

Moseley Ok's Grads As Building Sponsor

Alum Association Gets Green Light For Money Drive

New Student Union Building Set as Goal of Group In Grads' Plan

Dr. John O. Moseley recently accepted the offer of the Alumni Association, made through its president, Mark Yori, to sponsor a drive to raise money to erect a student union building on the campus. Final approval of the offer by the board of regents is expected this week, according to Rex Daniels, alumni director.

The only reservation Dr. Moseley made for the board of regents was their approval of plans and specifications of the building, and its location.

In sponsoring the drive, the alumni asked that (1) the board of regents accept the building, (2) allow the association to determine the name of the structure, (3) and permit the Alumni Association to be the coordinating body of the program. They also are asking the regents to allow the association to establish a student union fund.

In the past, there have been several programs started by various groups which have not reached their goal. However, Graduate Manager Joe T. McDonnell said that approximately $5000 was now in the fund from the "buy a brick" campaign which was run for a number of years on the campus and from private donations.

The executive committee of the Alumni Association will meet again next week at which time definite plans for the program will probably be formulated, Daniels said.

New Radio Guild Headed by Hughes

Gareth Hughes, former movie and Shakespearean actor, is drama coach of the recently established campus radio guild.

The guild has created a great deal of interest but only a few students have responded when asked to come to rehearsal, Mr. Hughes said.

The programs are broadcast from radio station KXXL every Sunday evening. The plays produced to date have included "Merchant of Venice" and a Bible story, "Joseph and His Brethren."

Two acts from Shakespeare's "King Henry VIII," will be presented a week from Sunday, Rev. Hughes announced. A 14th century Nativity play will be broadcast just before Christmas.

For students interested in doing radio work there will be more tryouts for the campus player radio show on Monday, December 8, from 1 to 4 pm. The tryouts are open to everyone, Mr. Hughes added.

In the Market for A White Elephant? Pi Phi's Have 'Em

A "white elephant" sale is to be given at the Pi Phi house on Tuesday evening, December 16, announced Helen Montero, publicity chairman.

Dessert will be served at the joint meeting of active members and alumnae which is scheduled to precede the sale.

Alumnae of Pi Beta Phi who are in charge of "white elephant" donations for the sale are Mesdames Neal Howell, Clare Sullivan and William Johnston, Miss Montero said.

HILL MEN BUILD NATIVITY SCENE

The Nativity scene on the lawn facing Ninth street, may set a precedent for future years, said J. Craig, Sheppard, art instructor.

Dr. John O. Moseley, president of the university, advanced the idea for the Christmas arrangement, which was completed Tuesday. Charles Rickabaugh, campus carpenter, cut the figures out of plywood and Sheppard painted them.

Carl Horn, superintendent of maintenance, assisted with the lighting and with the gathering of evergreens. Several of Sheppard's classes assisted the instructor with the construction of the scene.

The Nativity scene will remain throughout the Christmas season, said Sheppard.

BARBS PLANNING VET CHRISTMAS PRESENTS

Organized Independents are planning to send Christmas gifts to the veterans hospital, Tom Macaulay, president of the group, announced this week.

Macaulay also stated that boxes and jars will be placed on the campus next week for gifts and donations of students who wish to contribute to this cause. Chess boards and books are needed at the hospital, he said.

Student Center 'Is Still a Mess,' Reports Pinjuv

Stewart Hall's student center is still a mess, Mrs. Barbara Pinjuv reported today, in spite of the fact that last week Dean of Women Elaine Mobley, Dean of Men Robert Griffin and she had reported that the center would be closed if it was not kept clean. Efforts to remedy the situation are being made, however, she added.

In an additional effort to keep the student meeting place clean, Mrs. Pinjuv said, sandboxes for cigarettes will be installed. Saturday morning will now be scrub day for the center. Two students have been hired to scrub and sterilize the floor.

The student affairs committee, headed by Professor of Biology E. W. Lowrance has been commissioned to handle violators of the "return the dishes" rule.

Mrs. Pinjuv re-emphasized that if the student center is not kept clean, it can and will be closed.

Wolf Basketball Squad Treks SF Way for Games

Nevada's cage team journeys to San Francisco this weekend to meet two of the most highly rated hoop squad on the Pacific coast.

The Pack hooks up with UCLA at Kezar stadium Friday night, and Santa Clara at the Cow Palace, known as the "Madison Square Garden of the West," Saturday night.

Friday night's game, originally scheduled and later cancelled, then reinstated again, was described by a San Francisco paper as being UCLA's warmup tiff before the Bruins clash with the Oakland Bittern Saturday night. But the Pack isn't worried at being classed as the underdog, said Jake Lawlor, coach of the Wolves, and may give the southern California five all it can swallow.

It is expected that around 4000 will attend the Uclans game and possible three times that number Saturday. The (Continued on Page 8)

SKIING BECOMES A MAJOR SPORT

Nevada's board of athletic control voted yesterday to make skiing a major sport. This places the winter sport in the same class with football, basketball and track, and entitles award winners to block N.

TICKETS GO AT $4.80 EACH FOR SALAD BOWL

Tickets for the Salad Bowl football game in Phoenix, Ariz., are now being sold for $4.80 each in the ASUN building, announced Joe T. McDonnell, graduate manager.

Student body cards will not be honored at the game since it is not an officially scheduled meet. It is advisable for all who desire to attend the January 1 game to purchase their tickets as soon as possible, since no time limit was set on ticket sales, said McDonnell.

