Editorial

The school year has come to an end, and many good times and tremendous acquaintances must temporarily end.

I especially wish to express my appreciation to the student body of the University of Nevada for their overall support it gave to the student newspaper.

The Sagebrush would not have been a good paper were it not for my assistant editor, Hampton Young, who will be the new editor next fall.

Joyce Freeman's contribution was one that the paper badly needed.

Marc Ratner will never have an equal. There will always be but one "Rat."

Thanks, too, to the entire staff of Mike Smithwick, Gregg Zive, Mary Solaro, Mike Parman, Sue Blackey, Marilyn Jones, Jennifer Jennings, Ed Parson, Larry Farr, Ed Reynolds, and Miss Pussycat Toni Martin, for the exceptional and fine work they have done for the paper.

The year's memories are many. Some of them I'll never forget include:

- The pseudo beliefs of one Greg Artman . . .
- Sundowners, spirit, unmatched by any organization . . .
- The SAE's and the honor of serving them as their president . . .
- The midnight runs for tasties . . .
- Shakeys on Wednesday nights . . .
- Thursday mornings . . .
- A two-dollar relationship, but more expensive in thought . . .
- The Indian Dance and some "nectar from the gods."
- The killing I took or the Baltimore Colts . . .
- My Easter Bunny binge . . .
- Good people like Ed Reiher, Kirk Kinne, Dave Gardner, Tammy Conklin, Gerry Roberts, Dan Aldstrom, Marvin Murphy and Jack Leanagio . . .
- The class of the Little Wal . . .
- My small bro' and a good Big Ten fan from Iowa . . .
- Gretta and Miss Martin; two beauts' . . .
- Paddy Murph's wake and 190 proof grain alcohol . . .
- A fine trip to Fresno State with Sigma Nu members . . .
- Eating ground glass and dirt one Mackay Day weekend at Peavine Mountain . . .
- "Ski," "Stept" and "Two Two" and a "Tribute to Billy Holiday" over many tasties . . .
- The honor of knowing and loving Mike Ingersoll and Jeff Reeves . . .

★ Letters To The Editor ★

'Our Gal Marilyn'

Mr. Sig Rogich, Editor
 Sagebrush
 Dear Sig,

You know how I hesitate to write letters to editors, particularly nasty ones, but duty does, on occasion, call. Your editorial criticizing Our Gal Marilyn smacked of pretty sorry Last-Wordism; most of it consisted of uncalled-for nit-picking and snide innuendo. If she writes a lousy column, say so, and perhaps offer constructive criticism. After all, it's your newspaper, such as it is, and you should be jolly able to run it. Calling our gal a lousy ASUN secretary, however, is a horse of another color—particularly when you fail to mention who it was that considered her such. The Baby-food Kid and Murph the Surph don't care for me, either, so their opinions concern me little.

I thought her column was just what you needed, in view of the fact your reply to it was packed with all the grammatical and structural errors we have come to expect of you. Legitimate criticism stimulates most editors into improving their publications; the Sagebrush now as never before can stand improvement of nearly every kind. As a beginning, you might explain the difference between an Honors Program and an honor system.

I wish further to take the opportunity to thank you for saving my immature mind and feeble body from the Ravages of Pot and Other Social Evils. Your little tract was very nice, except that you missed two points:

- (1) everybody who is already Corrupted split hot coffee as they collapsed in helpless laughter while reading it; and
- (2) the Uncorruptables wouldn't dream of such a thing anyway.

I presume when Dr. Basta gets excited over venereal disease, a real problem, we will get another asinine sheet; perhaps "Little Billy Bucket Talks To Dr. Penicillin About Syph" will be adjudged palatable for young minds.

HUMBUG, the secret campus humour magazine, is still thriving, although somewhat quietly. I wish you would answer all those pests who keep asking when it will appear in addendum to the 'Brush. I don't know whatinhell to tell 'em. Tell the HUMBUG staff, too, because there has been some extremist talk around here about taking over the Sagebrush by force, despite the tremendous respect they hold for you. As my Circulation Manager said last week, "We salute the Sagebrush. I'm sure you all know the salute."

