

Ski Carnival Will Go On Despite Snow Condition

Campus Senators Ok Present Plans For Winter Meet

Despite unsettled snow conditions, the ninth annual Ski Carnival will be held as scheduled February 20, 21 and 22. Decision to follow original plans was reached at a senate meeting Wednesday night, Melvin Rovetti, carnival chairman, announced today.

The chairman stated that postponement of the carnival would probably not find improved snow conditions and believes the carnival will be a success regardless of the weather handicaps.

White Hills Out

All ski events will be held at Mount Rose. Lack of snow caused transfer of events scheduled for White Hills. Numerous social affairs also are on the carnival weekend agenda.

Six out of the 10 colleges and universities invited to participate have sent notices of acceptance. These include Stanford, University of California, Fresno State College, University of Utah, Sacramento College and Placer Junior College. Replies have not been received from the University of Washington, University of Oregon, University of California at Davis, or Oregon State College.

Teams Limited

All competing ski teams are being limited to six members and a manager. Stanford has indicated that Don Williams who placed fifth in last year's downhill, second in jumping and first in downhill will compete.

Nevada will rely on experienced skiers Jerry Wetzel, Barnes Berry, Harvey Rose, Cliff Banta and Ashley Van Slyck and a newcomer to the team, Bud Schonfeld, from the Vermont ski country. The team will be out to recapture the tournament trophy won by the University of California last year with a 1.019 margin.

Geology Professor Clears Up Mystery Of Lost Typewriter

The case of the mis-placed typewriter was solved recently when Professor of Geology Vincent Gianella phoned the police department. Police had been holding the machine for two weeks waiting for the call. Until last Saturday Professor Gianella believed that the typewriter had been sent out for repairs. Upon checking up, he noticed the error and notified the police department.

Doctor Paul Jensen, instructor in education, on the other hand, was quick to notice the disappearance of a valuable typewriter that he had purchased in Switzerland. His call to the police, some two weeks ago, found his machine in the same group of loot that contained the Gianella machine.

Robert Montenev, the direct cause of the mixup, is now a resident of the state prison at Carson City.

INFIRMARY CASES

Three students were in the infirmary this week. Dr. Robert Locke, university physician, stated. Hospitalized were Kay Sterling with a chest cold, W. V. Miller with the measles, and Dean Johnson who is under observation.

Theta Chi Leads Pledging Tourney

Theta Chi led hill fraternities in this semester's rushing race with a pledging list of nine men. Sigma Alpha Epsilon pledged one, Sigma Nu found room for two.

Theta Chi's new pledges include Ernest Zeno, Rolland L. Gunzburg, Otto Franke, Ernest H. Schoenfeld, Warren E. Meacham, Kenneth Fox, Stanley D. Johns and Galen Evans.

The new SAE pledge is Richard B. Speldock. Robert Collett and Jack Finkell joined Sigma Nu.

Subsistence Raise Slated for April

Financial aid for veterans will probably be available about April 1, according to Ty Crumb, national veterans adviser.

The House of Representatives shelved its regular business recently and passed a bill to aid the veterans enrolled in school. The measure had been previously passed by the Senate and needs only the signature of the president to become law.

The bill authorizes a raise in subsistence payments for the single veteran from $65 to $75 a month. The veteran with one dependent receives a pay hike from $90 to $105 and the veteran with more than one dependent receives $120 a month instead of $90.

The new measure will affect some 800 veterans enrolled at Nevada.

Amount of earnings allowable in addition to the governmental allowance was also under discussion, the amount varying from $200 for a veteran without dependants to $350 for a veteran with two or more dependants.

Crumb, speaking from Washington over a national network this week, said that the new allowance would probably become effective on April 1.

Tumblers Perform Thursday Evening

The Olympics Club, Nevada's tumbling organization, displayed their skill Thursday evening before a crowd of "Hello on the Hill" enthusiasts in the university gym. The team followed the same routine that they used in their performance in the pre-exam March of Dimes basketball game.

