Shirley Hodge Named Military Ball Queen

Artemisia Candidate Reigns Over Dance

Shirley Hodge, Artemisia Hall candidate, was named queen of the Military Ball, this week.

Miss Hodge was selected by a vote of the entire University of Nevada ROTC cadet corps. A special review was held Tuesday at 4 pm after which the six candidates inspected the battalion.

Voting was conducted after the inspection, with 231 ballots turned in.

A preliminary election campaign was conducted Monday and Tuesday, with each candidate being driven around the campus in an armored car.

The dance this year is a semi-formal affair, with either dark suits or uniforms meeting with approval.

Dance chairman Eppie Johnson said today that tickets for the event would be on sale at the door tomorrow evening. They can also be purchased at Southworth's Cigar Store and Hilp's Drug Store. Price is $2 per couple.

Merle Snyder and his orchestra will provide the music for the dance. Scabbard and Blade and the Corps of Sponsors will arrange the decorations.

Governor Vail Pittman will be among the distinguished guests at the dance. He will crown the queen and escort her through the saber arch.

EASTER VACATION

Classes at the University of Nevada will close Wednesday, April 5, for Easter vacation this year and will take up again April 12 at 8 am.

Grade reports for mid-semester will be due at noon April 5.

Six Candidates for AWS President To Be Introduced at 'Coed Caper'

By GEORGE ESTES

The old-fashioned—and now outmoded—bean feed has been relegated to a dark and cobwebby old corner. The Associated Women Students organization has taken a new lease on collegiate life, and their annual event will now be known as the coed caper.

The AWS election of officers is rapidly drawing near the big, you-know-what feed is a signal that the lid is popping off. Which is a good time to mention that the six candidates for office will present their respective platforms to their non-bean-devouring classmates. The date, girls, in case you too wish to be the life of the AWS, is a week from next Tuesday.

The next day after the feed, Wednesday, will be the day of the primary elections. The victors in the primaries will then be able to campaign further until the final election, which will be March 29.

On April 2, the newly elected president will take over her first official duty by boarding a train for Norman, Oklahoma, where she will represent the U of N at the annual AWS convention. The convention convenes on April 3 and lasts until April 5.

Sorority scholastic averages are to be announced at the "Capers" affair, according to Dean of Women Elaine Mobley.

There will be six candidates for the AWS presidency on the eve-

Senate Approves Eppie Johnson Mackay Day Head

The ASUN senate approved the appointment of Eppie Johnson as Mackay Day chairman at its regular meeting Wednesday night.

The question of major-minor sports at the university was taken from the ASUN senate to be discussed by individual groups. It was decided that the sport award situation should be put to a poll of the students by their representatives.

P. O. Reimer announced that he is trying to arrange a night assembly for discussion of the athletic problem. The page of questions he compiled on the problem will be published in next week's Sagebrush, and the assembly should take place soon after that.

P. O. Reimer also announced the results of the first ASUN movies which 144 enthusiastic students attended. A profit of 85 cents was realized. It is the intention of the manager, P. O. said, to alternate old-time silent pictures with recent classics.

The senate also endorsed the 1950 Cancer Crusade.

ning's agenda and they will each present their views on their candidacy. The six office seekers are Lois Bates, June Holmes, Marnie Miller, Terry Alauzet, Rose Oyerbide, Jeanne Fulstone.

MACKAY DAY

A meeting for the purpose of forming the Mackay Day committee will be held Thursday, March 23, at 4 pm, at the ASUN building, Mackay Day chairman Eppie Johnson announced today.

Two representatives from each fraternity, sorority, and other campus social organizations are asked to attend.

