KAREN DECKER HOMECOMING QUEEN

KAREN DECKER
Artemisia-Manzanita

Karen Decker has been selected queen of the 37th annual Homecoming celebration. Miss Decker was crowned by Alumni President Lee De Lauer during Wolves' Frolic intermission this evening.

A member of Artemisia-Mananita association, the new queen is from Kings, Beach, California. She is five feet two inches tall, with black hair and hazel eyes. Majoring in physical education, Miss Decker is enjoying campus life at Nevada very much.

The queen was elected by all male students at today's election. The election and campaigning was under the charge of the Associated Women Students' Council.

The queen's crown is the property of AWS. It was purchased last year and is presented to any woman crowned queen of an all-campus event. The Homecoming queen's living group also gains possession of a revolving trophy, initiated last year.

Miss Decker was presented with a bouquet of roses by President De Lauer. She will reign over the remaining activities tomorrow, cross-country race, parade, football game, and dance.

Last year's Homecoming queen was Beth Boyd of Delta Delta Delta sorority.

BROWN KNOWS

By BILL BROWN

It's Homecoming time at Nevada again. All the old grads will be drifting back and remembering how much better things were when they went to school here.

The football teams were better; the profs were smarter; school spirit was more evident, and, in general, everything seems to favor age: the farther you go back the better things were.

For the first time in many years, the alumni are taking an active part in Homecoming through the offices of John Sala, Alumni director. Plans were made that seemed to put the coming in Homecoming. Alumni who return this year will find that they have become an integral part of the festivities rather than onlookers.

The events this year will include everything that has been held in the past but it seems that a little more effort has been expended by both alumni and student committees to insure that this will be a memorable occasion.

One example of this type of effort will be apparent Friday night when the Sagebrush will have a picture of the homecoming queen on the first page. Last year it was thought by several student leaders that the staff of the Sagebrush was not capable of keeping a secret, therefore the news of the queen elections were withheld until the frolic. This year, however, through the efforts of Myram Borders and others the Sagebrush will break the queen story, not the downtown papers.

The Wolves Frolic this year will contain several skits that have been missing for several years. Among them are the Mens Independents. The Independents through Artemisia-Manzanita association have presented skits in the past but for the first time in a long while, the Mens Independents will participate. Whether they win or lose, they deserve a pat on the back.

I was a little sorry to see the Sundowners are not going to present a skit this year. Their skit last year was the highlight of the show and caused more comment than any other.

The cross-country this year is the subject of much speculation, with the entrance of a racer who could well break the long standing record over the four-mile event. Dave Sharp is thought by many as the potential record-smasher. Dave is a freshman student from Elko, who recently returned from the service. His record while in the service included many wins in this type race.

A plaudit to Dick "Whitey" Bryan and his crew and to John Sala and his crew for the work they have done to insure that this Homecoming will be the biggest and the best of all.

Most of our suspicions of others are aroused by our knowledge of ourselves.

Raccoon Coat Craze

Invades Nevada

The collegiate raccoon coat craze has hit the University of Nevada campus in a small way.

Extremely popular in Eastern colleges, these wraps seem to have traveled to Nevada from California in the trunks of California girls.

The shaggy coats have suddenly become so precious that one was recently stolen from Manzanita hall. The owner is Lynne Miller, a sophomore from Woodland. She retrieved it after an extensive but futile search of the campus. It was finally found in an airport locker.

Estelle Carley from Red Bluff is also an owner of one of the furs.

They have been used variously throughout the last few years for anything from Davey Crockett hats to stuffed animals.

Nevada Graduate Commissioned

Harold L. Plummer, a 1957 graduate of the University of Nevada, has been commissioned a second lieutenant in the regular army.

The military department announced that Plummer's first assignment will be guided missile and artillery school at Fort Sill, Okla., where he will remain for 17 weeks.

From Atchafalaya Swamp, more for your money at the gasoline pump

"Somebody has called this the atomic age. It's really the petroleum age.

"In 1935 America used about 300 gallons of oil products a year per person. Today it's over 800 gallons. The industry has a big job to meet this demand. But we're doing it.

"For one thing, we go farther to find oil. Atchafalaya Swamp here in Louisiana where I head Union Oil's production crew, is a good example.

"Before we start to drill we have to dredge canals to float the rig in. When we drill we often go twice as deep as we did ten years ago. And the number of dry-holes is much higher now.

"When we do strike oil, we have to refine it and get it to market. Some of our oil travels thousands of miles by boat, pipeline and truck before it reaches your car as Union gasoline.

GEORGE VEAZEY, "COMMUTING" TO HIS JOB IN THE ATCHAFALAYA SWAMP COUNTRY

"Costs are up all along the line, but we're drilling more wells than ever. In spite of more dry holes, our production is up. And our products are better than they've ever been!"

The problems George Veazey discusses are very real.

Despite them, though, you never got more for your money than you do today at a Union Oil Service Station.

