Aggie Comic Rodeo Tomorrow; 'Sodbusters Ball' Will Follow

The annual Aggie Comic Rodeo will be held tomorrow afternoon at Washoe Horsemen's Park. The rodeo will have eight events in which the ten living groups will compete, plus an event for the faculty.

Trophies will be given to all winners. A rodeo queen, to be chosen from five candidates, will reign over the rodeo and a dance tomorrow evening.

The candidates for Aggie Queen are: Renate Schroeder, Independents; Lynn Miles, Gamma Phi Beta; Linda Bergin, Kappa Alpha Theta; Ann Bengoa, Delta Delta Delta; and Nancy Vought, Pi Beta Phi.

The queen will be selected today at Horseman's Park, and crowned tomorrow during the rodeo.

The dance, the "Sodbuster's Ball," will be held tomorrow night starting at 8:30 in the Washoe Horseman's Park clubhouse, on Skyline Boulevard, southwest of the Reno golf course.

Beginning at 1:30 p.m., there will be four events in the rodeo for women, including a burro race and a pig chase. A trophy will be awarded to the women's living groups with the most points.

The men's events will be a cowhide race, wild cow milking contest, cow riding and a burro race. Trophies for the cowhide race and for the largest total number of points for the events will be awarded to one of the men's living groups.

The faculty also has an opportunity to compete for a trophy in a "professors pig chase."

Points will be awarded for the first four places in each event. Five points will be given for first place, three points for second, two points for third, and one point for fourth.

Admission to the rodeo is fifty cents per person, and seventy-five cents per person for the dance.

'Antigone' Scheduled For Nov. 21-23 By U.N. Campus Players

The redecorated education auditorium will open for the first time November 21-23 with the play "Antigone," presented by the Campus Players.

The work on the auditorium was begun Sept. 1, and should be completed in about two weeks, stated Mr. Robert C. Poolman, University engineer.

The best seats possible are being obtained, Poolman said.

The auditorium will seat 318 people.

The walls of the auditorium were repainted in a light pastel green. Green floor tile has been laid over the cement floor. Venetian blinds will replace the green shades on the windows.

Mrs. Trudy Brock, a junior drama student, has the lead in the play "Antigone," a Greek tragedy. Asher Wilson, assistant professor of speech and drama, is directing the play.

Nov. 6 is Last Day For Dropping Classes

November 6 is the last day that courses may be dropped or a student may withdraw from school without receiving grades. After November 6 a student may withdraw but will receive the grades on his permanent record that he has earned to that time.

Military Ball Will Be Held Next Week

Do you have a date for the 29th annual Military Ball?

Time is running out. The ball is scheduled for November 9.

The time—9 p.m. until midnight.

The place—the Twentieth Century Club.

The price—$2.00 per couple.

The proper dress—formal with the exception of corsages for the women.

Queen Candidates

Five co-eds, representing each sorority and the Artemisia-Manzanita Hall association, have been chosen as queen candidates.

They are Judy Buck of Delta Delta Delta, Theresa Mariani of Pi Beta Phi, Deanna Woodliff of Kappa Alpha Theta, Dolores Chambers of Artemisia-Manzanita and Lorelee Smith of Gamma Phi Beta.

Traditionally the girls will be presented under an arch of sabers formed by members of the Cadet Officers club.

Governor Charles H. Russell has been invited to crown the queen.

In addition to the governor, many other civic and military leaders of the area will attend.

Senior Student Struck By Automobile

Susie Kuypers, head cheerleader and senior student, suffered a leg injury last week when she was struck down by a car at the intersection of Ninth and Virginia Streets.

Accompanied by Elaine Zeitleman, president of Pi Beta Phi sorority, Miss Kuypers was crossing the road when the accident occurred.

The car was driven by an elderly couple who stopped to see if the two women had been injured. The couple then reported the incident to the police and took full blame for the accident.

Doctors have not yet diagnosed the full extent of the injury to Miss Kuypers' leg. She is presently using crutches and is rapidly improving. She also has several bruises and suffered a stiff neck for a short period of time.

