Yuletide Meal Features Song By Madrigals

A traditional Elizabethan Christmas atmosphere will prevail at a "Madrigal Dinner" tonight at 7:30 in the University dining commons. It will feature entertainment by students and faculty in a group of madrigal singers and a recorder choir.

Madrigal singers are: Fran Baker, Eloise Ekker, Ruth Rahman, Dana Stafford, Candace Galster, Anne Flower, Sheridan Cathles, Joseph Battaglia, George Lundgren, Marvin Hogge, Gary Farnsworth and Paul Hickman, with Jerald Reynolds, music instructor, as director.

The singers, in costume, will perform traditional Renaissance and modern madrigal music. Madrigals were originally sung for the vocalists' own enjoyment, but evolved into a specialty in which entertainers sing while sitting around a table. Madrigal singing was especially popular in 16th and 17th centuries.

Another special attraction of the dinner is the recorder choir, made up of: Mrs. George Warner, Mrs. Kinley Bauer, Emily Cook, Marjorie Martin, Prof. Kinley Bauer, Dr. Robert Gorrell, Prof. Felton Hickman, and Felton Hickman, Jr.

The recorder is an ancient wind instrument, forerunner of the flute, prevalent in Baroque and pre-Baroque times. There has been a revival of interest in recorders recently, and almost all college campuses have active recorder groups, said Prof. Hickman, director of the group.

"This dinner is an opportunity for everyone to start the season off with the old spirit of Christmas, which we tend to get away from," said Mr. Reynolds.

JFK Memorial Set To Give Library Presidency Books

The "John F. Kennedy Memorial Fund," sponsored by the Political Science department, is being collected to purchase books on the governmental process, emphasizing those writings dealing with the office of the American Presidency.

All books acquired with this fund will bear a special memorial bookplate according to David W. Heron, Director of Libraries. The names of all donors will be listed and retained permanently in the library. "Plans are being made for possible housing of the collection in a special reading room," said Heron.

"This fund gives us all the opportunity to participate in creating a lasting memorial to former President John F. Kennedy," said Dr. Eleanore Bushnell, chairman. "It is especially fitting in that he was also a writer and scholar."

Cash contributions may be made to any member of the Political Science Department staff, or to Mrs. Running, the department secretary in Room 42, located in the basement of Getchell library. Checks should be made payable to the University of Nevada, with "John F. Kennedy Memorial Fund" noted in the lower left hand corner. All contributions are tax deductible.

Matching funds on a two-to-one basis for every dollar contributed towards the purchase of books under the memorial plan will be met by the Max C. Fleischmann Foundation as a specific part of the current Foundation-sponsored program covering all donations to the University of Nevada for the purchase of library books.

Solons To Fill Court Vacancy; Senate Seats

The ASUN senate will elect a new Student Judicial Council justice and appoint two senators to fill vacancies at its regular meeting Wednesday.

The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Agriculture Conference room. The senate must fill the position of Student Judicial Council justice, left vacant by Jim Sinašek, who has withdrawn from the University.

The other positions are Arts and Science senator and School of Mines senator. The Arts and Science seat was vacated by Steve Muller, who has also withdrawn from school. The Mines senatorial position has been open for some time. There was no one running for the seat in the last election.

The ASUN executive committee met yesterday to make nominations which will be presented to the senate Wednesday night. The executive committee is made up of Jim Acheson, ASUN president; Larry Struve, first vice-president; Marsha Deming, second vice-president; Mary Rossolo, AWS president; and Keith Lee, senate representative.

To be eligible for a justice position, a student must be regularly enrolled in the University and in good standing, have a minimum grade average of 2.2, upperclass standing in the respective college, and no previous violations of the Social Code on the permanent record.

To qualify for senate a student must be a member of the ASUN and have a minimum grade average of 2.2.

Senators will also hear reports from Larry Struve, chairman of publications and finance control board, on those two boards. A report from the committee studying the possibility of a new ASUN constitution is also expected.

Pictures of the senators will be taken at the meeting for the Artemisia, campus yearbook.

Regents Approve 'Hardship' Budget

A "hardship" budget totaling $7,927,561 for operation of the Reno and Las Vegas campuses of the University was approved by the Board of Regents Saturday.

"There is really no way to describe it other than a hardship budget," said President Charles Armstrong in presenting the proposed work program for the 1964-65 fiscal year to the regents.

"Unless the legislature can devise some means of raising more money for the support of the University, the work of years in building the institution to its present level will be undone," said Armstrong. He said that he could see no other tangible prospects for financial relief in sight during the next fiscal year.

The funds available for general University operation in 1964-65 is an increase of $448,827 or 6 per cent over this fiscal year. Armstrong said that the budget increase is not very much considering the enormous enrollment increase.

Emphasis in the 46-page budget, prepared by Neil Humphrey, University business manager, is on the Southern Nevada campus. Enrollment increase on the Las Vegas campus was 36 per cent this year. There was only a 7.8 per cent enrollment increase on the Reno campus.