Today, gasoline is 15 octanes higher than it was in 1939, and you get free services with every gallon. The price, on the other hand, has increased only 65% as compared with a 100% rise in the average of all consumer prices.

We intend to continue to bring our customers the best possible products at the lowest possible price.

AID SHOULD BE GIVEN TO FOOTBALL PLAYERS

Ever notice those big guys on campus with the black eyes, tape across their nose, and a slight limp as they walk? Chances are they are members of the Nevada Wolf Pack. Except for the fun of the game, that's all they get: black eyes, bruises, or a limp.

Football players are just like anyone else on campus. They pay tuition, buy their books, and pay for their room and board. The only difference is that many hours a week they are out practicing for next week's game. While they are working out, the rest of the students can do their studying, take an afternoon nap, drop down to the Little Wal, or get a part-time job.

All 38 members of the Wolf Pack have signed a petition for player aid. The petition asks for one semester of room and board. And the players are willing to work for it. Since they don't have the time to get part-time jobs, they have asked for jobs on campus.

At the present time there are no members of the 'Pack working at campus jobs. These "lucrative" jobs pay $1.00 per hour.

Other schools pay much more. The Cal Aggies, for example, are paid $1.94 per hour, and many of the Aggie football players are employed. Coach McEachron has stated that Nevada is probably the only school in the Far Western Conference that does not arrange for players to work off room and board.

Because there are some football players who need aid in order to get through school and don't have the free time for part-time jobs, something should be done for them.

One answer would be to give the players room and board for the fall semester and let them work it off during the second semester. Jobs could be provided for them on campus. They should be paid a rate comparable to other schools in the conference.

There are buildings to be maintained and grounds to be kept. There are men employed on the campus who are taking work that could be done by students who need extra money to finance their way through college.

Regardless of the method used to solve the problem of the players, something should be done, and soon. If not we may be forced to give up football here at Nevada. The school has already lost some promising athletes who could not afford to go to school here.

Don Travis has pledged to help the team in their efforts for aid. The petition is scheduled to go before the Board of Regents on Nov. 2. This gives students enough time to take some action and to let their feelings be known. Something has to be done if the Wolf Pack is to survive.

How could you have a good Homecoming without a football team?

HISTORY OF FOOTBALL SHADY; NEARLY ABOLISHED IN 1900'S

Historians have traced the game of football to ancient Egypt, Greece and Rome. The connections are rather fuzzy, however. The game as we know it is strictly American. Its immediate ancestors were soccer and rugby. It was born, weaned and grew to maturity in the colleges.

Elementary versions of football were played intramurally at various Eastern colleges in the early 1800's. The first inter-collegiate game, played under soccer principles between twenty-five man teams, was staged between Rutgers and Princeton on the Rutgers campus at New Brunswick, N. J., on Nov. 6, 1869. Rutgers won, six goals to four.

The idea caught hold. Columbia formed a team in 1870. Yale fielded a team in 1872, Harvard in 1873. Other schools soon followed suit, and before long nearly all sections were represented.

The earliest games were played under loose rules that followed the soccer pattern. But the rugby code soon won favor and, with modifications was adopted by the Intercollegiate Football Association on its formation in 1876.

With the adoption of a uniform code, the evolution of the game proceeded rapidly. The number of players on a team was reduced to eleven in 1880, downs were introduced in 1882 and in 1883 the point system of scoring was initiated.

Too Rough
Rough play became a problem as the flying wedge and other massed interference tactics were devised. The toll of injuries was so heavy that President Theodore Roosevelt threatened to abolish football if the sport was not cleaned up.

The rules-makers responded to the public outcry in 1906 by legalizing the forward pass, outlawing mass formations and generally streamlining the game. A period of groping adjustment followed. Then Notre Dame came unheralded out of the West in 1913 to defeat Army on the passing of Gus Dorais to Knut Rockne.

This widely-hailed feat focused attention on the dynamic possibilities of the overhead game. Forward passing is stressed in every modern football attack. Also, step by step, the emphasis in the running phase of the game has shifted from power to speed and deception. Feints, quick strikes in unexpected directions and the elaborate use of flankers helps keep the defense off balance.

These technical advances have helped make football more interesting and exciting. So have such developments as the numbering of players, play-by-play announcing over public address systems and the erection of comfortable, well designed stadiums by leading colleges.

Sagebrush Files Revue Classes of '32 '47 '52

Welcome back to all Alumni, and particularly those members of the honored classes of 1932, 1947, and 1952.

Digging through issues of the Sagebrush from twenty-five, ten, and five years ago, we note that activities were generally the same as today, with few exceptions.

A few facts from the Homecomings of years past:

Six thousand spectators attended the rewarding game of 1931, the last Homecoming game of the 1932 graduating class, when Nevada beat the Fresno Bulldogs.

In the morning parade Delta Delta Delta sorority took the winning float trophy. Campus Players were judged the best organization float.

Classes Dismissed

Present-day students can be jealous of the 1946 celebration when classes were dismissed Friday afternoon.

Tri Delt Norma Carruth reigned over a "Pajamoree," bonfire rally, and other usual events.

