.

Impartiality Keys Jim Glynn's Plans For Coming Year

"In every matter concerning the student body I shall try to act impartially," Jim Glynn, ASUN president-elect for the 1947-48 school year, said this week.

Glynn further stressed that throughout his term of office he will feel it his duty to hold the welfare of every student in mind and will regard this duty with a great deal of esteem.

After taking oath of office May 29, Glynn will officially become ASUN president June 1. Although the ASUN organization will be inactive during the summer, Glynn, who is a resident of Reno, will get his office in order for the fall semester.

When asked about his plans for next year, Glynn stated that it is too soon after the election to make any definite statement concerning future programs.

KERRSES

By Eileen Kerr

With so many loose ends in view that it looks like a plate of spaghetti, the school year approaches the dead end sign. The editor suggests in a you-will-and-like-it tone of voice that we say "good bye and thanks for listening" concerning these tottering inches. Au reservoir, little puddle, and don't think it hasn't...

Stop biting those elbows and let's see what's in the bag for this week.

One utterly ridiculous item concerns the second annual BYU Horse Show which is scheduled for May 23 at Provo, Utah. There will be a women's cow-milking contest on the agenda. It takes pull to get anywhere girls.

Seniors here will berate the fact that they did not consider going to the University of Utah in their younger years. A recent article in the Utah Chronicle stresses "It is not necessary for a teacher to give a final examination to graduating seniors, if it is felt that the student has a knowledge of the subject." Very few professors on the Utah campus take advantage of that if; and lucky Utah graduates relax come test time.

They're real hi-de-ho in Idaho this weekend. A big Linda Hop featuring a barbershop quartet and a can-can dance is being put on by the freshmen of that university. The affair is so entitled in honor of "Linda," a 1927 model T Ford which will be given away at the dance. Linda almost didn't get to the dance, however, for late Wednesday night, several nefarious characters kidnapped her with every intention of keeping her from putting in her scheduled appearance on the big night. The shock was too much for Linda, and she had a nervous breakdown in front of one of the sorority houses there. With the plot thus thwarted, Linda should be the belle of the ball, as planned.

Chemistry Tests Published by Mag

Results of tests conducted locally by two university professors of chemistry were published in the April, 1947 issue of Light Metal Age magazine. The tests were made on commercial magnesium coatings.

Dr. George W. Sears, head of the department of chemistry and Dr. Loring R. Williams, associate professor of chemistry, co-authors of the article, conducted the tests.

Light Metal Age is the national magazine of the light metal industry, which includes magnesium, aluminum, beryllium and light alloys.

which read: "I lost that damn fountain pen again. If found, please return to Andy Andrews."

Recommended for listening and laughing is the tune, "The Red Silk Stockings and The Green Perfume" which goes just as well as the Wolf Den with the breakfast coffee as with the coke when you're especially busy avoiding classes and meetings.

From the Daily Bruin, UCLA: "In Spring when classrooms seem boring, One saving grace keeps me from snoring. I'll admit it, I'm a louse—It's my neighbor's peasant blouse."

Enough being usually too much, we'll call it thirty for the year, and hasta la see you someday!

When the alarm sounds, new determination grips me—I pull the covers higher and sleep on.

Be seeing you in the fall.

CAMPUS QUERIES

By Nancy Ann Heher

What do you think of the regulations made by the upper class committee which insist that freshmen women wear blue and white hair ribbons and forbid underclass men to wear cords? This question was asked of students picked at random on the campus. These are their opinions:

Bob Nelson, junior: "It's a good idea to maintain the tradition that has been established on the University."

Eldora Miller, freshman, disagreed: "It seems to me that placing such stupid restrictions on Freshmen is nothing but juvenile assertion of supposed upperclass superiority."

"Tradition on the campus is all right and should be continued," said June Evans, sophomore.

Brunson Harris gave the committee his support and said that he would be in favor of improving upon the regulations. His suggestion:

"All freshman men should have to wear short pants, and the freshman women should look like the Bostonian women in Lil Abner."

Pat Flavin, senior, said: "Such silly traditions belong with the raccoon coat period. If a man or woman is old enough to be accepted in college, he is old enough to decide what to wear. I think it's stupid to have the upper class men and women acting as policemen.

Politeness could be used in the "arrest" of a Freshman offender," said Pat Babb. "Sometimes the committee tries to show too much authority."

Karl Karrasch, who is a freshman, said: "It's because no one has any real right to try and prevent a student from wearing a certain type of clothing. In some cases, the men students cannot afford to buy any other kind of pants but cords. If we must have tradition, let's stop at making the freshmen carry bibles."

Jean Worlock, sophomore, thinks, "It's a good idea to distinguish the freshmen, but signs people must wear when caught cutting campus are a little too much."

Liz Benz, also a sophomore, agreed with Jean and said that "If we do want to distinguish between freshmen and other students, why can't it serve some useful purpose. By that I mean, let the upperclass people speak to the freshmen and give them any help they can. However, if the seniors want to distinguish themselves from the rest of the students, why don't they change their apparel, instead of taking it out on the freshmen."

Big Fraternity Weekend Marked By Four Formals

ATOs, Phi Sigs, Sigma Nus, And Sigma Rho Hold Dinner Dances

Four fraternities write thirty to their social seasons this weekend with wind up spring functions. ATO and Phi Sig formal dinner dances will come off tonight, while Sigma Rho Delta and Sigma Nu annual spring formals have been set for tomorrow evening.

Alpha Tau Omega will wind up its social season tonight with a formal dinner dance at the Nevada Game Farm. The dinner starts at 7:30 and will feature pheasant as the main course.

Brunson Harris, social chairman, said today that the committee in charge of arrangements is Fred Muller, Carl Fransen and Bill Williams. Dr. and Mrs. Harold N. Brown, Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Thompson, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Weaver will chaperone.

Harris said that the fraternity will present all women guests with orchid corsages.

Music will be furnished by Bob Warren's orchestra.

PHI SIGMA KAPPA

Phi Sigma Kappa will hold a formal dinner dance at Villa Sierra tonight, Bill Bryant, social chairman, said today.

Music for the dance will be furnished by the Villa Sierra orchestra.

Chaperones will be Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hinckley and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frost.

AT XXth CENTURY

Sigma Rho Delta's annual spring formal will be held Saturday night at the Twentieth Century Club. The affair will be a dinner dance, beginning at 8:00, Mert Domonoske, chairman, said today.

The decorations will feature a large fish pond, containing live fish in the middle of the floor. This is in keeping with the spring motif.

Music will be furnished by Carl Bruhn's orchestra. The committee, in addition to Domonoske, is George Clark, Doug Baker and Loren Doney.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Farrar and Dean and Mrs. Robert S. Griffin will chaperone.