The 1964-65 increase is estimated to be 30 per cent more at Nevada Southern and 11 per cent enrollment increase in Reno.

Chief demands on the budget include:

Blood Bank Drive Needs More Push

A University Blood Bank committee headed by Dr. Sam Basta, dean of student affairs, met Friday to review the results of the recent blood drive on campus.

The attempts to solicit support to establish a voluntary system of providing blood to members of the University family in times of emergency were termed unsuccessful by the committee.

During this semester's registration a table was set up for voluntary blood donors. Only 50 students signed up.

Committee members voted to stage a highly intensified publicity campaign to recruit blood donors. Again, a table will be set up for the blood bank during registration in January. By then it is hoped that more students will be familiar with the bank's operation.

Committee members are Dean Basta, Capt. Charles Fulkerson, Jim Acheson, ASUN president; Mary Rossolo, AWS president and Chuck Dromlack and Ken Robbins of the University News Service.

OLD ASUN BUILDING TO BE RAZED

Another University building will be torn down soon. The old ASUN building on Center Street which has housed varied sections of the University Community was voted to its destruction by the Board of Regents Saturday.

A motion was made and approved that bids for the demolition of the old ASUN building be sought.

The stucco-type cement building by the University gateway has served as the student union, the Sagebrush office, and faculty and administrative offices in the past.

Students Quiz Dr. Armstrong

Thursday night, University President Charles J. Armstrong will be the central figure of an ASUN sponsored panel discussion entitled "Meet the President." All University students and faculty are invited to the discussion which begins at 7:30 in the Travis Lounge, on the main floor of the Student Union building.

The program, which was planned by ASUN President Jim Acheson, will include four student panelists. They will ask President Armstrong questions of general campus concern in addition to more specific questions on student problems.

After each question those in the audience will be given an opportunity to ask questions on the same subject.

Some of the questions deal with University regulations, Dr. Armstrong's role as administrative chief of the University, the honors program, Desert Research Institute, and various other aspects of the University.

The panelists are Acheson, Larry Struve, ASUN first vice-president; Dave Cooper, Student Union Board member; and Pat Rogero, Sagebrush editor.

This is the first time such a program has been offered on the campus. It was originally scheduled for November 26. It followed so closely behind President Kennedy's assassination that Acheson thought it would be better to reschedule the event.

High School Program Set For Saturday

About 30 high school students have accepted invitations to the "Get Acquainted with the University" program, scheduled for Saturday, December 15. ASUN President Jim Acheson expects about 90 more acceptances before Saturday.

The program was set up under the direction of Acheson to encourage more students of high scholastic quality to attend the University. Through the program, he feels that prospective college students may take a second look at the University before applying to an out-of-state university.

Behind the scenes planning for the day have been going on for many months. Acheson has contacted high school principals from Reno, Sparks, Manogue and Wooster to obtain names of students with high scholastic achievement. In addition to this work he has secured students and faculty members from various academic departments to help with the program.

Many of the most favorable qualities of the University will be shown including the nuclear reactor, the computers and the electron microscopes. Students interested in the arts as well as the sciences will have an opportunity to talk with students and faculty representatives from the various departments.

About 175 students were invited to participate in the program which will last from 2 p.m. until about 5:30 p.m. It will begin in the auditorium of the Scrugham Engineering-Mines building with talks by Dr. David Hettich on the honors program and Dr. Donald Tibbits, who will speak on the University. Students will then break up into groups and talk of the professors who represent departments in which the high school students are interested.

They will then view the reactor and other interesting devices on the campus. The program will end with a showing in the Atmospheric-Plantetarium.

There will be 25 professors and between 35 and 45 University students on hand to help.

MEET THE PRESIDENT

Thursday evening students will have the rare opportunity of meeting with University President Charles J. Armstrong in an informal gathering. The occasion is a "Meet the President" panel discussion. It is the first time such a meeting has been set up on the campus.

It will be a good time for students to ask questions about the University of a man who really knows. So often jokes are bantered about that the President is never here. The reason is that he is heard from on very few occasions. This discussion Thursday night will be a time for students to see him and hear him answer questions of general and specific concern about the University of Nevada.

He is putting himself in a "wide open" position since some of the specific questions will require specific administrative stands.

Members of the University community should attend this function since questions will run the gamut from Dr. Armstrong's job as University President to the Desert Research Institute. Attendance will also be a courtesy to the President for taking his time to met with the students.

crease include minimum salary hikes, catching up with enrollment increases that exceed estimates, and providing token assistance to developing graduate programs.

President Armstrong said that the salary increase would enable the University to do no more than hold its same ranking nationally and regionally in a "sellers" market aimed at luring outstanding teachers from other campuses.

The proposed budget distribution is as follows: General administration, $279,000; general expense, $1,085,644; instruction, $3,582,109; organized research, $640,267; extension and public service, $450,654; library, $614,809; operation, $1,053,998; total, general University operation, $7,937,561.

