Ugliest Countenance Counts In Race for 'Coveted' Title

One of six virile Nevada males will reign in majestic "ugliness" over the 1963 "Ugly Man" dance tonight. His title, strangely enough, will be "Ugly Man."

Sponsored by Spurs, sophomore women's service organization, the Ugly Man dance is celebrating its third anniversary this year as a money-raising project for service projects. Only women can vote for Ugly Man, at a penny-a-vote. There is no limit to the number of votes a coed can cast, but balloting ends today at 2 p.m. in the dining commons.

Vying for the crown are John Culbert, Eric Davis, Jim Hectman, Wayne Kollodge, John Manke and Blair Phillips.

Expressing gratefulness to his living group for putting his face in the ring, one campus Ugly Man attributed his "ugliness" to "the guys who nominated me for this thing."

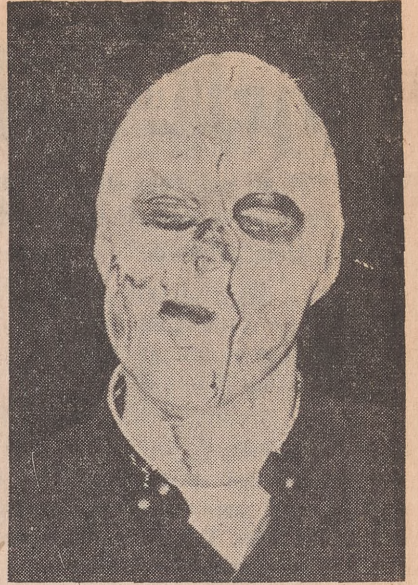

Many of the men seeking the title are, in fact, "good looking," according to Barbara Beesley, Spurs president.

"This is not really a campaign to find the school's ugliest man, but a popularity contest for outstanding students," said Miss Beesley, soothing the doubts of some candidates as to the intentions of their brothers and hallmates.

Dancing gets underway at 9 p.m. tonight in the dining commons with music by the "Classics," a campus dance band. Admission is 50 cents per person and 75 cents per couple.

Past Ugly Men have been Dick "Moose" Armuth and DeRay Lombardi, both members of Alpha Tau Omega. The question of whether the Taus can continue their "ugly" tradition for another year will be answered tonight at about 10:30 p.m.

Ball Gets Rolling On Junior Prom, Raffle Ticket Sales

Half a semester of planning, cajoling, and meeting by the Junior Class committee began to show results this week at the Junior Prom loomed only a week away.

Raffle tickets for the Junior Scholarship fund made their appearance last week, selling at fifty cents for one and three for a dollar.

Queen candidates will start their rounds of the fraternities Monday in the company of Blue Key members. They will be voted on at the dance.

Interviews Set

The latest in the spring series of job interviews are offered by Prentice-Hall, Inc., and Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company.

Students in any major wishing to work as college field representatives for Prentice-Hall may make appointments with the company representatives Wednesday, April 10.

GOVERNOR, COED VIEW PROCLAMATION

HOLDING A COPY of the gubernatorial proclamation designating March 31-April 6 as "University of Nevada Week" are Gov. Grant Sawyer and Audrey Chambers, 1963 Miss Nevada and drum majorette of the University of Nevada band. The theme of the week-long celebration will be "New Avenues to Learning." The week will conclude April 6 with an "Open House" for Nevadans and interested persons.

Rally Group Set; Yell, Song Leaders Under New Policy

Two changes in policy were approved by the ASUN senate last week to strengthen school spirit at athletic contests.

A reorganized policy for yell and song leaders, and the revival of the defunct Rally committee will be carried out through the senate steering committee.

The most important change concerns the selection of yell and song leaders, which will now be made by the Rally committee and head yell leader. Three males will be chosen as yell leaders, and the head yell leader will be a male. Three others will be women.

Songleader policy remains essentially the same with the exception of selection.

The Rally committee will consist of four women and four men representing at least three classes. The committee will be self-perpetuating, consisting of the same people from year to year, with senate filling any vacancies.

