

GALA CELEBRATION SET FOR TOMORROW

WOLF BUSINESS MANAGER WINS PRESIDENCY OF W.A.C.C. MEET

'HERB' JACOBS SECURES CONVENTION FOR NEVADA

FIFTEEN COLLEGES WILL SEND MEN HERE NEXT YEAR

Word has recently come from 'Herb' Jacobs '28, business manager of the Nevada Desert Wolf, that the next convention of the Western Association of College Comics will be held next year at the University of Nevada, and that he has been elected as president of the association for the coming year.

This convention is composed of business managers and editors of all college comic magazines, and is organized for the purpose of protection against National advertising companies, and interchange of ideas regarding policies, new standards, and new features for the various publications of the colleges represented.

The convention at which Herb Jacobs is in attendance at the present time is being held at the University of Washington, Seattle, is at least the sixth annual meeting of the organization. It will be at Nevada, approximately at this time next year, and will bring representatives from about sixteen different universities to this campus for a two to three-day session.

Universities belonging to those institutions which will be eligible to send a representative to the Nevada convention will include this University, Washington State College, University of Washington, University of California, University of Arizona, University of Utah, University of Oregon, University of Idaho, University of Montana, University of California at Los Angeles, Pomona, Occidental, University of Southern California, University of Denver, University of Colorado, and Oregon Agricultural College.

A convention similar in nature to this one was held on this campus two years ago when Ernest Inwood '27, editor of the Sagebrush, was president of the Pacific Intercollegiate Press Association, and presided at the convention of that body held on this campus.

As at the coming meeting, prominent men in the field of publications addressed the assembly of representatives, and featured events, such as trips to interesting scenic points about Reno, were held during the meeting.

Jacobs will return to the campus Monday and plans will be drawn up for the convention.

'ELECTION BALL' WILL CLOSE DAY

A new feature of Mackay Day will be the "Candidates Ball," which will be held Saturday evening in the University Gym, following the sham battle in Mackay Field by the Military Department. This dance will be sponsored by the A. S. U. N. and the proceeds will go to refinance the A. S. U. N. treasury.

Many special features are being prepared for the dance, among which are several acts of local and campus talent not before seen at any campus function.

Many of the alumni will be present at this affair, and the committee in charge is anxious that the whole Student Body turn out to end up the Mackay Day celebration in the best possible style.

SEARCY TO ACT AS TUTOR

Professor C. L. Searcy will tutor University students this summer in Analytical Geometry and in Calculus in Reno. Several of the students have requested that he do this and he has consented as it will be very convenient for these men who will not have to go to summer school.

EVENTS PLANNED FOR MACKAY DAY

The schedule of events for Mackay Day is as follows:
9:00 a. m.—Clean-up of the baseball field and running track.
12:30 p. m.—Lunch served in the gymnasium.
2:00 p. m.—A. S. U. N. meeting and nomination of officers.
2:30 p. m.—Interclass track meet on Mackay Field.
7:45 p. m.—Sham battle on Mackay Field by R. O. T. C.
8:30 p. m.—Mackay Day dance.

"Sham Battle" New Attraction of Mackay Day

SABRE AND CHAIN WILL SPONSOR MINIATURE WAR SCENE

A new feature will be added to the Mackay Day celebration this year when a sham battle is produced by members of the upper division classes in the military department. This attraction is to take place on Mackay field at 7:45 in the evening just before the dance.

Reproduce Attacks
The mock battle will be a reproduction of actual methods of attack employed by the Allied troops during the World War. The troops will be divided into the Freshmen against the Sophomores with about ninety taking actual part in the combat. The troops have been organized into two divisions with Cadet-Major Kenneth Knopf '28 in charge of the offense and Cadet-Captain Archie Watson '28 the defense.

Paraphernalia for the night attack has been received from the War Department Arsenal at Benecia, Cal., including flares, signal-lights, grenades, aerial bombs and smoke bombs. All equipment owned by the department here is to be used also, which consists of one-pound cannon, bayonets, helmets, etc. Sandbag parapets are to be used by the defense in making the conflict as realistic as possible, while ambulance corps and stretcher service will be in evidence on the scene.

Blank Shots Used
Over 2500 rounds of blank ammunition will be used besides 150 rounds for the one-pounders. The plan of attack has been worked out and rehearsal for the past week, and the added stunt gives promise of being a fine one.

The affair is being staged under the direction of Sabre and Chain and is one that is difficult to produce, the University of California being about the only college to attempt it in the west.

The band will play before the attack and during the finale.

STORY CONTEST WILL END WITH WOMEN'S ISSUE

PRIZES TO BE AWARDED TO CONTESTANTS ON MACKAY DAY

The silver loving cup presented by the Artemisia staff to the Sagebrush reporter winning the highest number of points in the best story contest will be presented at the Mackay Day luncheon according to Bob Adamson '29 and Carl Feutsch '29 who are in charge and sponsoring the contest. Gold-engraved Artemisias will be presented to the three holding the next highest number of points at the time of the close of the contest.

Five High Bidders
With but one more week to go, five Sagebrush reporters are making heavy bids for the top place on the list of point-holders, with Margaret Smith '30, retaining with lead with the 275 points she has had since early in the contest. Running a close second to her are Cecilia Hawkins '31, Rose Mahana '31, and Edwin Semenza '30, all with a total of 250 points. Marjorie Blewett '30, follows with a 225 point showing.

Tom Wilson '30, captured the honors from the rest of the contestants last week, winning first place with his story on the He-Jinks, with Harold Blackmun '30 another newcomer in the contest, taking 75 points for second place with his write-up of Mackay Day.

Griffith Places
Blodwyn Griffith '30, followed up her surprise of last week by capturing third place in this week's contest, making her a total of 150 points, all of which have been won on her "Know Your Campus First" feature stories. "Pat" Smith '29, also put in a bid for a place in the contest by adding 25 points to his credit for his work on the story "More Presidential Candidates."

Other contestants having points in the contest are: Donna Dove '28, Warren Monroe '28, Barbara Horton '29, Eber Stening '30, and Fred Lohse '30. With this present week's paper marking the close of the contest, it is generally accorded that the top honors will necessarily be divided between the three women now holding the highest number of points, as the men of the staff did no writing for the women's issue.

DORMS RECEIVE GIFTS

Mrs. Van Nagel, whose home on Court street has recently been sold, made the girls' dormitory a gift of books, pillows and other articles which have been appreciated by the women.

CLARENCE H. MACKAY

THE DAY WE CELEBRATE

MACKAY DAY commemorates the great gifts to the University from Clarence Hungerford Mackay and his mother, Marie Louise Mackay, made in 1908-1910 and made in honor of John W. Mackay, who by industry, intelligence and dauntless courage achieved notably in the Comstock Big Bonanza days. This memorial feature receives the first special emphasis on every Mackay Day.

Because the outstanding fact of John W. Mackay's life story was his serving achievement, which brought him through from a prospector and laborer with pick and shovel to leadership in the development of America's greatest silver lode and later leadership in girdling the globe with cables, our celebration takes the form of pick and shovel, scraper and roller service on the part of all men of the campus and catering and decorating service by the campus women. This service theme, concreted, receives second special emphasis each Mackay Day.

Genuine appreciation of the builders who have gone before us and have made possible our opportunities, joined with will to serve in our time,—these two make Mackay Day a useful and beautiful day for our University.

—WALTER E. CLARK.

Y.W.C.A. PRESENTS BLUE KEY TO BE MOVIE FEATURE AGENCY SPONSOR

"Dustin" in the Movies was the theme of the annual Y. W. C. A. so-called Minstrel show presented this morning at 11:25 in the Education building. Clever lines of poetry and wit featured the take-off on the trials and tribulations of the coy young thing seeking to make her way into the land of filmdom, and as well brought out very clearly the other side of the story—that of the worries of the casting director which was characterized by "Red" McIlwaine '29.

Songs and feature dances were given during the course of the entertainment. Those taking part in the show included Bessie Davie '30, Dorothy Johns '31, Kathleen Malloy '29, Beth Beamer '29, Alyce Couch '31, Fay Reinhart '29, and Berry MacAnally '31, otherwise known as Miss Sissie Spear-mint, Miss Mazie Mobile, Miss Pansy Pussfoot, Miss Daisy Dimples, Miss Lotta Ruffles, Miss Flossie Poozie, Miss Totty Tossendown, and Miss Annie Jones, to give their character names.

The proceeds from the Minstrel show will be used by the Y. W. C. A. in carrying out of their several projects, including the sending of one or two delegates to Sacramento, Assiomer, and contributing to the work of secretaries in the United States and in foreign fields.

U. OF NEV. SEISMOGRAPH REGISTERS EARTHQUAKE

The seismograph at the Mackay school of mines spent a busy day last week, when it registered the Mexican earthquake that caused considerable damage in Mexico City. It started about 8:23 in the morning with its preliminary quakes and finished its last quake at 9:42, making a total of 59 minutes the machine was in action.

Prophesy Made On Nominations For Next Year

SEVERAL WOMEN'S NAMES ARE MENTIONED BY OBSERVER

By THE OBSERVER
Again, as S. U. N. elections draw near, and once more the Campus is seething with questions as to who will run for this and who will run for that office. Rumors are rife that many men and few women will run for the offices open to them, and many names have been mentioned.

Presidential Bidders
One of the most prominent names heard is that of "Dutch" Lemkuhl '29, for A. S. U. N. leader. Rumor has it that "Kelly" Lyon '28 may also enter the race for Student Body pilot, with Lloyd Moon '29, having many backers for the same office.

The vice-presidency calls for a woman, but few names have been mentioned for this highest office open to a member of the fairer sex. We have heard rumors mentioning the name of Renee Duque '29 for this office, and thus far she seems to have no opposition. However, only time will tell.

Cross May Be Run
Several names have been coupled with the office of A. S. U. N. treasurer, that of Carol Cross being heard oftenest. As this is being written however, a rumor comes to the writer that Hoyt Martin '29, will possibly run for this position. Another name heard at numerous times is that of "Tip" Whithead '30.

Names for the office of secretary are rather a scarcity, with two women, Alice Halley '29 and Barbara Horton '30 mentioned in numerous circles, as possible candidates.

Men's Representative to Finance Control seems to be a popular office with three names mentioned as possible candidates, Douglas Ford '29, Louis Lombardi '29 and Lee Burge '29 being talked of, none of them giving any assurance of their candidacy, however.

With one name, that of Mary O'Neil '30 for Women's Representative to Finance Control, the only one talked of for that office, others will doubtless be added by Mackay Day.

All this is of course, hearsay, but who knows, one who prophesies sometimes hits the nail on the head. Now we're not saying that we're one of those marvelous sages, but—well, we'll see. Mackay Day will be here tomorrow!

NEVADA GRADS ESTABLISH NEW CHAPTER AT L. A.

HILL ALUMNI HELD BIG MEETING TO DRAW UP PLANS

The Los Angeles District Alumnae Association was formally and permanently organized at an alumnae dinner held in Los Angeles on Tuesday evening, March 20th, according to President Clark, recently returned from a trip to that city.

