'Sharing' Theme Stated For Annual WUS Carnival Week

"We have it. They need it. Let's share it!" This is the theme for this year's World University Service week, announced Jan Strosnider, chairman for the event.

Instead of the usual carnival held for WUS, the annual Spurs Ugly Man dance will kick off an entire week saluting the organization.

During the week a little grass shack will be set up in front of the union to serve as an information booth about WUS and to collect money for the organization. There will also be a chart of WUS activities on display in the Union during the week.

It is hoped that twenty-five cents can be collected from each student to support the organization. The WUS committee will also go to all living groups and to faculty members to collect funds.

The World University Service was organized in 1920 as a program of mutual assistance of the universities of the world. The organization has its permanent headquarters in Geneva, Switzerland and has committees in forty-eight countries.

Some of the projects carried out by WUS have been the establishment of a college in Bechuanaland, the building of a dormitory in Nepal, and the furnishing of a student hostel in Guatemala. A current project is the opening of co-operative cafeterias and bookstores in Pakistan, Ceylon and India.

The organization is constantly operating in four categories of service: student health, food and lodging, educational facilities and in individual and emergency aid.

The Ugly Man Dance will start off the week. Voting for the Ugly Man will be held on April 14 and 15 in the union. Each vote will be one penny and everyone can vote. The funds collected will be contributed to WUS.

Art Students To Construct Display

"Baby It's All Rite" is the title of a coming art display to be created by students in the Art Department.

Students will construct an "environment of art" in the Lounge of the Fine Arts Building. The construction will be in the form of a maze with fifteen doors within the structure. The idea is for spectators to become involved with the subjects within the maze.

The presentation will include a "Happening" of sound and smell as well as physical association with the viewers. "There will be no theatrical aspects involved," said Professor Howard, Assistant Professor of Art. "The setting is similar to a stage but the only difference is the absence of actors."

The opening date for the presentation will be April 11.

Atmospherium Program Will Question Validity Of UFO's

A tape recorded conversation, supposedly recorded aboard an unidentified flying object, and photographs of other UFO's, are part of a program to be presented by the Atmospherium-Planetarium from May 4 through June 26.

Outstanding Greeks Selected

Sigma Nu Bill Chaffin and KAT Frenie Sewell have been selected as this year's Outstanding Greek man and woman.

The two were awarded plaques at the annual Outstanding Greek banquet last Thursday night at the Theta Chi House. Theta Chi President Arnold Hansmann presented the awards.

Chaffin, the ASUN president, was chosen out of a field of three male candidates. Miss Sewell was selected from a group of four women nominees.

Miss Sewell is WRA President; president of the Little Sisters of Minerva; a member of Sagens, Spurs, Cap and Scroll, and Who's Who.

She is also vice president of the Theta house, a Mackay Day queen candidate, business manager of the yearbook, and an honor roll student.

Annual 'Ugly Man' Dance April 15

The annual WUS Ugly Man Dance will be held on Friday, April 15, at 7:30 in the university dining commons. Admission will be $5.00 per person and dress will be informal. The Dimensions will play for dancing.

A highlight of the evening will be the crowning of the Ugly Man and a special feature of the dance will be a turtle race with each candidate for the Ugly Man running his entrant. An award will be given to the raciest turtle.

will attempt to clear up questions about UFO's, and present information concerning their existence, according to O. Richard Norton, curator of the Atmospherium.

The program will present theories concerning the validity of UFO sightings and discuss what the sightings actually mean.

"Public inaccuracies have been a big headache to the people who have to check the UFO sightings," Norton said. He hopes the program can answer questions about UFO's and uncover any pertinent information as to their meaning.

At the end of the program, it will be assumed that UFO's are ships from other planets outside our solar system, for discussion purposes, and ideas will be developed concerning life on such other worlds.

Norton stated that the program is not designed to prove anything in connection with the UFO sightings but merely to provide some basis for study of the phenomena.

