Homecoming Mixed Success

By SIG ROGICH
Managing Editor

The 44th Homecoming celebration came to an end last weekend with many highlights and pleasant memories, but one particular sad note — Humboldt State dropped the Wolf Pack, 17-8. The game played before an estimated crowd of 6,000 was the last in the traditional series to be played at Mackay Stadium. The old structure will make way for the soon-to-be completed new stadium, at the north end of the school.

On Thursday night the Sun-downers made their traditional selection of new members. Wearing whatever warm clothes they had, the "happy" initiates could be seen on Friday night with black faces, smiles of pleasure and a chicken. The latter appeared to be enjoying the free alcoholic beverage, compliments of his new owner.

The same evening also was the setting for the annual Homecoming Dance. Ted Zaehringer, Homecoming chairman, crowned Miss Jill Freeman, the University Homecoming Queen. The sophomore member of Kappa Alpha Theta, received her crown again during halftime ceremonies by Governor Grant Sawyer.

On Saturday morning, students gathered along Virginia Ave., to watch the annual Homecoming Parade. This year saw fewer floats than in the past, with three living groups working on some of the entries.

Sigma Nu fraternity and Kappa Alpha Theta sorority combined to produce the winning float. It was composed of paper flowers on a moving framework, and depicted a Nevada Wolf in the driver's seat of an old-time stagecoach labeled "Centennial Express." The reins were hitched to a Humboldt State College Lumberjack, and the theme was "End of the Line, Humboldt."

Gamma Phi Beta, sorority, and Lambda Chi Alpha and Phi Sigma Kappa fraternities placed second. Pi Beta Phi sorority, Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Theta Chi fraternities were third. Delta Delta Delta sorority and Alpha Tau Omega fraternity were fourth.

On Saturday morning, freshman Jim Copenhaver from Fallon led Alpha Tau Omega fraternity to victory in the annual Homecoming cross-country race. His winning time was 29:17.8. He was followed by Woody Barry and Larry Stiff, both of ATO.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon placed second, with Dave Schaff leading the way. He was followed by Arne Nossum in the fifth position and Jim Fitzgerald who placed seventh.

Copenhaver's time was far off the record time of 26:54 for the four mile course, set last year by Steve Parker.

The activities came to an end Saturday night, with campus living groups hosting open house for alumnus. Included among campus guests were Governor Grant Sawyer, Representative Walter Baring, Senators Alan Bible and Howard Cannon, and Lt. Governor Paul Laxalt.

Final Judging For TV Shows

The final judging of talent for the television show "Breakout" will take place Thursday night at the State Building in Reno at 7:30 p.m.

Eight acts from the University of Nevada and high schools in the Reno-Sparks-Carson City area will be chosen by judges to take part in the regular Friday television show from 4:30 to 5 p.m. on KOLO-TV beginning Nov. 6.

A maximum of 20 acts will compete to take part in the weekly show. The American Cancer Society will receive the proceeds from the Thursday night performances. An admission fee of 50 cents will be charged the public.

Folksinger Hinton To Appear Here In Nov. Concert

Folksinger Sam Hinton will perform at the University of Nevada on November 6 at 8 p.m. in the Jot Travis Student Union Building as a part of the University's Performing-Artists series sponsored by the Public Occasions Board, the ASUN, and the Jot Travis Union.

Tickets for the concert will be $2.25 for general admission and $1.00 for students. Students with current University of Nevada I. D. cards will be admitted free of charge.

Hinton spent several years as a traveling vaudeville performer, appearing in 46 states and in Canada. He has recorded over 100 songs for leading commercial record companies.

Library Head Hits Editorial

Mr. David Heron, director of libraries, denies that all floors of the library close at 10 p.m. as stated in a Sagebrush editorial written by Bruce Pozzi on October 16.

Mr. Heron pointed out that the ground floor of Getchell Library remains open until 11 p.m. Monday through Thursday and Sundays. It does not close at 10 o'clock as the top two floors do. Students who wish to continue studying may do so after the 9:45 deadline.

A schedule of hours from September 1 to June 15 has been available at the main desk on the main floor since the beginning of the semester, Mr. Heron noted. This schedule is complete with regular study hours for every day of the week, study hours for holidays and between sessions, and extra hours during finals. Every student is entitled to a copy, he added.

RUNNER UP: The second place float in Saturday's Homecoming Parade was sponsored by Gamma Phi, Lambda Chi and Phi Sigma Epsilon.