Ed Lyman, Mrs. Hulda Shartel Dickson, and Miss Editha Brown had charge of the arrangements for this dinner. Between fifty and sixty alumnae and former students were present, representing classes from 1892 to 1927. Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Hill were there, representing the staff. Ed Lyman presided.

Merrill Leads Song
After dinner, Doris D'Hart sang charmingly several selections and President Clark spoke to the group on recent progress in Reno and at the University. Brief addresses were made by Jack O'Sullivan and Mr. Smith. Mrs. Dickson and Lester Merrill led the gathering in singing "U. of N. So Gay," the words and music of which were written by Mr. Merrill.

After the program, a motion was made and enthusiastically supported to form a permanent alumnae association for Los Angeles. All alumnae, former students and former staff members of the University of Nevada living in Los Angeles or vicinity are eligible to membership of this organization.

Officers Chosen
As officers for the coming first year of the Los Angeles District Alumnae Association, Jack O'Sullivan, president; Mrs. Prince Catlin, vice-president; Mrs. Dickson, secretary and treasurer, and Ed Lyman, chairman of the advisory board, were elected. Mr. Lyman was given power to select the other members of the advisory board.

It is the belief of the active members of this association that between one hundred and fifty and two hundred ex-Nevadans are living in the Los Angeles district, at present, and all will be invited to membership in the new alumni chapter.

WIDE PROGRAM SCHEDULED FOR ANNUAL MACKAY DAY FESTIVITIES

A. S. U. N. OFFICERS TO BE NOMINATED AT LUNCH; INTERCLASS TRACK MEET HELD IN AFTERNOON

ANNUAL SENIOR DINNER WILL BE HELD APRIL 24

PRESENTATION OF CLASS SONGS TO FEATURE THIS EVENT

Announcement has been made this week of the fact that Dr. and Mrs. Walter E. Clark's annual dinner in honor of the members of the graduating class will be held at seven o'clock on Tuesday, April 24, at the Century Club.

A committee consisting of Isabel Loring, Kathleen Griffin, Joe Garcia, Altha Pierson, Betty Dove, Carol Smith, and Fred Anderson, all of the class of '28, has been designated for the purpose of searching out songs to be presented by members of the class at this dinner.

Long-Standing Custom
This custom of writing songs for the president's dinner for the senior has been a long-standing one, and several of the prize songs of the University have been acquired through this means. "Hall, Proud Nevada," honored as one of the finest songs on the University song book, was written by Jane O'Sullivan, of the class of '24, for presentation at the class senior dinner.

The "Alma Mater," written by the class of '26 and used as a final tribute song by the graduating class at the end of the commencement exercises, was heard for the first time at the dinner of '26, and the "Campus Spring Song," a clever interpretation of the varying moods and feelings ushered in to the Hill by spring weather, also received its initiation at this event.

Class History
In addition to the class songs which will be presented at the senior meeting, a class history is being framed by Anita Becas '28, in which achievements and noteworthy events in the life of the class of '28 are being recorded. Contributions to this history are welcome, and it is urged by those in charge that all seniors will cooperate to make this history complete.

The songs which are presented at the senior dinner are sang at that time, and those receiving special reception and consideration as the ones worthy of becoming University songs, are printed in the program and so perpetuated. Credit is given to the composer of the songs. Songs are acceptable at any time, according to Mrs. Clark, and it is hoped that particular attention will be accorded to this feature of senior activities and songs produced which may fill a certain need for songs on the Hill.

PUBLIC SPEAKING GIVEN AS MINOR

With the idea of instituting a public speaking minor on the Nevada campus, Edwin Duer, instructor in English, has announced several new courses to be given in 1928-29, and 1929-30. One course, English 72-73, of three units in play production, and Instructor Duer asks that anyone desiring to take this course see him very shortly. This course will only be open to a limited number of students, and anyone wishing to enroll in it next semester should do so at once.

Other Courses Added
Other new courses are: English 8, voice diction, a one unit course, giving the fundamentals of public speaking. Advanced public speaking, English 61-62 will be given next year 1928-29, and is a two-unit course. In 1929-30 English 63-64, a course in oratory will be offered as a two-unit course.

A new ruling will go into effect next semester which will not allow anyone to take English 12, public speaking, without English 11, as a prerequisite. Several courses have been changed from lower to upper division work and undoubtedly, according to Instructor Duer, numerous changes will be made next year as well.

1928-29 CATALOG HAS GONE TO PRESS TODAY

According to Dean Adams, the new University Catalogue should go to the press by Friday. In order to have the material for the new edition ready, the Arts and Science Faculty will meet on Wednesday and the General Faculty will meet on Thursday so that all revisions and additions may be perfected.

Track and Field

At 9 o'clock in the morning the program will start with all men students out with picks and shovels to level off the baseball field and recondition the cinder track around Mackay field. The course which at present is hard to run upon will be torn up, the rocks removed, and the ground leveled. The soil will be sacrificed at the depth of three or four inches. Mr. Howard Steiner of the Robinson Tractor Company of Oakland has donated a tractor which is fully equipped to do the work. The repairing of the track will take up the entire morning before the lunch.

Lunch will be served at 12:30 in the gymnasium by the women students on the campus. A program has been arranged and will take place during the luncheon, for which Elizabeth Shaber '29, is toastmistress. A cup is to be presented to the sorority or fraternity who sing their songs the best, although members of the different houses are not to sit together at the tables.

Student Body Meet

An A. S. U. N. meeting will follow immediately after the lunch in the gym when nominations are to be made for next year's student officers.

At 2:30 the annual inter-class track meet will take place on Mackay field. Much rivalry has been expressed between the classes and the meet promises to be a good one.

This year for the first time the military department will stage a sham battle, depicting actual war scenes from the World War which will be produced at 7:45 in the evening. Equipment has been received from the War department and the new feature will be one of the attractions of the Mackay Day celebration.

Campus Dance

The eventful day will close with a dance in the gymnasium which promises a good time for everyone.

TREASURY PLAN READY FOR VOTE

The committee appointed by Vernon Cantlon '28, student body president, met Tuesday afternoon and discussed the proposed centralized treasury plan, omissions and alterations were made where it seemed necessary. The objections of the Campus Players were set forth by Edwin Duer, and there were arguments for and against the changes wanted by this organization, and as a result, it was decided to present the plans, as they now stand, fully organized, to the Student Body for a final vote.

The general consensus of opinion of the committee was in favor of the present plans, and the committee believes that it ought to be adopted as it seems to be favorable to the best interests of the university.

ZOOLOGY CHANGES MADE

Zoology 8, formerly open to under classmen, has been changed to zoology 55, and will be open to Juniors and Seniors only, according to an announcement made by Peter Frandsen, professor of biology.

'BRUSH RECEIVES MACKAY GREETING

A message was recently received by the Women's Staff from Clarence H. Mackay upon occasion of their putting out this issue of the Sagebrush. Mr. Mackay says:

"I welcome this opportunity of sending my friends of the University of Nevada my most cordial greetings and good wishes for the successful carrying on of the Sagebrush, which I trust will rival in its literary capacity and influence in the community, the famous 'Territorial Enterprise' of Nevada's early days.

Clarence H. Mackay," referred to by Mr. Mackay, was one of the most well known and influential publications of the time of its publication in Virginia City, and was a famous pioneer in the field of journalistic enterprise.

APPROXIMATELY $1,000,000 HAS BEEN GIVEN U.N.

MACKAY ARE HEAVIEST DONORS; CLARK SECOND

Since 1886 when the University of Nevada was formerly re-opened at its present site in Reno, nearly a million dollars have been given and donated to the University, some gifts having special provisions for the way in which the money and funds were to be used.

To Mrs. John W. Mackay and Mr. Clarence H. Mackay goes the first appreciation for the bountiful and numerous gifts with which they have endowed our University. In 1907 they began a donation to the University which founded the Mackay Schools of Mines, the Mackay Athletic Field and the Mackay Training Quarters. At the same time they also contributed $25,000 toward the beautifying of the campus. They also presented the statue in bronze of John W. Mackay, one of the pioneers of the Comstock, which stands in front of the School of Mines building, facing the Quad.

Mackay Gifts

In 1912 Mrs. Mackay and Mr. Mackay gave the Board of Regents $150,000 as an endowment for the School of Mines as a further memorial to their husband and father. In 1925, Mr. Mackay began his additional gift of $18,000 to the Mining Department.

Again in 1926 the generous spirit of Mr. Mackay came forth when he presented the University with $100,000 to enlarge the Mackay building and to perfect its equipment, which has been done so that now the mining department is one of the finest in the United States.

Washoe Gift

When the enrollment at the University was still in its infancy, Washoe County presented the institution with a farm of sixty acres, to be used in connection with the Agricultural Experiment station. The cost of the farm was $12,000.

In 1927, the Alice McManus Clark Memorial Library was completed and presented to the University, the gift of William Andrews Clark in memory of his wife, a native of Virginia City. The building, modern in its equipment, is the newest on the campus.

EASTER PAGEANT PLANS ADVANCE

The annual Y. W. C. A. pageant will be given Easter morning on the Mackay Quad in accordance with the custom started some three years ago.

Mrs. Southward, with the assistance of Miss Van Every, secretary of the Reno Y. W. C. A., and Dorothy Eaton '29, is directing the pageant, which is entitled "The Consecration of Sir Gallahad."

The cast roles have been cast as follows:

Sir Gallahad.....Betty McAnally '31
The Angel.....Thelma Pray '27
John the Baptist.....
.....Phyllis Steinhilmer '31

Several members of the high school "Sagebrush Girl Reserve Club" are also taking part. Ellen Harrington '29 and Loretta Miller '29 have charge of the music during the performance, which promises to be unusually good according to plans tentatively set.

Names Engraved In Genuine Gold

"Have your name and numeral engraved on the front cover of your Artemisia in genuine gold embossed, hand set, Old English letters," is the message sent out by Bob Adamson, editor of the Artemisia.

The price is seventy-five cents. Anyone wishing his or her name printed sign one of the lists circulating about the campus. Lists have been sent to all sorority and fraternity houses and to the dormitories on the "Hill." The names will be printed before the Artemisias are out, which will not be for a few weeks, and the printing must be paid for before Artemisias may be obtained. Thus far about 150 have signed up.

PRESIDENT CLARK RETURNS FROM VISIT TO HIGH SCHOOLS IN SOUTH

Dr. Walter E. Clark, President of the University, returned last week from a trip to south, during the course of which he visited high schools at Bunkerville, Panna, Overton and Las Vegas, giving addresses to the student bodies of each school and holding various conferences with parties in the southern part of the state.

Alumni Dinner

In Las Vegas, Dr. Clark was feted at a dinner arranged by former Nevada students, at which time the first steps were taken toward the organization of a permanent alumni association there, to be a branch of the State Alumni Association. About fifteen Nevada graduates and former students were present at the dinner, a list of all alumni in Las Vegas showed there to be total of about thirty, all of whom will, it is hoped, become active members of the newly formed alumni association. Dr. Clark addressed the Nevadans at the dinner, giving a resume of the recent developments and improvements on the Hill, and answering questions regarding certain phases of university work and achievements.