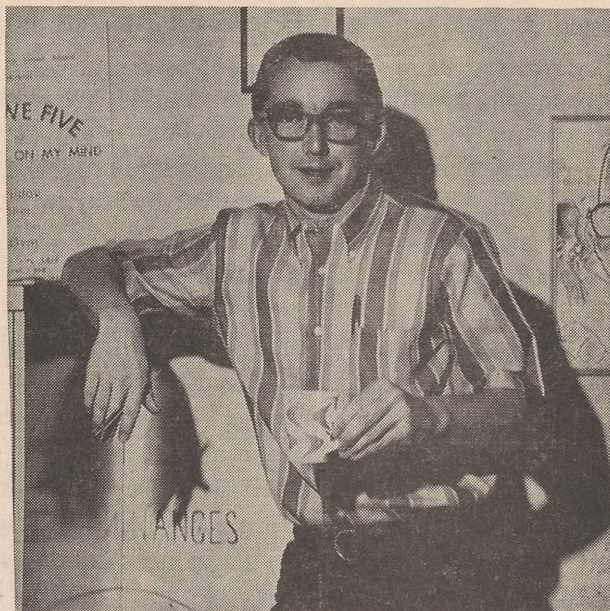

The photograph of the "UFO" appearing to hover above the atmospherium was taken from another picture and superimposed on the shot of the atmospherium.

Chaffin has been ASUN first vice president, senior men's senator-at-large, and Publication's Board and Finance Control board chairman. He is a Who's Who; a member of Blue Key; Phi Sigma Alpha, political science fraternity; and has been vice president of the Sigma Nu house.

The basis for selection was scholarship, school participation, campus activities, and campus attitude.

The Jot Travis Student Union Board will present Ferenc Nagy tonight in the Gym at 8 p.m.

Nagy, former Prime Minister of Hungary, will speak on "Coalition with Communism."

Pretty Gretchen Geyer Reigns As 1966 Junior Prom Queen

Delectable Gretchen Geyer, a 20-year-old off campus independent, was named the 1966 Junior Prom Queen Saturday night.

The brown-haired, brown-eyed beauty reigned over the Junior Prom Dance at the Hidden Valley country club after she was crowned by Junior Class President Gerry Roberts.

A resident of Sparks, Gretchen is a biology major at the University. She enjoys skiing, water-skiing and tennis. When she is graduated she plans to go into biological research.

Miss Geyer was one of eight coeds vying for the annual prom queenship. The other princesses were: Sue McGovern, Jeannine Earl, Debby Graham, Julie Tyson, Phillis Teipner, Harriet Hyatt and Marylynne Fry.

The "Strangers" provided entertainment for the yearly dance.

Publications Board To Meet Today To Settle Controversy

The next chapter in the Forum editorship controversy will be staged this afternoon. The Publications Board will meet in the Hardy Room at 4 p.m. and will consider the election of Satch Carlson as editor of the Forum.

Last Tuesday the Board elected Carlson to the post on the campus opinion magazine. On Wednesday night, however, the Senate voted 13-10 to deny approval of the election. All other election results were approved.

The debate in the Senate featured charges of Carlson's alleged inexperience and lack of intention to follow the Forum's format and counter-charges of a personality conflict between Senator Lance Sparks and editor-elect Carlson.

Sparks said Carlson had indicated he was not going to follow Forum policy in his term as editor. Carlson answered by saying his intention was to add a humor section to the Forum until such a time when funds were available to support a separate humor magazine.

Sparks also said Carlson lacked the experience to put out a magazine. He noted that Jan Webb, who has also been a candidate for the editorship, had experience as a member of the Forum.

Tentative plans are being made for a humor magazine called Humbug to be published for a trial period with the Sagebrush.

The Finance Control Board will also meet this afternoon at 4:30 p.m.

'Forum' Is Often One-Sided, Dull; Perhaps Compromise Would Help

A rehash of the selection for next year's editor of Forum will be staged this afternoon in a Publications Board meeting.

Last week the board chose Gordon "Satch" Carlson to head the campus literary magazine over Jan Webb. However, the ASUN Senate chose to disapprove his selection to the post with a narrow 13 to 10 vote Wednesday night.

Carlson intended to convert the publication into a humor magazine. He has had no previous experience running a publication.

Miss Webb, who is now assistant editor of the Forum, has had two years' experience with the editorial and technical end of the magazine. She has worked long and hard and can step into the editorship with no trouble.

However, the Publications Board first chose Carlson for the post because it was felt the Forum has been dull and one-sided in the past. Some feel the magazine is dominated by a liberal point of view.

However, the present editor, Mary White, contends conservative articles are rarely submitted to the Forum. She has said many times that the magazine is a forum, and she would be happy to print any and all well-written opinions.