Acting as clowns were Don Thompson and Bob Coughlin. Other performances consisted of straight springboard and mat tumbles and the building of a collapsible pyramid.

WOMEN PE STUDENTS WELCOMED BY PEM'S

Women students entering a physical education major or minor will be welcomed by the physical education major's club this week.

The "hello" meeting will be held from 5 to 7 pm on Wednesday in the physical education majors room in the university gymnasium, according to Beverly Whelan, club president.

GENIAL JOE

Joseph T. McDonnell, graduate manager for the last nine years, has submitted his resignation to the Board of Athletic Control, effective June 30. McDonnell, a Nevada graduate of the class of '33, is giving up his post to enter law school. No successor has yet been named, but Gene Mastroanni, assistant to McDonnell, has been recommended for the job.

Wolves Frolic 'In' Following Senate Balloting Session

After a heated debate which almost resulted in a filibuster, the student senate finally downed a motion proposing to eliminate the Wolves Frolic from this semester's social calendar by a one vote majority.

Senator Barbara Olesen, Tri-Delt, led the opposition by presenting the argument that already there are entirely too many social activities and any attempt to produce the student show this semester may result in a possible failure. "Then, too," contended the opposition, "the Wolves Frolic is primarily a Homecoming tradition, and should be held off until that time."

However, the one vote majority in favor of the show assured its presentation and started the wheels rolling toward a definite plan. Either April 9 or 10, depending on when the theater is available, will be the date for the show.

ASUN President Jimmy Glynn gave his personal promise that a director for the Frolic would be obtained within a week.

No general theme will be given to the show; instead, each organization will submit individual themes as soon as determined. They will be listed with Glynn to prevent duplication.

Auchampaugh Works Published Recently

Two articles written by Professor Phillip Auchampaugh of the history department have been published recently.

The first of these was an article in the magazine The Historian. It was a sketch of the early career of Robert P. Flenniken, first a judge and later a diplomat in President Buchanan's time.

The second was a pamphlet, "Charles O'Connor's Views of the Prosecution of Jefferson Davis." O'Connor was one of the greatest of early American lawyers and defended Davis in his trial for his purported crimes against the Union at the time of the Civil War.

FROSH TOE MARK SET BY COPPERS FOR SPRING TERM

Strict regulation of all freshman men by the upper-class committee, and enforced by the sophomore vigilantes, began last Tuesday.

According to Tommy Thompson, head of the upper-class committee, the same rules are in force. Freshman men will uphold the usual traditions by making themselves conspicuous in dinks and the freshman bible carried at all times. Also, they'll find that the shortest distance between two points is not a straight line, especially if they use the quadrangle as a shortcut.

Thompson reminded all fraternity houses that a five dollar bond for absences of vigilantes at scheduled meetings must be paid by today, Friday, the 13th. If not, then Friday the 13th will mean exactly what it always has. Bad luck! If fines are not paid by this date, the fraternities will be libel to action by the senate. Highlanders and the unaffiliated independents are required to send two sophomore vigilantes and two upperclassmen to the regularly scheduled meetings or they, too, will face action by the committee.

Outside of these terse reminders, the upperclass committee also advised those who have thus far gone through life clean shaven, to make preparations for the growing of a beard for Mackay Day. A full crop will be expected.

20th CENTURY FOX WANTS SNOW, TOO

Twentieth Century Fox officials are scanning the skies daily, hoping for a snow storm. Numerous shots of the campus cannot be completed without that necessary ingredient.

A portion of the motion picture company's personnel and equipment will remain here for an indefinite period or until there is snow. If the latest snow cover had not disappeared so rapidly, shots of the campus would have been completed this week.

CANDY PASSING

Joan Hamblin passed candy to her sorority sisters at Gamma Phi Beta Monday night after receiving a ring from Jack Woerner.