Addressed Seniors

In the course of his trip, Dr. Clark spoke before High School Seniors in each of the four towns visited, stressing the advantages of going to college, and outlining the possibilities and fields of work offered by the curriculum at Nevada. In each meeting, according to the president, decided interest on the part of the high school students was manifested in regard to the question of continuing on into college, and various adult groups in the several towns were equally interested in the question, inviting Dr. Clark to speak before them. Among these groups were the Rotary Clubs, community gatherings, and staffs of the various schools.

From Las Vegas President Clark visited Los Angeles, there meeting many former Nevadans, and being present at the formation of a permanent Alumni Association in that section of which Jane O'Sullivan was elected president.

Visits High Schools

It is the policy, according to Dr. Clark, to try to visit every high school in the state within the course of each two or three years, in each case outlining the opportunities offered by the State University and answering any queries regarding conditions, developments and vocational lines open to students. By this means, closer contacts between the high schools and university are made possible, and decided impetus can be given to many high school seniors in the way of encouragement toward going on toward a college education.

Dr. Clark reported meeting many Nevada graduates and students teaching at the state, particularly on the teaching staffs of the various high schools.

New Light Put On He-Jinks By Co-ed's Version

HAWAIIAN DANCERS ARE HIGHLY LAUDED FOR TECHNIQUE

By UNEXPECTED

Truth is stranger than fiction, and the actual happenings of the He-Jinks are far more startling than the wildest imaginings of curious co-eds. Two versions of the same story are sure to arouse either interest or contradictions, so in any case a feminine viewpoint of the men's jinks ought to be of vital importance to both sexes.

Artistic Standpoint

Taking it from an artistic standpoint, the He-Jinks will go down in history, as having made valuable contributions to the world of humor, music, terescorean art and clever acting. The hula dancers were two of the most outstanding characters. Samuel Imelli's talented performances as a hula dancer showed that he had all the Hawaiian technique down to its finest points. The other hula beauty deserving honorable mention is Dan Inskip '29. His form was perfect, and the pipe more than added to the grace of his act. Incidentally he might be mentioned as a wonderful possibility in a beautiful back contest. Another dancer worthy of praise is Harry Atkinson. The chief merits of his stunt, however, lay in the novelty of his much abbreviated fringed costume.

Among the female impersonators, Hal Thompson '30 made a charming co-ed. Unfortunately, Mr. Dial '30 and Mr. Varney '30 were suddenly overcome with stage fright and could not be prevailed upon to do their famous tango. To make up for this, the Delta Sig fraternity furnished the music for the evening.

Lincoln Hall dramatized that famous old song "Frankie and Johnnie." This artistic representation was ably acted by Jack Albin '30 and Howard Sherrin '31.

The S. A. E. trio rendered a most touching vocal number entitled "Haltosis."

The Kappa Lambda stunt is to be praised for its cleverness and original-

Eaton Will Be Y. W. President

At a meeting held last Friday afternoon at four o'clock in room 109 in the Aggie building the Y. W. C. A. elected its new officers by accepting unanimously the slate prepared by the nominating committee:

Those who are going out of office are:

Margaret Ernst '28, president; Mable Mariani '28, vice-president; Barbara Fortin '30, secretary; Isabel Loring '28, treasurer; Eva Adams '28, undergraduate representative; Ellen Harrington, representative to Asilomar.

The new officers are:

Dorothy Eaton '29, President
Katherine Priest '30, Vice-president
Elizabeth Johnstone '31, Secretary
Verde Fant '30, Treasurer
Ellen Harrington '29, Undergraduate Representative
Doris Conway '31, Representative to Asilomar
"Happy" Tomlin, Alternate Rep. to Asilomar

The administration which ends with the installation of these new officers has been an active and successful one for Y. W. on the Hill. It has inaugurated the vespers musicals at Manzanita under Y. W. C. A. direction, which have encouraged campus music interests. The meetings this year have afforded more than ever, interesting opportunities for education along the lines of Y. W. C. A. activity in this country and abroad, and its influence on the lives and problems of women everywhere. The candy booth in Stewart Hall has become a campus institution which is a daily reminder of Y. W. activity.

Every word had a double meaning, and the entire act was characterized by extremely subtle remarks. The hero of this stunt was Clarence Newman '29, who quite skillfully played the part of the wounded knight.

PAJAMA-ED COED VICTIM OF TRICK

Anxiously, the Thetas paced the floor. Visions of the coming deluge dampened their dauntless spirits, and drowned the house in gloom. Suddenly, a nondescript individual bounded up the steps, hollered "The flood's coming! Everybody move out!"—and, with horror in their hearts, the Thetas rolled, tumbled, and poured out of the dear old homestead.

The waiting cars were impressed into service as Noah's Ark, but just as they were about to depart, a forlorn pajama-clad figure appeared at one of the windows. With true modesty she was endeavoring to clothe herself properly for the coming flood, knowing with age-old feminine wisdom that being correctly gowned for the occasion is half the battle. Another loyal Theta, true to the last, was endeavoring to be of assistance, and between breaths, the pajama-ed one shrieked from the window to the waiting sisterhood: "Go on, go on! Don't wait for me! I'll follow!" Then in an aside to her assistant: "Darn them; if they dare to go off and leave me!" Again, from the window: "Go on! Don't wait, I tell you! I'll be all right!" Then in an aside: "If those girls have the nerve to go off and leave me, I'll make short work of them, I will!" On went the last shoe and down the stairs they went.

At this point, however, the Thetas began to suspect a premature April Fool trick. With sighs of relief, they clambered from the cars, when suddenly, down the steps flew a girlish figure. From one arm swung an array of dresses, and with the other hand, what did she clutch, but—the picture of a handsome Sigma Nu! Who says that some men weren't born lucky!

Frosh to Paint Block 'N' April 7

The traditional whitewashing of the block "N" will be held by the Freshmen, Saturday, April 7. The old custom was for the Freshmen to perform this duty on Mackay Day but in recent years it has been found that the Frosh are too busy cleaning the campus and field to spend half a day at the big "N" on the Hill.

The Frosh president, Jack Walthers, will call a class meeting to appoint committees for food, whitewash and brushes. As has been customary, the boys will do the whitewashing and the girls will be held responsible for the food.

A sophomore committee composed of Don Budge, chairman, Edwin Whitehead, Harry Lipporelli and the men's upperclass committee will see that the Frosh are all present and will assist them in any difficulties that may arise.

Two fraternities at Ohio State University are to be brought to face charges of pledge stealing.

CONCERT TOUR IS COMPLETED BY MEN'S GLEE

PROGRAM TO BE GIVEN AT MAJESTIC IN VACATION

Ushered in with gust of wind and rain the men's glee club of the University of Nevada returned from a tour of the eastern part of the state, last Sunday at five o'clock in the morning, which was declared to be successful by those who attended, in view of the fact that they were received with much enthusiasm by the people in each town. Elko and Lovelock people claimed it was the best concert that any Nevada glee club had given there. In Winnemucca the crowd was much smaller, due to the rainy weather, but appreciative of the program.

In all of the towns on the itinerary the club was given good hotel accommodations and was well entertained. The men gave special mention of Elko, where they were given their meals and rooms, and in addition had the privilege of eating anything they wanted at any of the hotels with no limitations on their desires.

The Glee club did not make any profits on the trip but they made expenses.

Will Go To Tonopah

The men's glee club will probably make one other trip this year which will be to Tonopah. Besides this, they will put on a program at the Majestic Theater, running for three days starting Easter Sunday. The money earned from this is to be put aside toward a trip to San Francisco next year to compete in the Glee Club competition of the Pacific coast.

These Glee Club contests are held all over the country with a system of district elimination, and the winners are sent to New York, where the contest is completed. The west coast has not heretofore made any entries in the contest as it is too far removed from New York.

SENIOR WOMEN MEET TO PLAN NEW ACTIVITIES

VERREL WEBER SPEAKS ON ACTIVITIES OF CAL WOMEN

The second "get-together" of the semester was held by the Senior Women last Sunday morning at the Grand Cafe, when twenty-five members of the class gathered for the purpose of discussing further activities of the year and advancing plans for several projects which are being considered.

Miss Weber Speaks

Miss Verrel Weber, graduate of the University of California with the class of '24, spoke to the women, telling them of the activities of the Senior Women at California. The "Senior Women's Hall" there furnishes the center for all happenings during the last semester, during which time the Senior Women meet regularly for the purpose of singing, discussing campus problems, and getting-together for the purpose of establishing fellowship and new contacts during the last days in college.

Following Miss Weber's talk, the Seniors discussed plans for the remainder of the semester and decided to make decided efforts in the way of trying to write original songs for use during the last week of the year. Eva Adams and Mabel Mariani had charge of the breakfast, and Frances West-

Movies Used As Basis of Study

Motion pictures taken by a student company will be used as a basis for discussion in the playwriting and dramatic classes at the University of Washington. Albert Lovejoy, head of the dramatic art department, hopes to make a picture produced by students from a student-written scenario built around some spring athletic event. The expenses of the production will be borne by the members of the company.

fall and Eleanor Jackson were appointed to take charge of the next get-together, which will probably be a dinner, some time in the latter part of April.

"Did You Mean It?"
Fox-trot played by The Virginians No. 21105
also sung by Marion Harris No. 21116

ONE of the big hits from "A Night in Spain," the Broadway musical comedy. The Virginians have turned it into a dashing fox-trot, packed with the rich musical coloring that has made this dance-organization famous. Marion Harris makes a haunting "blues" song from the same melody—singing it to the accompaniment of violin, piano and accordion. Both records belong in your album of popular music.

WOMEN'S RIFLE TEAM RESUME RECORDS MANY NEV. VICTORIES

TEN WOMEN TO RECEIVE VARSITY AWARDS TOMORROW

NEVADA WINS FIFTEEN MATCHES DURING PAST SEASON

With the close of the Women's Rifle season last week, passed one of the most successful seasons in the history of that sport in Nevada, in view of the fact that the percentage of wins in matches with other institutions was the highest yet achieved; in view of the fact that more than sixty women evidenced sufficient interest in the sport to try for places on the Varsity squad, and in point of fact that affiliation with the National Rifleman's Association of America has been completed, thus entitling the Nevada Rifle Club to all rights and privileges of that organization, as well as special benefits in the way of ammunition and supplies and arranged matches with other clubs.

This work has been done under the supervision of Sergeant H. E. Barber of the Military Department, who has coached Hill rifle activities for the past two years. Eva Adams '28, was official W. A. A. manager for the rifle season.

The rifle season proper extended from February 3 until March 24, during which time matches were shot with some twenty institutions throughout the United States, as well as with the Men's Rifle teams of Nevada. Practice was held prior to the actual season from November 20th on.