Miss Zeitleman was hit but not seriously injured, suffering only minor bruises.

Brushfire Will Sponsor Contest For Art Students

The Brushfire, campus literary magazine, is sponsoring a contest for students interested in art.

Anyone interested in submitting their work should leave it at the art office in the temporary building, or with Ron Moroni, art editor of the Brushfire.

Sigma Nu, Tri Delts Take Skit Honors At Wolves Frolic

KAREN DECKER QUEEN

The newly reorganized independent students at the University of Nevada distinguished themselves in the Homecoming activities by claiming the Homecoming Queen, Karen Decker, and the winning cross-country team.

Sigma Nu and Delta Delta Delta won the Wolves Frolic skit competition, and Alpha Tau Omega and Gamma Phi Beta claimed the parade winnings. Pi Beta Phi and Phi Sigma Kappa received a trophy for the best represented living groups at the Homecoming dance.

Sigma Nu

The winning fraternity skit was presented by Sigma Nu, and was entitled "Once a year day." Presenting the skit were: Dick Ankers, Bob Farreri, Don Kitts, Bill Eddleman, Carl Shaff, Dave Necco, Skip Melquist, Jim DePriest, Joe Ortiz, Bob Sillery, Mike Smith, Pete Looney, John Madariaga, Mike Dewees, Sid Muck, and Larry Brunetti, Sigma Nu's chairman was Bill Eddleman.

Delta Delta Delta

Tri Delta's wining skit was the fourth winner in a row for the sorority in Wolves Frolic competition. This year's skit was entitled "Toyland." Participating in the skit were Margaret Eddleman, Marva Edwards, Janie Kottinger, Marian Coate, Joyce Lindsay, Vangie Smith, Nedra Norton, Grace Antonelli, Tricia Hugg, Lynn Walsh, Theresa Gibson, Jody McNally, Sharon Wendt, and Ginger Ivers.

Alpha Tau Omega

Alpha Tau Omega's winning float had the theme, "Forge on Alums." The float represented Vulcan, the god of fire, at his forge at the foot of a smoking volcano.

Gamma Phi Beta

Gamma Phi Beta's float depicted a large Trojan horse, with the slogan, "Trojan Salute to the Alums."

The independent men won the cross-country race with Dave Sharp taking first place.

VULCAN'S FORGE—Winning fraternity float in the Homecoming parade last Saturday was Vulcan's Forge, the entrant of Alpha Tau Omega.

Chedo Chuckovich

He's one of the few who got a second chance

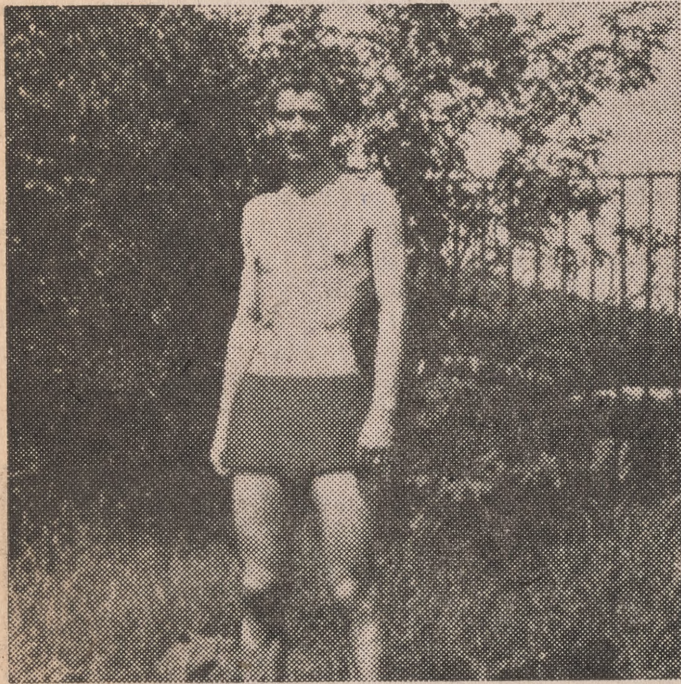

"I AM CHEDO CHUCKOVICH, lucky to live in America.