As a result, there have been few conservative articles, and the magazine has lost what zestfulness there could be through a variety of controversial opinions. This is no fault of Miss White's. Liberals just have bigger mouths than conservatives.

Miss Webb will probably win this afternoon's election, and the Forum will continue to rehash virtually the same material over and over again. The anti-Vietnam factions are really getting to be a bore.

"Satch" Carlson would undoubtedly had some trouble in the technical end of publishing the magazine, but his ideas were refreshing.

Perhaps a compromise would improve the publication. Humor and opinion could combine to to freshen and lend variations, giving the Forum a more popular readership.

HAMPTON YOUNG, Assistant Editor.

'Jack Bedient And The Chessmen' Becoming Recognized As Outstanding Recording Group

University Of Nevada's 'Robby' Must Work Hard For Athletic Department

By Candy McGimsey

Two and one-half years ago a singing group came to Reno and lasted two nights before "bombing out." This combination is now a sought after act in the nitery circuit and has become recognized as a top recording group. This act, Jack Bedient and the Chessmen, played for this year's Winter Carnival and recently appeared at a club in Reno.

Jack Bedient is moderator for the five. One word that might describe him is "suave." Denny, the drummer is quiet, commenting mainly on what the other performers say.

Bill plays the bass guitar and is very out-going. Chuck, better known as "Lurch," plays the organ. "Little" Kevin is the comedian of the group. His quick humor makes it easy for him to fit into many situations.

These five different men interact to form the style of the Chessmen. Their daily schedule includes sleeping until noon, having six or seven hours to themselves, working and rehearsing after the last show. They all enjoy working at night. Bill feels it would be very hard to get used to working during the day again.

The Chessmen have been together around three years. They all agree the peak of their careers was their appearance at the university during Winter Carnival. The students were very receptive to their music and they would like to continue giving concerts of this type.

The Chessmen usually perform at a club for three or four weeks. Out of all their traveling each has a favorite spot to perform. Jack likes Reno, Bill likes the Tahoe area, and the other three enjoy Hawaii.

In their spare time each has a favorite activity. Bill works on his roadster. Jack sleeps, watches television, plays golf and spear fishes, while Kevin tinkers with his motorcycles and learns more about planes.

Kevin enjoys auto racing, listening to popular music (depending on his mood), and would like to buy a Rolls Royce. Bill, on the other hand, enjoys horse racing, listening to western music, and would like to finish his roadster. Jack likes to watch others ice skate, listen to all types of music and would like a 1967 Corvette.

Future plans include a new record, "My Girl", which will be released in four to six weeks, and an album within three months. Their top selling record to date is "Pretty One."

All agree they are nervous before a performance. When they first started in the profession before each performance they would shake hands. Now, as Kevin says, "When they open the curtains they just hope someone will be there."

"Hey Robby, I need a towel," ... "How about some clean sweat-pants?" ... "Take this equipment over to the new football field."

All these commands and many more are directed daily to Don Robertson by male P.E. students, University athletes, and coaches alike.

Don Robertson, or Robby to most male students, came to the university athletic department in September, 1960 after retiring from the Navy.

During his Naval career, Robby attained the rank of Chief Petty Officer and served most of his enlistment aboard various aircraft carriers during World War II and the Korean conflict.

At the university Robby is in charge of distributing and cleaning uniforms in all inter-collegiate sports and P.E. classes. It is also his duty to see that all uniforms are returned to the athletic department, which is not always as easy as it sounds.

During all university athletic events, Robby must get equipment and uniforms ready, prepare dressing rooms for visiting schools, and provide towels and soap for the athletes.

This may not seem like a difficult duty, but when several hundred students are screaming for towels throughout the day, and athletes and coaches are coming to the gym asking for supplies at the same time, his job can become quite harried.

Through all the work and confusion Robby says he still enjoys his job. "I enjoy working with young people and it helps keep my attitude up."

Cooper To Attend Conference

Reno will be well represented at the coming A.W.S. convention in Tempe, Arizona.

The topic of the three-day confab will be "Values chained—or changed." It will last April 6 through 9.

Nominations for the yearly A.W.S. scholarship of $100 were made during last Thursday's meeting. Pat Miltenberger and Ann Havrilla were nominated to receive the scholarship. Further nominations will be presented at the next meeting, April 21.