Resume of Season
A resume of the actual record for the season shows that the Nevada team has won fifteen out of twenty completed matches, with some few indefinite due to failure to respond in answer to scores sent.

The majority of the matches were shot in prone positions only, with some with prone and sitting position both recorded. The high scores from the team of fifteen were used for record in each institution, with ties decided by the next highest scores.

Matches Won
Matches were won from Washington State College, with a score of 977, total prone and sitting, to their 833; University of Wyoming, with 962 to 924 prone and sitting; University of West Virginia, 877 to 848; University of Michigan, 964 to 934, and University of Idaho, 975 to 970. Matches won in which only prone scores were shot show Nevada winning from University of Washington 495 to 491; Oregon Agricultural College 495 to 496, and 482 to 414 sitting; University of California, 492 to 475; Keen Normal School, New Hampshire, 486 to 469; Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pennsylvania, 486 to 483; Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College, 493 to 487; Agricultural College of Utah, 481 to 473; Michigan State College, 484 to 485, and University of Pennsylvania, 593 to 592, this match being a tie on the first five shots, the Hill team winning by one point with the counting of the sixth shot for record.

Nevada has lost substantially to the University of Vermont in a prone match in which the women of that team fired a perfect score, gaining 500 out of a possible 500, to Nevada's 484. Syracuse University won with a score of 497 to our 493. Stanford was ahead by a score of 497 to our 490, and Cornell University won 498 to 491.

Varsity Squad
Fifteen women constituted the Varsity squad and remained active in the sport throughout the entire season. Ten of these women will be awarded Circle N's by A. S. U. N. on Mackay Day, the ten to be determined on the basis of the number of times their scores have been sent in on record in intercollegiate matches.

The fifteen members of the Varsity women's rifle squad are: Isabel Loring '28, Anita Beccas '28, Mae Bernasconi '28, Maryemma Taylor '30, Geraldine Green '30, Edna Ericson '29, Alberta Adams '31, Elizabeth Shaber '29, Ethel Leonard '31, June Byrnes '30, Verdie Faint '30, Frances Fuller '31, Idal Anderson '30, Ethel Maraska '31, Frances Dietrich '30 and Eva Adams '28.

The summer sessions of the University of California were attended last year by 10,663 students, coming from every state in the nation and many foreign countries.

Hunts 2 Years for the Right Tobacco

Dallas, Texas
March 22, 1927,
Larus & Bro. Co.,
Richmond, Va.
Gentlemen:

The worst thing in the world to try to find is a good pipe tobacco that is well within the reach of everybody, and at the same time does not taste like it had just come out of the cabbage patch.

I have been smoking a pipe for two years and have just this month started to smoke a real smoke, Edgeworth. If at first you don't succeed, try, try again. Believe me, I tried for two years, but finally success is more than mine.

I have just been looking around, and have found to my delight that I can get Edgeworth practically anywhere. I even found it out at the lake near Dallas where I go fishing. Oh boy, what a combination—a perfect day, a can of good tobacco, and your pipe.

I always thought these ad letters were the bunk, but this time I know somebody is wrong and that is me.

Here's to old Edgeworth,
Edmund Condon

WARNINGS APPEAR AGAINST APRIL 1

With the first of April in the offing, it might be wise to watch one's step. All the campus cut-ups and clever collegians will be out in force with their smartest stunts and gets-'em-every-time tricks. Petticoats will suddenly be hanging, holes will appear in stockings, classes will be declared excused, and all the clever little stunts which man can devise will be trotted forth for inspection. A warning in time, perhaps—girls, ladies, co-eds—remember—the first of April is no time to make a date for that formal.

WAMPUS BALL WILL FEATURE BIZARRE IDEAS

PRIZES TO BE AWARDED FOR MANY EVENTS; BEAUTY SHOW

"This Wampus Ball will make the Press Mardi Gras look like a tea party." Thus goes the word sent forth by the committee in charge of the affair.

A Beauty festival, Fashion show, novel decorations in keeping with the atmosphere of a Wampus Ball, and clever programs are some of the features. Plans for this first ball of its type are going along rapidly according to members of the committee, and they are working to make it a glorious success.

Prizes to Be Given
Numerous prizes will be awarded for different events: One for the best costume, the best dancers, and best skit. It is possible that prizes will be awarded for other events, etc.

The ball will be open to the campus and each member of Campus Players will be entitled to sell one bid. A limited number of bids will be reserved to the committee in charge and these will be sold to those unfortunate enough not to obtain one from a Campus Player. All troyes in plays during the college year will be entitled to a bid. The price of bids will be $1.00. A strictly costume affair, is what the committee terms the Wampus Whirl, and only those in full costume will be admitted. It is planned that the costumes will represent famous Hollywood characters, but this plan is not absolutely sure. Undoubtedly Charlie Chaplin will rub elbows with Greta Garbo, and Doug Fairbanks may give some of his active tricks.

Stars to Be Chosen
The selection of ten Wampus stars for 1928 will be the big feature of the evening. The judges will select the ten most beautiful and talented women who have appeared in a dramatic performance this year. Nothing of this kind has ever been tried or done on the Nevada Campus before and the ball is being looked forward to with great curiosity and pleasure, if comments are any criterion.
April 14, is the date.
"What the Star Shine."

NEW EXHIBITS RECEIVED

Six new double cases for the Mackay school of mines museum were received this week and are being installed on the mezzanine floor. These cases will complete the furnishing of the rebuilt museum and will be filled with exhibits. The cases received some months ago were not of good enough quality to be used, and were returned.

S. A. E. First To Abolish Tubbing

Nevada Chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon has recently taken steps to permanently abolish tubbing and informal initiations wherein initiates are subjected to any unnecessary physical punishment or abuse.

This change in policy, according to members of the fraternity, has been affected in compliance with methods now being used in other institutions which are rapidly throwing off practices which are detrimental to the development of the best purposes and are more "civilized" and distinctly as effective in producing the desired results.

It is hoped, according to members of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, that other fraternities will adopt a similar policy and eliminate any objectionable practices that tend to cast a certain blight upon fraternity life at Nevada and other colleges, as well as on the institution itself in whose borders such practices are being observed.

The abolishment of the old fashioned methods has been effected by a change in the policy of the members of the fraternity which has taken this step, in a conviction that true fraternity spirit lies in complete harmony among all members rather than in the domineering and heavy-handed tactics previously in vogue.

NEVADA WILL PROBABLY HAVE RHODES SCHOLAR

In all probability Nevada will have a Rhodes scholar again this year, according to Dean Adams, although as yet no recommendations have been made.

It is customary for the faculty of the university to nominate three candidates from among the men students, who are then recommended to the state committee. In all probability this will be done in the near future. However the successful candidate will not be chosen until some time in the fall, probably in October.

ORIGINAL PLAYS TO BE APRIL 26

A college atmosphere will prevail when the original plays by Nevada students will be presented on April 26. These plays will probably conclude the productions of Campus players for this season.

One play takes the theme of Campus love, another Fraternities and Sororities, and still another is a satire on a Campus professor, and Freshmen.

Campus Players plan at this time to have their notebook ready for inspection, with the productions, criticisms, activities, etc. of the organization during the past year. This is the first time anything of the sort has been tried, and the Hill actors plan on making it an annual book, which will in all probability greatly interest the campus as a whole.

MAJOR REQUIREMENTS TO REMAIN UNCHANGED

At a meeting of the heads of the departments in the Arts and Science Faculty Tuesday afternoon, it was decided to leave alone for the time being the provisions concerning requirements for major and minor subjects in the University of Nevada catalogue. The committee has been working on this question for some time, but as they have not finished their investigation and come to any definite decisions, the work regarding this matter will be continued by the committee, although no change will be made in the catalogue for 1928-1929.

THE WHY OF TOMORROW

It is written every year at this time—those words concerning the greatest of Nevada's benefactors, Clarence H. Mackay, the man in whose honor tomorrow is set aside as a day of work and festivity on the Nevada campus. He is lauded, praised, thanked, and ennobled. There seems really little else to say. We echo each day those praises which are sung—we feel deep appreciation as we walk over the campus and see the marks of his generosity ever before us—we honor him in all that we can.

There is a bit more to say. And that bit might well go in gratitude to Clarence H. Mackay for the fact that he believed in Nevada—he put his gold—and certainly with it his faith—in a venture which for many years was a weak one. Not too many years have seen Nevada in its present high ranking position—in its glory of having an enrollment passing the one-thousand mark—in its newly acquired array of buildings and equipment worthy a much larger institution.

The state itself has been renaissance since the days of mud-roads and eight-mule teams. Within its borders today rest untold resources; a land of the future, with possibilities known.

Mackay invested here when no such assurances were on hand—when no hundreds of students would gather together to laud his generosity. He had vision and faith and willingness to associate his name with a standstill project, and Nevada and Nevadans can be proud today that we have an achievement to be proud of to back us up when we gather to remember once more the man who has given us much of what we are. Nevadan through and through we believe Clarence H. Mackay to be, and as true Nevadans ourselves, we join unceremoniously in a day set aside in his honor.

APPRECIATION

We have a short word of gratitude to the Publications Board and to the men of the University for the privilege of being allowed to edit entirely this issue of the Sagebrush. It is no small enterprise—and a very few slips might mean a great deal to someone who would have to rebuild and replace what might be destroyed through inactivity or neglect.

There is no power to force the men to allow the Women's Issue of the Sagebrush to be put out as it is being this week, and the women of the staff take this means to express appropriate appreciation for the opportunity and courtesies extended to them.

THINK—THEN VOTE

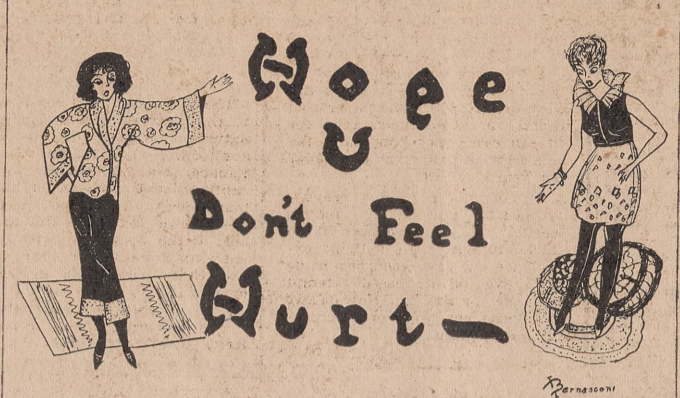

Nominations will be made tomorrow and election will be held next week. These events carry with them the greatest vital significance to Hill progress and activity of any happening of the year. And in a realization of the importance of choosing student body officers, comes a new feeling of responsibility and interest on the part of those who will determine the outcome of these elections.

It is not simply a question of whether or not she's good-looking and a "good date"; it is not important whether or not he can play football better than his opponent in judging his ability to fill an executive office of the A. S. U. N.; it is not whether or not he belongs to your friends' brother's fraternity; and it is not an opportunity to "show such and such that they can't run everything."