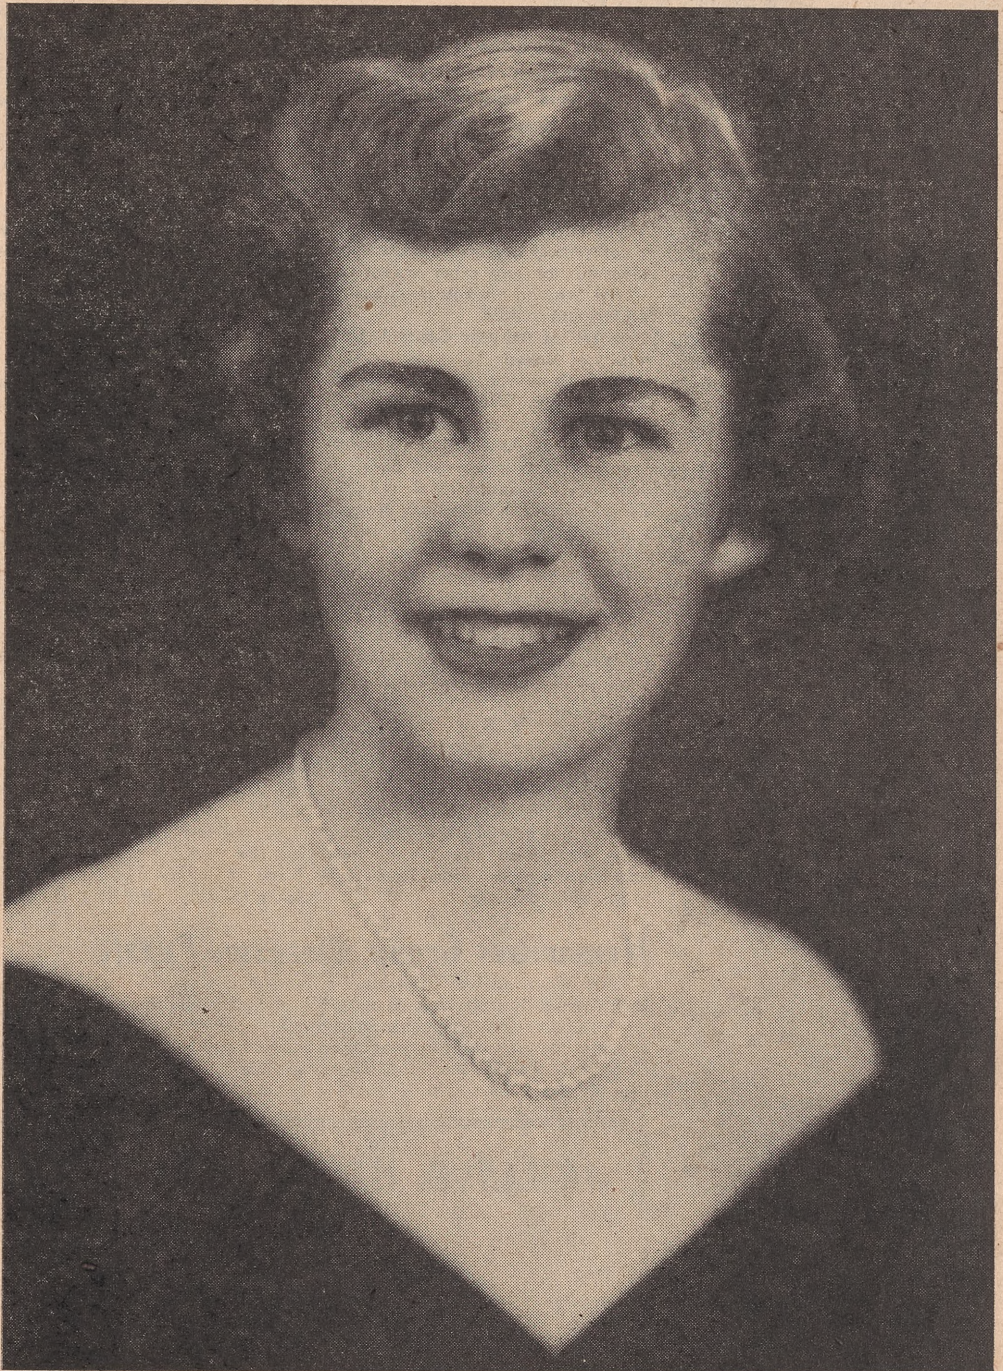

In regard to beard growing, Johnson said:

- (1) Beard is optional on March 20, and compulsory on March 27.
- (2) Seniors with bids to the Senior Ball don't have to grow beards until after the ball on April 1.

Capacity Crowd Hears Ronne

A capacity crowd filled the education auditorium Tuesday evening to hear a joint lecture by Commander Finn Ronne, noted arctic explorer, and his wife on their recent trip to the Antarctic.

The commander and his wife were introduced by Dr. J. E. Church, Nevada scientist and snow surveyor.

NOTICE

The registrar's office announced today that all students expecting to graduate in June are requested to call at the registrar's office.

6 Nevada Students To Have Roles In 'The Vagabond'

Six University of Nevada students will be seen in the Reno Light Opera Guild's presentation of "The Royal Vagabond," which will take place on March 31, April 1 and April 2. Three of the six Nevadans will take lead roles, which combine comedy and singing.

Don Thompson, SAE; Dan Olin, ATO; and Bob Moran, Theta Chi, will be the comics in the musical comedy; while Bob Coughlin, Jim Walsh, and Georgianna Louis will take part in the singing and dancing choruses.

"The Royal Vagabond" is a story of a young prince in the mythical land of Bargravia, who instills a revolution as "Ferenoz," a vagabond, so that he may marry the girl of his dreams, "Anitza," the peasant daughter of the village innkeeper.

Music for the opera was written by George M. Cohen.

FINANCE CONTROL BOARD SAYS 'RUBBER STAMP DAYS' ARE GONE

By WALT MacKENZIE

Positive action on the university athletic situation was taken by the finance control board late Wednesday afternoon. The board instructed its secretary to send a letter to the board of athletic control notifying them that the board will no longer "rubber stamp" any of the athletic budgets of the university, including football.

In the past it has been the tradition of the finance board to pass without question the athletic budgets placed before it.