I will close, now, so I can begin a fresh page with the P.S.

Regards,
 Satch

P.S.

Some people are really getting quite irritated at your egregious disregard for the more commonly accepted uses of the English language. Perhaps this is nit-picking, but those can't ALL be typos! It behooves you, moreover, to refrain from falling back on the Classic Defense (known also as Higginbotham's Fallacy), namely that we can't expect a decent paper from you because you're only Little Boys playing Noosepaper, and therefore obviously incapable of much. I lost all feelings of sympathy for your inadequacies when I found out that the editor and business manager of the Sagebrush make money, if not ripples. Besides, the paper has been better. It might be wise to find more columnists like Morris, Slansky, or Adams before you chuck out the little talent you now possess.

 Editors Note: Maybe we need you cat

Draft Test Easy Yet Few Take It

"It had to be the most effortless test, I've ever taken. Really Mickey Mouse."

Although reaction to the draft deferment test has been largely favorable from those who have taken it, some seem reluctant to show up for the exam.

According to Jack Selbig, who is administering the tests on the Reno campus, the tests have had somewhat less than perfect attendance. Only 147 showed up for the first test, Two-hundred had signed up for it.

Last Saturday 198 had indicated they would take the test. Only 60 showed up for it.

Two more tests will be held. It is not known how many students have been assigned to take these tests.

CASH PAID FOR BOOKS

Student I.D. Required to Sell Books

Used textbooks fall into three groups. The following categories determine the price at which the bookstore may purchase a used book:

1. Current copyright books that have been selected for the next semester and there is an inadequate supply in the bookstore. These books are worth 50 per cent of the current new price
2. Current copyright books that are no longer in use at the University of Nevada, or have not been definitely selected by the instructor. These books can be sold to a wholesale book jobber. The ASUN Bookstore acts as an agent and can pay cash to the student for these books at the jobber's catalog price. These books are shipped from the campus for use on other college campuses. The price paid cannot be too high as the jobber has considerable expense involved in shipping, warehousing, and selling of these books. Too, the wholesaler faces a risk of not selling them at all.

3. The third group includes old editions, out of print and similar titles which are no longer in demand, and have little or no value.

From the End of the Bench

by Mike Parman

IF YOU ARE STUDYING for finals, do not read this column. It is of little consequence and your valuable time could be applied to more worthwhile pursuits. It is extremely doubtful that anything of major importance can be found here. Of course, I am not breaking any traditions when I say this.

A LOT OF APPRECIATION should be handed to all the Wolf Pack athletes and coaches for doing the job they have this year. The sports season could not have been much better. The fans deserve their share of credit too, for supporting the teams like they did. The crowds were never better than this year's.

I THINK A GOOD SEASON can be expected for almost every sport next year. Our FOOTBALL team is going to be something to be reckoned with. We will have some rough veterans returning . . . BOXING should also be good. We will have almost the whole team returning, including several CCBC champs . . . CROSS COUNTRY is the same thing—good strong runners coming back . . . We should really go places with in WRESTLING next year. The team has gained experience and Coach Lee Newell is building a fine program . . . BASEBALL, TRACK, TENNIS, and GOLF will all see the return of many veterans.

THE BIG QUESTION will be basketball, where we lost four starters this year. I think we will have the best guards in the conference in Bob Gilliam, George Corder, and George Shoenburger. Tom Smith should do a very good job in the forward slot, and Jerry Hart did a fine job as center this year. We will still be short of big men next year, however, unless some tall transfers join Coach Spencer's team.

ALTHOUGH NSU will lose Silas Stepp this year, its team could rate as one of the best small college squads in the West. The Rebels were troubled this year by player ineligibility, but could prove to be very tough in the 1966-67 season.

SEE YOU AGAIN NET YEAR.

Driver Class Given

The University of Nevada will offer a course in Driver and Traffic Education this summer. The course, Secondary Education 358 or 658, will be held August 8-19.

Bert Cooper of the State Department of Education will direct the course. Further information can be obtained in the Summer school office upstairs in the Clark Administration Building.

Summerr School Bulletin Available

Holy Catalog! "Advanced Techniques for the Professional Student," is just one of the many courses outlined in the summer school bulletin for 1966.