END OF THE LINE was the theme for the first place Homecoming float built by Kappa Alpha Theta and Sigma Nu. The Theta's have won first place for the past several years.

EDITORIAL

THE BRUSHFIRE AGAIN

A student magazine should be a showcase for the best literary efforts of all the student body.

This is particularly true if the publication is paid for out of student body funds, as the "Brushfire" is now.

Last year's "Brushfire" was a total loss for all but a few of the students. Most students didn't understand or like the material that appeared in it.

The editor for last year and this year claims that all material printed has to reach a certain literary standard. The standard used last year seemed to effectively eliminate all humorous or touching material and put in its place sex, without any attempt to at least make it interesting.

It is hard to find material for a campus magazine, but when the finished product is something that most of the student body is ashamed to admit came from our campus, it is time to change.

Perhaps this year the editor could try asking the professors who teach the various English composition and writing courses to name the best writers among their students and then ask those students to contribute. The results could be very interesting.

SATURDAY'S LOSS

No one likes to lose a football game, especially at Homecoming. The members of the Nevada Wolf Pack and the coaching staff don't enjoy losing. But win or lose, the Wolf Pack is our team and deserves the support of the student body.

Saturday's game reflected poorly on Nevada, not because we lost, but because the team received little or no support from the stands. An estimated 6,000 fans watched the game, yet the cheers for Nevada sounded as if they came from a crowded phone booth.

The cheerleaders tried to keep the fans yelling, but more often than not they cheered alone. The Sundowners also tried to build the enthusiasm in the stands, and rooted loud and long for the team. But almost everyone else sat by quietly watching the game or talking to his friends about how bad the team was.

The members of the team played hard and well, and they will continue to in the rest of the games this season. Let's show them that we are behind them, win or lose.

Pardon My Snake

By Hampton Young

IT SURE IS HUNGOVER OUT . . .

Homecoming and parties are synonymous. Nevada students were widely dispersed throughout the Reno area last weekend at various party centers. Party-hopping seemed to be the fashion for Saturday night. One gal told me she and her date had been to four different parties. But she added, "coursh I don't add too well in thish condishun. . ." She mighta been to six or seven and never knew it. . .

The Outer Limits was just a quiet, sincere gathering of a group of people with a sincere, basic common interest — drinking. . .

ORGANIZATIONSVILLE

There's another new organization on campus. It's a "fun-loving" group called Mu Mu Epsilon, which is a very original name for a typical bunch of greeks that can't get in the Sundowners. Their first official act was to send the Theta house a dozen long-stemmed sprigs of sagebrush, "wrapped with a bone from the rib of a charging buffalo." Some people will do anything for attention. . .

Speaking of greeks. . .

Some people have asked me if I am an SAE or not. No, I am the only non-SAE in an SAE stronghold — the Sagebrush office. I am a GDI and I deplore greeks. Not all greeks, just the gung-ho, dyed-in-the-wool, greek-speaking greek. That oughta stir things up a bit. . .

I REFUSE TO ANSWER ON THE GROUNDS IT MIGHT INCRIMINATE ME DEPT:

Doug Bruckner, sports car buff, flipped a U-turn in the middle of ninth street enroute to the laundromat — right in front of a cop. The lawman motioned him across the street and informed him that a U-turn constitutes a fine of $10 and reckless driving, $52.50. Smooth-talking Doug wormed out of it and started to recross the street to his car when the cop told him, "don't jaywalk, that's another ten bucks. . ." Exit Doug, lightly, to the crosswalk. . .

THERE'S GOTTA BE A MISTAKE SOMEWHERE . . .

I heard that last week a mess of Juniper Hall lasses awoke to a sexy male voice over the intercom telling them to awake, get dressed, and come to the Frosh-Soph field day. In years past it has not been custom for the girls to be awakened by the sound of a male voice. Sure wish he'd let us know how to get in there. . .

For the past few years a constant campus complaint has been the deterioration of treasured U of N traditions. At the top of the list — cutting the quad. One resourceful student suggested a sidewalk across the sacred grass. Why not a pedestrian tunnel—?

DON'T FORGET THE NIGHT-LIGHT MOMMY:

Nevada deserves a losing football team—

The more I look around this campus, the more I find a huge sandbox filled with a bunch of spoiled little "kiddies" freshly weaned from bubble gum. Their efforts to move a pail of damp sand with one arm are fruitless. Their futile minds cannot comprehend using the other arm — so they pout or bawl.

All I saw at the game Saturday was a bunch of "kiddies" looking like "daddy took the T-Bird away" for an entire month. After all what good does cheering your team on to victory do?