The committee will take charge of all rallies, decorating the goal posts, organize card stunts, and promote spirit in the crowd at games. The members will wear uniforms, but will not organize yells.

Steering committee chairman Ken Clayton said the policy was drawn up "in an effort to raise the status of cheerleaders and thereby increase school spirit and also help cheerleaders perform more effectively by putting their selection in the hands of the students where it belongs."

The male members of the steering committee made a special appeal for male students to try out for yell leaders. "Living groups should urge men to tryout for yell leader," said senator Larry Struve.

The committee has urged other interested men to try out but Art Kess, Laun Buoy, and Bill McGee are the only men trying out to date.

'Rights' Advocates Disappointed With Assembly Action

By MIKE SLOAN

The Nevada Assembly defeated the controversial civil rights bill AB-338 Wednesday 23-13, but the racial discrimination issue appears far from settled.

Miss Flora Dungan, Las Vegas assemblywoman, said she would move for a reconsideration of the bill Thursday, but predicted little success. The measure has been the focal point of some controversy on the University's Reno campus since six students attempted to show discrimination practices in the Little Waldorf bar Feb. 22.

Miss Dungan, in a statement directed to those students and faculty members at the University who had supported the bill, said that the opponents of civil rights have won a "hollow victory," and have brought shame on Nevada and the entire United States.

Supporters of the bill should not be completely disheartened, but should stand ready to renew the fight, she declared.

Dr. Erling Skorpen, asst. prof. of philosophy, one of the outspoken advocates of the civil rights bill, declared that "since the defeated bill would have helped minorities

Sagebrush Editorials . . . Cheerleading Cheers Up

Tryouts begin next week for varsity cheerleaders—and there is a new twist to the subject this spring. The number of male cheerleaders has been increased to three; and the only problem may be in getting men to turn out for a field that has been too long dominated by women.

Women have run the cheerleading-songleading circle for years. They have tried to do a good job, but there has been an undeniable decline in school spirit—while performance has improved on the field.

Lacking originality, the cheerleaders have lost their rooting sections, competing for attention with football and basketball players, and dividing the attention of spectators. This meant that two forces would be operating at games, with neither receiving the attention due them.

Under the new system, the cheerleading staffs will be equal—three men, three women. This will put new life into the program, while at the same time retaining the flash and spirit of feminine swirl.

The cheerleading program is looking good, thanks to the men who have already signed up for tryouts—Art Kess, Laun Buoy and Bill McGee—and to those who will sign up before tryouts begin.

What's Next?

The civil rights issue died (temporarily) Wednesday in the Nevada legislature as the assembly voted down AB 338—a bill that would allow persons to sue for up to $500 under claims of discrimination in public accommodations. The assembly actions means quite a few things.

First, that the legislated policy of the state of Nevada is not necessarily slanted the way some students have said it is.

Second, that the legislature recognizes the right of a businessman to run his business.

Third, that pressure for stonger civil rights legislation will increase in Nevada, perhaps even to the point of seeking federal intervention.

What effect this action will have on University students and faculty members who have advocated such legislation recently is hard to say. Their latest move, an ASUN senate motion endorsing AB 338, is as good as dead—closer, in fact, than it was when senate tabled the motion at its last meeting.

Whether there will be any movement begun, or noise raised, by these persons is hard to say now. It can only be hoped that they will not drag the University name into an arena where it does not belong.

The civil rights movement is down, but only temporarily. Its future is a matter of wait and see.

IFC Names New Officers

Rusty Nash, president of Sigma Nu, was elected vice president of the Inter-Fraternity Council at a recent IFC meeting. Also named to a new IFC post was Allen Craigmiles, Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Craigmiles will serve as IFC executive secretary.

Letters to the Editor

Rashdan Should Publicize Own Group

Editor, the Sagebrush:

In his reply to my letter, Mr. Rashdan brought up one good point, and I agree with him that "any group of people with similar interests can enjoy the structure of an organization whether it be on campus or not."