The board further instructed its chairman, Professor W. C. Miller, not to approve any bills, or contracts until such time as the budgets are submitted and approved.

The finance control board is composed of three university students, one of whom is the student body president, and two faculty members. This action is designed to give the students a better check on athletic spending.

The finance control board gains its power from Article V, Section 8, of the ASUN constitution which states that "the administration of all funds allotted to or derived from, intercollegiate athletics shall be in the hands of the board of athletic control, and shall be subject to the supervision of the finance control committee.

Page Approved

The finance board approved a proposal by P. O. Reimer, student body president, that a page be purchased in the Sagebrush to answer pertinent questions on the university athletic situation. One page is due to appear in next Friday's Sagebrush.

The board also approved pre-registration fees for a Pacific coast student body president's convention to be held in Yosemite late in May.

ATO's Observe Founder's Day

Members and alumnae of the Alpha Tau Omega met this week to commemorate the fraternity's founders day. Impromptu speeches, songs by the ATO song team, and a film of the Nevada-Cincinnati football game comprised the program.

NAIB Ousts Nevada Over Binion Offer

Citizens Throw Testimonial Banquet For Wolf Pack Basketball Squad

By FRANK JOHNSON

The University of Nevada Wolf Pack was denied its chance to compete in the 32 team NAIB invitational tournament in Kansas City, Missouri, last weekend because of an 11th hour offer of $1000 towards expenses from Las Vegas gambler Benny Binion.

The Pack had been invited to the tournament to represent the Utah-Nevada district, but was unable to accept the offer immediately because it did not have the $1500 required for bare expenses.

Downtown businessmen, who for a long time have actively underwritten university athletic ventures, advised the board of athletic control to accept the bid, and assured the board that the money could be raised.

The bid was accepted on this assurance, and the backers immediately went to work in their subscription drive. By the time Binion's thousand dollar offer was known, much had been collected, and more was in the offing.

Binion's check was accepted in Las Vegas by university regent John F. Cahlan, who is managing editor of the Las Vegas Review Journal. He announced the offer in the evening edition of the Review Journal and to the press services. The announcement in the Review Journal was accompanied by a photo of Cahlan accepting the check.

The first official word in Reno about the offer was a phone call from Al Duerr, secretary of the NAIB tournament committee, to Colonel Gilbert E. Parker, acting president of the university.

He told Colonel Parker that, on the basis of wire service reports of the Binion donation, the committee had withdrawn Nevada's invitation.

Wires Get Hot

Colonel Parker immediately denied that the funds had been accepted for use towards the team's expenses in the following wire:

"Money for Nevada basketball team being raised by benefit shows and private subscription from local businessmen. No subscription over $100. Binion not on this list."

Despite these assurances, however, the NAIB stuck to its guns and refused to renew its invitation to the Pack.

Binion had only recently escaped extradition to Texas on a million dollar policy wheel charge, and had received some very unfavorable editorial comment during the preceding weeks.

Saturday afternoon the aroused board of athletic control held a special meeting to discuss the affair, and as a result voted to send the following telegram to the NAIB committee:

"Student body, basketball team, members coaching staff, and athletic board consider your action personal insult.

"We hereby register vigorous protest against committee's decision to withdraw Nevada's tournament bid. We demand detailed written explanation of your action based on your misinterpretation of publicity, despite repeated assurances of university president that the gift in question was not accepted.

"We regard our basketball team as completely honorable and a credit to this or any other university. We demand a vindication before NAIB and public.

"Board of Athletic Control, University of Nevada."

Duerr, however, would not back down, saying, "We have more than 300 members in our organization—the National Association of Intercollegiate Basketball—and many of them are denominational schools. They wouldn't like taking in Nevada under the present circumstances; neither would the committee."

Despite the complete withdrawal of the gambling interests from university athletics, this is not the first time Nevada has suffered loss of prestige because of publicity connecting the university with gambling.

Last year a New York sports publication ran a story linking Nevada's football loss to Santa Clara with gambling interests.

Officials considered a law suit for slander, but dropped the idea when they discovered that such legal procedure required more funds than they could produce.

Humanities Group Discusses Puzzle

"The Four Color Program," a mathematical puzzle, was discussed at the Humanities group monthly meeting Monday night by Professor E. Maurice Beesley and other members of the department of mathematics.

WARNING CARDS NO LONGER GIVEN! Four Encyclopedia Britannica Awards To Be Given Audio-Visual Students

Warning cards will no longer be placed on cars parked in restricted areas by students. Traffic officer Art Cox has been instructed by the university acting president, Colonel Gilbert E. Parker, to give the mis-parked autos citations, which will cost guilty students one dollar for each offense.

"Psichi" Newest Campus Group

"Psichi," the newly formed honorary psychology society, is now a recognized organization on the University of Nevada campus. The senate recently approved the local charter and the application for a charter in the national organization of the same name has been submitted.

The local chapter was organized by Frances Halfacre, acting president, Bryant Nagle, Betty Sweeney, and Patti Jones. It now consists of 19 charter members. Faculty advisor for the group is Paul Brewer, instructor in psychology.