SNAKE FORMAL

Sigma Nu will hold its annual White Rose Formal tomorrow night at the Riverside Hotel. The theme will be based around the white rose, which is the Sigma Nu flower. Each of the women guests will receive a corsage of white roses. Favors and decorative place cards are in

Sunday Programs Planned for Fall By YWCA Workers

Worship services to be held each Sunday evening at 5:30, and open to all campus students, will begin next year's program of YWCA. Dinner at 6 and round table discussion at 6:30 will complete the Sunday evening programs, said Barbara Pinjuv, YW secretary.

Tuesday, October 7, is the date set for the first all-association meeting. The entire year's program for YW has been submitted to the calendar committee, Mrs. Pinjuv said.

Bob Warren's orchestra has been hired, and preparations are being made for the YWCA "Ice Breaker" to be held September 13, the Saturday night before registration. Mary Lou Sewell and Barbara Olesen are co-chairmen of that committee.

Barbara Olesen is also in charge of a YW booklet for freshmen women next year, and under her leadership plans are progressing for the YW booth at the "County Fair" to be held in the new gymnasium for freshmen students as a part of the orientation program.

Menu to Undergo 'Y' Training

Marge Menu, campus president of YWCA, will be sent to the University of California from June 23 to July 7 for a two-week training period in the YW presidents' school.

The school teaches "Growth in Leadership," said Barbara Pinjuv, YW secretary.

Ruth Barakat, delegate to the YWCA regional planning committee conference, returned from the University of California this week.

Plans to improve the program of YW for next year were discussed at the conference, held May 16, 17 and 18. Several universities from northern California in addition to the University of Nevada were represented, Mrs. Pinjuv said.

order for each girl. Hors d'oeuvres will be passed at 7:30, dinner will be served at 8, and dancing will begin at 9.

Doug Trail is in charge of the dinner dance, and Bob Knudson, Jack Swobe, Jim Moell, Sin Melner and Ty Short are assisting.

Chaperones will be Dr. and Mrs. Harold N. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Quilici, and Mr. and Mrs. William Beemer.

Practicing Bands Produce Sour Tones, But Results Should Compensate

Windows are open and people living near the campus or certain frat houses must endure deafening showers of notes falling where they will. Four dance bands, all trying to get in their practicing at once, produce far from soothing music.

However, the results of these painful efforts should compensate both players and listeners for what they have been through, when sweet dreamy strains of beautiful music float out of windows where a dance is going on.

Biggest Little Band

Bob Warren claims his group is "the biggest little band on the hill." He boasts the talents of pianist Bill Geyer, who is reputed in certain circles, to be handsome. Rudy Fladager does their arranging, and plays bass fiddle. Neither Jack Stephen who plays the guitar, or Rudy F. are students at the university. Bob himself plays sax and sings baritone when the occasion demands. The drummer is picked up from time to time.

An amazing feature of this band is that no one uses music. Everyone learns the time and goes on from there. Bob says this system enables them to watch the girls and attend to business at the same time. The band specializes in small fraternity and sorority get-togethers.

"Open the Door, Richard," was their favorite song, but they are reserving judgment until they hear "The Key Is in the Mail Box."

Only Holdover

Bill Buck's band has the distinction of being the only holdover from last year. Then, he had four pieces, but he is now branching out. He even has an instructor of chemistry (Rocky D'Antonio) playing tenor sax for him. Sam Kafouri plays alto sax, Roger Brander, drums and Earl Hultberg (who is not a student) is at the piano. Bill B. also has another band leader playing alto sax for him, and he himself plays trumpet. The other leader is Larry Chapman.

They have no specialties but simply "play what comes" as Buck puts it. Their favorite songs are "Honeysuckle Rose" and "Moon Glow."

Oldest in Biz

Ernie Piersall and his "Star Dusters" are probably the oldest band on campus today. They were organized way back in 1940, and until the members went into the service about three years later, they played on the hill. This year, they are back in the swing of things.

Fred Wood plays tenor sax, Johnny Bradley trumpet, Bob Bay, called Ernie "the man about campus," plays drums, Henry Schwerkolt (non-student) is at the piano, and Ernie, the "chief duster," plays alto sax. For larger affairs, they pick up extra players to fill out.

"Managua, Nicaragua," was (past tense) their favorite song, but they have since given favor to "Tuxedo Junction." Of course "Star Dust" is their theme song.

They Like It
Little is known about Larry Chapman's band, but those who have heard it say "swell!" Sam Kafouri and Earl Hultberg of Bill Buck's band play for him, and Al Bell plays trumpet, Prestone Freeland drums and Larry C. his same alto sax.

Larry says that his band does something most bands don't do—they just play.

Final Wesley Meet Planned for Sunday

Final meeting of the Wesley Foundation, national Methodist organization for college students, will be held at the home of Bob Morten on Sunday at 6 p. m.

The group will have a party after the regular meeting.

LIBE TO REMAIN OPEN THROUGHOUT SUMMER

Mr. James Hill, head of the University of Nevada library, has announced that the library will probably remain open throughout the summer sessions.

The "libe" will post its summer hours in the near future, but it is probable that the same hours will be kept through the summer as during the school semester.

Bob Whites Absent From Lincoln Hall But Other Bobs in

By Pete Mygatt
Roberts bob up all over the place, and if you don't believe it, go to Lincoln hall and say, "Hello, Bob." You'll get an answer!

There are nearly 20 Bobs in the hall. First off there is Bob Griffin, master of Lincoln hall and dean of men. A follow through, and I hope I have rounded them all up, includes Bob Jones, Bob Jones, Bob Jones, and I am not kidding. Their initials are R. B., R. J., and R. S.

The hall also boasts such names as Bob Gould, Bob Bryant, Bob Butler, Bob Weber, Bob Uhlig, Bob Kendall, Bob Miller, Bob Yorty, Bob Frisbee, Bob Sommer, Bob Lynch, Bob Duncan and Bob Hoyer.

Of course, I mustn't forget to mention Bob Griffin, Bob Griffin, Jr., that is. Most of the time you will see him cruising about the hall. He even parks his car (he has a tricycle) under the Sigma Rho Delta table at night.

As a matter of fact about the only Bobs missing are those of the White clan. There are no Bob Whites in Lincoln Hall.

ART TEACHER DISPLAYS

Mrs. Helen Joslin, instructor in art, is displaying a group of her original paintings this week at Brundidge's on West First street.

The colorful landscapes represent some of the work Mrs. Joslin has done in recent months.

STEAK FRY

Sigma Rho Delta will hold a steak fry at Lake Tahoe Sunday, May 25. All attending Sigma Rhos will have a chance to participate in swimming, baseball, volley ball, and all that goes with a picnic, Mert Domonoske, social chairman, said today.

"My but that's a cute couple," he sighed as the coed passed by.

Ramelli-Digino Wedding Slated For August 10

August tenth was set as the wedding date for Miss Lavina Ramelli and Carl A. Digino, Jr., at an announcement luncheon held Saturday at the Trocadero.