May I, therefore, suggest to Mr. Rashdan that he should let members of the CCUN (since they have similar interests) enjoy the structure of their organization.

I am not asking Mr. Rashdan to stop organizing a group. What I am saying is that he should publicize the interests of his proposed organization instead of making wild attacks on other organizations. He is likely to get more members this way; he may even get ME interested since a man can belong to any number of organizations on this campus.

Finally, just a matter of objection and, perhaps, correction. My surname is "Chirwa." If Mr. Rashdan wants to be friendly, then he should call me Sheridan — plain Sheridan—or, if he wants to be formal, Mr. Chirwa or Mr. Sheridan Chirwa, but NOT Mr. Sheridan, please.

Truly yours,
SHERIDAN D. CHIRWA

Launie Approves Black Editorial

Editor, the Sagebrush:

Some people have gotten the impression that I am opposed to every editorial that appears in the Sagebrush. This is not true. I am unalterably opposed to the Sagebrush's ostrichlike, head-in-the-sand posture on the racial problem. I must admit that this position is unexcelled for problem ignoring and status quo maintaining. It is, however, a somewhat awkward position from which to take action, and what is more, in this hostile world it is even dangerous.

But I am quite in agreement with Miss Black's editorial of Tuesday. The Post-sputnik university world is vastly different from that which went before it. Fraternities can make a place for themselves in this new world, but they can only do this by changing. Fraternities are under many stresses today of which the racial question is only one. The manner in which they respond to this and other problems of their changing world will determine whether they are flexible enough to survive. Ancient Rome, Fuedalism, the dinosaur and the Dodo bird have one thing in common, they were not able to adapt to a changing world, therefore they perished.

Sincerely,

Cal Dean Talks On Education

Dr. Dean Eugene McHenry, Chancellor of the University of California at Santa Cruz will speak on the Reno campus during the activity-filled University of Nevada Week April 4.

McHenry will discuss "Nevada and the New Direction in Higher Education". He will employ facts learned during a 1955-56 term as director of the State of Nevada University Survey in his research work.

The survey led to the publication of The University of Nevada: An Appraisal, produced in collaboration with the survey team in 1956. McHenry has written or co-authored 13 other books and monographs. His magazine articles have appeared in eleven important journals.

McHenry's first teaching assignment was at Williams College in 1936 where he instructed classes in government. He switched to political science when he moved to Pennsylvania State college in 1937.

Afer the war he took over as dean of the division of social sciences at UCLA. McHenry became chairman of the UCLA political science department in 1950.

Speech Societies Sponsor Great Western Tournament

Speakers and debaters will gather at the University of Nevada April 4-6 for the Nevada Great Western Championship Tournament, sponsored by Delta Sigma Rho and Tau Kappa Alpha, honorary speech societies.

The four categories for entries will be debate, oratory, extempore speaking, and after-dinner speaking.

The debate topic will be, "Resolved: That the Non-Communist Nations of the World Establish an Economic Community". Any team winning five of the six debate rounds will be awarded a "superior" rating.

If one of these "superior" teams wins all its debates, including at least one debate with another "superior" group it will be awarded the tournament championship in this division.

The oratory category will feature ten-minute persuasive speeches on any topic.

Extempore speeches will be on current national and international affairs, and will run from five to seven minutes.

Finalists in the after-dinner speaking contest will compete at a Hidden Valley County Club luncheon April 5.

The event is open to any college or university in the thirteen western states with a Delta Sigma Rho or Tau Kappa Alpha chapter.

Awards presentations at 12:30 p. m. Saturday in the Fine Arts theatre will conclude the event.

Correspondent Will Headline TUB Lecture

Robert Cohen, distinguished American news correspondent and documentary film producer, will present a film-lecture on "Inside East Germany" Wednesday at 8 p. m. in the education auditorium.

The lecture and all-color film is the third in "The World Around Us" series, sponsored by the Jot Travis Student Union.

Cohen will report first hand on how the people live in the part of Germany under Communist control.