Requirements for membership in "Psichi" are a 2.5 overall average, eight units of psychology, and a 3.0 average in psychology.

Sigma Delta Psi Tryouts Resumed

Tryouts for the 300 university men working toward membership in Sigma Delta Psi, national men's athletic honorary society, have been resumed, according to Art Broten, program director.

Run-offs for outdoor events are being held every Thursday afternoon from 4 to 5, Broten said. Candidates may remove deficiencies in indoor events by special appointment.

At present the Nevada chapter has five members: Tommy Adams, Jerry Wyness, Charles Springer, John Gianotti and Ted Enslin.

The University of Nevada has been selected as one of 26 American universities for Encyclopaedia Britannica films summer scholarships, it was announced this week by Col. Gilbert E. Parker, acting president of the university.

The selection was communicated to Col. Parker by Floyd E. Brooker, chairman of the Films scholarship selection board, which is making its fifth annual award.

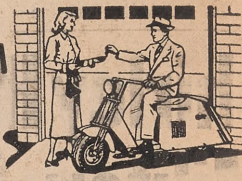

The 26 universities will select 97 scholars to study this summer of EBF tuition grants. Four of these students will be at the University of Nevada.

All applicants must be interested in using audio-visual materials in the field of education, Brooker stated.

Deadline for application is April 15. Dr. Paul H. Jensen, assistant professor of education, who teaches visual aid at the university, will receive all applications from students on the Nevada campus.

The four winners will be announced before the end of the university's spring session, which is now in progress, Dr. Jensen said.

Odile Frost Selected One of Six Finalists in Phi Sigma Kappa Moonlight Girl Contest

Odile Frost

Odile Frost, Phi Sigma Kappa's candidate from Nevada in the National Phi Sig Moonlight Girl contest, is one of the six finalists chosen by the fraternity.

Out of 29 candidates chosen by chapters of Phi Sigma Kappa all over the United States, the undergraduates and eligible alumni of the fraternity have chosen these six to be in the final contest. Winner of the contest will receive a trip to the national convention of the fraternity in Chicago during August, 1950. She will be crowned Phi Sig

Moonlight Girl at the convention, and will be the guest of the fraternity while in Chicago.

The convention will be at the Drake Hotel, and all travel expenses by first-class railroad from the residence of the girl to the convention will be paid for by the grand chapter of Phi Sigma Kappa. Voting for the contest was not by name, but by a number beneath the picture of the candidate in last month's Phi Sig publication, the "Signet." Identity and residence of the candidates are not known to voting members of the organization.

Miss Frost is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Frost of Reno, and is a sophomore majoring in music at the university. She is vice-president of Pi Beta Phi sorority, and is an outstanding singer in university and town programs. She was chosen by the local chapter of Phi Sigs to be its candidate for the Moonlight Girl contest early this fall.

Results of the final voting will be announced in the May issue of the "Signet" and will be by ballot sent out to each fraternity.

SAE Initiates 15; Founders Banquet Followed Ceremony

Fifteen men became members of the Nevada active chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon at ceremonies conducted at the Masonic Temple in Reno last Sunday.

The new members are Lawrance Bangert, William Becker, David Bruce, Wallace Burnett, Robert Gallagher, Joe Melcher, Joe Moose, Rufus Ogilvie, John Sandorf, Edward Scripps, Wayne Schmalz, James Stubbins, George Sullivan, Quay (Bud) Weiser, and George Sullivan.

The initiation ceremonies were followed by the annual founders day banquet at the Mapes Hotel. John Gianotti, banquet chairman, said that over 250 active members, alumni, and guests of Sigma Alpha Epsilon were present for the dinner.

The theme of the banquet was the proposed new SAE house.

Tour Represents Five Universities

Representatives from five western universities have been accepted to accompany Nevada students making the university-sponsored European tour next summer, according to Dr. Paul H. Jensen, chairman of the tour.

Other schools to be represented are the University of California, Mills College, University of San Francisco, Stanford, and San Jose State. More applications are still to be approved, Dr. Jensen said.

A day-to-day itinerary of stops and modes of transportation will soon be released. Reservations have already been secured aboard the tourist ship S. S. Samaria, which will sail from Quebec on June 20.

English-speaking professors of European universities have been contacted and will lecture to the group on the history, literature, culture, education, and arts of western Europe, Dr. Jensen reported.

A meeting of students making the trip from Nevada is planned for March 26 in the Education building. A similar meeting for students from other colleges will be held in the Nevada room of the Hotel Fielding in San Francisco April 14.

Navy Sets Deadline

April 1 has been set as the deadline for submitting applications for Navy's reserve officer candidate program.

The 1950 classes will run from June until the middle of August.

Successful candidates will be given six weeks of training two successive summers.