Besides the regularly scheduled train and plane routes, which are somewhat roundabout from Reno to Phoenix, a special direct flight will be made by the Bonanza airlines on the day of the game. This flight will leave Reno between 6 and 7 am on New Year's Day, and will return immediately after the game. The fare on this special flight will be $64 round trip.

Restriction Lifted; Highlanders Fling Tonight at Eight

Earlier this semester the calendar committee voted against any future Highlander parties because of non-attendance to committee meetings. It has recently recinded the decision, announced Fred Connelly, vice-president of the Highlanders.

Acting immediately, the Highlanders will hold a Christmas dance tonight at Highlanders hall at 8 pm. The dance is a date affair and Wes McNutt will supply music with his four-piece orchestra. McNutt has played at all other Highlander dances and is a member of the organization.

Connelly, the social chairman, is also in charge of decorations. He will use a Christmas theme.

Nevada Students May Help 'Peggy' Apartment Hunt

University of Nevada's campus will probably be the scene for the filming of "An Apartment for Peggy," a 20th Century Fox production, according to an announcement made this week by President John O. Moseley.

The only major remaining detail to be settled is just when the actual "shooting" of the picture will take place. However the motion picture company executives were in conference this week to decide that very thing, and an announcement may be expected from them in the near future, Dr. Moseley said.

About 150 U of N students will be used for various reasons during the filming of the picture, Dr. Moseley stated. Announcements for the employment of students will come later from the president's office.

Arrangements are being made for the motion picture company personnel to eat in the university dining hall.

"An Apartment for Peggy" will be a picture of college life, and will be similar to the show "Margie," which was filmed on this campus last year.

The story concerns a GI couple and their struggles to find living accommodations at college.

INFIRMARY LISTS FIVE CONFINEES; POLIO CHECKED

Five students are confined to the university infirmary this week, stated Nurse Mary Peck.

No symptoms of polio have been found in any of the students who have received medical treatment the past two weeks, and it is probable that no further outbreaks will occur this winter, added Nurse Peck.

Ailments of those confined to bed include a sore throat, an upset stomach, earache and two cases which have not been completely diagnosed yet. However, all of the people should be able to leave the infirmary for the Christmas holidays, continued Nurse Peck.

The students now receiving treatments are Virgil Ballard, David Crabb, Vaughn Butner, Jean Howard and Sally Cross.

Grayson Welcomes Gow House Survey

James Grayston, head of the university dining hall whose management is currently being investigated by the ASUN improvement committee, stated this week that he would welcome a survey of the Gow house by an expert of dining hall management to help improve present conditions there.

Grayson stated that following such a survey, he would try to execute his responsibilities of managing the kitchen, hiring help, ordering all supplies and keeping accurate accounts of business transactions along the lines recommended by such an expert.

Regents to Hear Group's Findings Saturday Morning

Student Committee Seeks Answers to Gow House Management Problem

By Bill Simons
Findings of the dining hall investigation will be presented to the board of regents by the ASUN improvement committee tomorrow morning, stated committee chairman Henry Stewart. President John O. Moseley scheduled the hearing for the improvement committee head.

Suspecting that deeper problems exist concerning the alleged mismanagement and faulty administration control of the dining hall, the committee intends to ask the regents for a further investigation of the entire situation by that controlling body.

Seeking to find some answers to the problems found prevailing in connection with the dining hall, the committee reported that several significant questions are yet unanswered. A few of these "whys" run as follows, stated Stewart:

Why hasn't James Grayson, head of the dining hall, bought food supplies of the same quality at lower prices when circumstances have made this possible?

Why hasn't an adequate explanation been offered by the comptroller's office for the additional $1500 added to the laundry bill of last semester?

Why did comptroller Charles Gorman recommend to the regents a $5 increase of student board charge when only $3 would have been adequate to cover estimated losses?

Why did Grayson release surplus help to cut down expenses when the dining hall operated at a loss in past years?

Why are students forced to pay for meals which they do not receive?

The committee, if requested by the board of regents, is prepared to offer recommendations on how to remedy the many faults it has found.

It will recommend setting up of a separate set of accounting books for the dining hall apart from those kept by the comptroller, and the employment of an experienced accountant to handle them.

The employment of an experienced dietician to plan menus, order food supplies, manage the help, and to constantly watch the preparation of cooking.

It also will recommend instituting a different system of student payment for meals.

Choral Production Said To Be 'Best In History of Hill'

Handel's "Messiah," with more than 150 persons taking part, will be presented in the university gymnasium Monday at 8:15 pm.

"This 'Messiah' performance promises to be the best in our college history," Prof. Theodore H. Post, head of the music department, announced this afternoon.

Admission to the concert will be free for all students, faculty and townspeople.

1500 Attend

Last year's recital was given before a crowd of 1500. The music department expects even more this year, and advises people to come early. No seats will be reserved.

The "Messiah" this year is dedicated in memory of the late Dean and Mrs. John W. Hall, who for 17 years headed the school of education.

Joining forces to form a larger choir, 70 university singers will combine with members of the Reno Civic Chorus. The "Messiah" choir will wear black robes and sing from the gymnasium balcony.

Prof. Post Conducts

The University Orchestra will be augmented with musicians from the Reno Civic Orchestra. Professor Post will conduct. Assistant Prof. Robert Z. Tate of the music department will be concertmaster.

Visiting and local soloists have been selected and they will add colorful "Messiah" arias to Handel's brilliant choral numbers. Chosen soloists for the program are Ruth Ceander and Dorothy B. Post, sopranos; Dorothy McLeod, Dorothy Mohr and Nona Lee Tuttle, contraltos; Wes Summerfield, tenor, and Holly Mertel, bass.