Of this total, $6,344,561 was appropriated by the legislature. The remaining funds will be collected from student fees and tuition, rent incomes, investment earnings and interest and federal subventions.

"The task of stretching this budget has not been easy," said Armstrong. "We are going to have to tighten our belts to the last notch and live with it."

German Club Party

The German club will hold a Christmas party Thursday, December 12 at 7 p. m. in the Travis lounge of the Student Union.

The program will include the singing of traditional German Christmas songs in German. A Christmas tree will be lighted with wax candles and the Biblical story of the birth of Christ will be read in German.

Club members will exchange small gifts and refreshments will be served. Anyone interested may attend the party.

Handel's Messiah Ushers In Christmas Spirit

The spirit of Christmas was vocally ushered into the Reno area Sunday night by the University's annual "Messiah" presentation.

Directed by Dr. Keith Macy, professor and chairman of the music, the University Symphonic Choir and Band performed Handel's immortal Christmas oratorio for an estimated audience of 2,000.

Taking the solo parts in the "Messiah" were Ruth Rahman, soprano; Shelby Squier, contralto; Joseph Battaglia, tenor; and Jerald Reynolds, baritone.

The "Messiah", written in 1741 by George Frederick Handel, has been performed in Reno since 1927. It is said to be one of the major choral productions given the world over.

The performance has traditionally been a Christmas gift from the University to the community.

King George II heard Handel's "Messiah" in 1743. He was so moved by the music that he stood for the last chorus, the famous "Halleluia Chorus". It has since become tradition to stand for the chorus.

CCUN LECTURE

A contemporary lecture by Ali Amed on his native Sudan will be given Thursday, December 12 at 7 p. m. in room 139 Fine Arts building. Ahmed majors in electrical engineering at the University.

The lecture is sponsored by the Collegiate Council for the United States. It is one of CCUN's Foreign Student Lectures.

THIS FAMILIAR FACE will be making many appearances on campus for the next several days. Santa's ever-bountiful bag will be emptied at the hands of underprivileged children in the area and many holiday-happy students.

TUB Membership Widened By Board

The Student Union board of directors has amended its constitutional requirements for membership in an attempt to make membership available to a greater portion of the student body.

At the present time directorships are restricted to one from each college, and one "at large" representative. Those desiring director positions must also have devoted one previous semester of service on one of the various committees. An over-all grade average of 2.0 is also required.

New stipulations will be to judge the candidate on the basis of worth to the board. There will be no restriction as to colleges, or affiliation.

"The full semester work requirement is enforced to judge the individual's capabilities to serve the board, and to make the decision as to which committee his talents would be most useful easier," said Dave Cooper, TUB publicity chairman.

U.S. President Cannot Appear At Graduation

Governor Grant Sawyer said that President Lyndon B. Johnson, who had been invited to appear as the University of Nevada's June commencement speaker and to attend centennial ceremonies on Admission Day, 1964, may not be able to keep either date.

Governor Sawyer returned from Washington, D. C., Wednesday and reported his activities there to Nevada newsmen. In an hour-long conference at the new Reno Press Club in the Riverside hotel.

Twenty-four Student Nurses Receive Caps In Ceremony

Twenty-four sophomore nursing majors received caps in ceremonies held in the education auditorium Sunday.

The traditional convocation honors sophomores who have completed successfully one and one-half years in the school of nursing. Students are not allowed to wear the caps until they receive them formally at the convocation.

The Florence Nightingale pledge was recited and replicas of the Nightingale lamp were lighted to signify the search of knowledge in medicine and service.

Those capped were: Connie Biglin, Jean Briel, Lee Bloomfield, Heather Busching, Priscilla Choy, Roger Courson, Sue Craven, Nancy Englehard, Mary Ann Goodwin, Shirley Heinen.

Carolyn Hicks, Karen Isbell, Nancy Johnson, Barbara Jones, Gretchen Kaiser, Karen Phillips, Jeanette Phoenix, Roberta Porterfield, Nancy Pugsley, Mary Swallow, Claudia Treharne, Jackie Uithoven, Marjorie Uehling, and Jeanette Wilde.

'TIS THE SEASON TO BE JOLLY

If you have been reading this column—and I hope you have; I mean I genuinely hope so; I mean it does not profit me one penny whether you read this column or not; I mean I am paid every week by the makers of Marlboro Cigarettes and my emolument is not affected in any way by the number of people who read or fail to read this column—an act of generosity perfectly characteristic of the makers of Marlboro, you would say if you knew them as I do; I mean here are tobaccoists gray at the temples and full of honors who approach their art as eagerly, as dewy-eyed as the youngest of practitioners; I mean the purpose of the Marlboro makers is simply to put the best of all possible filters behind the best of all possible tobaccos and then go, heads high, into the market place with their wares, confident that the inborn sense of right and wrong, of good and bad, of worthy and unworthy, which is the natural instinct of every American, will result in a modest return to themselves for their long hours and dedicated labors—not, let me hasten to add, that money is of first importance to the makers of Marlboro; all these simple men require is plain, wholesome food, plenty of Marlboros, and the knowledge that they have scattered a bit of sunshine into the lives of smokers everywhere; if, I say, you have been reading this column, you may remember that last week we started to discuss Christmas gifts.