Saturday morning's parade featured stars from "Margie," the movie being premiered in Reno at that time. Float winners were Pi Beta Phi sorority and Theta Chi fraternity.

These were the days when students attended the Homecoming game with Montana State college for a chance on the Buick. An automobile was raffled off at this game for several years.

1951 found Alpha Tau Omega fraternity leading the race for the Kinnear trophy.

Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity sponsored both winning Frolic skit and float; with Kappa Alpha Theta sorority taking best float featuring two sets of twins, the Fulstone and Roling sisters. Sorority women par-

Letter TO THE EDITOR

While thumbing through a recent edition of the "Sagebrush," we came upon the article "Social Requirements for Overnights." It immediately caught our attention, and, while reading through, we could not help but feel that we had seen these rules before.

After several minutes of meditation we finally recalled where we had seen them. THESE RULES WERE IDENTICAL TO OUR GRAMMAR SCHOOL SOCIAL CODE.

Theta Elise Valentine reigned over the celebration which students of that day claimed found spirit at its highest peak since World War II, despite the fact the Wolf Pack was trounced by Loyola University (of Los Angeles), 35 to 7.

It's been said that the atomic submarine "Nautilus" stays submerged so long that it only surfaces to let the crew re-enlist. Perhaps for this reason, the Navy has taken valuable space aboard the "Nautilus" for the only soft-drink vending machine in the entire submarine fleet.

Naturally (or you wouldn't hear about it from us) it's a Coca-Cola machine. And not unexpectedly, re-enlistments are quite respectable.

How Standard "beefs up" cattle to help meet the West's growing food needs

New Standard plant foods have produced twice as much beef from a single acre—enough extra beef to supply an average person for a solid year.

Who eats the most meat in the U.S.? You do—surveys show Westerners top the nation in meat consumption. Now Standard helps ranchers satisfy that hearty appetite with chemically blended plant foods,* so economical they can be used to turn unproductive foothills into profitable pasture-land.

These new blends of essential plant-growth elements come from a $16 million Standard plant opened just a year ago. Grasslands they have enriched are now producing up to twice as much beef per acre. Farmers find them equally productive on many other crops. For you they promise tastier, more nutritious meals for every dollar you spend on food.

REGENTS TO FLOAT BONDS FOR UNIVERSITY HOUSING

Preliminary plans are underway for the construction of a new forty unit housing project.

Both faculty and married students will be eligible for the housing, and the Board of Regents will decide on the ratio. Qualifications will be on a "first come, first serve" basis.

The regents will also decide what rent shall be charged. Robert Pollman, university engineer estimated that it would run between $60 and $70. The present rent is $34.00, utilities included.

The project will be located behind the Bureau of Mines building.

Authority was given to the regents to issue bonds totaling $352,000 for the construction by the 1957 Nevada state legislature

No date has been set for the acceptance of bids and construction will not begin before next June.

The rent on the building will be used to handle maintenance and pay off the bonds over a forty year period.

San Francisco Defeats Wolfpack 21-8

The University of Nevada Wolf Pack lost their second conference game of the season when San Francisco State defeated them 21-8 in a game played at San Francisco, last Friday.

The Pack's only touchdown came on a 69-yard run from scrimmage by halfback Don Moroni. It came after San Francisco had scored all three of their touchdowns.

Nevada added a safety late in the fourth quarter when Clay Darrow tackled a San Francisco man in the end zone.

The loss left the Wolf Pack with a 1-2 conference record and fourth place in the standings.

Reno Engineer Speaks to Crucible Club

"How to solve the problem of a newly graduated mining engineer entering the mining business," was the question answered by Gerald Brooke Hartley, Jr., Reno engineer, during the first meeting of the Crucible club.

Hartley told of the problems of acquiring jobs in the mining areas throughout Nevada. He gave a brief description of the duties of a mine owner.

Mining students attended the meeting, and Lester J. May presided. Other officers in attendance were David Mathews, vice president; Robert W. Neushafer, treasurer; Leal Kimrey, secretary; William G. Freeman, senator; and the faculty advisor Dr. Joseph Lintz, Jr., assistant professor of geology.

The mining club meets on the third Thursday of each month.

Nevada Will Participate In Debate Tourney

The University of Nevada is the only school outside the northern California area which has been invited to participate in the next Northern California forensic tournament.

This is the first time that Nevada's debate team will take part in this meet.

The contest will be held at Sacramento State college Nov. 1 and 2.

Nevada will be represented by five or six teams of two persons each. They will enter both upper and lower division debate.

Other invitations for the fall semester have included the Western speech association tournament, to be held in Los Angeles, the Columbia Valley tournament, to be held at Washington State college, and the Humboldt State college tournament to be held at that school.

Flu and Injuries Force 4 Starters Out of Lineup

The University of Nevada Wolf Pack, hit by numerous injuries and illness, faces Western State of Colorado tomorrow afternoon at Mackay Stadium.