A prominent member of A. S. U. N. was recently heard to say: "I thought he would win and I think he would have been the best of the bunch—but I didn't vote for him." "He" was the victim of rather undesirable circumstances, if some intangible force pushed said prominent voter's pen into the wrong square in the election.

A. S. U. N. officers can make a student body a living thing—an active group—a thinking and creating organization. Criticism may follow efforts to revise, to change, to develop—but progress is not measured by popularity. And it will take the man and woman who can face down opposition—who can think and believe and see beyond the front gate, when a policy is to be determined.

Men have fought battles for the privilege of having self-government. It is our inheritance and it is our duty not to abuse this privilege toward the shapings of our own fancies, the satisfying of our own vanities, or the betterment of our own group when such betterment necessitates the sacrifice of the good of the University. "Nevada—so staunch and so strong"—rings through our ears as we sing our college song. And it is up to us to keep it strong and real and indicative of the best of true University life through good student officers.

By NOMIALESS

MRS. GORDON DRY COHORTLES CHEERFULLY: "OOT WOMAN? DOM IF THIS AINT THE LOJES' ISSUE!"

And even if the Kappa Lambdas do take military, they don't have to show off their skill at 4:30 a. m. on the Gamma Phi lawn. Or maybe they were celebrating this here ladies' issue—WHAT?

AND FURTHERMORE, rumor has it that Cox and Anderson are going to have a "doel". (Heard above the skylife): "Oh, boys, please don't fight! I like you both the same!"

Imagine my embarrassment when Daddy Layman offered me some peanuts full of rat poison—and I had to eat them.

Shades of sour grapes!—And do the A. T. O. and Tri Deltis know how to clap! At least they can put it over the Pi Phis and S. A. E. S. We wonder if the Houses will quarrel over where to keep that cup now?

SOME SIDE-LINES ON MACKAY DAY. Heard in August—'Of course the Artemisia will be out on time—just look who's handling it!

And in March—"Well, Er-a-er—it ought to be out by April or May." Upon hearing that the usual dish for Mackay Day has been changed, President Clark was heard to exclaim: "WHAT! NO BEANS?"

And in speaking of the Gleees—we wonder if the A. T. O. Frosh couldn't find a stray pig—thus no dinner before the formal!

ALSO—the business manager of the Frosh Glee turned out to be Hal Overlin '29. Hal, you done noble!

And speaking of formals: The five and dime store sure had one grand rush on mesh bags this week! ALL-HA DISCOVERED AT THE SIGMA PHI SIGMA FORMAL!

Might we add, dear NOMIAL, that as far as the Scandal Show was concerned D. A. E. apparently know its place as well as you do!!!!

And furthermore, BEFORE MAKING ANY MORE WISE CRACKS ABOUT HOISERY, YOU'D BETTER PULL YOUR OWN SOCKS UP!

OUR WEATHER MAN

"The flood is coming," shouted the policeman! "Grab your valuables!" Well—anyway—one Sigma Nu got his picture saved, at the expense of a small brunette risking her life to run back after it!

And, says the Thetas, "WE'RE ALL WET!"

The University of Nevada Glee Club was enthusiastically received in Winnemucca. Copeland must have smiled pretty at the reporter!

And, having heard about the unusual quality of a "LIQUID VOICE," the Glee Club tried to follow instructions carefully—so we heard.

And my dear—Have you heard that Campus Angles was DECIDEDLY "slopped" last week-end?

We would like to suggest that the S. A. Es have their eyes examined, if they intend to patrol the gym on the night of the Ho-Tink, hereafter; but from all accounts of the feminine members present—"IT REALLY AINT WORTH SEEING!"

CAN you imagine a certain blond Phi Sig, who sports a Block N sweater, and a little blond Sigma Nu, commonly called Charley—DOING DISHES? Well, they cleaned up the Phi Phi kitchen on Sunday, and it only took them three hours!

And we are wondering—has Dale dear developed measles yet?

What we want to know is: how did Nevada get by with three speakers on her side in that last debate with Oregon? And the HUGE crowd at the Reulands meet—my, my!

An advice bureau is being carried on at the Junior High School, according to one of the instructors in the institution. A very attractive little girl queried anxiously whether or not to was o. k. to go out with college MEN—but nuf sed—the poor colitch man has been razed enough already!

The Sigma Nus have three new pledges—and if you don't believe it, just ask Sally! We wonder when the baptism is going to come off, and who will be the godpapas and godmamas!

"Love rules the world," sighs Beta Kappa, as the prize pledge creates SOME excitement by getting married.

And what about the EDITOR who has begun to raise a mustache just this last week? With no work to do on the paper he has had time to devote to this manly vanity.

Speaking of "MANLY" characteristics—also. We had believed, us ladies had, that CURIOSITY was "never" an attribute to the male sex—but this last week they haven't been "in on just everything" and this said curiosity seems to be MUCH to strong to be controlled! And it isn't a CUB reporter we have in mind, either!

How do you like Fallon? "Fine!" says the S. A. E. trip.

Speaking of riddles—what have the Phi Sigs in common with a certain Stanford frat? The answer is: "One good example!"

The Truckee river wasn't the only thing that was FLOODED Saturday night—but some had more musical murmurs. Darn those serenaders, says the Pi Phis.

We see that Herb Rosen is wearing his sheepskin coat again—we take it he wants to get rid of his cold!

Well, dear NOMIAL—we hope these here comments will meet with your approval. However, we would be surprised if we hear you singing your little ditty—"FOUR."

AND WE HOPE YOU DON'T FEEL HURT!!!

Breeze Tells of Spring Vacation

Found! Another reason why spring is so popular. In addition to spring clothes, gay glasses, and a feeling of aversion toward work, the soft balmy breath of spring carries a boon to the worn out college students—spring vacation!

This popular season will begin on Thursday, April 5, at four o'clock, according to Dean Adams. But even good things have to end and this will come when classes are resumed on Monday, April 9.

Book Reviews

Of the novels which have come in the Sequana Selections during the past six months two are of outstanding interest: "Catherine Paris" by the Princess Bibesco, and "Jerome, 60 deg. de latitude Nord" by Maurice Bedel. The latter was the winner of the Prix Goncourt for 1927.

There is a certain similarity in the theme of these two books, for, while the stories are entirely different, the background of each is the contrast between French customs, character, and manner of life and those of other Europeans. The heroine of the former, the daughter of a Roumanian nobleman, was named Catherine Paris by her mother, who thought that Paris was the only place in the world worth living in. Catherine herself grew up in Paris and became even more devoted to that city than her mother. At the age of about seventeen she was married to a Polish count who was related by the marriages of his sisters, uncles, and aunts, to royalty in all the great courts of Europe. In accordance with etiquette the bride couple had to visit all these royal courts. This device gives the author a chance to comment on the tastes and habits of the nobility of Europe, which she does to the manifest disadvantage of everyone but the high society of Paris. It must be granted that the Princess Bibesco deals very gently with Roumania, the homeland of her titled husband's family, and also with England, her own native land, but she is scathing in her criticism of the rest. The story of the novel is interesting in itself, but its richest flavor is in its satire.

Jerome, the hero of Maurice Bedel's novel, is a French playwright who goes to Norway to assist in the presentation of one of his plays in a Norwegian translation. In Christiania (or Oslo) he falls in love with the daughter of his translator. The point of the story is his awkwardness in making love to this girl whose manners—not to say morals—are so different from what Jerome has been accustomed to. Quite a ladies' man at home, he flounders about this daughter of the Vikings until she finally drops him flat.

Bedel has been in hot water since he wrote the book because of the sort of French he puts into the mouths of his characters. The literary circle of Oslo rather pride themselves on their French.

In the advance book notices of the Century Publishing Company are found many interesting books. Among the latest releases of this company is the biography of the first biographer of George Washington. This book, "Parson Weems of the Cherry Tree" is written by Harold Kellock. Parson Weems, versatile clergyman of colonial America, wrote a very amusing story of Washington's life which was entertaining, if not absolutely true.

Parson Weems was quite a noted figure during the time he lived. He published pamphlets with stories of murders, suicide and other sensational events. In fact, his pamphlets were the tabloids of the period. In Kellock's story of Weems' life, all the sides of his very odd and unconventional character are discussed in a very entertaining manner.

Following the ceremonies, an initiation banquet was held at the Monarch Cafe. S. A. O. EXCHANGE DINNER

Sigma Alpha Omega entertained at an exchange dinner Thursday, March 22. Betsy Murphy '30 and Phyllis Day '31, members of Pi Beta Phi, were the guests of the evening.

POETRY

IF—

If over your heart you wear a pin
 Which shows a frat has taken you in,
 If you can date each dance with the campus catch,
 And never worry about holding socks;
 If you can drive a car with a rumble
 seat,
 And don't have to borrow or walk in the heat;
 If you own a tux with all parts
 complete,
 And snappy clothes for class, sport,
 and street;
 If you have mastered the Varsity
 Drag,
 And know the tricks to each Blue
 and Rag;
 If the college slang you've made your own
 Until the lingo makes fond mama groan;
 If your most prize possession is a sweater,
 Obviously decorated with a letter;
 If on such as these you can rely,
 You were born a luckier man than I.
 —M. A. '29.

ON MAKING A DATE FOR YOUR SORORITY FORMAL

My heart, if you should go away
 You know would break.
 You are the only one in all the world
 That I would take.
 And though I'd bought a brand new dress,
 A perfect dress—
 And though I'd paid my money in,
 If you weren't here
 I'd stay at home. Now other girls
 Would, as a rule,
 Go with another date—Not I!
 (aside)
 Huh! APRIL FOOL!!
 —Trebzond.

SPRING WIND

That the wind echoes by with a great rush of wings
 I know, for he's whispering
 beautiful things—
 He tells of those cuddly-cum
 wobbly-legged lambs,
 And Dutch yellow tulips
 with honey-cupped hands.
 He talks of new freshets and laughs as they run;
 He peddles spring gossip from earth up to sun.
 He smiles as he works for he knows that he brings a bit of new springtime and beautiful things.

Prominent Campus Coeds Have Varied Opinions About Rushing

Rushing—that interesting topic to all women, sorority or otherwise. Can you imagine Nevada U. without that atmosphere of suspense on Registration day; that frantic scrambling to wailay and speak to new girls? "Do you know the name of the girl in the green hat? Oh, my dear, she's simply precious!" "Who's cousin did you say? No, I haven't seen her. Oh, she's a cinch." You've heard that sort of conversation, haven't you? Now could you conceive of college without it? It might be done, at least a few changes might be made regarding the old rules. There seems to be enough difference of opinion among the campus women to make the topic an interesting one at least.

Second Semester Rushing

Frances Westfall '28, president of the local Pan-Hellenic Council, has very decided views on the subject. "In my opinion," she says, "second semester rushing could never be worked out successfully on a campus of this size. Too many intimate friendships are formed to make any sort of rushed rushing applicable. The strain for a whole semester which we now endure for three weeks would most certainly have a drastic effect on both freshmen and sorority women. It is ridiculous to imagine that it would not be a strain, for the new girls would doubtless have the feeling of being "looked over" for a period of four months. As for the attainment of better scholarship, which a sorority sister would bestow upon her. The incentive to make the required grade for initiation is certainly as strong as that to make the required grade for pledging."

