FRUIT BOWL

Last Monday the Board of Athletic Control put its official stamp of "thanks, but no thanks" on the Fruit Bowl game offered to Nevada against a colored eleven at Kezar Stadium in December.

The first impulse of the non-informed is to get up on a soap box and cry race prejudice. That is not the case. Reason for turning down the San Francisco contest is pure and simple—Nevada has a poor record. With only four marks in the win column against five losses, the Wolf Pack's drawing power at the gates would probably be slow murder.

This is so, especially in Kezar, where we have been swamped by two bay area teams already this year.

We are not saying Nevada couldn't handle the assignment—but we do believe the university as a whole is better off staying away from all bowl games this year, no matter who the team, or where it is played. As an example, last year the Fruit Bowl drew only 5,000 cash customers even with San Francisco State as the home team. If the local people (and they are the ones who financially support the contest) don't bother about cheering on the local eleven . . . then Nevada hasn't a chance.

Every team has a losing streak at one time or another. This was Nevada's year. If we are lucky we'll knock over North Texas State and even up the win-loss columns. But we are trying to establish ourselves as the TEAM TO BEAT. If our policy is towards big time football, let's at least be consistent.

The BAC is to be congratulated for its far-sighted action.

UNIVERSITY TRADITION AGAIN DEAD AS 'BIG TALK' BRINGS NO ACTION

By MYRON LEAVITT

It looks as if the same thing is happening this year as it has in the past. Due to either lack of interest or laziness, the age-old traditions of the University of Nevada are once more being violated, as if they never existed.

After a lot of threats and little action, the upperclass committee members seem to have forgotten most of their "big talk." One can't find more than five dinks at a time on the campus. The cutting of campus is getting to be a regular habit with some freshmen, while still others have forgotten the color of their bibles. The seniors are having a hard time finding space on the various benches provided for them, due to the accumulation of freshmen and sophomores.

The women's upperclass committee has recently started to crack down on violators, and with much success.

NO FRUIT BOWL ANNOUNCES BAC

The board of athletic control announced this week that the University of Nevada's football team would not play in the Fruit Bowl. The board stated that in view of the Wolf Pack record of four wins and five losses a bowl game was hardly warranted.

Athletic Director Joe Sheeketski earlier in the week confirmed the rumor that the Pack had been invited to participate in the bowl game in Kezar Stadium on December 3 or 4.

The Fruit Bowl game is held for the benefit of the Disabled American Veterans and the proceeds go to them. The best colored team in the nation plays the team picked by the bowl committee.

Carleton College, coeducational institution at Northfield, Minn., was founded in 1866.

Artemisia Editor Asks Cooperation In Photo Schedule

Barbara Carter, editor of the yearbook, requests all students and organizations to adhere to their scheduled time for pictures. Notices have been put on both bulletin boards informing students when they are scheduled for pictures. If these dates are not kept the yearbook will be delayed.

The Reno and Sparks Artemisia advertising managers, Ward Hinkley and Ted Lokke, respectively, have called a meeting of the Artemisia ad chasers for Monday at 3:30 in the ASUN building. All out-of-town managers are requested to attend also.

After the meeting on the campus, the entire staff will go to the Wilson Advertising Agency to hear a talk from Tom Wilson on the psychology and proper methods of obtaining advertising.

Business manager of the Artemisia, Harry McKissick, urges all who are interested in this type of work to show up for the meeting Monday, and as many as possible to join the staff.

The schedule for pictures is as follows: November 14, Corps of Sponsors; 15, Sundowners; 16, Seniors; 18, Juniors. November 21, Juniors; 22, frosh football; 28, Sag-ens, WRA and Saddle and Spurs; 29, Sagers, Polkateers and Independents; 30, Block N. December 1, Coffin and Keys; December 2, Blue Key and Scabbard and Blade.

'Portrait' Casting Completed; Daily Rehearsals Begin

Daily rehearsals are being held by the Campus Players so that their first production of the year, "Family Portrait," will be ready for presentation on December 13, 14 and 15, Dr. William Miller, director of the play, reports.

The production depicts the last years of Christ's life and the attitudes of members of His family toward Him.

