

Social Calendar

Social events for the fall semester were co-ordinated at a meeting of the Social Calendar committee Sept. 28.

Elaine Mobley, dean of women, met with student representatives and social chairmen of the sororities, fraternities, dorm associations and class organizations, and planned a non-conflicting social calendar for the fall semester.

Pledge dances start the social whirl, followed by costume dances and the Christmas formals.

Yearbook To Be Larger This Year

A larger page and a larger yearbook were the result of the publications board meeting held last week.

It was agreed to ask for bids for the printing of the yearbook and stipulated that offers must be in within the next two weeks. The book has been allotted $12,000 for publishing purposes.

Wayne Trewitt, the new campus photographer, is to use the campus camera, for which a new lens was authorized.

According to Jerry Mann, ASUN president and ex-officio member of the publications board, the book will contain approximately one hundred pages of school material and sixty pages of advertising.

'55 Gridders Debut, Face FWC Champs

The 1955 edition of the University of Nevada football team makes its debut tonight at Cox Stadium in San Francisco against the defending conference champion San Francisco State Gators.

The game marks the opener of a seven-game schedule for the Wolf Pack and the first Far Western conference game of the season for San Francisco State. The Gators dropped a 20-12 non-conference clash with the tough Fresno State Bulldogs last week-end.

An alumni sponsored banquet hosting new football coach Gordon McEachron and his squad on Wednesday night followed a Tuesday night student rally at Mackay stadium which officially opened the gridiron season.

Starting Eleven

Coach McEachron indicated that his starting lineup would include Ken Fujii at quarterback, Bill Bowser and Chuck Harmon at halfbacks and Mike Lommori at fullback. Walt Ryals anchor the line at center, Joa Viani and Marvin Baker fill out the guard slots, Mike Leslie and Clay Darrow are tackles with George Ball and Larry Fritz starting at ends.

The Wolf Pack will head into the season with a line averaging 190 pounds, and a 170-pound backfield. In the game tonight, Nevada will be giving away . . . 10 pounds per man.

Running the team from the split T will be diminutive quarterback Ken Fujii and Chuck Harmon, the two fastest men on the squad are capable of going all the way every time they handle the ball. Mike Lommori could develop into the powerhouse surprise of the year.

Veteran Walt Ryals, all-conference center, will head up the line. He will be flanked by lettermen guard Joe Viani and Marv Baker, both offensive standouts. At tackles will be Mike Leslie, hard-working veteran, and Clay Darrow, an experienced transfer from Oregon Tech. The end posts will be filled by letterman George Ball, a hard-hitting center last year, and Larry Fritz, one of the best blockers on the squad.

550 New Students In Reno, Vegas

Freshmen and transfer students have set a record enrollment both at the University of Nevada and at Nevada Southern in Las Vegas.

Unconfirmed reports from the president's office show that more than 550 new students have registered on the Reno campus as compared with the 463 freshman and transfer students enrolled last year at this time.

The incomplete total for full time undergraduate students on the main Reno campus so far this year is 1552 as compared with 1203 at this time last year. Nevada Southern also has an unconfirmed report of 327 registrations as compared with the 170 last year.

The long standing ratio of about two male students to one female is still holding. So far about 1080 males have registered as compared with 472 females.

First Football Rally Draws Large Crowd

Almost four hundred students gathered in Mackay Stadium Tuesday night for the first football rally of the year. The turnout is estimated as the largest in several years.

The University band played for the affair, with the tunes being led by the recently named song leaders. The latter are Marlene Belli, head song leader; Joni Kreatz, Nancy McClintic, Cathy Zimmerman, Honor Settlemeyer and Jane Richardson.

The new cheerleaders put on their first performance. Evalyn Titus, head cheerleader, was assisted by Chuck Smith at the microphone; Bob Faiss, Steve Dollinger, Gary Luther, Susie Kuypers, Simmie Cooper and Cathy Hill.