Dear Sir:

As I write I am very surprised the paper I am writing on does not ignite. Looking through this week's copy of the Brush I noticed the picture of "An Exposed Columnist." After a look I turned to his column to see what he had to say this week. It went fine until I reached the bottom of the first column—then I blew up! I was griped about all the publicity given the birth of Ingrid Bergman's baby. Miss Bergman has her own life to live—who are we to say whether she is right or wrong?

Figure it out. That is the phrase your columnist used, I might suggest that Mr. Curtis and all the others who lapped up the publicity look into their own past—look and see what their pasts show them. Let them then go to their mirror and as they gaze at their reflection, let them say to themselves . . . Hypocrite!

In closing let me say, or rather suggest, that anyone, including editors, who let such things get into print take a look into their looking glasses, too, and let them be forthright. Don't try to "figure it out"—the socially unacceptable word doesn't pull any punches and it adequately fits any and all hypocrites.

Indignantly,

Dr. Mr. McKenna::

In regard to nudeness, or at least immodesty in dress, I would say that such pictures as of Corinne Calvet, page ten of the March 10 edition of the University of Nevada Sagebrush, of the girl of the "Tootsie" advertisement, page seven of the same issue, and even of Carol Lampe, page five of the same issue, are not necessary to be displayed in a public school paper in a Christian nation, where ideals and morals are better established by wholesome, modest dress.

Hoping that the U of N Sagebrush can follow such a policy in the future.

Sincerely in Jesus Christ,
GEORGE WM. LANG, JR.

If Red Looks Green You're Colorblind - - - They Need You!

Unless more volunteers appear to take part in the color blind experiment being conducted by Mr. Paul Brewer, instructor in psychology, and Bryant Nagle, the experiment will have to be discontinued, Nagle announced this week.

Four subjects have volunteered for the tests, but only one proved sufficiently color blind to be of value in the experiment. Nagle said that a minimum of 25 positive tests will have to be made if any definite conclusions are to be reached.

The experiment is being conducted to test a theory that intelligence and personality are factors in color blindness.

Red Cross Drive In Full Swing On Campus

The Red Cross drive on the campus began functioning Wednesday with the appointment of campus solicitors by Elaine Mobley, dean of women.

Dean Mobley emphasized that, while there is no set quota for the campus, all contributions, large and small, can be put to good use. Last year, campus donors contributed $532 to the fund.

Contributions will be collected by the following representatives: Agriculture building, Mildred Swift; agriculture experiment station, Agnes Schmitz; agriculture extension, Marie Grossholz; building and grounds, Carl Horn; dining hall, Nellie Nelson; Education building, Bonnie Clarkson; English and art, John Milstead; library, Clare Johnson; mining and engineering, Irving Sandorf; Mackay Science, Richard Panzer; Morrill Hall, Geraldine Gould; gym, Art Broten; registrar's office, Jeanette Rhodes; Stewart Hall, John Gottardi; bureau of mines, Teresa Caprio; and veterinary science, Shirley Avansino.

Block N Meets

There will be a Block N meeting Tuesday in the ASUN building at 7 pm in the senate room.

This meeting is for the purpose of discussing the Western Zone track meet and it is very important that all members attend, according to President Ted Kondell.

Four-Way Independent Meet Added to Pack Track Schedule

The Nevada Wolf Pack has a third meet on its track schedule. The Nevada squad received an invitation recently to a four way independent meet at the College of the Pacific.

Up to date Nevada had only two meets scheduled, a three way meet at Davis, California, with the California Aggies, and San Francisco State on April 22, and a dual meet with Chico State on April 29.

The College of the Pacific meet, to be held on May 6, will be the first big combined meet of the west coast independents. College of Pacific will play host to the University of San Francisco, St. Mary's, and the University of Nevada.

Dickinson Sings In L. A. Opera

Mrs. Marjorie Dickinson, executive secretary of the YWCA of the University of Nevada, recently made her television debut on station KFI in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Dickinson took a four weeks' leave of absence to appear in Mozart's comic opera, "Cosi Fan Tutte," in which she sang the soprano roles of the maid. The opera was staged at the Central Theater in Los Angeles. Part of the opera was televised on KFI.

Mrs. Marion Billings, wife of Dr. Dwight Billings, substituted for Mrs. Dickinson at the YWCA during her absence.

U of N Delegates Asked By Institute Of World Affairs

Two University of Nevada students may be selected to attend the 1950 session of the Institute of World Affairs this summer.

The purpose of the institute is to assemble university students from all over the world for an eight weeks' period of discussion and training in world affairs. Institute members number 35 or 40, one-half from different parts of the United States and one-half from other countries. This year, for the first time, the University of Nevada has been asked by the directors of the institute to submit the names of two candidates.

Seniors and recent graduates in political science, economics, international relations, law, or history are preferred, and high academic standards are expected.

The program will be held at Twin Lakes, Salisbury, Connecticut, from July 5 to August 30, and will include discussions on economics, the Atlantic pact, a more extensive form of Western Union, and methods of education for better world understanding.