The leading role is filled by Jane Tieslau, who plays the part of Christ's mother. Mrs. Tieslau was a star of last year's "Meteor" cast.

Cast members, in order of their appearance, are Jane Tieslau as Mary, Billy MacBride as Daniel, Clarence Brown as Joseph, Odile Frost as Naomi, Wally Kurtz as Juda, Blanche McClure as Mary Cleophas, Andrea Smart as Reba, Keith Kerr as Simon, Loring Chapman as James, Jerry Wyness as Mordecai, Donna Spear as Selima, Guy Cardinelli as Mathias and Mendel, George Bennett as a disciple and Appius Hadrian, Norma Carnel as Hepzibah of Magdala, Bill Jager as Daniel, Beverly Jones as Esther, and Katherine Cladianos as Beulah.

"Family Portrait" was first produced in the Morosco Theater in New York, starring Judith Anderson. It was written by Lenore Coffee and William Cowen.

Tickets will go on sale in the early part of December. As in the past, students will be admitted on presentation of their student body cards.

CALL IS ISSUED FOR FRESHMAN BASKETBALL MEN

Men interested in playing freshman basketball "on the hill" will get the chance to show their stuff right after the Thanksgiving recess.

Jake Lawlor, head basketball coach, says the frosh tryees will be given a chance as soon as he is free from his other duties as line coach for the varsity football team.

Schedules of times to report, and of practice sessions, will be posted on the bulletin boards in the gymnasium, and those interested are urged to check the boards.

At the same time, men who desire to try out for positions on the varsity squad are asked to report. Members of the varsity from last year are already working out, but new men will not begin until after the holiday.

Osborne-Subda First and Second In Nevada Scoring

With one more game on the schedule for the 1949 season, Bill Osborne seems to have a pretty good grip on first place among Wolf Pack scorers. Ozzie has eight TD's, while Johnny Subda, in the number two spot, has six.

Table with columns: Name and No., TD's, Pat's, T. Lists players like Bill Osborne, Johnny Subda, Herm Fisser, etc.

FRESHMAN LINE JUST TOO MUCH FOR HILL FIELD

By DAVE MATHIS

University of Nevada's freshman gridgers staged a scoring jamboree last Sunday in Mackay Stadium to down the Hill Field, Utah, air force eleven.

The Hill Field team, which had only six substitutes, scored seven points, while the freshmen gathered 71 digits during the game.

Charley Colquitt, Hill Field tailback, ran, passed and punted to provide the only spark for the Flyers.

How They Did It

Briefly here is how the frosh crossed the goal line 11 times. Schroeder scored first on an off tackle run for 36 yards. This was the fifth play of the ball game. Tom Massey broke through for 31 yards and another TD. Brown took Ed Holoka's pass to complete a 27 yard scoring play, and to add six more to the frosh mounting score.

Playing head's up ball, Brown picked a pass out of the air that was partially blocked and scooted over for a touchdown. Holoka was on the throwing end of the toss. The play was from the 17 yard line.

Massey scored again when he loped 64 yards to cross the goal line.

Long Gainer Score

The longest run of the day was turned by Keith Poehlman who simply outran the defenders for 72 yards to score.

Schmutte's pass to Hartfield was good for six more points and a moment later Leon Carter, a former Las Vegas, rounded end for 18 yards and a score.

John Buccambuso, rangy end from Ely, nailed a 34 yard pass on the five and ambled over.

Schmutte kept his arm in shape by flinging another long one downfield to Mason who crossed unopposed.

Poehlman Again

Poehlman brought the scoring to an end when he went 12 yards for the final touchdown.

Schmutte converted five times during the game.

Varsity Edged by Loyolans in Friday Game

By DON SWANSON

One conversion try made good by Loyola cost the Wolf Pack their game with the Lions last Friday evening, by a hairline score of 13 to 12.

Nevada scored in the first quarter of the game after capitalizing on a blocked Loyola kick. It was then that Bob Corley, kicking out of the fingers of a new partner, missed the conversion, the ball hitting the crossbar and bouncing back.

Loyola came back in the second quarter and scored a touchdown after Jack Dwyer, Loyola's flashy halfback, intercepted a Nevada pass and raced 80 yards to a touchdown.