First Presented in '34

The "Messiah" was first presented here by Professor Post in 1934. Since that time, he has conducted it for 12 annual performances. Handel's "Messiah" was not presented during two university seasons of World War II.

George Frederick Handel composed "The Messiah" as an oratorio in 1742. An oratorio is a long sacred composition for voices, the words nearly always coming from the Bible. The first performance in history was received with great enthusiasm in Dublin, Ireland.

"The Messiah" is considered by music critics to be Handel's most emotional and brilliant work.

Young Republicans Set Sights on VA

Recently approved by the student senate, the Young Republicans Club held a meeting last night with George Frey, state assemblyman and chairman of the state Young Republicans Club as guest speaker at Stewart Hall at 7 o'clock.

"Membership is open to undergraduate and graduate students in good standing who believe in the principles of the Republican party and intend generally to support its candidates," stated temporary president Hueling Ussery.

One of the main aims of the state organization is to have the veterans administration set its house in order and administer more effectively the various veterans benefits provided by law.

AND THE SNOWS CAME

Wednesday's sudden snowstorm left evidence on the campus of its fast, furious intensity. Although lasting less than an hour, the depth was measured at approximately four inches. This picture was taken from the east end of the tram looking northward over Manzanita Lake.

Christmas Spirit Flavors Sorority Social Activities

Gamma Phi's, Thetas Swing Out Tonight With Winter Formals

Social activities of the four sororities on the hill this week have, in general, a Christmas flavor.

Delta Delta Delta honored football players and coaches Wednesday evening. Their Christmas dance will be held Saturday night, said Joyce Neilsen, social chairman.

Pi Phi's dinner dance will be tonight at the Riverside hotel. Next Thursday pledges are to take charge of wrappings and ribbons strewn at the party they are planning for active members.

Marilyn Hanson, social chairman for Kappa Alpha Theta, announced that Thetas will be the guests of Sigma Rho Delta at a social Sunday afternoon from 2:30 to 4 pm at Lincoln Hall. The Thetas' Christmas formal is to be held at the house tonight.

After a Tom and Jerry party given by one of their members, Gamma Phi's and their escorts will go out to Lawton's Hot Springs tonight for their Christmas party.

An exchange dinner and social with the SAE's was held Wednesday evening. After their Christmas party Thursday, the Gamma Phi's will serenade the houses with Christmas carols.

Vets Get Cheer From YW Group

Christmas cheer will be spread by 25 YWCA members at the veterans hospital Sunday afternoon. Stockings, made and filled by the group, will be distributed to the patients. The women will also entertain with Christmas carols.

"The Meaning of Christmas" will be discussed by Mark Bray, sophomore, at evening chapel service Sunday in the basement of Stewart Hall. After dinner, Bonnie Yturbe will give the speech which recently won him his West Coast debate title.

The worship committee in charge of these all-campus Sunday evening meetings is Lynn Laughery, Alice Pettis, co-chairmen; Donna Moore, Frances Batt, chapel; Donna Garrett, Dolores Spradling, dinner; Jo Ann Tice, Mary Ann Douglass, discussion; Helen Burr, Nancy Hecker, publicity.

Mrs. Maya Miller, assistant in English, was elected YWCA advisory board president in the meeting Monday, said Mrs. Barbara Pinjuv, YWCA secretary.

Folk Dance Event Planned for July

Plans are being formulated for the presentation of a folk dance festival July 10, 11 and 12 under the sponsorship of President John O. Moseley. Efforts will be made to assemble various folk arts including dance, music and handicraft. The event will be given statewide publicity.

Miss Elsa Sameth, head of the women's PE department, will assist the president arrange the festival. Several dance courses offered at the 1948 summer session will culminate in the festival.

Students enrolled in the following courses will assist in the festival program, Miss Sameth explained: PE 11, folk dances, games and creative activities for kindergarten, first and second grades; PE 12, same as PE 11 except that the course embraces intermediate and secondary grades, and PE 101, dance of the people.

There's a waitress around Reno who's so dumb she doesn't know whether lettuce is a vegetable or a proposition.

Peppers to Receive Special Instruction

A special series of classes for the Blue Peppers, auxiliary to the campus ROTC unit, were started Thursday by the military department. One series will be a three-hour course on military organization as applied to modern life and business, which will have Colonel Smees as instructor. Another series, to be instructed by Colonel Cator, will be a six-hour course on leadership.

The courses are designed especially for the girls in the Blue Pepper honorary society. No actual credit will be received.

Winter Formals Top Social Whirl

Winter formals started to blossom last weekend with the annual Christmas dances of Theta Chi, Phi Sig, ATO and Artemisia-Manzanita topping the social calendar.

Theta Chi held its snowball dance at Lawton's Springs. Couples danced around a huge snowball dominating the center of the floor to the music of Larry Chapman's orchestra. Preceding the dance, many of the members and their dates held a non-official banquet at the West Indies.

Artemisia-Manzanita took over the Arthur Murray studios the same evening for its formal. Performers entertained the three score and ten couples during the intermission.

Sagers Initiate Also on Friday night was the Sager's initiation dance in the university band room. An informal affair, it followed initiation ceremonies at the SAE house.

Larry Chapman played at Lawton's again Saturday, this time for the Phi Sigs. A Christmas theme, built around a tree in the middle of the floor, provided the decorations for the semi-formal dinner-dance.

Saint Nick, but not his reindeer, put in a half-time appearance at the Tau's Saturday Christmas dance at the 20th Century Club. Bill Eccles' Moderners played for the dancers.