Cohen, the first American to shoot films inside Red China, went to East Germany late in 1959. During an eleven-week visit he filmed over 10,000 feet of motion pictures. Students, faculty, and staff will be admitted to the program free. Admissions for others will be one dollar.

Calcutta Professor On U. S. Tour To Discuss Policy, Leaders of India

Purshotam Lal, an English professor from Calcutta, India, will make the University of Nevada one of his stops in a nation-wide college lecture tour April 1.

Lal will give two lectures at the University. His Monday afternoon topic will be "Three Renaissance Indians: Gandhi, Tagore, and Nehru," and that evening he will examine "India's Foreign Policy".

Lal is doing his speaking on a Fulton Travel Grant. In between his addresses Lal is revising the Indian entries in Crowell's Reader's encyclopedia.

After the current tour, which includes talks at the University of California, University of Chicago, and Utah University, Lal will be nearly ready for his May trip home.

When he is not teaching a class in Calcutta he will probably be writing poetry. His poems have been published in numerous Indian magazines, several American periodicals, and have been collected in two books.

Lal's school, St. Xavier's, is a Jesuit missionary operation, holding the oldest in India.

Potter, Day Talk On TV-Teaching

Teaching machines and closed circuit television were discussed by two University professors at a meeting at the American Association of University Women last week.

Dr. Donald Potter, director of the audio-visual center, and Dr. Willard Day, assoc. prof. of psychology, were the featured speakers.

Most large universities are now using closed circuit television in order to have the best quality education to teach large classes, said Dr. Potter. Research has proved that this system is successful.

Dr. Day said there are now programs for teaching machines in eight specific subjects including science, mathematics, foreign languages, language arts, and psychology.

The ideas used in "programs" are exciting, different, and stimulating to the person using the machine, he said. He also demonstrated some of the kinds of teaching programs to his AAUW listeners.

Dr. Potter explained the increase in production of teaching machines in the last few years and discussed types of machines now in use.

The psychology department is now experimenting with the machines.

Naval Information Team Visits Campus

A Naval aviation information team visited campus this week for the second time this school year. The team, a group of Naval officers and non-commissioned officers, travels in a large navy-blue van equipped with pictures and models telling the Navy's story.

The van visited the campus for three days.

AMONG MY KINFOLK

My favorite cousin, Mandolin Glebe, a sweet, unspoiled country boy, has just started college. Today I got a letter from him which I will reprint here because I know Mandolin's problems are so much like your own. Mandolin writes:

Dear Mandolin (he thinks my name is Mandolin too), I see by the college paper that you are writing a column for Marlboro Cigarettes. I think Marlboros are jim-dandy cigarettes with real nice tobacco and a ginger-peachy filter, and I want to tell you why I don't smoke them.

It all started the very first day I arrived at college. I was walking across the campus, swinging my paper valise and singing traditional airs like Blue Tail Fly and Death and Transfiguration, when all of a sudden I ran into this here collegiate-looking fellow with a monogram on his breast pocket. He asked me was I a freshman. I said yes. He asked me did I want to be a BMOC and the envy of all the in crowd. I said yes. He said the only way to make these keen things happen was to join a fraternity. Fortunately he happened to have a pledge card with him, so he pricked my thumb and I signed. He didn't tell me the name of the fraternity or where it is located, but I suppose I'll find out when I go active.

Meanwhile this fellow comes around every week to collect the dues, which are $100, plus a $10 fine for missing the weekly meeting, plus a $5 assessment to buy a headstone for Spot, the late, beloved beagle who was the fraternity mascot.

I have never regretted joining the fraternity, because it is my dearest wish to be a BMOC and the envy of all the in crowd, but you can see that it is not cheap. It wouldn't be so bad if I slept at the frat house, but you must agree that I can't sleep at the house if I don't know where the house is.

I have rented a room which is not only grotesquely expensive, but it is not at all the kind of room I was looking for. I wanted someplace reasonably priced, clean, comfortable, and within easy walking distance of classes, the shopping district, and San Francisco and New York. What I found was a bedroom in the home of a local costermonger which is dingy, expensive, and uncomfortable—and I don't even get to use the bed till 7 a.m. when my landlord goes out to mong his costers.