Anyone interested in the chairmanships listed in the A.W.S. handbook may call Marvis Cooper. She is appointing chairman to serve next year.

Representatives to A.W.S. were instructed to submit a list of graduating senior women in each living group.

HAYWARD—The University of Nevada track team had its closest call in FWC competition this year as the Wolf Pack defeated hosting Cal State, 80-65.

Weightman George Puce and sprinter Dick McCoy did not make the trip, while pole vaulter Dave Taylor and high jumper Otis Burrell did not compete in their specialties. Houston Williamson did not run the 220-yard dash due to an injury he sustained while running the hundred.

For the second week in a row, Nevada shot putter Howard Briles posted a personal best, winning that event with a heave of 54-3/4.

Al Lansdon won the pole vault at 14-5/8, to make up for Taylor's absence in that event. Taylor placed second in the javelin, with a throw of 166-5/8.

Baseball Nine Off To Good Start In Conference Circuit

By Gary Daniels

The University of Nevada baseball team got off to a good start in the Far Western Conference as they swept a double-header from the Chico Wildcats, Saturday in Reno.

Fred Dallimore and Carl Bossieux combined to pick up the RBI's, were the big sticks of the day. Sala's hits included a two-run homerun in the seventh inning of the second game.

Dallimore and Bossieux, although not as sharp as they have been in previous games, showed signs of good pitching. Bossieux held the Wildcats scoreless through six innings before tiring in the seventh. He then allowed the 'Cats to score four runs after two were out.

Best showing in the pitching department was by Mike Zuppan who relieved in both games and stifled Chico both times.

The horsehiders are currently in Fresno in the Easter Tournament facing what should be their toughest competition of the season — California, Washington State, and Fresno State. The Pack will return home to play the Washington State Cougars at Moana on Saturday.

DRI Director, Mordy, Named A University Vice President

The Board of Regents of the University of Nevada have announced the appointment of Professor Wendell Mordy, director of the Desert Research Institute, to a vice-president of the University.

Dr. Mordy will continue as head of the D.R.I.

"Professor Mordy will be responsible for new areas of University development and research, designed to strengthen the total academic program of the University on both campuses," explained President Charles Armstrong.

Dr. Fred Anderson, chairman of the Board of Regents, pointed out that the appointment of Dr. Mordy will not affect the organization of either campus under the new chancellors.

President Armstrong said, "The appointment was made in recognition of the rapidly growing importance of academic research throughout the entire University system and the state generally."

Dr. Mordy also writes a weekly science column for a Reno newspaper. He will continue the column while in his new post.

Draft Possibility

Selective Service officials in Washington have announced a draft call for 34,000 men in May. This is an increase from a March call of 22,400.

College students may not be called if the quota can be kept below 30,000 a month. This will require an increase in voluntary enlistments, said Selective Service officials.

Student Nurses Announce New Officers At Meet

The first annual state meeting of the Nevada State Student Nurse's Association was held to announce the new officers recently.

Members from both Las Vegas and Reno attended the meeting. Presided over by Connie Biglin, the meeting was climaxed with the announcement of the election results.

State officers for the coming year are Margaret Kerr, president, Reno; Judy Gerlock, 1st vice-president, Las Vegas; Keith Mattson, 2nd vice-president, Reno; Cheryl Fernandez, corresponding secretary, Reno; Pam Van Tassel, recording secretary, Reno; Esther Harris, treasurer, Reno; and Sharon Fisher, Las Vegas, delegate to the national convention.

Raymond S. Smith, father of one of the nursing students, hosted a luncheon for old and new officers and advisors at Harold's Club after the meeting.

From the End of the Bench

BY WINNING BOTH GAMES against Chico St. Saturday, the Nevada baseball team moved into a first place tie with Cal State at Hayward in the FWC race. Both teams are 2-0. Sacramento St. and the Cal Aggies are in a two-way tie for the number two spot.

IN AN UPSET THIS WEEKEND, the Cal Aggies split with tough Sac St. in a twin bill. Sac is regarded as the team to beat in the FWC, so the Aggie win helped Nevada's cause.

CHICO STATE'S BOB WALLACE, a double winner in last week's track meet in Reno, ran a 9.6 hundred as Chico State tied with the University of Pacific in a meet in Chico Saturday. Wallace nipped Nevada's Houston Williamson with a 10.1 clocking in the Wildcat-Wolf Pack meet.