Tri-Delt Formal Set for Saturday

The 20th Century Club will be the scene of the Tri-Delt Christmas formal dance tomorrow night. Music will be furnished by Bob Modell and his orchestra.

Christmas decorations and other arrangements are under the chairmanship of Pat Cutler. Small gifts are to be presented to the escorts.

Guests will include Professor and Mrs. Ernest L. Inwood, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Digino and Mrs. Maude Starr.

I entered the Sagebrush office four hours past deadline time. There, fervently attempting to assemble "ye Brushe" in proper order was the staff, feet on desks, typewriters hidden under tables and the journalists exchanging weird news items of fact and fantasy. Christmas Party Discussed by Club

A Christmas party with Aggie Club members as guests was the main subject for discussion at the Home Economics Club's luncheon yesterday.

At the bi-monthly luncheon meeting in the Agriculture building, hostesses set the date for their party as Thursday, December 18. Althea Benedict, president of the Home Economics Club, said that besides agricultural students, guests will include Miss Mildred Swift, home economic department head, and Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Scott. Mr. Scott, director of the department of agriculture, is adviser for the Aggie Club.

A family of ten will receive a Christmas basket prepared by the Home Economics Club, Miss Benedict announced. Youngsters in the family will find, deep in the basket, stockings filled by Santa. Distribution of this and similar donations is being handled by the downtown welfare group.

Chem Club Enjoys Christmas Party With Donated Air

The Chemistry Club held its annual Christmas party in Stewart Hall Tuesday night, according to Lois Hitchens, president.

Forty faculty members and students saw Darrel LeMaire perform experiments with liquid air. The air was donated by the Sierra Oxygen Company for the occasion.

Members of the club exchanged presents and were served refreshments at the close of the program.

Francis Abernathy, club secretary, was in charge of the festivity.

Warning Issued Eager Beavers About Earnings

Are you a veteran who is receiving wages, salary, commission, bonuses or other payments by reason of employment?

According to a recent veterans administration announcement, if your income, exclusive of government subsistence allowance, exceeds $110, you should report it to the veterans administration. Outside income plus subsistence allowance shall not exceed $175 per month for veterans with no dependents and $200 per month for veterans with dependents. If a veteran's total income exceeds these amounts his subsistence allowance will be reduced.

Veterans who falsify wage or compensation statements to veterans administration shall be guilty of misdemeanor and subject to penalties prescribed by law, including possible forfeiture of other GI benefits.

At the start of the semester each veteran listed an estimate of his earnings for the semester. Any veteran who obtained employment since then and is receiving compensation in an amount that necessitates an adjustment in subsistence allowance, should fill out another report with veterans administration immediately.

Audio-Visual Aid Extension Course Offered Teachers

First extension course to be taught for credit by a university faculty member will be offered to teachers in Carson City beginning Dec. 15. President John O. Moseley, announced recently. The newly instituted course, the use of audio-visual aid, will be taught by Dr. Paul Jensen of the school of education.

Popular request for the course by approximately 25 teachers of the Carson City area and Miss Mildred Bray, state superintendent of public instruction, prompted the university to institute audio-visual aid in its extension curriculum.

Previously, all extension courses were given by correspondence, although several evening class room courses have been offered recently for the availability of Reno teachers and townspeople, said Dr. Moseley.

The audio-visual aid class will be conducted in the senate chambers of the capitol building in Carson City and will carry three credit hours. Sessions shall be held for three hours one night each week.

Further expansion of the classroom extension courses program, especially in the agricultural field, will materialize to meet future demands, added President Moseley.

Freshman Miners Attend Gathering At Carpenter Home

Professor Jay A. Carpenter, director of the Mackay School of Mines, entertained 35 freshman students of his orientation mining course at his home on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

This is a regular custom started by Professor Carpenter but due to the large size of the class this year, the group had to be split into two sections.

Director Carpenter explained the get-together is for the entertainment of students so they may become better acquainted with each other over the pool table and card table, while throwing darts, or while drinking cider and eating doughnuts.

Educators Report Humanities Need In Modern World

Dean Wood Represents Arts and Science College at Washington Conclave

More humanities courses are necessary to prepare students to live in the modern world, say the reports of the educators at the meeting of the Association of Land Grant Colleges and Universities held at Washington, D. C. Dr. Frederick Wood, dean of the college of arts and sciences, made this disclosure upon his return to the campus from the conference.

Speakers reported that vocational and technical subjects alone are no longer sufficient to prepare the students. Emphasis was placed on the necessity for a good liberal arts foundation, for a well rounded education which would enable the student to make his way in the complex world of today.

The humanities, Dean Wood stated, were believed by the educators to materially aid students in interpreting and understanding the world and people around them.

Mentioned by vocational leaders as useful were such courses as public speaking, sociology, public relations, history and others.

According to Dean Wood, these practices have been followed by Nevada for some time. The difficulty, he said, is in finding time to add more general and liberal art subjects to the crowded schedule which engineering and agriculture students carry.

Further meetings will be devoted to solving some of the problems resulting from the specialized courses being broadened to include more arts and science subjects.

Blodgett Testifies For Railroad Suit In South Dakota

Summoned to testify as a technical adviser in a law suit involving a railroad bridge failure, Professor Howard B. Blodgett, head of the department of civil engineering, flew to South Dakota early this week.

Professor Blodgett was called to investigate the bridge failure last year, said Weld Arnold, lecturer in civil engineering, and he has been on call since to testify in the case.

Barring too much cross examining, Professor Blodgett should return next week, stated Arnold.