Humboldt State had a cheering section considerably smaller than Nevada's. One could hear good strong support from them clear on the Nevada side of the field. They only won by nine points. One could barely hear the Nevada Nursery School Five on their own side of the field—we only lost by nine points—

Grow up Nevada—

No One Asked Me, But . . .

Homecoming is over and the weekend alcohol consumption may have reached new heights. But then Mackay Day always produces many surprises and maybe this new record will diminish.

Among the alumni and students having fun over the weekend, one could see many types of consumers. Some of these were as follows:

THE MELONCHOLY MOOCH. Here is the individual that uses the Homecoming celebration as an excuse to continue his usual habit. To him it is not the happy atmosphere that keeps the smile on his face, but it is the thought of all the free booze he will get his share of.

THE TOUGH GUY. He's the guy that loves to fight. But only with a case in his gut And then if someone takes him for his word, he backs out of the possibility of getting hurt, and becomes your "true-blue friend."

THE FIRST TIME DRINKER. This is the one that "hits the sack" about the time the festivities begin. Not because he's tired either.

THE LAST TIME DRINKER. He's swore off drinking six times now. And he's been sicker every time.

THE SOPHISTICATE. Nothing but the best for him. But the trouble is, he's only 17.

THE ALUMNI WHO'S GOING TO SHOW US HOW IT'S DONE And that was the only arrest during the Homecoming celebration.

THE WAIT UNTIL NEXT TIME GUY. He's been waiting for two years now, and hoping that he won't have to wait too much longer. Thing is, he doesn't drink alcohol.

THE POURER. If you've seen that person who uses the bathroom alot with a full beer and comes back with an empty one, you have seen the pourer "Boy did I down that one fest. What's with you guys? Pretty slow."

LASTLY WE SEE THE GOOD GUY. That's me!

NO ONE ASKED ME BUT . . .

Someone should give the team credit for a well played game. . .

There will be talk of hangin the coach in effigy. . .

Some one will swear that they saw Dean Sam intoxicated. . .

Ohio State will go undefeated this year and remain national champions. . .

The Baltimore Colts are great, and have begun their dynasty. . .

We should beat Cal Davis and Chico State. . .

Our basketball team will be a real good one this year. . .

Intramural pool should be included by Mr. Newell. . .

I have my own pool cue. . .

There should be a stronger rivalry with Nevada Southern. . .

Some basketball players would also be good members of the boxing team. . .

Goldwater should be our next President. . .

Joy Moss is a beaut. . .

I've never found an equal to Coors. . .

There's talk of something other than water in Manzanita Lake. . .

Daylight savings time should be continued the year 'round. . .

Some professors should stick to teaching and not philosophising. . .

The pizza in Reno is terrible. . .

Carson City should receive its fair share of empties this weekend. . .

Las Vegas is still the greatest. . .

The Sundowners maintain the greatest school spirit. . .

Who is Amos Fröck? . . .

Who cares? . . .

The freeway should not come so close to school. . .

Fraternities should stick together a little more. . .

The Thetas must have an in with the float judges; they've won quite a few in a row now. . .

The book store must be a very profitable business. . .

The Stein has good sandwiches. . .

ROTC men should be allowed to grow beards for Mackay Day. . .

Sacramento State is exceptionally good this year, and will be hard on the Wolf Pack. . .

In your heart you know he's nuts. . .

Campus cops are ticket happy. . .

Too many people that don't use the dining commons complain about the food. . .

I hate the dining commons food. . .

If Barry Goldwater is a fanatic, Hubert Humphrey must be crazy.

Around The Campus...

Campus Players

Campus Players will host an open house this evening in the Fine Arts Building beginning at 7:30 p.m. Mr. Erecson, director of the University Theatre, will speak on the history of the University Theatre and its usage. Technical director, Robert Ware will conduct a tour of the theatre and Campus Players will present a variety show. Refreshments will be served.

Campus Players is the student organization dedicated to the advancement of the theatre. Campus Players is co-sponsoring the University film series in conjunction with the Jot Travis Student Union Board. Film presentations are held every Tuesday evening in the University Theatre beginning at 7 and 9 p.m. There is no charge for the presentations for students with valid ASUN identification.

This year, Campus Players has undertaken to re-decorate the theatre's green room as well as to participate in the university theatre productions. Each year the organization travels to San Francisco for a week-end during which various stage plays and movies are attended by its members.

