ASUN Senate Decision :

Calley Not To Be Invited

Sagebrush editor Kelsie Harder told the senate Wednesday evening prior to their final decision that: "The University of Nevada can stand free and easy with offering Calley his expenses and the gate receipts." He went on to say, "As far as danger, I've had threats on my life but I would not deny Calley the right to speak even if I had been threatened ten times. I would still say let Calley come to Reno. I disagree with paying him with $2,000 worth of student funds. Yet we must protect his right of freedom of speech."

A no-win proposition for the University of Nevada has ended the way it began—badly conceived and poorly resolved.

After two weeks of intense and often bitter community debate over the proposed William Calley lecture at UNR, the memories of the Vietnam outrages—the physical horrors and the psychological anguishes came to the student senate.

It was there in the senate that the moral and economic questions of the war became too much to face.

In a close vote Wednesday evening, the senate initially approved to have William Calley appear at UNR for $2,000 plus expenses. Then the unpredictable happened. An emotional outburst from the audience in reaction to this decision jarred the senate out of their moral stupor.

The senators appeared genuinely shocked to discover that parties on both sides of the issue had been threatened by anonymous phone calls. Vicious phone calls had been made which threatened not only the lives of the people behind the issues but also the people closest to them—children and parents.

Once again the old wounds of that miserable and devious war were made fresh.

The senators froze.

The idea that their decision might bring violence to the university and that they would ultimately be held responsible was too much for them to bear.

The debate heated up again and motion after motion was introduced. Finally, out of nothing more than a basic fear that the appearance of Calley on the university would cause insurmountable protection problems for both Calley and his audience, the senate voted not to accept Calley's offer of $2,000 plus expenses.

The senate proved that it takes threats to prevent any speaker from appearing on this campus—nothing else.

The senate proved that it takes threats to prevent any speaker from appearing on this campus--nothing else.

The senate has proved that many of its current members are incapable of accepting responsibility for their actions—nothing else.

The senate has failed to deal with the moral issue of profit—whether or not a man should profit from illegal and immoral actions.

The Sagebrush has no other alternative but to take issue with the ASUN Senate.

The Sagebrush has never opposed Calley's right to speak at this campus, only the method. The Sagebrush could not, in good conscience, remain silent while the Activities Board prepared to spend $2,000 of all the students' funds to pay Calley to speak here. The Sagebrush maintained, and will continue to maintain that Calley should be offered expenses plus any and all funds paid at the gate by those who might wish to hear him speak.

Wednesday evening the ASUN Senate voted to deny Calley the right to speak on this campus. Again the Sagebrush cannot in good conscience remain silent.

The senate acted irresponsibly, unable to face the reality and responsibility of the situation.

It is true that members of the Sagebrush staff have been threatened if Calley does not come. It is also true that members of the ASUN have been threatened if Calley does come. Such threats are real, but they must be disregarded. The deep, passionate and crucial issues which Calley has raised cannot be pushed aside because of reprisals.

Sagebrush editor Kelsie Harder told the senate Wednesday evening prior to their final decision that: "The University of Nevada can stand free and easy with offering Calley his expenses and the gate receipts." He went on to say, "As far as danger, I've had threats on my life but I would not deny Calley the right to speak even if I had been threatened ten times. I would still say let Calley come to Reno. I disagree with paying him with $2,000 worth of student funds. Yet we must protect his right of freedom of speech."

Ultimately the senate's final decision was based on emotion and not on reason. This is a sad and unfortunate precedent. It is one that the senate must re-examine.

Calley motions

The following major motions were proposed and voted on by the ASUN Senate during discussion on the appearance of Lt. William Calley here at UNR:

1. Senator Hollis moved to approve Calley for $2,000 plus expenses; and that $1 per person be charged at the gate; and that the money received from the $1 gate go to a charity. (Defeated 13-5)
2. Senator Ferrari moved that Calley be approved for $2,000 plus expenses; and that $1 be charged at the gate with the money to go to the Bach Mai Hospital or a similar charity to aid the Vietnamese people. (Defeated 12-6)
3. Senator O'Driscoll moved to disapprove of the action of the ASUN Activities Board in which Calley was approved for $2,000 plus expenses. (Defeated 11-7)
4. Senator Williams moved to approve the action of the ASUN Activities Board in which Calley was approved for $2,000 plus expenses. (Approved 10-8)
5. Senator Reinhardt moved to reconsider the previous action (Number 4). (Approved 13-5)
6. Senator Ferrari moved to bring Calley here for $2,000 plus expenses and charge $1 to students, $3 to general admission; and that the proceeds go to Bach Mai. (Rescinded)
Note: Senator Ferrari approached the ASUN Secretary after senate had adjourned to have it entered in the record that he had erred in the motion and that he doesn't want to fund any North Vietnamese activities.
7. Senator Drakulich moved to disapprove the ASUN Activities Board action to bring Calley here for $2,000 plus expenses. (Approved 13-5)
8. Senator Archer moved to pay Calley expenses and give him the gate; and
- 8a. Senator Hollis moved to amend the motion to stipulate that students pay by donation at the gate and non-students pay $3. (8 Approved 10-8 and 8a Approved 11-7)
9. Senator Williams moved to reconsider the previous motion (8 and 8a). (Approved 13-4)
10. Senator Williams moved that the ASUN not invite William Calley to this campus to speak. (Approved 11-6)
11. Senator Ferrari moved that the ASUN Senate file a majority and minority opinion on the Calley issue and that said opinions be sent to the American Program Bureau, Calley's agent. (Defeated 13-3)

The motions published here were considered by the ASUN Senate from 7:15 to 9:35 p.m., Wednesday, February 12.

The rights of student journalists

MYERS

Two recent cases of intimidation of student publications suggest the need for greater knowledge on the part of both school authorities and the public—and, most of all, on the part of the students themselves—of the rights of student journalists.

One of the cases was local, the other was reported from New Jersey. The New Jersey instance involved a teacher at an obscure community college who felt her students could handle some tough investigative journalism. Well, she was certainly right; the student journalists came up with an expose of the college Board of Trustees' conflicts of interest. They discovered college contracts had been let out to the chairman of the Trustees—and to his nephew.

The teacher was fired. By the Board of Trustees. The local case is that of the staff of La Fuente, the student newspaper at Reed High School in Sparks.

The staff of La Fuente, I must conclude, is a particularly able group. For example: "I talked to some students and got a consensus that the food (in the school cafeteria) wasn't that good," says reporter Cory Duras. "Then I went to the (Washoe County) school administration building and found out what levels of food—like the amounts of hamburgers to soybean meal—they put in."

I used to be a high school editor myself. I don't remember ever hearing of any high school reporters with that kind of diligence and initiative. Certainly Reed High can take some pride in the situation; that's the way to train young journalists.

Unfortunately, Reed High didn't see it that way. The administration censored the article in its entirety. They've done that to five of Duras's articles. One of them was a humorous treatment of homecoming, but apparently Reed administrators have no sense of humor.

See, Reed had established a special censorship officer for the paper. His name is Tom Hardester, a vice principal. There was no explanation given as to why a school administrator was messing around in school newspaper affairs, especially when the newspaper already had a faculty adviser.

"I want a newspaper and the only things we are censoring are articles that might hurt or be derogatory about someone," said Reed principal Ken Williams.

Someone—I think it was I. F. Stone—once said that a reporter should be a pariah, should sit in his tub and be left alone to write the truth whether it hurts anyone's feelings or not. Every good journalist who ever lived knows this. Ken Williams doesn't know it. He doesn't know that a reporter has to hurt people sometimes, if he is to do his job.

"We were in favor of getting a student union started," says La Fuente reporter Paul Kirchner. "But the vice principal didn't want one started, and he said it was bad business so he threw the whole article out."

"I went to Hug High School last year and Paul Kirchner went to Wooster High School and neither of those papers was subject to censorship of this kind," says editor Holly Williams.

The final straw came when the journalism class in which the newspaper has been produced was canceled on Monday, January 27, at the beginning of its second semester. The paper could still be put out after school, but it didn't make the job any easier.

Fortunately, the young journalists weren't dumb; they went to the press. Their complaints landed on the front page of the city's morning newspaper, the Nevada State Journal, and the official Reed High explanation didn't sound very convincing.

Superintendent of Schools Marvin Picollo seemed, in his guarded quotes, to have some knowledge of the fact that Reed High was on shaky legal ground.