Among the missing in the Nevada starting line-up will be Dave Adams, Bob Brulotte, and Don Moroni. All are flu victims. Charles Musser, Ted Beckett and Rod Cook are also sick, but may play. O'Neill Sanders may not play because of a shoulder separation. On top of all this, starting halfback Bill Bowser quit the team this week.

Tom Friberg, Arden Gerbig, Howdy Davis, and Chub Quilici have been moved into starting positions to fill vacancies caused by illness or injury.

Western Colorado's Mountaineers come to Reno looking for their third victory. They are led by halfback Bill Schmalz.

A substitute until last week, Schmalz sprang to national prominence with a six TD scoring spree, against Adams State of Colorado last week.

He carried the ball only seven times from scrimmage. Four times he went for touchdowns on runs of 13, 20, 36 and 58 yards. He caught a 10-yard pass for another and ran a punt back 80 yards for still another score.

Comparative scores show Nevada losing to Idaho State 40-6 and Western State losing to the same team 40-13. But this was before Schmalz decided that he was really a star and not a benchwarmer.

Nevada's grads have had little to cheer about in the past two homecoming games. The Pack dropped a 47-0 decision to Chico in 1955 and went down before Pepperdine last year 40-19.

A few grads can still recall that 79-13 walloping that Nevada gave Oklahoma City University in the golden days of 1948. That was nine years and many subsidies ago.

Probable starting line-up: Chuck Walker and Tom Whitaker, ends. Tom Friberg and Phinnie Marsh, tackles. Arden Gerbig and Clay Darrow, guards. Howdy Davis, center.

Don Hudson or Ken Fujii, quarterback. Chub Quilici and Gary Lundergreen, halfbacks, and Mike Lommori, fullback.

PROSPECTIVE DOCTORS TO BE INTERVIEWED

Applicants for the five-hospital school of medicine at Washington university will be interviewed here by W. B. Parker, registrar of Washington university.

He will answer questions of finance, programs, and school facilities.

Tom See, president of Nevada chapter of Alpha Epsilon Delta, honor pre-medical society, announced that Mr. Parker will be on the Nevada campus on Nov. 9, at 10 a.m. in room 109 of the Agriculture building.

Eighty-Seven men have been declared eligible to run in the annual Sparks to Reno cross country race tomorrow morning. The race, part of the Homecoming festivities, will start at 9:30 a.m.

It starts at the Sparks intermediate school, comes up Prater Way and 4th street to Center street. The course then turns up Center and continues through the school, down the south ramp into Mackay Stadium. One lap around the stadium ends the race. It covers approximately 4½ miles.

Defending champions, Sigma Nu, heads the list with 26 men running. They are followed by ATO with 23, Theta Chi 12, SAE nine, Independents six, and the Phi Sigs with four runners.

Last year's winner Lyle Damon, Sigma Nu, is ineligible to run because he has since lettered in track.

Originally 144 men turned out for practice. The list was cut to the present group because some failed to report for physicals, or practice. Others became ill and could not train.

The Runners and the groups they represent are as follows:

Lambda Chi: Jeff Blake, Don Brawley, Pete Breen, Larry Coleman, Al Garamondi, Dave Millard, Bob Robb, Clyde Rigger, Ted Rupley, LaVerne Rosse, Bob Sorenson, and Bill Vallandingham.

Theta Chi: Mike Cleary, Roger Mills, Arnold Tronsyano, and LeRoy Wenty.

Independents: Max Coffey, Lahr, Bill Myers, Jack McCune, Tom Trabert, and Frank Way.

Phi Sigs: Dave Allingham, Jim Christiansen, Joe Johnson, and Victor Williams.

SAE: Ed Allison, Ted Berrum, Ron Brodendorf, Bob Davis, Larry Kearney, Dick Robbins, Dennis Smith, Braden Stauts, and Chester Wood.

Sigma Nu: Dick Ankers, Fred Annand, Harry Allen, Bill Ermin, Larry Bailey, Boyce Burge, Don Cronin, Dick Dorworth, Tom Dougherty, Harry Ericson, Allen Gates, Murray Gifford, Ken Gray, Jim Harstad, Dan Heagerty, Richard Legarza, Carl Looney, Jim McCormick, Chuck McDonald, Byron Phillips, Bob Perchetti, Allen Pagni, Dale Prescott, Doug Salter, Ken Tollefson, and Don Zundell.

Samn Baugh holds the National Football League longevity record. He played 16 seasons as a pro.

UP Correspondent New Mines Editor

A Nevada journalism graduate, Robert E. Petrini, has returned to the campus as technical editor for the Nevada Bureau of Mines.

The appointment was approved by the University of Nevada Board of Regents October 4 and announced by Dr. Vernon E. Scheid, Dean of the School of Mines.

Petrini was a staff correspondent for the United Press in Reno prior to his appointment. Before that he had been editor of the Sparks Tribune for eight years.

The job will consist of editing technical publications of the Bureau of Mines.