Well anyhow, I got settled and the next thing I did, naturally, was to look for a girl. And I found her. Harriet, her name is, a beautiful creature standing just under seven feet high and weighing 385 pounds. I first spied her leaning against the statue of the Founder, dozing lightly. I talked to her for several hours without effect. Only when I mentioned dinner did she stir. Her milky little eyes opened, she raised a brawny arm, seized my nape, and carried me to a chic French restaurant called Le Clippoint where she consumed, according to my calculations, her own weight in chateaubriand.

After dinner she lapsed into a torpor from which I could not rouse her, no matter how I tried. I banged my glass with a fork, I pinched her great pendulous jowls, I rubbed the legs of my corduroy pants together. But nothing worked, and finally I slang her over my shoulder and carried her to the girls dorm, slipping several discs in the process.

Fortunately, medical care for students is provided free at the college infirmary. All I had to pay for were a few extras, like X-rays, anaesthesia, forceps, hemostats, scalpels, catgut, linen, towels, amortization, and nurses. They would not, however, let me keep the nurses.

So, dear cousin, it is lack of funds, not lack of enthusiasm, that is keeping me from Marlboro Cigarettes—dear, good Marlboros with their fine blend of choice tobaccos and their pure white Selectrate filter and their soft pack and their flip top box.

Well, I must close now. My pencil is wore out and I can't afford another. Keep 'em flying.

Yr. cousin Mandolin Glebe

The hearts of the makers of Marlboro go out to poor Mandolin—and to poor anyone else who is missing out on our fine cigarettes—available in all 50 of these United States.

'Take Five'

By JOHN FIRPO

The mood of students on campus now could be likened to a similar mood of cattle on a cross-desert drive. The cattle have gone three-fourths of the way without water and suddenly the smell of H<sub>2</sub>O is in the air.

Students have traveled the same distance and thoughts of vacation—leisure time, travel, and more time with the opposite sex—loom overhead. In either case its STAMPEDE!!!

It's actually the home stretch, if you live for the weekends. Tomorrow's the annual Blackfoot-Whitefoot dance, then comes the Junior Prom at Hidden Valley, Easter vacation, two weekends of overnights, Mackay Day, the final four overnights, and finals the last two weekends.

If you haven't noticed, "Operation Mud" is underway. The waters of Manzanita are receding slowly. It may be completely empty just before Mackay Day. In the event, frats would have to substitute swimmers with "mudders" in the annual obstacle race. In any case, the lake's assorted contents should be interesting.

The Sagers put on a dance at the Rosemount Lodge last weekend. Watching the dance antics were Art Kess and Molly Jacobs, Bill Sinnott and Tammy Drake, Jinx Dabney and Andrea Desantis (variety is the spice of life); Bob Blair and Darla Groves, Charlie Steiner and Jackie Uhalde, Jim Elliott and Betty Webb, Tony Oxborrow and Lenore Owen.

Pi Phis were the bearers of goodies Monday night. They served each house with a box of lettered cookies.

Also on meeting night on campus, Lambda Chi pledges auctioned off house actives to the four sororities. With professional caller John Flournoy handling the bidding, Theta Cheryl Griffin paid $12.75 for three hours of work from Bill Saxton. Miss Griffin bid a quarter higher than Greek sister Mary Muth, to enslave Mr. Saxton. Gamma Phi Peggy Hayman paid a pretty penny for Steve Turner.

Scandalizing . . . what's this we hear about Independent Diane Pries breaking dates quite regularly with Phi Sig Ron Beaubien. Lambda Chi Harry Culbert's been seeing much of one Cathy Sturm of White Pine. Wonder why Theta Barb Beesley didn't get nominated for SAE's Little Sisters of Minera?

Carson City Jack Cooney been walking a well-worn path from his University Terrace apartment to the doorway of a certain neighbor named Morine O'Brien. Jack would like us to believe there's a shortage of sugar at home.