Then the American Civil Liberties Union championed the students' cause, which suggested the possibility of legal action.

And the Reed administration backed down.

"We got everything we wanted," Holly Williams said. "This Monday (February 3) our class was reinstated and all censorship was dropped."

However, no one in an official capacity or in the press community ever pointed out that Reed High School officials were not just unwise, but wrong, wrong, legally wrong.

Very few student journalists seem to realize what federal courts have done for them in the past decade or so. Perhaps because student journalists pass through high school or college quickly and are gone, few of them ever become versed in their own legal position.

Listen to Justice Abe Fortas, writing for the majority in the opinion in Tinker vs. Des Moines Independent Community School District:

"Any departure from absolute regimentation may cause trouble. Any variations from the majority's opinion may inspire fear. Any word spoken, in class, in the lunchroom, or on the campus, that deviates from the views of another may start an argument or cause a disturbance.

"But our Constitution says we must take this risk and our history says that it is this sort of hazardous freedom—this kind of openness—that is the basis of our national strength and of the independence and vigor of Americans who grow up and live in this relatively permissive, often disputatious society . . ."

"First Amendment rights, applied in light of the special characteristics of the school environment, are available to teachers and students. It can hardly be argued that either students or teachers shed their constitutional rights to freedom of speech or expression at the schoolhouse gate."

Consider also the ruling of Federal District Judge Frank M. Johnson in Dickey vs. Alabama, the key court case in the area of rights of student journalists:

However, no one in an official capacity or in the press community ever pointed out that Reed High School officials were not just unwise, but wrong, wrong, legally wrong.

"It is basic in our law in this country that the privilege to communicate concerning a matter of public interest is embraced in the First Amendment right relating to freedom of speech and is constitutionally protected against infringements by state officials. The Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution protects these First Amendment rights from state infringements, and these . . . rights extend to school children and students insofar as unreasonable rules are concerned.

"Boards of education, presidents of colleges, and faculty advisers are not excepted from the rule that protects students . . ."

One of my personal favorites is the Trujillo case. Judge Alfred A. Arraj: "The state is not necessarily the unfettered master of all it creates. Having established a particular forum for expression, officials may not then place limitations upon the use of that forum which interfere with protected speech and are not justified by an overriding state interest."

The point to all of this is that there is an enormous stock of legal ammunition on hand for student journalists who are censored, as was the staff of La Fuente. Both the censorship and such confrontations could be avoided if the administrators of schools and student journalists would inform themselves on the issue of censorship in schools. It's an area too long neglected.

It should be noted that it took a lot of courage for the Reed students to go public with their complaints against officials who could cause them a lot of grief.

But it should also be noted, finally, that the school officials did admit their mistake and backed away from their censorship policies, a turnabout which had to be done publicly and with a loss of some face. That also took some courage.

Senate vote is 11 to 6

Calley not to be invited

ENGSTROM

Convicted mass-murderer Lt. William Calley will not speak at UNR after an ASUN Senate decision Wednesday to reject the would-be lecturer because senators feared for his safety and that of his audience.

The decision came after slightly less than two hours of deliberation during which the senators considered eleven major motions. When they considered these eleven motions, they completely reversed themselves twice.

The senators first considered a suggestion made by ASUN President Tom Mayer to approve Calley for $2,000 plus expenses. Mayer recommended there be a $1 admission charge at the door which would be used to reimburse the ASUN account. Anything above the cost of the lecture would then be given to a charitable organization, according to Mayer's recommendation. Senator Paul Hollis moved to approve Mayer's suggestion and Senator Howard Pearce seconded it.

During discussion on this motion, Senator Pat O'Driscoll said, "I feel a certain moral feeling about this, that the man is making money through his notoriety and this terrible occurrence at My Lai.... And I don't believe he's looking for a chance to express his side of things.... I don't believe this because the topic he's going to speak about is not even concerned with My Lai. He wants to speak about the military-industrial complex: something which a couple of people have mentioned earlier in the audience during the Activities Board meeting. They said he doesn't know what the hell he's talking about. He's been out of the military for four years. Aside from this, we have had assurances that he would answer questions on My Lai, but that's not even why he's coming here.... I also believe that the man is not going to be a very competent speaker."

O'Driscoll continued, "I personally think the people of Reno can learn something by not having him come. The people are going to stand up and say, 'That's enough. We don't want him. We don't want people who are out to make a buck,' and I believe he's out to make a buck, or he would have signed for expenses only."

Senator Bart Williams also spoke during the discussion on this first motion. He said, "I had no intention of having any conflict with the students when Calley's name first came up.... War is war and I'm God thankful I never had to go to Vietnam. For all I know I could have been in his shoes. I could have done the same thing. I hope I wouldn't have."

Williams continued, "...I don't condone his actions.... I don't believe he's right.... But war's not pretty, war is hell. My own personal conviction is (that) he's been proven guilty of murder but I can not say the man was truly a murderer because...I keep seeing somebody in a jet dropping a bomb killing 10,000 persons or so and he's not considered a murderer."

Williams concluded, "I'm saying I want to hear the true story. I want to hear what the man has to say.... We're bound to learn something about the incident, about the man, about My Lai."

After further discussion, the motion was defeated by a 13 to 5 vote.

Senator Doug Ferrari then made a motion that Calley be approved for $2,000 plus expenses. He further stipulated that there would be a $1 admission charge at the door with the money going to Bach Mai Hospital or to a similar Vietnamese charity. Senator Mike May seconded the motion.

ASUN Activities Vice-president Karl Hahn spoke during discussion on this motion. Hahn said, "It may not be wise to have Calley on campus. There's a wave of insanity that's flooding this campus. Already there have been six reported phone calls.... I'm worried about the security. How many men are we going to have? I hope the senators realize what's involved when they make their decision."

Senator John Gissel said, "I don't think Calley's a lecturer at all. I think he is a very poor choice."

Questioned whether Calley would speak about My Lai, Pete Perreira, associate dean of students, said, "No question! He will not speak on My Lai. If he speaks on My Lai he feels it will cause him to look like a freak. However, the question and answer period is open and that probably will be all My Lai."

Asked if Calley would respond to questions, Perreira said, "That's up to him — if he wants to. I don't know."

At this time Jerry Hampton, a member of the audience, spoke. Hampton, 1972 ASUN Veteran's Presidential candidate, said, "I have to agree with Karl (Hahn), possibly not to the extreme of actual death, but this has become such an emotional issue on this campus that we could have an ugly situation. It doesn't have to be very violent to hit the newspapers and the t.v. to affect our image in the community."

After discussion, this motion was defeated by a vote of 12 to 6.

Senator O'Driscoll then moved to disapprove the action of the Activities Board in which Calley had been approved for $2,000 plus expenses.

After discussion, this motion was defeated by a 11-7 vote.

Williams then moved to approve the actions of the activities board in which Calley was approved for $2,000 plus expenses.

Senator Vic Drakulich said during discussion of this motion, "If you bring him (Calley) on this campus, there's going to be one heck of a conflict. I don't think there's any way of circumventing it. You're just going to run into a lot of trouble. And I think you guys better realize that before you vote on the question. I think it's one of the prime factors to consider. It's a heated subject; it's going to cause a lot of emotional stress. You just might find a little bit of trouble on this campus when he does show up."

After further discussion the motion was passed by a vote of 10-8.

Hahn then told the senate:

"You are also responsible. Some think it may be a far stretch of the imagination that somebody may be physically hurt or killed because of this man's presence. Stop and think about it. Six phone calls have been made — perhaps by one individual or six individuals, we don't know. I really wonder, in all fairness to everyone involved, whether or not somebody might be killed because of Calley being on campus. He may not be the one to have done it. He may be the one to inspire somebody, but because of all the reactions and emotions, I think there's a very high possibility that somebody will be hurt."

Hahn continued, "I think there's a very high possibility of just having a simple demonstration. Demonstrations don't bother me as long as they're simple — as long as they're not violent. But I don't think you can guarantee that. There's no way you can. If somebody gets hurt, maimed, killed, I think part of the responsibility will lie with you."

Mayer made some brief remarks complimenting everyone involved in the decision, which apparently prompted an angry response from Sagebrush Assistant Editor Hank Nuwer, who said he disagreed with the decision.

Nuwer said, "If you get a phone call like the one threatening to cut my baby in half and smear blood all over the wall, how can you say it's not an emotional issue? How about that asshole on the phone?" Nuwer then left the meeting.