UNIVERSITY 'N' BLAZES DURING HOMECOMING RALLY

A brilliant, glowing N on Peavine Mountain was seen by students attending the Homecoming pajama rally last night, for the first time in the history of the University.

Entertainment was provided by Spike Jones and his City Slickers, currently appearing at a downtown hotel.

Following the program at the old gym emceed by Chairman Carl Shaff, the students moved to Mackay Stadium where freshmen tossed dinks, ribbons, and bibles into a gigantic bonfire.

From there, pajama-clad students formed a snake dance down

Virginia street to the State Building where Coach Gordon McEachron introduced the football team.

Cheerleaders and songleaders lead school yells and songs with the assistance of the pep band.

Then there's the filling attendant who said to the customer in the new cadillace roadster: "Hello, stupid, what question did you miss?"

Woman sizing up acquaintance: "He'll give until it hurts, but he's very sensitive to pain."

Frosh Win Annual Field Day Events

University of Nevada freshmen without dinks will no longer need to fear the wrath of upperclassmen.

The freshmen class won a plaque and covered itself with glory Saturday, Oct. 19, when it won the annual freshmen-sophomore field day events.

The day started with the traditional painting of the Nevada "N" on Peavine mountain, continued with field day events in Mackay stadium, and ended with a dance in the old gym.

The badges of the freshmen class—dinks, ribbons, and "Wolf Tips", the freshman Bible — no longer need be supplied on demand to members of the men's and women's upperclass committees. By beating the sophomores in the afternoon's field day events the freshmen won the right to dress like people.

The day's events started when upperclassmen toured freshman living groups and homes awakening members of the freshmen class with warnings that they had five minutes to be ready to leave for Peavine mountain.

Nearly two hundred freshmen participated.

The afternoon events included a relay race and a tug of war. Both of these events were won by the freshman class.

Barbara Ruark, sophomore class president, said that the afternoon's events, arranged by her sophomore class committee, would have had a better turn out if the weather had been better.

Saturday evening events ended with a dance that was attended by nearly 250 students. The dance was held in the old gym and the music was provided by Rusty Balanger's band.

Plaque

The freshman class will receive a victory plaque paid for jointly by this year's freshman and sophomore classes. The plaque will be presented to the winner of the freshman-sophomore field day events every year and will be hung in the new student union now being constructed on campus.

WOLF PACK PLAYERS SEEK AID THROUGH PETITION

Every member of the University of Nevada Wolf Pack has signed a petition asking for aid for football players. The Board of Regents is expected to take some action on the petition at their Nov. 2 meeting.

Reserve Program Offered Majors In Home Economics

A new U. S. Army Reserve program to assist women college juniors and seniors in finishing their education has been received recently by Lt. Col. Charles E. Ronan, professor of Military Science and Tactics at the University of Nevada.

Any woman student majoring in foods and nutrition or institutional management who has completed either her sophomore or junior year may apply for enrollment under the program.

The plan offers more than $200 per month to accepted students who are attending college on a full-time basis. Upon graduation, the student will serve for a period as a dietician and commissioned officer in the Army Medical Service.

After acceptance in this program, the student will draw a total of $206.40 per month during her first four months. After four months, this amount will be increased to $211.60 until graduation. Out of this monthly allotment she must pay tuition and all other fees. Women who are accepted will be enrolled as members of the United States Army Reserve.

Clay Darrow, starting lineman for Nevada, is acting as spokesman for the team. The petition asks for one semester's room and board. Darrow stated that the players would be willing to work off their room and board if they were given campus employment.

Student Body President Don Travis has stated that he will do all he can to help the players receive some kind of aid.

Coach Gordon McEachron will back the team's requests as long they do not violate the rules of the Far Western Conference. The rules state that no grants of aid will be given to players unless they work for it at the same rate paid to other students working on the campus. Campus jobs pay $1.00 per hour.

New Equipment New Gymnasium

The new gymnasium is putting on a "new look."

The entire hardwood floor has been recently refinished. It was sanded down and repainted to prevent permanent damage to the floor. This included painting new boundary lines.

Two timers and scoreboards have been purchased by the school. They will soon replace those donated by the 20-30 Club in 1943. The new ones cost $514 apiece.

HUNDREDS PARTICIPATING IN FROLIC

DIRECTOR—Prof. Asher Wilson, who directed tonight's Wolves' Frolic for the third year, discusses the skit of the Artemisia-Manzanita association with Carol Stever and Pat Calhoun of the association.

11 SKITS BEING PRESENTED TONIGHT

By DEWEY BERSCHIED

Your show started tonight with the Hultberg twins, Joan and Jill—that was Jill on the right, or was that Joan?

Thetas

Anyway, the twins were followed by the Kappa Alpha Theta skit, "Fantasy in Blue." In the cast were Rita Woods, Francie Breen, Karen Gaffney, Kaye Reid, Versiellen Eberle, Karen Knudson, Marie McDonough, Cathy Zimmerman, De De Colton, Shelly Branch, Deanna Woodliff, Linda Bergin, Jolene Swearingen, Gay Brennen, and Fran Beer. Glenda Price accompanied on the piano.