It was the month for romance. Tri-Delt Sue Foley and Bill McCollum were married last weekend. Tri-Delt Nancy Brown now wears the pin of Sigma Nu Steve Brown. IFC prexy Don Heath and Barbara Beesley announced their engagement. Theta Jean Nichols and Aggie Wayne Hage were married St. Patrick's Day. Pi Phi Doris Mequier is now engaged to former Snake Bill Leonasio.

Some scared passerby reported to police Monday night the Ku Klux Klan were burning a cross on a sorority front lawn. Investigation showed it was part of SAE's Little Sisters of Minerva ceremony.

Looking ahead to the summer, Frank Sinatra will open his Cal-Neva lodge May 20. A familiar and popular college act will be in Reno on April 30 when the New Christy Minstrels invade Harolds Club. Buddy Greco returns to the Mapes Hotel in May for an always swinging session.

Female P. E. majors take note: If your planning any nuptials soon, take a hint from an Iowa girls' basketball team advisor. After her team finished third in the state playoffs, she married her fiance and rushed off for her honeymoon—through an arc of TILTED BASKETBALLS (not crossed sabres).

Nevada Hosts Rifle Match

The Eighth Annual Nevada Invitational Intercollegiate Small-bore Rifle Match will be held at the University of Nevada Rifle range today and Saturday.

Seven teams will take part in the match. They are: University of California at Berkeley; University of California at Davis; San Jose State College; Montana State College, Santa Clara University; Stanford University; and the University of Nevada.

The revolving first place trophy was won by Montana State college in 1962. Other awards will be presented for second and third place teams as well as individual awards.

The awards will be presented by Glen "Jake" Lawlor, athletic director of the University of Nevada in the University Rifle range at 3:30 p. m., Saturday.

Cadets Practice Rifle Firing

Advanced ROTC cadets trekked to Hawthorne Naval Installation last week to practice on the Marine M-1 firing line.

Advanced students were given a demonstration of the Marines' fire power with such weapons as the .30 and .50 caliber Browning, the "Bazooka", the new M-14 automatic rifle, and the Marines' own riot gun.

Three high firers qualified for the rating of expert with the M-1 rifle. They were Dennis Golden, Art Mize, and Robert Parrish.

Weather Jinx Breaks . . .

Wolf Pack Outslugs COP; Takes Twin Bill, 14-9, 14-0

Coch Bill Ireland's Wolf Pack baseballers took advantage of good weather and defeated the visiting University of Pacific 14-9 and 4-0 last Tuesday.

It was the first time that the Nevada nine was able to play after having four consecutive dates and six games cancelled because of the poor weather.

The double victory gave the Pack a 2-1 record to date and set the stage for another doubleheader with Shasta College today.

Tomorrow the Pack will face the Santa Clara Broncos, the 1962 NCAA champions at Moana Municipal stadium.

Dennis Scott, who sports a 2-0 record, after Tuesday's victory, pitched strongly until the seventh inning when Ireland motioned to Don Collar to finish up.

Sherwin Minster blasted his second home run of the season with no one on in the fourth inning. He also topped the hitting department with a neat three for three.

In the second game, which was called after six innings of play, Don Banta went the distance with a four-hitter. Barry McKinnon's two-run homer was the game's big blow. It came in the fourth inning and assured the Pack of a clean sweep.

Sig Eps Top IFC Fall Ratings

Sigma Phi Epsilon led the Inter-Fraternity Council scholarship ratings for the third straight semester, according to an IFC report issued last week. The Sig Eps compiled a 2.43 house average, topping Sigma Nu, their nearest competitor, by .07 of a grade point.

The all-fraternity average, 2.29, was again above the all-student average, 2.26, said the IFC.

Other house averages were: Sigma Nu, 2.36; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 2.33; Lambda Chi Alpha, 2.31; Phi Sigma Kappa, 2.22; Alpha Tau Omega, 2.18; and Theta Chi, 2.14.