Nuwer said later, "I thought the meeting was over. When I shouted my response, the Calley issue was apparently over, and he was supposed to receive $2,000 worth of ASUN funds. I disagreed with that decision vehemently; and I regretfully disagree with the senate's final decision because it threatens Calley's rights, even though Daemon (Filson, vice-president of Finance) and Karl (Hahn) had everyone's safety in mind. I think the most tragic part of this whole matter is that a lot of nice people are having their friendships strained because of a convicted mass-murderer who has proven how little respect he has for the rights and lives of others."

Filson, during discussion after the Activities Board proposal had been approved, said, "I think we made a poor decision. The main reason for the poor decision is that we might be endangering innocent people's lives and I think if there's even the slightest possibility of that, we shouldn't have the man on campus."

Senator Jack Reinhardt then moved to reconsider the previous action approving Calley for $2,000 plus expenses. This was done.

Larry Poye, during further discussion of the issue, said, "My press statement tomorrow will be to recommend to Asian-Americans not to come to the lecture for the basic reason that in the event of any violence we do not want to be implicated with anybody's death. It's a very emotional issue and if there's any death or injury, it's on your shoulders."

Mayer, asked about the threats, said, "The phone calls were a variety of threats. I think the Sagebrush got threats if Calley does not come.... My house received a threat that my mom would be shot twenty times so at the ASUN banquet we're going to give her twenty shots of bourbon.... It hasn't had any effect on my voting."

Senator May said, "Well, basically I feel that every individual has to answer to himself.... We cannot control everyone else. That's why we have a police force."

Senator Ferrari then moved to approve Calley for $2,000 plus expenses with a $1 admission charge for students and a $3 charge for the general public. The proceeds would be given to Bach Mai Hospital.

Poye supported the motion. He said that the money should go to Bach Mai, but said that he would rescind his support of the motion if it goes to South Vietnam. "If the money goes to South Vietnam," Poye said, "I rescind my motion, if it goes to Bach Mai, yes."

Hahn said, "I don't really care about national prestige.... I do worry about people being hurt, killed or maimed."

Sagebrush Editor Kelsie Harder said, "It's like what I've been telling Activities Board and everyone for two weeks; I told them I felt there should be a good alternative to what the ASUN's choices were. As far as giving the funds to Bach Mai Hospital, it's really a slap in the face for both sides. Because no one is going to ask the people who fought in Vietnam or those who want to pay to see Calley to legalize what when on in North Vietnam. And, on the other side, it's just as cruel that way."

After discussion, Ferrari rescinded his motion.

In further discussion, Hahn said, "Freedom of speech can only extend so far when there's a clear and present danger to someone else."

Senator Drakulich then moved that the senate disapprove the Activities Board action which would bring Calley here for $2,000 plus expenses.

Senator Diane Jensen said, "I would like to bring up this motion only because of the fact of the personal danger to anybody attending this (lecture) or before or after or whatever. I do not want it considered to be a victory for the Asian-American Alliance nor any other group on this campus that is against his coming here."

Harder then said, "UNR stands free and easy if they offer Calley his expenses and gate receipts, just as his agency has offered UNR the choice of a 'Yes' or 'No' to a contract for $2,000. ASUN has just as much legal right to offer Calley's agent gate and expenses. As far as danger, I've had threats, but I would not want to deny him (Calley) the right to speak if I had been threatened ten times. I'd still say let Calley come to Reno. I disagree with paying him with $2,000 of student monies. Yet we must protect his right of freedom of speech."

After discussion, the motion to disapprove the Activities Board decision was passed 13 to 5. Then, Senator Archer moved to pay Calley expenses and give Calley the price of admission receipts.

Discussing this motion, Tom Mayer said, "I don't want to influence your decision by saying there's been a threat against my family. I don't feel that's relevant. I do feel potential threats to those who attend and the cost of security is important."

Senator May said, "...it seems that there's a little lack of faith and courage that combined (with) a lack of faith with our police department — a lack of courage on everyone's part. You're living under the law now. You better hope it's good. I really feel that any compromise on this issue is really a blow to the fact that an individual or a body can make a decision based on ideals and what is best rather than the fear of danger and the fear of threat."

Mayer said, "It's still a moral issue of whether we should pay money or not. Regardless of where it comes from, you're still rewarding him. You're rewarding him by coming here. You should make your own arguments clear. If you don't want him here because of a moral issue, then you don't pay anything but his expenses, because that is a nice, polite way of saying 'No'. If you want him here then you have to give money because it's a business type of situation — you have to be competitive and that's the only way to get him here."

NEWS

Sutro sympathy

The Sutro Sympathy Orchestra, of recent Carson City fame, will be playing for a UNR dance to be held Wednesday night, February 26, in the UNR Gym.

Proceeds for the ASUN-sponsored dance will go partially to the Academy of Spiritual Arts, which is a state-recognized ASUN organization whose non-profit ventures include prison reform, Nevada Mental Health Institute, and Omega House programs.

Tickets will be 50 cents for ASUN students and $2.50 for the community, and will go on sale next week in the Activities Office.

Yearbook editor needed

Filing closes today for Artemisia Yearbook Editor position at 5 p.m. Applications are in the ASUN Office.

Many students at UNR would be qualified to hold this creative post next year. Where are you all? Don't be afraid to apply. If you've got ideas and think you'll be able to make the time, apply. You've got less than five hours.

Mackay days

It's already that time again to start thinking of this spring's Mackay Days.

Any energetic and interested student who would like to apply for Mackay Days Committee chairperson should come to the ASUN Office and discuss his or her qualifications. They'd like to locate the right person and get going on things as soon as possible.

Informational workshops

Women over the age of 25 who recently have returned to college, or are thinking about it, are invited to participate in a series of informational workshops at UNR.

The sessions, led by counselors Laurie Albright and Pat Dinger under the supervision of Jack F. Clarke, will deal with such topics as orientation to university life, activities and services available on campus, study skills and career information.

Meetings will be held in the Thompson Student Service Center from 3 to 5 p.m. on Feb. 18, Feb. 25 and March 4. Women interested in the programs may sign up by calling the Counseling and Testing Center.

New chairman

Nazir A. Ansari, professor of managerial sciences, was appointed chairman of the Managerial Sciences Department in the College of Business Administration, UNR.

Ansari's department, with 13 full-time faculty, offers courses leading to a four-year baccalaureate degree in the fields of Finance, Insurance, Management, Marketing, Real Estate and Business Law. The Department has approximately 400 students enrolled in its programs.

Slope: once a day does it

Yes—you read it right in Tuesday's Sagebrush. All-day skiing at Northstar-at-Tahoe for only $1, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, February 25, 26 and 27 during Northstar's UNR Centennial Ski Week.

Students, alumni, faculty and staff are eligible for this discount (regular all-day pass is $9), and must only present their respective UNR ID cards to qualify.

Northstar is a half-hour's drive out of Reno, off Highway 80 on 267. This is an ASUN-Northstar promotion for the entire UNR community.

A Question of Degree

Slide down to ASUN

Response to the ASUN's search for color slides of UNR has been great. Thanks to those students and faculty members who dropped theirs by, as most will be used.

More are still needed, so a selection of all representative areas of campus life will be available to choose from. Needed are specific events of recent vintage, and candid shots of student affairs—official or unofficial. Also, a few of student government (ASUN Senate or board meetings, for examples) would be appreciated.

Remember—all slides used will bring in $1 apiece—and all originals will be returned. Check through your files, and bring the best to Patrice in the ASUN Office as soon as possible. The high school visitation presentation for which they are intended must be completed by next week.

What if they gave an award

The 1975 Honors and Awards Convocation will be held on Thursday, May 8. As part of this annual program, a moment will be set aside for recognition of "The Outstanding Senior." The recipient is given, along with the honor, a plaque commemorating the presentation.

Applicants are now being considered for this award. If you feel qualified, or know a senior who is, please fill out an application in the ASUN Office by February 21. You have nothing to lose!

The UNR graduating senior who receives the Outstanding Senior Award will be considered the applicant who has contributed most for the betterment of the University, but has received little recognition for his or her services.

Last year's Award went to Sherry Straine, a Music-Education Major.

NOTES

Bride day named

Spring's not in the air, yet brides are everywhere! And all those brides, and their mothers and friends, are invited to the Associated Women Students (AWS) Bridal Fair, "That One Day," on Saturday, March 1.