GWEN BYRD, NORMAN OLSEN NAMED 'MISS HELLO, MR. HI'

Wolf Pack Meets USF Dons Tonight In Hopeful Tilt

Rolling into Reno, for what they probably think will be an easy killing, the experienced and "not-so-hard-hit" University of San Francisco Dons may be in for the surprise of their season when they tackle the Wolf Pack tonight and tomorrow.

With the Wolf Pack rapidly shaping into a well spirited and hard hitting team of hoopers, the Nevada boys are very likely to pull the weekend series out of the hat and send the red-faced Dons back to San Francisco.

Although the Pack still feels its consecutive slashings by withdrawals, injuries and scholastic ineligibilities. Coach Jake Lawlor is confident that with the right break the tables can be turned and the tough luck streak broken.

Starting lineup for the Dons will include Joe McNamee, center; Ross Guidice, high scoring guard, and his rough running mate, Jack Hanley; Jack Bennington and Don Geisen, forwards.

Lawlor will open with Davis and Joseph at forwards, Hayes at center and Mendive and DuPratt at guards.

Students Represent Wesley Foundation

Representatives of the Wesley Foundation will attend the Methodist Student Movement Conference this weekend at Asilomar, conference grounds, located on the Monterey peninsula, California.

Attending the conference are Mr. and Mrs. Manfred Hardesty, Dale Jack, Bob Korb, Roy Larsen, Moray Black, Geneva Marker, Phil Whitmer, Craig Thomson, Al MacFadden and Lou Hilbert, director of the Wesley Foundation.

Harold Ehrensperger, editor of Motive magazine, will be the featured speaker. Motive magazine is the Methodist youth movement organ.

New Voices Added To Campus Singers

Several new voices have been added to the University Singers, according to Theodore Post, professor of music, but more candidates would be welcome. Professor Post stressed that there is about a week left in which to register for the course. The course carries an hour credit and is held Monday and Wednesday at four.

There is also an opening for an accompanist, he said, to take the place of Mary Libbey, who has resigned the position.

The group will present a classical concert within the next two months, and at the end of the semester will give an operetta.

The Mikado, by Gilbert and Sullivan, was presented last year.

SAE SET TO PLUNGE

Charles Hunt, SAE, takes the long step Easter Sunday with Miss Mickey Bolin of San Bruno, California. The ceremony will take place in the Baptist Church in San Bruno.

Nevada No Longer Possibility as Site For Rifle Matches

Nevada has been edged out of the picture as a possible site for the national intercollegiate rifle matches by the University of California, announced Colonel Gilbert Parker, head of the military department. The national shoot will be fired at Berkeley on Saturday, March 20, Parker stated.

The University of Nevada Rifle Club sent in a bid to the National Rifle Association early in the semester asking that Nevada be considered as the site for the national shoot. For the last few weeks California and Nevada have been tied as possible locations.

In answer to a questionnaire sent out by C. R. Rogers, secretary of the National Rifle Association, to schools entering the national matches, the majority of colleges stated that they prefer to shoot at Berkeley because of the distance of travel involved in coming to Reno.

Last year the Nevada rifle team won third place in the intercollegiate matches held at Berkeley. They were defeated by the University of California ROTC rifle team and the California varsity team.

Masquerade Ball Leads Frat Week

Fraternities on the campus are having a variety of events this week, ranging from a masquerade ball to a membership basketball game.

Members and pledges of Phi Sigma Kappa will take to the dance floor tonight at Lawton's for their annual masquerade ball. Bud Gianella, social chairman, is in charge. The dance will start at nine and will continue until midnight.

The Alpha Tau Omega pledges will also hold a dance tonight at the fraternity house. The date dance will take place immediately after the Nevada-San Francisco basketball game.

Theta Chi's will hold their first social of the new semester Wednesday at the fraternity house. The social will be held jointly with the Kappa Alpha Thetas.