A bon fire, set up by rally chairman Bill Sprow, was one of the attractions of the event. A model of a Gator, name given the San Francisco State team, was hung from a scaffold.

Coach Gordon McEachron was introduced and spoke to the students for the first time. He said that he could not predict the outcome of the football season, but that it will be better than any Nevada has seen for some time.

The team was called onto the field and the crowd remained to watch the final rough scrimmage before tonight's game.

Frosh Election

Nominations for freshman class president opened September 27, and will remain open until October 6, Phil Collins, chairman of the election committee, announced.

Any regularly enrolled freshman can be nominated. Nominations are to be handled in at the ASUN building.

Primary election will be on October 13. The final is scheduled for October 20.

SHIRLEY ALLEN, TRI-DELTA, completed summer training at Quantico, Va., and will be commissioned a second lieutenant in the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve after graduation.

Farm Spotlighted At Board Meet

The future of the University's South Virginia street farm will hold the spotlight at the Board of Regents meeting to be held in Morrill hall at 8:30 tomorrow morning.

Dr. Minard Stout said that Dean John Bertrand of the Max C. Fleischmann College of Agriculture has been conferring with 13 of the state's farm and ranch leaders on what should be done about the farm. He will submit a report on his findings.

Also to be discussed at the meeting will be the negotiation of a new site for the president's home. Currently, plans are being drawn for the Sarah Hamilton Fleischmann School of Home Economics to be constructed.

CADET ROBERT C. LEWIS has been appointed commander of the Nevada ROTC battalion for the coming year. Lewis will hold the rank of cadet lieutenant colonel.

HAMBURGER

The Delta Delta Deltas and the Phi Sigma Kappas are planning a hamburger fry for Sunday, October 2, at 1:00 p.m. The social, which has been planned by Earl Hawley, Phi Sig, will be near Galena Creek at Mount Rose.

Positions Open In Campus Band

Prof. Felton Hickman of the University band is in search of students who play the trombone, baritone, french horn, clarinet, or flute. He also expressed a need for majorettes, flag twirlers, and a drum major.

"Although the band is thin in a few spots," Prof. Hickman stated, "the percussion, tuba, saxophone and trumpet sections are quite strong."

Students interested in the open positions are requested to inquire at the band room in the new gymnasium at 4 p. m. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Jam Tends to Ease In Parking Trapeze

"Parking has improved fifty per cent," says C. M. Horn, superintendent of building and grounds, "and the problem is coming along pretty well, as a result of the 200 tickets we have issued the past week."

According to Horn, "a man has been placed in front of Lincoln hall and the hospital while another man has been patrolling the Mackay Science hall district. These three spots are the tension points of the parking problem that Horn enumerated.

Horn has pointed out that the easing of the parking problem may be because of the amount of fines assessed the past week.

Horn urged that students get their proper 55-56 parking permits and discard the old permits.

Get 24 Hours

"A reminder," says Horn, "of the student's penalties for illegal parking are: first offense, a one dollar fine; second offense, two fine; third offense, five dollar fine; and the fourth offense, ban on the car from the campus." The superintendent also stated, "students have twenty-four hours in which to pay their fine to the comptroller."

Sororities Pledge 78; Tri Delts Lead Race

Delta Delta Delta led the race for new pledges as formal sorority rushing closed last Friday. The Tri Delts pledged 33 women, Gamma Phi Beta 18, Kappa Alpha Theta 17, and Pi Beta Phi 10.

Rushing, which began with formal teas at the houses on September 18, was continued throughout the week at less-formal parties. Two sororities gave parties in the afternoon while the other two had them in the evening.

The schedule was reversed every day so that each sorority had two afternoon and two evening parties. Themes were confined to table decorations, and entertainment was provided at each of the final parties.

Friday, rushees signed their bids, and pledging and slumber parties were held that night.