"For I have also been Chedo Chuckovich, man without a country.

"I was born in Belgrade, Yugoslavia. My father was co-owner of the Serbian-American National Bank. I had been educated in schools in France and Switzerland, and planned on a career in diplomacy.

"When I was 17, the Germans invaded my country. I fled with my family into the hills, and joined the guerillas. My father was killed. My brother was killed. I was wounded and taken prisoner, and starved for five years in a Nazi concentration camp.

"Two weeks before the war's end, the Canadians freed me. My family was dead or scattered. Our property had been confiscated. The Communists had taken over Yugoslavia. I was a man without a country.

CHEDO CHUCKOVICH: "I LEARNED THE HARD WAY YOU CAN'T TAKE YOUR FREEDOM FOR GRANTED."

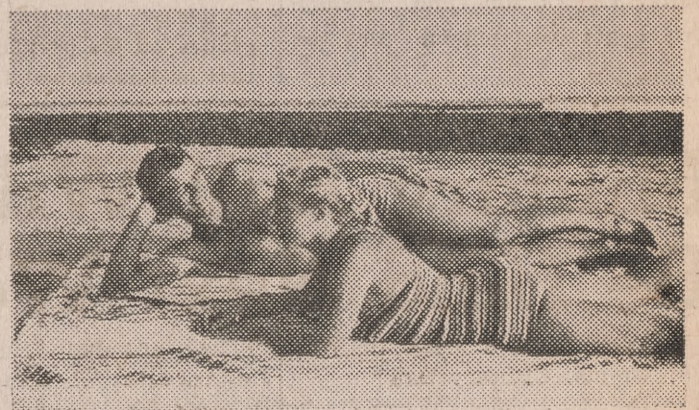

"But I was one of the lucky displaced persons. Unlike so many of the others, I got to America, and a new start.

"Today I am in business for myself, a Union Oil dealer in Pacific Palisades, California. I have money in the bank, a home, a car. I have the respect of my neighbors. I have friends and a future again. I will soon be an American citizen.

"I will work at my citizenship because I learned the hard way you can't take it for granted. You have to earn it.

"I know, because I'm one of the few who got a second chance at freedom."

For any concentration of power in the hands of a few—whether they be business men, financiers, industrialists, government officials or labor leaders—is, inevitably, at the expense of the majority.

Chedo's life underlines a basic truth, we believe: Wherever men would remain free, they must remain alert.

THREE INTRAMURAL SPORTS WILL BEGIN NEXT WEEK

Intramural schedules for basketball, table tennis doubles, and badminton doubles have been announced by Dr. G. A. Broton, director of athletics.

Basketball games will be held in the old gymnasium. Table tennis doubles and badminton doubles will be played in the new gymnasium.

Any team reporting later than ten minutes after the scheduled time will forfeit the game.

Because of lack of interest, there will be no table tennis singles played this year. This is also true of badminton singles.

The schedules are as follows:

Test your personality power

(A Freud in the hand is worth two in the bush!)

1. Do you chase butterflies in preference to other creatures of Nature?	YES	NO
2. Do you believe that making money is evil?
3. Do you think Italian movie actresses are over-rated? (Women not expected to answer this question.)
4. Do you buy only the things you can afford?
5. Do you think there's anything as important as taste in a cigarette?
6. Do you feel that security is more desirable than challenge?
7. Do you refer to a half-full glass as "half-empty"?
8. Do you think fads and fancy stuff can ever take the place of mildness and flavor in a cigarette?

If you answered "No" to all questions, you obviously smoke Camels—a real cigarette. Only 6 or 7 "No" answers mean you better get onto Camels fast. Fewer than 6 "No's" and it really doesn't matter what you smoke. Anything's good enough!