ATO

The takeoff on the musical score of "Oklahoma" was by Alpha Tau Omega, directed by Jim Santini. Participating in the skit were Del Driver, John Sibbald, Dave Hoy, Butch Pepple, Mahlon Brown, Dave Harris, Paul Huffey, Bill Whit, and Al Alcorn. Al handled the scenery.

Tri Delts

Next on the program was the Delta Delta Delta sorority. Its skit, "Babes in Toyland," was presented by Margaret Eddleman, Marva Edwards, Janie Kottinger, Marian Coate, Joyce Lindsay, Vangie Smith, Nedra Norton, Grace Antonelli, Tricia Hugg, Lynn Walsh, Theresa Gibson, Jody McNally, Sharon Wendt, and Ginger Ivers.

Theta Chi

The death of "singer" Elvis was the doing of the men of Theta Chi. Just as they came on about three people stood up in front of me and I didn't see who was in the darn thing.

SAE

Let's see, oh yes, the next skit was that one called "Women, the Cause of Downfall of Men Through the Ages." In it were Steve Dollinger, Bill Kearny, Bill Salas, Bill Adams, Steel Houx, Norm Scoggin, Don Bernard, George Allison, Bud Borden, Al McVey, Tom McCann, Ed Alvarez, and Jim Laporte, all of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Artemisia-Manzanita

"Basin Street Dream" was the act you just saw. It was presented by the Artemisia-Manzanita association. The cast included Ramona Booth, Sandy Schliefer, Liz Wardleigh, Anne Tamony, Edith Rittenhouse, Gay Lane, Brenda Black, Billie Manning, Mimi oMrgan, Betty Edmundsen, Anita Taylor, Chris Rhodes, aPt Calhoun, Barbara Broer, Jean Aikin, Carol Stever, Gail Sprague, Rita Maness, and Sandy Pound.

And that's only half of it. Relax now, and get set for the second half of the show.

Independents

The skit coming up will be presented by the group from Lincoln Hall. It is titled "No, No, a Thousand Times No!" The cast includes three guys named Bill: Bill Heil, Bill Myers and Bill Tyson. The skit will have a chorus made up of Tony Bastanchury, Virgil Bucchianery, Gary Feathers, Don Marshall, Bill

Count, Gene Pieretti, Bub Whalen, Chuck York, and a guy named Bill from Hartman Hall.

Phi Sigma Kappa

Following the Independents is the Phi Sigma Kappa skit, "Mr. Magoo Goes Shopping." Lynn Peterson, David Hansen, Don Greenfield, Tom Leichinger, and Joe Johnson will make up the cast.

Charlie Myerson and Mayor Freedman will be next on the program. They will do a little harmonizing on the electric guitars.

Pi Phi

"Red Hot and Purple" is the title of the next skit. In the Pi Beta Phi skit will be Billie Morris, Theresa Mariani, Marilyn Ferrari, Martha Cleary, Barbara Ruark, JoAnne Todd, Sally Riley, Judy Gande, JoAnne Dumble, Sharon Teglia, Kay Kelly, Pat Potter, Karen Rietjens, Farol Spell, Kay Hicks, Elaine Zeitmann, Suzanne Kuypers, Myram Borders, and Marty Emery.

Lambda Chi

A western theme has been selected for the Lambda Alpha skit. The title will be something about a Horse and Gunsmoke. The cast will include Don Wilhoite, Niel Romero, Jim Westfield, Ken Oakberg, Bob Ness, Pete Breen, Dave Nyquist, Clyde Riggen, Farrell Overholser, John Gisclon, Ed Depoli, Fred Carlson, Frank Zilkey, Bob Morton, Leroy Arrascada, Frey Nye, and Bill Schroeder.

Sigma Nu

The final skit will be that of Sigma Nu. It is titled "Once a Year Day." It will be presented by Dick Ankers, Bob Ferreri, Don Kitts, Bill Eddleman, Carl Shaff, Dave Necco, Skip Melquist, Jim De Priest, Joe Ortiz, Bob Sillery, Mike Smith, Pete Looney, John Madariaga, Mike Dewees, Syd Muck, and Larry Brunetti.

The finale will come last—naturally.

After the show, how about a big hand for professor Asher Wilson. He has directed the Wolves' Frolic for the last three years. Wilson has been assisted by Trudy Brock this year.

Military Ball Scheduled for November 9

The annual Military ball will be held at the 20th Century club on Nov. 9, John Sibbald, president of the Cadet Officer's club, announced.

Committees for the first formal dance of the year have already been designated by the club. The committees are to handle decorations and tickets, music, and publicity.

Queen candidates from the five women's living groups will be chosen within the next two weeks.

Never raise a finger to a cranky child—particularly if he has teeth.

The trouble with opportunity is that it always looks bigger coming than going.

Homecoming Dance Tomorrow Night

Students of the University of Nevada will dance to the music of Dave Mathews' eleven piece band at the Homecoming dance tomorrow evening from 9 p.m. to 12 p.m. at the State Building, to conclude the festivities.