Pledge List

Pi Beta Phi pledged Kay Calvin, Kathy Currie, Marsha-Jo Demorest, Nadine Edmonson, Carolyn Guth, Carolyn Kroger, Jane Richardson, Gayle Shipley, Farol Lee Spell, and Sally Thom.

Gamma Phi Beta's are Gail Allison, Justine Antoine, Carol Beeson, Janeane Bodell, Marion Capurro, Marie Carano, Sue Coffill, Waunita Combs, Ruth Corsiglia, Joyce Etchebarren, Carol Franci, Mary Jean Garrett, Karen Harvey, Betty Lockhart, Madeline MacKenzie, Merle Moss, Charlyne Reid, and Joyce Wilson.

Prospective Tri-Delts

Those who pledged Delta Delta Delta are Janine Assuras, Shirley Behymer, Marlene Belli, Marjorie Bolander, Trudy Cadell, Carol Carona, Jeanne Condri, Holly Dorland, Pat Dunn, Barbara Evans, Marilyn Ferreira, Carol Gardenswortz, Gwen Guinn, Carolyn Hall, Marilyn Jensen, Kathy Karstens, Joan Kreatz, Pat Lamoreaux, Sherry Longero, Diane Martin, Nancy McClintic, Ann Merriman, Sherry Morse, Diane Newby, Nedra Norton, Joan Papez, Joan Poll, Cythia Robertson, Marilyn Saivi, Honor Settemeyer, Evangeline Smith, Mary Tucker and Deiores Watson.

Rifle, Pistol Club Meets Tuesday

The University of Nevada Rifle and Pistol club will hold the first meeting of the semester October 4, 1955 at 7:00 p. m. in the Rifle range of the basement of the old gym. Nomination of officers, range schedules and general organization plans will be considered at this meeting.

Membership in the Rifle club is open to all students who are interested in improving and perfecting their marksmanship ability. No previous experience in firing rifles is required. Expert instruction is given to beginners, while advanced riflemen participate in postal matches and shoulder to shoulder contests. This local organization is affiliated with the National Rifle Association.

The Varsity Rifle team shoots in the Nevada Sagebrush league, in the National Intercollegiate Championship matches at Berkeley, and in the Tri-State meet held on the University of Nevada campus. In the Berkeley meet last year the team placed 7th of 136 competing universities from all over the nation and Hawaii.

The University Rifle and Pistol club sponsors an annual Turkey Shoot and the Intramural Rifle matches which will be held in December of this year.

Past officers of the club include Richard Mills, president; Terry Katzer, vice president; Marge Stodick, secretary; and Gene Espin, treasurer.

12 Groups Enter Acts in Frolics

Twelve groups, including all the fraternities and sororities, have entered acts for this year's Wolfe's Frolics. It is scheduled for Oct. 28 in the State building auditorium.

For the first time in the history of the Frolics, the women on Manzanita hall have entered skits. They will have group and individual acts.

The Sundowners and Artemesia hall will also participate. The tumbling classes will put on individual performances as well as being in the ensemble and encore.

Variety acts are going to be featured this year. A trumpet trio has entered and also a unicyclist act featuring Gardner Smith, a local ski standout now attending the university.

Auditions Being Held

Auditions are still being held for those individuals who wish to participate in the show.

New lights and scenery have been purchased and will be used this year.

Heading this year's Wolfe's Frolic staff is Asher Wilson, a new member of the speech and dramatics department. He was formerly associated with the College of Idaho, in the speech and dramatics department. At present Mr. Wilson is doing post graduate work at Stanford university.

Rounding out the staff is Margie Warner, dance director, Earl Hultberg, music director. General chairman is Gene Kiliany, of Theta Chi.

Two Drop Live Bomb In ROTC Men's Laps

Two firemen from the Reno fire department Wednesday morning brought to the ROTC unit on campus a replica of a small bomb which they suspected might be live.

On inspection, the bomb was found to be very live. The case was made of wood, but the working mechanism was real, including a firing pin and explosive.

Army personnel removed the live part of the bomb, and took it to the bomb disposal officer at Stead Air Force Base.