But if you want a real smoke, make it Camels. Only Camel's exclusive blend of costly tobaccos tastes so rich, smokes so good and mild. No wonder more people today smoke Camels than any other cigarette. How about you?

A NEW PRESIDENT -- SOME PITFALLS HE MUST AVOID

By JIM JOYCE

The University of Nevada Board of Regents is to meet tomorrow to act on the letter of resignation submitted recently by University President Minard W. Stout.

While the regents are expected to accept Dr. Stout's resignation, several matters are interesting for students to consider.

At any university, the position of president usually is one of honor and respect.

There is no reason why such a position should not demand the same honor and respect at the University of Nevada.

In the past years certain rabble-rousing members of the University of Nevada faculty have launched unmerciful attacks on the University president and the administration.

While freedom of speech is one of our most sacred liberties, certain faculty members have shamefully failed to use any discretion in their attacks.

They shove their attacks down the throats of students (many times freshmen) in their classrooms, which certainly is no place for such practices.

These persons may be protected by tenure and feel that they cannot be touched by the hand of authority. And maybe this is true. But this action will lead only to one end.

If this minority faculty group continues to use their classrooms and the minds of green, uninformed freshman students as their unholy tools to attack university presidents and administrations, we at the University of Nevada will find that we will not be able to find a man who will take the position of president of this university—much less a man who will fill that position with the dignity and respect it deserves.

Various names recently have loomed as possible successors to the position of University of Nevada president.

Four of the men being considered are Dr. Malcolm Love, a past president of the University; R. Guild Grey, superintendent of Clark County Schools; Dr. Dean McHenry, who headed a committee which investigated the University of Nevada in 1955 and presented a critical report on administrative policies; and former Nevada dean, John Bertrand.

Love

Dr. Love has been contacted and quoted as saying he is content with his position as president of a California school.

Grey

Grey, who left Reno under a cloud of controversy while he was principal of Reno High School, is very popular in Southern Nevada and has been directly responsible for a tremendous school program in Clark County.

McHenry

Dr. McHenry apparently has not commented upon any consideration he may have for applying for president.

Bertrand

The fourth person who is rumored as being considered for the position is John Bertrand, former dean of the college of agriculture here. Bertrand currently is president of Mt. Berry (Ga.) College.

At any rate, it will be interesting to watch the behavior of the previously mentioned faculty group.

If, through their actions, the new president takes disgust with the University of Nevada and washes his hands of this campus, it will be almost an impossibility to find a replacement who will not find himself the tool of a faculty clique.

One member of the board of regents recently said that unless faculty and students can support the new president, the University of Nevada may as well say goodbye to legislative support.

The manner in which the new president of this institution is received indeed will be interesting.

Ski Club Elects Officers Nov. 13

Officers of the University of Nevada Ski club will be elected at the first meeting, tentatively scheduled for Wednesday, November 13. The meeting will also feature a ski fashion show and a color movie on skiing.

Buster Sewell, president of the club, said, "the purpose of the Ski club is to promote fellowship between the skiers and non-skiers of the university."

"The University of Nevada Ski club has an outstanding reputation in activities a s compared to other ski clubs on the West Coast and in the nation."

The club's major activity is the support of the University of Nevada Winter carnival held the beginning of the second semester. The group also has several parties throughout the year at the various ski resorts in the area.

Lincoln, Hartman Residents To Be Pictured

Artemisia pictures of those living in Lincoln and Hartman Halls will be taken next week from 2 p.m. until 5:30 p.m. by Christian-sen Studios, 140 No. Virginia St. Members of the Cadet Officers club and Sundowners who have not had their pictures taken also may be photographed next week.

The following week, pictures will be taken of all Independents who do not live in campus dormitories, according to Cynthia Heth, Artemisia editor.

This year is the first year that those living in Lincoln and Hartman Halls will be pictured together in the yearbook.

Papers Published On Nevada History

Term papers written from first hand information by students of Nevada history may be published in a Nevada quarterly history magazine. The magazine, published for the first time since 1926, is being sponsored by the Nevada State Historical Society.