Membership into Campus Players is based upon a point system. Those seeking membership must earn a total of eight points working on the various productions. The officers of Campus Players this year are John Gascue, president; Maurice Beesley, vice president; Mike Thompson, secretary-treasurer and Mr. Robert Ericson, adviser.

Nursing Trip

Dr. Margaret Kaufmann, professor of Nursing, is in New York City today attending a meeting of the committee on practice, educational administration and teachers sections of the American Nursing Association. The meetings started yesterday and will continue through tomorrow. Dr. Kaufmann was previously the chairman of this committee for six years.

The remainder of this week Dr. Kaufmann will be one of seven members of a panel on "Early Continuity Care of the Stroke Patient" in Chicago, October 29 and 30. The discussion will deal with problems, preventions, early care and the convalescence of stroke patients.

In addition to the panel discussion, Dr. Kaufmann will be a guest at Loyola University to discuss the theoretical basis of nursing practice in developing a program of clinical specialists in medical - surgical nursing. This was the theme for her doctorate dissertation.

Dr. Kaufmann is a new faculty member on the University of Nevada campus having come here this September. Before teaching here, she was an associate professor of Nursing at U.C.L.A. for eight years.

She graduated from the University of Michigan and received her doctor's degree from U.C.L.A. She has been teaching since 1949.

SNCC

The University of Nevada Friends of SNCC will sponsor a hootenanny this Thursday evening, October 29th, at The Lemon Tree, located at 1035 N. Virginia (across the street from Juniper Hall). The folk-singing, which will feature local artists, Don Truell, Dave Barnes, and Heather Hammond, as well as audience group singing, will start at 8 o'clock.

The Lemon Tree will furnish refreshments. Admission charge will be fifty cents for the event, which is open to everyone.

Dorm Dances

White Pine and Juniper halls have scheduled a combined dorm dance to be held at the Lancer Restaurant on November 13.

Dan Miles, president of White Pine Hall, said the dance is not "strictly" for White Pine and Juniper Hall residents, but for all residents and their guests.

The dance, said Miles, will be a semiformal affair with live entertainment provided.

Young Republicans

The Supreme Court decision on reapportionment and what is being done about it will be discussed Thursday, Oct. 29, by Coe Swobe, state assemblyman from Washoe County.

Swobe, one of the leading opponents of the decision, will speak at a meeting of the University of Nevada Young Republican Club, at 7:30 p.m. in the faculty dining commons.

Also on the agenda is the appearance of two candidates for the assembly from Washoe County, Len Harris and Mary Frazzini. They will speak briefly and engage in a question and answer period.

Swobe himself is seeking reelection to the assembly. All three are Republicans.

Also scheduled for Thursday is a noon presentation of a half-hour film, "Barry Goldwater Speaks on the Presidency." The film appeared on television Sunday. The showing on Thursday will begin at 12:15 in the Education Building auditorium.

In the film, Goldwater answers Johnson's assertion that the GOP candidate is not fully acquainted with the role of the president. Goldwater discusses the president's role and responsibilities in detail.

The Young Republicans are planning a rally prior to the Nov. 3 election, but time and date have not yet been determined.

No School

Next Friday, October 30, school will be dismissed as it is a state holiday. Gov. Grant Sawyer proclaimed it a holiday because of Nevada Day, which is also Nevada Centennial Day, on Oct. 31.

The main celebration will be held in Carson City on Saturday and will be highlighted by a parade during the day and an all-state dance that night.

Why bother with a Glass?

You don't have to pour Budweiser into a glass. But we think you're missing something if you don't.

Take that fine head of foam, for instance. It's worth bothering with a glass just to get to see it.

But looks aren't everything. Letting those tiny bubbles get organized at the top of your glass has a lot to do with taste, too. Most beers have carbonation pumped in mechanically. Not Budweiser. We go to a barrel of trouble and expense to let Budweiser create its own bubbles with our exclusive Beechwood Ageing... with natural carbonation.

We admit it's a slow, finicky way to brew beer. Costly, too. (Our treasurer keeps reminding us of that.) But we think it's worth it. Brewing Budweiser this way gives you a beer with a brilliant taste, a clean aroma, wonderful clarity... and a head that lasts.

That's why, when our treasurer gets fussy, we just hand him a bottle of Bud... and a glass.

Nevada GOP Candidates for More Campus Funds

The need for more funds for the Reno campus of the University of Nevada was stressed Thursday by two state assembly candidates speaking at a meeting of the University Young Republican Club.

The YR's were also told that reapportionment of the state legislature poses a considerable threat to the future expansion of the Reno campus.