"If anyone wants the bomb, they can have it by coming to the ROTC office," Lt. Col. Robert Berenter, ROTC commander, stated.

One of the firemen had found the bomb in a home he had just purchased.

Dempsey, Lundby Win Fellowships

Earle Dempsey and William Lundby, two graduate students of the Mackay School of Mines, have been awarded Li foundation fellowships for this year. Each award is $2,000.

Li fellowship recipients are selected on the basis of achievement, professional promise, financial need, character, and good health by a committee of faculty members in the Mackay school of mines.

Each of the fellowships awarded on this campus is named in honor of either Senator Alan Bible or Senator George W. Malone. This year, Dempsey received the Senator Alan Bible Li Foundation fellowship, while Lundby received the one named for Senator Malone.

The fellowships were established by the Li foundation in New York City to promote research leading to a master's degree in mining, geology, or metallurgy.

Dempsey received his degree in mining engineering in 1953. Lundby majored in geological engineering, and graduated in 1951.

Forage improvement was the leading theme of the College of Agriculture's exhibit at the Washoe County Fair, held here recently. In addition, beneficial and destructive insects of this area were displayed by the entomology department.

SAE, ATO Lead Softball Tourney

Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Alpha Tau Omega are leading in the intramural softball competition after eight games of play.

Both of the fraternities have two wins to their credit. Teams with one win are Theta Chi, Sigma Rho, Delta Sigma Nu, and Lambda Chi Alpha.

The remainder of the schedule is as follows:

Sept. 28—Civil Engineers-Sigma Rho; SAE-Sigma Nu.

Sept. 29—Theta Chi-Phi Sig; ATO-Sigma Rho.

Sept. 30 — Lambda Chi-Sigma Nu; Civil Engineers-SAE.

Oct. 3—Theta Chi-Sigma Rho; Phi Sig-Sigma Nu.

Oct. 4—ATO-SAE; Lambda Chi-Phi Sig-ATO.

Teams failing to show within ten minutes after the scheduled time will forfeit the game. Two defaults eliminate that team from the schedule.

No games may be postponed without sufficient cause and without first getting agreement from the athletic managers of both teams, and the Intramural Supervisor, G. A. Broten.

Home Ec. Broadens Study Opportunities

By Bill Engel

"Every woman's opportunity," is the offer being made to the women of Nevada by the new Sarah Hamilton Fleischmann School of Home Economics at the University of Nevada.

A new pamphlet published by the home economics department presents the many opportunities a professional career in home economics offers. The career field includes professions in food and nutrition, child development, textiles and housing and home furnishing.

The courses are being taught by an almost entirely new faculty. Department chairman Dr. Mildred Swift is the one professor whom students will recognize from past years. She has been chairman of the home economics school since 1942.

Dr. Jennie M. Harper, associate professor, is instructed in foods and nutrition. She received her doctorate at Cornell and has had a wide field of experience, including work at Washington State, Florida State, University of Mississippi and the University of Maine.

Clothing and Textiles is being taught by associate professor Dr. Marilyn J. Horn. She has instructed at the Pratt Institute and Purdue University.

Family Courses

Assistant professor Dr. Dorothy Sidwell is teaching family relations and child development. Her graduate work was completed at the University of California where she also instructed.

Methods courses in vocational home economics are being given by assistant professor Dr. Patricia Ann Tripple. These courses provide instruction for prospective teachers and home demonstration agents in the field. Dr. Tripple has had teaching experience in both high schools and universities.

Extension teaching is being directed by Miss Waneta Amelia Wittler, state home demonstrator. In addition she handles home economics work with adults and 4-H club members throughout the state. Miss Wittler completed her graduate work at Iowa State University.

Enrollment Up In ROTC Classes

Enrollment in ROTC classes this year is up 10 per cent over last year's 397, Lt. Colonel Robert C. Bereuter has announced.