The annual pledge-member basketball game of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity will be held Sunday at 2 pm in the gym. The loser will pay a forfeit.

Lambda Chi Alpha and Sigma Rho Delta plan no activities for the near future.

HISTORY PROF FALLS ON SLICK SIDEWALK

On his way to school early Thursday morning Dr. Edward M. Hulme, visiting professor of history and political science, slipped and fell on the icy sidewalk in front of Manzanita Hall. Several students witnessing the accident assisted him into the university dining hall.

Dr. Hulme was taken to the Washoe General Hospital where his injuries were diagnosed as four cracked ribs and bruises. He will be hospitalized for another week. During Dr. Hume's absence, his classes are being instructed by Professor C. C. Smith and P. G. Auchampaugh.

'Hello Week' Ends With Blue Key's Traditional Dance

Gwen Byrd, Kappa Alpha Theta, and Norman Olsen, Alpha Tau Omega, have been selected as "Miss Hello" and "Mr. Hi," the friendliest couple on the Nevada campus. Both Miss Byrd and Olsen will be introduced tomorrow night at the traditional Blue Key get-together dance.

Blue Key dance will climax the "Hello on the Hill" week tomorrow night following the Wolf Pack and San Francisco Dons basketball games at the gymnasium. The affair will bring to a close a week long schedule of activities which started last Monday at a special "Hello" assembly.

Admission will be 60 cents per couple and tickets can be obtained at the gymnasium Saturday night. Music will be furnished by Jim Eads' seven piece orchestra.

Jerry Wyness, master of ceremonies for the Monday assembly, had a variety of entertainment on the program.

Due to bad weather conditions, the ice skating party scheduled for Wednesday evening was called off.

The "spirit of friendliness" was recaptured at the pre-game rally which was held Thursday night. The torchlight parade started at the Gamma Phi Beta house and ended at the gymnasium where various entertainment acts were presented under the direction of Bob Durham, rally chairman.

Dining Hall Hit During Burglary Sunday Evening

More than $600 was stolen from the office of the university dining hall sometime Sunday night, February 8.

Bob Vaughan, head waiter at the dining hall, reported that the burglary was believed to be an "inside job" as the person who broke into the desk and cash box apparently knew exactly where the money was.

Of the sum stolen, $130 was in cash, and a check for $475 was discovered missing Monday morning by James Grayson, manager of the dining hall.

Vaughan said that the reason such a large amount of money had been left in the office over the weekend was that the Twentieth Century Fox crew, which had been eating at the dining hall, paid in cash for their meals on Saturday and Sunday after it was too late for the money to be deposited at the comptroller's office.

The check for $475 was from the Twentieth Century Fox Company in payment of meals eaten at the dining hall by crew men for the past week.

FINE ARTS MEETING TO FEATURE SHEPPARD

President Barbara Olesen announced that the Fine Arts Club will hold its monthly meeting Monday, February 16, in the Pi Beta Phi house at 8:30 pm.

Feature event of the evening will be a talk by J. Craig Sheppard, assistant professor of art, on his exhibit now on display in the art department of the university.

Sigma Delta Chi Installation Rites To Be Conducted Friday, March 12

Installation ceremonies for the Nevada Chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, national journalism fraternity, will be conducted Friday, March 12, Professor A. L. Higginbotham, chairman of the journalism department, announced this week.

Neal Van Sooy, national vice-president of the fraternity and publisher of the Santa Paula Chronicle, will be installing officer.

Sigma Delta Chi is a professional journalistic fraternity for men and has about 30 chapters throughout the nation. Entrance into the local chapter requires the applicant to be an upperclassman and a registered major in journalism with the intent to continue on in the journalistic field.

The charter for the Nevada undergraduate chapter was granted last November during the convention of the fraternity in Washington, D. C.