Do you know someone who is interested in American history?

We agreed, of course, to give cartons of Marlboro to all our friends and also to as many total strangers as possible. Today let us look into some other welcome gifts.

Do you know someone who is interested in American history? If so, he will surely appreciate a statuette of Millard Fillmore with a clock in the stomach. (Mr. Fillmore, incidentally, was the only American president with a clock in the stomach. James K. Polk had a stem-winder in his head, and William Henry Harrison chimed the quarter-hour, but only Mr. Fillmore, of all our chief executives, had a clock in the stomach. Franklin Pierce had a sweep second hand and Zachary Taylor had seventeen jewels, but, I repeat, Mr. Fillmore and Mr. Fillmore alone had a clock in the stomach. Some say that Mr. Fillmore was also the first president with power steering, but most historians assign this distinction to Chester A. Arthur. However, it has been established beyond doubt that Mr. Fillmore was the first president with a thermostat. Small wonder they called him Old Hickory!)

But I digress. To get back to welcome and unusual Christmas gifts, here's one that's sure to please—a gift certificate from the American Chiropractic Society. Accompanying each certificate is this winsome little poem:

*Merry Christmas, Happy New Year,
 Joyous sacro-iliac!
 May your spine forever shine,
 Blessings on your aching back.
 May your lumbar ne'er grow number,
 May your backbone ne'er dislodge,
 May your caudal never dawdle,
 Joyeux Noel! Heureux massage!*

The makers of Marlboro, who take pleasure in bringing you this column throughout the school year, would like to join with Old Max in extending greetings of the season.

Application Deadline Nears For National Defense Loans

The final date for applying for the National Defense Student Loan Programs for the spring semester is January 1, 1964.

The University of Nevada offers the National Defense Student Loans to certain students for educationally connected expenses while in attendance at the University.

The following are the requirements for eligibility:

1. The University of Nevada will determine the eligibility of each applicant and the amount of each loan, depending on its evaluation of the applicant and the availability of funds in the National Defense Student Loan Fund.

2. The borrower must be a full time student, in good standing, and enrolled in a degree program at the University of Nevada, or he must have been accepted for admission in such status. Part-time students and those taking only summer school work are not eligible.

3. The borrower must be a citizen of the United States and willing to take an oath of allegiance.

4. The borrower must be a satisfactory student and be considered capable of so continuing.

5. The borrower must be in need of the amount of the loan in order to pursue a course of study at the University.

6. Applications in the following categories have priority:

- a. students with a superior academic background who intend to teach in elementary and secondary schools.
- b. students with superior capacity or preparation in science, mathematics, engineering or a modern foreign language.

The National Defense Student Loan Program has the following conditions:

1. The amount of the loan shall be determined by the University. The maximum for any borrower is $1,000 for each fiscal year and $5,000 total.

2. No interest will be charged until one year after the borrower ceases to attend the University as a full time student. Deferments without interest are available for any period (not over 3 years) that the borrower is in the Armed Forces or Peace Corps.

3. Interest is at the rate of 3 per cent per year on the unpaid balance.

4. Repayment to the University must begin no later than the second year after the borrower ceases to attend the University. Repayments shall be in ten annual installments, except that the borrower may make advance payments in full or in part at any time.

5. The borrower shall be required to sign a promissory note payable to the University of Nevada. The parents or guardian of students under 21 years of age must also assume responsibility for this financial contract.

Application forms may be secured from Mr. Rasmussen, director of financial aids in room 104, Clark Administration Building.

Society Suggests Smoking Course

The American Cancer Society, Nevada division, has recommended that a course teaching the hazards of tobacco use, along with other health problems, be instituted at the University of Nevada and that this course be required for graduation. This recommendation was made to the Nevada State Superintendent of Public Instruction Byron Stetler.

"I think it should be our responsibility to call the attention of students to the dangers involved in the use of tobacco," Stetler said. Education committee reports are expected in June, but Stetler said "we are going to have to move faster on this, if possible . . ."

One health course, Personal Health Problems, Health Education 215, includes material on the harmful effects of tobacco already, but it is not a required course.

At the present time the American Cancer Society provides films and kits to the health instructors in required elementary and high school courses.

The opening concert of a series of assembly programs at local junior and senior high schools by the University of Nevada symphonic band is set for Fred W. Traner School on Friday, December 6, at 1 p. m. An intensive series of concerts throughout Washoe county, western and southern Nevada and Northern California is scheduled by the Nevada band for the 1963-64 year.

Juniper Hall Fetes Needy Children

A Christmas party for underprivileged children will be sponsored by the women of Juniper hall Sunday, December 15. The party will take place in the Juniper lounge from 7 to 9 p. m.