In a letter to President Parker, the directors of the institute explained that the cost of tuition, board and room for the eight weeks is $300. Scholarships for $150, however, may be awarded to well-qualified students.

Thomas Re-elected As President Of Paniwallis

Paniwallis, the University of Nevada swimming club, re-elected Carol Thomas as president at a meeting at Moana Hot Springs Tuesday night.

Other officers elected were Wayne Schmalz as vice-president, and Marion Cordes as secretary and treasurer.

The new office of publicity chairman was given to Edward Scripps.

The club started work on the annual spring aquacade. No definite plans have been made other than the theme. The water show will have a Hawaiian setting.

Joe Returning

Joe Sheeketski, head football coach and director of athletics, is expected back from Detroit this week after attending the funeral of his mother-in-law in the Michigan city.

He has been gone since March 6, the day spring football practice opened. His coaching chores have been handled in his absence by assistant coaches Jake Lawlor and Dick Evans.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Philippine College Given U of N Gift

A gift of 40 reference volumes from the University of Nevada to the Abraham Lincoln College in the Philippines was gratefully received by the island college.

A letter to Col. Gilbert E. Parker, acting president of the University of Nevada, from Donato G. Galis, president of the Philippine college, said that the books would be placed on separate bookcases, and would be labeled as coming from Nevada.

The college is located in Ubay, on the island of Bohol.

SAGERS ELECT AND INITIATE

Good news and high hopes for the future predominated last Tuesday night at the weekly meeting of the Sagers, which was held in the pledge room of the Theta Chi house.

With newly elected president Ted Short, vice-president Willard Esplin, and secretary-treasurer Len Savage officiating, the men's underclass service organization saw their ranks bolstered to 39 with the initiation of almost 20 men.

Short gave rise to hopes for a successful year when he announced that Blue Key had agreed to turn over to the group, which was recently reinstated on campus, the handling of two of the popular Wednesday night all school socials; and in view of the recent financial difficulties of the Sagers, the news was eagerly received.

The initiation list of those who have completed the requirement of working for from 12 to 15 hours on approved campus projects includes Bob Beamish, Fred Coleander, John Cowley, William Esplin, Jim Friberg, Bigg Griggs, Chuck Haines, John Harris, Proctor Hug, Bruce Krater, Ken Lowry, Ewald Pyzel, George Rogers, Jim Skinner, Clyde Souter and Mark Tett.

Following a plan of revolving housing, the weekly meeting will be held next Tuesday night at 7.15 pm at the Sigma Nu house.

Browsing Room Somewhat Lonely; Upholstery Next

Things are a little lonely in the browsing room of the library, according to Mrs. Edith Holmes, librarian in charge of the room. Very few students have come to explore the new addition which opened last week, she said.

Hard chairs in the room are not conducive to comfortable browsing, said James J. Hill, librarian. "The only apparent solution is to install furniture of the upholstered variety so that students can browse in real comfort."

Reno Fans Toss Banquet for UN Basketball Team

A basketball banquet, complete with a floor show, will be held in the Mapes Hotel Skyroom next Wednesday evening to honor the highest scoring cage team ever produced at Nevada.

The dinner, which is being planned by Reno fans, will be open to the public, it was announced. Proceeds from sale of the $10-a-plate tickets will be used to defray banquet expenses and to buy a gift for the basketball players.

In addition to the meal and floor show, a special program for the event is planned.

Tickets are available at all Hale drug stores, and from members of the ticket committee.

Banquet arrangements are being made by Walter States, president of the Nevada Alumni Association. Other committeemen are William Locke and Larry Devincenzi, awards; Wes Hall, Bob Osborne and Rod Reynolds, entertainment; and publicity, Walter States, Wallace Warren, Ty Cobb and Bill Friel.

Turkish-American Club Formed

"Friendship and intellectual cooperation between Turkish and American students at the University of Nevada and better acquaintance between them" is the purpose of the Turkish-American Friendship Club which was organized on the university campus recently.

Tahsin Karacaby, Turkish student, was elected president of the group.

ROTC May Join Honorary Society

A Pershing Rifles chapter is well on its way to being established at the University of Nevada, Capt. Stanton L. Fickel of the university ROTC department, said recently.

Fifty men have been turning out for the special drill periods held each Tuesday and Thursday afternoon at 4 pm, Capt. Fickel reported. A minimum of 40 members is needed to organize a chapter of the organization.

Pershing Rifles is an honorary military society, limited to basic ROTC university and college students.

It provides appropriate recognition for high degrees of military ability, and is made up of the most proficient drill students.

Pershing Rifles was named after John J. Pershing, who started the first chapter at the University of Nebraska in 1892. It was known by a different name at the time, but when Pershing reached national fame as a general, the name was changed in his honor.

At the present time there are about 100 chapters in the United States.

Capt. Fickel said that tentative plans call for a special test to be given the unit during the last week in March. Col. Gilbert W. Parker, president of the university, will direct the examination.

Membership in Pershing Rifles will entitle cadets to wear special distinguishing military apparel. This will include such items as white leggings, white gloves, and the Pershing Rifle cord. Rifles to be used by the group will be equipped with white gun slings.