Charter members of the chapter are Lloyd A. Rogers, Robert Radovich, Gene Evans, Roger W. Brander, Belford Dickerson, Brunson M. Harris, Harold B. Hayes, Robert A. Morrison, Pete Mygatt, Richard B. Rowley, and Paul Weaver. Professor Higginbotham will serve as advisor to the chapter.

The installation ceremonies will be attended by members of the fraternity from Nevada and other western states, including men holding high offices in the journalistic world, according to Professor Higginbotham.

Following the installation ceremonies, a banquet will be held in the 20th Century Club, Professor Higginbotham said.

Campus Songsters Given Big Break By Atwater Kent

Nevada songsters have their big break!

Now, according to word recently received from the Atwater Kent Foundation, prizes totaling $15,000 are being offered to any non-professional singer who has passed his 18th birthday and who had not passed his 29th by January 1.

These prizes will be divided among five men and five women as follows: two first prizes of $2000 each; two second prizes of $1750 each; two third prizes of $1500 each; two fourth prizes of $1250 each, and two fifth prizes of $1000 each.

Preliminary Auditions

Because of the large number of contestants in the past, preliminary auditions will be held both in San Francisco and Los Angeles beginning early in March.

The auditions will be conducted under the supervision of 25 committees, and judges will consist of outstanding representatives of California music circles. For this competition, which is designed to discover, encourage and reward singers, the contestants are permitted to choose selections from musical comedy, concert repertoire and grand opera.

No entry fee is charged and applications may be obtained until March 1 by writing to the Atwater Kent Foundation at P. O. Box 1511, Hollywood 25, California.

Former Fly Boys May Soar Again

Former aviation cadets, once again have the opportunity of soaring into the wild blue yonder with the United States air force.

Lt. Col. Henry C. Goodman, USAF, announced during his visit on campus last week, that men who qualified as cadets during wartime and who either were awaiting assignment to or actually undergoing pilot training when the program was cut in 1944-45, need only to pass the physical examination to again be eligible for pilot training.

If general eligibility requirements have been met and the candidate has had two or more years of college training, a letter to Chief of Staff, U. S. Air Force, attention Aviation Cadet Section, Washington 25, D. C., is all that is necessary to request reinstatement.

NEW HOURS

Infirmity sick call hours will be changed starting Monday, February 16, Dr. Robert Locke, university physician, announced this week. The new hours will be 9 to 10 am instead of 11 am to 12 noon. Evening hours will continue to be from 5 to 6.

Mag Membership Goes to Blaser

Dora Blaser, Nevada freshman, has been recently accepted to membership on the 1947-48 college board of "Mademoiselle," well known women's magazine.

Miss Blaser will be competing with more than 800 college women from 46 states for the prize of a month's work in the magazine's New York offices.

This award, presented annually to the 20 board members showing outstanding ability in "Mademoiselle" assignments during the year, become guest editor of the banner August college issue.

The girls also take active part in a "jobs and futures conference" custom tailored to their own needs and interests and designed to supply them with a framework that will guide and prepare them for the career to which they are best fitted.

The students submit three assignments each year in which they report on college activities and current campus trends. All published material is paid for.

Orchesis Members Attend Symposium

Twenty Orchesis members will arrive in San Francisco tonight to participate in the annual symposium at San Francisco State College. The modern dancers, accompanied by faculty advisor Jackie Van Gaasbeek, will begin their weekend activities when they attend a ballet performance at the Curran theater tonight. Tomorrow afternoon they will meet other bay area colleges at the festival. Harriet Ann Gray will lead dance techniques and divide the dancers into teams consisting of one member from each col-

Society Membership Gains Momentum As 14 Dancers Join

Orchesis, modern dance society, added 14 new members this week. Jackie Van Gaasbeek, faculty advisor, and members viewed the original modern dance presented at the spring tryouts. Beverly Bergeron, Lavinne Bingham, Pat Crandall, Anita Coates, Darrel Durham, Doris Dyer, Jeanne and Eleanor Fulstone, Jean Nash and Marilyn Fitzgerald are the Orchesis members. Provisional membership was extended to Jo Caprio, Pat DeWalt, Marilyn Link and Edith Whitworth. Nancy Hecker will tryout for membership Tuesday night. Initiation breakfast will be arranged after the symposium in San Francisco this weekend.