Both James Bailey and Tom Kean, incumbent Republican assemblymen from Washoe County, said that proportionately more money is being spent at the Nevada Southern campus than at Reno.

The assemblymen painted a picture of "just not enough money to go around." Kean said the funds allotted to both campuses are not enough to fully support one, and Bailey added that the State's $4 million for bonding in 1964-65 is spread very thinly because of the many needs for new state buildings, among them prison additions, mental institutions, and reformatories.

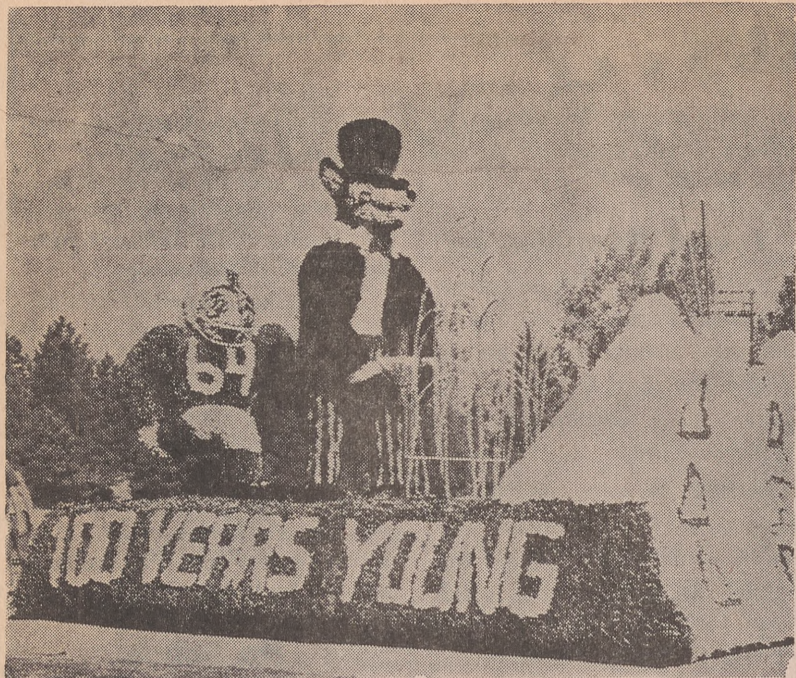

Kean warned that the biggest threat to the Reno campus is reapportionment, and that this is one reason he has been so vigorous in opposing it. He said that if rapidly-expanding Clark County can gain control of both legislative houses, it would be in a position to allocate all University bonding moneys to the Las Vegas campus.

Other University matters touched on during the question and answer session included new dormitories, Manzanita Lake, and the possibility of having a medical school in Nevada.

Asked about the possibility of building a new women's dormitory, Bailey said that money for this type of construction is slow in coming because of the large number of agencies involved in appropriating the money.

Because dormitories are revenue-producing projects, funds can be obtained through the federal government, he said; but it takes time to get federal funds.

"100 YEARS YOUNG" was the theme chosen by ATO and Delta Delta Delta. The float finished fourth.

'Beyond the Fringe' on Campus

"Beyond the Fringe", the prize-winning London and New York comedy hit which has played to audiences around the world for three years, will be presented in a one night performance on the University of Nevada campus November 13. The announcement was made Thursday by Dave Cooper, president of the Student Union.

The performance is being sponsored by the Student Union as the highlight attraction of the second annual "Travis Weekend" celebration.

"Beyond the Fringe" is a unique modern satire written by four Englishmen who delight in poking fun not only at the peculiarities of their fellow countrymen, but also at social institutions and the world situation.

It is written as a series of short sketches. The only props are platforms, columns and arches. Four performers, Robert Cessna, Donald Cullen, Joel Fabiani and Patrick Horgan make up the entire cast.

"Beyond the Fringe" was conceived and written by four young Englishmen, Alan Bennett, and Dudley Moore, undergraduates at Oxford, and Jonathan Miller and Peter Cook, from Cambridge University.

It was presented first at London's West End and then brought to New York where it ran successfully for two years and was voted a special award for excellence by the Drama Critics Circle.

Tickets are now on sale in the Student Union Officers at $1, $2, $3 and $4. Curtain time is 8 p.m.

Unique New Carpet Installed In the Student Union Building

Students are stepping more quietly across the main lounge in Travis Union this week. The cause is an "autumn leaf" colored carpet which has replaced the linoleum floor covering.

The deterioration of below-surface asphalt provoked the need to recover the surface. Carpeting was determined to be as economical as hard - coverings over the long haul, since its upkeep is simpler.