It will be held in the Travis Student Lounge, from 1 to 3 p.m. You'll see a fashion show of men's and women's bridal attire, displays by a jewelry store, florist shop, portrait studio, and bakery, and will have an opportunity to talk with a clergyman and a gynecologist. Refreshments will be served.

Tickets are 50 cents for University students and $1 for non-students, and are available at the UNR Activities Office. Contact the ASUN Office, 784-6589, for additional information on the AWS Bridal Fair.

DRI president is a Renoite

Lloyd P. Smith, a Reno native with top scientific experience in both education and industry, was named acting president of UNR's Desert Research Institute.

Smith took over the DRI helm Monday from Dr. John M. Ward, who resigned abruptly Jan. 25 after a meeting with the Board of Regents. Ward had been the institute's chief executive officer since 1970.

Colin card

Tickets for the March 12 Jesse Colin Young concert are now on sale in the Activities Office.

This is a concert the ASUN has been trying to pin down for a long time, and you won't want to miss it. It will be in the UNR Gym, and Student Discount Tickets will be only $3.

Law and order?

Carson City—Motorists cited for speeding over 55 miles an hour in rural areas would be fined only $1 and have no demerit points charged against them under a bill introduced in the Assembly.

AB225, introduced by Zelvin Lowman, D-Las Vegas, provides that persons cited for speeding over 55 miles would be fined only $1 and have no demerit points charged against them if the violation occurred more than 25 miles from any city limits and outside a regulated speed zone.

The measure was referred to the Transportation Committee.

ASUN SENATE
February 12, 1975

The February 12th meeting of the ASUN Senate was called to order by Senate President, Linda Bowman at 7:10 p.m. Gilliam was excused from the meeting. O'Driscoll moved to dispense with the reading of the minutes of February 5. Archer seconded the motion, and it carried with none (0) opposed. There being no additions or corrections to the minutes of February 5, Archer moved to approve. Williams seconded the motion, and it carried with none (0) opposed.

REPORT OF THE ASUN PRESIDENT

A. Program and Budget: Tom reminded the members of the committee there will be a meeting on Tuesday, February 18 at 4:30 p.m. in the Ingersoll Room.

B. Committees: Tom announced again he needs students to serve on the Commencement Speaker Committee, the Outstanding Teacher Award Committee, and the Outstanding Senior Committee.

C. Legislature: Tom indicated he has been attending the legislative sessions this past week. He also reported the legislators have urged President Milam and Chancellor Humphrey to check into the possibility of a teacher-course evaluation.

REPORT OF THE SENATE PRESIDENT

Ms. Bowman reminded the senators filing for all offices opened Tuesday, February 11 and will close on Wednesday, February 26. Anyone interested should contact the ASUN Office.

REPORT OF THE VICE-PRESIDENT OF ACTIVITIES

A. Minutes of February 5: There being no questions or objections, Reinhardt moved to approve. Codega seconded the motion, and it carried with none (0) opposed.

B. Actions of February 12: Vice-President Hahn informed the board of the following actions requiring emergency approval:

B. Actions of February 12: (1) $220.00 allocation for the AWS Bridal Fair, (2) $850.00 for Spirit Sound for a concert by Sutro Sympathy Orchestra, (3) Recommendation of recognition for the Academy of Spiritual Arts. There being no objections, Land moved to approve the above actions. Mills seconded the motion, and it carried with none (0) opposed.

Calley Issue

Next, Mr. Hahn informed the senators the board approved William Calley for $2000.00 plus expenses by a vote of 4 to 3. President Mayer offered a compromise to the issue. He suggested the senate approve a motion of $2000.00 plus expenses for Calley, plus charge $1.00 for admission which would be used to reimburse the ASUN account. Anything above the costs would go to a charitable organization. Senator Hollis moved to approve Mayer's suggestion. Pearce seconded the motion.

Senator O'Driscoll told the senators he feels Calley does not want to come to speak to give his side of the story, or he would accept the offer to come for expenses only. Further, Mr. O'Driscoll stated he doesn't think Calley would be a competent speaker.

Senator Archer told the senators and members of the audience he feels the campus is facing a crisis with this issue. He indicated the members of the community he spoke with are against Calley speaking here. He further stated ASUN would be condoning Calley's actions if they paid him to speak.

Senator Williams told the senators he feels the Calley issue was a "scapegoat job." He stated he did not condone Mr. Calley's actions, but would like to hear him speak, as would other students. He further indicated he took an informal poll in his classes and 60 to 75% favored bringing Calley here to speak. Mr. Williams stated ASUN has an obligation to represent those students who voted to bring Calley here, just as it does to those students who voted against his lecture.

B. Actions of February 12: Senator Land informed the senators she felt there would not be enough admission taken at the door to pay any money to a charity.

Senator Hollis told the students in the audience and the senators he took an informal poll also in his classes, and 70% of the students were in favor of bringing Calley here to speak. He also stated it was his opinion pressure was exerted on students to vote "no" on the petitions. It was also his opinion that there would indeed be enough people in attendance at this lecture to pay for the lecture and give money to a charity.

Senator Engstrom pointed out to the senators the Asian American Alliance gathered about 139 signatures to bring Calley here for expenses only. She further explained she was opposed to the motion on the floor because money would still be paid Calley. She urged senators to think about their moral obligation in this issue.

Senator Morgan told the senators there was a majority of students who wished Calley to speak here. He further stated there were enough "yes" signatures to justify his lecture.

At this time, Reinhardt called for the question. The motion to call for the question carried with one nay vote (Pearce). A roll call vote was next taken on the motion to approve $2000.00 plus expenses and charge $1.00 admission, the money of which would be used to reimburse the ASUN account and any remaining to go to charity. The motion was defeated with 13 opposed (Archer, O'Driscoll, Codega, Drakulich, Engstrom, Jensen, Land, Mills, Morgan, O'Bleness, Reinhardt, Williams, Gissel) and 5 in favor (Ferrari, Hollis, May, Pecorilla, and Pearce).

R. Actions of February 12: Next, Senator Ferrari moved to approve Calley to speak for $2000.00 plus expenses with a $1.00 admission charge, the money of which would go to the Bach Mai Hospital or some similar Vietnamese charity. May seconded the motion.

Mr. Hahn told the senators present that the following are items to consider in bringing William Calley here to speak:

(1) There have been several threats made to persons on both sides of this issue, and the threat of danger to persons attending the lecture, as well as Mr. Calley himself, is a possibility to consider, (2) There will be a security problem. Could ASUN ever get enough security to handle possible violence? Mr. Hahn stated he was sorry for Mr. Calley's actions, but hopes that, by bringing him here to speak, he would not be responsible for any more violence.

Senator Jensen called for the question on the motion by Senator Ferrari. The question carried with 11 in favor and 7 opposed. A roll call vote was next taken on the motion, and it was defeated with 12 opposed (Archer, O'Driscoll, Codega, Drakulich, Engstrom, Jensen, Land, Mills, Morgan, O'Bleness, Williams, Gissel) and 6 in favor (Ferrari, Hollis, May, Pecorilla, Reinhardt, Pearce).

Next, O'Driscoll moved to disapprove the Activities Board action concerning the approval of William Calley for $2000.00 plus expenses. Archer seconded the motion.

Senator Gissel told the senators it was his opinion William Calley was not worth the $2000.00 plus expenses for his lecture. He and Senator Hollis expressed the opinion that Moshe Dayan was not worth the money paid him either.

It was pointed out by Mr. Perriera that Mr. Calley would not be speaking about My Lai. He will be speaking about the military industrial complex.

B. Actions of February 12: Senator Williams called for the question on the motion to disapprove the Activities Board action of Calley for $2000.00 plus expenses. The question carried with three nay votes (Engstrom, Archer, O'Driscoll). A roll call vote was taken on the motion, and it was defeated with 11 opposed (Codega, Ferrari, Hollis, Jensen, May, Morgan, O'Bleness, Pecorilla, Reinhardt, Williams, Pearce) and 7 in favor (Archer, O'Driscoll, Drakulich, Engstrom, Land, Mills, Gissel).