The women will fete about 25 children from the Black Springs and Lemon Valley areas.

Santa Claus, Dick "Moose" Armuth, will pass out gifts which were supplied by the women in the dorm, the dormitory fund, and local merchants. Refreshments will be served.

The band recently played concerts in Northern California to more than 5,000 students at Sacramento and Oroville schools.

Area high schools scheduled include Reno, Earl Wooster, Sparks, and Manogue. Junior high schools include Billingshurst and Sparks, in addition to the Traner appearance.

Directed by Dr. John Carrico, with Eugene Isaef as assistant director, the University Band hopes to perform eventually at every junior and senior high school in the state. Recent tours have taken the band for the first time to northern and eastern Nevada as well as Clark county.

Spring concerts by the Symphonic Band are scheduled at Fallon, Yerington, Gardnerville, South Tahoe, and Carson City. The Stage Band will perform in San Francisco and California schools en route to a Bay Area festival in March and will perform in Clark county high schools in April.

In addition, Eugene Isaef and Orville Fleming, band staff instructors, are giving demonstration-recital performances in elementary schools in the Reno-Spark area to encourage participation in instrumental music. The performances were arranged by William Clark, Washoe county elementary music supervisor, and Dr. Carrico, and through the cooperation of Local No. 368, of the musicians' union.

'Alice In Wonderland' Opens This Saturday

"Alice in Wonderland", a Children's Theatre production, will be presented this Saturday and Sunday at 1:15 and 3:15 p. m. This play is the first at Nevada directed by a student, Don Hackstaff, with a student technical director, Jim Bernardi. The only faculty member involved was Dr. William C. Miller, professor of speech and drama, who participated as an advisor.

A new approach is being used for the sets. To give a "magic" feeling to the audience, all sets will be moved in the open by wires. All of the sets for one scene will be "flown"; that is, they will be lowered into view from the ceiling by wires.

Larger sets, such as the teapot with the "doormouse" inside, will be pulled on and off stage by wires. Paul Guisti plays the doormouse. The whole production tries to create a fantasy illusion for the children who will be watching.

The title role of Alice will be played by Matson Sewell, a 13-year-old eighth grade student of Our Eligibility for World War II veterans to get GI loans guaranteed by the Veterans Administration began to expire on July 25, 1962, and will terminate for all WW II vetrans on July 25, 1967.

Lady of the Snows School in Reno. Matson has been in three other University plays, "JB", "The Emperor's New Clothes" and "Rip Van Winkle".

Other members of the cast are Richard Pollman, White Rabbit; Michael Keenan, Caterpillar; Carol Sanderson, Duchess; Janet Nielsen, Cook; John Gascue, Frog-Footman; Carol O'Connor, March

LUCKY PIERRE

"Now that's what I call a nice mess of bones."

... Of Sports And Things ...

By TIM ANDERSON
Associate Sports Editor

JUDGING FROM some of Dick Carriere's performances on the gridiron this season and his consequent selection to many all-star teams, only one conclusion can be made. He was highly overrated.

FOR THOSE of you who have forgotten, Carriere is the quarterback for the Cal Aggies. Football fans who only saw the Aggies once this year (in Nevada's 14-8 loss) can be forgiven if they forget the name Dick Carriere.

HE CAME into Mackay Stadium with a reputation of beating the entire Wolf Pack by himself. Suffice to say his reputation suffered greatly that day.

AGGIE FULLBACK Mike Doyle scored all of his team's points with two touchdowns and a two-point conversion. He smashed the Nevada line repeatedly and wound up with 69 yards in 16 carries.

THE HERALDED Carriere also got a lot of help from his big line and a spirited defense. Without this help he would have been lost.

IT WAS in this game that a Wolf Pack fan was heard to say, "Is that Carriere?" Certainly the fans expected more from this "superman." Maybe they even deserved more.

AT ANY RATE, the Aggies' version of Y. A. Tittle completed three of 10 passes against Nevada for 15 yards.

POSSIBLY a more startling statistic against the quarterback was this: he had three of his passes intercepted.

CARRIERE'S counterpart, Nevada's Allan Crawford, hit on nine of his 20 passing attempts in that game. The final FWC statistics find Carriere behind both Chico State's George Calkins and Crawford in total offense.

JUDGING FROM his performance on Nov. 9, Carriere impressed many people with his field generalship. He called some good plays and had his team in the contest all afternoon. But his quarterbacking, primarily his passing, was terrible that day. Of course, athletes have bad days just like anyone else.

CARRIERE'S latest honor was selection to the Far Western Conference All-Star team. Calkins also made the first team, but Crawford was placed on the second team. On the U.P.I. Little All Coast football squad, Carriere was named to the second team, while Calkins received honorable mention. The Associated Press even went so far as to honor the Aggie back with honorable mention on its Little All American football squad.

APPARENTLY the Associated Press wasn't in attendance at the Nevada-Cal Aggie game. Neither were they for the Nevada-Chico State game, where Calkins, nearly an unknown, nearly engineered an upset over the Pack.