Prof. Craig Sheppard, chairman of the Art Department, suggested the large patches of "molten gold" carpeting which line the path of heaviest traffic through the room. Two strips of darker brown carpeting which cover the pathway from the main entrance have a utilitarian purpose—they can be replaced with wear.

The carpeting, which is 100 per cent nylon, was laid by Home Furniture Company. The company issued the lowest bid of $2600. Money for the floor covering was provided by an amount left over from last year's Travis Building addition fund.

Twelve chairs in the main lounge will be upholstered in colors which will harmonize with the carpeting.

1964 Centennial Ceremonies Highlight Week's Celebration

Numerous award ceremonies and presentations have been scheduled for Centennial Week, Oct. 24 - Nov. 1 at the State Capitol where Gov. Grant Sawyer, Mrs. Sawyer, Sen. Alan Bible, J. Y. Robertson, mayor of Carson, and Nevada Centennial Commission officials will participate.

At 3 p.m., Oct. 30, Sen. Alan Bible will dedicate the Centennial Historical Monument sponsored by the Reno Chapter, Daughters of American Colonists.

Beginning at 1:15 p.m., a brief ceremony honoring Mrs. Vera Calvert of Caliente, Nevada's "Mother of the Year" will take place in the governor's office with Mrs. Sawyer making the award.

Following immediately at 1:30 p.m. will be the annual Nevada Day Historical Essay Award Ceremony when essay winners from 13 Nevada counties will receive $25 U.S. Savings Bonds.

Carson City mayor, James Y. Robertson, will officiate at the annual Whiskerino Judging and award ceremony sponsored by the Carson 20-30 Club with prizes in four categories.

An unusual ceremony, the planting of an Oregon rose bush on the Capitol grounds, is scheduled for 2 p.m. The plant will be presented to Gov. Sawyer by the "Royal Oregonians", a promotional group from Portland, and the roots will be set by the governor.

At 2:15 p.m., Gov. Sawyer will crown "Miss Nevada Centennial" assisted by Miss Ellen Roseman, Miss Nevada of 1964, and Joe Elliot of the Carson Chamber of Commerce, sponsors of the queen contest.

Officials of the Nevada Centennial Commission will officiate at the Centennial Capsule Deposit at 2:30 p.m. and the Martel Brandy presentation to Gov. Sawyer at 2:40 p.m.

Other Centennial ceremonies include the opening festivities at Carson Indian Colony at 1 p.m., Oct. 30, with Gov. Sawyer and other state dignitaries taking part. Following this, the Indian program will continue for three days of dancing, concerts, Indian craft exhibits, barbecue, junior prize events, etc.

Special awards will be made at the reception for Nevada's honored pioneers, Oct. 31, 2 to 4 p.m. at the Civic Auditorium when representatives from Nevada's seventeen counties will be recognized.

Queen candidates in the Miss Nevada Centennial will be honored at a banquet Oct. 30, 5:30 p.m. at Enrico's where preliminary judging ceremonies will take place with Joe Elliot as master of ceremonies.

Spur delegates from five western universities will gather November 13 through 15 for the annual Regional Spur Convention. They will be meeting on the University of Nevada campus for the first time.

Representatives from Brigham Young University, Idaho State University, University of Utah, Utah State University, and the University of Nevada Spur chapter will take part in "Spurward Ho," a three-day session for the national sophomore women's honorary organization.

The convention will begin Friday, November 13, with registration and distribution of housing of the delegates from 3 to 5 p.m. in the Jot Travis Student Union. Visiting Spur members will be housed in the recreation rooms of Manzanita and Artemisia Halls, and regional officers and executives will stay at the home of Nevada Spur President, Judie Lewis.

The western theme of "Spurward Ho" will be carried out at the chuckwagon dinner in the dining commons that evening. The dinner is designed for the members to become acquainted with each other and each chapter will present a short skit.

After a Saturday morning breakfast in the dining commons, the delegates will gather in the Student Union to hear orientation speeches from Regional Director Ruth Ann Lewis, Nevada Spur President Julie Lewis, and convention co-chairmen Karen Anderson and Elfrena Sewell. The representatives will then be divided into smaller discussion groups for the workshop session. Topics for the discussions include amendments to the constitution, big and little sister programs, and acceptable activities and services for Spurs.

Campus tours will be conducted for visiting delegates after a luncheon, and the workshop sessions will continue until 4 p.m., when the entire group will again congregate in the Student Union to share ideas and conclusions.