Miss Ramelli will receive her diploma from the University of Nevada, when she's completed her laboratory technician training at St. Mary's hospital. Digino will be graduated in June, having completed the course in journalism.

The announcement of the approaching wedding was made with place cards in the form of a miniature newspaper with an extra announcement on the front page that told the date of the wedding.

Tri-Delt Head

Miss Ramelli is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Ramelli of Reno. While attending the university, she was president of her sorority Delta Delta Delta. She received mention in Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges and was a member of Alpha Epsilon Delta, Sagens, Saddle and Spurs, Fine Arts, Newman Club, Finance Control Board, and the Publications Board.

Digino is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Digino. He re-

Annual Helldorado Attended by Twenty

About 20 University of Nevada students took off last weekend for Las Vegas to see the annual celebration of Helldorado.

None of the students took part in the parades, beauty contests or beard growing, but a good time was reportedly had by all.

At least that is the story of Bill Purcell, freshman student on the campus.

"Anyone who lives in Reno when they can live in Las Vegas should have his head examined," said Purcell.

turned to the campus in the fall following several years service with the marine corps. He is now employed in the circulation department of the Western Horseman magazine. His fraternity is Lambda Chi Alpha. Digino was chairman of the 1946 Homecoming celebration and is a member of Press Club, Blue Key, and the Newman club, of which he is president. He, also, received mention in Who's Who.

Members of the Sagebrush editorial and business staff held a picnic at Geiger Point last Sunday evening. About 15 staff members and guests attended. Hot dogs, coke, and beer were served.

Choral Rendition Of Opera Mikado Given Next Week

Principals Are Selected From Songsters in University Choir

Principals for the May 27 and 28 presentation of Gilbert and Sullivan's popular light opera "Mikado," to be staged in the Education auditorium, were announced this week by Prof. Theodore H. Post, musical director, and Prof. William C. Miller, production director.

Phil Whitmer, bass soloist, will portray the pompous Mikado of Japan; Filmore Daniels and Lewis Barrett will split the part of Nanki Poo, the Mikado's minstreling son, each performing for one evening; the comical Ko Ko, lord high executioner, will be presented by Manford Hardesty, baritone; and Pooh Bah, Lord High everything else, will be sung one night by Barrett and the next by Barney Childs.

Pish-Tush to You

Pish-Tush, a noble lord, will be presented by Edward Scott, bass; Ko Ko's three step-daughters, Yum Yum, Pitti Sing and Peep Bo, will be sung by Virginia Moore, Alice Ruth Doyle, Gloria Rosaschi, Daryl Durham and Nona Lee Tuttle, respectively.

Yum Yum, who is also Ko Ko's bride elect and Nanki Poo's heart throb, will be presented on the first evening by Miss Doyle and on the 28th by Miss Moore. Elderly noble lady, Katisha, who loves Nanki Poo, will be played by Nona Lee Tuttle.

Overture

Mary Libby will be piano accompanist and will present a two-piano rendition of the overture with Gloria Mapes.

This modified production, foregoing stage sets, costuming and action, is being sponsored by the ASUN, and if the desire for this type of musical production warrants it, a full stage performance of the "Mikado" or other operas may be planned for next year, Professor Miller said. There will be no admission charge for this two-night presentation by the University Singers.

Members of the university's combined women's and men's chorus have been rehearsing under the direction of Professors Post and Miller for the past two months.

Dr. Mazour Resigns To Accept Position With Stanford U

Dr. Anatole G. Mazour, associate professor of history and political science, will resign as a member of the University of Nevada faculty at the completion of this semester and accept a similar position at Stanford University.

Dr. Mazour, who has been at the University of Nevada since 1938, received his AB at the University of Nebraska in 1939. He then completed two years at Yale university for his MA degree, and received his PhD at the University of California in 1934.

An expert on Russian literature and history, Dr. Mazour will probably teach Russian history and will do research in the war library at Stanford, where he will complete work on a book on Russian history.

Dr. Mazour will report to Stanford on June 19 to take up his new position and will leave Reno shortly after this semester.

Sororities Plan To Hold Breakfasts For Senior Grads

Sororities on the hill are busy making plans for breakfasts honoring their graduating senior women.

Marilyn James is the chairman of the senior breakfast committee of Kappa Alpha Theta. The breakfast will be held June 9 at the Riverside Hotel.

Bernadette Ertter, chairman of the Delta Delta Delta Pansy Breakfast, announced that the members of her committee were Janet DaCosta, Kay Capurro, Angela Naveran, Phyllis Green and Phyllis Phelan. The breakfast will be held June 8, probably at the Riverside Hotel.

Seventeen Initiated In WRA Ceremony

Seventeen women students were initiated into the Women's Recreation Association at ceremonies held yesterday in the dance studio in the basement of the new gymnasium. President Billie Kennedy conducted the ceremonies.

Those initiated were Maida Lee, Norma Hall, Irene Beck, Ardeen Wood, Eleanor Sweatt, Margaret Fairchild, Barbara Pardee, Beverly Brown, Anne Hunter, Edwina Gregory, Betty Wittworth, Gloria Griffen, Rose Marie Paul, Joyce Cliff, Francis Batt, Devona Kritzmeier, and Nannette Brown.

Visitors to Teach Summer Courses

Fourteen Instructors Added To Teaching Staff

Fourteen visiting instructors will teach summer classes at the University of Nevada this year, in addition to the 23 regular university faculty members who will be on campus this summer.

Out-of-state teachers are Wilmer Foster Jacob, former acting head of the English department, Alabama Polytechnic Institute; Dr. Minnie E. Lemaire, head of geography department, State Teacher's College, Pennsylvania; Ira D. Payne, director of teacher training, Arizona State College; Inez Petersen, director of elementary education, Sioux City Public Schools in Iowa.

Oklahoma Teacher

Joanna E. Chapman, teacher trainer in Home Economics, who was a member of the University of Nevada faculty during the 1946 fall semester, now at Oklahoma A & M; Elsie A. Pond, associate professor of education, Santa Barbara College, California; H. Richard Danford, a foremost driver educator from Connecticut; Marie L. Burgess, primary teacher from Rockridge School, Oakland, California; and Dr. Miles D. McCarthy, associate professor of zoology, Pomona, California.

From Nevada are Muriel Gamble, department of commerce, Sparks high school; R. Guild Gray, superintendent, Yerington public schools; Hazel Durham McComas, art teacher who has taught in Billinghurst and Northside junior high schools; Lawson Sullivan, replacing Raby J. Newton, who is listed in the summer catalog, of the Driver's Division of State of Nevada; and Louis Spitz, Public Relations in Traffic education, Reno Police department.

Three Initiated Into Gothic N

Three university women were initiated Sunday into Gothic "N" society. They were Doris Hanssen, Pat Ireland, and Lois Hitchens.

The initiation took place at Geiger Grade, where the initiates were served a royal breakfast of bacon, sausage, coffee, fruit juice, scrambled eggs, hot cakes and syrup cooked by the regular members.