Four hundred and forty students of the university of men are enrolled in ROTC classes. Of these, 372 are in the basic course (first two years), which is required. Sixty-eight are enrolled in the advanced course, which may lead to a commission in the U. S. Army.

Exemptions were granted this year to 128 veterans with one year or more of active duty. Twelve were exempted for physical reasons, and 45 in other categories, such as aliens, and those over 23 years old.

Thirteen Nevada students have completed their ROTC training but have not yet obtained a degree, which is necessary before being commissioned a 2nd Lt. in the U. S. Army.

Nov. 8 Last Day To Drop Classes

November 8 is the last possible date that students will be permitted to drop a class.

Before dropping a class a student should first talk to his advisor. After receiving this counseling he must go to the registrar's office and fill out the change of registration form which states what classes he is dropping or adding.

The signature of the advisor, the dean of the college, the instructors involved and approval of Dean Carlson or Sam Basta, student counselor is then required. After this change of registration form is completed and properly signed, it is to be returned to the registrar's office and a fee of one dollar must be paid.

Interview Staged By Local Scholars

By Bob Faiss

Prospective members of Sundowners, future dignitaries of America, will be interviewed at 3 p. m. Sunday afternoon at Idlewild park.

A two-dollar admission fee will be charged to defray cost of refreshments, club officials stated. They added that all money left after expenses will go into the Sundowner Scholarship fund.

"Honesty, determination, courage and high moral character" will be sought in the new applicants, stated a spokesman for the club, adding that "Our men have always been known for their good spirits."

Dunking

The Koreans of several generations back were in the habit of supplying recreation for themselves by throwing rocks—at one another. Teams composed of entire neighboring villages would gather on opposite sides of a demarkation line and toss the largest boulders possible on their opposing group. Men, women, and children had their skulls bashed, in the name of esprit de corps. Thusly, they got their kicks, stupid though it might seem.

One is minded of such barbarism when "school spirit" is manifested in the manner it was last Friday, when several freshmen were tossed in the lake for not wearing dinks. The rock-throwing Koreans were generally evenly matched; a freshman against a group of pea-brained upperclassmen is not.

If a freshman is not overawed and obeisantly respectful to the university code and its big men on the campus, then working him over in the manner of the "Rover Boys at Oxford" will make him all the less so. Of course, his conformity can be coerced by sheer force but his contempt is increased.

Chief defense for dink enforcement is generally the promotion of something vaguely termed school spirit. Forcing the peons to wear dinks, and grown men actually assert this, is the insurance for well-attended football games and other student activities. By forcible bathing, the neophyte is expected to grow misty-eyed when the band strikes up, he suddenly is the type who cheers hoarsely at a touchdown, and in future years will feel such a strong debt to the University and the cro-magnon types who tossed him in the lake that he will donate hard money for a student union building. This reasoning goes only so far and applies in only a few cases.

There are certain freshmen who despite all present day obstacles have reached a stage of individualism; they observe the conventions only inasmuch as they consider them reasonable. Such freshmen should not wear dinks.

For dinks are a symbol, at least when worn by the types discussed, of the ultimate in surrender to the tyranny of the adolescent and the small-minded.

When such a dinkless freshman is attacked, if he is fast enough, he may knock out a few teeth; if not, his dampened body will be bolstered by the tenacity of his convictions.

SDX Schedules Dinner Meeting

The first dinner meeting of the year for the professional and undergraduate of Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalistic fraternity, will be held October 16 at the Santa Fe hotel.

Neal Van Sooy, former national president of Sigma Delta Chi and present editor of the Carson City Nevada Appeal, will install the new statewide chairman of the professional group.

Temporary officers of the group include Prof. Alfred L. Higginbotham, secretary, and Prof. Keistle Janulis, treasurer.

AEO Hears Talk On Dental Schools

Pre-medical, pre-dental, and pre-medical technology students of the Alpha Epsilon Delta professional fraternity heard Dr. Horace B. Taylor speak last night at the fraternity's first meeting of the fall semester.