OTIS BURRELL, STILL NURSING AN INJURED LEG, is going to jump into orbit before the year is over—or so I predict. For once, Otis is going to have some competition in the FWC. San Francisco St. has a 6-8 high jumper, Hayward has a 6-9 and a 6-7 jumper. Otis has done 7-2½ so far this year, the best in the nation.

I HOPE HE COMES TO NEVADA—Douglas High School left-hander Jack Maple pitched his second no-hitter of the season Saturday. He struck out 16 and added a homer to his cause.

DAVE ARCHIBALD, A CAL BOXER SEVERAL

WEEKS AGO, ran a very fast 47.7 quarter mile for the Athens Athletic Club in the Nevada-Chico St. track meet. Archibald has used up his track eligibility at Cal. He did very well against Nevada's Riley Beckett in a boxing match early in the season, although losing.

Study Of Mental Retardation Planned For Summer Work

Twenty-four University of Nevada students will participate this summer in a work-experience program aimed at encouraging careers in mental health.

The program will be directed by Dr. Sam Ornstein, coordinator for mental retardation planning in Nevada, who organized the program.

The initial selection of students to work in the program will be made by the Office of Mental Retardation Programs for the state.

The students selected will work in various jobs within the state's Bureau of Mental Retardation, including projects on speech and hearing, special children, and various jobs at the State Mental Hospital in Sparks. A student will also be placed in the Bureau of Mental Retardation headquarters in Reno.

The program will last 12 weeks, beginning June 13. It will include students from both the Reno and Las Vegas campuses.

The pay scale is $1.25 an hour for freshman and ranges up to $3.00 an hour for graduate students.

The program is the first of its kind in Nevada. It will be financed with federal funds.

Promotions Made

Promotions to cadet officer positions were made recently by the ROTC Brigade Commander.

Promoted to the rank of cadet major was David K. Rogers. Cadets who became captains are William G. Franks jr., Gwenith E. Brown, Robert C. Crouse, James D. Randles, and John P. Ashworth. New cadet second lieutenants are Lloyd M. O'Connell, Joseph F. Beloso, and Ira S. Rackley.

Law Librarians Get New Offices

New offices for members of the National Congress of State Trial Judges are being provided on the bottom floor of the University of Nevada library.

The law librarian, Mr. John Moller, and his assistants are moving to a new office near the recently established law collection. A window in the office will allow users of the library to seek help, as no card catalog has been set up on the collection yet.

Professor Justin Smith, assistant dean and research director, is moving to the office formerly occupied by the law librarians. Then all of the faculty offices will be in the same part of the library.

Changes are to be made within the next month so that the staff will be in the new offices by summer session in July. Then 100 new trial judges will attend sessions at the University of Nevada.

Mike Sala Chosen

First baseman Mike Sala was chosen "athlete of the week" by the Sagebrush staff for the period ending April 3.

Sala gave Nevada 7 RBI's against Chico St. in the Saturday double header. He was four for eight on the day at bat.

Owen Toy also deserves mention for gathering four hits in seven at bat in the twinbill.

SOPHOMORE MEN:

Want to be a leader and double your chances for success in life? You can, by earning both a degree and an Army officer's commission at the same time . . . even though you may not have taken ROTC training in your first two years!

Through a new program, you can be commissioned as a Second Lieutenant after taking two years of Army ROTC training while you complete your studies for a college degree. You can qualify for this program by attending a special six-week summer training camp after your sophomore year and then completing the ROTC Advanced Course in your junior and senior years of college.

Here's what ROTC training and an officer's commission will do for you:

- It will qualify you to fulfill your military obligation as an officer.
- You will learn to organize, motivate, and lead others.
- You will develop leadership qualities that many college men miss—self-discipline, physical stamina, poise, bearing, the acceptance of responsibility and other qualities that contribute to success in either a civilian or military career.
- You will receive $40 per month during your junior and senior years, plus pay and mileage for summer training.

The training and experience you will receive through Army ROTC will pay off for the rest of your life. A decision to take advantage of this new program could be one of the most important you will ever make.

You owe it to yourself to investigate this new important opportunity.

For complete information on the new Two-Year Army ROTC Program see the Professor of Military Science on campus.