An election of officers followed the short formal initiation ceremonies. Merrie Jo Harp was elected president for the new semester to replace Pat Riley. Pat Ireland will take over the duties of Zina Coe, the secretary-treasurer.

Gothic "N" is the honor organization for women on the campus. Entrance to the society is based on sportsmanship, sports participation, sophomore rank, scholarship average of C or better, participation in at least one non-athletic organization, and regular attendance at the meetings of the Women's Recreation Association.

Lambda Chi Bistro Breaks Out Kegs For Student Body

The Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity was responsible for two beer busts last week.

At 7:30 p. m., election day, amid half sunken graves and collapsing tombstones, 14 kegs were consumed when the Lambda Chi's were hosts to the entire student body to celebrate the election of Jimmy Glynn to the presidency. The beer bust was held behind the Lambda Chi house at 255 University Terrace.

Last Sunday the actives and the pledges got together at Idlewild Park for another beer bust. The big competition of the day was a softball game which the actives won 35-2.

Final Session Held By Press Clubbers

Group to Hold Picnic At Idlewild Park

Press club held its final business meeting last Monday at the Kappa Alpha Theta house, under the direction of Richard Armstrong, president of the group.

The club will hold a group picnic at Idlewild Park, Sunday, May 25, for the entire journalism department. Paul Weaver and Bill Gillis are in charge of the arrangements, and Julia Baker, Pat Read and Marilyn James will take charge of the refreshments.

Plans for the Press Club breakfast to be held June 1, were also discussed. The chore of finding a suitable location for the gathering was given to Barbara Mills.

New Officers

During breakfast, said Armstrong, the group will vote for next year's officers. The nominating committee includes Adele Marsh, Pat Ussery, and Pat Riley.

Under discussion, also, were final preparations for presenting a memorial plaque, honoring Graham Sanford, pioneer Nevada journalist, to be placed in the Reno Evening Gazette building.

The group, almost dormant during the war years, is planning to reactivate many of its old functions, said Armstrong.

One of the old activities which they plan to renew is the annual convention for high school editors where cups and awards are presented to the outstanding high school annuals and papers.

Joan of Lorraine Features Five Campus Actors

Five students and two faculty members from the University of Nevada are members of the cast of Maxwell Anderson's "Joan of Lorraine," current production at the Reno Little Theatre on Seventh and Sierra streets. The play has a cast of 19.

The two faculty members are James Forsyth, assistant in foreign languages, and Edwin Semenza, assistant in English. Semenza is director of the Little Theatre group and also plays the part of Jim Masters, the director, in "Joan of Lorraine."

Students in the cast are Monte Childs, Louis Hall, Roger Brander, George Bennett and James Corey.

"Joan of Lorraine" is "a play about a play."

As one coed explained: He's tall, dark and handsome.

Morticians' motto: We're the last to let you down.

Newman Officers Elected Last Sunday

Louis Pico, junior engineer student, was elected president of the Newman club, Catholic organization for university students, at the last meeting of the semester last Sunday.

Elaine Van Meter was elected vice-president; Betty Lou Bender, secretary, and Tom Collins, treasurer.

The club will not meet during the summer, but the new officers will wait till the fall to assume their positions.

Be seeing you in the fall.

Engineers Score Hit With Exhibits, But Brawl Isn't Even Good Scuffle

Mining engineers won two out of five contests last Saturday during the first engineers day held since the beginning of the war. Leonard Larson won the mucking event, while Glenn Franklin and Gerald "Whitey" Knowles took the hard-rock double-jack drilling.

James Teipner, electrical engineer, won the slide rule competition by completing correctly the most problems in ten minutes.

The riveting contest was won by John Witte, Kris Tanning, and Richard Meffley from the civil engineering department.

Bill Eccles and Bob Downer won the surveying event which ran from Morrill hall to the new engineering building.

Lively Exhibits

Exhibits by the various departments bordered on the spectacular. Radar equipment, an arc that climbed several stories, wire that exploded before your eyes, and radios were just some of the operations that amazed the spectators in the electrical engineering display.

The mining engineers had a collection of polished gem stones of Nevada that were donated for the exhibit by Frank L. Garaventa of Carson City. The miners also had the stamp mill and other equipment in operation in the Mackay School of Mines.

Mechanical engineers exhibited a giant press, turbo-superchargers, and a turbine among other things in operation.

A cardboard bridge that will support several hundred pounds, surveying equipment, irrigation projects, and a model railroad trestle and engine featured civil engineers show.

A distilling column in operation and crystals that formed before the spectators eyes were just a few of the exhibits that the chemists had to show the public.

Comic Book Stuff

Though the electricals had the most spectacular show, children were amazed by the biology department exhibits and thought that the electrical display "was stuff they could find in the comic books." In the biology lab was an exhibit on the process of evolution, a model man whose internal organs could be disassembled and assembled at will, stuffed animals and many others.

Much heavy equipment, an automobile, and some light equipment were displayed in the main parking lot for the benefit of the public.

Engineers' day ended with a dance that was very sparsely attended. Decorations were highlighted by a center piece that rotated on the new gymnasium floor.

DON'T GAMBLE ON GAMS IN JOB GAME

Good looking gams, pleasing personality and a come hither smile wouldn't win you a position as secretary for Dr. John O. Moseley, president. He says that the most desirable quality for a secretary is a "liberal education."

That is, according to a letter Dr. Moseley wrote to the manager and owner of the Gallagher School of Business in Kankakee, Illinois, in answer to her request to know what he preferred in secretaries.

"This quality, of course, applies to any job," Dr. Moseley wrote. The techniques and mechanics of filling a secretarial position can be learned quickly by anyone of average intelligence, but to advance beyond the average class a liberal education is necessary, he said.

Unique Collection Presented School By Ann Martin

A unique collection of local wild flowers, gathered and bound by Dr. Anne Martin in 1886, was presented to the university last week, said Dr. Lehenbauer, head of the Department of Biology.

The book will be placed in the biology herbarium. It is historically valuable to the university. Although the flowers were pressed over 61 years ago, they have kept their shape and color, Dr. Lehenbauer noted.

Dr. Martin was given an honorary degree by the University of Nevada in May, 1945. She is well known nationally for her work in the early days of women's suffrage. At one time she ran for the office of United States senator from Nevada.

Ex-Nevada Student Engagement Told

Miss Lillian Sloan, former University of Nevada student, announced her engagement recently to Rev. Melvin A. Pekrul.

Miss Sloan, a member of Gamma Phi Beta, attended the university for two years. During that time, she was president of the campus Red Cross and was a member of the university chorus, Blue Peppers, and Sagens. She is now attending the University of California at Berkeley.

Rev. Pekrul, a graduate of the University of Rochester, is director of Christian education for the San Francisco Bay Cities' Baptist Union and is now working on his master's degree at the Berkeley Baptist Divinity school.