During intermission, Bill Brown, publicity chairman for the celebration, will present trophies to the fraternity and sorority winners of Wolves' Frolic skits, parade floats, cross-country race, and dance attendance.

Each couple will be charged $1.50. Chairman of the dance, Theresa Gibson, is anticipating a large turnout.

COCKTAIL PARTIES WILL BE HELD IN LOCAL HOTELS

Kicking off the Alumni end of the biggest Homecoming celebration in University history, a no-host cocktail party will be held at the Mapes hotel, following the Wolves Frolic.

Grads and former students have returned from all over Nevada, other parts of the country and even from Europe and the West Indies, Alumni Association director John Sala has stated.

Tomorrow Alumni will attend the parade through downtown Reno at 10 a.m., sorority and open houses at noon, and the Nevada vs. Western Colorado college football game at 2 p.m., in Mackay Stadium.

Reunion cocktail parties honoring the classes of 1932, 1947, and 1952 will be held Saturday evening from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. in various Reno hotels. The class of '32 will meet in the Holiday hotel, the class of '44 at the Mapes hotel, and the class of '52 at the El Cortez hotel.

Banquet

Alumni festivities will culminate with a banquet and dance at the Mapes hotel, beginning at 9 p.m.

Louise Gastanaga Walker is chairman of the '32 plans, Tosca Masini Means for the '43 event, and Joanne Wilson McDonough handled arrangements for the '52 activities.

Notables

Present this evening are such notables as H. R. Wolfe, student body president of 1942, who flew from Europe to attend the celebration; James W. (Rabbit) Bradshaw, '22, one of Nevada's football greats now residing in Fresno, Calif., and Oscar Bryan, '32, father of the student Homecoming chairman Dick Bryan of Las Vegas.

George Vucanovich of Reno is chairman of alumni activities for the celebration.

PI PHI'S HOLD SOCIAL WITH THETA CHI'S

Theta Chi fraternity and Phi Beta Pi sorority held a social last Wednesday evening in the basement of the Theta Chi house.

Dancing lasted from 7:30 to 9, with cookies and punch as refreshments.

NEVADA STUDENTS PROVIDED WITH ACCIDENT INSURANCE

Students are covered by accident insurance for the first time in the history of the University. The University Health committee has been working for about three years with various insurance companies to find a plan with benefits and rates to suit University students. Mutual of Omaha was the committee's final choice.

Students automatically bought the coverage for $2.50 per person at registration this semester unless they signed a waiver card. Out of the total enrollment, 1,650 students took out the insurance.

"Every student should know the conditions of their insurance policy and in case of accidents, should know how to receive the benefits," stated Dr. Ruth I. Sussell, chairman of the University Health service.

The policy covers up to $500 for any accident, 24 hours a day, in any town or state. Students do not have to be in the infirmary or be referred by the infirmary to receive the benefits.

Covered are such things as x-rays, casts, stitches, crutches, doc-for bills, medication, physiotherapy, any injury caused by an accident. It does not cover such sicknesses as the Asiatic flu or an epuendectomy.

A student with the insurance policy is covered, vacations included, until the day of registration second semester, even though he drops out of school.

If a student is already covered by another insurance policy and is in an accident, this policy will pay cash for the injury received, with the exception of workman's compensation.

No payment will be made for committing suicide or riding in an unlicensed airplane. This policy does not cover University athletes.

If in an accident, a student should get a claim form from either the infirmary or Dr. Russell, associate professor of physical education.

The members of the University Health committee are Dr. Ruth I. Russell, chairman; Dr. John E. Martie, Dr. Marilyn J. Horn, Dr. Robert Locke and Col. Charles E. Ronan.

WOLF PACK BOASTS SEVERAL FWC CONFERENCE STANDOUTS

Nevada may not have the winningest football team in the Far West Conference, but it does have some individual standouts of the conference league.

Don Morone leads the team in rushing... He has earned 128 yards on 14 carries for an average of 9.1 yards per carry. Mike Lommori is second in rushing with 87 yards on 22 carries for a 4.0 average.

Ken Fujii, the team's quarterback, leads the Wolf Pack in total passing. Fujii has completed 31 of 57 attempts to net 321 yards. He is fifth passer in the small colleges of the nation.

Tom Whitaker is Nevada's leader in pass receiving. He has caught 11 passes for a total of 138 yards. He is followed by Marone with 3 completions for 35 yards. Whitaker is tenth in small college pass receiving.

Whitaker heads the punting list with 417 yards on 12 punts for a 34.8 average.

These statistics are from Nevada's three conference games with Chico State, Cal Aggies, and San Francisco State. Nevada has also played Pepperdine and Idaho

State. The Wolf Pack has lost all the games with the exception of a win over Cal Aggies.

Morone, who leads the team in rushing and is second in pass receiving, will not play in the Homecoming game because of illness.