An unusual feature of the Pershing Rifles is that they elect all of their own officers and non-commissioned officers. Cadet captain of the group here will be James Anthony Michienzi. Other officers will be chosen within the next several weeks.

Scholarship Group Names Sheets, Melz as Members

At an organizational meeting held last week, two new members were appointed to the faculty committee on scholarships and prizes. Professor Loring R. Williams, newly appointed chairman, was in charge of the meeting.

The two new members are Professor Christian W. F. Melz, foreign languages, and Earl W. Sheets, of the agricultural department. The committee has recommended students for the Rotary Club of Reno scholarships and is awaiting the club's choice.

The complete committee now consists of R. S. Griffin, dean of men; Elaine H. Mobley, dean of women; Harold N. Brown, department of education; Jay A. Carpenter, director of Mackay School of Mines; Melz, Sheets and Williams.

Census Takers To Invade Campus

For the first time the Bureau of Census will poll college students on their campus instead of their homes, Mr. Harry Fletcher, director of the Reno area, announced.

The exact date for the University of Nevada has not been set as yet, but will be between April 1 and 15. Students who are planning to go home during the Easter vacation are requested to tell the enumerator of their home towns that they are being polled at the university.

The dormitories will be counted separately and on separate dates. The time will be announced later. Students will be asked to cooperate with the bureau and be at the place designated at the proper time.

Griffin Attends Deans' Meeting

Dean of Men Robert S. Griffin left for Williamsburg, Virginia, last Friday to attend the national dean of men's convention in that city. He intends to be back on the campus by March 21.

Dean Griffin left on the train for Washington, D. C., and will continue from there to the convention. He visited Joe McDonnell, former graduate manager of the University of Nevada, who is now working for Senator Pat McCarran and going to law school in Washington.

Jobs Available; Apartments, Too

The dean of men's office has announced the following positions for students who desire part time work:

A married student who plans on being at the university two or three years and has a car can find work as a distributor for Ford branded ball gum machines. The position pays up to $40 a month.

A student who wishes to work on Saturdays can find employment at a chicken ranch in Sparks. The only requirement is that the student have some previous experience along this line.

The list of jobs also includes various opportunities in the field of salesmanship.

The dean of men has numerous apartments and rooms that are available to students. Those who are interested can find out more details by contacting the office.

"Daughter, you tell that sailor to take his arm from around your waist."

"Tell him yourself, pa. He's a total stranger to me."

Co-ed: Don't you think my hat is a perfect fit?

Co-ed in rival sorority: Fit? It's a perfect convulsion.

Rifle Team Places Tenth In Match

Nevada's R.O.T.C. rifle team finished tenth in the 1950 Sixth Army Intercollegiate Rifle Matches, it was announced here this week.

Each of the competing teams fired from its own range. All targets were then sent to Sixth Army headquarters in San Francisco where they were graded and compiled.

University of San Francisco won the matches. Other schools in the first ten were: University of California, University of Washington, Utah State Agriculture college, State College of Washington, Montana State, University of Idaho, Oregon State college and Hawaii.

High scorer for the Nevada team was Jay Atwood, who fired a 737. Kunio Kajikami was second with 721, and George Becker was third with 715.

Other scores were Lowell Miller 714, Knight Beauchamp 693, Jim Etcheto 685, Dallas Severs 681, Larry Callahan 672, Bill Engel 666, Mel Guerrera 638, and Melvin Sharp 609.

The ten highest scores in each stage were used to obtain the team total.

Coach of the Nevada R.O.T.C. team is Sgt. G. Brunetti.

Tau Secretary Visits Chapter

Alpha Tau Omega fraternity acted as hosts last week to Stewart Daniels, executive secretary of the national ATO organization.

Mr. Daniels was feted to a dinner at the local chapter house and spent some hours in talking with the members. While in Reno Secretary Daniels talked with Dean Griffin and President Parker about fraternity affairs.

Conflicting Events Force PEM's To Cancel Playday

Miss Marge Price, PEM advisor, announced this week that the annual girls PE playday would not be held this year due to conflicts in dates set for the event. This playday is usually sponsored by the PEM Club in conjunction with WRA, and is held on the campus with nine high schools participating.

WRA (Women's Recreation Association) will set its horseback riding program into motion April 19, 20 and 21, according to the PE department. Anyone who is interested may participate in this activity, and there will be a fee of $12.50 per person.

Those taking part in the program will have three groups from which to choose their most convenient riding time. The first group is Wednesday, April 19 from 3-5 pm, second group Thursday from 3-5 pm, and third group from 1-3 and 3-5 pm on Friday. Each group will ride twice a week for approximately five weeks, ending with a supper ride.

The PEM's are sporting new club jackets on the campus this week. The new jackets are grey with royal blue piping, and have the PEM insignia on the pocket.