IN THE Chico State game at Mackay Stadium (Nevada's Homecoming), Calkins passed and ran with abandon. But unlike, Carriere, he had no team to back him up, and the Wildcats lost.

CHICO LOST all of its conference games. The Cal Aggies tied for first. Maybe this is why Carriere has received more recognition than Calkins, or even Crawford, for that matter.

FWC Officials Name All-Star Team; Three Nevadans Make First Squad

The Wolf Pack football team placed three players on the All-Far Western Conference football first team and three players on the second team. One Pack player also received honorable mention. The team was named by FWC officials who met at the Holiday Hotel in Reno last week.

Star Nevada tackle Dick Sisul received his second honor in one

Stadium To Expand

University of Nevada's Board of Regents moved to consider spending about $35,000 to excavate the proposed stadium grounds eight more feet.

Engineer estimates revealed at the Regents' Saturday meeting, said that the move would increase seating capacity from 7,500 to 10,000 and add greater protection to spectators from the wind.

"If we are going to make changes, now is the time to decide, not 10 or 20 years from now," said Regent Ray Germain who made the motion.

Block N To Meet

Block 'N' society will meet tomorrow night at 7 to discuss important business. Members will meet in room 100 of the New Gym. All football lettermen are invited to the meeting as well as all regular members of Block 'N'.

week by being named to the FWC first team on offense. Earlier this week Sisul was given honorable mention on the Associated Press Little All-American team.

Halfback Chuck Widel also received his second football honor this year by making the FWC offensive team. Widel was a stand-out all season for the Nevadans by rushing for 666 yards and scoring five touchdowns. Widel also made the second team of the AP Little All Coast team.

Fred Williams of the Pack also got FWC honors by making the FWC first team as a defensive halfback. Williams made several key interceptions for the Silver and Blue and was in on numerous tackles.

Rick Miles and Dan Acuna and Allan Crawford were placed on the FWC second team. Miles, a stellar end for the Pack, caught 29 passes for 323 yards. Acuna made the team as a linebacker, although he was also a threat as an offensive halfback. Quarterback Crawford completed 67 out of 128 passes during the grid season. Big 230 pound guard Mike Kasper was an honorable mention choice on the FWC team. Miles is the only player of these four who has used up his football eligibility.

San Francisco St. led the conference by placing 6 men on the offensive and defensive first team. Humboldt State and the Cal Aggies each placed five men on the first teams.

Wolves End Trip Have 1-5 Record

The Nevada basketball team ended a six game trip by losing two out of three games to the Alaska Nanooks. The Wolf Pack lost Thursday night in College Alaska, 98-96, then came back to win Friday night, 89-76, and lost the finale Saturday night in Anchorage 95-81.

The Wolves now have a record of one win and five losses. They have also lost to USF, Montana St. and Idaho.

Thursday night in Alaska Nevada was led by big Bill Robinson who scored 34 points, high for the game. Sophomore forward Nap Montgomery hit 19 points and garnered 17 rebounds.

The Silver and Blue almost pulled the game out in the closing minutes with a rally that brought them within two points. The Pack had been behind by 10 points with only 1:30 left. Scrappy guard Bob Donlan was the sparkplug in the closing drive.

The Polar Bears' Bob Mays led the winners with 27 points. Franz Sperner hit 21 points for Alaska and John Springer scored 18. Two other Alaska players also hit in double figures.

Despite the loss, the Pack grabbed 53 rebounds to 42 for the Alaskans. However, Nevada committed 18 fouls to the winners 14.

Nevada came back Saturday night to trounce the Alaskans by 13 points, despite the fact that Bill Robinson only scored 10 points. Robinson and 2 other Nevada starters fouled out late in the game.

With six minutes left in the half, Nevada forged to a 27-25 lead and from there on was never headed. The Wolves led at times by 20 points.

Bob Donlan led the offense by scoring 18 points before fouling out. Forward Harlan Heward also collected 5 personals in the hard fought contest.

The Nanooks came from behind the following night to defeat Jack Spencer's squad by a score of 95-81 to end the three game series. Robinson netted 31 points for the Nevadans and Donlan hit 23 for the losers.

One of the highlights of the trip for Nevada was a tour around the Alaska camps on a dog sled. The Pack will return home for a game Tuesday night against the San Fernando St. Matadors.

Skiers Plan Trip

Ski club members will meet tonight at 7:30 to discuss plans for a trip to Mammoth Mt. during semester break. The meeting will be held in room 215 Mackay Science. Mammoth is a popular ski resort area about 90 miles from the Nevada border in middle eastern California.

Matadors Invade Wolf Pack Den

The University of Nevada basketball team, after a disappointing road trip, make their home debut tonight against San Fernando Valley State College. Tipoff is 8:15 p.m.

The Wolf Pack won one and lost five on the road. Their only win during the Northwest jaunt came Friday night against Alaska.