Sheppard Exhibit Draws Acclaim

J. Craig Sheppard's exhibit of sculpture, water colors and oils opened Sunday afternoon in the temporary buildings. Much acclaim has been given the assistant professor of art for his paintings which reveal a modern approach in interpreting the western scene. Four out of the six works of sculpture displayed have been prize winners. Sheppard's work will continue to be shown through next week, from 1 to 5 pm, under the surveillance of Fine Arts Club members. The professor will lecture briefly on the exhibit to the group, of which he is advisor, at the Monday night meeting at the Pi Beta Phi house at 8:30 pm.

Water colors were successfully shown in the same room with oils, and would have been overshadowed but for the warmth of color portrayed by both types of paintings. "Sand Sculpture" and "Remuda" which contract light and darkness, are water color favorites, intimated the professor. "Fandango," a study in motion, shows a group of horses running; transparent treatment gives this oil a fast-lensed camera shot effect. "Crashshooters," which won first mention in the Oklahoma annual, most nearly approaches the abstract in this group.

HIKING ON THE HILL

By Muriel Smiley

Lights! Camera! Action! A shrill whistle pierces the eardrums. What is it? A bird? A plane? Superman? No, it's a movie camera reeling off film right here on the old Nevada campus for the coming colossal, gigantic production of "An Apartment for Peggy." Director Seaton announces every effort has been made to depict a university veteran's actual experiences and the various roles have been placed in the hands of those actors and actresses best fitted to sustain them in a commendable and laudatory fashion. Pretending to be what they are—students, are some 200 members of Nevada's collegiates. So if your yen for the spotlight has always been a little overpowering, here's your chance to get into the act. You never can tell what scout may discover you in grease paint.

Sprouting everything but epaulets, a sword and a couple of miles of Christmas tree tinsel was Jeanne Craine's stand-in, Marge Menu. While snowflakes fly giving a good performance as they tramp hand in hand through the snow I noticed Albie Brunner and Dick Korb attempting to control their face muscles. Debating with his buddy about who should walk next to the camera was Bob Gifford (better known as "Goo-wey"). As the camera travels about, cutting a neat figure eight via ice skates on Manzanita Lake was Yvonne Van Blitter. Puzzling over studies while awaiting libe shooting scenes was Francis Tschopp. Eventually will come the premiere and if you look close, maybe you're the blurred one on the left there. But, don't me discouraged—stick to your guns and who knows, you might be another Lana Turner or Moonlight Sinatra.

When the cat's away she's usually having a hell of a good time.

"For goodness sake, try a homemade cake" is the slogan for the Home Economics Club cake auction this week.

The girls will make cakes Sunday and will go to all the fraternity houses and Lincoln Hall Monday night to sell them. A member in each house will act as auctioneer.

The club wants to raise money to send four members to the fourth annual district conference of the Home Economics Clubs at Yosemite, California, March 5 and 6.

Heads of the committees are Marjory Kean, baking; Betty Jo Rupp, selling, and June Powell, publicity.

Galloping Gaels Down Wolf Pack; It Wasn't Easy

Nevada's tough luck cagers, trying for the second time to recover after losing three members of the squad, this time through scholastic difficulties, dropped two close games to the St. Mary's Gaels last Friday and Saturday evenings, by scores of 51 to 46 and 55 to 49.

Coach Jake Lawlor had some juggling to do the day the series began when it was announced that Dan Orlich, regular center and third highest scorer on the team, Jack Pringle, who has almost been a regular the past few games, and Norbert Smolinski, the only reserve for Orlich at center, were declared ineligible on the eye of the series due to scholastic reasons.