Senator Williams next moved to approve the action of the Activities Board in approving Calley for $2000.00 and expenses. May seconded the motion. Brief discussion followed on this motion, and Filson called for the question. The motion to call for the question carried with 11 in favor and 5 opposed, and 2 not voting. A roll call vote was then taken on the motion to approve the action of Activities Board for Calley at $2000.00 plus expenses. The motion carried with ten in favor (Codega, Ferrari, Hollis, Jensen, May, Morgan, O'Bleness, Pecorilla, Williams, Pearce) and 8 opposed (Archer, O'Driscoll, Drakulich, Engstrom, Land, Mills, Reinhardt, Gissel).

At this point, Mr. Hahn impressed upon the senators the reality of the previous decision. He again expressed his great concern about security for this lecture. He stated it is highly possible someone could get hurt at this lecture, because of the extreme emotional impact of this issue.

Assistant Editor of the Sagebrush, Hank Nuwer, told the senators he really disagreed with the senate's decision. He asked the senators to realize the responsibility of this decision.

Mr. Filson expressed his concern over innocent lives that might be endangered by this action.

B. Actions of February 12: With these comments in mind, Senator Reinhardt moved to reconsider the previous action by the Senate, in which it approved William Calley for $2000.00 plus expenses. O'Driscoll seconded the motion.

Senator O'Driscoll recognized Larry Poye of the Asian American Alliance. Mr. Poye told the senators he would recommend all the Asian American students not to attend the lecture, in the event violence occurs, and members of the organization are held suspect for any violent acts. He strongly urged the senators to realize the gravity of the past decision to bring Calley here.

Senator May asked the senators to keep in mind each individual must answer for his/her own decisions. He asked the senators to have faith in the security by UNPD and other agencies for the proposed lecture. He expressed the opinion that adequate security could be maintained.

Mr. Filson called for the question on the motion to reconsider the previous action. The question carried with 14 in favor and 4 opposed. A roll call vote was then taken on the motion to reconsider, and it carried with 13 in favor (Archer, O'Driscoll, Codega, Drakulich, Engstrom, Ferrari, Jensen, Land, Mills, O'Bleness, Pecorilla, Reinhardt, Gissel) and 5 opposed (Hollis, May, Morgan, Williams, Pearce).

Senator Archer moved to recess for 5 minutes. Ferrari seconded the motion, and it carried with none (0) opposed.

The senators reconvened. Senator Ferrari moved to approve $2000.00 for Calley plus a $1.00 charge for students and a $3.00 charge for non-students, the admission charge proceeds of which will be given to the Bach Mai Hospital. Reinhardt seconded the motion. (NOTE: BECAUSE THIS MOTION AND THE OTHER MOTION MADE BY SENATOR FERRARI CONCERNING THE FUNDS TO GO TO CHARITY ARE A PART OF THE OFFICIAL RECORD, THEY MUST BE INCLUDED. HOWEVER, IT SHOULD BE POINTED OUT THAT SENATOR FERRARI APPROACHED ME FOLLOWING THE MEETING AND REQUESTED I INCLUDE IN THE RECORD THE FACT THAT HE MADE AN ERROR IN MAKING THE MOTION, AND WISHES IT KNOWN HE DOES NOT SUPPORT GIVING FUNDS TO ANY NORTH VIETNAMESE ACTIVITIES)

B. Actions of February 12: Mr. Larry Poye told the senators he supported Mr. Ferrari's motion. Senator Jensen called for the question on the motion. The question was defeated.

Mr. Hahn told the senators he cares nothing about the national coverage or prestige this issue will give UNR. He explained his main concern is over the safety of persons attending a lecture by William Calley.

Tim Gorelangton told the senators they should disapprove of Calley because they do not want him to speak because of the moral issue, not just because of the possible dangers.

Codega proposed the motion be amended to donation only by those persons attending the lecture. Senators Ferrari and Reinhardt did not approve of this amendment.

Senator Engstrom recognized Kelsie Harder. Mr. Harder stated he was not in favor of this motion. He stated if expenses were offered Calley to speak, there would be no problem with freedom of speech. Yet, those students who wished their funds not be spent to bring Calley would be satisfied.

At this time, Senator Ferrari withdrew his motion, with the permission of his second, Reinhardt.

Senator May read an excerpt from an ACLU booklet emphasizing the right of student governments to approve lectures, such as Calley. The booklet stated, in approving the lecture, no opinion either way is automatically derived of the student government on speakers' actions or beliefs.

Mr. Hahn told Mr. May and the other senators that "freedom of speech" can go only as far as there is a "clear and present danger" established in assuring "freedom of speech." He estimated this was just such a case where there is a "clear and present danger."

B. Actions of February 12: Senator Drakulich moved to disapprove the action of the Activities Board in approving William Calley for $2000.00 plus expenses. Land seconded the motion.

Senator Jensen told the senators she would vote for this motion only because of the possible danger to lives if the lecture is held. She wished it understood that the opposition should in no way regard this a victory.

Mr. Harder stated this motion does, in effect, deny William Calley the right to freedom of speech. He again suggested the senate offer Calley expenses and admission to speak.

Senator Archer called for the question on the motion. The question carried with two nay votes (Hollis and May)

A roll call vote was then taken on the motion to disapprove the action of the Activities Board. The motion carried with 13 in favor (Archer, O'Driscoll, Drakulich, Engstrom, Ferrari, Jensen, Land, Mills, O'Bleness, Pecorilla, Reinhardt, Williams, Gissel) and 5 opposed (Codega, Hollis, May, Morgan and Pearce).

Senator Archer next moved to approve Calley by paying his expenses and giving him the gate. Engstrom seconded the motion.

President Mayer told the senators, in his opinion, this motion was still rewarding Calley.

Senator Ferrari called for the question on the motion. The question carried with 10 in favor, 7 opposed, and 1 not voting. A roll call vote was taken on the motion to pay Calley expenses and the gate. The motion carried with 10 in favor (Archer, O'Driscoll, Drakulich, Engstrom, Ferrari, Jensen, Morgan, Reinhardt, Pearce, Gissel) and 8 opposed (Codega, Hollis, Land, May, Mills, O'Bleness, Pecorilla, Williams).

B. Actions of February 12: Many senators were displeased with the previously passed motion because no qualification was given for the gate. Senator Hollis moved to amend the previous motion by stipulation the gate to be donation by students and $3.00 for non-students. Codega seconded the motion.

Mr. Filson again emphasized the question of safety for persons attending this lecture.

Senator Archer called for the question on the motion to amend the previous motion to qualify the gate. The question carried with 4 opposed (Mills, May, O'Driscoll, and Williams).

A roll call vote was taken, and the motion carried with 11 in favor (Archer, Codega, Drakulich, Engstrom, Ferrari, Hollis, Jensen, Morgan, Reinhardt, Pearce, Gissel) and 7 opposed (O'Driscoll, Land, May, Mills, O'Bleness, Pecorilla, Williams).

AT THIS TIME, SENATOR MIKE MAY RESIGNED FROM THE SENATE WITH THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT: "I FEEL THIS BODY, WHO ORIGINALLY VOTED IN FAVOR OF CALLEY, HAS BEEN PREJUDICED BY FEAR, LACK OF COURAGE AND FAITH. I CAN NO LONGER SERVE IN GOOD CONSCIENCE, SO I RESIGN."

Senator Williams next stated he has seen there is a great chance people will get hurt at this lecture. With this in mind, Williams moved to reconsider the previous action just approved. Jensen seconded the motion.

Senator Land stated she felt some senators were hypocritical by voting to pay Calley's expenses and give him the gate, when the same people voted not to bring Calley for the $2000.00. Senators Archer and O'Driscoll stated they did not feel they were being hypocritical, as the agency has already stated Calley will not come except for the $2000.00 plus expenses.

B. Actions of February 12: Filson next called for the question on the motion to reconsider. The question carried with one nay vote (Hollis). A roll call vote was then taken on the motion to reconsider, and it carried with 13 in favor (Archer, O'Driscoll, Codega, Drakulich, Ferrari, Jensen, Land, Mills, O'Bleness, Pecorilla, Reinhardt, Williams, Gissel) and 4 opposed (Engstrom, Hollis, Morgan, Pearce).

Student, John Martin, told the senators he sees two clear issues at this point: (1) Is Calley worth it? (2) What are the risks of danger, and will there ever be adequate security for this lecture?

Senator Williams moved to NOT INVITE Calley to come to this campus to speak. Land seconded the motion.

Senator Engstrom stated this motion would deny William Calley the freedom to speak, and urged against its passage.