Orchesis, Modern Dance Classes Give Spring Festival in New Gymnasium

Original dances and music highlighted the Spring Dance festival given Tuesday night by the members of Orchesis, honorary dance fraternity, and by the Modern Dance classes of Miss Jaqueline Van Gaasbeek in the new gym.

The program began with a movement study by Dawna Audrain, Dolores Bena, Beverly Bergeron, Kay Brennan, Jo Ann Erb, Mary Ferguson, Shirley Keller, Maida Lee, Lorraine Leigh, Marjorie Montrose, Alice Pettis, Bonnie Taylor and Billie Winn.

The Thompson twins, Lucille and Louise, danced a "Day on the Farm." Dances depicting registration and dormitory life were performed by the members of the intermediate dance class.

Cecilia Schindler gave a solo, and a waltz number followed by Irene Beck, Dolores Bena, Betty Bender, Kay Brennan, Nannette Brown, Gwen Byrd, Constance Burkholder, Jo Ann Erb, Maida Lee, Lorrie Lothrop, Marjorie Montrose, Bonnie Taylor, Ardeen Wood and Norma Hall.

Eccentric Ballet

Alice Arentz and Harriet Lee interpreted an eccentric ballet. Dolores Bena, Harriet Lee, Cecilia Schindler, Jacqueline Van Gaasbeek and Jean Worlock did improvisations in dance.

Mrs. Edna Noble, accompanist, played two solo piano pieces and one encore.

Devona Kretzmeier was the soloist in a Mexican Street Scene. Other dancers were Eleanor Sweatt, Alice Pettis, Louis and Lucille Thompson, Mary Ferguson, Shirley McDonough, Jean Worlock, Alice Arentz and Cecilia Schindler.

Sailor's Folly

Betty Bender and Ardeen Wood performed a dance called "Sailor's Folly." The conflict between a witch doctor and his loyal but terrified people was depicted in a Sacrifice dance. Those participating were Harriet Lee, Jean Worlock, Kay Brennan, Mary Ferguson, Alice Pettis, Louis Thompson, Lucille Thompson, Jaqueline Van Gaasbeek.

A slow boogie in a modern vein was danced by Irene Beck, Dolores Bena, Betty Bender, Constance Burkholder, Nannette Brown, Gwen Byrd, Maida Lee, Lorrie Lothrop, Marjorie Montrose, Bonnie Taylor, Norma Hall and Ardeen Wood. Jo Ann Erb was soloist.

Jean Worlock did a primitive rhythm dance with drum accompaniment.

Finale was "Here Comes the Circus." Special dances were by Barbara Culley, Beverly Bergeron, Kay Brennan, Jo Ann Erb, Lorraine Leigh, Cecilia Schindler, Shirley Keller, Bonnie Taylor, Vivian Chambers, and Dorothy Linaberry. Other parts were played by Virginia Kelley and Ann Heim.

WHEELS CELEBRATE WITH BIG PICNIC

The Mackay Day and Homecoming committees held a combined picnic last Sunday at Camp Brown, near Verdi.

Approximately 40 persons attended the steak fry. Recorded music, steaks and plenty of beer were featured, Lyman Earl, chairman of Mackay Day Committee, said today.

4 Faculty Members To Attend Science Conclave in June

Four faculty members will participate in the meeting of the western division of the American Association for the Advancement of Science to be held in San Diego in June, it was learned today.

Dr. M. W. Deming, professor of chemistry; Dr. Philip A. Lehenbauer, head of the department of biology; Dr. E. W. Lowrance and Dr. W. D. Billings, associate professors of biology, will attend the meeting.

Dr. Deming and Dr. Lehenbauer will attend the session as officers in the two western section groups. Dr. Lowrance and Dr. Billings are to present scientific research papers. Dr. Billings is also a member of the executive committee.

Last year the university played host to the western section of the AAAS.

Volumes Donated By Benefactors

Several gifts of books have recently been given the University of Nevada library by Mr. and Mrs. Silas Ross and Mrs. Edith Holmes, according to Mr. James Hill, head librarian.

Mrs. Edith Holmes has given several volumes in addition to her former contributions. She has presented the library with a group of her first editions. The gifts are in memory of her husband, the late Professor William O. Holmes, former English professor at the University of Nevada.

English Press

Her most recent gift consists of a handbound edition of "De Daphnes Et De Chloe," an example of the printing of the early Ashendene press in England; an autographed collection of the poems of Robert Frost, and the story of "The Birth of Christ," also printed in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross contributed 50 volumes of political history. They are: "The Story of the Great War" in eight volumes, "The Report of the Philippine Commission" in four volumes, "The Book of History" in 18 volumes, "The Messages and Papers of the Presidents" in 20 volumes, and "The Documents Illustrative of the Formation of the Union," one volume.

Wolf Pack Nine Hangs Up Spikes With 500 Average

Some of Top Baseball Talent On Coast Met in Twelve Game Schedule

Nevada's baseballers put away their spikes and gloves for the season last Friday with a .500 average. Nevada has won six and lost six.

Though the Wolves played only 12 games during the current season, they have faced some of the best college talent on the west coast. Among the toughest was a two-game series with the University of San Francisco Dons, who are rated as one of the best college nines in the west. Nevada won the first game 5-4 and dropped the second 3-0.

Gap Filled

After an arm injury suffered by Bill Mackrides, Nevada pitcher, the gap was filled by Lee Tucker, Bill Gillis and Jack Musselman.

Lee Tucker, converted outfielder, came through with three wins and one loss in his new role.

Keeping pace on the mound was Bill Gillis, who turned in a creditable season. Gillis also played first base. Fine relief hurling by Jack Musselman gave the Nevadans a strengthened staff.

Big stickler for the Nevada nine was first baseman Al Lazzarone. Although an outfielder by choice, he was switched to the first sack position when Pat Francellini was declared ineligible.

Patrolling Nevada's outfield were three fast-moving ball hawks. Morley Bockman covered right field. John Helstowski, strong armed thrower, was in center, and Turk Eliades patrolled left field.

Receiving chores were shared by big Ed Sharkey and Jaques Welin. Both were steady receivers.

Holding down the hot corner for the Wolves was Gene Evans. Evans hit well and played a strong defensive game. The hot corner was shared by Jerry DeRushia who also played other positions in the infield.

Playing his usual strong defensive game, Chub Drakulich performed at second for the varsity. Though he was weak at the plate, he was a steady influence in the infield.

Buddy Garfinkle started the season at shortstop, but gave way to Ken Sinofsky, a power hitter, later on.

Wolf Nine Splits Cal Aggie Series

Nevada's bat swingers ended their season last weekend with a split in the series with Cal Aggies of Davis. The Wolves came home with a 7-6 win and an 8-5 loss. The official season record ended with a split also, as Nevada won 50 per cent of their games.