Dr. William C. Miller, professor of speech and drama, will edit the publication.

The first issue of the quarterly will contain part one of a paper by Dr. Miller on the Pyramid Lake Indian War of 1860, and part one of a paper by Dr. Russell B. Elliott, associate professor of history and political science, on letters from a Nevada doctor to his daughter in Connecticut during the years 1881-1891.

The publication will deal with the history of Nevada, eastern California, eastern and southern Oregon, Idaho, and Utah.

"Black Cat Cabaret" will be the theme for tonight's Kappa Alpha Theta pledge dance in the Bamboo room of the Holiday Hotel.

RESPONSIBILITY OF THE CITY -- 9TH STREET CROSSING

Is the Reno City Council ignoring the traffic problem of the University, or is it simply throwing up its collective hands in a gesture of, "The situation is helpless; why try to solve it?"

The intersection at Ninth and Virginia Streets has long presented a problem to both University and civic officials. In the past two years, two serious accidents have occurred there, and, already this year, a student has been injured while crossing Virginia Street at this point.

In a speech given to a University class in editorial writing recently, Glen Smoot, city traffic engineer, discussed the problem.

He stated, in effect, that a four-way stoplight has not been installed at this intersection due to the hazards during wintry weather. The grade is too steep to allow vehicles to regain momentum after stopping on the southern side of the intersection, or to permit safe stopping when approaching from the north.

Until the grade has been lowered, he said, there could be no stoplight.

Mr. Smoot further stated the "no left turn" sign had been fairly ineffective as it is not obeyed

It would seem apparent that there are numerous other approaches to the solution of this problem

First of all, the city has not even provided the University with crosswalks or school zone signs, afforded to any elementary or secondary school in the nation

Since the major part of traffic is coming in from the north, particularly around 4 and 5 p.m., when the Stead Air Force Base traffic reaches its peak, perhaps even a three-way stoplight could be installed if the four-way type is not feasible. This would allow for through traffic from the north.

Even a blinking yellow light would serve to warn approaching motorists.

Any of these suggestions would have to be accomplished by warning signs such as, "Slow Down! Dangerous Intersection Ahead," "Stoplight Ahead," or just plain "Slow!" placed a block or two above and below the intersection.

With or without stoplights, signs such as these would at least be a step in the right direction.

Perhaps traffic officials feel there are other matters more pressing and our problem will be taken care of eventually.

What could be more pressing than a real danger to human lives?

Nevada Income Leaflet Available to Students

Nevada ranked fourth among the states in per capita income, but was the only state which also showed a decline in per capita income for 1956. This was stated in a monthly leaflet dealing with the business situation in Nevada which is being put out by the College of Business Administration of the University of Nevada.

Journalism training can be a great asset to the creative writer, said Robert Laxalt in a talk to the Press Club Tuesday.

Laxalt is the author of "Sweet Promised Land." He is also director of the University news service.

He stated that journalism helps to teach a writer how to think clearly and to the point. It also increases and improves vocabulary.

SHARP LEADS INDEPENDENTS TO CROSS-COUNTRY VICTORY

The Independents dominated the annual Sparks-to-Reno cross country race last Saturday.

Dave Sharp led the Independents to victory by running the 4½-mile race in 23:19. Other Independents who placed were Frank Way, fourth; Jack McCune, sixth; Conrad Lahr, seventh; and Bill Myers, ninth.

Defending champions, Sigma Nu, placed second in team standings by putting three men in the first ten. Harry Ericson, standout of the ski team, placed second, Bob Perchetti came in third, and Dale Prevost placed tenth.

The other two men in the first ten were Tom Sheehan, ATO, fifth; and Ed Allson, SAE, eighth.

Of the 87 men originally scheduled to run, only 49 showed up at race time. Only one failed to finish. Earlier this year, 144 men showed intentions of running the race.