"Second semester this makes it necessary for initiation to be deferred until the second year, thereby causing the girl to lose one semester or more of valuable sorority life. Furthermore, National Panhellenic has gone on record as being opposed to second semester bidding, and in favor of a short rushing season. This national council is composed of the best minds in all sororities, and our affiliation with it indicates that we are endorsing the policies of that body."

Isabel Loring '28 is in favor of second semester rushing with the provision that rules could be formulated and lived up to by the various groups restricting rushing during the first semester.

"This campus is too small for such a thing." That's the opinion of Betty Coleman '28. "The feeling of antagonism already prevalent would be increased by such regulations."

A Good Thing

Ruth Streeter '28, thinks it would be a good thing. Girls would have a chance to evaluate the houses and would know the one which they wished to join. The thing would work both ways as sorority women could get a "good slant" on prospective material. Mable Comer '29 is of the same opinion. She says that it would be fairer to both the sorority and the girl being bid.

"Theoretically speaking, I think that second semester rushing would be a good thing because it would eliminate the confusion at the beginning of the fall semester when freshmen women are confused enough by the strange ways of a university. On the other hand I do not think that it will ever be practical or possible on this campus because the sororities must have new women in the fall to replace those who graduate, and to keep up their houses," this from Edna Edicson.

Favors Proposition

Anita Beccas '28 is another who is very much in favor of the proposition. She feels that it would eliminate those girls who come up for a semester or two just to make a sorority.

Miss Mack would go farther than second semester rushing and make it something more "bidding" not "rushing," for, she says, "There would be no need of the so-called artificial rushing then. Sorority women would be acquainted with their prospective members and a more friendly feeling would exist. Bidding could take place during registration, consequently that hectic period of "rushing" would be abolished. Such an arrangement would be fairer to everybody. Freshmen women ought to have their first year free from other worries than those of getting adjusted.

"Second semester rushing has been tried here and failed because the various houses rushed the one, therefore a Sorophore bidding would allow a year to elapse from the time a woman arrives on the campus until the time she is bid and this would be a preposterous length of time to rush—of course there ought to be some regulations, but the thing would take care of itself. The houses could get the grades of prospective members for the two previous semesters instead of having to depend on the one, therefore a new member could be pledged and initiated in one semester, and would not need to lose by being kept from close association with her chosen group. This plan might be a little difficult to get started and would need at least a four or five year trial, but once it got under way I am sure it would be successful."

Now what do you think?

'THE PATSY' TO BE PRESENTED EARLY IN APRIL

SENIOR PLAY WILL NOT TAKE TOUR AS HAS BEEN CUSTOM

The final date set for the presentation of the Senior play, "The Patsy," is April 19. Practices started last Monday with a cast of the following members of the Senior class taking parts:

Bill Harrington.....	Claire Lemkuhl
Mrs. Harrington.....	Isabel Loring
Grace Harrington.....	Altha Pierson
Patricia Harrington.....	Grace Bassett
Billy Caldwell.....	Jack Travelle
"Tony" Anderson.....	Vernon Canton
Sadie Budanan.....	Lucile Summerfield
Frances Patrick O'Flaherty.....
.....	Archie Watson
"Trip" Busty.....	Irwin Morrison
Carol Smith has charge of the setting and Joe Garcia is acting as business manager. Edwin Duerr has full charge of the directing.

Play Is Comedy

For the last three years the Senior play has been a comedy and it is running true to form this year. "The Patsy" was written by Barrie Connors and was first produced in December 1925. The play abounds in clever "wise cracks." Marion Davies is now starring in this production in the motion pictures.

The Senior class in 1925 presented "To the Ladies" by Augustus Thomas; in 1926 "Adam and Eva" by Mack Connelly and G. S. Coffman; 1927 "The Fall Guy" by James Gleason.

Although the class of '27 took their play to various parts of the state the play this year will probably not be given out of Reno, due to difficulties regarding the finding of a suitable time in which Seniors can make trips, and due to other activities in their honor.

Plans Discussed For Senior Gift

Plans for the Senior Memorial of the class of 1928, were discussed at a meeting of the committee Tuesday afternoon. Several propositions, including gifts for the new library and improvements to the campus, were considered.

The decision of the committee, to be voted upon by the class at a future meeting, was a gift of five hundred dollars to the Nevada Student Union Building fund. This plan will be accepted provided that a plaque, bearing the class numerals, and names of the members of the graduating class, be placed in the completed building.

The committee in charge of arranging for the Senior Memorial consists of Budd Stevenson '28, Anita Becas '28, Mae Bernasconi '28, Otto Shultz '28 and James Sherritt '28.

U. N. Club Hears Talk By Banker

Harry Scheeline of the Scheeline Banking and Trust spoke before the regular meeting of the Hill Commerce Club last Wednesday upon the business of banking, and his experiences in the banking field.

Following the talk by Mr. Scheeline, plans for the club picnic were discussed, and the evening of April 22 definitely set upon as the date for the annual event.

No Students In U. of N. Hospital

Despite the large amount of sickness prevalent, there are no cases at the University hospital this week.

Annie Twaddle '28 has been seriously ill at St. Mary's hospital where she underwent an operation for appendicitis. Her condition is being watched carefully and it is hoped that she will recover soon.

Merle Frahner '30, who was operated on for appendicitis early in the week, is convalescing at St. Mary's hospital.

MAN INVADES BUT RETIRES BLUSHING

"Hey, ain't I on the 'Brush staff any more?" says a very perturbed young man.

"Guess so, why shouldn't you be?" says a feminine voice very coldly.

"Well you see I haven't any assignment. Where's Fred? I'm worried not having anything for this week."

"I don't know where Fred is and I don't care, we're doing very nicely without him."

"Oh, is that so? Say, where's the rest of the fellows? You women sit down here and giggle until you drive a man crazy, besides the men do all the work."

"My, what a snippy frosh—get off the dime brother, this is the week for the women's issue."

"After giving a complete review of the rainbow the offender withdraws with a feeling that he has at least been true to his sex."

Nev. Will Meet Philippine Team

A debate with a University of Philippine Island team will probably take place on April 9, if negotiations now in progress, turn out. According to Santos Murillo '28, who is acting as intermediary in the arrangements, the team will probably meet two attorneys from the Nevada Bar Association, who will be representatives of Clifton, University Forensic organization. This will be the first time that such a debate has been held in Nevada, and much interest is being taken in the N. E. A.

The representatives who will meet the team have been tentatively named, with Attorney Richards and Brown taking the Nevada side of the question.

Women Held Last Debate of Year

The sixth and last intercollegiate debate for this season was held last Monday evening in the Education auditorium where Kara Lucas '29 and Emily Richards '30 met the women's debate team from the University of Redlands.

Nevada upheld the affirmative of the question, "Resolved, that the influence of modern advertising is detrimental to public welfare." The Redlands team, which was composed of Elnora Whitten and Malvina Williams, is on a tour east. The debate with the women of the University of Nevada, is the second debate of the year.

FRAT EXCHANGE DINNERS TO RUN FOR TWO WEEKS

Inter-Fraternity dinners have proved a decided success, according to numerous men questioned on the subject. They will continue to run for two more weeks. Following is the schedule for next week:

- Sigma Nu, Alpha Tau Omega.
- Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Phi-Sigma Kappa.
- Sigma Phi Sigma, Delta Sigma Lambda.
- Kappa Lambda, Beta Kappa.

JANE O'SULLIVAN WINS RECOGNITION FOR HER POETRY

Jane O'Sullivan, '24, has won more than pronounced recognition for her work in the field of poetry, being characterized by Carey McWilliams, prominent critic and contributor to leading magazines, as "standing on the threshold of art and knocking rather timidly for recognition."

Miss O'Sullivan has an enviable reputation throughout the state as being an exceptionally fine writer of poetry and prose, and excelled in this work while at the University. She was the writer of Nevada's "Triumph Hymn," as well as many of the poems in the Desert Wolf and Artemisia, in addition to being one of the most featured writers in the late edition of "Nevada Poems."

Work Distinct

Miss O'Sullivan is characterized by Mr. McWilliams as being distinguished in her work by the fact that with her literature, poetry, life, are one—that she things of her verse not in the usual light of being a means for social reform, etc., but rather as an end in itself. "Her poetry is an expression of inevitable personal need—she writes out of creative necessity."

The lauded writer was born in Nevada and passed most of her early years in this state, thus acquiring a certain source of inspiration and beauty out of which she has made such music as this:

The hills I love are young hills,
With savage, naked breasts,
Beautiful in flaming strength
And high-flung, godly crests.

The Spring I love's a shy spring,
With frightened, flying feet,
That barely touch the waking earth
To green, dim-veiled and sweet.

The town I love's a little town,
With its heart raised to the hills,
In a campus of willows and poplar trees,
Where the spring of the desert thrills.

Oh, here spring comes with lilled breath—
And the mountains are dark with pine—
But a snow-cool wind blowing over

Sagebrush Will Be 41 Years Old

Forty-one years ago this month there appeared for the first time on the Nevada Campus a paper edited and managed entirely by University students. The twenty-four page paper was called "The University Monthly" and was printed at the Reno Evening Gazette office. This first attempt to commercialize Nevada campus news was enthusiastically supported by the students and the town people. The paper sold rapidly at Reno newsstands for fifteen cents per copy, and the subscription price was one dollar per year.

Out of this nucleus there developed the present day campus weekly "The Sagebrush." To those students who, with no experience and few resources, made the brave and successful attempt to make the most of Nevada, we owe today our own very successful publications.

Miscreant Girl Creates Trouble

A miscreant girl created havoc when she calmly strolled into the Delta Sig and Phi Sig houses a week or so ago. Consternation reigned supreme, or some other explosion comparable to that, because, not only was it after visiting hours, but the horrified bachelors had been expecting no company, and well—

Great relief was experienced however, when the girl was found to be a fond pledgee dressed up and playing his part in the antics of the weaker sex. His finery included the Wintergarden where he picked up two strange but good-looking mashers.

The sage,
And the copper-hued hills are mine,
This poem is indicative of the spirit of the out-of-doors and appreciation of beauty which is so predominantly a part of her poetic expression. Others contain much of the same strength and appeal, and are more and more receiving recognition and honor at the hands of those interested in the new writers of the West.

SEEK YE NO FURTHER, DIOGENES . . .

This jobbie Diogenes was a Greek who left his fruit stand for the commendable purpose of questing for honesty by good old-fashioned lamp-light. And now, loud and ever clearer, rings the cry from the housetops: "Diogenes—throw away your lantern . . . here's an honest cigarette! Have a Camel!"