Dr. Taylor, the medical education director for the Nevada State Medical association, spoke to the 25 members of the fraternity on "Obtaining Entrance to Medical or Dental School."

According to Dick Morrill, president of the fraternity, Alpha Epsilon Delta will have monthly meetings. Guest speakers will be medical specialists from the Reno area. The doctors will speak on specialties in the fields of medicine, dentistry, and medical technology.

Dr. Howell Jones is the faculty advisor for the group, and Miss Francine Mannix is secretary.

Out Of The Brush

By P. Finch

Greetings to alle and sundrie from Poore Finch's columnack.

Tri-delts were called before the Pan-Hellenic council for playing hanky-panky during rushing. Seems that such misdemeanors are as esoteric as the puberty rites of the Ku Klux Klan and the Sagebrush was told by the Dean of Women, Elaine Mobley, that it could not be printed.

The Sagebrush not only can print it but it has printed it.

Aside from her order being completely incompatible with the first amendment of the constitution, Dean Mobley assumes erroneously that trying to keep it out of the Sagebrush will keep it out of the public eye. Everybody knows it.

The difference is that by keeping a true, accurate account of the Tri-Delts impropriety out of print the story travels by hear- say, rumor, and misinformation enlarging and exaggerating an otherwise minor thing.

The girls attending the University are attending a public institution. They have parents. And they are not citizens of a police state.

Infractions of the rules are not the exclusive interest of the Dean of Women and the Pan-Hellenic council.

Therefore, the Sagebrush found Dean Mobley's position indefensible and has printed the story.

Housing problems, this time at Lincoln hall, are pressing again. Pressing some, at any rate. Fraternity men living at Lincoln hall and eating at their houses are faced with a decision. They have the choice of moving their sack or their feed bag.

The dining hall and dormitory facilities, Dean William D. Carlson explains, are designed as a package deal. Too many applicants for such facilities require a more rigid enforcement of the rule. Those wishing to use the package arrangements are to receive priority, an understandable position.

In some cases the fraternity houses are too full to accommodate more, yet they naturally want their own to dine with the fold.

But at the beginning of the next semester, the men will either have to live somewhere else or eat in the dining hall. C'est la guerre.

Financial problems for veterans look much brighter, however. The Veterans Administration had earlier indicated that the first government checks would not arrive until Nov. 20, which meant a long time to stall on the bar bill.

The VA has changed its official mind, for which it is lavishly forgiven, and if veterans drop in at the dean's office on Oct. 3, sign oaths declaring themselves students, they will receive a check on Oct. 20.

The panacea, the great white hope of the University of Nevada, or plainly put, the twenty-five grand investigation is coming along predictably indeed.

A prospective investigator is being investigated by the investigatees.

Legislative commissioners argued over Dr. Dean McHenry of the University of California. One questioned his past. An ex-regent and newspaper editor says McHenry fibbed about being offered the job of president of the University.

And Regent Chairman Silas Ross, whose regime was to have been reviewed, objects to McHenry for reasons he prefers not to bandy about.

It seems that the prospective investigator is more controversial than the affairs he would investigate.

To the casual observer, it would seem that any decision made by such a person would have no more affect on those involved than in affect on those involved than would the war chant of an aborigine.

Candidates Named For Hello-Hi Titles

Candidates for Miss Hello on the Hill were nominated this week. Girl competing for Miss Hello are Farol Lee Spell, Phi Beta Phi; Pat King, Kappa Alpha Theta; Sue Coffill, Gamma Phi Beta; Mary Frances Tucker, Tri Delt, and Joan Heater from the Independent group.

Men who will be vying for Mr. Hi are Paul Luzen, Phi Sig; Buddy Garcia, Sigma Nu; Gary Soule, Theta Chi; Dick Stringham, ATO; and Gary Wilkerson, SAE. Lambda Chi and the Independents had not made entries at press time.