Senator Jensen called for the question, and it carried with none (0) opposed. A roll call vote was then taken on the motion to not invite Calley to speak. The motion carried with 11 in favor (Archer, O'Driscoll, Drakulich, Jensen, Land, Mills, O'Bleness, Pecorilla, Reinhardt, Williams, Gissel), and 6 opposed (Codega, Engstrom, Ferrari, Hollis, Morgan, Pearce).

Senator Ferrari moved to move on to the order of the agenda. Williams seconded the motion.

Public Relations Director, Patrice Bingham urged the senators to make some public statement about the reasons for not inviting Calley to speak.

With that in mind, Ferrari moved to file a majority and minority opinion of the reasons Senate did not invite Calley to speak and send it to his agent, American Program Bureau. Engstrom seconded the motion.

Student, Mr. Tim Gorelangton told the senators this body

B. Actions of February 12: is a legislative one, and not required to give any reasons for its actions. Senator Williams agreed this body owes American Program Bureau no explanation at all.

Senator Drakulich called for the question on the motion to file opinions. The question carried with none (0) opposed. A roll call vote was taken on the motion, and it was defeated with 13 opposed (Archer, O'Driscoll, Codega, Drakulich, Jensen, Land, Mills, Morgan, O'Bleness, Reinhardt, Williams, Pearce, Gissel) and 3 in favor (Engstrom, Ferrari, Hollis).

REPORT OF THE VICE-PRESIDENT OF FINANCE AND PUBLICATIONS

A. Publications Board Minutes of February 10 and Finance Control Board Minutes of February 6: Daemon asked for any questions on either sets of minutes. It was pointed out the $118.75 allocation by the FCB for Mike May's project should be removed from approval. Senator Jensen moved to approve the Publications Board and Finance Control Board minutes with the exception of the allocation of $118.75 for the Senate Rules and Action Committee's project. Morgan seconded the motion, and it carried with none (0) opposed.

ADJOURNMENT

There being no further business, Drakulich moved to adjourn the meeting. Mills seconded the motion, and it carried with none (0) opposed. The meeting adjourned at 9:45 p.m.

Calley not to be invited

Vice-president Filson said, "I think the motion is ridiculous.... I agree with Karl (Hahn) that the first priority is the question of other people's safety at the present time, and I think for that reason, again, we should not have the man on campus."

After further discussion, the motion was approved by a vote of 10 to 8. Senator Hollis then moved that the admission charge be by donation only for students and $3 for the general public. This motion was approved by an 11 to 7 vote.

Senator May then resigned. May said, "Prior to hearing the man, I feel this body, who originally voted in favor of Calley has been prejudiced through fear, through your own lack of faith in the law and police enforcement, and I personally can no longer serve this body of people in good conscience and I resign from the Senate." May left the building.

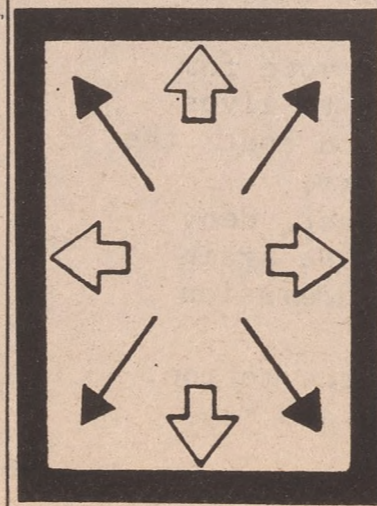

Senator Hollis said, "I hate to see Mike (May) go like this, but I feel the way he does. I feel the police department and UNPD can handle this."

Senator Williams said, "I hope we wouldn't have anything such as a 'Jack Ruby' incident. I move to rescind the last action and not invite Calley to speak because, one, I don't believe letting a minority decide for a group like ourselves — for the whole campus. I feel that's what happened. As soon as we start talking about threats and phone calls everyone wanted to rescind the decision. That's chicken shit. We are in a very violent situation. There is a chance of people getting hurt. Two, everybody here really and truly wants to hear one thing from that man: the My Lai incident. It's not going to happen more than likely. Pete's (Perreira) attested to that. It's utterly fruitless for us to have him here.... The situation has grown to such proportions that we should not even have him on campus.... It's for our own safety, our own interest, for the student body's interest, for the man's interest, we should start thinking about this very intelligently and stop this petty bullshit going on."

Senator Land said, "As far as Mike May getting up and quitting, that just goes to show how irrational people can get when they get hot and heavy and hot under the collar and just quit. He was just saying that people don't get irrational and we are good examples of that — well, he just walked out."

The motion to reconsider the previous action — bringing Calley here for expenses plus gate — passed by a 13 to 4 vote.

Williams moved to not invite Calley to come on this campus to speak. The motion passed by an 11 to 6 vote.

A witty conservative?

Nicholas Von Hoffman, will appear here Feb. 18, as part of the ASUN-Centennial Lecture Series.

The free, 8 p.m. lecture will be held in the old UNR Gym. Forty-six year old Von Hoffman is a syndicated political columnist for the Washington Post, where he began working in 1966. As author of several books, including Mississippi Notebook, Multiuniversity, We Are the People Our Parents Warned Against, Left at the Post and Fireside Watergate, Von Hoffman has earned the "witty conservative" label.

No one can really predict what Von Hoffman is going to say next. In a career that started as an associate director of the Industrial Areas Foundation of Chicago, he achieved second-string notoriety as Saul Alinsky's top agitator.

He was a member of the staff of the Chicago Daily News from 1963-66, and was until recently featured on CBS's "Sixty Minutes." It is said his steadfast refusal to adopt a consistent political or social viewpoint gets him fan mail from personalities as diverse as Barry Goldwater and J. William Fulbright.

Perhaps Von Hoffman appeals to all of us because of our secret desire to throw a tomato at all of "them." (He also gets letters from the Young Americans for Freedom and the Black Panthers!)

A question-and-answer period will follow the lecture.

At That Speed, The 403 Pages Come Across With More Impact Than The Movie.

You can do it, too. So far over 550,000 other people have done it. People who have different jobs, different IQs, different interests, different educations have completed the course. Our graduates are people from all walks of life. These people have all taken a course developed by Evelyn Wood, a prominent educator. Practically all of them at least tripled their reading speed with equal or better comprehension. Most have increased it even more.

Think for a moment what that means. All of them—even the slowest—now read an average novel in less than two hours. They read an entire issue of Time or Newsweek in 35 minutes. They don't skip or skim. They read every word. They use no machines. Instead, they let the material they're reading determine how fast they read. And mark this well: they actually understand more, remember more, and enjoy more than when they read slowly. That's right! They understand more. They remember more. They enjoy more. You can do the same thing—the place to learn more about it is at a free speed reading lesson.

This is the same course President Kennedy had his Joint Chiefs of Staff take. The staff of President Nixon completed this course in June 1970. The same one Senators and Congressmen have taken.

Come to a Mini-Lesson and find out. It is free to you and you will leave with a better understanding of why it works. One thing that might bother you about your reading speed is that someone might find out how slow it is. The instructors at the Evelyn Wood Reading Dynamics Free Speed Reading lesson will let you keep your secret. It's true we practice the first step to improved reading at a Mini-Lesson and we will increase your reading speed on the spot, but the results will remain your secret. Plan to attend a free Mini-Lesson and learn that it is possible to read 3-4-5 times faster, with comparable comprehension.

Babaa lecture on Middle East

ENGSTROM

The Arab countries are trying to recreate a United States of America, said Khalid Babaa, director of the League of Arab States Office for the Western Region.

Babaa was in Reno to speak on Monday. He came here after General Moshe Dayan spoke on campus but said that was not the only reason. He wanted to make himself available to students so they could know the other viewpoint.

He said, "We have to have various viewpoints to reach mature, positive judgments. The Arab viewpoint is seldom known and often misrepresented."

Babaa continued, "There is a great deal of myth-information and distorted ideas in America. The American press does not represent the feeling of the majority of Americans. They represent the interests of special groups. Many people here support the Arab viewpoint but are afraid to talk publicly about it."