The Matadors from Northridge, Calif., come into town with seven lettermen. The Southern Californians expect to be vastly improved from last season's disastrous 3-23 record. They finished in the cellar

Track Men Will Meet Thursday In New Gym

An organizational meeting for the track team will be held Thursday, December 12 at noon in Room 101 of the New Gym, according to head coach Floyd Edsall.

Edsall will give workout forms and this year's schedule to the team members. All interested trackmen are invited to attend, he said.

The assistant coach for the track team this season will again be Dick Trachock.

Independents Win In Intramural Play

Intramural basketball began last Wednesday. Three games were played. White Pine Hall No. 2 lost 54-34 to the Independents No. 4, the Independents No. 3 beat White Pine Hall No. 1 56-28, and the Independents No. 5 trounced Lambda Chi No. 1 20-9.

Eighteen teams have entered the competition this year. The league roster is as follows:

- National League
1. Independents No. 4
  2. Lincoln Hall
  3. Lambda Chi Alpha No. 2
  4. Phi Sigma Kappa
  5. ATO No. 2
  6. White Pine Hall No. 2
- American League
1. Independents No. 3
  2. SAE
  3. Kappa Kappa Psi (a band fraternity)
  4. ATO No. 1
  5. Sigma Nu No. 2
  6. White Pine Hall No. 1

- International League
1. Lambda Chi Alpha No. 1
  2. Independents No. 2
  3. Independents No. 1
  4. Theta Chi
  5. Sigma Nu No. 1
  6. Independents No. 5

Many teams are entered from the same organization. The arrangement of teams was determined by a drawing. Teams that drew numbers placing them in the same league as a fellow team, had their number returned to the box. This helped to disperse the teams as evenly as possible.

last year in the California Collegiate Athletic Association.

Coach Jerry Ball begins his first season as head coach with the Red and White. He employs a fast break offense and a multiple defense.

All seven of Ball's returning letter winners are juniors.

Bill Robinson will start at center for the third straight Pack home opener. Coach Jack Spencer will probably go with the same starting lineup as he has for the Pack's first six games.

Besides Robinson, it includes Harlan Heward and Nap Montgomery at forwards, and Bob Donlan and Mike Olivas at guards.

San Fernando opened their season Friday night against Orange State. Saturday night they were beaten by Pepperdine, 90-70.

Nevada opened its season at home last season with a 76-62 victory over Weber College.

The Pack's big man, Bill Robinson, is averaging over 23 points a game for the first six games. Bob Donlan had a hot hand in the final game of the Alaska series, winding up with 23.

Freshmen Win First Contest

The Nevada Freshmen team won their initial game of the season by walloping the California Conservation Center, 106-69, in Susanville, California. Nevada led at half, 52-36, and coasted to an easy win.

Five Frosh players hit in double figures and all 12 players scored. Bruce Nickerson and George Winters paced the cubs' attack by netting 17 points. George Shoemaker scored 16 points and Tom Smith and Doyle Demond hit 10 and 13 points respectively.

The Conservation Center was led by Mahoney and Crawford, who scored 14 and 13 points.

The game marked the debut of Frosh coach Chuck Walker. Walker was a former star athlete at Nevada in basketball and football. In 1960 he won the Doc Martie athletic award, the highest athletic award that Nevada offers.

The Frosh will meet Murdock's city league in a preliminary to the Nevada-San Fernando State game in Reno. Game time will be 7 p.m. in the New Gym.

'IN THE GOOD OLD DAYS'

IT APPEARS that the age-old question of women's hours may once again be raising its ugly head on campus. Many maintain that the AWS ruling requiring all freshmen women to be in their room at 8 p. m. three nights a week is unfair and serves no specific purpose. On the other hand, certain administrators and the AWS council president feels that the 8 p. m. ruling has helped the freshmen woman's academic records.

IT IS not the intention of this columnist to decide who is right and who is wrong in this controversy. However, if you think that you have it rough today at the University girls, just read the following story which appeared in the SAGEBRUSH of September 28, 1922.

"IDLY TURNING over back numbers of the SAGEBRUSH, we chanced upon an issue of ten year ago (1912), the front page of which bore the words "Underclass Women" in screamer headlines. Our indolent eyes wandered down the page, and we noticed that eight rules had been set forth, followed by the signatures of the Upperclass Women's Committee by the way of emphasis. Then the caption: "These regulations must be obeyed" completely destroyed our casual air. Ironclad rule followed ironclad rule, in no uncertain terms.

NO RED tams or red headgear or any description may be worn by any underclass girl on the campus or in the bleachers at any time; no underclass girl may at any time wear anything corduroy or imitation corduroy; absolutely no high school or other preparatory insignias may be worn; positively no queening will be allowed on the campus or in the bleachers; only upperclass women will be permitted to walk, run, or SIT upon the grass or under the trees all underclass girls are positively required to be on the bleachers by 4:30 every Thursday at football practice — such are some of the rules set forth in that remarkable document. We blinked our eyes, awed beyond words. To think that women capable of making, obeying, and enforcing such rules had ever attended this University! Amazing how women can change in ten years!