In the opener, Nevada won the game in the tenth inning when "Turk" Eliades scored from second on a long fly to center field hit by Gene Evans. Nevada's John Helstowski tied the score in the seventh inning when he stole second, third and home to bring the score to 6-all. Jack Musselman, who relieved Bill Gillis in the fourth, went the rest of the way allowing only two runs. He struck out the final batter when the Aggies had two men on the plates.

1946-'47 SPORTS REVIEW

Seems only yesterday that we diligently started on our tedious task of reporting sports. Today the final edition of the 'Brush is off the press. So, as a fitting chapter to a great sport year, we present a review of outstanding athletic events of the 1946-'47 season.

Starting one of Nevada's greatest football seasons, the Wolf Pack lost a thriller to USF, 26-14.

Only one more defeat marred a perfect season for the Pack gridders. St. Mary's Gaels put on the pressure in the second half to eke out a 13-12 win over Nevada. Unfortunately, the best team walked off the field one point behind.

From then on the Pack gridders were unbeatable, blasting Santa Clara, 33-7, Arizona (Tempe), 74-2; San Diego, 26-0; Montana, 38-14; Santa Barbara, 48-13; and Loyola, 53-0. GAME CANCELLED

After heated debate, Nevada cancelled their football game with Mississippi because of race prejudice involving the Wolf Pack's colored stars, end Horace Gillom and halfback Bill Bass.

Playing in the Pearl Harbor Bowl game in Hawaii, Nevada trounced the hitherto unbeaten Hawaiians, 25-7, on a muddy field for the year's final game.

A bid to the Harbor Bowl in San Diego was turned down by the team.

Hefty Max Dodge was elected head of the Block N.

In intramural sports, Sigma Nu and LXA tied in horseshoe singles. ATO won the tennis singles. The Taus again were victorious winning horseshoe doubles. Sigma Nu placed three men across the finish line to win the cross-country race. Snake Orsie Graves finished first in the event. BEAT ST. JOHNS

After winning two practice sessions, Nevada's cagers traveled eastward to score the season's big upset by licking touted St. Johns, 55-49, while losing to Georgetown, 55-47; Duquesne, 46-45; and St. Joseph, 49-38.

Wolf Pack pass slinger Bill Mackrides was recognized as one of the nation's top passers and ball handlers, gaining 1400 yards through the air route and having a .469 completion record.

Nevada's Wolf Pack cagers won the Second Annual Invitational basketball tourney by trouncing Colorado A & M, 42-23, in the finals.

Colorful Coach Jim Aiken resigned the head football position to take over the reigns at Oregon University.

The Pack beat Pepperdine twice, 43-42 and 52-46, for their 12th win against three losses. JAKE SIGNS

Basketball and baseball mentor, Jake Lawlor, signed a new 5-year contract.

Wyoming lived up to advance notices, edging the Pack twice, 51-49 and 49-42.

Nevada's ski team started a successful season winning the Auburn Invitational and NMU tourneys. Basketeers Bob O'Shaughnessy, Jim Melarkey and Grant Davis were rated one, two, and three, respectively, in the scoring department on the Pacific Coast and ended the season high up on the scoring ladder.

ATO won the interfraternity ski tourney, closely followed by Sigma Nu, SAE and LXA. SKIERS LOSE

In the Eighth Annual Ski tourney on the slopes of Mt. Rose, Nevada skimen lost a heartbreaker to California by less than a point.

The varsity boxers under the tutoring of Jim Bailey, lost matches to USF and San Jose, but gained considerable boxing experience.

Nevada's cagers ended their season with 21 wins in 34 games after shellacking Hawaii, 57-51.

After much speculation, Joe Sheeketski, former Notre Dame grid star, was selected as Nevada's new grid mentor.

Ex-Nevada ski star, Dodie Post, was selected a member of the Olympic team.

Pack baseballers opened the season by splitting a doubleheader to the powerful Alameda Naval nine.

Varsity golfer, Pete Smith, won first flight competition in the Northern California intercollegiate championships. SPRING PRACTICE

Over 40 gridders greeted coach Sheeketski for spring practice.

Versatile Bill Smales scored 26 points to lead the ATOs to a smashing victory in intramural track. The surprising Independents copped second place followed by Sigma Nu.

Nevada tracksters beat Chico State and Cal Aggies while losing to SF State. Discus tosser Max Dodge and the relay team were standouts.

WELL DONE
My highest esteem and admiration goes to the 'Brush sports reporters who performed their job like experts under often trying circumstances. To the writers, coaching staff, athletic department and sports participants—thanks for a job well done.

Nevada Ball Men Scattered Through Amateur Leagues

More than 20 University of Nevada students are now playing baseball on various teams in three local amateur circuits, plus representatives on Threlkel's Cubs, independent semipro outfit.

Harrah's Club of the Sierra Nevada league is loaded with university athletes and ex-collegians. "Red" Doyle, Morley Bockman, Lee Tucker, Ken Sinofsky, Ted Kondell, Bud Garfinkle and Carnie Hall are the undergraduates, while Frank McCulloch, Lou Barkely and Jo Elcano are former Nevada students now playing with the Harrah's nine. Manager Al Lansdon is also a former university student.

Sharkey to Carson
Ed Sharkey, another Wolf Pack player this season, has joined Carson City. Grant Davis along with former Nevada students Bob Smith and Buz Anderson also appear on the roster.

Hawthorne is bolstered by Larry McGowan, Nevada freshman.

Bill Gillis and Chub Drakulich, Wolf Pack stars, are now gaining experience and compensation playing for the semipro Cubs managed by Jack Threlkel. Bob O'Shaughnessy, not registered in school at the present time, is also smashing base hits for the popular Cubs.

In the Sagebrush league and playing under the colors of Nevada Turf Club is Paul Richards. Verdi of the same circuit has Panelli, freshman, on its roster.

The Feather River league is bolstered by a lone university representative in Dick Meffley of Graeagle.

Max Dodge Places Second at Fresno With 148 Ft. Toss

Max Dodge, Nevada's possible candidate for the 1948 Olympic team, threw the discus 148 feet 7/8 inches last Saturday to take second place in the twenty-first annual West Coast Relays, at Fresno California.

His throw was about 10 feet short of his previous record. He also fouled on four throws, something he has not done in the past. The winning toss by Flood of the San Francisco Olympic club was 155 feet.

Dodge will compete in the California Relays at Modesto, California, the Coliseum Relays at Los Angeles, and the national championships at Salt Lake City. He then plans to develop further as an Olympic team prospect in the discus throw.

The Wolf Pack relay team of Carl Robinson, Grant Davis, Jack Fagan and Dick Trachok turned in their fastest time of the season by touring the mile in 3:24, but they failed to place in the tough competition. The winning time of Pepperdine College was 3:21.3.

CAMPUS CRUCIBLE CLUB SPONSORS GEOLOGIST

Crucible club sponsored a visit of Mr. William S. W. Kew, chief geologist of Standard Oil Company, to the campus this week.