Professor Blodgett intends to bring pictures of the bridge failure back to Nevada for civil engineer studying.

Crucible Clubbers See Color Movies, 'A New Frontier'

A technicolor sound film entitled "A New Frontier," was shown to members of the Crucible Club at a meeting last night held in the Mackay School of Mines building. This film was shown through the courtesy of the Standard Oil Company of California.

The movie is about Saudi Arabia, and the comparatively new oil fields being developed in that territory and is the same film that more than 100 members of the San Francisco section of the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers saw last September 10.

Crucible Club, a student affiliate of the AIME, held a regular business meeting after the film and then served refreshments.

Federated Church Has Funds, Plans For Youth Center

A youth center at which all student religious activities will be coordinated is being planned by the Federated Church at Fifth and Virginia streets.

Funds have been raised for the conversion of the present manse into the youth center, Dr. M. W. Deming, professor of chemistry and Sunday School director of the Federated Church, said today.

The Campus Club, university social-religious organization, the Hi-X Club, a Reno High School group associated with the Federated Church, and the Sunday School will locate their activities at the center when remodeling is completed.

The Rev. Terrence Stoker, pastor for two years of the Cederville Federated Church, will be in charge of all student work.

Professor Irving J. Sandorf, faculty advisor to the Campus Club, Dr. Deming, director of the Sunday School, and Stan Smith, junior arts and science student in charge of the Hi-X Club, will turn their duties over to the new pastor.

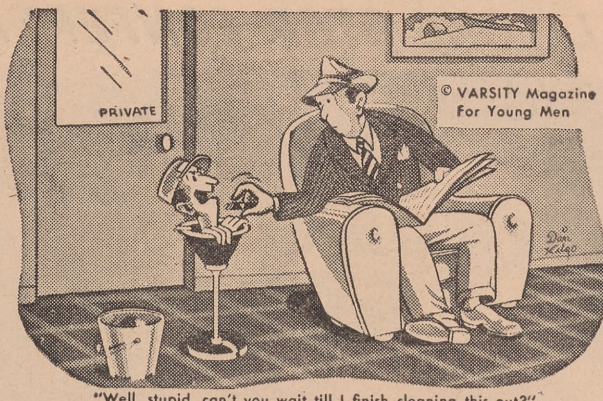

The Rev. Stokes, who graduated from the Pacific School of Religion at Berkeley, will assume his new duties January 1, 1948.

SP Agent Speaks To Commerce Club On Railroad Value

Raymond Marks, tax agent for the Southern Pacific railroad in Reno, was guest speaker at the Commerce Club meeting held last Thursday evening in the Education building.

"The value of railroads to the state of Nevada" was the topic of his talk which dealt with the development of railroad in the state, and what railroads mean to Nevada economically, as a means of transportation.

Marks also reviewed railroad employment at the present time and explained what the railroad tax dollar meant to Nevada in the way it helps many state organizations and undertakings.

Chapel Chimes

"Washoe, the Beautiful," a pictorial story by Mr. Metcalf, city engineer, will feature the Sunday meeting of the Campus Club starting at 5:30 pm. This will be followed by services and a social hour consisting of refreshments and entertainment. Professor Sandorf is the faculty advisor and the meeting place is the Federated Church at Fifth and Virginia streets.

Live Y'ers hope to take to the outdoors tonight but only if weather conditions are favorable. The primary objective is to have an ice skating party at Mount Rose. A buffet dinner will precede the ice skating. If conditions are not favorable the group will turn to roller skating with refreshments at the YMCA. following. In either case meeting place is at the Y and 8 pm is the hour of departure.

Monsignor John Smith announced that Newman building plans are still tentative but that definite action will take place after the first of the year. The building, first of its kind, will be built near the campus. Once again the Newman Club held the weekly discussion hour in the English seminar with Monsignor Smith presiding. The topic was "The Immortality of the Soul." Discussion hour is every Wednesday afternoon at 4 pm.

Last week's phonograph rendition of Charles Dickens'

"Christmas Carol" by the Wesley Foundation was postponed until the meeting this Sunday. In addition, Bud Hardesty and his wife, Vena Lee, will give a religious narration with the help of colored pictures. After supper intermission, the radio choir will render a cantata. On Thursday night the group will have their Christmas party in the evening consisting of games, a grab bag and dancing.

Bob Little, president of the Canterbury Club, states that his organization will continue discussions on topics dealing with morals. Club members never decide on a definite topic. "We're liable to discuss most anything and it usually proves interesting," says Bob.

Nevada Becomes One Of Western College Member-Institutes

The Western College Association, organization of western colleges whose purpose is to formulate academic policies, has accepted the University of Nevada as a member institution.

Nevada was voted into membership at the November meeting of the association held at the San Francisco College for Women.

President John O. Moseley received official notification of Nevada's admittance to the association in a letter from Charles T. Fitts of Pomona College, California, secretary-treasurer of the organization.

One of the studies now being carried on by the association is the probable increase in population of college age (18-21) in Washington, Oregon, California, Nevada and Arizona until 1964.

The Western College Association began its academic functions in 1924, year of its organization.

FAMOUS FOR FLAVOR

Are you dough-shy? Get us! We give the stuff away. Folding money, too. Yes sir, Pepsi-Cola Co. pays from $1 to $15 for gags you send in and we print. Why worry about an honest living? This is easier. Just send your stuff, along with your name, address, school and class, to Easy Money Department, Box B, Pepsi-Cola Co., Long Island City, N. Y. All contributions become the property of Pepsi-Cola Co. We pay only for those we print.