Skydivers Sked Practice Jumps

The University of California skydiving team will join University of Nevada divers in a two-day exhibition of the daring new sport Saturday and Sunday at the Carson City airport.

Eight men will come from Berkeley for the event. They will be representing the oldest collegiate parachute organization in the country, according to a Nevada skydiving spokesman.

Men from Nevada that will compete with the Californians include Bob Barrail, Joe Fallini, John Barney, Ron Lee, Terry Ward, and Pete Chapman.

The Nevada divers have high hopes that plans will materialize for a national collegiate parachute competition in Orange, Massachusetts early in May.

Stix Receives Portal Trophy

Dave Stix, one of four division champions in the recent California Intercollegiate Boxing Championships has been awarded the Portal Trophy for his outstanding performance.

Another big moment for Nevada came when the tournament officials scheduled the 1964 CIBC contest for Reno.

This date is an important one for the Nevada fighters, for next season's tourney will be in the middle of an Olympic year, and Wolf Pack ringmen will have a good chance at the U. S. Olympic boxing team.

Stix decisioned John Thomson in the tournament to become CIBC 156-pound champion. He fought spirited matches all season, frequently carrying fights to his opponents.

The Portal Trophy is named after the late San Jose boxing coach De Witt Portal. The last man from Nevada to win it was Joe Bliss, who was given the coveted award in 1960.

Independent Coeds To Pick Candidate

Off-campus independent women will select their candidates for 1963 Mackay Day queen at a meeting of the AWS off-campus Independents Monday. Any off-campus Independent senior woman is eligible for the nomination.

The meeting is scheduled for noon Monday in room 104, education building.

About 350 women are eligible to attend meetings of the off-campus group, but attendance has been small at past meetings.

Wolf Pack, Gators, Aggies Collide at Davis Today

By TOM DYE
Sagebrush Sports Staff

The University of Nevada will meet San Francisco State, and the Cal Aggies in a triangular meet in Davis Saturday afternoon. Field events will begin at 1:30 p.m. and the running events will start at 2 p.m.

Coach Dankworth sees San Francisco State and the Cal Aggies as two of the top contenders for the conference championship.

Dankworth added that this meet will give Nevada "a good idea of the strengths and weaknesses of the two teams."

Both the Cal Aggies and S. F. State competed against Nevada in the Davis Relays, but it was difficult to tell how strong they were individually since most of the races were relays.

San Francisco State is strong in the distances, boasting a talented twosome in Bill Morgan and Craig Spillman. Both have run close to 9:10 in the two-mile. Doug Ketrone is Nevada's top man in the event, and holds the school record of 9:10.3.

Another exciting contest should materialize in the mile. Ron Lee has an all-time best of 4:12.3 and Bill Morgan has run 4:16. The Cal Aggies also have a runner who has been timed in the 4:20's.

San Francisco State has two top broad jumpers in John McGregor and Louis Goins, who placed one-two in the Far West Conference Meet. Al McDaniels and Joe Winchell have jumped around 22 feet and will be Nevada's top threat in this meet.

Norm Eliason, San Francisco State's top intermediate hurdler, will oppose Steve Holloway and Al McDaniels of Nevada in the intermediate hurdles. Another close contest should develop here.

Nevada will have three top quarter milers running at the meet in Bob Rusk, Fred Williams and Fred Fralich. All three ran in between 48 and 49 seconds last year. Ken Stevenson has been timed at 49 seconds in the quarter and will be top contender in this event.

Larry Smith of Nevada and Fox of the Cal Aggies have both thrown the javelin over 200 feet. Fox beat Smith in last year's conference meet by seven inches.

Another interesting race should come in the half mile. Richard Langsdorf of San Francisco State has run 1:56 already this year. Bud Forman and Sam Rutland of Nevada both have all time bests of 1:54 and 1:55 respectively, but should be pressed in this race. Another Aggie has bettered two minutes this year.

Nevada will have its first home meet of the season the following week, a dual contest with the University of Pacific.

Nevada Range Hosts Smallbore Match

The annual shoulder-to-shoulder smallbore rifle match for members of the University of Nevada Rifle team was held at the University Rifle range last week.