Mr. Kew gave a speech Tuesday evening to the members of the Crucible club. Mr. Kew is noted for his geological investigations in Los Angeles, Ventura and Santa Barbara area.

Sheeketski Feted At Sports Dinner

Several Coaches, Guests Speak at Dinner

Joe Sheeketski was officially welcomed to Nevada at a sports banquet in the Riverside hotel Saturday. Rival coaches, Wolf Pack football and basketball players, and city sport boosters attended.

The U. of N. head football coach and athletic director promised that the football team for 1947 would be "a club to be proud of."

He liked the quality of the men turning out, he said, but "quantity is regrettably lacking."

Talks were given at the banquet by Coaches Jim Phelan of Saint Mary's and Ed McKeever of the University of San Francisco. Both men will coach rival teams of the Wolf Pack this fall.

Scott Beasley of the Block "N" presented sport columnist Jack McDonald of the San Francisco Call-Bulletin with a certificate of honorary membership in the athletic lettermen's society.

Electrical Group Gets Receivers

Professor Irving Sandorf, head of the department of electrical engineering, announced today that the department has received a new FM radio receiver.

As soon as the new FM station is finished on Peavine Mountain, he said, the students in the electrical engineering laboratory will be able to pick up the stations for study on the new receiver.

Other sport enthusiasts attending the banquet were William Woodburn, chairman of the athletic boosters' committee; Rex Daniels, alumni secretary; Fred Wilson, professor of animal husbandry; Harry Frost, chairman of the athletic board; Francis Smith, the new mayor of Reno; and Ty Cobb and Bill Friel, local sports writers.

Spring—that which turns man's fancy to the things he salted away during the winter. Be seeing you in the fall.

Eligible Athletes To Receive Awards

Block N Approves Baseball, Golf, Tennis Awards

Awards will be presented to the men eligible in the minor sports of baseball, tennis and golf. The men were recommended by the respective coaches and approved by Block "N" and the executive committee of the ASUN senate in a meeting this week.

Baseball awards will be presented to Morley Bockman, Jerry DeRushia, Mike Drakulich, Jordan Eliades, Gene Evans, Buddy Garfinkle, Bill Gillis, John Helstowski, Al Lazarone, Bill Mackrides, Jack Musselman, Ed Sharkey, Leland Tucker, Ken Sinofsky and Jacques Welin.

Any man receiving an award in baseball must have played 40 percent of the total innings in intercollegiate competition. Time required for pitchers is 20 percent of the total innings.

Men named for tennis awards are: Glenn Pridgen, Edward Reed, Leonard Stern and Vern Brown.

Gold awards will go to those men who have played more than 60 percent of the intercollegiate matches and have won at least one match. Men eligible are: John Phalen, John Holloway, Robert Larsen, Pete Smith, Joe Foley, and Charles Mayo.

Mobile Navy Unit Signs Volunteers

Naval Reserve Week was brought to the campus via Naval recruiting bus this week as the mobile unit was set up across from the East entrance to the library.

"The main job of the mobile unit is to give out information and take enlistments in the Naval Reserve," said Glen Spoon, yeoman 2nd class, one of the two Navy men with the unit. Ensign William B. Ashe is officer in charge.

It was brought out that veterans of all branches of the service as well as non-veterans are qualified to join.

The Navy bus arrived Monday morning and will remain at its present location until Saturday noon.

Student Officers To Receive Oaths

New officers of the ASUN will take the oath of office at the last student assembly of the year to be held Thursday, May 29, at 11 a. m. in the new gymnasium.

Awards will be presented for debate, riflery, Women's Recreational association, and publications at the assembly. If the football sweaters which are on order arrive by that time, they will also be presented, Hans Wolfe, ASUN president, announced.

In the past, awards have been made at the annual Mackay day luncheon, but since the practice has been discontinued, the presentation will be included in the final assembly.

Wolf Tennis Team Faces Chico State In Return Match

Nevada will end its tennis season Saturday morning when the team tackles Chico State in a return match at the Reno Tennis Club courts. The Wolves won their last encounter with the Chico team 5-1.

Nevada returned last week from the coast with two defeats chalked against them, one by USF and one by College of the Pacific. These were the only losses sustained by the Pack this year in college competition.

The San Francisco team won five matches from the Wolves and only allowed one win. This came when Ed Reed and Pete Pridgen turned back Larsen and Brown 5-7, 6-3, 6-4.

In the COP meet, Nevada failed to capture any of the matches. They were consistent in their losses, however, as they lost four singles and one double by 6-2, 6-0 scores. In the other doubles match Reed and Pridgen lost 6-3, 6-3.

May 27 Deadline Set for Veterans

Tuesday, May 27, is the deadline for student veterans to file forms regarding their plans for attending one or both terms of the summer session.

All veterans must also make a report of earnings.

Mr. Keith Lee, veterans counselor, stated that this information is essential to receive their June subsistence allowances.

Terminal leave forms are also available, but men who are not eligible for the full four year college course are advised by Lee against applying, as the money received may be deducted from their checks at a future date.

OLD GYM BECOMES PERFECT CAT HOUSE

A small "meow" woke Bob Warren the other night in the Old Gymnasium dormitory. Lo and behold! There on his bed were six baby kittens, and a mama cat.

All colors—there were black kittens, brown ones, and even a "red head" in the litter.

Warren explained, "We made friends with the cat, so she must have thought it was a safe bet to bring her kittens to us."

Frat Work Week Staged by SAE

SAE work week came to a close last Sunday with the traditional breakfast for the pledges. The work week featured house and ground improvement as well as the usual indignities which pledges are made to suffer.

The formal initiation will be held as soon after the end of the semester as it is possible to secure grades.

Those to be initiated at that time are Gerald Wyness, Lawrence Sullivan, August Landucci, William Nugent, Pat O'Brien, Steve Carrolo, Stanley Simmons, Charles Salisbury, Lionel Leonard.

Frank Wilson, Shearl Nielson, Tom Clifford, Glen Richards, Tom Gaffey, Howard Mueller, Gerald Tracy, Clyde Biglieri, Richard Pursel, Duane Berning, Art Gary, Roland Christensen and Bob Malone.

ENGINEERING LAB GETS 'BRUSH-OFF'

Color Dynamics is the color scheme being applied to the electrical engineering lab. The walls are being painted a light 'eye rest' green, the body of the machines and switches a dark 'vista' green, control handles and machine bases a bright yellow, and moving parts, emergency points, and danger points red. The floor will be painted a tile red with dark clearance lines running around the machines.

Color Dynamics are used principally for safety measures, though during the war it was found that it promoted continuity of employment, efficiency of operation, and quality of production.

Vista green makes the machines seem to recede or drop back while the critical parts come forward. These colors that are used are also easy on the eyes. Before, the EE lab was mostly a dull gray that promoted eye strain, stated Frank Wilson, EE student.