There's nothing to it—as you can see from the samples below. If, by coincidence, the words "Pepsi-Cola" turn up somewhere in your gag, don't worry about it. We don't mind. (Matter of fact, we kind of like it.) So start your stuff in now—for Easy Money.

Our well-known moron-about-campus, Murgatroyd—now a student in the school of agriculture—has developed a new theory on sheep-feeding. He makes a daily ration of Pepsi-Cola an important part of their diet. "Duuuuuuuh, of course," said Murgatroyd recently, when questioned as to his reasoning, "everybody knows that Pepsi-Cola is the drink for ewe!"

She: Oh, we all call her "Pepsi" because she goes with anything!

He: I never knew what real happiness was until I married you.
She: Darling!
He: Yes, and by then it was too late.

Three bucks apiece for each of these we print. Let your conscience be your guide.

Daffy Definitions

Here's a column that must have some deep underlying significance. Darned if we know what, though. All we know is that these rate a buck each—and the daffier, the better.

Professor—textbook wired for sound.

Thirst—obsolete term; dates back to pre-Pepsi-Cola era.

Cooperation—one bottle of Pepsi with two straws.

Paying $1 apiece for these is like giving you a license to commit burglary. But—$1 apiece for those we buy.

Frosh Hoopsters Take Two Wins In Chico Series

Coach Pleased With Spirit Shown by Yearlings In First Start

After trailing in both contests, the University of Nevada's frosh basketballers returned with two wins over the Chico State freshmen, turning back the Kittens 39-43 in the first game, and 34-36 in the second.

Frosh coach Dick Evans stated that he was pleased with the spirit displayed by his squad, and that with only two weeks' practice before their first game they won by "spirit and heart." In the opener, the yearling hoopsters got off to a slow start, and found the opposition holding a six point lead midway in the first half. With only five minutes before the end of the period, Bill McEachern tossed in a long one to spark the Cub Pack and make the half time score read, Chico Kittens 20, Wolf Pack Cubs 17.

As Bob Gollett, Bruno Benna and Bud Hardy began controlling the backboards, the Cub frosh erased the three point half time deficit early in the second half. All members of the local frosh found the center of the basket, and ran up a nine point lead before the three-quarter mark was reached.

The Chico Kittens narrowed the margin during the last five minutes, but were unable to catch the Nevada Cubs, and the game ended with Nevada on the long end of a 43-39 count.

In the second game, the Evansmen again came from behind to down the Kittens in a closely fought contest.

Each team tallied 14 points to tie the game up at half time, but the Chicomen held an edge up until the last two minutes of play. At this point Bruno Benna rang up two points to put the Cubs ahead. The local frosh then froze the ball the remainder of the game, and held the two point advantage as the final whistle blew.

Frosh Cage Squad Slashed to Twenty

The frosh basketball squad has been cut to 20 men by Coach Dick Evans. Time is now being taken to perfect the team and get the players used to playing with each other in preparation for their preliminary with Tonopah high school December 17.

NEVADA CAGERS WHIP WILDCATS DURING SERIES

Coach Jake Lawlor's basketballers journeyed to northern California last weekend and whipped the Wildcats of Chico State 50-33 and 63-39 in Friday and Saturday night games. The two wins over the Wildcats made it seven consecutive wins for the Pack over the Cats who have not beaten Nevada since the first game of the 1942-43 season.

Getting off to a slow start, the Pack was on the short end of a 24-21 score at half time of Friday night's game. In the second half Lawlor's cagers opened up and the final gun found the score 50-33 in the Wolves' favor. Saturday night the Pack completely overwhelmed the Cats in winning 63-39.

Outstanding Pack hoopster for the two night stand was Bill Moylan, hard driving guard, who scored 25 points and played two of his best games since donning the Silver and Blue of Nevada. Jim Mackey, sharp eyed guard, scored 15 points.

Grant Davis, forward, scored 18 points. Big Dan Orlich, playing his first season for the Wolves, registered 11 points and proved himself a valuable addition to the cage squad.

CAMPUS SWIM CLUB CEASES ACTIVITIES

Paniwallis, campus swimming club, will hold no further meetings this semester. Interference with other campus activities resulted in the decision, Miss Pat Ireland, president of the group, stated.

Swimming practice will resume again next semester in preparation for a spring aquacade. Moana Hot Springs will be the location for spring practice.

Rifle Packin' Gals Ready on the Right

Twenty-two sorority and independent women have entered the inter-sorority rifle matches on the campus, Colonel Gilbert E. Parker, announced this week.

Firing of the match targets will take place during the week of December 16, ending at noon Saturday, December 20, Col. Parker stated.

Team entries for the matches are:

Kappa Alpha Theta: Marilyn Reynolds, captain, Cody Shaw, Gedney Gallagher, Mary Libbey and Naomi Batjer.

Pi Beta Phi: Ann Rice, captain, Gertrude Sanford and Wilma Gadda.

Gamma Phi Beta: Shirley Macaulay, captain, Jac Petersen, Billy Heath, Patty Jones and Joy Percy.

Delta Delta Delta: Helen Root, captain, Marilyn MacDonald, Jo Ann Barbash, Nilda Cox and Mary Lou Brunton.

Tip to playwright: Nothing risqué—nothing gained.

PACK TRACKS

By Bill McFarland

This week was shaping up to be a quiet one (somewhat a phenomenon around here) but at the last moment some guy in San Francisco had to open his face and emit utterances unbecoming to the quality of Nevada basketball.