Besides the physical education course for professional students 370, there are course offerings in English, journalism, history, and many more.

The bulletin is now available in the Statewide Services office upstairs in Clark Administration Building.

Archeology Gift

A gift of $100,000 has been given to the University of Nevada by an anonymous donor to support a Nevada Archeology Program.

Dr. Wilbur Davis, assistant professor of anthropology and an instructor of archeology, says the money will be used to organize a survey for the acquiring of the basic equipment for the program. This includes office furniture, office supplies, field equipment, and the funding of a staff.

Faculty To Travel

Home economics faculty members are planning for a trip to San Francisco this summer. They will attend the American Home Economics Association convention there.

The convention will last from June 27 until July 1.

All 11 of the home economics faculty members will go to the meeting.

Spurs Plan Ahead

Spurs members are looking forward to next year. Plans to return to the university for orientation, ideas for new uniforms, and the decision to host the regional Spurs convention were discussed at their last meeting held Tuesday.

When the Spurs return in September to help with the orientation of freshmen they may have different uniforms than those of past years. White ivy league blouses with a smaller emblem may accompany the white "A" line skirts. The white sweater with the round Spurs emblem will be kept for winter as it is a national regulation.

Nevada's Spurs will also host the regional convention in the fall. Women from five Western states will attend the conference.

Officers Elected

The University of Nevada's Newman Club has elected officers for the 1966-67 school year. The new officers are:

Joe Bell, president; Maryann Dybowski, vice president; Kindall Booth, recording secretary; Becky Tureson, corresponding secretary; Joann Williams, treasurer; Bob Anderson, religious chairman; Dennis Bickett, educational chairman; Vic Ivashin, social chairman; Janet Carrica, representative to district.

The club plans an end of the year picnic for Sunday June 5 at Pyramid Lake.

Bank Gives Gift

The Noble Getchell Library special collections department has received the records of the Bank of Austin and its predecessor, the Paxton and Curtis Bank. The gift was donated by the Nevada Bank of Commerce.

The records may be used for research. However, the bank records are confidential, and permission from the Nevada Bank of Commerce will be required before information can be taken from the collection.

Robert Armstrong, special collections librarian, said, "This gift is important. It has greatly added to our other material on Austin and Lander County."

The records include cash books, blotters, balance ledgers, correspondence journals, and several miscellaneous articles. The records range from the early 1870's to the early 1900's.

Summer YWCA Coordinator Picked

Mrs. Sue Dodson has been named as the new coordinator for the campus YWCA. Mrs. Dodson will work in cooperation with the "Y's" campus president Mina Pendo. She is the wife of John Dodson, minister to the Campus Christian Association.

In addition to aiding in the activities of the campus group, Mrs. Dodson will also serve as a counselor to help students through personal problems. She will also be concerned with leadership training.

The campus YWCA is primarily a service organization. It is active in voluntary community service. Activities have included tutoring for high school students, forming a library for Indian students and sponsoring campus seminars.

Travel File Kept

Traveling? The ASUN keeps a file of travel pamphlets and materials for student reference, according to ASUN 2nd vice president, Anne Marie Lesperance.

Miss Lesperance says, however, that more information is needed. Any students traveling in the United States or abroad this summer are being asked to save their travel information.

The information should be turned into Miss Lesperance in the 2nd vice presidents office in the Student Union building.

Contract Increase

The Laboratory of Atmospheric Sciences has received an increase in its contract from $300,000 to $405,000 for 1965-66, according to Joseph Warburton, Research Associate. The award is made by the Bureau of Reclamation, Department of the Interior, Denver.

University of Nevada Desert Research Institute is one of the few institutions in the 17 western states capable of doing extensive research in the area of cloud and rain physics.

IRC Plans Picnic

The International Relations Club plans to hold a picnic at Pyramid Lake on Friday, June 3.

University students will be charged $1 for club members and $1.50 for non-members.

Students attending will depart from Morrill Hall at 10:30 a.m. Another departure time is scheduled at 6:30 p.m. for those who find it more convenient. Water skiing, swimming, volley ball are a few of the activities scheduled for the day.