Vital Point

The conversion attempt was good after Ray Aguirre, a Loyola kicking specialist, got a second try when Nevada was ruled off side. Aguirre's first attempt was no good.

Although the Lions led 7-6, it wasn't long before the Wolf Pack retaliated, to go into the lead once again. Nevada's second tally came after a 78 yard march on short ground plays. John Subda carried over from the two. The extra point was blocked.

12-7 at the Half

The half ended with the Wolf Pack in the lead, 12-7. Following a fancy half-time program commemorating Armistice Day, the Loyola offense began to roll.

Loyola lost the ball once on the 20 after Jim Wilson put the stop on Neil Ferris. The next time the Lions got the ball they got to the Nevada's 3, when pass interference was called against the Wolf Pack.

Then came Nevada's great goal line stand. For three successive plays from the one yard line, Loyola was unable to get the ball more than two feet, and the Pack took over on downs.

However, it wasn't long before Loyola came roaring back on the fleet running of Skip Giancanelli. Giancanelli went over from the eight on a pass in the flat, and Loyola nosed into the lead, 13-12. The extra point was missed because of a bad pass from center.

The fourth quarter saw both teams up and down the field. The Pack couldn't put together any real drive and, their hopes were finally lost when Nevada fumbled on their own 25 as he was tackled.

ATO Holds Lead In Kinnear Race; Snakes Second

Alpha Tau Omega fraternity continues to lead in the race for the Kinnear trophy, with a total of 153.34 points, it was announced today by Chet Scranton, University of Nevada physical education instructor.

Four intra-mural events have been completed. They are softball, horseshoe singles, horseshoe doubles and the cross country race.

The Taus lead their nearest rivals, Sigma Nu, by more than 50 points. The Snakes have amassed a total of 98.34 points in current standings.

The Kinnear trophy is an annual award presented to the fraternity with the most points at the end of the school year in the intra-mural sports program. The Highlanders, Organized Independents, and Unorganized Independents, while they compete in the intra-mural sports, do not vie for the trophy.

In taking over the top spot, the ATO's have won first place in the cross country race, tied for second in horseshoe doubles, tied for first in softball, and tied for first in horseshoe singles.

Sigma Nu won a tie for first in softball, a tie for second in horseshoe doubles, and came in third in the cross country.

Phi Sigs Third

Phi Sigma Kappa is currently in third place, with 83.34 points. The Phi Sigs have a tie for first in softball, a tie for fifth in horseshoe doubles, and a third place in horseshoe singles.

In fourth place is Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity with a 56.25 point total to date. The SAE's have garnered a tie for first in horseshoe singles, a tie for fifth in horseshoe doubles, and were second in the cross country.

Sigma Rho fraternity is in fifth place with 41 points, having won first in horseshoe doubles and fifth in horseshoe singles.

Sixth is Theta Chi with 29.17 points. They have taken fourth place in horseshoe singles, fifth in softball, were tied for second in horseshoe doubles, and were fifth in the cross country.

Lambda Chi Alpha, with 20 points, is in seventh position. The Lambda Chi's have placed in just one event, softball, and that for fourth place. The eighth place Highlanders have totaled 10 points to date with a fourth in the cross country.

Both the Organized Independents and the Unorganized Independents have failed to make any points as yet.

Now occupying the minds of the men is volleyball, which will be followed, beginning January 4, by basketball.

Tri-Delts Promote Inter-frat Spirit

In order to create better inter-fraternity relations, representatives from each fraternity were entertained at dinner Monday evening at the Tri-Delt house. Following dinner, each representative taught one of his fraternity songs to the Tri-Delt members.

WOLF CUBS END SEASON HERE; PLAY SACRAMENTO JC TOMORROW

Nevada's 1949 version of the freshman football team will show itself for the last time tomorrow, when the Cubs tangle with the Panthers from Sacramento Junior College. The game will be in Mackay Stadium with kick-off at 1:30 pm.

Sacramento will provide plenty of opposition, if things go as expected, for they come here holding down second place in their junior college circuit, with six wins and two losses.