Camels have but one raison d'être—to pack the smoke-spots of the world with the "fill-fulment" every experienced smoker seeks. Fill your own smoke-spot with a cool cloud of Camel smoke, and hear it sing out—"Eureka!" (from the Greek, "Eureka," meaning—"Oboy, here 'tis!").

Interclass Track Teams Scheduled for Saturday

CLASSES MEET TOMORROW IN ANNUAL TRACK TITLE BATTLE

JUNIORS THREATEN TO MAKE STRONG BID FOR POINTS
VARSITY MATERIAL SET TO SHOW UP AS WINNERS

Starting the track season the interclass meet will be held tomorrow as part of the Mackay Day program. Due to the fact that the first call issued about three weeks ago was answered by more men than usual, strong competition for class supremacy will be seen on the field Saturday.

Juniors Take Honors
Last year the present Junior class scored 42 points and carried away the honors for two consecutive years. This year they will be forced to give their utmost towards scoring another victory as their high point man Ken Robinson is not registered in college this semester. However they have enough material left to win again or at least give the winner strong competition. Under the leadership of Towle, varsity captain, a few of the Juniors running will be: Kellogg, Brewster, Bailey, Murphy, Kline, Stodick and Ferguson.

The senior list reads as follows: Watson, Glover, Bethune, Hansen, Leavitt, Ferris, and Randall. Last year this class scored second place with 31 points. Senior captain Glover, Nevada's stellar performer in the mile run, will lead the graduates.

Among the men that will compete for the class of '30 are: Landis, Ferguson, captain, Lyon, Voight, Johnson, Lyon, Baldini, Lohse, Eldredge, Albin, Odell, Oliver and Angst. The above men are fast and will grab their share of points and help to make the meet a success.

Burner Captain
The Frosh chose Burner as their captain, whom they hope will lead them to victory. This new bunch of men look promising but their possibilities will be known only after tomorrow, when they will be pitched against active competition.

Each class may start three men in each event. No man may enter more than two track events and the relay, but he may enter in any number of field events. The meet starts at two o'clock, right after the luncheon served in the gym. Every one is urged to attend, and see the type of running and skill that has won the Far Western Conference title for the last two years for Nevada.

W.A.A. TO START BASEBALL SOON

Now that basketball is over, the baseball manager, Florence Mitchell, is taking inventory of the equipment necessary for the incoming baseball season. Sign-up lists have been posted, and as soon as the weather permits, outdoor practice will be held on the field. In the meantime the girls are receiving fundamental instructions of the sport in the gymnasium. Approximately forty girls showed up for practice Tuesday, and it looks as if baseball is going to be a popular sport this spring. Practices are held Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday afternoons at 3:45 and 4:45.

A feature of the baseball season will be a game with the faculty on May Day. There will be plenty of competition, for only those girls who make varsity will play. Last year the faculty were victorious by one point, so a close contest is assured between the two teams.

NEW GOTHIC N MEMBERS WILL BE NAMED SAT.

ORGANIZATION COMPOSED OF HONORARY W.A.A. MEMBERS

Elections into Gothic N, Women's Honorary Society, will be announced on Mackay Day at the luncheon, as has been the custom since the formation of Gothic N some years ago.

Gothic N was formerly an organization composed of those Hill women who had qualified for positions on the Varsity basketball team and participated in intercollegiate basketball games. Since the discontinuance of that sport as an intercollegiate game, Gothic N Society has been reorganized on its present basis of being purely an honorary society, based on showings made by members of the Women's Athletic Association during their years in college. Juniors commonly are elected to membership, and, in cases of especial merit, sophomores may be accorded the honor. It is indefinite as yet, according to Gothic N members, whether or not the privilege of membership will be won by any sophomores this year or not.

The specific qualities designated for eligibility to wear Gothic N's include the making of an honorary varsity team in at least one group major sport of the W. A. A. sport roster during the year, with distinct proficiency in at least one additional sport. Along with these specifications goes that of maintaining, throughout the entire preceding college course, a certain scholastic average and a very definite interest along athletic lines.

The announcement of elections will be made by the president of Gothic N at the luncheon on Mackay Day, and initiation will follow some time the last part of April. Present members of Gothic N are Mae Bernasconi '28, Ellen Baldwin '29, Isabel Loring '28, Genevieve Spencer '28, Eva Adams '28, and Lucile Sanford '29.

W.A.A. INITIATES NEW SPORT DAY

A High School Sports Day, which is being sponsored by the Women's Athletic Association of the University, is to be held the fifth of May. Invitations are to be sent to all high schools in the state. Since this is the first of its kind to be held at the University, those in charge expect that only the high schools near the University will enter.

The program is scheduled to start 9:30 Saturday, May 5, with Pentathlon events, which will consist of 75 yard dash, low hurdles, hop, skip and jump, basketball far throw and baseball throw for accuracy. If a girl enters one event she must enter all. At 9:30 there will also be games for those who are not participating in the Pentathlon.

Schedule Made
10:30—Demonstration by University girls of Hit Pin baseball and games of Hit Pin baseball by visiting girls.
11:30—Relay contest.
12:00—Exhibition of Hockey and Soccer by University teams.
12:30—Picnic luncheon on the Quad and stunts and songs by high school girls.

1:30—Mass meeting in Education auditorium where plans and suggestions will be made for future Sports Day.

2:00—University Faculty and Women's Varsity baseball game and Interclass Archery contest.
3:30—Informal games and contests on Quad for guests.
6:00—Banquet, awards for individuals and University stunts and songs.
8:00—Dancing and entertainment.

Invitations are being sent out early so that high schools may have time to raise funds to cover traveling expenses.

Women's Swimming Groups Commence

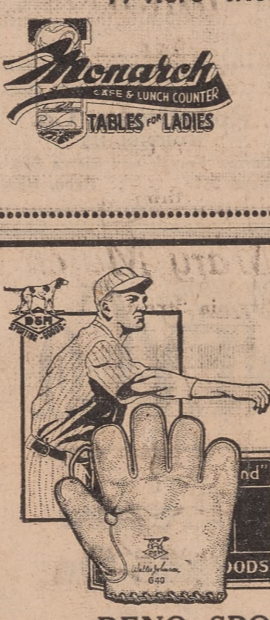

On April third, women's swimming classes will start at the Y. M. C. A. pool. The classes are being sponsored by the downtown Y. W. C. A. and are under the directorship of Paul V. Nass, physical director. The "housewives" class will be held on Tuesdays and Thursdays from ten to eleven thirty in the morning. The Reno Business Girls' Club will hold their class on Monday and Wednesday evenings and will be given over to the Girl Reserves exclusively.

NO MEN ALLOWED IN BRUSH OFFICE

Leap Year is certainly here in all its glory! The men may consider themselves indispensable but with the outburst of Amazons, that the year 1928 has brought forth, the good old 'Brush has been completely swamped, and the masculine geniuses are forced into the background by this issue of issues. Their futile scoffing and jeering means nothing to the incincible female, for well she knows the hot air with which their blarney is inflated. Not content with the meagre six pages by which masculine minds are bounded, the old 'Brush, aroused by ecstatic gurgles, and joyous enthusiasms, spreads itself to take in an extravagant eight. Eight riotous pages of juicy female gossip—news that only one of the "weaker" sex could assemble—news that man in all his glory would never dream of! The men should love it—their overworked minds are receiving a much-needed vacation, their long-suffering readers are receiving a much-needed vacation, and what is more, they may now have before them, the finished model of a perfect newspaper, scandal sheet, yellow journal, or what-have-you.

R.O.T.C. RIFLE SEASON CLOSSES SUCCESSFULLY

STRONG COMPETITION; EDWARDS, BLUM HIGH MEN

The shooting season of the R. O. T. C. rifle team ended with the week ending March 24th. Taken altogether it was a successful year, although the team failed to round into shape until after the Ninth Corps Area match, principally because of the difficulty in getting the regular supply of ammunition from the War department.

Keen Competition
There was keen competition between five men. The first place was doubtful until the last contest, the Hearst Trophy match, was fired. In this match Elbert Edwards tied with Rudolph Blum for first while three men tied for fourth place. In the Hearst matches fired by over one hundred and fifty R. O. T. C. teams

WOMEN P. E. STUDENTS MAKE ARCHERY TARGETS

Members of P. E. '28 class have recently completed work on novelty archery targets, to be used by those out for archery this semester. The class is directed by Verrel A. Weber and is a course in the theory of directing individual sports, such as tennis and archery. The targets are made in the shape of animals, and it has been decided that they will be used in place of old ones on Fridays. Fencing is being coached every Tuesday night in the gymnasium by Verrel A. Weber. It is probable that a Fencing club will soon be formed, but the plans are as yet indefinite.

"ROUND ROBIN" BALL TOURNEY DATE DELAYED DUE TO STORMS

LEADING TEAMS WILL PLAY NEW THREE GAME SERIES

NEW SYSTEM PROVIDES FOR FIVE GAME SCHEDULE

On account of floods, rains, snows, and strong winds, the Round Robin baseball tournament for the various organizations on the Hill which was scheduled to start Monday, was postponed. This has been a great disappointment to the various teams on the hill, as everyone was eager to get going to capture the championship by the new system. According to the new system each team will play five games, and the two leading teams will play a three-game series for the championship of the University. This system will prove much better and more effective than the system used last year, because it will shorten the season. Last year each team played until it had lost three games, thereby making the tournament very long.

Schedule Organized
The schedules has been organized into five divisions for the season, as follows:

- First Division
Sigma Alpha Epsilon versus Alpha Tau Omega.
Sigma Nu versus Sigma Phi Sigma.
Independents versus Beta Kappa.
Phi Sigma Kappa versus Delta Sigma Lambda.
Lincoln Hall versus Kappa Lambda.
- Second Division
The second division of the playing is:
Sigma Alpha Epsilon versus Sigma Phi Sigma.
Alpha Tau Omega versus Sigma Nu.
Independents versus Phi Sigma Kappa.
Beta Kappa versus Lincoln Hall.
Kappa Lambda versus Delta Sigma Lambda.
- Third Division
The third divisions contains the following games:
Sigma Alpha Epsilon versus Sigma Nu.
Alpha Tau Omega versus Phi Sigma Kappa.
Lincoln Hall versus Delta Sigma Lambda.
Kappa Lambda versus Independents.
Beta Kappa versus Sigma Phi Sigma.
- Fourth Division
Division number four contains the following contests:
Independents versus Sigma Alpha Epsilon.
Lincoln Hall versus Alpha Tau Omega.
Kappa Lambda versus Beta Kappa.
Phi Sigma Kappa versus Sigma Nu.
Delta Sigma Lambda versus Sigma Phi Sigma.
- Fifth Division
The final division of playing will witness the following games:
Lincoln Hall versus Phi Sigma Kappa.
Sigma Alpha Epsilon versus Kappa Lambda.
Alpha Tau Omega versus Beta Kappa.
Sigma Phi Sigma versus Independents.
Sigma Nu versus Delta Sigma Lambda.

In case there is a tie of two or more teams for second place, there will be a one game series played between these teams to determine who will play the team heading the list in percentages of games won and lost to determine the winner of the series.