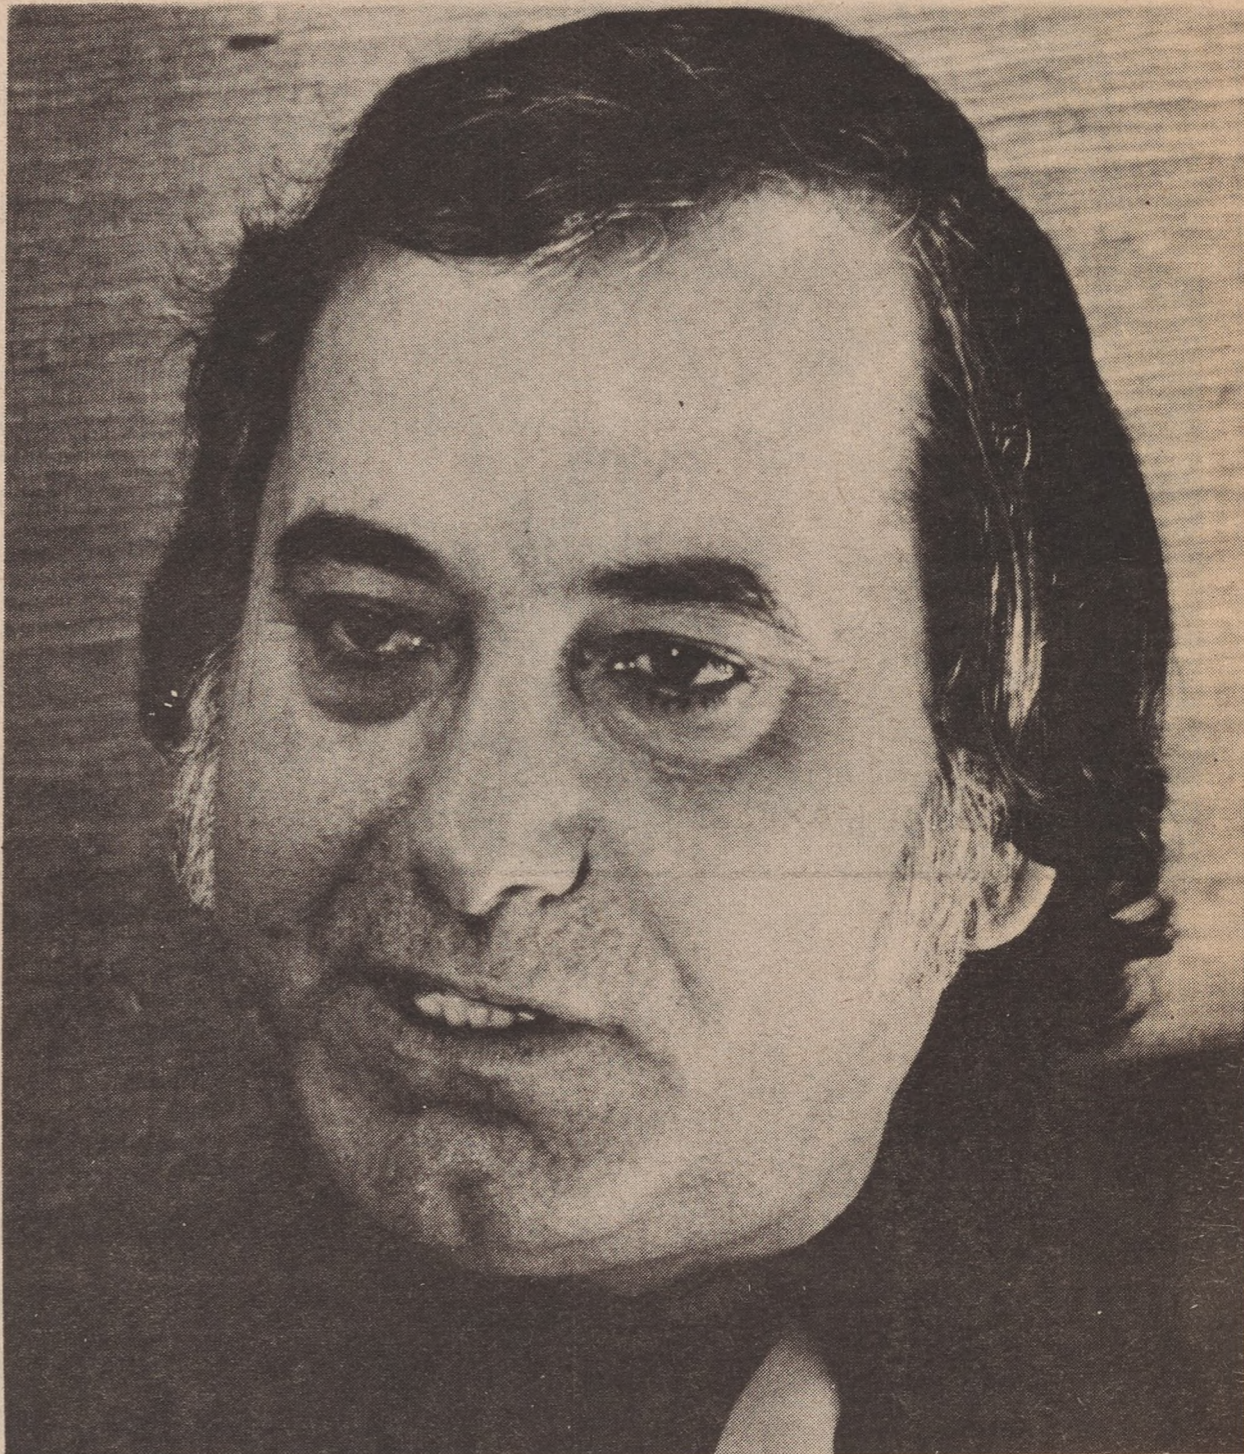

He said one of the misrepresentations about the Arab countries was their feelings towards Israel. He said the Arab countries have recognized Israel through the United Nations Security Council resolution. He said Israel did not agree with the document because it called for them to withdraw to the 1967 borders.

This means they would give up Sinai, the Golan Heights, Gozaa Strip, the West Bank, and the East part of Jerusalem. He said it is also necessary for them to recognize the rights of the Palestinian people in regard to self-defense and sovereignty.

He said another thing the Israelis did in regard to the Arab countries was in their treatment of the Palestinian refugees. Babaa said, "The main problem is that these refugees were denied repatriation and self-determination. They were denied the right of a Homeland. This is not only a political issue but a humanitarian one."

Babaa said the Arabs that still live in Israel are treated as fourth class citizens. He said the European-American Jews are the first class citizens. The native born Jew, the sabras, are the second class citizens. The Asian and African Jews are the third class citizens.

He said, "They are discriminated against in every aspect of their life. They are discriminated in education, employment, seizure of property, and even in where they can travel in Israel. They cannot be in the Foreign Office, the Education Office, or in the labor unions. There are 400,000 Arab people but only four Arabs serve in the Parliament."

Who will they protect the fields from? The United States?

He said the terror actions of many Arab groups can be understood. Babaa said, "When there is occupation there is always the need for liberation. Israel itself was created by terror. Two wrongs do not make a right but you must realize that Israel is bombing refugee camps killing old men, women and children."

The United States government misrepresented the oil price hike to the public, Babaa said. He said the government labeled the hike as blackmail, not self-defense. He said when the United States used the same tactics against Cuba and China, it was labeled self-defense.

Babaa also reminded people that much of the high cost is due to the American oil companies. He said, "These companies exploited Arabs for many years. Other commodity prices went up but not the price of oil. Finally it became imperative that the prices must rise in comparison to other prices. We also had to get some compensation for what the other countries took the last 20 years. It's time we do business on a business basis."

He said that there has not been time to sift the new money down to the populace. He said there has not been enough time to implement projects to raise the well-being of the people. He said they first want to use the money to support the well-being of the other countries, then support the development of emerging African countries, and finally invest the money in American and European industries. He said the Arabs want to contribute to America and Europe by investment. He said last year they invested 11 billion dollars in United States industry and 7 billion in government bonds.

Babaa said, "There's been a lot of bad publicity about the Arab investments, but if they don't want the money then don't take it. If our money is no good here, then don't invest your money in our countries."

Henry Kissinger, secretary of state, recently said the United States government has not ruled out the possibility of using force to take over the Arab oil fields. The Arabs, Babaa said, took it very lightly.

He said, "We know it couldn't happen under any circumstances. We have news that the Defense Department has agreed with a corporation in Los Angeles to have about 1,000 former G.I.'s trained as national guards of Saudi Arabia's oil fields. Who will they protect the fields from? The United States."