All serenity evaporated when a bay area sports scribe tabbed tonight's hoop encounter between UCLA and the 'Wolf Pack at Kezar pavilion as a practice session for the Bruins. According to the Wolves, things aren't going to be so easy for the UCLANS. In fact, the boys intend to make the guy who said that UCLA would only get a warm-up eat his words.

Coach Jake Lawlor has a smooth club on the Hill this year and they look better each week. It wouldn't be at all surprising if Jake and his crew come back to Reno with not only a win over UCLA, but also one over Saturday night's opponent, the Santa Clara Broncos. Varsity basketballers take their only air trip of the season today on the jaunt to SF. It is understood that Coach Lawlor is a bit allergic to iron birds and doesn't go for the thrill of the wild blue yonder. As far as he is concerned it will be dining cars and pullmans the rest of the year.

Skiers Delight

No doubt the abundance of snow that fell this week warmed the hearts of university skiers. The slopes around Mount Rose should be in fair shape for downhill runs and slaloms.

Many skiers pulled out the foot slats and wax, officially starting the race for team berths.

Jerry Wetzel, ski captain, got the ball rolling when he announced the possibility of entering a national intercollegiate meet at Sun Valley, Idaho, January 4. At present Nevada's entry is tentative.

The U of N stands near the top, if not the top, in west coast skiing and this year looks like a banner one for the Silver and Blue.

Bad luck seems to run in double doses; for Harold Hayes anyway. The lanky football end no more than had the cast removed from a broken wrist when a sudden stomach disorder sent him to the operating table. Double trouble will keep the versatile Hayes on the shelf until next year. Hal was slated for plenty of basketball action this winter. It's tough to have all the breaks go against him at once.

The Sagebrush wishes a quick recovery for its sports editor and hopes to see him up and around soon.

Tau Volleyball Win Unofficially Gives Them Frat Crown

Winning a two out of three game contest from the SAE team, ATO volleyball men were unofficially acclaimed intramural volleyball champs Wednesday afternoon. As only two more games remain to be played, it is not possible for the Taus to be toppled from top position.

The SAE team fell into third place after their defeat Wednesday as the Sigma Nu club completed the schedule with only one mark in the loss column.

Theta Chi and Lambda Chi will decide fourth spot honors when they tangle in their final game, as each will enter the fray with three wins and three losses. In the other game remaining, Phi Sig men will match talent with Sigma Rho, but this game will have little significance as each team goes into the match with five losses and one win.

With two games remaining to be played the volleyball standings are as follows:

	W	L
ATO	7	0
Sigma Nu	6	1
SAE	5	2
Theta Chi	3	3
Lambda Chi	3	3
Phi Sig	1	5
Sigma Rho	1	5
Independents	0	7

1300 Seats in Gym Open to Students

Thirteen hundred seats are now available for students at the basketball games in the new gymnasium. This cheering section is located on the north side of the gym instead of the south side as it has been in previous years, stated Joe T. McDonnell, graduate manager.

Students will be admitted to the basketball games by presentation of their student body cards at the north entrance only, McDonnell added. Through this arrangement, it will not be necessary for students to walk around the playing floor in order to reach the cheering section.

Members of the rifle teams are:

Sigma Rho Delta: Robert Jones, captain, Louis Pico, Harry Varischetti, Robert Weber, Peter Mygatt.

Independents: Jim Taylor, captain, Wayne Sheldon, Dale Jack, George Louis.

He: Weren't we engaged last year?

She: I expect so, if you were staying in the same hotel that I was.

University of Nevada's Winter Carnival will be held on February 20, 21, 22, and Mel Rovetti will be in charge of the event, student nominating committee announced this week.

Members of Rovetti's committee are Ty Short, housing; Kay Brennan, dance; Norman Olsen, tournament; Barbara Smith and Sinclair Melner, publicity, and Bob Campbell, banquet.

The meet will be held at both the Mt. Rose Bowl and at White Hills. A ski team will be selected at a later date when snow conditions in the Mt. Rose Bowl are sufficient to hold trials.

Rovetti also announced that cost of sorority and fraternity house decorations for the event should not exceed $50 and $30 respectively.

Ole Lake Freezes When Asked For Explanation

When irate skating enthusiasts demanded an explanation for last month's now-you're-on-it, now-you're-through-it ice, Manzanita froze up completely.

She'll probably stay that way, too, the weather man says. For a while anyway. And if you don't mind shoveling the snow off to get at the ice.

Gwen Byrd, Blue Peppers head, shoveled a lot of snow to get at the ice. Wednesday, after the mid-week snowstorm, she was seen laboring with a large shovel, while the weaker sex cavorted about the spot she had cleared.

The gallery of non-skaters has thinned a bit, in inverse ratio to the thickness of the ice. They are the ghouls who perch on the tram railing, ostensibly to admire the skating, but secretly waiting for somebody to fall through.

DEAN THOMPSON SUBS FOR REGULAR PASTOR

"Is Life Worth Living?" was the topic of the sermon presented by Dean C. Thompson, professor of philosophy, to the congregation of the Federated Church last Sunday.

Dean Thompson delivered the sermon in the absence of the Rev. Arthur L. Rice, regular pastor of the church, who was ill at the time.

First Ski Meet Plans Discussed

Pete Galli, director of the first ski meet to be sponsored by the university this season, discussed plans at the Ski Club meeting held last Tuesday night in the Aggie building. Galli said that the meet would be held at the White Hills ski area and would start at 10 am on January 4.