A farewell banquet at Trader Dick's restaurant will conclude the convention Saturday night. Speakers and entertainment will be presented and the delegates will receive newsletters of the convention.

Past Spur members who are chairman of convention committees are: Elfrena Sewell, co-chairman; Mary Solaro, budget; Phyllis Goytino, scheduling; Lynn Allen, displays; Kathy Sadler, invitations; Michon Maupin, workshop; Sharon Casazza, housing; Cherie Sawyer, secretary; Jeannette Zolezzi, foods; Mary Kay Gezelin, packets; Michele Maupin, banquet; Sue Prior, entertainment; Kathy Wick, decorations; and Lynn Friedoff, registration.

Present Spur members who are committee chairmen are: Marilyn McKinnon, evaluations;

Vicki Martin, publicity; Judy Crowell, newsletter; Diane DeReemer, secretary; Jane McCarthy, pictures; and Peggy Crumley, song sheet.

Other present Spur members are Mickey Arrington, Tana Arouze, Alice Cate, Sheila Dwyer, Marvis Cooper, Sue Deming, Joyce Hoffman, Anner Marie Lesperance, Mary Lynn Prida, Margie Uhalde, Lana Strosneider, Sherry Locke, Phyllis Teipner, Sophie Shappard, Mary Hyde, and Twyla Smith.

Wolf Pack Toppled By Humboldt 17-8

Homecoming Upset By Loss

The University of Nevada football team lost its sixth straight game of the season, its eighth consecutive game, and its first Homecoming game in many years Saturday at the hands of the Lumberjacks from Humboldt State. Playing before a large Homecoming crowd the Wolf Pack threw away the game on its mistakes and sloppiness. Saturday, as in last weeks game against Santa Clara, the Wolf Pack had a hard time holding on to the ball. Nevada fumbled twice when they were in striking distance of the goal.

The first quarter of the game was a slow one with neither team gaining very much ground. It was for the most part just an exchange of punts. In the final seconds of the first quarter Humboldt moved to the Nevada one yard line but was unable to score due to a fumble in the end zone which was recovered by the Wolf Pack.

Nevada was forced to punt early in the second quarter and on the first play following the punt a Humboldt halfback jarred his way through the Nevada line for 73 yards and a touchdown. He was hit by many Nevada tacklers and was once stopped but a fine second effort kept him going past the rest of the Nevada team. Humboldt added the extra point making the score 7-0 in favor of the Lumberjacks.

A roughing the kicker penalty against the Lumberjacks gave the Wolf Pack the ball and an additional fifteen yards to set up Nevada's only score of the game. On the next play quarterback Allen Crawford hit end Dennis Fitzpatrick on a 34 yard pass and Fitzpatrick literally ran over the Humboldt backs. A shove from halfback Louis Cooper enabled him to run over the final Lumberjack and into the end zone. Nevada picked up a two point conversion and took over the lead 8-7.

After a fine kickoff by Jim Trense, Jack Schwella forced a Lumberjack to fumble and the Pack had the ball in Humboldt territory but was unable to score. Shortly after, defensive safety Al McDaniels intercepted a Lumberjack pass and ran it back to the Humboldt fifteen yard line. But two plays later with the ball on the Humboldt 10 Crawford fumbled and it was recovered by the 'Jacks. This brought to a close the first half with Nevada leading 8-7.

Humboldt started the second half with a series of passes that put them down in Nevada territory. The Humboldt quarterback then carried the ball around end for the score. Once again the P.A.T. was good and the score was 14-8 in favor of the Lumberjacks. Nevada led for just over eight minutes. After an exchange of fumbles Nevada started moving with Herron and Crawford carrying the ball but a loss of fifteen and a holding penalty brought about a quick kick by Fred Williams and the end of the third quarter.

Humboldt took over possession of the ball in the final quarter and after fine passing were in distance for a field goal which was good from the 25 yard line, making the score Humboldt 17 and Nevada 8. This ended the scoring and most of the action for the game except two intercepted passes from Crawford.

Nevada looked better than they have in previous games. The game was highlighted by the crowning of the beautiful Jill Freeman as Homecoming Queen.

Wolf Pack Freshmen Nip Sacramento Frosh 8-7

The Nevada Freshman football team started Homecoming on the right foot Friday afternoon by dumping the Sacramento State Freshman 8-7 in Mackay Stadium. The little Wolves had a hard time offensively but shined on defense. Nevada scored its only touchdown on an intercepted pass by halfback Ron Dayton. Nevada then scored a two point conversion on a pass from quarterback Chris Ault to halfback Jack Byrom. This score put Nevada ahead 8-7 early in the second quarter and also ended the scoring.