Kinnear trophy points were awarded to the first five groups. This trophy is awarded annually to the outstanding athletic group on campus. Cross country points are as follows:

	Place	Points
Independents	1	60
Sigma Nu	2	40
SAE	3	20
ATO	4	10

Wolf Pack Travels To Sacramento St.

Sacramento State College's once-beaten Hornets will oppose the University of Nevada football team at Sacramento's Grant Stadium tomorrow at 2:30 p.m.

The game, which is a homecoming affair for the Hornets, will be the first conference action in two weeks for both teams.

Last week, Sacramento State was idle, and the Wolf Pack lost a non-conference game to Western State College of Gunnison, Colo., 52-14.

Sacramento State, which lost to unbeaten Chico State 20-13, two weeks ago, will enter the game as a favorite. The Hornets, led by quarterback Fred Scot from a split-T formation, have scored 95 points in four games, while holding their opposition to 71.

The Wolf Pack will engage the Hornets without the services of left tackle Phinnie Marsh, who received a knee injury in the Western State College game, but three other first string linemen will return to action after a week's layoff.

Right guard Bob Brulotte and right tackle Dave Adams have recovered from the flu, and center O'Neill Sanders, out with a shoulder pointer, should again be ready for action.

DANCE CLASS OFFERED

You can improve your dancing by attending a dance class directed by Gay Brennan and Pat Heehs, University of Nevada physical education majors. The class is held on Tuesday evenings from 7:30 until 9:30 at the Reno Y.M.C.A. There is no charge.

Rifle Shoot Won By Independents

Adding another laurel to a growing list, the Independents won the intrafraternity rifle shoot this year with an overall team score of 534 points, the highest recorded in ten years.

The first four places went to (1) Independents with 534 points, (2) Theta Chi with 523, (3) Lambda Chi with 482, and (4) Alpha Tau Omega with 424.

Jonasen Tops

The individual high score of the shoot was recorded by Fred Jonasen, who shot with the second-place Theta Chi team. Jonasen scored 186 out of a possible 200 points.

Trophies and awards will be presented at the annual bean feed by the president of the Rifle and Pistol club, Dan Sobrio.

The winning team, Independents, will be presented with a large engraved bullet. The bullet is a revolving trophy which will pass on to the winner of the shoot every year.

The individual high scorer of the meet, Jonasen, will receive a silver belt buckle.

The three highest scores on the winning team will each be presented with bronze medals. They are Bob Oliver, Ray Salcedo, and Ruven Richardson.

This year is the first year no points were given for standings in the race for the Kinnear Trophy.

UN Sophomores Must Wait Year To See Home Football Win

Nevada football fans who had been somewhat immune to Wolf Pack gridiron losses were greatly disappointed by the humiliating 52-14 defeat suffered by the Wolf Pack at the Homecoming game with Western State of Colorado.

NEXT YEAR?

Sophomore students on campus will now have to wait until their junior year for a chance to see a Wolf Pack victory in Mackay Stadium. The Homecoming game was the last home appearance of the current football season. There has been no Nevada home win since 1955.

The only time this season that fans have seen the Pack perform undefeated in Mackay Stadium was the evening the team made its debut at the Fall Roundup in an intersquad practice session.

The score at the halftime of the Homecoming was a legitimate 19-7 scoreboard register, with Western State leading. However, in the second half Nevada came up with just one tally while the Mountaineers of Western State scored again and again, seemingly at will.

Viewers of the game had a chance to see Bill Shmaltz in action. The Colorado halfback, who made fame recently with his six-touchdown game, scored three touchdowns in the Homecoming game. He had a good start toward repeating this performance last week, but he was kept out during most of the second half.

Mountaineer coach Willard Pederson has trained his team into a fast moving, hard hitting squad. Pederson replaced his starting lineup with reserves during most of the second half, and even then the play was decidedly one-sided.

SMALL SCHOOL

The Mountaineers are not figured to win their conference (Rocky Mountain) championship, having been beaten by Idaho State. Colorado Western is located at Gunnison, Colo., and is much smaller than Nevada. It had an enrollment of eight hundred students last year.