There will be two events, the down hill race in the morning and the slalom in the afternoon, with juniors, class A and B, and women skiers running the courses. Galli stressed the need for help in handling the meet, which resulted in the motion which was passed that all Ski Club members take part in some capacity in the coming meet in the winter carnival, or have their Ski Club privileges revoked.

Any student wishing to enter this meet may do so, and it was announced that students wanting rides to the ski area should meet in front of the ASUN building at 7:45 am on the day of the meet.

UCLA, Santa Clara Boast Tough Teams In Weekend Games

The Wolf Pack basketballers will be meeting last year's top independent of the west as well as the southern division winner of last year's Pacific Coast Conference in facing Santa Clara and UCLA in San Francisco this week.

The Broncos, who have whipped Fresno 57-37 and split a series with UCLA so far to date, are led by tall Frank Laney, who scored 325 points in leading Santa Clara to a 21-4 record last year. Veterans returning to the Bronco lineup are guard Harry Christensen and forward Dave Mariani while Paul Holm and 6-2 forward Arden McKillip complete the starting five.

UCLA compiled an 18-7 record last year and won the southern division championship only to lose to a very fine Oregon State in the coast playoffs. The Bruins have 10 lettermen returning, headed by Capt. John Stanich and Dick West, forwards, the latter a three year letterman, all-coast guard Dave Minor, 6-5 center Alan Sawyer and guard Bill Ranklin. The Bruins have topped Loyola twice, 49-34 and 53-24, and split two close contests with Santa Clara, winning 47-42 and losing 55-50.

Bittners Slated To Meet Wolves

The University of Nevada quintet will play host to the Oakland Bittners, one of the members of the potent AAU basketball league, in Reno December 17.

The Bittners have won 12 out of 13 games thus far this season, their only loss being to the Phillips Oilers, last year's AAU champs, by a score of 43-38. Among the Bittners' victims are Santa Clara and most of the other top bay area college teams.

This team is studded with all-Americans, including such stalwarts as Don Barksdale six feet six and one-half inch, a former All-American from UCLA; Laddie Gale, six feet five inch, who was All-American at Oregon, and Warren Taubee, six feet six inch, a member of last year's Bittner squad.

In addition they have Tom Ambery, six feet seven inch, who was the second highest scorer in the nation last year at North Dakota University, and Don Burness and Don Williams, both of whom were members of Stanford's 1941 national championship team.

Yturbide Remains Oratory Champion In Weekend Meet

Bonnie Yturbide, ace Nevada debater and western states oratory champion, successfully defended his title and won new honors over the weekend at the Western States tournament held in Santa Barbara. Last year Yturbide won the lower division, and this year he added the upper division crown to his list of wins.

Barbara Martin was the only woman to reach the finals in individual events. Maclin Summers, Russell Maynard and Scott Whitney went to the semi-finals in extemporaneous speaking, while Yturbide won the oratory.

Scott Whitney, Rex Jemison, Art Johnson and George Himes placed in the semi-finals of the lower division debate, Harold Murphy and Mark Bray, also in the lower division, made the quarter-finals, and Russell Maynard and Pat Carmichael spoke in the finals of the upper division. In the women's debate Barbara Martin, Mary Haslem and Barbara Joseph made the finals.

S. M. Vinocour, debate coach, said about 120 debate teams were present representing 22 colleges and universities on the west coast.

He stated the squad will travel to Salt Lake City during Christmas vacation for their next tournament.

Christmas Dances Highlight Weekend For Fraternities

Social spotlight for this weekend among the fraternities will be on a series of annual Christmas dances and banquets.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon members will hold their annual Christmas banquet tonight at the Masonic Temple. This dinner is put on every year by pledges in honor of members and alumni. Tomorrow night the group will have their annual Christmas formal at the Odd Fellows Hall.

Saturday at Lawton's, Lambda Chi Alpha will hold its yearly Christmas dance, while Sigma Rho Delta will hold a dance at the 20th Century Club tonight.

Bewhiskered Man Plans Hall Entry

An unidentified Santa Claus from Lincoln Hall will distribute gifts to the girls at Manzanita and Artemisia Halls Wednesday at 11 pm.

Roberta Butler, president of Artemisia-Manzanita Association, announced the two halls are planning separate Christmas parties, culminating in a joint serenade of Lincoln Hall, the old gym and the home of President and Mrs. John O. Moseley.

Nita Birdzell, chairman of the party committee, has arranged the program so that the two halls will have their refreshments and entertainment at different times, enabling Santa Claus and his songsters to go from one party to the other.

Judy Bogard and Nora Saunders will sing several duets of Christmas carols, accompanied on the piano by Lora Jean Drown, Miss Butler said.

At 11:30 pm Manzanita residents will join the others at Artemisia Hall, starting out on their serenade of Christmas carols.

Last ROTC Drill Of Fall Semester

The final ROTC formation of the season will be held this afternoon, Colonel Gilbert E. Parker, professor of military science and tactics, announced this morning. There will not be any more drill until about the middle of March, he said.

At the ceremonies to be held at this last formation, all appointments of student cadets to higher offices will be announced. All second year advanced cadet officers will have charge of spring training. All first year advanced students will be promoted to cadet second lieutenants, but will not have to assist in spring drill.

Alumni Association Coporation Papers Ready for Carson

Corporation papers for the University of Nevada Alumni Association are now ready to be sent to Carson City to incorporate the association, Rex Daniels, alumni director, announced today.

This action climaxes efforts in this line covering a period of almost a year.

Incorporating the association will allow the group to own property, excuse individuals from personal liability in cases of accident to an employee, or other misfortune and give permanency to the organization.