Color Dynamics is based on principles directly opposed to camouflage practices. To camouflage an object, color is used to hide and obscure the object, while in Color Dynamics, color is used to highlight, reveal, and emphasize the object.

Be seeing you in the fall.

WRA Awards Given At Sports Dinner

Awards for the final sports session of the Women's Recreation Association were presented at a sports dinner held yesterday.

Those receiving awards for swimming were Zina Coe and Carol Thomas, honors, and Beverly Birch, Connie Madsen and Helene Heywood, honorable mention.

Charleen Audrain received an honor for tennis.

Awards for dance were received by Jo Ann Erb and Alice Arentz, honors, and Louise Thompson, Marjorie Montrose, Betty Lou Bender and Connie Burkholder.

Lois Shaver received an honor and Carol Anderson received an honorable mention for softball.

Max Dodge Heaves Discus 172 Feet

Hefty discus tosser Max Dodge heaved the platter 172 feet in practice last night surpassing by several yards all marks made in the United States this year in this event.

His amazing throw is just eight feet short of the world record held by Fitch of Minnesota at 180 feet two inches.

Max competes in the California coliseum this weekend against the nation's best performers.

SEWELL APPOINTED

Mary Lou Sewell was appointed social chairman of YWCA at a cabinet meeting of YW held Tuesday night.

Miss Sewell will succeed Miss Betsy Haydock who is not returning to the university next semester.

Four Home Tilts Booked by Nevada For Grid Season

Four home games will have to suffice for Nevada football fans next fall, according to the schedule announced by graduate manager Joe T. McDonnell. Ten games are listed, and the Wolfpack is slated for plenty of road time during the coming season.

Home games will be with Arizona State College (Flagstaff) on September 20, the University of Portland on October 4, the University of Tulsa (Homecoming) October 25, and Montana State College on November 15.

Other games have been scheduled with the University of San Francisco on September 28, the University of Oregon at Eugene, Oregon on October 4, St. Mary's College at San Francisco on October 19, St. Louis University at St. Louis, Missouri on November 2, the University of Detroit at Detroit, Michigan on November 7, and Arizona State College (Tempe) at Las Vegas, Nevada, on November 30.

Senior Tri-Delts Honored at Dinner

The graduating senior women of Delta Delta Delta were entertained at a dinner on Tuesday evening at the Twentieth Century club. The dinner was given by the Mothers club of that sorority.

Mrs. Doyle was in charge of arrangements. Dona and Charlene Audrain were co-chairmen of the entertainment committee. On the Hill it's hello.

Surplus Typewriters Offered Veterans Beginning June 2

War surplus typewriters will be offered veterans of World War II at a sale beginning June 2, the Reno office of the War Assets Administration announced today.

A total of 37 typewriters of various makes will be offered. The agency asked veterans with a particular choice to list his preference in order and apply for the right to purchase to WAA, P. O. Box 75, together with a stamped self addressed envelope.

Selection of purchasers will be made at a public drawing at 2 p. m. June 2, but veterans need not be present. The machines are located at the Tonopah army air field and the WAA said the agency can not provide shipment.

Further details and listings may be obtained from the Reno office, located at the Reno army air base.

Looking Backward

By Jeanne McBride

With 1,700 students and a housing shortage, the year started with a thud for the boys that had to use the G. I. mattresses in the Old Gym. . . Pres. Moseley's general placid nature was disturbed for a while . . . he saw the stacked students in the various registration lines . . .

Aiken's pack looked promising with a line full of Dodges, McClures, and Sullivans. . . Before the 1946 Artemisia was out, plans were being formulated for 1947 book. . . When does it come out, Dodge? . . . 104 coeds took the solemn Greek pledges and 264 men did the same. . . Tri Delt's began their reign when Norma Carruth was selected Homecoming Queen. . . Miss Swan whipped the Wolves Frolic into shape . . . and Pi Phi took the cup with their Highlanders theme. . .

Relief from the "battle of the bulge" was promised with the erection of temporary buildings for the 35 freshmen English classes. . . Buildings will be ready for the fall semester of '47. . .

Promising it was . . . for Aiken's pack trounced Arizona State, 74-2 . . . Hawaii, Loyola, Santa Barbara, and San Diego also felt the pack's power. . . Pres. Moseley proposed his first five-year plan . . . but considerable opposition was met as the 43rd state legislature cut the building program to Nevada state size. . .

With the pack playing their final game in Hawaii, eight basketball players left for an eastern tour. . . St. John's was downed in Madison Square Garden. . .

Attaining a new scholastic low, 268 students received lead pipe cinches. . . Veterans and their families finally moved into their long-promised apartments in Victory Heights. . . "Whispering Jim" departed for greener pastures in Oregon. . . Sheek—(you spell it) took over in time for spring practice. . .

Artemisia dipped into the students' pockets for another four-bits a semester. . . Seven western colleges trekked to Nevada for the annual Winter Carnival. . . With much discussion of the grading system, no extreme changes were made. . . When the semester grades were published, 12 students averaged four point 0. . . Bringing culture to the campus, Miss Sam-eth and WRA sponsored a modern dance series. . .

Campus Players had a "Joyous Season". . . Streets received a dash of yellow paint and one-way traffic was instigated. . . Spring came and those who could, grew beards. . . Mackay Day was approaching. . . Second in line of Tri Delt royalty was Helen Shaw . . . chosen by Earl Carroll . . . Lyman Earl polished up the show. . .

Hans Wolfe will turn his president's gavel over to native son, Jim Glynn . . . Tri Delt's again . . . Teddy Hicks reigned over the Military ball. . .

With all the big celebrations just memories, students settled down to a pre-final session with their books. . .

Wolves Frolic Given November 21 Spot On Social Calendar

November 21 was selected as the date the Wolves' Frolic will be held in the future. After suggestions from senators, the ASUN senate agreed upon this date in a meeting this week. . .

Previously the Wolves Frolic was a part of Homecoming, but was deleted from that celebration by the ASUN senate. Primary reason for the change was the time element. Homecoming is celebrated early in the fall semester and organizations did not have sufficient time to prepare their acts. . .

All senators, with the exception of the Phi Sigma Kappa representative, agreed that the Frolic should be held in the fall semester. November 21 was selected as it comes after the second six-weeks examinations and prior to the Thanksgiving

J. Eather Elected Spanish Club Prexy

Josephine Eather, junior student, was elected president of the Spanish Club at a meeting held Tuesday at 7 pm at the Tri-Delt house. Other newly elected officers are Kay Sterling, vice-president; Carol Anderson, secretary, and Marge Simon, treasurer. . .

Miss Eather announced that Billie Kennedy, Gwen Byrd and Alice Etchart have been put in charge of the county fair to be held during the orientation program in September. . .

weekend, Hans Wolfe, ASUN president, explained. Further, it will not interfere with the Christmas dances sponsored by campus organizations. . .

Proceeds of the Frolic will be donated to some campus fund, probably to the ASUN building fund, Wolfe added. . .