All games will be played on the University diamond and will begin at 4 o'clock. Any team that does not show up will forfeit the game to the opposing team unless the two managers and Coach Martie come to a satisfactory agreement concerning the postponement. Games that cannot be played because of inclement weather will be postponed upon an agreement of the two managers and Coach Martie.

In case a game must be called when over five innings have been played, the team having the highest number of runs will be declared the winner of the contest.

CLEVER STUNTS SEEN AT DINNER

Several character songs, piano duets, vocal solos, and unusually clever stunts were featured at the annual women's basketball banquet Saturday evening in the social parlors of the Methodist church by the Women's Athletic Association.

After dinner the mythical varsity was announced, which is as follows: Mary Weeks '30, center; Ellen Baldwin '29, side center; Verdine Fant '30, forward; "Sparky" Nash '30, forward; Grace Bordewick '31, guard; Valborg Glass '30, guard.

A basket of Easter eggs was awarded to the Senior class for the cleverest stunt, which was a parody on McNamara's band. The judges were Mrs. W. A. Clark, Miss Verrel Weber, and Miss Elsa Sameth who were guests of W. A. A. for the evening.

SUTHERLAND TO RETURN TO U.N.

Professor Sutherland, formerly head of the business administration department at the University of Nevada, will resume his duties as a member of the faculty at the beginning of next semester, according to Professor Blackler.

Professor Sutherland has been on a leave of absence at the University of California where he has been working to receive his Ph.D. degree in economics.

At present he is completing his thesis which is entitled "Dynamic Theory of Wages." This promises to be most successful because no one has written on this subject up to this time. In fact it is an altogether new theory which Professor Sutherland is developing.

W.A.A. Receives Fund Additions

An addition of $64 to the W. A. A. fund for the building of a lodge for outings and winter sports, brought the total up to $290.50 this week.

A number of cities for the lodge are now being considered, though nothing definite has yet been decided upon. Geneva, Calif., a possible site, might be favorably considered because it is the best available place for winter sports, and because the new Mount Rose road will make it accessible all the year round.

Those who made contributions to the fund this week are: Margaret Hill '27, Naomi Ayres '27, T. Pittman, P. S. Moran, William Klaut, Miss Elsie Sameth, Clyde Souter, A. L. Scott, and the Tri Delta sorority.

Men Worry As Proposals Lack

Leap Year! Yet we've not seen a single sorority pin hung nor heard of any cases of feminine proposals. Several months have passed by, giving the women sufficient time in which to try out new tactics, and overcome their maidenly reserve. Yet not even a rehearsal of the fatal question has been heard. In fact it is said that one of the men after waiting for many weary weeks at last resorted to a matrimonial bureau. It would seem that tradition is about to suffer a severe downfall. The fair sex has not even asked for dates or dances!

What can the world be coming to? It looks as though the co-eds are going back to that pre-war stuff. Clinging vine technique, and girlish reticence. Whatever the cause, the men have had to take all the initiative. Perhaps the weaker sex prefers to wait until the victims are severely attacked with spring fever, and then while they are in this unresisting condition, the question will be broached. If this is the case, and all the "Will you's" come out at the same time, won't there be some furor on the campus?

Nevada Students Marry, Withdraw

Mrs. Margaret (Peggy) Mearan Hatton ex-'31 and her young husband Mr. William James (Bill) Hatton ex-'30, bid the Nevada campus a last fond farewell Tuesday when they came back to get their belongings after having definitely decided to quit school and settle down to the more serious job of steering their boat straight in the rough uncertain sea of matrimony.

The young couple, during their two semesters here, have made a wide circle of friends and many good wishes were extended them. Hatton is a Beta Kappa pledge and was a successful tryee for Campus Players.

The bride and groom will live in Fallon. Peggy Mearan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Mearan of Fallon and "Bill" Hatton is the son of Attorney W. J. Hatton of Tonopah.

BULLETIN OUT SOON

The bulletin issued annually by the Mackay school of mines and the State Mining laboratory in conjunction, written by O. R. Grawe, instructor in geology, will be released next week.

The bulletin is for use in the Mackay school of mines, and for distribution to prospectors.

Fifty-eight hundred graduates, students, and friends of the University of Colorado have pledged $150,000 for the Memorial Student Union building there.

Students Leave For Snow Survey

John Curtis '31, Thomas Johnson '30, Weaver Solomon '29 and Fred and Walter Herz will leave next week for Lake Tahoe, and Lake Lucille, where they will make the annual snow survey, that is under the direction of H. P. Boardman, professor in engineering, during Dr. J. E. Church's absence.

The survey is taken every year to determine the water content of the snow and the approximate storage in the mountains, for the following summer. This content can be determined with a fair degree of accuracy.

Alumni Lose to Varsity Eleven

Playing an evenly matched game to the finish, a Nevada football squad composed of first and second string players and scrubs from last fall's aggregation, defeated the Alumni eleven Saturday afternoon by a score of 7 to 6.

The first and only touchdown scored against the Alumni was made in the third quarter by Stockton, who went off tackle for about 35 yards for a touchdown. The Alumni drew revenge blood in the few remaining minutes of play when the spectacular Allen intercepted a pass and ran down the field with the ball in one hand for 65-yards. Failure to convert on the last touchdown gave the husky varsity eleven a victory of 7 to 6.

WOMEN'S VARSITY RIFLE SQUAD TO HOLD DINNER

A dinner will be held some time next week by the Women's Varsity Rifle Squad to formally close the rifle season. A spread for all those who were originally out for the sport was held early this semester, but the affair next week will be limited entirely to the sixteen members of the squad which participated in matches throughout the entire year.

The dinner will be in charge of Elizabeth Shallen '29, and will probably be in the form of a Chinese dinner, according to plans tentatively set at present. Miss Verrel Weber, women's athletic director, will be invited to attend. This dinner is held annually by the Rifle team.

NAMES REMOVED FROM CLUB LIST

An announcement has been made by those in charge of the organization and affiliation procedure of the University of Nevada Rifle Club to the effect that it has been necessary, through specifications regarding the roster of such clubs, to strike out from the membership roll all those who are enrolled in the R. O. T. C. unit of the University. This will affect some ten men who signified their desire of becoming members of the club, and those in charge wish to have it known through this notice that this action has been taken.

This rule has been laid down by the National Rifleman's Association of America for the purposes of securing uniform allotments of ammunition—i.e.: that a member of the R. O. T. C. unit at any institution who is counted in the number receiving ammunition supplies from National, will not be duplicated on any club list and so be given a double allotment of ammunition, particularly in view of that fact that the supply offered is limited.

The affiliation as was completed some time ago will remain the same, except for the fact that these members who are also members of the R. O. T. C. will no longer be considered members of the Nevada Rifle Club.

ANNUAL SPRING FESTIVAL WILL BE PUT ON BY CAMPUS CO-EDS

CRANDALL, COMPOSER OF DANCE DRAMA, SOON TO ARRIVE

POMPEIAN FLOWER GIRLS WILL BE FEATURE OF EVENT

Over seventy college women will participate in the annual Spring Festival to be given on April the 14th, in the University gymnasium.

Miss Dorothy Crandall, former instructor of music, has composed the music for the pageant. She is expected on the campus tomorrow, and will rehearse her music with the dances next week.

Miss Crandall will do all the playing for her own music during the festival, besides assisting with the playing of the other dance music.

The Pompeian Flower Girls will make up the Spring Festival act. The Pompeian Flower Girls, the Gavotte, and several original dances which are being composed by the various dancing classes.

The second are dances of a suite called The Bourree, Allemande, and Passepied. The others are dances set to the music called "Air of Louis XIII" which was supposedly written by Louis XIII himself.

Social Service Committee Meets

At the meeting of the Social Service committee of the Y. W. C. A. held Tuesday afternoon, final plans were made for the party which will be given by that committee Sunday afternoon.

The affair is to be in the nature of an Easter party. This committee gave a Halloween party for the children at the Orphans' Home last October which was the first affair of this nature that university students have put on.

GLEE CONCERT SOON

The Woman's Glee Club is planning on giving for their home concert a concert dance, at the Century club, Saturday night, April 21.

ONE-ACT PLAY SETTING

THREE FRENCH FARCES WILL BE PRESENTED BY CAMPUS PLAYERS

"The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife," will be the feature of a set of three plays to be presented by Campus Players April 2, 3 and 4, in the Education Auditorium.

The cast for the plays follows: Giles Boisecourtier, secretary; Jacques, a blind chickweed man; Alison, Botal's maid; Adeline Duque; Master Adam Fumea, a lawyer; Master Leonard Botal, a judge; Francois, a watercross man; A donkey; Catherine, Botal's wife; Gaugier de la Bruine, a merchant; Jean, a blind beggar; Windfeld, a rogue; Leonface, a rogue; Master Simon Colline, a doctor; Master Jean Maugier, an apothecary; William Regents; Master Georges Dulaurier, a surgeon; Noel, a footman; Marion de la Bruine; Mlle. de la Garandiere; Percinet, an innkeeper; Elbert Edwards.

It would be extraordinarily difficult to give in words an account of its merits, since they are in the genuineness of the fun and in big and easy technique. It is the hand of the master. But who was the master? Anatole France wrote it. Yes, but before him Moliere wrote important parts of it, and before Rabelais sketched the outline, and for the idea he gave credit to a farce now lost.

Two Comedies "The Pie and the Tart," and "Two Blind Men and a Donkey," will make two more acts of riotous mirth. These two medieval French farces adapted by Mathurin Dondou, live up to their absurd titles. They have a philosophy and a comedy about them that is irresistible.

APRIL 1, 1913 SAW INITIATION OF MACKAY DAY

CAMPUS CLEANUP TO BE HELD ACCORDING TO TRADITIONS

Tomorrow the University of Nevada will celebrate for the fifteenth time one of its oldest traditions—Mackay Day, a time when everyone, Freshmen and Senior, alike will rub shoulders in hours of hard work in annual cleanup.

Friday, April 1, 1913, saw the first Mackay Day, and since that time it has been changed to the Saturday of the week preceding Easter Sunday. This day was set aside for a general turnout of all to honor one of Nevada's greatest benefactors. It has changed little since then. The morning was to be taken up by the men on Mackay field and track in order to have the equipment in readiness for spring activities.

The five members of the community who originated Mackay Day are Prof. Charlie Haseman, Robert Farrar, Tom Walker, William Settlemyer and John

Hungry Workers Won't Get Beans

What, no beans! Yep, for the first time in thirteen years—no beans. The shortage of beans is due to neither flood nor drought, but perhaps to the fact that the freshmen women have taken an uncharitable stand against that plebian fruit, so dear to the heart or stomach of soldiers, sailors, prospectors, and the chef in the "gow house."

Yes, it has been rumored that the usual Mackay Day luncheon menu has been completely changed this year. What a promise! Or will this change meet with the approval of the men of the campus?

I. Cazier, and since that time Mackay Day has grown to be one of Nevada's finest and most celebrated holidays.