The purpose of this match is to determine the winner of the National Rifle Association's bronze medal, awarded each year to the high shooter of rifle teams affiliated with the NRA.

William Tafuri, a junior, from Pacific, Calif., was high scorer with 285 x 300. Carl Koizumi and Don Drake, both from Reno, were second and third respectively with scores of 281 and 276 x 300.

LIEUTENANT BOB AKAM, B.S. IN AVIATION ADMINISTRATION

"If I had it to do over again, would I take Army R.O.T.C.?"

Look at it this way. I like the idea of doing challenging work. That's why I volunteered for Special Forces. So you can see why I felt pretty good when the Army assigned me to Europe! Here I really feel I'm doing something for the cause of my country in these important times. How many jobs can you think of that start you off with this kind of responsibility? My wife's here, too, and she loves it. We get a chance to travel. We meet the people, learn new languages, customs. And there's a pretty active social life on post, too. But above all, I'm an officer with a job to do and with responsibilities to shoulder. I like it that way, and I have a hunch that my leadership training and experience will help me out whatever I do. Take it from me, if you're already half-way towards your commission, see it through. It's a good deal. I know."

Alums Welcome at University Week

Alumni from the University of Nevada from throughout the state are being invited to return to the campus April 6, for a buffet dinner which will conclude University of Nevada Week activities.

President Charles J. Armstrong will be the featured speaker. His topic will be the state of the University.

University Week, scheduled for

March 31 through April 6, will feature displays on the theme of "New Avenues of Learning" being employed on the Nevada campuses. All activities during the week are open to the public.

Data Processing Center Aids University

The University of Nevada's Data Processing center is located in the basement of the Home Economics building. The center, established in 1959, works in the areas of research, administration, and education.

Data processing systems ordinarily consist of a combination of units including input, storage, processing, and output devices. They are designed to handle business or scientific data at electronic speeds with self checking accuracy.

The key element of these systems is the processing unit, a high-speed electronic computer.

These electronic data processing systems are a post-World War II innovation. Within two decades, they have gone from experimental laboratory equipment to machines whose capabilities are exceeded only by the range of applications to which they can be put.

The center works directly under the office of the Dr. Kenneth Young, executive vice president, and is under the supervision of Mr. Richard N. Meyer.

The data processing equipment on campus is used by the registrar, the business office, and for educational purposes and research. The registrar uses the equipment for faster student registration and record keeping, and for compiling final grades for the student body. The business office uses it for payroll checks and other financial accounting.

... Rights

to gain the rights the majority take for granted, and since it would have created more favorable conditions for genuine equality and brotherhood, the true American cannot help but be disappointed that it did not pass.

It is moreover a matter for concern that opponents of the bill chose not to enter into any discussion of its merits with its supporters, but kept silent until it was time to vote, he said.

Another ardent champion of the bill, student union senator Dave Cooper, who had been instrumental in bringing an endorsement motion before the ASUN senate, said it was a shame the Assembly failed to pass the measure. The Negro will now probably be forced to take more militant action to obtain his equal rights, said Cooper.

And, as if in echo of Cooper's warning, members of the Nevada chapter of the NAACP met Wednesday night to plan protest demonstrations in Carson City, Reno and Las Vegas. Members of the Negro delegation in Carson City promised retaliation and described "the average white American as a hypocrite."

Cooper predicted that the ASUN senate resolution, which was tabled at the last meeting, will probably die as a result of the legislative action.

... Rally Group

Selection of song and yell leaders and the Rally committee will be made Friday, April 5, at 2 p.m. in the New Gym. Practices will begin Monday at noon, and two practices will be held at 3 p.m. Monday and Wednesday at Mackay Stadium.

Anyone who cannot make the 2 p.m. tryouts April 6 should contact steering committee members or the cheerleading committee.

The cheerleading committee members are: Jaci Chiatovich, chairman; Donna Martin, Dick Armuth, Art Kess, and Bill McGee.