Remember the Wolves Frolic tickets are now on sale at the bookstore. If you want to get a good seat better buy now and avoid getting shut out. The frolic according to Director Asher Wilson is going to be bigger than ever before, so hurry and get your tickets.

FLU CASES ON CAMPUS AVERAGE 18-25 DAILY

The number of flu patients in the infirmary has been averaging from 18 to 25 a day, but this figure is still subject to rapid change, stated Dr. Ruth Russell, chairman of the University health committee.

Because of lack of space in the infirmary, students who live in Reno have been sent home instead of being cared for on campus.

When the infirmary became too crowded, a ward was set up in Lincoln hall. The ward was closed last Saturday when the number of patients became too small to warrant its expense. All patients are now being cared for in the infirmary.

The infirmary has arranged hours to enable students to come for aid 15 minutes before classes start.

The infirmary will hold special hours during the flu threat. Opening hours are at 7:45 a.m., but the infirmary will be closed from 11:30 to 12:45 a.m., and 5:30 to 6:30 p.m., to enable the nurses to serve lunch and dinner without interruptions from incoming patients.

Emergency cases are free to come any time of the day or night. The doctor's hours are from 9 to 10 a.m. every day.

No visitors are allowed at any time.

Experience is not what happens to you; it is what you do with what happens to you.

It was the kind of day that should have quit while it was still morning.

UN Directory On Sale Next Week

A new and handier edition of the U. of N. Student Directory will go on sale Monday in the Snack Bar. For the first time since 1944 the directory will be pocket size, 6½x4½ inches. It will cost one dollar per copy, but will be sold to the students at a special fifty-cent price.

The directory contains the names, addresses and telephone numbers of all the students, officers in student government and campus organizations and their committee chairmen.

Each student's name is listed in alphabetical order with his class standing, college, campus address, and telephone number.

Members of the undergraduate chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, the national journalistic fraternity, published the directory for the first time this year. They also sold ads for the directory so the book could be offered to the students at a lower price.

In the past the directory has been published by the News and Publications service under the auspices of the University administration.

Frats Sponsor Pledge Dances

Three fraternities, Alpha Tau Omega, Theta Chi, and Phi Sigma Kappa, held dances in honor of their pledges last Friday night. About 250 persons attended the three dances.

Phi Sigma Kappa held its semi-annual dance at Blarney Castle. Dave Mathews' band provided the music. Steak dinners for the fraternity men and their dates were served at the Castle before the dance. Danny Winter is the Phi Sigma Kappa social chairman.

The Valentines played at the Theta Chi dance in the ballroom of the Big Y restaurant. The dance was attended by about sixty persons. Social Chairman Tom Frost was in charge.

Alpha Tau Omega's dance was at Lawton's Hot Springs. Some 65 couples danced to the music of the Sophiscates. Vernon Durkee is the Alpha Tau Omega social chairman.

SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED

Five home economics majors of the University of Nevada were awarded Max C. Fleischmann foundation scholarships last week. A few scholarships are still available for the coming spring semester.

Barbara Broer of Hawthorne, Tumiko Ishii and Carol Armstrong of Sparks, and Ethel Crandall of Yerington received five hundred dollar scholarships. Mavis Morgan of Reno won a scholarship of three hundred dollars.

Nowadays, about the only thing you can't pay on the installment plan is the installment.

JUDY BROCK STARS

Campus Players Present Tragedy

Trudy Brock, a junior drama major and frequent figure on the University of Nevada stage, has the lead in "Antigone". This will be the first play this season for the Campus Players, an organization for the theatrically inclined.

"Antigone" will be presented Nov. 21-23 at 8:15 p.m. in the education auditorium.

The play is a Greek tragedy written by Jean Anouilh, contemporary French playwright. The story is based on the conflict of wills between a king and his subjects. Antigone is portrayed as a typical example of the Greek ideal of noble womanhood.

Backing Mrs. Brock, who plays the part of Antigone, will be "a wonderful cast," stated Professor Asher B. Wilson, assistant professor of speech and drama. The cast is Antigone, Trudy Brock; Creon, Bob Moran; Ismene, Gaye Lane; Haeman, Mickey McBride; Nurse, Pat Reynolds; First gunman, Dan Hulse; second gunman, Dean Kapsales; third gunman, Ed Foster; chorus, George Mross; messenger, Roger Joseph. Roger Joseph is also stage manager.

SAE HOUSE REMODELED

Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity recently completed remodeling its house at a cost of nearly $4000, house manager Steve Rucker announced this week.

Work was begun in early July and finished in late August.

Green tiled showers, costing about $2400, have been installed upstairs and down. Newly added red leather furniture, together with modernistic black and grey lamps and a white clock in the shape of the SAE pin, blend with the red brick fireplace and the brown tile of the den.

Moldings for the doors, baseboards around the floors, a banister going up to the second floor, and new screens for the windows have been also added. Outside trimmings have been painted a bright red, and a number of the individual rooms were done in a soft beige tone.

Many of the improvements were paid for by the SAE Mother's club and alumni.