The Panthers have dropped to Santa Rosa JC, 19-13, in the game for the loop title, and to Napa JC, 33-6. Wins are over Stockton (6-2), Vallejo (40-13), Grant Tech (33-6), and Placer JC (33-6). In addition, they dumped Bakersfield and Marin junior colleges, each by three touchdowns.

Coaching the Sacramentans is Lary Rouble, former Stanford great. Rouble made several All-American selections while he played guard for the Indians from 1933-35.

Both teams operate from the T-formation. Quarterback Geremia is rated a good passer, and throws plenty of them to ends Vaira and Rowland. Backfield running speed is the specialty of halfbacks Webb and Fairlee, while fullback Cuffe runs them down the middle. Sacramento's coach scouted the Cubs last week in their game against Hill Air Force Base, and says the game should be a good one. He added that Sacramento will give away some weight, but thinks the Panthers will make up for it.

Nevada frosh coach Hugh Smithwick will probably start Ed Holoka (15) at the quarterback post, alternating him with Charlie Schmutte (12). Halfbacks will be Tom Massey (49) and Keith Poehlman (23), with big Doug Brooks (50) at fullback.

Plenty of Talent

Massey has looked good since the season's opener against the USF frosh, while Poehlman didn't get a chance to show much until last week. The Flyers thought he showed plenty, too, for he included a 72-yard touchdown romp in his day's activities. The 200-pound Brooks is one of the few fullbacks of that weight that runs like a halfback. He has already shown he can keep well up with his halfbacks running interference.

There are several good men behind the starting backfield quartet, too. Such as Howard Barber (22), Leon Carter (24), Lee Schroder (30), Ray Hunter (18), and more yet. Hunter, who plays mostly on defensive, handles the punting for the frosh, and Hill Field's men will probably remember the 65-yard quick-kick he got away last week.

Candidates Picked For Junior Prom King and Queen

Candidates for king and queen of the Junior Prom have been entered by the Greek organizations of the campus as preparations are now being made for the event.

The dance will be held December 3 at the Twentieth Century Club, where the king and queen will be crowned according to the highest number of votes they receive that evening.

The candidates for king are Herman Fisher, ATO; Fred Purtil, Phi Sigma Kappa; Ham Prugh, SAE; Tom Godbey, Theta Chi, and John McEachan, Sigma Nu; and the candidates for queen are Beverly Simon, Pi Beta Phi; Gloria Eddy, Kappa Alpha Theta; Mary Lou Burg, Delta Delta Delta, and Colleen Gilbert, Gamma Phi Beta.

The chaperones for the evening will be acting President G. E. Parker and wife, Elaine Mobley, dean of women; Robert Griffin, dean of men, and Prof. Ernest Inwood and wife.

Music for the event will be furnished by Art Harris and his orchestra and everyone is invited to attend the semi-formal dance. Tickets will cost $1.20 per couple.

Presentation of awards for athletics and scholarship will highlight the annual interfraternity bean feed to be held Wednesday, Dec. 7, in the university dining hall. The feed will begin promptly at 7:30 pm and all those attending are requested to wear neckties.

Guest speaker for the evening will be Dr. H. J. Wunderlich, dean of men at Montana State University.

Song teams from many of the houses will entertain, and each house will compete in group singing.

Cost for the dinner is one dollar per person.

As in past years the main feature of the evening will be the presentation of the Kinnear trophy, symbol of intra-mural athletic supremacy. Sigma Nu will again receive the honor. Top place in scholarship standings was won by Alpha Tau Omega.

THANKSGIVING

Thanksgiving vacation will begin next Wednesday, November 23, at 5 pm, and will extend over the weekend until Monday, November 28, at 8 am.

Since little travel time is allowed by the brief holiday, most of the houses and halls will remain open during the four day period. Both Artemisia and Manzanita halls will be open, as will Hartman and Lincoln halls.

The dining hall will maintain its regular meal schedule. Fraternity houses will also be open. Among the sororities, the Gamma Phi Beta and Tri-Delt houses will be completely closed. The Pi Beta Phi house will be open to members, but no meals will be served. Residents of the Kappa Alpha Theta house may remain there over the vacation, and meals will be served as usual.