Harold Hayes, letterman from last year who has been out recovering from a stomach operation in December, and Fautso Mentaberry, a pre-war varsity letterman, were called back to the team, Hayes taking over the center position

WRA Lady Athletes Awarded a Dinner

The Women's Recreation Association will award women students the honors won during the fall semester for participation in the WRA athletic program. Awards will be presented at a dinner from 5 to 7 pm on Tuesday in the dance studio of the university gymnasium.

Betty Rice, president, will preside at the dinner. The manager of the rifle, social and modern dance, badminton and swimming teams will present the awards.

Recipients' names will not be announced before the dinner according to Marjorie Price, physical education instructor.

and turning in a very creditable performance in the series.

Nevada's hustling ball team kept the Gaels in hot water during the first half of both games and it wasn't until the second half that the lead kept to the St. Mary's side of the score board.

Frank Kudella, hailed as one of the top scorers of the nation, proved the deciding factor in the wins when he sank 24 and 26 points in the games to continue his average of approximately 20 points per game.

Wolf Scrappers Ready for Bell With San Jose

University of Nevada boxers will have their first fight of the season tonight when they enter the Spartan ring at San Jose State.

"The boxing team has worked hard for this fight by daily practice," Coach Clifford P. Devine said this week.

"There are four men with no previous ring experience, and they will also have to fight their nervous tension."

Men putting on the gloves for the first time in an intercollegiate boxing meet will be Jack Davis, Si Corbett, Don Blackham and Bob Watkins. Coach Cliff has been giving these men pointers that should enable them to put up a good fight.

Experienced boxers making the trip to San Jose are Fred Leon, Bob Thronsen, Howard Heckethorn and Bill Horton. These men are out to gain honors lost when San Jose State boxers won all bouts from Nevada last season.

Dates for boxing matches to be held in the university gymnasium have not been set. Devine revealed there will be eight fights and some tournament competition for the university team. San Francisco State and Southern Idaho will probably fight here in March.

After the bouts in San Jose, the team will travel north for matches with Idaho State and the University of Southern Idaho. These fights are scheduled for February 20 in Pocatello.

Nevada boxing team members chosen for opening fights in California and Idaho are Fred Leon, 213; Jack Davis, 175; Don Blackham, 165; Si Corbett, 155; Bob Thronsen, 145; Howard Heckethorn, 135; Bob Watkins, 130, and Bill Horton, 120 pounds.

Nevada Trackmen Begin Conditioning

Although official training will not begin until March 2, several trackmen have begun conditioning in preparation for the interclass meet, the intramural meet and the regular varsity season.

Coach Jake Lawlor has 23 candidates signed up, and with lettermen and members of last year's squad still to be heard from he expects the number to increase to 45. Lettermen are eligible for the interclass meet but ineligible for the intramural meet.

Interclass competition was originally set for March 27 but will probably be run off March 13, Lawlor said.

The intramural meet is scheduled for March 20. Lawlor advises fraternities to organize teams and begin practice.

"If a man wishes to compete in the coming intramural meet, he must begin his workouts on or before March 2," Lawlor warned.

"Pits for high jump, pole vault and broad jump should be completed and available by the end of next week," Lawlor added.

SWIMMING WOMEN PRACTICE THURSDAYS

Paniwallis members will meet every Thursday night at Moana Hot Springs, Miss Pat Ireland announced today. At present, swimmers of the club are practicing numerous formations.

Students interested in joining Paniwallis should attend the Thursday night meetings.

Rifle Team Scores Two Contest Wins

The women's rifle team has won every match fired so far this year, Sergeant Earl Grady, director of the rifle range, said today.

Two matches were fired this week against Massachusetts State College and Pennsylvania State College. Next week the team will fire against the University of Kansas, Ohio State University, Ohio University and the University of Maine.

Scores for this week's shoots have not been received yet, Grady said.