Miss Hello and Mr. Hi will reign over the Hello on the Hill proceedings Saturday night, October 8. At the dance only those freshmen in attendance will be able to cast a vote for Mr. Hi and Miss Hello.

It will be held in the old gym at 8:00 p. m., following the events of the Frosh-Soph field events earlier in the day. Don Thompson and his Serenaders will provide music for the dance.

Joan Sawle is chairman of Hello on the Hill and her subchairmen are Mary Lou Stone, Toni deReynier, Bill Eddleman, Donna Fisher, Buzz Fray, Roger Trounday, and Bob Faiss.

New Group Formed by ROTC Co. A; Nomenclature: Sierra Guardsmen

ROTC battalion's Company A, composed of outstanding students in drill, formed a new group that will be called the Sierra Guardsmen. Company A disaffiliated from the national drill club called the Pershing Rifles.

The company will have its own patches and white accessories. Officers of the Sierra Guardsmen are cadet captain Everett Witt, executive officer Gary Hafen, and platoon leaders Bob Thomason and Grant Bowler.

The group will perform at the Homecoming parade on October 29, the Nevada Day parade on October 31, and in the Armed Forces Day parade on the third Saturday in May.

Drill Team

Bill Adams is tentatively the head of a drill team which will be made up of men from the Sierra Guardsmen. The four members of the battalion color guard are from Company A.

This year there were eliminations to determine the men who could remain in Company A. More men than in the past tried out. The entire company, including officers and men, number seventy-five.

It seems that the prospective investigator is more controversial than the affairs he would investigate.

To the casual observer, it would seem that any decision made by such a person would have no more affect on those involved than in affect on those involved than would the war chant of an aborigine.

Social Year Starts With Engagements

The social year began as usual last Monday night when announcements of pinnings and engagements were made at each sorority house.

At the tri-Delt house, Shirley Behymer announced her pinning to Everett Witt, ATO, by passing out candy.

Mary Ann Mears, Gamma Phi Beta, announced her engagement to Bob Colliver, Sigma Nu.

Another engagement was announced at the Pi Phi house by one of the new pledges, Nadine Edmundson. She is engaged to Wes Warden from Fullerton, California.

The Theta house was the scene of two pinnings Monday night. Alice Cochran is now pinned to Ed Brown, SAE, and Gail Altenburg announced her pinning to Roger Trounday, ATO.

The ATO's in keeping with tradition serenaded Shirley Behymer and Gail Altenburg.

Interested Campus Women Invited To First Saddle and Spurs Meeting

Women students interested in horseback riding are invited to attend the first meeting of the year of Saddle and Spurs, a club designed especially for the co-eds of the University of Nevada.

The first meeting for Saddle and Spurs will be held this Thursday evening at the Western stables at Virginia lake.

Five evenings are scheduled for rides for the fall semester. The final fall ride will be a dinner ride, and the program will begin again as soon as spring weather permits.

Free Ride

Any woman student on the campus is eligible to join the organization and ride with Saddle and Spurs, upon payment of a $10 horse-rental fee. Those women on campus who own their own horses may ride with the group free of charge.

Infirmiry Reports Heavy Cold Wave

The University infirmiry reports that approximately twenty cases of common cold are reported each day. This is twice as many as reported last year at this date. Nurse Mary Johnson attributes this slight epidemic to low resistance due to nervousness and lack of rest.

Schedule Posted For Yearbook Pix

"All four classes will have their pictures taken for the yearbook this year," says Evalyn Titus, editor of the Artemisia. Conant Studio will do the photographing which will take place between Oct. 3 and Dec. 17.

Dress for the class pictures will be dark sweaters for the women and white shirts and dark V-neck sweaters for the men. Sorority and fraternity dress for pictures will be black drapes for the women and black tuxedo jacket and bow tie for the men.

Conant Studio will be open for photographing from 9:00-5:00 during the day and 7:00-9:00 in the evening.