He said there are two schools of thought as to why Kissinger said that. He said one school is that Kissinger was trying to scare the Arabs. He said the second school is that Kissinger hoped it would exasperate the situation so that both parties would accept compromises that he thought were fair.

Babaa said that in spite of the difficulties with the American government, he would like to recreate a similar government. He said, "We want to promote agriculture, industry, social and cultural centers, and the economy. We are countries with a very old religion and new modernization. We need to build schools and factories."

He said the present situation is that one part of the world has the technology and one part has the wealth. Babaa said, "The United States rediscovered the Arabs in 1974 and the Arabs found wealth in 1974. We hope the United States will be able to cope with the situation in 1975."

Babaa said another challenge to the United States was to redefine their foreign policy goals. He said their current policy is obviously not working.

Babaa concluded, "The United States should not follow a policy of pro-anyone. They should follow one of pro-American. They should have a policy of even-handedness. That would be the best policy."

Officers selected

Installation for the newly elected officers of the Student Member Section of the American Home Economics Association was last Tuesday in the Sarah Hamilton Fleischmann Room. Students and faculty of the School of Home Economics were invited to attend.

The American Home Economics Association is concerned with individuals and families in achieving a better quality of life. Home economics students are preparing for this profession.

The new officers installed were Bonnie Volgler, President; Rhonda Bevalacqua, Vice-President; Kareen Hansen, Secretary-Treasurer; Sherrill Conley, Historian; Dorothy Gallagher, Publications Chairman. Class Representatives are Jackie McEwen, Senior Class; Joni Johnson, Junior Class; and Barbara Rawlins, Sophomore Class.

YWCA classes

The Reno-Sparks YWCA will begin a special Friday night program beginning this Friday at 7 p.m. The program will include indoor volleyball, folk dancing, ping pong and other games, a modeling and fashion class and an open snack bar.

Volleyball teams will be formed by age group and are open to men, women, boys and girls.

The folk dancing class taught by Debra Breger will feature Balkan and mid-Eastern dances including Turkish, Yugoslavian, Armenian, Bulgarian, Hungarian and Greek as well as special dances from other countries.

A modeling and fashion class will be taught by Pattie Olsen. This is a six-week course designed to cover basic make-up, make-up correction, care and grooming, body conditioning, cosmetic clothing, walking, kneeling, sitting and photography modeling. The class will be open to girls from 7 to 11 years of age and from 12 to 18 years of age.

Pre-registration will be necessary for these Friday night classes as size of class is limited. For more information, call the YWCA at 322-4531.

Pack back on road

The UNR basketball team is back on the road this weekend traveling to the Bay Area. Head coach Jim Padgett expects another tough weekend for the Pack, who are 2-7 in West Coast Athletic competition and 10-11 overall.

"Santa Clara and USF are both playing good basketball right now," said Padgett. "Santa Clara is a very aggressive team and USF has probably the best physical talent in the conference."

Santa Clara, tonight's opponent, is currently 3-5 in the WCAC and 9-11 overall. USF, Saturday's league foe, is 6-2 in the conference and 16-4 overall. The Dons are in second place in the WCAC behind the streaking UNLV Rebels, who have a perfect 9-0 league mark. As of now, USF is the only team in the conference who poses a serious threat of knocking off the Rebels this year.

The Santa Clara Broncos are led by forwards Jerry Bellotti and Remel Diggs. The Dons will be led by guard Tony Styles and forward Marlon Redmond.

Redmond, a 6-6 sophomore and native of the Bay Area, currently leads the WCAC in individual rebounding with a 13.1 game average. He is also fourth in league scoring with a 20.5 game mark.

In the first meeting of Santa Clara and USF several weeks ago in the Centennial Coliseum, Nevada lost to both opponents, first to Santa Clara, 80-73, and then to San Francisco, 77-68.

The Pack will be a slightly different and improved ball team with their rematches this weekend. For the past several games, Nevada has been getting excellent play from guards Mike Mardian and Joey Schmidt.

"We're getting super play from our guards," said head coach Padgett. Mardian scored 20 points, leading the Pack to its win over St. Mary's. Schmidt added 14 points in the win.

Besides Mardian's scoring ability, the 6-2 junior is also a ball stealing threat and fine free throw shooter. His quick hands and moves always credit him with four or five steals a game, while the latest WCAC statistics show him leading the league in free throw percentage. He's perfect for the season, hitting 15 of 15 attempted.

Mardian is also third in total assists with an average of five a game. Schmidt is fifth with a 4.2 average.

Perry Campbell continues to lead the Wolf Pack in scoring with a 21.3 average. The 6-5 junior is third in the WCAC scoring, averaging 21.4 a game.

Forward Pete Padgett, who has a league scoring average of 14.3, is fourth among the leading rebounders. He's averaging 11.3 grabs a contest.

Nevada boxers top card

It wasn't an "Oldies but Goodies" night in the Nevada gym Monday, but it might have appeared that way. The Wolf Pack boxing team hosted a match which included two former NCAA champions, alumni, Western Nevada Community College boxers and Emory Chapman.

The most interesting bout of the evening card was the exhibition contest between the two former NCAA champions, Joe Bliss and Mills Lane. It was a long absence from the ring for the former Pack boxers, but they proved that they had some fight left in them.

The 38-year-old Lane, who is a chief criminal deputy for Washoe County, won the NCAA 147-pound championship in 1960. Bliss, who is 41, was inducted into UNR's Hall of Fame two years ago.

In another exhibition bout, Emory Chapman had two opponents to contend with. Not at the same time, of course, but it probably didn't matter to the tough former Pack ringman.

Chapman, a UNR pre-med student, went two rounds with former UNR boxer and friend, Jim Evans. After six minutes with Evans, Chapman then took on another former Pack boxer of 1963-64, Gary Silverman. But the bout only lasted a round when Chapman connected with a quick right to Silverman's lip.

Pack boxer Jim Morgan won one of the most impressive bouts of the evening. Morgan, fighting his final season for the silver and blue, won a split decision over WNCC's Chuck Sampson in a 132-pound bout.

Morgan's bout, one of nine bouts fought on an original 16-bout card, gave him his fourth victory this season without a defeat.

In a 180-pound, the Pack's Jim Krtinich won a technical knockout (TKO) victory over WNCC's Ken Bender. Bender, 1972 Hawthorne High School graduate, was worked over in the first two rounds. Then Krtinich drove Bender into a corner with a flurry of fists, until the fight was stopped.

WNCC lost its third fight of the evening when Mike Zarramipa was decided by Nevada's Preston Fortney.

Nevada alumni boxers got into the action when Dick Short and the Pack's Dave Nevin exchanged blows for three rounds. Nevada's Bob Kimberlin, who was supposed to meet William LaLow of Carson City, wound up fighting an exhibition match with teammate Pat Hickey, at 112-pounds.

Nevada fighters, Reggie Brantley, Pat Hickey, Frank Kight, Dave Billings, and Dave Jarstad were supposed to meet opponents from Stewart Indian School. But apparently the high school fighters could not compete on the same card as the collegians.

Skiers in Boise

It's off to Boise, Idaho for the UNR ski team, as they try to win the annual Boise State Ski Meet Championship today and tomorrow.

The Pack will be pitted against some very fine schools, such as Boise State, Montana, Idaho State, Brigham Young University, the College of Idaho, and Westminster of Salt Lake City.

The Pack, who just returned from a meet at Squaw Valley, will have to start getting it together soon. "We will have to show well in the meet," said head coach Clint Monfalcone. "We have the Pacific Coast championships coming up and the NCAA's," he said.

The two-day meet will feature the downhill event this morning, the cross-country this afternoon and the slalom event tomorrow morning.

Frank Andreas, Paul Abare, Denny Waters and John Talbott will ski the Alpine events for the Pack, while Jeff Mortimer, Dave Thomasberg, and freshman sensation Borre Fossli will ski the Nordic events.

Keith Kulby, Nevada's Winter Carnival Skimeister winner, will not make the Boise trip because of a sprained knee which happened during practice last week.

Boxers meet Chico Monday

The Wolf Pack boxing team will compete against Chico State Monday, February 17, in the UNR old gym.

Eleven bouts have been scheduled. On the card are Bob Kimberlin, Pat Hickey, Jim Morgan, Dave Nevin, Dave and Gus Billings, Jim Krtinich and Dave Jarstad.

It is the Wolf Pack's second intercollegiate match this season. They lost their first match to the University of California, Berkeley.

The competition will begin at 8 p.m.