Contemporary Art Shown This Week

Contemporary art in many forms, ranging from preparatory sketches to finished drawings and water colors, went on display in the exhibit room of the art department this week.

The exhibit includes 59 examples of modern art and displays a variety of drawings from thin pen lines to wide brush strokes, pencil and lithographic crayon, and transparent washes to opaque black and colored grounds.

Jobs are born

Money spreads and people prosper

Three things happen when earnings go to work

There has been a growing need in the West for wax... the kind used on milk cartons, bread wrappers and containers of other foods and drugs you buy.

To fill this need, Standard of California recently completed a plant which refines excellent wax from petroleum. The plant cost $3,500,000; the money came out of earnings—or profits—and here's what it meant to you:

Better protected and packaged products, of course. More jobs for construction workers in building the plant; steady employment for the men who work in it today. More sales for small businesses because the money paid to the workers involved has naturally spread to the grocer, the department store, the doctor and every other business and profession.

This is one example—a 3½ million dollar example—of how earnings are put to work and keep our economy running. There are many others, for Standard of California has spent more than $500,000,000 just since the war for plants and facilities to serve you better.

Brush Strokes

By MARK CURTIS

A COLLEGE EDUCATION turns up many things. Frinstance, how would we ever have known that those two twigs in the upper right hand corner of the state flag, are the emblems of the state . . . sagebrush! . . . or that the paper by the same name is positively censored by the administration and journalism department? (as revealed in one of Puffinbarger's last lectures.) . . . How would we have ever learned that a saucer (non-flying) is not only for cooling your beverage, but for drinking it? (Poli Sci) . . . or take the knowledge that some girls can break dates by going out with them (Reader's Digest) . . . Then, what if you had to choose between going to a co-educational school or an educational one? . . . Where else could you learn that a loyalty oath means that you sign a paper that you didn't lie when you signed a paper to uphold the Constitution. And that the next step would be to sign one saying that you didn't lie when you said you didn't lie when you said you'd uphold the Constitution? . . . Then you may have blundered your way through life and never have known that a sorority is really a fraternity . . . which is embarrassing when you think of all the times you . . . well, just don't think about it.

THE BENNY BINION BUNION is simply the latest in a series of happenings which is making this university look like a den of iniquity. Everyone in the state of Nevada has a perfect right to feel that gambling money is as good as any other kind. But they should also consider that the other 99 per cent of the country look upon such money given to support any kind of competition, with a great deal of suspicion. Because Nevada condones legitimate gambling, that does not mean that other states should or will. Although we know there are no strings attached to gambling donations, it appears we will never be able to convince outsiders. Since the only sport's program we can have is with outsiders, we have only one alternative . . . play according to their rules. Publicized gambling donations, no matter how worthy, how exceptional, or how gratifying—(with one exception . . . scholastic scholarships)—are a BAD INFLUENCE ON THE UNIVERSITY OF NEVADA only because THEY INFLUENCE THE ENTIRE COUNTRY AGAINST THE UNIVERSITY.

UNDERBRUSH: In a women's dorm on the Stanford campus, two fires the same night revealed a definite trend in fashion. Of the 265 gowned coeds who were smoked out, the favorite style of night dress was red flannels decorated with white daisies. Are you insured against such happenings? . . . that is fully covered . . . with daisies? . . . In the spring fashion section of the downtown papers we couldn't help noticing a headline saying that unmentionables are mentionable this year. We wanted to be the first to mention this thrilling bit of news . . . Artemisia editor Barbara Carter, trapped in the wilds of Harold's Club, headed for an exit . . . The door she used had one peculiarity. It was marked "Men" . . . When a new instructor noticed a familiar face in one of his first lectures, he said, "Haven't I seen you some place before . . . that place they call the "Boer's Den?" Dr. Webster, laughing this over thought he must have been mixed up with "that place downtown. Baer's Den." And, you may well ask, who cares? . . . Might as well make a night of it as long as we're downtown. Those clouds hanging in the Skyroom of the Mapes, which Peter Lind Hayes called lamb chops, were put there by three angels attending the University of Nevada. . . . Wouldn't it be a riot if the varsity basketball squad had to rent the gymnasium for their games? Well, die laughing! They rent it! Required reading this week: Letters to the editor.

Parker Appoints Home Ec Committee

A second university department advisory committee has been formed, it was announced today by President Gilbert Parker.

The new group is the home economics advisory committee, and is set up in a similar manner to the recently organized Mackay School of Mines advisory board.

Mrs. C. W. Henningsen of Gardnerville is the chairman for the group. The other eight members have not been named as yet.

The first meeting of the new committee will be held at noon Thursday, March 23, in the home economics department. Students from the department will serve luncheon.

Cattle Film

A film covering the cattle industry in the west will be presented this evening in the Education auditorium. The movie is part of the program planned for the sixth annual Hereford sale. Sponsored by the Nevada Hereford Association, the sale is being held at the fairgrounds today and tomorrow.

The movie is being presented through the courtesy of the University of Nevada Aggie Club and the public is invited to attend.