Schedule

Photograph schedule is Oct. 3-15, Delta Delta Delta, Pi Beta Phi; Oct. 17-19, Kappa Alpha Theta, and Gamma Phi Beta; Oct. 31-Nov. 19, Sigma Nu, Phi Sigma Kappa, Sigma Rho Delta, Theta Chi; Nov. 21-December 3, Alpha Tau Omega, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and Dec. 5-10, Lambda Chi Alpha. All Independents may their their picture taken between Oct. 3-Dec. 17.

Editor Titus pointed out that any person who has club pictures to be taken will do so at the same time that they have their fraternity or sorority pictures taken.

Brushfire Wants Talent Of Student Writers

Brushfire wants a wide representation of student talent this year. Contributions are welcome from all students, said Sandra Newell, 1956 editor.

Material for the campus literary magazine may be turned in to members of the staff or left in the English office in a labeled box provided for that purpose. Meetings will be held every other Wednesday and announcements of the time and place will be made in all English classes and posted on campus, she said.

Stories, essays, poetry and art work will be considered for publication in the student magazine.

Present members of the editorial staff are Barney Mergen, Jim Vincent, Jim Hussey and Joanne de Longchamps. Dwight Powell heads the business department and Bob Gerring is art editor. Dr. R. A. Hume, professor of English, is acting advisor.

Brushfire is making an effort to support itself, as it has in years past, through advertising, sales, and contributions from interested parties, said the editor.

Back copies of Brushfire may be obtained at a discount at the ASUN Bookstore and Gray Reid Wright.

Basta to Guide New Students

Any student who needs help in figuring out his program or deciding on a career should get acquainted with Mr. Sam Basta.

Mr. Basta is the new student counselor at the University of Nevada and is the first person to serve in this capacity. The office has been created for the purpose of helping students set up their programs for training toward their individual goals.

A graduate of the University of Nevada, Mr. Basta is now working on his doctor's degree in guidance and counseling from the University of Southern California. For the past five years he has helped develop guidance programs in high schools through his position as state superintendent of guidance service under the state department of education.

His office is near the Dean's offices in the quonset hut. Mr. Basta said, "Any student is welcome in my office at any time."

Nominee Hats in Ring For SU Director Posts

Student Union Committee men met Wednesday night to make appointments, nominate new members for the student Union Board of Directors, and to discuss the future building plans for the Student Union.

The election committee members of the student union were elected. They will work in conjunction with three senate members, the ASUN president, and the President of student union committee. Those elected to the election committee were Dave Ryan, Don Crowell and George Evans.

This election committee will elect the members to fill vacancies on the Student union board of directors. Those nominated to run for membership on the board were Joan Sawle, Don Lane and Donna Fisher as returning members. Also nominated was Annette Dickson, Dan Goodman, Don Travis, Merlin Hoyt, Walt Wiseman, Dan Sullivan, Buzzy Fray, and Ken Robbins. Pat Boland was chosen to act as historian for the Student Union Board of Directors.

Finance Report

In the finance report, it was stated that there is approximately $6,500 on hand, and the Finance Board will meet and bring back suggestions as to possible investments of this money.

Now available for the building of the Student Union building is $360,000. Various cuts have been made in the building plans to enable the lowering of bids. The lowest bid which was submitted when bids were originally let was $502,000. With the cuts which have been made it is hoped that when the bids are let once more that building can begin by the first of January.

Those attending the Board of Directors meeting Wednesday, were Don Crowell, Sandra Mitts, Joan Sawle, George Evans, Dave Ryan, Annette Dickson, Donna Fisher, Pat Cortis, Phil Hannifin, president Bill McDonald and the faculty advisor, Professor Alden J. Plumley.

HOLSTINE SPEAKS

Dean Garold Holstine, University of Nevada, college of education, will be the featured speaker at the annual Nevada Library Association in Carson, Oct. 16 and 17.

He will outline the summer school program which recently attracted a record enrollment to the Reno campus.