The Wolf Pack defense was brilliant and contained the Hornets throughout the entire game. Linebacker Dave Diedrickson was the big star in the Nevada defense. Diedrickson was in on almost every tackle and he completely bottled up the middle of the line. Mike Sala also looked good for Nevada on defense.

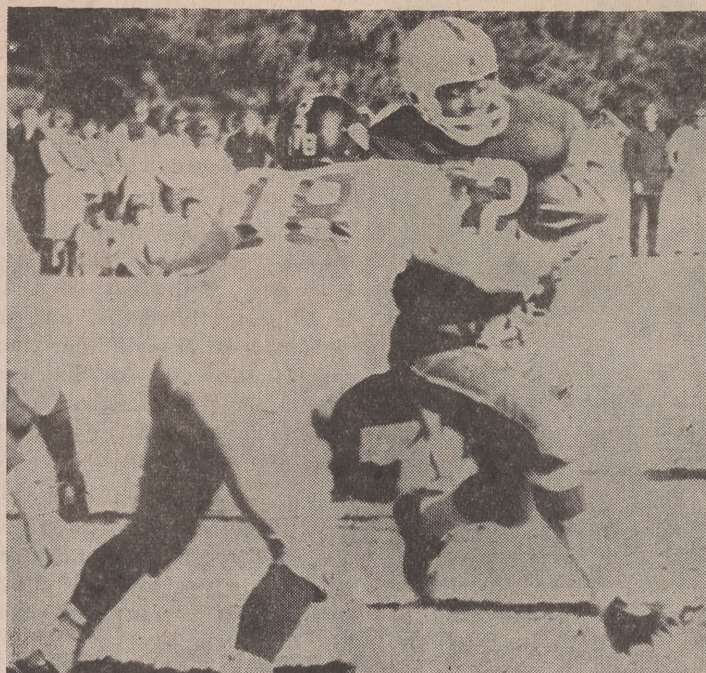

The game was highlighted in the final seconds by a fist swinging free-for-all fight in which almost every player on both benches participated.

Friday's game brought the Nevada Freshmen's record to two wins and one loss for the year. The Frosh have only one game to play and that is in two weeks against the Cal Aggies Frosh in Davis.

Alpha Tau Omega Wins Sat. Race

The ATOs finished first, second and third in the intramural cross country to win the team and individual honors in the race held before the parade Saturday morning. Jim Copenhagen won the race in 29 minutes and was followed by Jim Barry and Larry Stiff. Dave Schaff of SAE was fourth and Arne Nossun also from SAE was fifth. The SAEs finished second behind the Taus.

NEVADA halfback Bob Huron is stopped by a Humboldt State lineman after a gain in Saturday's Homecoming game. Nevada lost 17-8.

Cross Country Team Wins

The University of Nevada's cross country team ran over Humboldt State's team by a score of 19-43 Saturday afternoon on the Washoe County Golf Course. Nevada's runners had an easy time with the depthless Lumberjack runners.

Skip Houk of Nevada took the top honors by covering the two and one quarter mile course in 17 minutes and 32 seconds. Houk took the lead at the gun and kept it through the entire race. Skip's time was a good time for this course especially since he was never challenged or pushed.

Humboldt's Bill Ferlatte was the lone Lumberjack in the top six finishers. Ferlatte finished second and was a full minute behind the fast flying Houk.

The Wolf Pack placed runners third through seventh. Mike Sorenson nipped Steve Regas at the wire for the third spot. Frank Lemus finished fifth and Russ Sheltra placed sixth to be the last Nevada runner to count for the team score.

Next week the Wolf Pack cross country team will entertain the strongest team in the league,

Alpha Tau Omega Wins Intramural Baseball Crown

ATO won the American League intramural baseball championship by defeating Phi Sigma Kappa 11-0. Keith Stauffer pitched no-hit baseball in picking up his first win of the season in a game which was called after three innings due to the one-sided score.

Stauffer helped his own cause by belting a three run home run in the first inning to lead the Taus in the hitting department. Jim Stopper started for Phi Sigma Kappa and absorbed the loss.

In winning the championship, ATO pitchers gave up only one hit in the three regular season games, a home run which registered the only run scored on them during the season.

ATO will now meet the winner of the National League, as yet unknown, for the intramural baseball championship on Tuesday, November 3 on Clark Field.