TODAY (1922) women pay no heed to one of their number cutting campus than they would to seeing a girl walk by with bobbed hair. This law is the last of the old regulations applicable to women as well as men which has survived. The flagrant disobedience of it is so common that it is not even a joke any more. The practice can be stopped, but it must be left to the women to stop it. Men are powerless to do anything, except stand back and gnash their teeth at the violators.

RULES TENFOLD more stringent were enforced then ten years ago, therefore this one certainly can be now. "A severe and embarrassing penalty will be imposed upon any violator of one or more of these rules" can be signed above the names of the Upperclass Women's Committee once more, and the only remaining women's rules enforced."

WELL, GIRLS those of you with bobbed hair and who cut campus had better hide from Dean Mobley and Miss Rosollo! Here is a final look at the "good old days" at the University. In which era had you rather be living? You might do well to ponder this question the next time you have to be in the dorm by 8 p. m.

"LIFE WILL be more difficult for Nevada freshmen this fall, according to programs outlined by the men's and women's upperclass committees this week. Nevada traditions are to be enforced rigorously this year with severe penalties for violations.

FRESHMEN men must wear their dinks and carry their bibles. They will not be allowed to wear cords or "cut campus." Swats and fines will be meted out to nonconformists. Frosh girls who do not wear ribbons or carry bibles will again be seen on the campus sporting eight-inch blue and silver bows, or carrying suitcases."

My, how women have changed at the University of Nevada since 1922!

Fashion Forecast Featured In Lecture

If small attendance, which has characterized past AWS lectures, prevails at tonight's AWS lecture, the lectures will be discontinued, said Sue Rhoades, lecture chairman. Dr. Marilyn J. Horn, associate professor of home economics has chosen as her lecture topic, "American and French Couture, plus a Fashion Forecast for 1964."

The lecture will be given at 7:30 in the Education auditorium. Dr. Horn has been at the University of Nevada since 1955. She was appointed associate professor in 1957. Her title now is Associate Director and Associate Professor of Home Economics.

Dr. Horn received a B. S. from Pratt Institute, and her M. S. and Ph. D. degrees from Cornell University.

Refreshments will be served following the talk. All students and faculty are invited to the lecture. Miss Rhoades said Dr. Horn is very qualified to speak on the subject and the lecture should be very interesting.

More Yule Dances On Social Agenda This Weekend

Two sororities and two fraternities held their annual Christmas dances last weekend. This weekend three fraternities, two sororities and four dormitories will hold their dances.

Friday night the women of Kappa Alpha Theta held their annual affair at the Lancer while the women of Pi Beta Phi danced at the Mapes Skyroom.

Saturday night the men of Sigma Nu entertained their guests at the Riverside hotel while the members of Theta Chi danced at the Lancer.

The four-dorm Christmas dance will be held Friday, December 13 at the Elks' Club. Harry Massoth's Band will play. The dance will be from 8-12 midnight.

The coming weekend will see the women of Delta Delta Delta and Gamma Phi Beta and the men of Alpha Tau Omega, Lambda Chi Alpha, and Phi Sigma Kappa holding their annual Christmas Affairs.

The Tri-Deltas will hold their dance at the Lancer on Friday night, along with the Gamma Phis who will be dancing at the Mapes. Saturday night the Taus and their dates will dance at Lancer while the Lambda Chis will entertain their dates at the Rosemont Lodge. The Phi Sigma Kappa Dance which is being held at Monaco's Saturday will be highlighted by the crowning of their "Moonlight Girl". The candidates which were chosen by the members are Jan Pierce of Delta Delta Delta, Michelle Arrington of Gamma Phi Beta, Cheryl Griffin of Kappa Alpha Theta, Muriel Ellis of Pi Beta Phi, and Lani Lane representing the Independents.

Jose Alvarez Delivers Talk In Yerington

"The Differences Between the Mexican and American Press" was the subject of a talk given by a University student Tuesday in Yerington.

Addressing the Yerington Rotary Club, Jose Alvarez, a senior journalism student from Guadalajara, Mexico, explained that a newspaper in Mexico is about one and one-half times as expensive as a similar U. S. newspaper. The reason, he said, is the high cost of newsprint transportation from Canada, and the cost of the American-made presses used.

The average daily paper in Mexico is 4 cents per copy and about seven cents on Sunday in American money.

He related that the high cost of newspapers means the average citizen must share his paper with others. Often a reader will receive the paper with pages missing. Asked if he has read the paper he will reply yes, but sometimes he has missed the most important story.

Alvarez's grandfather, Jesus Alvarez del Castillo, founded the Guadalajara newspaper "El Informador." The paper celebrated its centennial last year. It is one of the leading newspapers in Mexico with a daily circulation of 85,000.

Upon graduation in June, Alvarez plans to return to Mexico and work for his grandfather's paper.
